FOREWORD

The purpose of any college year book is to present some conception of the life typical of the school. If we, the staff, have been able to preserve a record of the year's achievements; if we have been able to insure vivid memories of our friendships and of our associations; if we have been able to strengthen the loyalty to and devotion for, our Alma Mater; we may feel satisfied and happy in the assurance that we have accomplished something very worth-while.

The development of one's physical side is a requisite to the proper development of one's mental side Muscular strength may be likened to strength of character -- Agility to - mental alertness -- Speed to mental quickness -- Balance to power of decision. The mental strain entailed by the modern college curriculum today must be backed up by a reservoir of physical energy. Health of body is necessary to health of mind

And now, to meet this need, a long cherished dream has at last become a reality. We, the student body of Otterbein College are forever indebted to those who, by their tireless interest and unstinting gifts of time and money, have made this edifice, the Alumni Gymnasium, possible. To its benefactors the Editorial Board dedicates this ~~~ Sibyl of nineteen hundred and thirty

PRESIDENT WALTER G. CLIPPINGER, A.B., D.D., LL.D.

President's Message

We send forth this Sibyl with the good wishes of the college to all who see and read its pages. A sibyl is an oracle, a diviner of mysteries and a revealer of hidden things. Otterbein has no secrets to reveal or strange mysteries to unravel but there is the search of hidden truth and inspiration as yet unrevealed to the mind of youth. This book is a record of the life of Otterbein College. It portrays its work and its play life; its serious side and its humorous side. It reflects the intellectual, the religious, the physical, and the social phases of college life. As such it also becomes an interpreter of the meaning of all these aspects of human nature.

Otterbein's past has been highly commendable and inspiring. In material assets her growth has been steady and rapid. The endowment has increased eleven-fold in twenty-five years. Buildings have been erected one after another in regular succession. In the past ten years three buildings have gone up. In twenty-five years seven buildings have been constructed and two remodeled. In this period graduating classes have increased in number from twenty-five to one hundred each. Other less tangible but real developments have taken place in the educational program of the college.

What of the future? May it be that in some mysterious but very real way this Sibyl may become an interpreter and a revealer of the still longer possibilities of both the material and spiritual possibilities of this good old college.

We commend this Sibyl to you, kind reader, for your sympathetic consideration.

W. J. Clippinger

The Search for Truth

What impels the young man or the young woman of the present day to go to college? Many answers to this important question might be given and they might all be correct in specific instances. Is there not, however, one fundamental reason which brings the young man or woman to college today? If we were to accurately interpret our own minds, would we not find that "the search for truth has urged us to make the decision in favor of a college education?

There are many ways we can realize this ambition. If we carefully and consistently seek to develop our four-fold life, we will discover truth on all sides.

The physical life will need a great deal of attention in order that the body may adequately serve the intellectual and spiritual needs. Otterbein is now well equipped to meet this side of the student's life. May we improve every opportunity to benefit by these new advantages.

The social side of the student's nature can be well taken care of. None of us lives alone and unto himself. It is impossible to avoid contacts with our fellows. It, therefore, behooves us to cultivate the social side of our natures, not to the exclusion of other important phases of life, but to such a degree that we may live happily with our associates.

We have often heard it said that the intellectual side of our lives at college is the most important. We cannot avoid such a conclusion since our minds serve all other elements in our nature. They are the tools with which we obtain and retain the information we receive in college. They serve us in our work and in all our preparation for living our lives after we are through with our college training.

Our intellects are the tools even of our spiritual life. If they are properly trained and developed, we can live our religious lives more intelligently and can better put our religion into the form of "service to others."

Students of Otterbein, can we not, with one accord, seek after Truth, by systematic effort at the task of rounding out our lives on these four sides? In so far as we are able to accomplish this will we succeed in serving our generation.

Senior Class History

Seniors! Four years have gone, and we are going too, with joy, with expectations, with perhaps a tear or two. It has been well for us to be here. You have been too good to us, little world of Otterbein. Like a mother you have helped us in our little problems, you have tied up our poor stubbed toes and kissed away the hurt in mashed fingers. You have called us early in the morning and tucked us in at twilight, have taught us little prayers to say. Our sorrows have been yours, and when we have won some little renown among our playmates you have been proud to say "They are my children."

How we have grown since first we knew you! Do you remember that first September morning when you found us in a basket on your doorstep? And do you remember, Otterbein, how you gathered us to your bosom and loved us everyone? And do you remember that day when you found our first tooth, and that other when we first took a step alone?

You have imparted to us some of the nature that is yours — some of your truth, harsher world. Your halls have taught their "message of truth and hope and love." You have imparted to us some of the nature that is yours — some of your truth, some of your lofty ideal of love for humankind.

We leave you now in body, but in spirit you will go with us. If to this world's loveliness we may add one pearl or twinkling star, it is to you that we owe our gratitude, and your heart will burn within to remember that you loved and nutured us.

Junior Class History

The class of '31, the present illustrious Junior Class, 'though now heaped with honor and crowned by achievement, started life in the usual humble way and came to glory by the verdant road of Freshman-dom. May we as shining examples encourage the present and all future freshman classes of Otterbein; we were once as they.

