DEDICATION

'TIL HOMECOMING

D. L. ADAMS, '22

From wells long dry they gushed; those tears in torrents loosed.

They fell unseen. Tho you would leave no grief behind, you won't

Deny me them. They are the final boon I ask of you, my friend.

They came not easily. It was a numbing blow,

That sentence "He is dead." I would have cried
"No, no!

Not he, it can't be so!" But all thru that dreary day

My lips were dumb. With fall of night they came—

Those blessed tears—————

I'll never forget the pressure of your hand

When last we parted. Wæ that 'twas for a month;

The words exchanged will serve a longer time.

"Goodbye, old boy, so long,—'til Homecoming!"

RAY COLLIER

In memory of Ray Collier, whom to know was to love, and whose zeal and ardor have stamped him as a true son of old Otterbein, the Junior Class respectfully dedicates this volume of the Sibyl.

FOREWORD

To mirror in the paths of memory with pen and lens the college year of 1925-1926; to record for all time the happenings within our college halls; to offer this volume as a tangible memory of college days has been our purpose.

OTTERBEIN'S NEW PROJECT

DR. JOHN R. KING

MRS. ZELLA B. KING

Dr. and Mrs. John R. King, who were former supervisors of the Otterbein Home near Lebanon, Ohio, are heading Otterbein's latest building project, that of the construction of King Hall, a men's dormitory.

The building, in architectural design, will be very similar to the McFadden Science Hall. It will be of red brick, 105 feet long north and south, 40 feet wide in some places and 44 feet in others. If present expectations work out the new building will be ready for the fall opening of the college.

Dr. and Mrs. King will be the main supervisors of the dormitory when it is completed. Although not essentially a college project, a working agreement has been entered into by Dr. and Mrs. King and college officials.

Dr. and Mrs. King have always been intensely interested in young people, having been heads of the Otterbein Home for a long period of years. It is the direct purpose of Dr. and Mrs. King to make a home life for the young men students.

OTTERBEIN LOVE SONG

I

In a quiet, peaceful village,
There's one we love so true;
She ever gives a welcome
To her friends both old and new.
She stands serene 'mid tree-tops green;
She's our dear Otterbein.

CHORUS

Old Otterbein, our college,
We sing of thee today;
Our mem'ries 'round thee linger
In a sweet and mystic way.
O, Otterbein, we love thee!
Our hearts are only thine;
We pledge anew we will be true,
Dear Otterbein.

II

Her halls have their own message
Of truth and hope and love;
She guides her youths and maidens
To the life that looks above.
Her stately tower speaks naught but power
For our dear Otterbein.

*"How sweet the moonlight sleeps upon this bank!
Here will we sit, and let the sounds of music
Creep in our ears; soft stillness, and the night, Become the touches of sweet harmony."*

ADMINISTRATION HALL

"Her halls have their own message of truth and hope and love."

CROW'S NEST

*"O for a seat in some poetic nook
Just hid with trees, and sparkling with a brook."*

CARNEGIE LIBRARY

*"All around the room my silent servants wait,
My friends in every season, bright and dim."*

SLEEPY HOLLOW

*"Very hot and still the air was,
Very smooth the gliding brooklet,
Motionless the sleeping shadows."*

COCHRAN HALL

*"Thou hast by moonlight at her windows sung
With feigning voice, verses of feigning love."*

THE CAMPUS GREEN

*"Could we desire a plot more picturesque,
On which to raise a seat of learning grand?"*

LAMBERT HALL

*"Wilt thou have music? hark! Apollo plays,
And twenty caged nightingales do sing."*

McFADDEN HALL

*"The study of science teaches young men to think,
While the study of classics teaches them to express thought."*

FOUR-MILE BRIDGE

*"Oh sweet is thy current by town and by tower,
The green sunny vale and the dark linden bower."*

BIG WALNUT

*"Ne'er I saw, never felt, a calm so deep!
The river glideth at his own sweet will.
The first time I beheld thee, beauteous stream,
What feelings rushed upon my heart."*

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

"Peace more sweet than music, Light more soft than shadow."

SAUM HALL

*"No voice in the chambers,
No sound in the halls!
Sleep and oblivion
Reign over all!"*

ASSOCIATION HALL

*"You've been a good standby, Old Gym, in the past,
But now you're entirely too small,
Our college is growing each year very fast,
So we need a new Athletic Hall!"—1922 Sibyl.*

BERNICE NORRIS	Treasurer

Sibyl

Martha Alspach

MARTHA E. ALSPACH
Tiro
"Dizzy"

*"We are all made of dust,
But Dizzy's is star dust."*

Martha has a pronounced sense of humor—even a tendency toward comedy. She is the philosopher within our gates.

MARY E. BENNETT
Westerville
"Benny"

"Independent in every word, thought and action."

Mary is not afraid to say what she thinks—and what she thinks is usually right.

MARGARET BAKER
Pittsburgh, Pa.
"Sally"

"A mind full of knowledge is a mind that never fails."

She took three years of Science and is still the same girl.

MARGUERITE BLOTT
Warren
"Margrita"

"I would the gods had made me poetical!"

She does little kindnesses that others leave undone. In fact, so many beautiful qualities are rarely embodied in one person.

FRANCIS M. BECHTOLT
Reedsburg, Wis.
"Becky"

*"If lessons were looks,
What a scholar he would be."*

Shines with equal effulgence behind the foot-lights and on the tennis courts.

NEELY BOYER
Westerville
"Kneel"

"Choice words and measured phrase, Above the reach of ordinary men."

He fell a victim to cupid's darts while yet young. A man of learning, prudent, just.

Sibyl

ETHEL BOYER
Circleville
"Ethel"

"They serve God well Who serve his creatures."

Studious, pleasant-spirited, and one who inspires confidence—this is Ethel.

ROBERT BUCHERT
Westerville
"Bob"

*All great men are dying,
I don't feel well myself."*

Our imagination has never risen to the point where we could see him a desperate, secretive character. His personality shows that he is all to the good.

