NEW LAW SAYS STUDENTS MUST VOTE BY MAIL

Students Must Register and Vote in Home Precincts Is New State Law.

INTENT OF LAW IS GOOD

New Law Protects Townspeople in Local Issues Against Overwhelming Student Vote.

Ohio election laws provide that students at a college or university shall register and vote in their home towns, according to a recent revision of the law that was made last April.

Students living in a town of more than 11,800 must register in their home precincts. If they are more than fifty miles from home this can be done by mail.

The law definitely states that a student cannot have residence in a college town unless he is willing to make affidavit that he intends to live in the town after graduation.

The intent of the law is good. It aims to keep local elections from being controlled by student vote. It is not designed to prevent the student from voting. The purpose of the law is to protect the people of a college town against student vote. In many college towns the student vote on bond issues, officials and local issues over-rides the vote of those who have the local interest more nearly at heart. The law is a good one and puts the student vote where it really belongs.

E. C. Worman Speaks

Monday, E. C. Worman, '07, senior secretary of the International Y. M. C. A. gave a short address in the chapel service. Mr. Worman gave a brief report of the convention recently held at Lake Placid, N. Y. He also gave an address before the students of the department of Sociology.

CLASS TEAMS CHOSEN

Freshman and Sophomore Teams Selected and Begin Work for Annual Debate.

Both the Sophomore and Freshman debate teams were chosen during the past week. A number of men tried out for both teams and men of exceptional talent will represent the two teams.

Those landing berths on the Sophomore team are Harrold, Kellar, Laporte and Brown. The second year men will be coached by Professor McCarty.

Those picked for the Freshman team were Stuckey, Harsh, Knight and Gantz. Professor Troop will coach the Frosh.

The teams will begin work at once in preparation for the debate to be held December 11. The two teams meet that night competing for the Cox prize of twenty-five dollars.

The question for debate will be the same as for the Varsity teams, "Resolved, That the United States and Canada should jointly construct the St. Lawrence deep sea water-way."

On the toss for sides of the question the Sophomores won and chose to support the affirmative side.

Varsity "O" Association to Sell Souvenir Footballs

During Home-coming Day members of the Varsity "O" Association will sell souvenir footballs in an effort to make some money to carry on its work. The Varsity "O" is going to be a live organization on the campus this year and this movement is the first event of the 1924-25 program of the "O" Association. Don't fail to buy a souvenir football.

VARSITY LAUNCHES AIR ATTACK AND EASILY DEFEATS HIRAM 18-0

ON TO WESLEYAN!

Next Saturday the Varsity team will journey to Delaware to meet Ohio Wesleyan on Edwards Field. This game can practically be considered a home game because it is comparatively easy for many students to attend the game. This game will be the first opportunity for the majority of the students to see the team in action and from present indications many Otterbeinites will attend the game.

There is no reason why every student should not go and help support the team. Let's all go to Wesleyan!

Game Go On Sale Tuesday

Tickets for the football game with Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware Saturday will be sale on the campus Tuesday morning. Your ticket here at Otterbein will cost only 75c but if you wait and buy at Delaware Saturday you will have to pay $1.00. Tickets will be sold to townspeople for $1.00. Buy your tickets in Westerville for the Athletic Department will get half of the receipts of all the tickets sold here.

Tickets will be sold by the following students—Paul Garver, Merl Killinger, Floyd McGuire, Don Howard, George Gohn, Christena Wahl, Margaret Widdoes and Florence Howard. Tickets will also be on sale at Norris', Freeman's and the University Bookstore.

Score Three Times

Otterbein Eleven Hands Hiram Her Fourth Consecutive Defeat for Year.

PASSES WORK WELL

Game is Played in Hiram Territory—Opponents Never Threaten Tan Goal Line.

The Big Tan came into its own on Hiram's field last Saturday and presented the Disciples with the meager end of the 18-0 score. For the second consecutive year the Tan and Cardinal conquered the Cherry and Blue, giving Otterbein her first victory of the season and leaving the upstaters with their fourth consecutive defeat. Throughout the game the Hiram outfit was only inside the Otterbein thirty-five yard line once and then they failed to muster the necessary drive to capitalize on their position.

