CLASS BANQUET IS BIG SUCCESS

Senior and Sophomore Classes Enjoy
Superb Banquet Tuesday Evening.

STOUGHTON TOASTMASTER

Informality Marks Event—Dining Hall Beautifully Decorated In Artistic Manner.

When the Seniors and Sophomores met together in the parlors of the College Church in their annual banquet, the basement of the church had been transformed into a place of beauty. In spite of the recent regulations against profuse decorations of paper, the class of '26 had arranged very tastefully potted plants, flowers and other decorative material.

Within the hollow square formed by the tables sat a harpist who furnished the music while the banquet was being served.

Following the disposal of the menu, Miss Gertrude Myers, social chairman of the Class of '26, introduced "Doc" Stoughton as the master of ceremonies for the evening. President Earl Hoover of the Sophomore Class welcomed the guests of the evening and Harold Darling, President of the Senior Class, responded.

Marion Hite, '24, and George Gohn, '26, both presented toasts, the former on "Capital Punishment" and the latter on "Bunk".

Musical numbers were introduced between the toasts, the first being a piano solo by Miss Bonnell, '26, and

FRENCH PLAYS TO BE GIVEN

French Club Will Present Moliere's
Three Act Comedy, "La Malade Imaginaire."

Much enthusiasm marks the announcement that on Saturday evening, May 24, the annual French plays will be presented in the college chapel by members of the French Club.

The play to be given by the members of the club is Moliere's three act comedy "La Malade Imaginaire."

In this play the leading parts will be played by Edna Yaus, Wray Richardson, Joseph Mayne and Clarence Broadhead. As a curtain-raiser and semi-final, two one-act plays will be put on by members of the third year class. What two plays will be staged by the third year class has not yet been definitely decided upon.

Professor Rosselot, head of the Department of Romance Languages, Professor Mills and Mrs. Rosselot are directing and coaching the plays.

VARSITY TEAMS TO PLAY

Baseball Team to Meet Denison and Ohio Abroad—Tennis Men
Have Two Matches.

Otterbein teams enter four contests this week, all of which are away from home. There are two baseball games and two tennis tournaments. The track team does not go into action this week.

The first baseball game is on Tuesday with Denison at Granville. The game with Ohio University on Saturday should give Otterbein another chance to rejoice also. The fact that Ohio won here several weeks ago is all the more reason why Otterbein should win this game.

The tennis team does some traveling this week. The first trip is to Ada where a tournament will be played with Ohio Northern University on Friday. The next day there is a tournament with Heidelberg at Tiffin. As both teams fell under the drives of the Otterbein net men in previous meets, "Al" and his gang should have no serious difficulty in either tournament.

Music Week Is Observed with Appropriate Chapel Services

The entire chapel services both Thursday and Friday were conducted by the School of Music which presented two very fine musical programs in observance of National Music Week.

The program Thursday morning consisted of five musical numbers rendered by a trio of piano, violin, and cello. Miss Vance at the piano, Miss Cridland, violin, and Professor Spessard, cello, composed the trio.

Friday morning the Men's Glee Club gave five numbers selected from their regular program. After the last number by the Glee Club the entire student body sang the Love Song.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

Otterbein Woman's Club of Columbus
Holds Musical Tea Saturday Afternoon.

Nearly two hundred members and friends of the Otterbein Woman's Club of Columbus and vicinity enjoyed a delightful Musical Tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Abbott Smith (Weltha Pinney) on East Broad Street, Columbus. A varied program of vocal and instrumental music was given from three to four o'clock. Mrs. Edward Winslow Harrington, soprano, and Mr. Earl Hughes, tenor, opened and closed the program with duets, and each sang a group of Kreisler's compositions. Besides accompanying each number on the program, Mrs. Marguerite Heer Oman played as a solo the Liszt Legende, "Saint Francis Walking on the Waves." Mr. Hughes elicited a round of applause when he announced that he would sing as an encore, "O Little Mother of Mine" by Burleigh.