GLADYS BRENIZER
Cardington
"Gladys"

"Thy smile can make a summer Where darkness else would be."

She is kindhearted and serviceable in all the relations of life.

ELWARD CALDWELL
Ponce, Porto Rico
"Caldwell"

*"He lives content, and envies none,
Not even a monarch on his throne."*

Caldwell is what our dear professors call a splendid student—splendid teacher, too, the little Porto Ricans say.

JEANNE BROMLEY
Enid, Okla.
"Jeanne"

"If by chance you hap to doubt it, Don't be shy—ask about it."

Oklahoma, though it's a long way off, must be a good state if it produces such girls as Jeanne—originality, fun, good-nature all rolled into one.

EVELYN FROST CARPENTER
Westerville
"Carp"

*"A stroke here—a mere touch there—
Of the kaleidoscopic mass of color—a thing of beauty."*

Evelyn's vocation is china painting and her hobby, housekeeping. This isn't meant to be an advertisement—she's already "took."

E. ROSALIE COPELAND

Galion
"Cobie"

*"I love to dance, and sing, and play,
And have my own—a carefree way."*

Rosalie is journalistically inclined, and besides is a candidate for the position of Student Assistant in the Chair of Campustry.

MABEL F. EUBANKS

Jackson
"Mae"

*"And still the wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all she knew."*

Convictions—that's Mabel. She has 'em and lets you know about 'em. Her talents are many and her personal qualities of the best.

GRACE M. CORNETET

Westerville
"Julia"

*"Nor rose, nor stream, nor bird compare
With this young maid with raven hair."*

Grace is one of those rare people who can do evvrything—music, art, literature, athletics—and she does them all well.

ETHEL I. EUVERARD

Westerville
"Ethel"

*"Blest is she who owns within her heart
The power to transform canvas into art."*

Though she probably wouldn't even hint it to you herself, we prophesy for Ethel an artistic future that will reflect glory on her Alma Mater.

DOROTHY ERTZINGER

Huntington, Ind.
"Dot"

"It's a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

Is it her smile or her voice? Perhaps it's just "Dot" that makes us all love the girl who comes to us from Indiana.

CHESTER H. FERGUSON

Mowrystown
"Piso"

*"A bashful, blushing boy.
The man that blushes is not quite a brute."*

Piso is fastidious. He eats, he sleeps, he recites—when it is convenient.

Sibyl

Josephine
Flanagan
27

JOSEPHINE FLANAGAN

Van Buren
"Jo"

*"The girl to do her duty,
And where to find her equal 'twould be very hard to tell."*

She's quiet because she's always too busy listening to bother about handing out a line.

HELEN GIBSON

Dayton
"Gibby"

*"Her looks were like a flower in May,
And her smile like a summer morn."*

When it comes to managing men, Gibby could give a few pointers to Madame Pompadour herself.

PALMER J. FLETCHER

Scottsville, Va.

"He was a verray parfait gentil knight"

A worthy product of Virginia. His interest in the local feminine population has always been most casual—we wonder why!

NELLE W. GLOVER

Westerville
"Nelle"

"False I would never—Rash I would not be."

The possessor of a pleasant dignity. She talks slowly so that she can think before she speaks.

VIRGINIA LEMASTER GERMAN

Akron
"Gin"

"Don't worry—it maketh wrinkles."

There are other things to be gotten in College besides an education, so Virginia has recently acquired a husband for good measure.

JAMES R. GORDON

Scottdale, Pa.
"Jimmy"

"A conundrum no one has solved."

Jimmy is a man of untiring labor—at times. He calls upon the professors in their classrooms occasionally.

Sibyl

EDWARD H. HAMMON

Dayton

"Ed"

"Tho' modest, on his unembarrassed brow, Nature had written—'Gentleman.'"

Expects to become a street car conductor—and has already put on his professional air. Relaxes from dignity only in the Sibyl office.

ELIZABETH M. HOFFMAN

New Madison

"Bibet"

*"Large was her heart,
And her soul sincere."*

Has an amusing but highly profitable habit of hanging breathlessly on what the prof. has to say and agreeing with him.

WAYNE V. HARSHA

Westerville

"Harshie"

"The energy of a thousand worlds is in his veins."

A good all-around man—stands well in all things and with all men.

LEROY HOPPER

Warren

"Hop"

"Divided between carelessness and care."

He never lets his daily classes worry him, but he goes into strict training for exams.

RUTH HAYES

Scottdale, Pa.

"Ruthie"

*"The rich praise—
That only you are you."*

Poetic, athletic, even romantic—every once in a while.

RUTH HURSH

Mansfield

"Ruth"

*"Happy I am, from care I am free!
Why aren't they all contented like me?"*

Dependable—serviceable—brim full of pep and a loyal football fan.

CHARLES H. KELLER
Altoona, Pa.
"Keller"

"His length speaks for his character"
Muscular wielder of the bass-viol bow, and a sturdy background for the Orchestra.

CLARENCE LAPORTE
Cleveland
"Ace"

"A social possibility with no such aspirations."
He keeps his own council so we have nothing on him, but he can not keep his oratorical talents hidden.

GERTRUDE KNAPP
Westerville
"Gertie"

"If I talk, people will know as much as I do."
A lass with a delicate air, and a character as sweet as that of a maid of yesterday.

PERRY LAUKHUFF
Mt. Vernon
"Perry"

"Men are only boys grown tall; Hearts don't change much after all."
Patrick Henry has nothing on Perry. His wisdom and wit will carry him anywhere.

CHARLES O. LAMBERT
Westerville
"Chuck"

*"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays
And confident tomorrows."*
Chuck is incomparable as a collector of money and he is the fortunate possessor of a "happy-go-lucky" air which wins him many friends.

