The
SIBYL
1927
Volume XX
Published by
The JUNIOR CLASS
OF
OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

In Memoriam

During the past year it has been the will of the Creator to take from our midst Dr. Edmund A. Jones, former professor of Bible. Though he was not actively engaged in college work within the last few years, Dr. Jones has had a profound influence upon the lives of the students of Otterbein.

We mourn the departure of this noble character, yet there is one thought in which we find consolation—our loss is Heaven's gain.

Dedication

To those who have valiantly labored that we and the future generations of youth might find within Otterbein's halls greater opportunities for enlightenment and finer possibilities of higher education, we dedicate the 1927 SIBYL.

Foreword

As a pendulum swings back and forth, recording the passing of time, so the SIBYL of 1926-1927 records the undertakings and accomplishments of the students within Otterbein's walls. May the records of these silent pages inspire you to guard religiously the memory of your Alma Mater, and act as a stimulus in achieving glorious heights spiritually, morally, and intellectually which shall remain engraved on the monument of time as a silent tribute of respect and admiration for dear old Otterbein.

A. B. Otterbein, 1892; A. M. Otterbein, 1903; Lit. D. Otterbein, 1921. Studied at Chicago University, 1902; Memberships: Central Ohio School Masters' Club; Classical Association of Middle West and South; Council of Ohio Classical Conference. Author: "Prayer, A Means of Spiritual Growth." Listed in "Who's Who."

Greek may be a dead language under some professors, but not under Dean Cornetet.

DEAN CORA A. McFADDEN

Dean of Women

B. S. Otterbein, 1887.

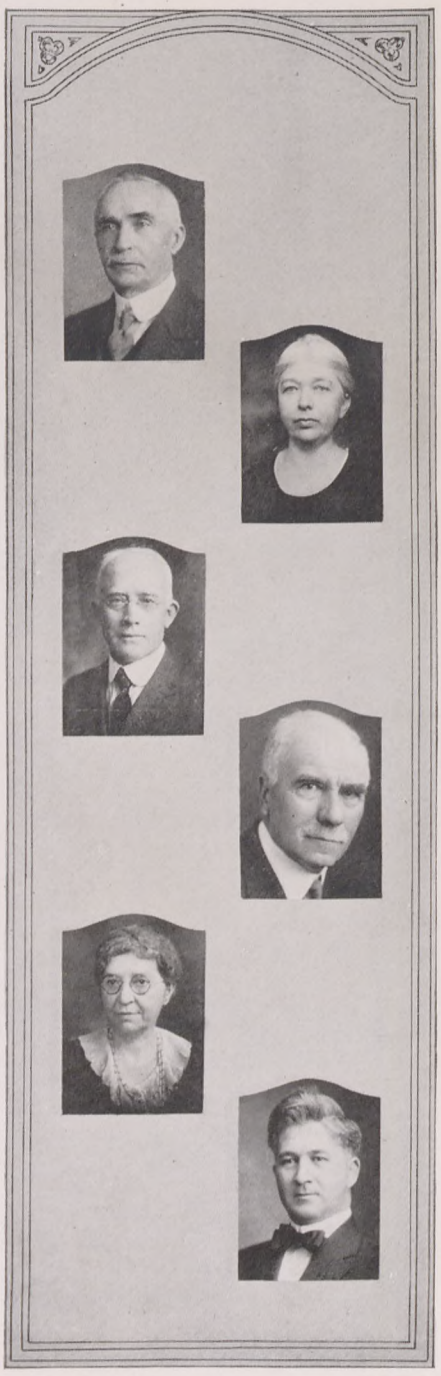
Always a mother to Otterbein's girls. Her patience and understanding are not to be surpassed.

LELA M. TAYLOR

Assistant Dean of Women

B. S. Education Ohio State, 1916; A. M. Ohio State, 1923. Studied at Western Reserve. Memberships: Modern Language Association of America.

Conscientious and willing—never to be found wanting.



GEORGE SCOTT

Flickinger Professor of Language and Literature

Because of his unassuming nature he desired that his degrees be omitted. Through his many years of faithful and devoted service he has become endeared to all who know him.

ALMA GUITNER

Hively Professor of German Language and Literature

A. B. Otterbein, 1897; A. M. Otterbein, 1904; M. A. Columbia, 1911. Memberships: Modern Language Association of America; Association of Modern Language Teachers of Central West and South; National Education Association.

Small and dignified, she has a smile for every one.