But from the start we began making history; Freshman Week with all its social and academic advantages began with us. And indeed it was only a short time until haughty upper classmen and defeated sophomores begrudgingly admitted that here in the infant class of '31 were athletic stars of unusual brilliance. For on the memorable Scrap Day of that year our husky lads pulled the surprised sophs. through the muddy waters of Alum Creek.

In that first year there was much excited hurrying about from place to place trying to establish ourselves in the delightfully novel campus life. And now in the years that have followed we have attained unthinkable heights under the leadership of our distinguished presidents who were, for the first three years respectively, Paul Hughes, David Burke and Walter Clippinger, Jr.

We are now ready to enter the glory of Seniors and shall assume appropriate dignity made possible by past achievement.

Sophomore Class History

No, we are not, nor never were, new specimens for the laboratories of Otterbein's Hall of Science. To be sure, we have had psychology tests, physical examinations, and placement tests, but there is nothing unusual or remarkable about that. There have been scrap days, football games, debates, declamation contests, and social events that we, as a class, have met and conquered and sometimes not.

We have had ambitions and high hopes but who lives that has not had them also? We have had dreams too, but they have been the dreams of normal red-blooded youth. And we have been challenged but we have turned the deaf ear of cynicism to all appeals to our loyalty in a true sophomoric spirit. Perhaps the only distinguishing characteristic about us is our cynical attitude and we are not particularly proud of this. But then we are sophomores and should be forgiven.

In fact, to be perfectly truthful, we, like every other college class are having a struggle to keep ourselves above the dead level of drab mediocrity. In spite of all the ready-made platitudes handed down to us we are feeling how very ordinary we really are. But this is a good sign and it may be that even yet we shall achieve the humbleness of spirit and the sincerity of purpose which are the marks of true greatness. And the thing that helped us along the path of meekness has been the inspiring example of our two presidents, Wilbert Echard in our freshman year and Everett Whipkey now. Of course only time, the great revealer, will tell the truth but we are hopeful.

Freshman Class History

As you know school for the Freshmen began on Friday, September thirteenth and much to everyone's surprise we arrived safely. There were tall ones, short ones, fat ones and skinny ones all pushed together into King Hall where the famous barrel gravy was poured down our young skin-you-love-to-touch throats.

Then through the following days we were led about by a selected group of upperclassmen as though we bore the signs, "Fragile, handle with care" and all we could murmur was "So this is college". But the pathos in the story came when the sophomores, juniors, and seniors landed in town for they soon took it upon themselves to contradict all that the professors had been telling us about our class being the best one they had ever seen.

As in previous years we wore the traditional tan and cardinal caps and ribbons, but we soon got used to them though one morning in chapel the fellows appeared without their caps and we all held our breaths to see the effects. The result was that the next morning not a cap was missing — we know why but we won't tell. It might be hinted also that some of the dorm girls got experience in "picking cotton" in Cochran Hall for a similar offense.

On Scrap Day we won the relay race and lost the sack race and the tug-of-war though the fellows worked hard for us. We weren't humbled much however, for who wants their brain in their feet anyway? Furthermore, we proved our skill and gave the Juniors a big treat at our Freshman-Junior banquet in May.

Now we could go on and estimate what a knock-out our class is and will be, but we won't brag about our talents and what our class has done and will do for Otterbein in the future; we do think this — that the history of the class of 1933 will end as all good stories should end, for we will all live happily ever after.

Organization

FRATERNITIES

Fraternities

The history of fraternities in Otterbein starts in 1908, where three of these organizations were founded. Since then new fraternities have been founded at different times until there now eight of them on the campus.

At first they were secret organizations and were not recognized by the administration of the college. However, as time went on their worth was recognized, and eventually they secured a high place in the esteem of everyone.

Some years ago the Men's Pan-Hellenic Council was organized for the purpose of legislating and enforcing with reference to men's social group relations. Since the time of its organization the Men's Intersocial Group Council's method of regulation has been highly satisfactory as there has been a fine spirit of cooperation and fellowship manifested among the clubs.

Much outstanding work has been accomplished through the efforts of the I. F. C. The bringing of the club houses to the college campus was one of the biggest things done through the efforts of the council. The establishment of the open bidding system for freshmen at any time except Freshman Week was done through the work of the I. F. C.

This year was the initial try-out of the new open bidding system and it has proved highly satisfactory to all the clubs as well as the administration. The council has been carrying on this year under the new revised constitution which includes all the provisions for open bidding, and its success has been proven so that it is almost certain that the new constittuion will be adopted by the faculty. The council is composed of two members of each club so that there are sixteen representatives in all. The president is selected every semester, each club having equal rights to the president's office, since the clubs are arranged in alphabetical order, and it is in that routine that presidents are selected. Meetings are held bimonthly at which time is discussed anything pertaining to the men's social group affairs.

It is the hope of the council that it may further better conditions for the groups and perhaps some day pave the way in bringing national fraternities to Otterbein College.

SORORITIES

Sororities

The first sorority in Otterbein was founded in 1910, and since that time different organizations of this kind were founded at various times until there were nine sororities carried on as widely separated bodies having no connection with each other. Eventually, however, a council was formed to enable the sororities to work more together.