Otterbein's game was a return to the old style of bucking game with the line driving hard and opening holes for McCarroll and others to tear through. The Hiram ends were not able to stop the Otterbein backs from circling them and the holes in the line could not be plugged to keep the hard hitting Tan gridders from gaining.

At no time was Otterbein's title to the game questioned but at the opening of the second half he Hiram outfit returned with a world of fight that kept the Big Tan team from scoring, and with the aid of several breaks raised their own morale. A blocked Hiram punt on Otterbein's thirty yard line recovered by Hiram was the

NOLAN R. BEST RESIGNS AS EDITOR OF CONTINENT

Nolan R. Best, '92, resigned last Thursday as editor of The Continent, a weekly paper published in the interests of the Presbyterian Church. In the resignation of Mr. Best the Continent and the Presbyterian denomination lose a brilliant editor and an efficient servant.

Mr. Best had been editor of the weekly since 1910, when The Interior of Chicago and The Westminster of Philadelphia were combined to form The Continent by Mrs. Cyrus McCormick. The publication is now owned by the McCormick Publishing Co., of Chicago.

Plans for Annual Homecoming Assure Biggest Time in History

Although Home-coming is more than two weeks away the plans of the Home-coming committee are fast taking on definite form and all things indicate that this year's reunion of alumni will be a huge success. The day is full of interesting events for the alumnus. The program includes a rally, parade, football game, alumnal banquet and club reunions. Many alumni from far and near will return to Westerville for the gala event of the year. Many have signified their intentions of returning.

The success of any Home-coming depends upon the number of alumni that return and if this year's reunion is judged on that basis it is going to be a success.

It isn't too late for alumni to plan to be in Westerville November 8. Check Saturday, November 8, off the calendar and set that day aside to return to Westerville.

Each club is extending invitations to their alumni in an effort to get as large a number of alumni to return as possible.

PONTIUS SPEAKS

Large Audience Hears Noted Y. M. C. A. Man at Meeting Thursday.

"The Evolution of Y. M. C. A." was the subject on which John Pontius, Executive and Metropolitan Secretary of the Columbus Y. M. C. A.'s, spoke to "Y. M." last Thursday evening. Mr. Pontius began his speech by showing the development of the first social institution in primitive society and how, after many complexities in life were introduced, other social institutions were set up, among which is the Y. M. C. A.

"All social institutions should revolve around the home and if I were asked to state what institutions I considered most important, I would place them in this order of importance: The Home, Church, Public School and Y. M. C. A.," was the strong assertion of Mr. Pontius.

In reference to the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Pontius stated that the life of an institution depends largely upon the faithfulness of its members.

FIRST NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE PLEASES AUDIENCE

The opening number of the Citizens' Lyceum Course, given last Friday evening in the college chapel, by the Hipple Concert Company, was well received by a large audience of students and townspeople.

The Hipple Company comprises four accomplished musicians, who offered a repertoire of instrumental music ranging from Verdi and Chopin to popular selections and jazz. Violin, cornet, trombone, xylophone, and piano were effectively featured in solo selections. Mr. Hipple demonstrated beyond doubt that his title, "The Wizard of the Xylophone", is merited; he also excels at the drums and traps. On the whole, the program was well executed and deserves commendation, the only adverse criticism which might be advanced being that the sudden shift from the classical to near-jazz which occurred in the course of the entertainment struck a jarring note occasionally.

The Troubadour Male Quartet will appear on the second number of the course, to be given Thursday, October thirtieth.

District C. E. Rally To Be Held Here October 29

Wednesday afternoon and evening of next week, District No. 1 of the Southeast Ohio Christian Endeavor Union will hold a meeting and rally at the U. B. Church here in Westerville. The afternoon meeting, at one o'clock, is to be devoted to short discussions and conferences related to the problems of the societies. These conferences are to be led by different individuals. In the evening the assembly is to be favored with two addresses; Miss Myrtle Lefever and Rev. Harris are to be the speakers. It is to be sincerely hoped that those that cannot take advantage of the afternoon meeting will avail themselves of the privilege of listening to these two able speakers in the evening. This session begins promptly at seven.

Chaucer Club to Begin

Active Work October 22

Regular meetings have been scheduled for the Chaucer Club, the time being set for the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The meeting will begin at 7:30 and be limited to one hour. On October 22nd, the work of the club will begin in earnest. The program will contain a discussion of the Pulitzer Prize system and an analysis of Margaret Wilson's novel, "The Able McLaughlins", which recently received the Pulitzer award. Tentative plans are that the program will be devoted to the study of modern fiction, drama and poetry. A short time will be given at every meeting to current events in the literary world.