JOHN H. LEHMAN
Montpelier
"Johnny"

*"She should never have looked at me
If she meant I should not love her."*
Perhaps it's Johnny's searching brown eyes that always make him see things to do for others. He's "true blue" in all things.

LUCILE E. LEITER

Canton
"Luce"

"Yet graceful ease and sweetness void of pride, Might hide her faults, if belles had faults to hide."

Just to think that with all her other blessings, she should have auburn hair too—it isn't fair!

MARY E. LONG

Conemaugh, Pa.
"Shorty"

"Hence, loathed Melancholy, don't hang around me."

She is a winsome wee thing; she is a handsome wee thing; she is a bonny wee thing.

BESSIE LINCOLN

Westerville
"Bessie J."

*"A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent."*

Bessie thinks that a university should be a place of life, liberty and learning.

MARY B. MCCABE

Greenville
"Berea"

*"Her very frowns are sweeter far
Than smiles of other people are—
But oh! the sweetness of her smiles!"*

We aren't getting paid for these poetic words of praise, but besides all this she is a math.
shark—really too many good qualities for one person.

ROSS F. LOHR

Freetown, Sierra Leone, Africa
"Ross"

"He chooseth best, who chooseth labor instead of rest."

Far from across the seas he came to imbibe
the water from the fount of education.

GWYNNE H. MCCONAUGHY

Dayton
"Mac"

"None but himself can be his parallel."

Mac is a pretty good sort of a fellow—that's why we elected him president this year of the best class that ever went through Otterbein.
(Applause.)

FLORENCE MARTIN

Rising Sun

"Flo"

*"Endowed with wits, grace and beauty—
What more could one wish?"*

Perhaps teaching has made her so wise. We 'learn through experience' folks say. Then experience has made Florence shine in all her classes.

MAE S. MICKEY

Latrobe, Pa.

"Mickey"

"Her hard shows that she has in her head more Than bright black eyes and coal-black hair galore."

Dreamy, and ornamented with the jewel of character.

WALTER MARTIN

Dayton

"Martin"

*"In arguing too, he owns his skill.
For e'en though vanquished, he can argue still."*

Martin's customary stack of books would impress even the most unimpressable Prof. His general characteristics insure him a permanent seat in some law court.

LAWRENCE D. MILLER

Peru, Ind.

"Larry"

*"Spectacular things are not in his line,
But he's always on the job, doing his best."*

Larry's chief occupation is study—his chief avocation—a "steady."

RUTH L. MATOON

Westerville

"Ruth"

*"Along the cool, sequestered vale of life,
She kept the noiseless tenor of her way."*

Here's the kind of a girl that just can't help making A's. It's an awful habit to get into, but what can we do about it?

KENNETH W. MILLET

Greenwich, N. Y.

"Ken"

*"I'll be merry and free,
And sad for nobody."*

He slicks his hair back sheikishly—we wonder how he affords it, with "stick-um" sixty cents a pound.

MARY H. MILLS

Westerville

"Mara"

"My, but I'm in such a stew; I've a hundred million things to do."

Likable, dependable—a future operatic songbird.

EMILY A. MULLIN, B.S.

Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

Philalethea; Owl Club; Science Club

Editor's Note: Miss Mullin applied for a degree too late to be classified in the senior section.

EDITH MOORE

Canal Winchester

"Edie"

*"She's cheerful and gay,
And laughing all day."*

Edie is the fortunate possessor of a mathematical mind and is an all-around good sport.

ROBERT MUMMA

Lewisburg

"Bob"

"Why should I blush to own I love?"

"Tis love that rules the realms above."

Bob is one of those rare people who are enthusiastic about everything—even a class in education.

AMY E. MORRIS

Columbus Grove

"Scrappier"

"Caesar hath been my undoing!"

One of those quiet girls who can't be heard on more than four floors of Cochran Hall at once.

RUTH C. MUSSELMAN

Dayton

"Musel"

"Gracious! What shall I wear?"

Yes, that Metropolitan air of hers gives it all away—she's from the "Gem City." But you forget all such prejudices when you know her, for she's got the real O. C. spirit.

ERNESTINE NICHOLS

Cardington

"Ernie, 'the Red.'"

"What's the odds if your hair is red,
If there's plenty of knowledge inside your head?"

Half-Dime

CHARLOTTE M. OWEN

Dayton

"Shots"

"Not noisy like a shallow brook,
But a mountain lake in a rocky brook."

Sh! The Junior editor says we must "keep mum" about her. We do know Charlotte takes hours off to write in that diary of hers. That's her line—literature. Behold, our future Maupassant!

MARJORIE NICHOLS

Cardington

"Marj."

"She's sweet and quiet and mighty bright;
We'll bet she burns the oil at night."

The Other Half

JAMES O. PHILLIPS

Westerville

"Jimmy"

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

Thoroughly likable—a marked of firm friends
—no enemies.

BERNICE L. NORRIS

Westerville

"Bear-nee-z"

"She likes to laugh, she likes to chatter,
And of these two prefers the latter."

Note the deep wrinkles in her brow—it does not take a physiognomist to see that she is the janitor of the Junior funds.

M. ELIZABETH PLUMMER

Portage, Pa.

"Betty"

"Tell me if she was not designed
The eclipse and glory of her kind."

Her personality attracts friends like a magnet.

HELEN V. RAU
Grafton, W. Va.
"Helen"

*"A heart within those sacred cell
The peaceful virtues loved to dwell."*
Yes, she can make wiener-snitzel, haessen-pheffer, and "coffee cake." A real domestique!

MARCUS M. SCHEAR
New Philadelphia
"Mark"

*"What more can be said of a man
Than this, 'He stands foresquare to all the winds that blow'?"*
An athlete who has a fondness for the silvery moon and even claims relations with Romeo—'tis said.

DORMA J. RIDENOUR
Columbus
"Dormir"

*"So quiet and 'reserved'!"
Reserved for whom?"*
She is the personification of her name—has a profound desire to take a nap after every class.