The Women's Inter-Social Group Council, composed of two representatives from each sorority, was organized for the purpose of fostering a spirit of friendliness and cooperation among the sororities on Otterbein's campus. In any phase of life where one finds a number of organizations, apparently different, but fundamentally of a similar nature, there we usually find a group (representing each organization) which is created to settle questions and make rules of relative importance to all members. In brief, this is the work of the Women's Inter-Social Group Council, — to act both as a legislative and judicial body.

In most of the colleges and universities in United States the sorority question is a vital issue. Just what is the best method for the rush season? How long should the rushing period last? How many parties should each sorority give? What sort of bedding is most desirable? These are only a few of the important questions being discussed in the Pan-Hellenic Council to-day. Perhaps the unsettled state of affairs results from the fact that sororities must adjust themselves to the changes constantly being effected by society, and must cope with such problems as overcrowded Freshmen classes, younger college Freshmen, etc. Whatever reasons one might purpose, the fact remains that the sororities which want to live and grow must be alert and face conditions as they exist on their own campuses.

The Women's Inter-Social Group Council at Otterbein has been trying to find the best solution to its own problems more or less through a method of trial and error. The following innovations were made for the year 1929-30. A four week rushing period began immediately after the first two weeks of school which were devoted to the Big and Little Sister Movement of the Y. W. C. A. Each sorority had only one party, the date being determined by lot. Preferential bidding was re-adopted after it had been disbanded for three years.

On the whole, the sororities were well pleased with the results from the changes made. The council has not yet decided on the regulations for next year, but whatever their plans may be they will be made with the hopes of making sorority life at Otterbein more desirable and enjoyable.

Men's Debate

Interpretative Reading Contest .....
1st. Corrine Crossen
2nd. Elizabeth Lee.
3rd. Dan'l Charles.

Dramatic Reading Contest — Not completed at press time.

The Frosh-Soph debate on the question of the abolition of National Lobbying has not yet been decided but the dual debates with both Ohio Wesleyan and Denison Universities assures a good local contest.

Back row—Shisler, Rieker, Norris.

Women's Debate

The Ohio Conference debate question for the year, Resolved: That the present extent of modern advertising is to be deplored, proved a good one for the negative to win and the affirmative to lose. No conference winner was selected — four colleges tieing for first place.

Otterbein debating the Chain Stores divided a dual debate with Ohio Northern and met in non-decision contests with Capital and Miami.

The Peace Oratorical contests have not yet been held. Edgar Bagley is Otterbein's representative. Wilbert Echard will be our Constitutional orator.

Wilbert Miley placed fourth in the old line oratorical contest.

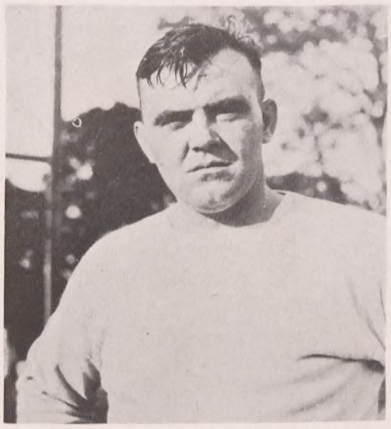
COACH EDLER



ASSISTANT COACH SEDDON

COACH EDLER

R. K. "Deke" Edler graduated from Ohio Wesleyan in 1920 with a B. A. degree and since then has completed three years of medical work at Ohio State.

In school "Deke" was rated as an All-Ohio man and now with much experience as a coach he is making a name for Otterbein and himself as a sportsman and a gentleman to whom we owe much of our improvement in the way of better teams and records.

ASSISTANT COACH SEDDON

When Coach Edler chose Charles Seddon as an assistant he got a very able man both as a coach and as an athlete. He is assistant recreational director for the city of Columbus and has coached at Ohio State, and Tennessee Universities.

"Charlie" has a great fighting spirit and a real sense of pride in doing his best to put out teams always willing to play the game hard. And he has done much to develop a hard charging, hard fighting line at Otterbein.

Cheer Leaders

The cheerleading this year was well handled by a trio of fellows who worked hard to get good cooperation and cheers.

Lawrence Marsh an experienced cheerleader came back to Otterbein and exhorted us to heights of cheering and school spirit during the football season. If everyone yelled as loud as Marsh's work merited, there would have been some real cheering at Otterbein.

During basketball season Everett Snyder took over the job of cheerleader and was very successful, because his pep, variety and hard work kept things going.

Walter Shelley an experienced cheerleader with a lot of natural ability was always ready to help out the others or to lead the cheers himself.

In losing these three men by graduation we will have a hard time finding someone to take their places.

FOOTBALL

Paul Hance — Captain

In Hance Otterbein had a speedy hard-fighting captain and end whose game improved during the season and climaxed with a seventy yard run for a touchdown in the Hiram game.

Kenneth Bunce

Bunce made himself one of the best ends in the conference this year by always playing a good hard consistent game.

Forrest Benford

Ben started the season as a halfback but changed to tackle where he was more at home and a real threat to the opponents.

David "Dutch" Lee

Dutch playing his last year at quarterback was a good field leader and ground gainer, breaking away for several long runs in different games.