CHARLES SNAVELY

Professor of History

A. B. Otterbein, 1894; Ph. D. John Hopkins, 1902; Public school work, Massilon, Ohio, 1885-1888, 1894-1896. Memberships: American Historical Association; American Economic Association; American Political Science Association; Central Ohio School Masters' Club; Charter Member of the Ohio Academy of Social Science.

A man just and respectable to all mankind.

THOMAS J. SANDERS

Hulitt Professor of Philosophy

A. B. Otterbein, 1878; A. M. Otterbein, 1881; Ph. D. Wooster, 1888; L.L. D. Otterbein, 1912. Membership; Central Ohio School Masters' Club.

His mind contemplates those things unthought of by common man.

SARAH M. SHERRICK

Professor of English Literature

Ph. B. Otterbein, 1889; Ph. D. Yale, 1897. Membership: Modern Language Association of America.

We admire her modern views, as well as those on Shakespeare and Browning.

CARY O. ALTMAN

Professor of Rhetoric and Composition

A. B. Otterbein, 1905; A. M. Ohio State, 1912; Memberships: Central Ohio School Masters' Club; Modern Language Association.

A good shotgun and a well baited hook are all the evidence needed to convince Professor Altman that there is Paradise on earth.

LOUIS AUGUSTUS WEINLAND
Professor of Chemistry

B. S. Otterbein, 1905; A. M. Ohio State University, 1910. Memberships: American Chemical Society; Central Ohio School Masters' Club; Ohio Association of Chemistry Teachers.

Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others can not keep it from themselves.

MRS. DELPHINE DUNN
Director of School of Art

Studied in Colorado College, 1904-1907; Graduate of: Applied Art School, Chicago; Normal Course, Chicago; Art Institute, Columbia, 1918; Studied in Europe, 1912; Studied Painting under Daniel Garber and Hugh Breckenridge. Memberships: American Federation of Arts; The Indian Artists' Club; The Columbia Art League (Ohio); North Shore Art Association (Massachusetts).

There is art in all she does.

EDWIN M. HURSH
Professor of Religious Education and Sociology

A. B. Otterbein, 1905; A. M. University of Chicago, 1912. Memberships: American Sociology Society; Religious Education Association; International Council of Religious Education; National Country Life Association.

Professor Hursh is always found sincere, earnest, and deeply interested in student problems.

ALZO PIERRE ROSSELOT
Professor of Romance Language and Literature

A. B. Otterbein, 1905; A. M. Wisconsin, 1903; Studied in University of Paris, 1910-1911; Ohio State University, 1914 and 1922. Memberships: Modern Language Association of America; Federation of Modern Language Teachers; American Asssociation of Teachers of Spanish; National Education Association; Secretary of Ohio College Association.

He is ever interested in furthering all worthy projects on the campus.

LENA MAY HOERNER
Professor of Home Economics

A. B. Lebanon Valley; B. S. Columbia; A. M. Columbia. Memberships: American Association of University Women; American Home Economics Association.

Small but mighty, and by her musical laugh we know she must belong in the Conservatory.

EDWARD W. E. SCHEAR
Professor of Biology and Geology
(On Leave of Absence)

A. B. Otterbein, 1907; A. M. Columbia, 1915; Studied at Ohio State University, 1926-1927. Memberships: American Assosciation for Advancement of Science; American Microscopical Society; American Entomological Society; American Association of Mammalogists; American Ornithologists Union; Ohio Academy of Science; American Forestry Association; American Nature Association; National Association of Audubon Societies; National Education Association.

We have missed his cheery greeting on the campus this year.

GLENN GRANT GRABILL
Directory of Conservatory of Music

B. Mus. Otterbein, 1900; Studied organ with J. R. Hall, Cleveland; Studied at Bush Temple Conservatory, Chicago, 1903; Studied at Leipzig, Germany, 1907-1908; A.A.G.O., 1919. Memberships: The National Music Teachers' Association; The Ohio College Teachers' Association; Organist of Scottish Rite, Aladdin Shrine; Organist of First Congregational Church, Columbus.

Oft times a man is without honor in his own country. Not so with Professor Grabill. We certainly appreciate his organ preludes.

HELEN M. VANCE
Instructor in Piano

B. Mus. Otterbein, 1919; A. A. G. O., 1920; Studied organ with Mrs. Wilburn Thoburn Mills of Columbus, 1919-1920; Studied piano with Mr. Frank R. Murphy of Columbus, 1925-'26, 1926-'27. Memberships: Ohio Teachers' Association; Central Ohio Chapter of American Guild of Organists; Organist of First United Brethren Church, Westerville, Ohio.

Her charming personality charms all who come in contact with her.