ROY W. SCHWARZKOPF
Montpelier, Ind.
"Jerry"

*"A merrier man,
Within the limits of becoming mirth
I never spent an hour's talk withal."*
Jerry is good-natured above all other things, and he has a heart the size of which has never been measured.

GRACE B. RINEHART
Westerville
"Dagmar"

*"If there's any fun to have,
Let me have it now."*
She made her theatrical debut in the Junior play and will live ever after in the minds of the populace at "Dagmar."

RUTH SEAMAN
Summerhill, Pa.
"Rufus"

*"A gentle maid of rural breeding,
By nature first and then by reading."*
Ruth is romantic, for does she not write delightful poetry, and does she not carefully guard a certain "Temple" pillow?

REGINALD SHIPLEY

Dayton
"Reggie"

"A happy combination of gentleman and brains"
They say that every mortal has one glaring fault. Reggie's isn't hard to see—it's Science.

THELMA V. SNYDER

Westerville
"Mike"

"Ah! She a pretty verse could make,
Or write in prose lines more sedate."

A nice person, neither too tall nor too short; never foolishly affronted, and void of affectations.

ROBERT SNAVELY

Westerville
"Bob"

"Not that I love basketball less,
But that I love basketball more."

Personification of the popular conception of a real college fellow. An athlete—delights all with his snappy playing.

LAVONNE STEELE

Creston
"Vonnie"

"She neither drooped nor pined,
Nor had a melancholy mind."

Big-hearted, good-natured, jolly, and an all-around sport—these are the words that describe Lavonne.

FREDA L. SNYDER

Dayton
"Fritz"

"Eyes too expressive to be blue,
Too lovely to be grey."

Freda's chief fault is getting to classes late. It's a petty fault though when one just must see him before and after every class.

KATHRYN STEINMETZ

Greenville
"Katrink"

"With eyes of blue, and hair of black,
And cheeks of rosy-red."

Peppy, romantic, enthusiastic, vivacious, and a dreamer of dreams.

LOUISE STONER

Dayton
"Louie"

*"Sometimes coming, sometimes coy,
Yet she never fails to please."*

A flash of color, a burst of noisy enthusiasm and in comes Louise. Generally speaking—Louise is "generally speaking"—nearly all the time, in fact.

JEAN H. TURNER

Westerville
"Eugenia"

"Enthusiasm is the breath of genius."

Poets are all who love—who feel great truths and tell them—and the truth of truths is love.

ELIZABETH H. TROST

Vandalia
"Elzy"

"Her hair was not more sunny than her heart."

She is of a retiring nature, though we have heard that she gets a good-sized thrill out of a jazz serenade.

DOROTHY UNKLE

Westerville
"Dot"

*"She was made for happy thoughts,
For playful wit and laughter."*

A substitute for the spice of life—a humor of iridescent depths.

MARGARET TRYON

New Philadelphia
"Peggie"

*"If you want a knowing one,
By few am I supplanted."*

She is as chummy with a botanical display as most of us are with pie a la mode.

NELLIE WALLACE

Grafton, W. Va.
"Smilie"

*"Such an one
As everyone should wish to be."*

You can't convince her that any hills can surpass those of ole' West Virginia. She's just as loyal in everything else as she is to the merits of her home state.

Sibyl

CLIFFORD R. WERTZ

Bascom
"Cliff"

"'Tis true his nature may with faults abound,
But who will cavil when the heart is sound?"
He that's in love, i' faith, even if he is hungry, isn't hungry at all.

MARY WHITEFORD

Canton
"Mary"

"She's pretty to walk with,
Witty to talk with
And pleasing to think on."

Mary can't decide whether to open a 'beauty shoppe' and marcel the straight heads of the world, or to become organist of some great cathedral and enchant those same heads.

LAURA E. WHETSTONE

Columbus
"Lolly"

"Let unextinguished laughter shake the sky."
Laura acts well, writes cleverly, and converses interestingly. In fact, she's quite versatile.

JUDITH WHITNEY

Westerville
"Judy"

"Merry-making eyes and jocund smiles."
Even tempered—kind-hearted—industrious—that's Judy!

BETTY WHITE

Westerville
"Betty"

"Have you noticed among the girls
That the cleverest have curls?"
The next time you hear someone arguing to herself, and then walking away with an air of having won her point—congratulate yourself—you've met Betty!

HAROLD WIDDOES

Westerville
"Hadstick"

"His heart is light within him, lads, Whatever wind doth blow."
Even Shakespeare says that all "Widdoes" are merry, and if you knew Harry as we do, you'd know that he is no exception.

GERTRUDE WILCOX

Duke Center, Pa.

"Gertrude"

"When once the young heart of a maiden is stolen,
The maiden herself will steal after it soon."

'Tis said her heart is only here on a visit once in a while.

BYRON A. WILSON

Westerville

"Byron"

"St. Cecilia hardly equals him,
When it comes to extracting music from an organ."

What little time he condescends to give to mortals he divides between the organ and piano. He labors under the idea that the world needs another Chopin.

HENRY D. WILLIAMS

Amsterdam

"Sy"

"To sleep, perchance to dream!"

He is like the wise philanthropist who, in a time of famine, would vote for nothing but a supply of toothpicks.

PAUL ROBY

New Philadelphia

"Roby"

"When a lady's in the case
You know all other things give place."

Yes—all other things—even tennis. And he's a whiz on the tennis court. Ain't it a shame?

ESTHER WILLIAMSON

Marion

"Willie"

"You could not in a palace find
A truer heart than she."

Willie is a brilliant student—even "flunker" courses hold no terrors for her. She is mistress of herself though China fall.

PAUL UPSON

Dayton

"Uppie"

"He is a very headstrong animal, who mistakes the spirit of contradiction for the love of independence."

A snappy basketball player who did much to bring the season's laurels to Otterbein.