After the musical program the guests were invited into the dining room where dainty and delicious refreshments were served. The dining table was decorated with cardinal tulips, and mints in cardinal and tan reminded those present of the Otterbein colors. An hour was spent very pleasantly in greeting old friends and making new ones before the guests left. Among the prominent persons present were Mrs. James J. Thomas, wife of Mayor Thomas of Columbus, who with Mrs. W. G. Clippinger, was a patroness of the Tea, and Mrs. Thad H. Brown, wife of the Secretary of State of Ohio.

"ANDY" HITS HOME RUN

Pill Tossers Playing Stellar Ball
Trim Big Red By a 4-1
Score.

Otterbein won from Denison in baseball on the home grounds last Friday afternoon by a 4-1 score. Effective bunching of hits in the second inning was largely responsible for the victory. The Granville crew got their lone tally in the first inning but Otterbein took the lead with three runs in the second frame by pounding Rush, the Baptist twirler, for several successive hits. Anderson, first man up in the eighth added another by crashing the season's first homer out into left field.

In this set-to Hancock proved himself a genuine ace of the diamond. "Hank" kept Denison's seven hits scattered through six innings. Not only that, but he sewed up the game by driving in the winning runs in the second. Lowmiller replaced Rush for Denison on the mound in the ninth.

Good work by the fielders at critical moments valuably seconded the

PICNIC DAY CHOSEN

Monday, May 26, Is Special Day Set
Aside for Social Group
Frolics.

A resolution requesting that an official day be chosen for the spring picnics of the social groups was submitted to the faculty last week by the Student Council, and received the approval of that body. Monday, May 26, was the date selected. All classes and routine work of the colleges will be suspended, so that the entire day may be given over to the occasion, and all social group picnics will be held on that day.

The setting aside of a special day for the picnics comes as a result of the strong sentiment against using Memorial Day for that purpose, as has been customary in the past, and Monday was singled out rather than a day in the latter part of the week in order to avoid conflict with baseball and track contests.

DOCTOR SCOTT CELEBRATES BY MAKING LONG HIKE

Saturday, Dr. Scott, professor of Latin, was 75 years "young". To prove this and to celebrate his birthday he left his home at 6:30 Saturday morning walked to Columbus, ate lunch with Mrs. Scott at the Dunn-Taft store and then to complete the day walked back as far as Minerva Park. In spite of the fact that he made the remainder of the trip on the car his hike was a total of 22 miles.

The day's plans of Dr. Scott were nearly brought to an abrupt close shortly after he left Westerville. When he was just leaving Westerville a dog walked up behind him and removed, without warning, the seat of the professor's trousers. But Dr. Scott was determined to carry out his plans and he continued his journey even though part of his clothing was missing.

Dr. Scott walked every step of the way and he refused five offers of passing motorists to take him to Columbus. Although it rained several times Saturday morning Professor Scott made the trip with only the protection of an umbrella. He made the trip to Columbus in three and one-half hours.

NET MEN TASTE DEFEAT

Antioch Scores 3-0 Victory over Tan Team—Meet Closer Than Score Indicates.

The Otterbein tennis team again suffered defeat at the hands of the Antioch team on last Wednesday, May 6, on the home courts. The game was hot and fast, and the home team showed more ability than the 3-0 score indicates.

The tournament started with Cornet serving to Cook of Antioch. Cook was the visitors' best player. He played excellent tennis, returning balls which it seemed impossible to reach, and serving in his turn a ball which was not easy to return. "Rus" didn't have a superfluity of good luck and Antioch won the first two sets, 7-5 and 6-0.

Mattoon showed up well in his first set against Strong by winning it 11-9. However, Strong came back in the next two sets and won them both, the scores being 6-2 and 6-1. "Al" had a lot of tough luck while his opponent was rather lucky at times.