MABEL CRABBS STARKEY
Instructor in School Music, Singing, History and Appreciation

Diploma of Voice, Otterbein, 1905; Diploma of Public School Music, Oberlin, 1915; Graduate work in Pittsburgh; Cosmopolitan School of Music, Chicago; Oberlin Conservatory.

She is small but the power of her voice is great.

LULU M. BAKER
Instructor in Piano

A. B. Otterbein, 1898; Graduate Otterbein Conservatory of Music, 1908; B. Mus. Otterbein, 1917; Studied in Berlin, Germany, 1910-1911; Peabody Conservatory, 1914.

Her thoroughness has gained for her a reputation of giving beginners their foundations for music.

HAZEL V. BARNGROVER
Instructor in Violin

B. Mus. (Piano) Otterbein, 1924; Diploma (Violin) Otterbein, 1924; B. Mus. (Violin) Otterbein, 1925; A. B. Otterbein, 1925; Studied Piano with F. R. Murphy, Columbus, 1925-'26; Studied Violin, 1925-'26; Studied Organ with Mrs. Wilbur Thoburn Mills, 1926. Memberships: Ohio Music Teachers' Association; Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

Patience and hard work are essential features of success.

ARTHUR RAY SPESSARD
Instructor in Voice

B. I. Neff, 1908; Diploma of Music, Lebanon Valley, 1907; Studied Voice in Philadelphia, New York, Springfield, Mass., and London, England.

The musical organizations on our campus are real proofs of his remarkable ability.

JAMES H. McCLOY

Merchant Professor of Physics and Astronomy

B. S. Purdue; M. Sc. Ohio State University. Memberships: Sigma Xi; Ohio Academy of Science.

We'll always remember his original and inspiring chapel talks.

FRED A. HANAWALT

Professor of Zoology

B. S. Otterbein, 1913; M. Sc. Ohio State University, 1921. Memberships: Ohio Academy of Science; American Association for the Advancement of Science; National Game Association; American Association of Mammalogists; American Society of Parisitologists; The Wilson Ornithological Club; Sigma Xi.

His students speak of his progressiveness and thoroughness.

ROYAL F. MARTIN

Professor of Physical Education

B. P. E. Springfield, 1911; A. B. Otterbein, 1914; Memberships: American Physical Education Association; Member of the National Council of the A. P. E. Association; President Ohio Association of Managers.

We like his views of fair play and squareness in athletics.

MERLIN A. DITMER

Coach of Athletics

A. B. Otterbein, 1910; Coaching Course, Ohio State, 1913; Lake Chatauqua, N. Y., 1915; Illinois, 1916; Michigan, 1922; Notre Dame, 1923. Membership: National Coaches' Association.

His teams are all hard fighting ones.

OMA MOOMAW

Assistant Instructor of Physical Education

A. B. Otterbein, 1926; Graduate from Sargent School for Physical Education, 1925.

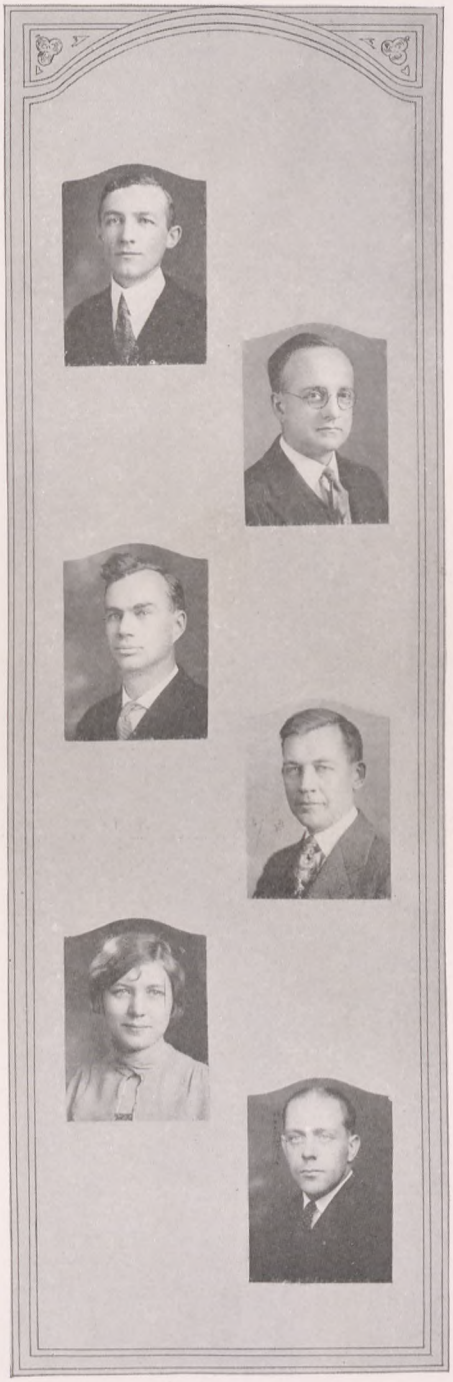
She has filled this position only one year, but she has certainly proved herself capable.