Programs will be posted on the library bulletin board. The members of the club are asked to acquaint themselves with the subjects suggested for discussion, and to do some personal research work.

ELEVEN NEW MEN ARE ADDED TO GLEE CLUB

To the personnel of the Glee Club Professor A. R. Spessard has announced that eleven new men have been added. The banjo-mandolin orchestra has been increased materially but the Glee Club proper contains nearly the same number of men as there were last year. The proposed western tour during the Christmas vacation has added impetus to the club and it is now practicing with much vigor and enthusiasm.

Lawrence Miller and Emerson Bragg gained positions as first tenors and George Griggs, Francis Bechtoldt, James Gordon, John Tinstman, Keene Van Curen and Floyd Beelman won places as second tenors. Wendell Williams is the only new first bass member and Robert Weitkamp is the only new second bass.

Four banjo-mandolins have been added. The new string-pickers are Floyd Beelman, John Tinstman, Fenton Bennett and George Griggs. Francis Bechtoldt wields the trombone and Robert Weitkamp plays a mean cornet. Keene Van Curen is the new drummer.

Second Year Classmen Have

Lively Time at Sleepy Hollow

With abundant enthusiasm and the real spirit of a well acquainted class, the Sophomores last Wednesday evening sought Sleepy Hollow as the scene for their first push of the year. As almost the whole class was present it proved to be a memorable affair for everyone.

The program committee arranged to have progressive partners on the way out. After the merry makers arrived at Sleepy Hollow they were divided into smaller groups which played games around the camp fires. Eats were then served to the hungry "pushers" and soon the homeward journey was begun.

Freshmen Enjoy First

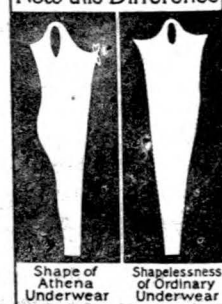

Push at Sleepy Hollow

On last Monday night the Freshmen held their first social event of the year in the form of a hay ride party to Sleepy Hollow with nearly every member in attendance.

The evening was delightfully spent in games, sports and listening to the music of a Victrola. Then the Frosh gathered around the big bonfire and cider and doughnuts were served.

After everyone grew weary of too much laughter and fun, the class joined in singing several college songs and adjourned at the usual early hour.

What Makes a Team Champions?

As one looks over the Ohio Conference football standing and observes who is at the top of the list and those who are at the bottom certain lessons can be learned and very definite conclusions can be drawn. We may not be as thoroughly posted on athletic statistics as the athletic editor but there are certain things we see as we look over the percentages.

With regard to Case. For the last two years Case did not win a game but this year she has come back and won four straight conference games. What are the reasons for her sensational record thus far this year? She has no star performers nor is Case a large school but nevertheless she has spilled the dope bucket completely. Perhaps the Scientists' success can be attributed to team work. Case must have team work for no first class football game was ever won without team work, and team work is nothing else but—one-tenth ability and nine-tenths unselfishness.

Three weeks ago "dopesters" conceded championship honors to either Wesleyan or Wooster and listed Wittenberg, Denison, Miami and Cincinnati as possible contenders. Case was supposed to continue losing. But what is happening? The supposedly strong teams are having a hard time keeping out of the cellar and the "floor mat" team of the Conference is near the top. Whether or not Case will stay on the top is yet to be seen.

However, the conclusion to be drawn is this. "Dopesters", when they are picking winning teams are unable to determine team spirit. Aside from accidents to star performers the one thing that can most completely spill the well established dope in athletic competition is TEAM SPIRIT. Lack of it has scrambled the ultimate chance of favorites and its possession has swept lowly contenders from the cellar position to the lofty residing place of champions.

Watch Your Step

Already many of the student organizations are running in full swing. Every evening is filled with a meeting of some kind or other. Student interests are swelling to their mammoth proportions and before long it will be a task to decide which one shall be taken up. It is now time for the student to discriminate and to choose between the important and the unimportant activities. All phases of Otterbein life are essential to a rounded education but one can not participate in all of them. If he did he would soon be overwhelmed with outside duties and scholastic work would be woefully neglected.