Having lost both matches of singles Otterbein anticipated a victory in the doubles, but this victory was not forthcoming. Patrick and Brown were not quite equal to the occasion against Cook and Peterson. With a set apiece the score of each being 6-2, they started the third set on equal grounds. But here the visitors pulled out in advance and won six games while Otterbein won only three.

1924 Bulletin Will Be More Complete Than Ever Before

Within the next two weeks the College Bulletin for 1924-25 will be ready for distribution. The new catalogue will be much bigger and more complete than ever before.

Departmental writers will be quite different from those of former years. The form of all write-ups will be similar thus eliminating all chance of confusion. After each section will be found a schedule of hours and days of recitation.

Another feature of the new catalogue will be a section stating and explaining rules and regulations pertaining to student life and conduct.

Dr. Howard Speaks

Last Sunday morning, members of the United Brethren congregation were privileged to hear a message from Bishop Howard, of Dayton, O. Dr. Howard is president of Bonebrake Theological Seminary, located in Dayton, and he spoke in behalf of that institution. In elaborating upon his subject, "The Consummation of Life's Privilege," Dr. Howard pointed out religion as the greatest need of America, and Christian leadership as the great need in the solution of the world's social problems, emphasizing the responsibility and relation of every church member in regard to these problems. He then made clear Bonebrake Seminary's position in training men and women for Christian appeal for the support of the institution.

STUDENTS DO GRAD WORK

Statistics Compiled in College Office Reveal Many Interesting Facts.

Recent statistics compiled in the college office reveal many interesting facts in relation to the graduates of Otterbein who are now pursuing graduate work. These figures begin with the class of 1918 and include the members of the class of 1923.

Since 1918 one out of every four or twenty-five percent of the graduates of Otterbein are now pursuing graduate work. Of the class of 1918 seven members are in school. Eleven members of the 1919 class are attending graduate school. The number of students of the 1920 class is considerably less, there being only five in school. To the class of 1921 goes the honors of having the largest number of members in school, there being twenty-two. The class of 1922 is second with seventeen and close on its heels is the class of 1923 which has sixteen members still engaged in academic work.

Otterbein graduates are doing work in thirteen different schools located in every section of the United States. The schools and number of graduates in each is as follows: Ohio State University, 26; Bonebrake Seminary, 17; Columbia, 8; Western Reserve, 5; Harvard, 4; Pitt., 4; Chicago, 4; Yale, 4; Syracuse, New York Biblical Seminary, Office Training School, Hartford School of Mississippi and Michigan, each 1.

"Echoes of Nature," Revealed to Co-eds through Y. W. C. A.

We are quite sure that those in attendance at Y. W. Tuesday evening feel amply repaid for any effort it required to leave the beautiful out-of-doors for a few moments of services. The special musical feature was that beautiful song, "Others," sung by Ruth Lucas.

The timely topic, "Echoes from Nature," was well presented by a student of the open book of nature, Esther Bearss. She spoke of the three kingdoms represented in nature, the mineral, the plant, and the animal. Illustrating the minerals, which are constantly being changed by the roots of plants into life-preserving forms she used the modest violet, which bears the message of love and good-will, and the water-lily, which rises from unsightly surroundings to a beautiful example of purity.

Last, but by no means least, the crowning "echo of nature," that of mother-love was not forgotten. Fitting tributes were paid to the mothers and their sacrificial love to which we are all debtors.

O. C. Plays Practice Game

Everard Ulrey, '23, brought his Galena Hi baseball boys down for a practice game with the varsity on Tuesday afternoon. Ulrey himself occupied the mound for the first couple of innings for his team and proved that he is still able to whip them over as of yore. Of course the varsity won by a wide margin, but the Galena boys also showed some stuff. Features of the game were a sensational catch by the high school centerfielder and a home run by Garver.

Don't Fail to Vote.