Clare Nutt

Nutt, the only really big fellow on the team, played a consistent game. He played best at O. N. U. crashing through often to break up plays.

Donovan Wylie

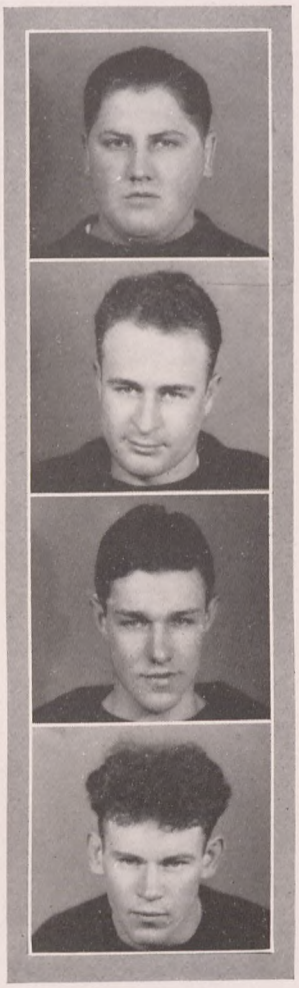
Wylie was one of those rock 'em sock 'em guards who tried hard on offense and defense. He should have a big year next fall.

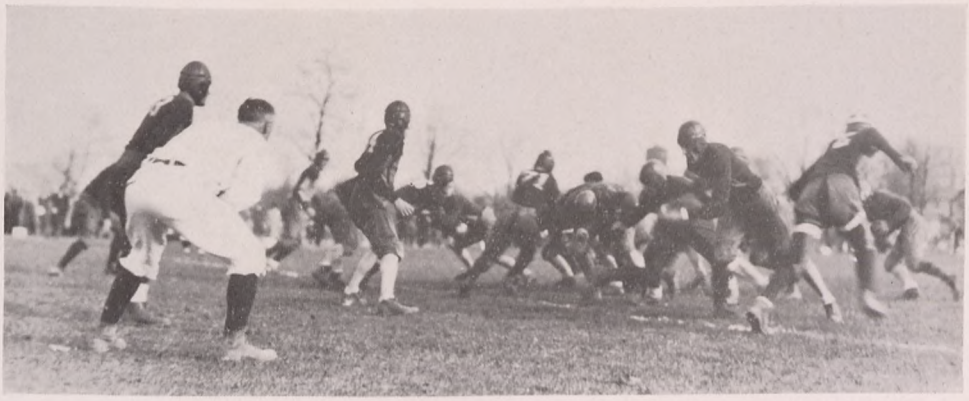
Paul Hughes

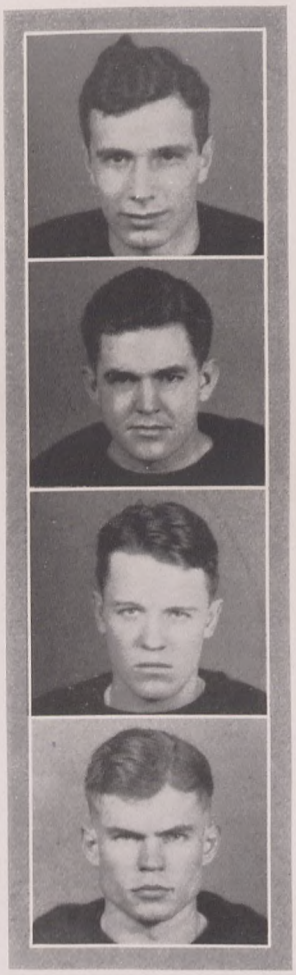
Buck worked hard to fill the difficult position at center, and with his two years experience will be a valuable man next year.

Earl Miller

Curly was a consistent ground gainer noted for his driving fight that he always carried to the opponents. With a few breaks he should go big next year.







David Burke

Dave after getting the first touchdown at O. N. U. was injured and kept from playing his usual game at fullback. However, he did get in enough to do much of the punting and passing during the season.

Ralph Fowler

Fowler played a steady, hard plugging game at guard that will be missed next year

V. M. Robertson

"Bob" was a steady player at tackle and with his additional experience he will make good next year.

Emerson Seitz

Seitz's play was characterized by his fighting. His blocking was especially good. He is a senior.

Emmor Widdoes

"Wid" was small, and did not get much chance to strut his stuff, but when he did he came through in a big way. And how he did punt at Heidelberg!

Robert Hawes

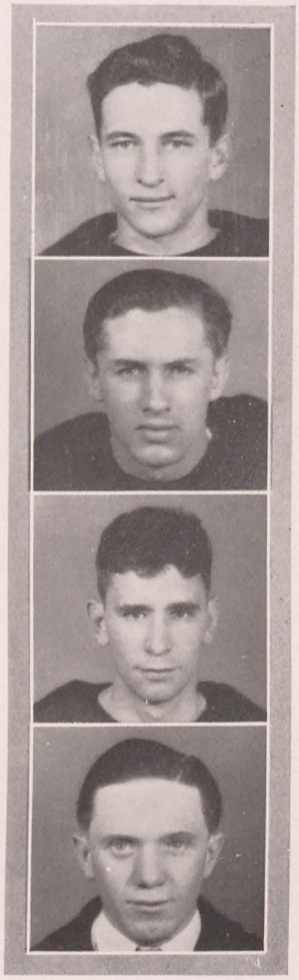
Hawes after three seasons of conscientious effort was awarded his letter. He was conspicuous for his hard work.