There is a multiplicity of student activities on the campus and it is important that the students decide which ones they will enter. It is a problem that every student must meet and solve. The student hasn't time enough to do all the things he would like to do, and so he has to apportion his time according as he thinks that one use of it or another is the more important.

Experience has shown that it is not wise to burden oneself with a lot of organizations from which little is derived and less is given. You may be versatile but you can't enter all activities and do each of them justice. Select those for which you are best fitted and strive for supremacy in your chosen activity.

Dismiss Classes

The faculty would be acting wisely if they would suspend all class work Saturday morning, November 8. But if any of the classes are to be dismissed on that day the entire morning schedule should be suspended. It will not be sufficient to dismiss school after chapel only.

To suspend class work on that day is only for the best. If classes are held, little read good will be gotten out of them and the majority of that morning's work will have to be repeated anyway. Class work and Home-coming activities won't mix.

Otterbein Graduate Meets With Serious Accident

Professor W. F. Coover, '00, head of the chemistry department at Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa, suffered a painful accident several weeks ago. Two bones broken, one in the ankle and one just above the ankle, are the result of some paint spilled on a round of the ladder which Mr. Coover was using while painting a hunting lodge near Ames. A short fall to the ground was the cause of the broken bones. He was taken to the hospital where he is resting easily although the seriousness of the accident will probably keep him confined for some time.

Student Council Provides Transportation to Delaware

Arrangements to take Otterbein students to Delaware to see the Wesleyan game are being made by the Student Council. Student tickets to the game cost seventy-five cents, one half of which will go to the Otterbein athletic department. According to present plans, transportation can be offered at approximately one dollar per person, round trip.

Those anticipating following the team will be asked to declare their intention at Chapel, probably Thursday.

Dean Shows Real Spirit

Foremost among the rooters who welcomed the victorious Big Tan outfit home Sunday morning was one of Otterbein's most loyal fans—Dean McFadden. She allowed the girls to meet the train, and then to exceed herself, stayed up and rang the bell to rouse the sleeping belles. Then, to climax events, she headed the happy throng that marched to the station to meet the boys who pulled in at 2:30 Sunday morning!

Hats off and due honor to Dean McFadden—a football fan supreme!

O. C. Enjoys Real Rally

One of the best rallies of the year was held in the Chapel last Thursday night. A large number of students turned out and under the able direction of Upson, Wood and Camp learned several new yells and songs. It is such demonstrations that make the varsity team want to fight.

says, on the other hand, that they absolutely must be reduced. This is in brief the difference between the one great party and the Democrats. Bob La Follette doesn't want anything but the Presidency, and since that is the one plank in all the platforms we can't see much to say about him.

In the present day of lawlessness it is our firm conviction that if Debs could get all his buddies of the ball and chain to throw their votes this way even Coolidge would be applying to himself next week for a good permanent seat on the Supreme Court bench to keep himself in golf clubs and knickers the rest of his days.

The football boys returning from Akron tell that hanging over the Main street in that town is a large banner bearing the names of Davis, Bryan and Donahey, the Democratic standard bearers, and one good Republican piped up and said, "That's funny. In our town they have a place outside the city limits where they throw all their old junk, and here they hang it in the middle of the Main Street". These are our political views and although it has been hard to follow the editor's instructions and write a non-partisan summary we feel that this is a fair and unbiased forecast.

WRITER GIVES NON PARTISAN VIEWS ON POLITICAL QUESTIONS

The political clouds began to gather on the campus immediately after the rousing Democratic rally, which was attended by both Democrats in school. The political storm broke then and the pieces have been settling ever since. Personally we believe that the only thing that will end the country's problems is either the millennium or the re-instatement of the Republican party, but since we're writing for a non-partisan paper we dare not say so. It is our firm conviction that the party of Washington, Lincoln and Coolidge will solve our national problems, while that of Bryan and Pottenger can only land us in the Intrigue of Nations.