R. K. EDLER

Assistant Coach of Athletics

A. B. Ohio Wesleyan, 1919; Junior in Medical College at Ohio State University. Memberships: Phi Delta Theta (Ohio Wesleyan); Phi Rho Sigma (O. S. U.).

The student body, as a whole, does not see much of "Deke," but we like his basketball teams.



JESSE S. ENGLE

Professor of Bible

A. B. Otterbein, 1914; B. D. Bonebrake Theological Seminary, 1917; A. M. Chicago, 1922. Memberships: National Association of Bible Instructors.

In his classes we think, while he teaches mostly by his quiet, sincere life.

HORACE TROOP

Professor of Economics and Business Administration

A. B. Otterbein, 1923; A. M. Ohio State University, 1926. Memberships: Pi Kappa Delta; American Economic Association.

Professor Troop is becoming as essential to our college as he appears to be to his mascot.

PAUL E. PENDLETON

Professor of Rhetoric and Composition

Ph. B. Denison, 1921; A. M. University Nebraska, 1922. Memberships: Modern Language Association.

He came as a stranger in our midst, but he has found his place in our campus life.

LESTER C. RAINES

Professor of Public Speaking

A. B. University of Illinois; A. M. University of Illinois; Graduate Study at Carnegie Institute of Technology, Harvard, and Ohio State Univercity.

His ability as a play producer cannot be doubted. We are grateful for the organization of the girls' debating teams.

DONALD R. CLIPPINGER

Assistant Instructor in Chemistry

B. S. Otterbein; M. Sc. at Ohio State University. Memberships; American Chemical Society; Phi Lambda Upsilon.

From his favorable beginning we infer that "Don" will some day be as noted as his father.

HOWARD MENKE

Assistant Instructor in Mathematics

A. B. Otterbein, 1924. Memberships: Inter-Relations Club; Ohio Conference of Statisticians.

We look up to him as a student in all respects and a man of great intelligence.

BYRON W. VALENTINE

Professor of Education

A. M. Colgate, 1915; B. D. Hamilton Theological Seminary, 1906; Post Graduate work, Cornell, 1920-'22; 1925. Memberships: Beta Theta Pi; Phi Beta Kappa; Phi Delta Kappa, Theta Chapter, Cornell; Pi Gamma Mu; Ohio State Teachers' Association; Ohio Society of College Teachers of Education; Central Ohio School Masters' Club; National Education Association; Department of Superintendents of National Education Association.

He prepares us to really live in the "cold, cold world."

BENJAMIN C. GLOVER

Professor of Mathematics

B. S. Northwestern, 1907; A. M. Chicago, 1925; Post Graduate work, Ohio State University and Minnesota. Memberships: Mathematical Association of America; Mathematical Society.

He towers high not only in inches but in mental ability.

Librarian of the College

B. S. Otterbein, 1885. Memberships: The Ohio Library Association.

She has a wealth of knowledge on all subjects.

ANNA DELL LAFEVER

Assistant Librarian

Ph. B. Otterbein, 1892.

She is never too busy to find something to fill our needs for information.