George Biggs

Tony did not get to play much this year but with a little seasoning he will be one tough football player.

Walter Shelley

In Shelley, Otterbein had a small but efficient hard-working manager who was well liked by the players.



Back row—Lust, Fowler, Benford, Robertson, Jordak, Axline, Martin.
Third row—Hawes, Lee, Miley, Seitz, Hughes, Miller, Nutt, Wiley.
Second row—Edler, Milburn, Biggs, Echard, Henry, Burke, Hance, Bunce, Seddon.
Front row—Charles, White, Widdoes, Whipkey, Hicks, Moore, Shelley.

Football Squad

In football this year there were several men who deserve much credit for their work. They were the second stringers and those prevented from playing by injuries and other reasons.

Even though they weren't playing much, they worked with good spirit. And for this they deserve more than the following mention of their names; Miley, Glenn, Henry, Axline, Hadfield, Clippinger, Charles and Whipkey.

THE SEASON IN BRIEF

Wooster	19	Otterbein	0
Kenyon	6	Otterbein	0
Marietta	6	Otterbein	2
Ohio Northern	12	Otterbein	13

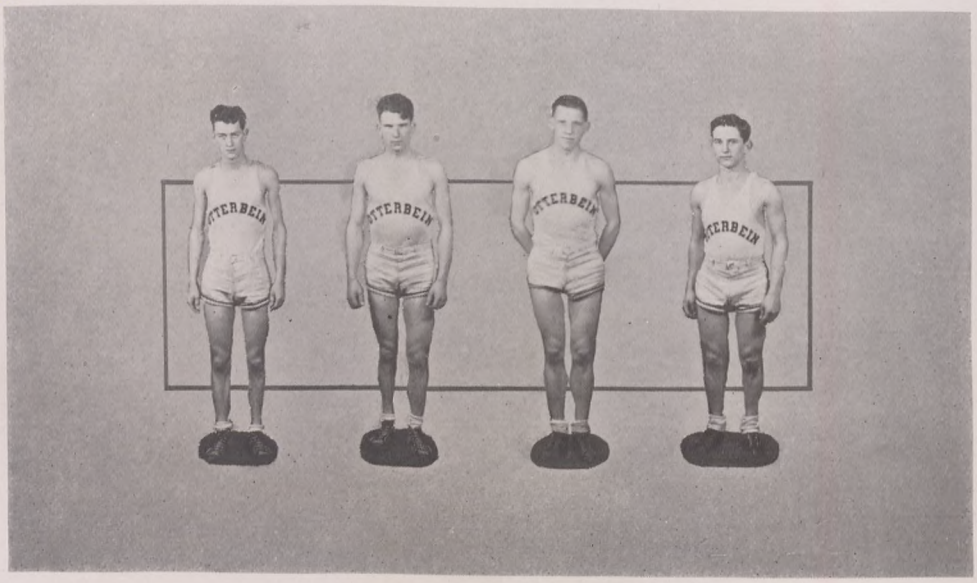
BASKETBALL



Gibson, Miley, Hance, Widdoes.

Basketball

Ralph Gibson

Gibson merited all-Ohio consideration this, his last year, because he was a constant threat in every game, as shown by his average of twelve points each game.

Wilbert Miley

Miley was a valuable player this year making his share of points and contributing a good fighting spirit in the pinches.

Paul Hance

Hance played a good game this year marked by his success in showing certain highly touted opponents.

Emmor Widdoes

Wid, a brother of a former all-Ohio forward, did not show his best form until the latter part of the season when he showed up as a hard fighting little forward.

Axline, Bagley, Fowler.

Basketball (Cont'd.)

Kenneth Axline

Ken playing his first year of college basketball proved valuable with his steady game at guard.

Edgar Bagley

Bagley, an experienced player of much natural ability, seemed to have the breaks against him this year although he had a knack of coming through whenever needed.

Ralph Fowler

Fowler playing his first and last year at guard was always to be depended on for consistent hard working play.

La Vere Breden, Manager

The work of a basketball manager is long and tiresome. Breden was a capable and efficient manager, always looking after the best interest of the team.

Back row—Widdoes, Robertson, McCain, Fowler.
Front row—Bagley, Axline, Gibson, Hance, Miley.

