HOMECOMING - 1950

Welcome to Homecoming! Today's the day to relax, reminisce, and rejoice with friends you haven't seen for ages.

Every member of the Capital family, old or young, has a proud feeling today. Alma Mater's pretty proud too, to have you on the campus celebrating her birthday and getting the second century off to a good start.

Cap has had a number of birthday parties during 1950 and today's is the last one. From now on our focus and yours will be forward. We're all agreed on one thing . . . we want to keep Capital moving forward.

Dave Risch, senior from Dayton, and Mary Alice Riggs, Columbus have worked hard to make this a Homecoming you'll long remember. The beautiful floats in the parade are fixed up so nicely because this year, for the first time, there's competition. The class whose float is judged best by an impartial jury will receive a trophy. The name of the class will be engraved on it and it will be placed in the Student Union for all to see.

Of course, the prettiest things in the parade won't be the floats. No matter how decorative, they'll have to take a back seat to Queen Vivian Garwick and her court. We don't know how these Columbus girls do it but Vivian and Delores Leonard, the only local girls in the primary, ran first and second in the final balloting.

We won't try to describe our queen because there's no doubt that you will want to see for yourself anyhow. We will reveal that she's 20 years old and a senior in business administration. Her escort, Don Broehm, is an Economics major and perhaps this is the time to issue a friendly warning. We've no intention of worrying Mr. Broehm unduly but it's a known fact that eight of Cap's Homecoming Queens are either married to or engaged to preachers. Those seminary fellows do alright for themselves, don't they.

The other members of the court and their escorts are: Delores Leonard — William Gallagher, Eloise Dierksheide — David Risch, Henrietta Krift — Raymond Wolf, Joan Palm — Harold Plassman, Louise Turner — Dwight Barnett.

Take a look at the beautiful corsages worn by the girls. They were donated by alumnus Bill Dieckman, class of '24, of Oak Grove, West Virginia.

DALE ROSE—A native of Clarington, Ohio, Dale is starting his fifth season as head man of the Capital varsity. He came to Cap after a successful coaching tenure at Columbus West High. Dale has had some rough luck the past few years but he's a perennial optimist. Capital fans are hoping for a good season also because, as they say, it couldn't happen to a nicer guy.

CLYDE BATTIN—A graduate of Ohio University, Clyde is back for a second season as backfield coach. The former Columbus South and Middleport coach has proven an invaluable aide and is extremely popular with the players. In addition to his work with the varsity, he's also giving the freshman a good long look in preparation for next year.

BILL RANGE—Bill was a star lineman for the Lutherans a few years back and now he's putting his football knowledge to good use while trying to make stars by teaching this year's linemen. A senior in the seminary, Bill helped out during the 1947 and '48 seasons but missed last year while serving his internship.

CLYDE MILLER—Clyde ended his playing days at Cap last year and is now a student in the seminary. He will assist with freshman hopefuls.

CAPTAIN TOM VINCENT—The popular Tom was chosen to lead this year's squad by vote of his teammates. A guy who gives everything all the way, Tom is sure to prove an inspiration to his teammates. He's not an outstanding, flashy type of player but one of those unsung heroes who paves the way for the fellows who get the glory. Tom is married and he and Ruth make their home right on the football field where Tom can really keep his eye on things. He formerly played under Clyde Battin at Columbus South High.

PROPOSED PHYSICAL EDUCATION BUILDING

Here is the Story on Health and Physical Education Needs:

I am confident that our present student body, former students, and our many friends realize fully the handicaps which our Department of Physical Education faces in promoting a modern program of health and physical education. The majority of high schools have better indoor athletic facilities.

The proposed Physical Education Building will make it possible to conduct a comprehensive program of physical education, health, recreation, and intramural and intercollegiate athletics. If our fine youth at Capital are to be graduated with well-trained minds in sound bodies, we must provide the Health and Physical Education Building shown above which can be obtained only through the generous gifts of our friends.

WM. (Bill) BERNLOHR, Athletic Director.

Now that the pre-game events are taken care of, and since this is a football program, maybe we ought to say something about the game. If you've been disappointed in the games this year, and who hasn't, just remember this. Those fellows out there on the field hate it a lot worse than you do. Despite the scores, our gang has never quit trying. You'll notice the spirit today and I hope you see a rip-snorting ball game. If the boys continue to improve, Otterbein will know they've been in a ball game.

Now Capital isn't going to sit idly back and let this sort of thing go on. We don't know how yet but we're willing to go out on a limb and predict that things will be getting better. Most of the team members will be back next year with added experience and we've a pretty good freshman crop.

You can help too. Talk Capital up among friends and acquaintances who are planning to go to college.

If they're football players, assure them that they can play a big part in the rebuilding of the team.

Well, that's enough preaching for now. We hope you're having a good time and that you'll come back again . . . soon. See you at the banquet!

ABOUT THE COACHES

Harry W. Ewing
(Director of Athletics)

Harry Ewing, veteran coach and athletic director of the Ohio Athletic Conference, is responsible for keeping Otterbein alive during World War II. He coached football, basketball, baseball, track and tennis with no help whatsoever. His teams were very successful during those lean years.

Before coming to Otterbein he coached at Ohio Wesleyan University and Miami University at Oxford, Ohio. He joined the Otterbein faculty in 1934 and was appointed Director of Athletics in 1946.

George W. Novotny
(Head Football Coach)

George Novotny, Ohio State University '38, is starting his fifth year as head football coach of the Cardinals. He is noted for the emphasis he places upon fundamentals and player conditioning. He won the mythical Ohio Conference championship in 1948, his first season with the Otters.

Novotny served three years as coach of Lima Central High School. In 1942 he entered the Navy as an ensign and rose to the rank of lieutenant s.g., serving on both the Pacific and European theaters of war.

Dean Sensanbaugh
(Assistant Coach)

Dean Sensanbaugh, former Ohio State and Army star, is coaching his first year at Otterbein. Dean played in 1948 for Paul Brown at Cleveland.

FACTS ABOUT OTTERBEIN

Location — Westerville, Ohio

Established — Otterbein College was established in 1847 and went by the name of Otterbein University. It was the first United Brethren college established and was named after the founder of the United Brethren church, William Otterbein.

The name was changed to Otterbein College in 1917 and more stress was placed upon the Liberal Arts and preparation of students for graduate work.

Otterbein is now in its sixty-first season of inter-collegiate competition. Football was introduced to the campus in 1890 and has continued uninterrupted through both World Wars.