GILBERT E. MILLS

Professor of Romance Languages

A. B. Otterbein, 1920; Universities of Paris and Poitiers, 1921-'22; Studied at Ohio State University, 1925.

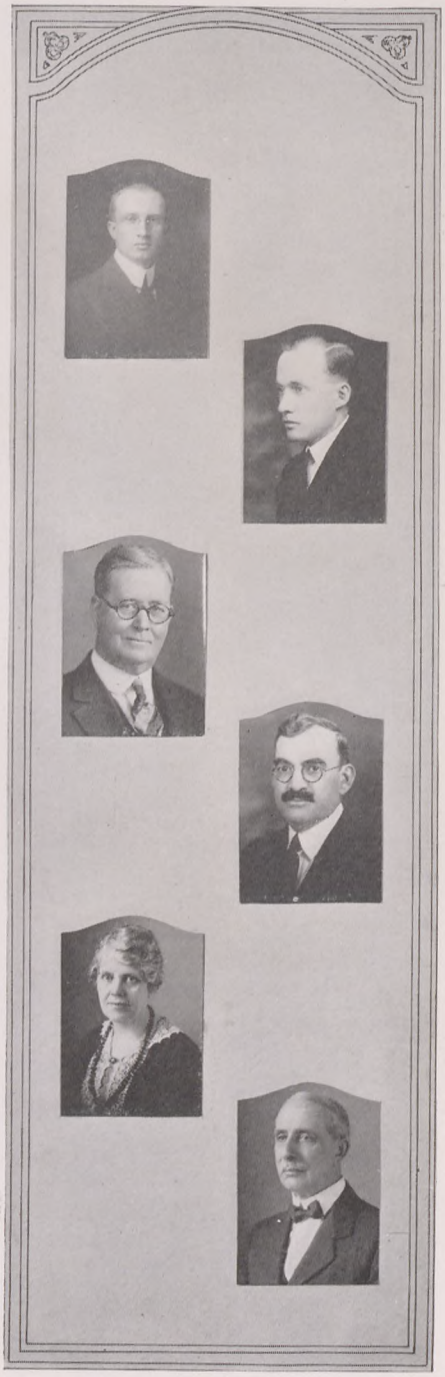
Reserved? Yes, but behind his reserve lies dynamic power.

MRS. MABEL DUNN HOPKINS

Intsructor in Violin

Graduate Cincinnati Conservatory of Music; Studied in Chicago Musical College under Leopold Auer; Post Graduate work under Perutz in Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. Memberships: Woman's Music Club (Columbus); Saturday Music Club; Delta Omicron; Concertmeister of Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

Our souls re-echo to the music brought forth from her violin.



A. H. WILSON

Professor of Biology

B. S. Earlham College; M. Sc. University of Chicago. Membership: Sigma Xi.

Professor Wilson has very ably filled the place of Professor Schear during this year.

FLOYD J. VANCE

Registrar and Professor of French and Latin

A. B. Otterbein, 1916; A. M. Ohio State University, 1925.

He is the one person who has a record of all our progress and failures, even to our A's and F's.

JAMES PORTER WEST

Treasurer of College

A. B. Otterbein, 1897; A. M. Otterbein, 1904; Studied at Ohio State and Columbia.

It takes a big man to carry the responsibility of such a position.

S. EDWIN RUPP

College Pastor

A. B. Lebanon Valley, 1901; A. M. Lebanon Valley, 1908; D. D. Lebanon Valley, 1915. Studied at Central Theological Seminary, 1901-'04; Graduate work at University of Pennsylvania, 1904-1906.

His purposes are worthy and sincere as he administers to our spiritual needs.

MRS. KING

The young men of Otterbein have never had the opportunity of finding here such a person as Mrs. King. She has partly taken the place of a Mother for those in King Hall.

DR. KING

A. B. Otterbein, 1894; D. D.

Much credit goes to Dr. King for the splendid home provided for the men of our college.

JUDITH WHITNEY, A. B.
Westerville, Ohio

Philalethea — Arcady

Science Club, '27; Church Choir, '26, '27; Leaders' Corps, '26, '27; Women's Inter-Social Group Council, '27.

"It is good to be ambitious."

H. E. WIDDOES, B. S.
Westerville, Ohio

Philophronea — County Club

Intramurals, '24, '25, '26; T. and C. Staff, '26, '27; College Band, '24, '25; Physics Assistant, '27; Y. M. C. A. Delegate to Lake Geneva, '26; Otterbein Music Club, '26.

"Ever at it and ever dependable."

GERTRUDE IRENE WILCOX
Duke Center, Pennsylvania
Philalethea Owl

Cochran Hall Executive Board, '26; Intramurals, '26; Secretary Athletic Board, '26; Leaders' Corps, '26, '27; Assistant to Dean McFadden, '26, '27.

"Her experience as Dean may be of use later."

HENRY D. WILLIAMS, B. S.
Amsterdam, Ohio
Philophronea Jonda

College Orchestra, '25, '26, '27; College Band, '24.

"Great things are accomplished only by dreamers."

ESTHER WILLIAMSON, A. B.
Marion, Ohio
Philalethea

Sociology Club, '27; Varsity Debate, '24, '27; Pi Kappa Delta, '25, '26, '27.

"She has the gift of an orator."

DOROTHA WURM, A. B.
Westerville, Ohio
Cleiorhetea

French Plays, '26.

"If she speaks, she means it."

"Now's the day and now's the hour;
See the front o' battle lour."