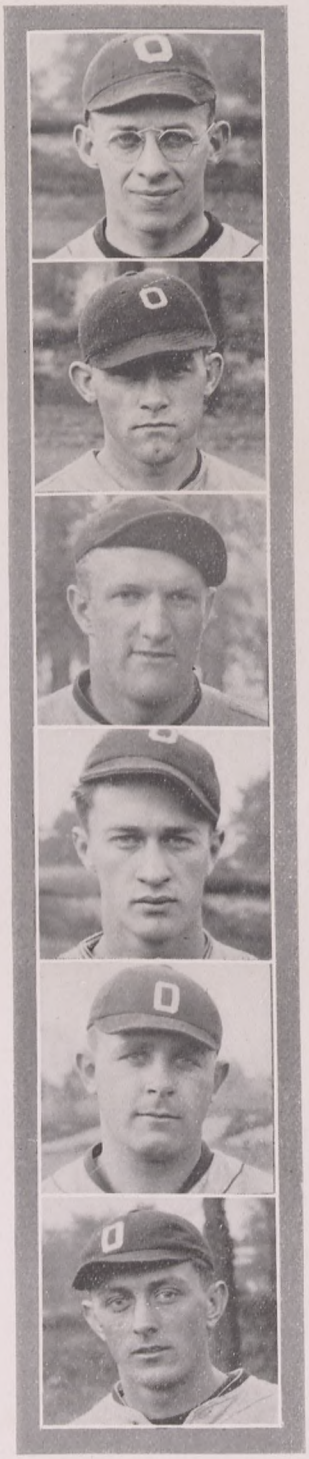
OTHER SPORTS



Baseball

Harold Young — Captain

"Youngy" had some tough luck in not being in shape to play during the whole season. He got going good finally and played a good game at almost any position on the team.

David Lee

"Dutch" playing his second year of baseball had an exceptionally good year at short-stop, where he is noted for his speed and clever stops.

Forrest Benford — Captain Elect

"Ben" is our "Bambino." Besides being an outstanding fielder he can get up to the plate and really show the boys how to hit.

Ralph Gibson

Gibby our south-paw pitcher and first baseman is a valuable player who should do big things this year.

Raymond Hadfield

An experienced hard hitting outfielder who should set a fast pace again this year.

Frank Mraz

A Senior outfielder who enjoyed the game a lot, always playing and hitting hard.

Baseball (Cont'd.)

Ralph Fowler

Ralph who had left us for a while came back and was a valuable catcher and hitter.

Paul Fletcher

"Fletch" was a fast man, at home nearly any place in the infield.

Mark Hall

"Doc" an experienced baseball man was troubled with a sore arm, but he always showed good spirit by doing his best with every chance.

Emerson Seitz

A hard playing third-baseman who will come in handy again this year.

Edgar Bagley

Eddie's first year of baseball as a pitcher was very successful and he should have a better one this year.

Leroy Hopper

Probably the most experienced player on the team who played a steady game around the "keystone" corner.

Ted Croy

Manager Croy worked hard to make baseball a pleasant and successful season.

McGill, Saul, Shelley, Burke.

Track

Donald McGill — Captain

An outstanding all-round man who has scored many points for Otterbein in his three years of competition. Last year he won places at the Big Six meet and broke the college records in the high hurdles and discus.

Francis Saul

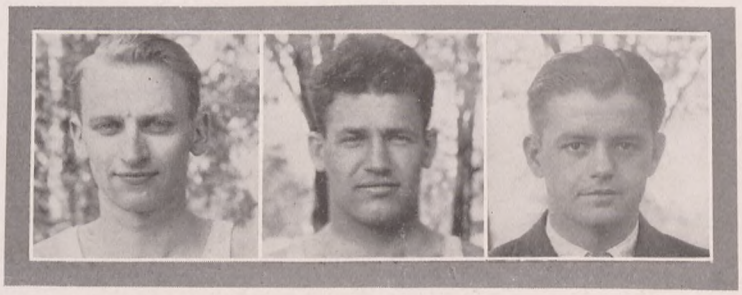
A hard driving and experienced sprinter who always pulled in his share of points for the old school. Will be missed this year.

Walter Shelly — Captain-elect

A hard pushing little distance runner known throughout the state for his competitive spirit. He is now holder of Otterbein's two mile record and has a year of competition left.

David Burke

An all-round man winning most of his points in the shot put. Dave has two more years of competition for the Tan and Cardinal.



Green, Kintigh, Williams

Track (Cont'd.)

Lawrence Green

College record holder for the low hurdles. Did not do so well in his favorite event but became a point getter in the high jump during his last year.

Quentin Kintigh

A Senior and former letter man. Did not earn his letter last year because of a sore arm but always did his bit as a javelin thrower.

Charles Mumma

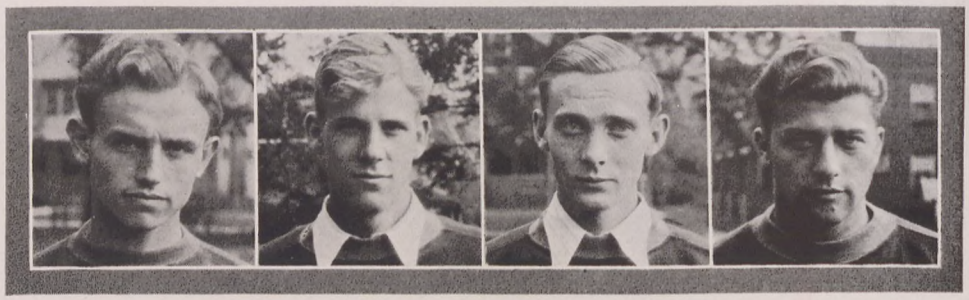
"Chi" a senior and tennis captain did not spend all the time he should have on track. But he was always ready to give the best competition in the broad jump.