REPRESENTATIVE

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AND WOMEN

Two men and two women were chosen from the senior class this year by the student body from a list of twelve nominees for each sex as being the most representative students in their four years of college life. The nominees were selected by a committee composed of Dean N. E. Cornet, Dean Cora A. McFadden, Prof. A. P. Rosselot, and three members of the Sibyl staff.

The election, the results of which have been kept a secret until the publication of the Sibyl, resulted in Sylvia Peden and Margaret Widdoes being selected as the Representative Women, and Carroll Widdoes and Earl Hoover as the Representative Men.

This is the first year an attempt has been made to select representative students. The staff of the 1926 Sibyl hopes that future staffs will carry on the selection.

PHILOMATHEA

Philomatheia has indeed enjoyed a very prosperous year of literary work this past year. She has prospered in numbers as well as quality of work accomplished. Many new types of productions have revealed the talents which heretofore were unknown.

Each senior has an opportunity to preside over parliamentary drill during the year so that something very practical is gained from membership in Philomatheia.

PHILALETHEA

Philalethea was organized in 1852 and enjoyed the distinction of being the only girls' literary society until 1871.

The sessions of Philalethea are of excellent quality, and provide for the members extensive means for preparation in the society world later. The literary standard of Philalethea is very high and the graduate has a keen appreciation of true literary merit. A unique feature of Philalethea is the freshman session given in the latter part of the second semester.

Philalethea bestows personality, poise and character on those who faithfully serve her.

PHILOPHRONEA

Philophronea, founded in 1857, has for sixty-nine years been one of the most beneficial factors in Otterbein for the training of successful men in life. She has had her share in making Otterbein's Literary Societies known and respected throughout the state.

Many hundreds of men have been benefited immeasurably by the work done in Philophronea in the field of debate, oratory, essays, music and parliamentary drill. In a day when literary societies have largely gone out of "style," Philophronea has, because of her valuable training and excellent programs, maintained herself and has even nearly tripled her membership in two years.

CLEIORHETEA

Cleiorhetea owes her origin to the over-crowded condition of Philalethea and the inadequate facilities for providing parliamentary training for such a group. In 1871 eleven members of Philalethea withdrew from that society to become the founders and charter members of the Cleiorhetean Literary Society.

Immediately the society took progressive steps in the literary work of the school, being the first to place a piano in a society hall. Musical numbers were added to her varied programs of debates, orations, readings, original stories and extemporaneous speaking. The first society glee club was organized in Cleiorhetea. It has become an annual custom to present an operetta as one of the most attractive programs of the year.

LITERATURE

When literature is the sole business of life, it becomes a drudgery. When we are able to resort to it only at certain hours, it is a charming relaxation.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

PI KAPPA DELTA

Forensics have been brought to a higher standard and to increased activities at Otterbein through the efforts of Pi Kappa Delta. The Ohio Epsilon chapter is composed of students and faculty members who have represented Otterbein in oratory or debate or as a public speaking instructor.

Robert Knight represented this group at the National Convention at Estes Park, Colorado, in April.

Active Members

Faculty—Prof. Leon McCarty, Prof. A. P. Rosselot, Dr. Howard H. Russell, H. W. Troop, Prof. E. W. E. Schear, Dr. Charles Snively.

Seniors—Dwight Arnold, Joseph Henry, Earl Hoover, Roy Miller, Floyd Rasor, Luciana Snyder.

Juniors—Palmer Fletcher, Clarence Laporte, Perry Laukhuff.

Sophomores—Esther Williamson, D. Harrold, Robert Knight, Karl Kumler.

Freshmen—Clay P. Kohr.

DEBATE SQUAD

Miller, Laukhuff, Knight, Kohr
Arnold, Laporte, Fletcher, Kumler

With men becoming ill and men leaving school the debate squad was again pursued by bad luck, but despite these difficulties, it went through an even more successful season this year than last. The two teams won three out of six decision debates this year as against three out of eight last year.

Arnold on the negative and Knight and Miller on the affirmative were the only veteran debaters available, Laukhuff, Fletcher and Laporte being practically new men. A very satisfactory feature, which will probably be extended next year, was introduced during the past season, in the way of public no-decision debates. Two of these debates were held with Heidelberg at Cardington and Mt. Gilead.

RUSSELL DECLAMATION CONTEST

Alice L. Propst

Propst, Wise, Hudock

As a result of competitive try-outs in the first year public speaking classes, seven contestants were selected to enter the annual Russell Declamation Contest. Miss Alice Propst was awarded first prize for her declamation entitled "A Tribute to Lincoln."

Dean Wise and John Hudock won second and third, respectively, on the same subject, namely, "Nominating Woodrow Wilson."

COLLEGE ORATOR

EARL R. HOOVER

This year Otterbein was again represented in oratory by Earl R. Hoover. At the State Oratorical Contest, held at Hiram College, February 19, Mr. Hoover placed third with his oration, "Invisible Chains." At Ohio Wesleyan in April, he placed second in a contest on the United States Constitution. Otterbein has indeed been fortunate in having such a man as Earl Hoover for College Orator.

The Quiz and Quill Club furthers the interests of creative writing among the students of Otterbein. To this end it publishes annually the Quiz and Quill magazine which contains the best literary work of the student body for the year. The Club also conducts the Quiz and Quill Contest among the underclassmen, giving prizes for the best original productions submitted. At the regular bi-monthly meetings of the Club contemporary prose and poetry are discussed, and original productions by the members are read. The Club has Prof. C. O. Altman as its sponsor. Its members are elected by the Club on the basis of their ability to do creative writing.

ATHLETICS

PROFESSOR R. F. MARTIN is Director of Physical Education and Athletic activities of the college. Every matter concerning athletics comes to his personal attention. It is said that his theory classes learn "an awful lot."

COACH MERLIN A. DITMER is Coach of the Varsity football men. His spring duties include coaching the track men and the baseball nine. Coach Ditmer produces a cracker-jack of a track team too.