—Burns

Juniors

CLASS OFFICERS

PRESIDENT ---------- George Griggs
VICE-PRESIDENT ---------- Waldo Keck
SECRETARY ---------- Ethel Kepler
TREASURER ---------- Ernest Riegel

NELLE AMBROSE
Ligonier, Pennsylvania

We don't hear Nelle making a great deal of noise, but we find she has a way of getting things done.

LOIS ARMENTROUT
Roanoke, Virginia

Sunny Southern smiles are precious. We are indebted to Virginia for lending Lois to us for a while.

CLARA BAKER
Wilkinsburg, Pennsylvania

A brilliant flash of red! An avalanche of chatter! Who? Why "Peg," of course.

MARGUERITE BANNER
Westerville, Ohio

Blessed is she whose name begins with "B." Marguerite always has a front seat reserved for her in class.

ALBERT BARNES
Westerville, Ohio

Not everyone can be a basketball captain during his junior year in college. "Al" is accomplished in a good many things. We don't see how one person can be so versatile.

ALLEN BAUER
Batavia, Ohio

Many folks are speedy to start things but only a few can be counted on to be there to the finish.

DeMott Beuchler
Mowrystown, Ohio

He has ambition but keeps it to himself. He will be a valuable addition to the world of art.

Clyde Beilstein
Connellsville, Pennsylvania

Here is a young fellow who came to college with some knowledge about everything. Since that time that "some" has been increasing rapidly.

Harold Blackburn
Rarden, Ohio

"Blackie's" literary ability is to be envied. He is by no means one-sided either, for we believe he is also a likely prospect in the athletic realm.

Alice Blume
Marietta, Ohio

While in school, Alice has developed into the type of lady that Otterbein is proud to claim.

Donald Borror
Columbus, Ohio

Science has not the terrors for "Don" that it has for most of us. He has kept remarkably human through it all.

Everett Boyer
Johnstown, Pennsylvania

We wonder how Everett succeeds in landing so many jobs of managing enterprises.

JAMES BRIGHT
Vanlue, Ohio
"Jimmie" comes to us from Findlay. We wish that more persons like him would change their minds.

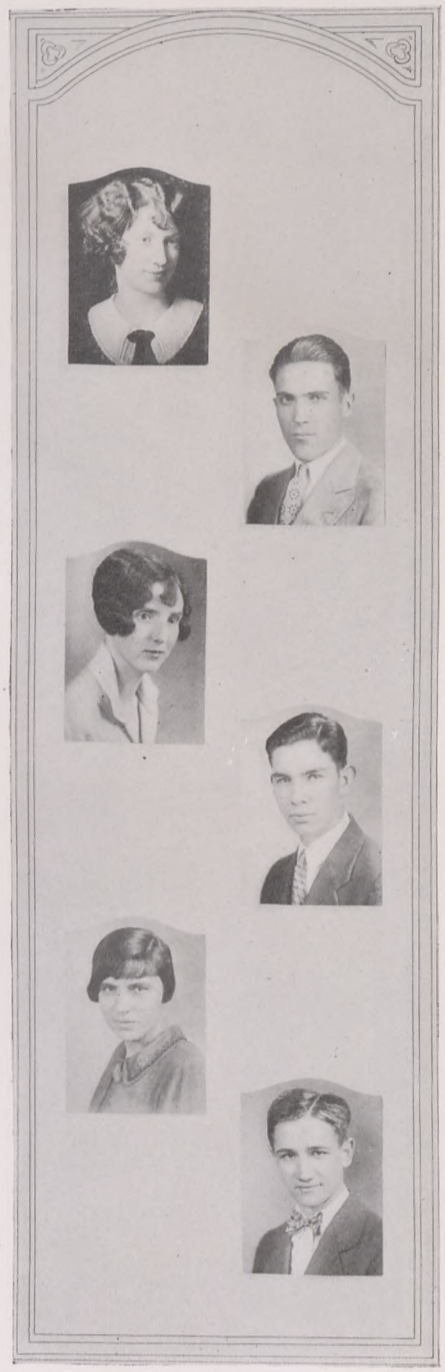
GLENARD BUELL
Galena, Ohio
He has made a contribution to Otterbein on the basketball floor. Here's to you and your teammates for a one thousand per cent team next year, "Glen."

WAYNE CHEEK
Westerville, Ohio
It takes a good while to get to the real nature of Wayne. It's worthwhile though, for one finds a heart as golden as that sunny top.

HELEN COVER
Burbank, Ohio
We do not hear from Helen as much as we should like. However, we know that she is putting much into college and receives just as much in return.

JOHN CRAWFORD
Westerville, Ohio
"Jew" is somewhat inclined toward originality. This is not confined to any one line, for he enters upon various occupations with equal aptitude.