Within the next few weeks elections to the various offices and governing bodies for the year 1924-25 will be held. These elections will be important and should receive the thought and careful consideration of every student, especially those who will return to Otterbein next year.

No elaborate instructions need be given to the voter. All he needs to do is to exercise a little common sense and show a fair amount of interest. Anyone who uses common sense in the balloting for a candidate is an intelligent voter. If any instructions need be given they are simple and few in number. First vote, and then think who you are voting for.

It is important that you vote for if you don't it allows the control of undergraduate activities to fall into the hands of a few students. Students should be vitally interested in who shall be elected to fill the offices, for those who are selected will legislate for you next year. It is hard to believe that students are not interested in the outcome of campus elections. To be sure you are not eligible to vote in every organization but in those where you can don't fail to show some interest by voting.

Don't vote for a likeable candidate or a personal acquaintance, but rather vote for the man who will conscientiously do his duty. If you vote for that type of a man the office will be filled with good men and women and organizations will be more than likely managed to suit you.

If you didn't vote don't find fault with some organization because their candidate was elected. The officers elected are usually members of those organizations who were present at the election. If you find the new officers not your choice you are at liberty to criticize if you voted but if not, you have no right to find fault with the new officers.

Education.

Editor's Note: The following was the closing address given by Dr. W. H. Scott at the dedication ceremonies of the Clinton school building, Columbus. The short address is a masterpiece of its kind and no one can read it without considerable thought and emotion. Inasmuch as many members of this year's graduating class are going into the field of education we feel that each one after having read the following address will have a far clearer view of the responsibilities and duties of the profession he is about to practice.

"Let us now with earnest hearts and with exalted faith and hope solemnly consecrate this building to its high and holy purpose. May the youth of this community for generations to come gather in this place to receive instruction in knowledge and training in virtue. May they find here every condition necessary to a true and enlightened education. Especially, may their teachers be examples of excellence in scholarship and character, seekers after goodness and truth, lovers of children, enthusiasts and adepts in the finest of all arts, the development and inspiration of human souls. May these rooms always be pervaded with an invigorating atmosphere of mental and moral life, and may no child pass from these schools to higher grades or to the outer world without having been made more intelligent, more thoughtful, more courageous, more virtuous, and in every way more capable of wise and just, of useful and noble living. To this end, may the blessing of God be upon child and parent, upon pupil and teacher, upon principal and superintendent, and upon every one whose influence will in any degree affect the work of education as it shall be conducted within these walls.

CLUB TALK

A Suggested Remedy.

Otterbein's student spirit is improving. Anyone who is not incorrigibly pessimistic must admit it. While morale was at a low ebb during the winter as is seen in the lack of support to the basketball team, this spring has seen a little revival of pep. And yet it is woefully low. This is evident in the general apathy, no rallies, no pep in general.

And the fault lies, in our little world, as in the world in general, in isolation. Speaking frankly, there is little cooperation or none between student organizations and between the non-group students and those aligned with clubs. And without this general good spirit the school cannot prosper. "United we stand, divided —." Got it?

The evil thus is plain to those who have any vision at all. Now for the cure. Down east there is a little college called Williams, with but a limited enrollment. Yet its athletic teams go out and make splendid showings against institutions many times its size. All over the country it is known for its wonderful student spirit. Let us see how it is accomplished.

At Williams there is a law that no student may room with a fraternity brother during his first two years in school. This is an unwritten law. Yet it is carried out absolutely to the letter. Details are unimportant except that the older men in each fraternity insure positively its being carried out without any pressure whatsoever from faculty or alumni.

If this plan meets with such good success at this eastern college, is it not worthy of a trial here? Otterbein is in a dilemma on this issue. One thing this is the way to solve it. One thing is certain, that if such action is to be taken it must come from the students themselves, not from professors or from graduates. Such a system would insure a general good feeling brought about by more intimate contacts with fellows and girls outside one's own circle.