COACH R. K. ("DEKE") EDLER puts the Varsity basketball men through a season with a maximum of wins. 'Deke' also coaches the freshman football squad and assists with the varsity football men in the fall.

Here's the latest photograph of the organization that has been largely responsible for a large part of Otterbein's social activities. All of the men in this picture are wearing the new sweaters which were purchased early this spring.

The Varsity "O" puts on an annual minstrel show in early spring, the proceeds of which are used in defraying the various expenses incurred during the year.

For the second consecutive year the Varsity "O" men have sponsored Parents' Day, the celebration of which now belongs among the traditions of the college.

Andrew Porosky was the president of the organization during the past year.

 ("BOZO") RICHTER

Was the general who led the varsity team through six unfortunate battles of mud, rain and bad weather. It brought out the man in "Bozo" to pull the team through the many difficulties.

It took R. K. "Deke" Edler to put the freshmen into the football harness. The freshmen lost the annual tilt of the year with the sophomores by a 7 to 0 score on November 24. The second year men took the kick-off and marched down the field to the freshman 15-yard line where an attempted drop kick fell short. A feature of the march was a 22-yard run by Drexel. On the first play Weaver ran around his right end for twenty-two yards but the next two plays lost it all and the freshmen were forced to punt. An exchange of punts and a penalty gave the ball to the freshmen on the 50-yard line. Two line plays netted five yards and Pinney punted 50 yards to the freshmen 30-yard line. The first play lost five yards for the freshmen and on the next play Drexel intercepted a pass and ran thirty-two yards for the one and only touchdown of the game. A pass, Schott to Riegel, was good for the extra point. Throughout the rest of the game the ball was carried back and forth from one end of the field to the other, but neither team was able to score.

CAPTAIN RICHTER

CAPTAIN "BOZO" RICHTER

"Bozo" was one of the best. A good man for Captain. He was a hard fighter and a steady and consistent player as well as a constant worry to opposing teams.

RAY COLLIER

Ray played his last game for Otterbein at Case in Cleveland on October 10. Soon after this game Ray became suddenly ill with pleural pneumonia. Efforts to save his life were in vain and he died in Grant Hospital October 18.

ROBERT SNAVELY

"Bob" will captain next year's team. He has held a varsity berth for two years and his quick thinking and excellent strategy will be a good asset to the team.

CARROLL WIDDOES

"Widder" is one of the senior members of the team. He was always a fast and shifty player, quick to take advantage of an opening. A fast man will be required to take the place of "Widder."

CHARLES LAMBERT

"Chuck" was a consistent lineman. He was always there with the fight and determination to do his best. We will all depend on "Chuck" next year.

COACH RKEDLER

FELTON

POROSKY

CAVANAUGH

SCHEAR

JOHN L. CRAWFORD

Coach Ditmer found in "Jew" a hard hitter. The rougher the game the better "Jew" liked it. "Give and Take" was his motto.

DONALD FELTON

"Bonnie" is a fine type of lineman. He played an admirable game throughout the season. We feel sure of our tackle for next year.

ANDREW POROSKY

Although "Swede" did not play much on the gridiron, he certainly played the game when he was out. Financial difficulties forced "Swede" to withdraw from extra-curriculars.

MARCUS SCHEAR

"Mark" proved himself a reliable man at center. He was filled with strong determination and was a consistent fighter. "Mark" has one more year of college football.

ROY D. MILLER

Roy is another one of the varsity men who will graduate this year. He has been a faithful player and always gave all he had to the game. His presence on the squad will be missed.

ELVIN CAVANAUGH

"Cavvy" came back in good form after a year or two of rest. He was a reliable asset to the team, a steady, dependable player, and one that will be missed.

MANAGER GEORGE R. GOHN

George was the man the team always yelled for when it wanted anything. He always kept his freshmen managers on the jump to make sure that the Tan and Cardinal eleven lacked nothing.

JOHN CARROLL

Those who saw the Home-coming game know the type of football that "Johnny" plays. He was rather unfortunate in receiving a number of injuries. "Johnny" has one more year on the varsity eleven.

HAROLD McMICHAEL

Sure "Bus" is Irish! And he showed his nationality on the gridiron; his fighting spirit was never defeated. He was a fast, shifty man, and one who will be greatly missed next year.

ARTHUR RENNER

Although small "Art" was a dangerous opponent. What he lacked in stature was more than made up in speed. "Art" was a sure tackler.

ERNEST REIGLE

"Ernie" as an end played a hard and clean game. More than once he showed the opponents that runs around his end were not ground-gainers.

HOWARD MINNICH

In "Tubby" we have a serious, conscientious player, one who gives all he has either in a practice or a game. His fighting spirit will win for him a position in the backfield next year.

GUY BISHOP

Although only a sophomore "Biddy" was a dependable player. He showed he had the stuff which makes football players. Next year we are expecting big things for him.

GRID GAMES OF 1925

BOWLING GREEN 0—OTTERBEIN 0

Otterbein opened the football season with a hard-fought but scoreless tie. Although outweighed both on the line and in the backfield, Otterbein excelled in every department of the game but punting. At no time in the game was the Otterbein goal threatened, although the Bowling Green goal was endangered twice in the second half.

CASE 9—OTTERBEIN 0

Otterbein journeyed to Cleveland in high spirits, determined to beat Case, but fortune was against her. Victory seemed certain several times during the early part of the second half when the Tan and Cardinal gridders carried the ball within scoring distance. Otterbein held Case until the fourth quarter when a fumble was picked up by a Case end who ran for a touchdown. A few moments later a field goal was kicked.

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI 6—OTTERBEIN 0

This game was played on the home gridiron as a part of the Westerville Day celebration. Rain almost threatened the game with annihilation. Cincy scored early in the game; from that time on she was held at a safe distance from the goal. Otterbein missed her only chance to score in the second quarter when, with only sixteen yards to go, Dame Fortune waved the opportunity aside and the mud-covered ball went back to Cincy on a fumble.