JOSEPHINE DRURY
Ponce, Porto Rico
"Jo" supplements her brilliancy with her diligence, but does not let life get dull.



RUBY EMERICK
Arcanum, Ohio

Her reserved outward aspect cannot hide the goodness within.

ROBERT ERISMAN
Dayton, Ohio

Here is a plugger. "Bob" made himself into a track man. Watch him in life when he leaves college.

MARGARET EUBANKS
Jackson, Ohio

We could not imagine "Peg" being bashful. We admire her for her frankness.

DWIGHT EUVERARD
Westerville, Ohio

It's a good thing that students are not always rated from the standpoint of "their much speaking." This young fellow doesn't disclose all that he thinks.

VERDA EVANS
Alliance, Ohio

She has more energy than many of us ever hope to have. It is well directed, too.

HENRY GALLAGHER
Mt. Gilead, Ohio

One considers "Hank" and then thinks pleasantly of the art of acting. The junior play started him, but who can tell where he will stop?

EDWIN GEARHART
Bucyrus, Ohio

O yes, Crawford County is represented. One glance at that cheerful face with its crown of lustrous auburn hair makes the day seem bright.

ESTHER GEORGE
Stockton, California

We have seen many industrious individuals, but Esther is queen of them all. At least her work is not interrupted by frequent trips home.

GEORGE GRIGGS
Lancaster, Ohio

George is a big man by virtue of more things than being junior class prexy. Yes, he has done a good job of that, too.

MARIAN GROW
Duck Center, Pennsylvania

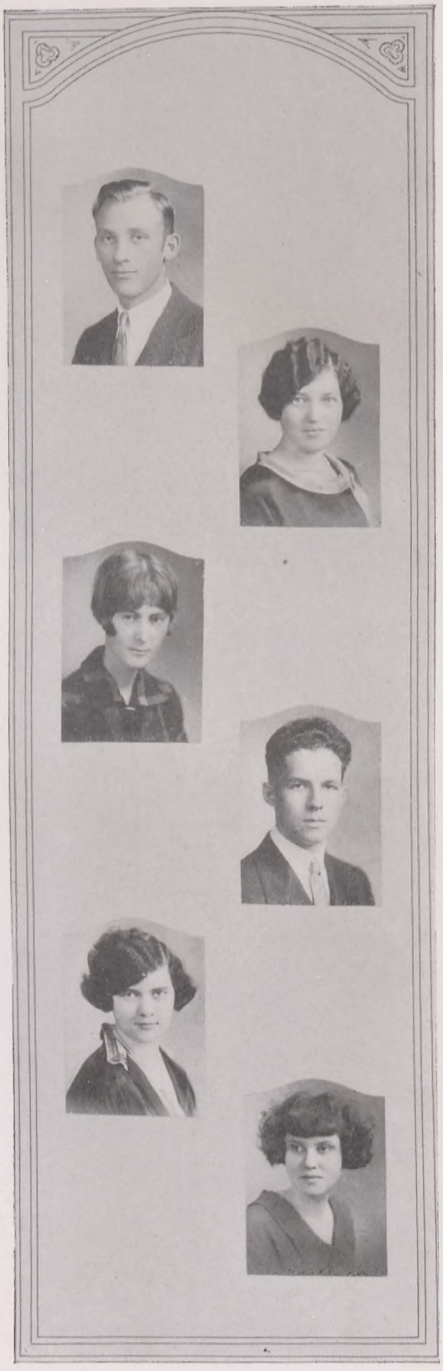
Marian can assume a very charming dignity in the classroom. We suspect, though, that this can be forgotten upon occasion.

DUANE HARROLD
Fostoria, Ohio

Being college orator is a state of existence not to be disdained. It takes much of his time, though he does indulge in occasional visits to his classes.

SOL HARRIS
McKeesport, Pennsylvania

Sol probably handles more books than anyone else in school. Nor do his duties at the Book Store prevent him from reading some of them.



ELLIS HATTON
Grand Rapids, Michigan
Behold a man of affairs. Why shouldn't he be considered such? One year of managing the Glee Club would floor most of us.

VIVIAN HAYS
Dorset, Ohio
This is Vivian's first year at O. C., but she has won for herself an admiration that is not to be despised.

MARCELLA HENRY
Germantown, Ohio
Marcella will some day distinguish herself in literature. She is not losing any time now.

LAWRENCE HICKS
Frederickstown, Ohio
Turn "Larry" loose in the country and he is happy. Hiking is his hobbby.