One reason why the political situation is attracting campus wide attention is that the issues are more definitely defined in this campaign than ever before. We fail to agree with Will Rogers in his political forecast when he says the issues in former campaigns were more clear cut. For instance, he says the issue in the first campaign when Washington was running against himself was whether he should have his wig bobbed or not. Such trifling considerations, together with the League of Nations have long been buried. The issues in this campaign are as follows: The Democrats say that the Tariff should not be any higher, and opposed to that the Republican Eagle exclaims vehemently that the Tariff should be allowed to stand as it is. The Democratic Donkey (we mean the long eared one) maintains that taxes must come down and Coolidge

CONFERENCE DOPE

Four Erstwhile 100 Percent Teams Meet Defeat in Saturday's Games.

No upsets were sprung in the Ohio Conference football circles Saturday. Four teams which were enjoying the privilege of a 1.000 percent class tumbled after Saturday's games. Mt. Union, Western Reserve, St. Xavier and Cincinnati were the teams to have their perfect records stopped.

Case, Wittenberg and Oberlin are still at the top of the ladder. Case and Oberlin ran their total to four wins each and Wittenberg annexed her third contest. Ohio Wesleyan did not play an Ohio Conference tilt.

The biggest scrap of the day was at Alliance where Case and Mt. Union clashed. The fourth quarter began with Mount leading 7 to 3, but Case needed a touchdown and she got it, winning 9-7.

Oberlin had little difficulty in disposing of Western Reserve. The Clevelanders staked all on the open game which resulted disastrously for them.

Wittenberg was prepared for the forward pass attack of St. Xavier and had little trouble in winning with a Wooster easily defeated Miami at Oxford, while Denison was putting the skids under Cincinnati. Muskingum celebrated her Home-coming by defeating Heidelberg 14-2.

Alumni See Game.

Quite a number of alumni, ex-students, students and friends of the college demonstrated their spirit and interest by following the team to Hiram.

Lyman Hert, Bob Schreck, "Hen" Bercaw and several others from Canton were there.

Harold and Roe Anderson were the alumni from Akron.

Mabel Bördner, Laurence Marsh, Merle Killinger and "Bill" Meyers were among the students that witnessed the victory.

SOCCER LEAGUE BEGINS

Sophomore and Senior Teams Win in Opening Tilts—Seniors Trim Juniors 1 to 0.

The intramural soccer league had its full share of attention and patronage during last week. Two games, one between the Frosh and Sophs on Monday and one between the Juniors and Seniors on Wednesday, marked the opening of the first round.

In the Freshman-Sophomore game, the yearlings proved to be much the weaker. This is rather to be expected since most of them had never played the game until the last three or four weeks, while the Sophomores played soccer last year. The final score was 4-1.

In the Junior-Senior game on Wednesday the teams were more evenly matched and the battle was much hotter. The ball was kicked back and forth from one goal line to the other, but every attempt to get it past the goal-tender failed. Finally the Seniors improved an opportunity for a penalty kick and won the game by one lone point, the score being 1-0.

The standing of the teams in the league:

Team to Meet Wesleyan

at Delaware Saturday

On next Saturday afternoon, with a large crowd of Otterbeinites in the grandstand giving their moral support, the Big Tan team meets the Ohio Wesleyan crew at Delaware.

Last year Wesleyan came through the season undefeated, and thus far this season she has repeated her record. As Otterbein does not have such an enviable record, the dope bucket is running over in favor of the Methodists. However, dope buckets have been known to be full of leaks in the past, when an Otterbein team was concerned and who knows but what the present one will spring a few?

Probably there will not be much "Otterbein money" placed on the game next Saturday, but that's not saying that there won't be some who will regret it afterwards. If Wesleyan wins, the victory will be far from a donation, as Captain Reck and his squad are rearin' to jump in and tear 'em up.

SIDELINES

The team left Westerville Friday evening and went as far as Akron, where it spent the night. The remainder of the trip was made Saturday morning.

Captain Reck played a star game at center. He was heads up all the time and spoiled many plays for Hiram.

Felton was the only Tan player to suffer any serious injury. His knee was badly twisted and it is not likely that he will be able to get into this week's game.

Porosky did all the punting for Otterbein. The Tan team was forced to punt only twice.

Not one point after touchdown was made in the Hiram game. To date not one point after touchdown has been made. What we need is an "educated toe" that can sing a mean song.

Three hundred students were at the station to meet the team Sunday morning. The girls outnumbered the boys nearly two to one.

McCarroll was the only backfield man who could buck the line for any considerable gain.

Otterbein made more than twice as many first downs as Hiram, the exact count being 21-9.