To put this in practice will not be easy. Nothing worth while is easily achieved. But those who have the school's welfare at heart can not afford to ignore the issue longer.

This suggestion comes from one who is a non-group man, yet has his heart intent on whatever may brighten the glory of "Old Otterbein."

—Junior.

SENIOR SPORTRAITS

Harvey Leffel is another of the Daytonians who crowd our campus. "Lef" started here back in the days of the S. A. T. C., but on account of skipping a couple of years he is with us yet. Though Harvey has dabbled some in other sports, his game is baseball. He gained his first letter in the spring of '22. Last year he was out of school, but this season he seems again a fixture in the outfield.

Albert Mattoon, a Westerville product, is tennis captain this year. "Al" got his first chance at Varsity work last year. Meeting the competition that he did, his court play improved by leaps and bounds. At the end of the season he was elected captain by his teammates. Judging from the stuff Mattoon has shown in his early matches, his record this year should be an enviable one.

O. C. Tracksters Win

Otterbein swamped Ohio Northern in a dual track meet by a 80 1-2 to 31 1-2 score. Only three firsts were taken by the home school out of fourteen starts.

Due to bad weather conditions and a slow track no records were broken but the Otterbein team as a whole looked good, running up a score that has not been equalled for a couple of seasons.

The meet was a two-place affair in which Otterbein took an aggregate of eleven firsts, eight seconds and a tie for second place. Up to the last part of the contest, the outcome was uncertain as a few firsts in the last events would have put Northern out in front.

Stoughton and Broderick were high men for Otterbein with two firsts apiece. Widdoes, Porosky, Keim and Staats garnered their first Otterbein track letters also. Richter, Garver and Keim also took firsts in their events in handy fashion.

Summary of events:

Pole Vault—Widdoes (O) first. Height: 10 ft. 4 in. Sabatinelly (N) second.

100 Yard Dash—Stoughton (O) first. Time 11.2 sec. Staats (O) second.

Shot Put—Richter (O) first. Distance: 36 ft. 7 1-4 in. Boop (N) sec.

Mile Run—Broderick (O) first. Time: 4:59.1. Martini (N) second.

Discus—Porosky (O) first. Distance 110 ft. 1 in. Richter (O) sec.

440 Yard Dash—Robertson (N) first. Time: 54.9 sec. Ruffini (O) second.

120 Yard High Hurdles—Eighmy (N) first. Time 17.4 sec. Widdoes (O) second.

High Jump—Garver (O) first. Height 5 ft. 1 in. Cowan (N) sec.

220 Yard Dash—Stoughton (O) first. Time 24.3. Upson (O) and Armstrong (N) tied for second.

Javelin—Boop (N) first. Distance 141 ft. 6 in. Porosky (O) second.

880 Yard Run—Broderick (O) first. Time 2:13.4. Robertson (N) second.

220 Yard Low Hurdles—Staats (O) first. Time 28.2 sec. Anderson (O) second.

Broad Jump—Anderson (O) first. Distance 20 ft. 5 3-4 in. Stair (O) second.

Two Mile Run—Keim (O) first. Time: 11:23.7. Schulz (O) second. Relay not run.

Professor Valentine Leads Interesting Y. M. C. A. Meeting

As the third of a series of Y. M. C. A. meetings on the general theme of vocational guidance, Thursday evening, Professor Valentine spoke on the subject, "Teaching As a Profession."

That teaching is a science and not a hit or miss proposition was one of the first statements Professor Valentine made. He went on further to show why a scientific teacher makes a success and a teacher patterning after the hit or miss proposition does not. In discussing the subjects which prospective students should take in college Professor Valentine said that probably psychology was the most valuable and that the student should not generalize too much but should specialize enough to be able to teach one subject well. He added also that if anyone thinks he can teach any subject it is a sure sign he cannot teach any one well. In his closing remarks Professor Valentine held out the teaching profession as one of the greatest professions, both from the standpoint of wages received and service rendered.