Louis Weinland

A former letter man who did not do so well last year in the sprints but who should come back and do well this year.

Wendell Williams — Manager

The work of manager is long and trying. "Willie" certainly earned his letter.



Mumma, Sanders, Simmermacher, Diehl

Tennis

Charles Mumma — Captain

Was a real leader, always working hard and playing with such a steady hard fighting game that he won nearly all his matches.

Richard Sanders

"Dick" who rated as number one man played a spectacular game which was almost unstoppable at times.

Harry Simmermacher — Captain-elect

Could always be counted on to play a consistent, hard fighting game. And should have a big year this spring.

William Diehl

"Bill" who will be back with us this year played his first season on the team, developing into a worthwhile player.

Rosselot, Raver, Heft.

Tennis (Cont'd.)

Gerald Rosselot

A senior was given his first chance on the team and made good.

Virgil Raver

Another small Senior who did not play a brilliant game but could always be counted on for his best.

Harold Thompson

"Tompy" a Senior was small but mighty and ready to fight for every point.

Russell Heft — Manager

More hard work is connected with the job of tennis manager than we usually think. But Heft did his work well and deserves his letter.

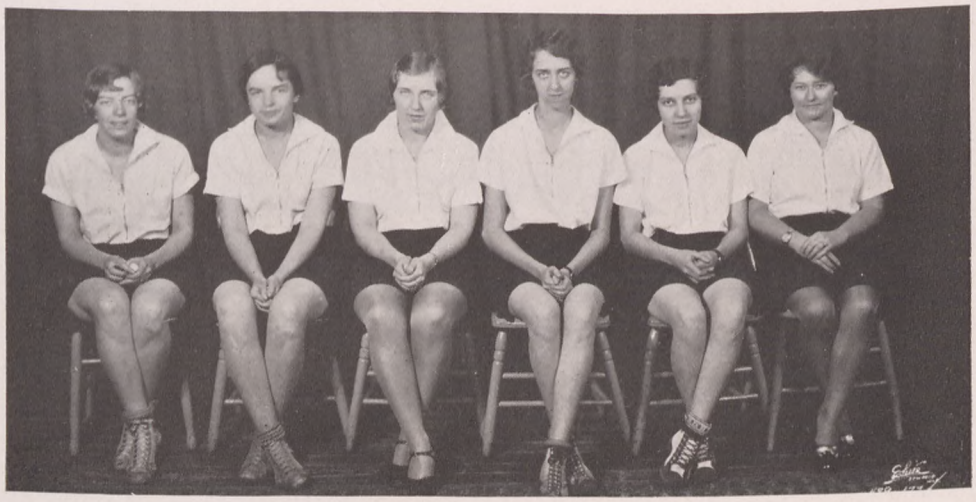
Women's Athletic Association

The remodeling and renovating of the Association Building as a headquarters for the Women's Department of Physical Education gave an added impetus to the progress of Physical Education in Otterbein College. The W. A. A., with a membership of forty girls began the year with a renewed enthusiasm and a greatly enlarged program of sports.

The members of the Association are ably trained for leadership and supervision of all sports participated in by the girls of the college. They have absolute management of the intramurals for the school year, with advisory head, Mrs. Johnson, director of physical education for women.

The organization sponsored an exhibition of dancing, apparatus work and a basketball game February 21, 1930. The performance was named "W. A. A. Whoopee"; the funds from which will be used for the purpose of furnishing a W. A. A. room in the Women's Gymnasium.



Knapp, Oldt, Moore, Pauly, Duerr, Prof. Johnson.

Some annual events of W. A. A. are; the overnight hike in the fall of the year, the spring banquet, and the commencement breakfast.

The numerals and "O" awards are made once a year at the annual banquet of the association. Membership in the association must be earned by acquiring points which count on the point system. Many girls have earned membership in the past year, the majority of whom belong to the Freshman class.

W. A. A. Officers

Margaret Knapp ..... President

Mary Ruth Oldt ..... Vice President

Lela Moore ..... Secretary-Treasurer

Grace Duerr ..... Business Manager

Miriam Pauly ..... Assistant Business Manager

Back row—Duerr, Finley, Pauly, Norris, Jones.

W. A. A. Sport Managers

The success of the year's program for W. A. A. depends upon the efficiency of the business manager and the elected sport managers. Miss Grace Duerr has been business manager of W. A. A. for the past year. The appointed managers must take complete charge of their own sport. They provide the referees, umpires, and the schedules for all their class and league games.

The following girls were named managers of the named sports:

Evelyn Miller ..... Soccer
Kathleen Hancock ..... Basketball
Miriam Pauly ..... Cage Ball
Laurabelle Dipert ..... Volley Ball
Marjorie Finley ..... Baseball
Grace Duerr ..... Track
Grace Norris ..... Tennis

Back row—Parsons, Feightner, Shively, Chamberlain, Widdoes.
Middle row—Mason, Nichols, Miller, Breden, Clippinger, Johnson.