MUSKINGUM 13—OTTERBEIN 0

Weakened through injury and broken in spirit by the death of Ray Collier, the Otterbein eleven met the Muskingum squad in another sea of mud and water and suffered defeat. Once Otterbein came to the two-yard line but was held for downs. Otterbein registered 7 first downs to Muskingum's 4.

HIRAM 12—OTTERBEIN 12

It was Home-coming day and there was a good crowd of alumni. Once again the game was played in the usual sea of mud. Otterbein scored in the first and last quarters, with the honor of the first touchdown of the season going to Carroll. Otterbein outplayed her opponents throughout the entire game, but Fortune once more showed her unwillingness to allow victory to greet her men of the gridiron.

BALDWIN-WALLACE 7—OTTERBEIN 0

The wind played havoc with the passes in this game. During the first half the ball was taken up and down the field by both sides with neither gaining any advantage. Otterbein was determined to score during the second half, but Baldwin-Wallace made several substitutions and prevented all attempts.

CAPTAIN CARROLL WIDDOES

No fault could be found with Captain Widdoes' playing. He was a consistent player and a true sportsman. "Widder" has completed three years of varsity basketball. His place will be hard to fill.

GLENN BUELL

"Bull" was only a sophomore, but was a fast one. The varsity found a valuable man in him. He was noted for his accurate shooting. Much can be expected of Buell within the next two years.

A. O. BARNES

A. O. proved by his high type of basketball that he would make a good man to captain the team next year. His ability to handle the ball cleverly, made him a valuable man.

ROBERT SNAVELY

"Bob" came through and played some wonderful games of basketball. As a floor guard he is among the best. The cleverness with which he handled the ball enabled him to dribble through and score many times.

ANDREW POROSKY

Coach Edler found in "Swede" a man qualified for center. Big and strong, he had that fighting spirit which is needed in a center. He was a good guard and also an accurate shooter. It will take a good man to fill his place.

MANAGER LESTER COX

Lester was efficiency personified when it came to having relief kits, water and towels on deck at just the right time.

KEENE VAN CUREN

Van was a good man, fast and clever with the ball. He was a hard and consistent fighter; next year we know he will go strong.

PAUL UPSON

"Uppie" was going strong until he became sick. He was a good man and an accurate shot, and certainly clever at handling the ball.

HAROLD McMICHAEL

"Bus" played basketball like he does everything else—with all his might. He was always there with the fight and determination. He will be missed next year.

JOHN CARROLL

"Johnny" is another one of those fast men on the varsity court. "Johnny" has another year to dribble the ball down the floor.

ERNEST REIGLE

Coach Edler found in "Ernie" a hard, dependable fighter. He was only a sophomore, but you can bet on "Ernie" for the next two years.

1926 BASKET BALL CONTESTS

OTTERBEIN 45—CASE 36

After winning six of the seven pre-season games, the Tan and Cardinal pill-tossers opened the Conference season with a win at the expense of Case. The men were on their toes every minute of the game and, although trailing at the close of the half, they manifested that never-give-up spirit which was to carry them through a most successful season.

OTTERBEIN 41—WITTENBERG 16

The second game of the Conference season was played at Springfield with Wittenberg. Only once was the score tied. After that the Otterbein boys took the lead and remained ahead by several points. Barnes was the high scorer of this game.

OTTERBEIN 30—WESTERN RESERVE 31

On Saturday afternoon, January 16, Otterbein won another game at the expense of Western Reserve. The entire game was fast and exciting; first one team was ahead and then another. Buell was high scorer of this net contest.

OTTERBEIN 26—MUSKINGUM 44

Otterbein suffered her first defeat of the season at the hands of Muskingum at New Concord. The score does not tell the story of the game. The game was hard-fought from beginning to end. Every Otterbein man had visions of a perfect season and it was only in the final minutes of play that the game was decided. Both teams played hard and fast, but the Black and Magentas finally took away the heavy end of the score.

OTTERBEIN 24—HEIDELBERG 15

Although Otterbein beat Heidelberg 24 to 15, the game did not elicit much praise as far as a good playing was concerned. The game was largely a hit and miss contest with a great deal of loose playing. Widdoes was the high scorer with ten points.

OTTERBEIN 38—OHIO NORTHERN 19

Otterbein defeated Ohio Northern at Ada in a fast-stepping contest. The Tan and Cardinal net swishers took an early lead and were never endangered after the first few minutes. Excellent team work was brought out in this game. Snively gained 13 points as the high scorer.

OTTERBEIN 44—ST. XAVIER 29

The varsity administered defeat to the St. Xavier team in the high school gymnasium on February 13. At the end of the first half it looked unfavorable for Otterbein, but after a rest the boys came back strong and began hitting the basket regularly. Buell was high scorer with 19 points.

OTTERBEIN 37—WOOSTER 36

Otterbein journeyed to Wooster and defeated her by a one-point margin on February 18. During the entire first half the game went nip and tuck. Wooster was ahead 17-15 at the intermission. With but eight minutes the score stood 29 to 20 in Wooster's favor. Otterbein quickly rallied and won by one point. Barnes made thirteen points as the high scorer.

OTTERBEIN 33—MUSKINGUM 41

In the best basketball game ever witnessed on the home floor the Tan and Cardinal yielded ground before the flashy attack of Muskingum's claimed-championship quintet and was finally downed by a 41 to 33 score.

OTTERBEIN 38—KEYON 39

Otterbein went to Kenyon in high spirits, confident that she was going to win another game, but such was not the case, for she lost by a one-point margin.

OTTERBEIN 61—BALDWIN-WALLACE 34

This game with Baldwin-Wallace at Berea on February 29 was so much one-sided that it was no contest at all. However, it was interesting to see Otterbein pile up so many points. Widdoes was the high scorer with 23 points.