Last year Hiram boasted of a strong team. She finished high up in the Conference race. She misses the services of her last year's star tackle Bates.

Otterbein scored in the first, second and fourth period. Hiram made a bid for a score in the third period.

The ball was in Hiram's territory all of the game except once in the third period. Hiram threatened to score with Kelker carrying the ball.

The forward pass duo, Renner to Porosky, worked well. "Art" surely can hurl the pigskin.

Lena Cooksey, Ernestine Schmitt, Mabel Bordner, Mary Hummel, Adda Lyon, Ruth Rice, Freda Snyder, Charlotte Owen, Ethel Kepler, and Ruth Hursh were at home over the week end.

Enid Kizer went to Mansfield Thursday to be the brides-maid at the wedding of Agnes Tryon, ex-'25, and Joseph Yohn. On Saturday Miss Kizer, as maid of honor, attended the wedding of her sister in Fostoria.

The sprained-ankle trio is composed of Helen Miller, Lorene Smith, and Ethel Bruner.

Margaret Sahling, Norma Keagy and Ruth Adams, all of Ohio Wesleyan University, were week-end guests of Frances Cooper and Betty Marsh.

Helen Webster went to her home in Canton Wednesday to be present at her sister's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Crites of Barberton were with their niece, Mary McKenzie, Tuesday. They were honor guests at a party at the home of Leah St. John on Tuesday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Smith of Chillicothe visited their daughter Lorene Saturday.

Rosemary Miller and Elizabeth Armstrong of Portsmouth, Ohio, spent Sunday with Ruth Streich.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Z. Kulmer of Dayton came Saturday to visit Margaret. Mr. Kulmer returned Monday, but Mrs. Kulmer will spend the week with her daughter.

Celia Johnson accompanied Mary Whiteford to her home in Canton Saturday.

Ruth Lucas entertained Mrs. Henry of Germantown Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Fleming of Red Lion, Pennsylvania, were with Lenore Smith at dinner Wednesday evening.

Bernice Heeter, '22, now teaching in Covington, Ohio, spent a short time with Polygon friends Sunday afternoon.

Dean McFadden entertained Mrs. Starkey and her son, and Miss Jones at dinner Sunday.

Annabel Wiley's brother Jim, and sister Mary, came from Lloydell, Pennsylvania, to spend a few days with Annabel.

Martha Alspach, Betty Plummer

and Louise Stoner were feted delightfully Friday evening in celebration of their birthdays. The girls on third floor, Saum Hall, tendered the surprise. Monday, Martha Alspach was the recipient of a birthday shower.

Esther Sullivan is suffering a severe attack of bronchitis.

Lucille Judy entertained her sisters, Mrs. Carlson of Denver, Colorado, and Mrs. Paul V. Sprout, '23, of Marion, Ohio, Monday.

Mary Tintsman, '20, who is teaching in Middlebourne, West Virginia, visited the Owl Club this week-end.

Mrs. C. E. Cox of Chillicothe spent Saturday evening and Sunday morning with her daughter, Elizabeth Saxour.

O C COED'S COLLUM.

J'hear about the perfectly good Democratic Junior who was proudly sporting a Davis-for-President pin around until she discovered it read Davis-for-Governor?

We're wondering how anyone could keep from laughing at the picture-taking last week, seeing so many jokes collected in one place. Even Firpo smiled before he yawned.

Something will have to be done soon about the poor bathing beauties riding around these cold autumn days.

The other day one of our English professors was speaking about literature and she remarked, "There were no Bunyans in that age." And one of the girls groaned, "I wish there were no bunions in my age."

J'hear about the freshman girl who started for the push an hour early 'cause she was afraid the wagon would be crowded and she would have to ride on the horses?

O C LEMON DROPS

Innocent Frosh—"Hey, what's the idea o' bein' bawled out in chapel for sittin on the Science Hall steps and then some o' the Seniors go and do the same thing. Kinda bad examples I calls it."

Mickey McGuire—"Ah, my lad, they are taking Senior privileges."

Gosh, if most of the school turned out at two o'clock in the morning after we beat Hiram I wonder just what that gang would do if we beat Wesleyan. Gosh!

And the joke of it all is:—That our friend Troop thought that Prof. Valentine was making some experiments in Psychology. And it was only a couple of pups that Prof. Hanawalt had penned in the storeroom for a few hours.