Girls' Basketball

The most enthusiastic sport participation of the year is given to interclass basketball. Credit for membership in W. A. A. is given for certain percentage of quarters played. The chosen captains of the class team must see that each member of their squad has the chance to play all the required number of quarters.

The Freshman girls provided strong opposition and it was nearly certain that they would acquire first place but the Junior team conquered them at the last of the season which tied the two classes for honors.

League basketball takes in all the girls desiring to play, even those having no previous experience. Names are drawn for places on the teams.

Group League Intramural Basketball

The features of the intramural basketball competition this year were the undefeated record of the powerful Alps quintet and the close struggle for second place in the group league. The Alps Club clinched the title rather early in the season, but until the very last few games, Annex, Cook House, Country Club and Lakota were all in the running for the second place position.

Country Club finally won out in a post season victory over Lakota.

This is the second consecutive year that the Alps Club has taken the title and suffered no defeats.

Dear Reader of the 1930 Sibyl:

We greet you again as the friend of Otterbein College. Another year is rapidly fading away. It has been a good year.

The Alumni Gymnasium is the latest addition to our fine group of buildings. With the splendid alteration and improvement of the old gymnasium for the use of the women, Otterbein can now claim as fine equipment for physical education as is offered by any college of our type.

However, there are other values to which these facilities should contribute. They are our ideals and aspirations, our purposes and plans for nobler and better living.

A college is a community of like-minded folks bound by ties of common purposes and ideals. You are one of our number. We appeal to you for your good will, sympathy, and cooperation in working out our part of the great program of Christian Education.

Faithfully yours,

W. J. Clippinger

President.

Wear evening clothes in the dining car.

Talk about Kant and Nietzsche.

Take along books of economics written in French and Italian and pretend to read them.

Smoke a pipe and look studious.

Take out your portable typewriter and begin to write.

If there should be an accident during the night, dress first, then leave the train.

Eat your meals in your compartment.

Order your menu in French.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF A KISS

Some girls and boys will neck,
They fancy it just as a motion,
But when I kiss a girl;
For whom I must care,
The kiss is a sign of devotion.

When you're out on a date with a girl,
And you've had a wonderful time.
A handshake and a goodnight
May be all right,
But I'll take a kiss for mine.

This may seem odd, from a fellow like me,
Who has such very odd theories.
But a kiss from the girl,
For whom I most care,
Is a panacea for all of my worries.

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat? Some say Eve eight and Adam two — a total of ten.

We figure it out differently: Eve eight and Adam eight also —a total of sixteen. But if Eve 8 and Adam 82, surely the total will be 90. However, scientific men reason thus: Eve 81 and Adam 82 — total 163. But what could be simpler than if Eve 81 and Adam 812 — total 893. Nevertheless, it is correct that Eve 814 Adam and Adam 8124 Eve — total 8938. Another method, however, gives a total of 82,056 — because Eve 814 Adam and Adam 81242 oblige Eve.

Ain't we right.

I've never seen an elephant
Aboard a green canoe;
I've never seen a crocodile,
With eyes of azure blue.

My education's not complete,
I must state and declare;
I've never seen a sick giraffe
A pulling off his hair.

But lack of drink is not the cause,
As it might seem to look;
The reason is I've never seen
A children's picture book.

An Ode to Those of the Exaggerated EGO

I thought I was good, I smiled on the crowd —
And even alone my mien was proud.
My tongue was clever, I knew by my line,
And I could reason with Freud or Einstein.
I paid no heed to the words of a friend —
Just thought to myself, a means for an end.
My ideas I felt would never fail — never would!
And I laughed because I thought I was good.
I failed in a test that I thought I'd pass,
I lost a real friend by affrontery and brass,
And one whom I loved has proven my worth —
He has gone as all else has gone from my earth.
Even in play where I thought I was best,
I fumbled the ball and was classed with the rest.
My mind I realize could never be deep — never could!
And I laugh because I thought I was good.

"It upsets me every time I run over e pedestrian."

"I never have come across one that big."

THE CRUEL PROFESSOR

Well — guess I'd better study. Let's see, two hours before class. How long is this lesson anyway? Forty- fifty- sixty-two pages. I wonder how many pages I read per hour. I'll read for ten minutes and figure my rate.

There, I read eight pages. Then, I wasted some time watching my clock, so that makes a page a minute. With almost ten pages done already, I can easily do the rest in an hour. That'll give me time to call up Virginia. Wonder what time it is? My gosh! An hour gone by already! Somebody must've turned the clock ahead.

Well can you imagine that!

"Well, goodbye."

Gee! Only fifteen minutes left. That darned prof is inconsiderate. He doesn't realize what little time we have. What's he mean giving us such long assignments? It's absolutely cruel. I can't do that lesson. Guess I'll cut and go over to WILLIES.

The Sociology classes were visiting the insane asylum. One of the inmates imagined himself to be an artist, and he was busily engaged in dabbling at an empty canvas with a dry brush. An Otterbein Co-ed, wishing to humor him, asked what the picture represented.

"That," said the nut, "is a picture of the Israelites being pursued through the Red Sea."

"Where is the sea?"

"Why that's rolled back to allow the Israelites to pass."

"Where are the Israelites?"

"They've just gone by."