OTTERBEIN 44—KENYON 35

Otterbein closed a successful basketball season with the final game with Kenyon in the high school gymnasium. The game was fast and well played, although the Otterbein boys did not get started until the second half; after that they left Kenyon in the rear.

THE 1925 CINDER MEN

 Back: Broadhead, Eschbach, Bennett, H. Widdoes, Ferguson, Mayberry (Manager).

The Otterbein Track Squad earned decisive victories in dual meets with five Ohio colleges. The schedule was an exceptionally hard one, including Wittenberg, Kenyon, Ohio University and Ohio Northern (two meets). The season went to the finish without a defeat.

In the Ohio Relays held April 18 at Ohio State, the relay team took first place in the college division, class B. Widdoes tied for third in the pole vault and Porosky placed fifth in the discus throw and broke the college record with a throw of 117 feet 2 inches.

Otterbein took fifteen firsts in the meet, with Kenyon on May 2. The absence of Porosky directly affected the discus and javelin throwing. The final score was 68 to 49.

Ohio University met disaster to the tune of 82 to 49 when Otterbein went to Athens May 16. Stoughton broke the 440-yard dash by running it in 51 flat.

High winds prevented Otterbein from breaking any records on May 23 when she met Ohio Northern and defeated her 93-34.

Otterbein sent twelve men to the Big Six Meet which was held at Ohio Wesleyan May 29 and 30. Both the relay and the discus records were broken in this meet. Ohio Wesleyan won the meet with Otterbein in ninth place.

THE RELAY TEAM

BROADHEAD, BEELMAN, RUFFINI, STOUGHTON

The Relay Team was composed of Herbert Stoughton, Abel Ruffini, Floyd Beelman, and Clarence Broadhead. These men broke the record which they had set at the Big Six meet two years before with the exception that Broadhead took the place of Dean Upson.

Front: Ruffini, Young, Kerns, Renner, Garver (Captain), McCarroll, Wilburg, Carroll Back: Coach Ditmer, Phalor, Jacoby, Lambert, Yohn, Collier, Widdoes, Laporte, Reigle (Manager).

The baseball season opened on April 24 with Otterbein playing the Denison nine. The infield played a clever game and the score was 7 to 6 in the Tan team's favor.

On May 5 the home team played the return game with Denison at Granville and lost by just one point.

Otterbein lost to Kenyon by a 7-6 score on May 1, Parents' Day, on the home diamond.

The varsity nine went down to a 7 to 4 defeat at the hands of the Ohio University team on May 15. Although the Tan team played a strong game it was held severely in check by the Ohio U. men.

On May 22 Otterbein succeeded in defeating Kenyon by the very close score of 3 to 2 in the return game. Tight fielding featured this game.

In the last game of the season the Tan and Cardinal nine suffered a 7 to 4 defeat at the hands of Wittenburg on May 28.

THE 1925 RACQUETEERS

McGUIRE, McCONAUGHY, MAYNE, CARPENTER, PATRICK (CAPTAIN),
CARPENTER, G. BECHTOLT, F. BECHTOLT, SYLER

Otterbein's Tennis Squad, the largest in recent years, reported to Captain Merrill Patrick for practice on the courts prepared by Manager Floyd McGuire and his crew of freshmen assistants.

This was one of Otterbein's most disastrous seasons in this sport for some time. The team, shifting its personnel from time to time, did not seem to be able to hit its stride and lost every match of the season.

Beginning the season Otterbein met the strong Wesleyan team which included the state champion and was defeated by a 6 to 0 score.

On the following Saturday, Denison came through on the long end of the 2 to 1 score.

Meeting Wooster twice in the next week, Otterbein was twice defeated by a 3-0 score.

In the next match Kenyon ran away with a 3 to 0 score. A few days later Ohio University took a match 5 to 1.

Muskingum came and conquered to the tune of 6 to 0 and thus closed the season with a perfect list of defeats.

SENIOR SPEEDBALL CHAMPIONS

Front: Phillips, Renner, Young, Stair, Bragg.
Back: Yohn, Richter, Stoughton, Wilson, Lash, Eschbach, Tinsley.

The Senior speedball team won the inter-class speedball championship by defeating the Sophomores in the deciding game of the series. The final score was 12 to 3.

SOPHOMORES WIN GRID TILT

The Sophomore football squad kept its record clean when the second year men defeated the Freshmen 7 to 0 on November 24 on the gridiron as the final finish in the battle of supremacy between the two classes.

Special Invitation to Students of Otterbein College

We want every student in Otterbein College to come to the Rexall Drug Store and get acquainted not only with the store and its splendid stock of the things they want in their studies and for personal use, but get personally acquainted as we know how it is to be away from home and out of touch with the local dealers they have been accustomed to deal with all their lives.

The invitation to come to the Rexall Drug Store is extended to every one and you may be assured of a welcome as soon as you come here. Make this your headquarters for everything and you will find your away-from-home troubles simplified.

We carry a very large stock of School and College needs and of course the things you will expect to find in a drug store such as Brushes, Combs, Toilet Articles and Novelties, Souvenirs, Jewelry.

Look to this store for your needs. If anything is wanted and we do not have it in stock, we will be glad to get it for you without delay.

We trust you are finding things pleasant for you in Westerville and that you are progressing in your studies even to the fullest of your expectations.

Don't fail to come in and see our stock. Learn our way of doing business. We want to know you personally and have you think of our store as your own in your home town.

Come in and make yourself known at any time.

Yours very truly,
REXALL DRUG STORE.

A world without pictures!

WELL hardly, since photo engravings scatter your story in pictures to the four corners of the earth and likewise bring pictures to you from the far places that you would not see otherwise. Few people realize the methods used in making plates for printing the pictures you see every day. You have an advantage over the boy in the above scene. A visit to our plant will acquaint you with the methods of reproduction and the uses for halftones, zinc etchings and plates for color work. Our Art Department and Commercial Photo Gallery are for your service when photographs and drawings are needed.