Talk about Otterbein Women being sports! When they'll get up at the weary hour of one and sit in a cold room and applaud some of that stuff;—well here's to 'em.

O C MID-OCTOBER By Rouget.

And here it's mid-October once again comes marching down the hills all decked in purple asters, draped in dusky, filmy frills in cloud-dust, like an old Spanish lady in her shawl. Just a hint of winter in the frosty morning air and the sunset misty pale much like the soul of one who long has walked alone. The sun comes seeking through the naked trees as one who loved long, long ago. The gray wind, with a ghostly melody, mumbles through the weary treetops muttering a soft lament of sorrow for the hills, who, like the way-worn traveler, have drawn their cloaks about them and gone fast to sleep.

Widdoes Leads Y. W.

The topic for Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening was "Values." For devotions Elizabeth Saxour chose the story of the rich young ruler. Lenore Smith sang, "Not Understood." Margaret Widdoes was the leader and throughout the meeting she stressed the fact that we must not allow our studies and our social life while at college to hinder us from developing our spiritual life. Charlotte Owen gave a short talk.

Where Everybody Goes

On Tuesday evening, Prof. Schear entertained the Lakotas with a supper at his home on West Park street.

"Lefty" Drexel and "Bill" Conger made a week-end trip to their homes at Cincinnati.

Dr. and Mrs. Gohn motored from Dayton and spent Sunday with George.

The parents of "Red" Lancaster, who was with us last year, were in town Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Norris.

J. B. Crabbs, '23, coach at Centerville, Ohio, was in Westerville Saturday and Sunday.

Monday evening the Freshman Class enjoyed a fine hay-ride and push, while Wednesday evening the Sophomores, not to be outdone, staged a very successful push at Sleepy Hollow. Such events go far toward establishing that class spirit which is somehow lacking at Otterbein.

Richard James accompanied "Bill" Myers to Canton, Friday. From there, he went on to his home at Magnolia.

Ralph Tinsley received a visit from his folks on Sunday.

Dwight Harsh went to Cleveland early Saturday, returning Sunday evening.

Charles Keller spent the week-end with his parents at his home in Altoona, Pennsylvania.

Two downstaters returned to their homes over the week-end in the persons of Ferron Troxel, from Dayton, and Norman Trissler, from Middletown.

R. J. Senger, '16, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was in Westerville Friday and visited his Pholophronean brothers.

Professor Guitner entertained a number of friends at the Maple Tree Tea Room Sunday noon. Among those in the party were E. C. Workman, Senior Secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., Calcutta, India; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and Mrs. C. H. Moore, of Washington, C. H.; Mr. and Mrs. B. Buntin, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mueller, Miss Georgia Winter and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Savage and son Billy, all of Columbus.

A weiner roast, a bunch of jolly fellows and everyone had a good time. Last Thursday evening Lakota entertained a number of Freshmen at a weiner roast in Frazier's woods.

final break which put the home team on Otterbein's eighteen yard line—the only time that it was within striking distance and then the Fates smiled on Otterbein and finally laughed out loud as Renner intercepted a Hiram pass and chased twenty-five yards before calling it quits.

One outstanding feature of the game was the touchdown that came in the final period. On a series of close plays the line opened up holes for the backs and finally Renner took the ball and chased over the Hiram line for the final score of the game. In all his high school and college football that was the first touchdown that Renner had ever made and the ball was given to him in answer to some of his team-mates who wanted the man who is probably the smallest football player in the Ohio Conference to carry the ball over. In his day Renner has called signals and has started any number of touchdowns with his accurate passing but never before has he actually carried the ball across a goal line himself. The other Otterbein touchdowns were made by McCarroll, who went over in the opening quarter, and Porosky, who snagged a pass and made the Otterbein total 12 in the second period. Throughout the game Otterbein totalled 21 first downs to Hiram's 9.

The men of Dartmouth have proposed a few changes to the faculty which would enable them to obtain more from their class room work. Among the suggested changes are:

1. Abolition of lecture system.

2. A plea for classes of not more than ten which would allow them to become places of open discussion.

3. A desire for consultation with the instructor in which certain difficulties in the investigation of a subject could be cleared up.

College "Pay Day" has been inaugurated at Wooster.
