To Our Alumni and Other Friends

Last week was High School Day. There were on our campus nearly 900 high school students from five states. They were accompanied by teachers, pastors and parents. It was a lively time.

Today we have the pleasure of welcoming large

Salute To Heidelberg

Otterbein College is pleased to play host today to the "Student Princes" of Heidelberg College coached by Carl Horerneman. The college was founded three years later than Otterbein and this year is celebrating its centennial.

The football rivalry between these two schools is of long standing and the competition has been keen. According to available records the first game of football between these two schools was played in 1900 when the teams battled to a 0-0 deadlock.

Greetings . . .

FROM THE PRESIDENT

numbers of alumni and other friends. Greetings to each and all.

Homecoming Day has a spirit and charm all its own. A colorful autumn landscape and tangy air, the crowning of a beautiful queen and the excitement of a football game, plus the reunion with old friends, combine to make the event unique on the year's calendar.

You will be glad to know that the school year is starting well. Academic life is operating under a faculty second to none, and student organizations and activities are running smoothly under competent leadership.

Today the cornerstone was laid for the new chapel made possible by the generosity of the late Dr. C. E. Cowan. This is another step in the growth and progress of Otterbein. We are not static. We must continue to move forward if we are to live and serve in these challenging years.

We look to our alumni and friends as partners in this cooperative enterprise of keeping Otterbein going and growing.

Most sincerely,

J. Gordon Howard

President

Boost The Otters

The Otters, under the coaching of George Novotny and Dean Sensenbaurer, go into the game today definitely the under-dog. The Student Princes were undefeated in 1948, lost one in 1949, and one this year.

The Otterbein squad is small in numbers, light in weight, and inexperienced in play. Over half the squad are sophomores. But, remember Purdue! The unexpected often happens and this may be the day. Let's boost our team—win, lose, or draw.

Her Majesty THE QUEEN

As Fall Homecoming Queen of 1950, I have the honor of extending warm greetings and a hearty welcome from the student body to all the friends of Otterbein College who are attending our celebration today. May this be a time of good fellowship.

Let us salute our team and wish the boys the best of luck as they meet Heidelberg. May we hear the victory bell chime.

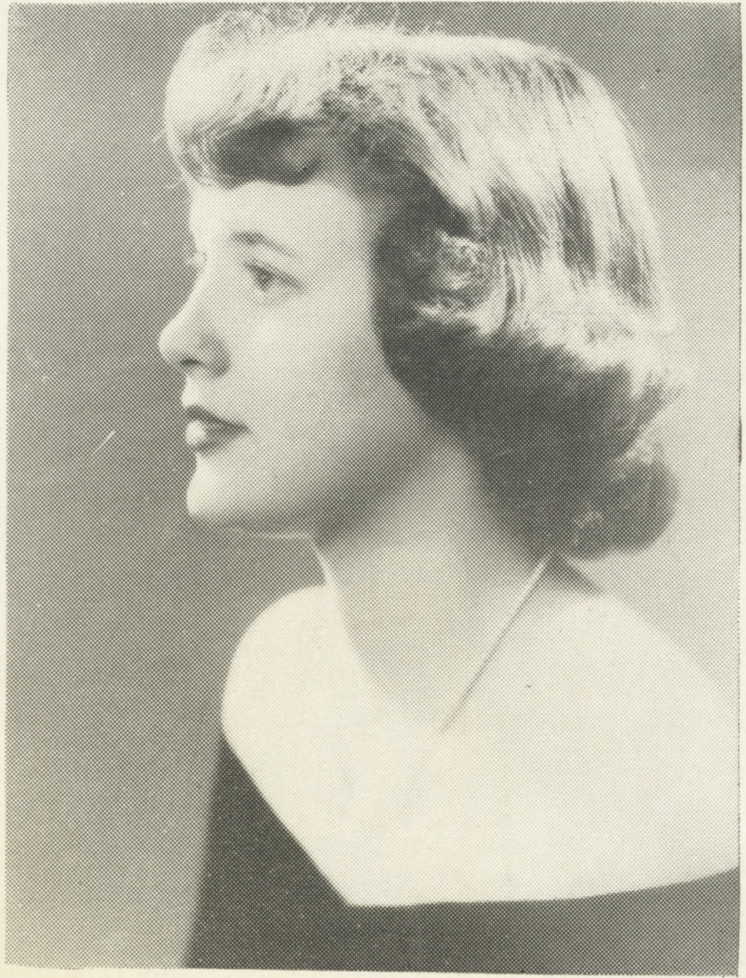

Again, may I greet you and express our hope that the spirit of Otterbein will remain with you until you return to visit us once more.

Martha Lawson

Queen Martha, the sixteenth Homecoming Queen comes from Connelsville, Pennsylvania. She is a sociology major and a member of the Owls Sorority.

The queen's attendants are Patty Packer, Mt. Healthy, maid of honor; Mary Ann Hawk, Lucasville; and Shirley Chagnot, McKeesport, Pennsylvania. Patty represents the Arbutus Sorority; Mary Ann, Tomo Dachi; and Shirley, Onyx.

All are sophomores and were elected by popular vote of the student body.