FRANCES HINDS
Newcomerstown, Ohio
She attacks her studies with a vengeance, but has the time to be jolly.

BERTHA HINTEN
Belpre, Ohio
Bertha has the faculty of paying attention to her own affairs and getting things done.

MARIAN HOLLEN
Terra Alta, West Virginia

She is well liked because she is a friend to all. What higher tribute could be paid to a beautiful character?

THELMA HOOK
Topeka, Kansas

Thelma goes here and Thelma goes there. We notice that she always leaves in her wake a string of things accomplished.

FLORENCE HOWARD
Dayton, Ohio

What an influence such a person could have in society. We are inclined to believe that Florence will not remain long in active public life.

JOHN HUDOCK
Latrobe, Pennsylvania

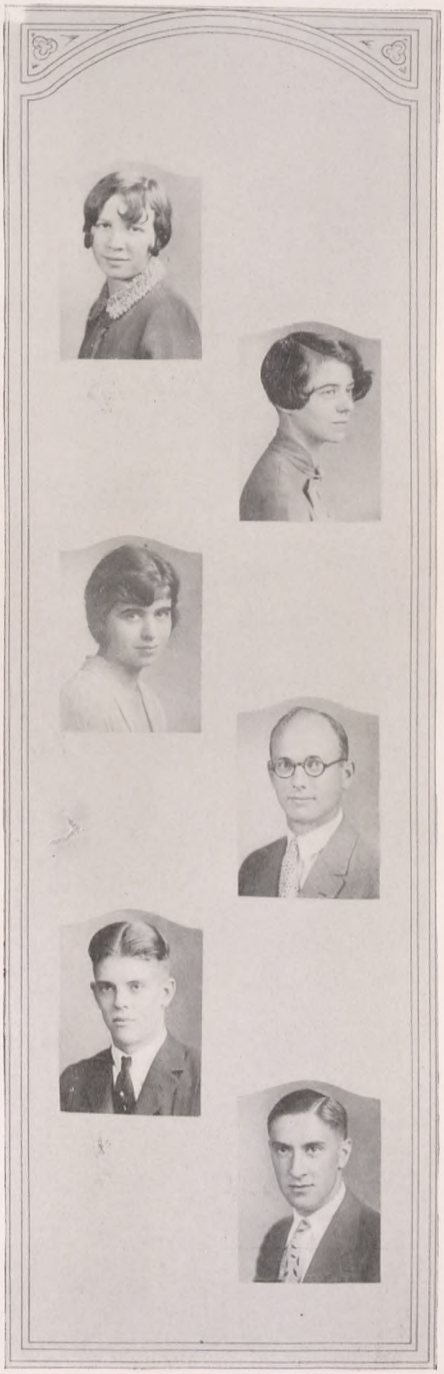
John has left the ranks of unmarried men. He has one regret,—that he did not try it sooner.

RICHARD JONES
Westerville, Ohio

"Dick" will soon be out to conquer the world. He could go a great distance on his looks.

WALDO KECK
Barberton, Ohio

Waldo is a Y. M. C. A. man to the core. The Y has had its impression upon him. He is going to affect it someday.



ETHEL KEPLER
Dayton, Ohio
This is our idea of a fine girl. Someone else thinks so too.

MAURINE KNIGHT
Parkersburg, West Virginia
We think better of West Virginia after knowing Maurine.

ROBERT KNIGHT
Parkersburg, West Virginia
Yes, we're proud of our Sibyl Editor. Most of us would be delighted to be able to do so many things as well as he can.

CLAY KOHR
Strasburg, Ohio
Clay is not too serious, but manages to find a good amount of time to devote to his books.

KARL KUMLER
Baltimore, Ohio
Someone has bewailed the loss of oratory as an art. How could one feel thus after hearing this young Otterbein product debate?

MARGARET KUMLER
Dayton, Ohio
Margaret looks at the sunny side of life. We like people who do. She can argue, too. That's why she has a place in the women's debate squad.

FRED KULL
Columbus, Ohio

Fred is going out to serve humanity as a medical doctor. He has an interesting career before him.

KWONG LAI
Hong Kong, China

China cannot proclaim this talented youth entirely a product of the Orient. O. C. is glad to have had a hand in his training.

HERBERT LOCKE
Westerville, Ohio

Lazy? Well I guess not. Here's a worker if there ever was one.

GWYNNE MCCONAUGHY
Dayton, Ohio

"Mac" has a way of finding a warm place in the hearts of those who know him.

FRANCES MCCOWAN
Wheelersburg, Ohio

Frances is fastidious; she is musical; she is pleasant. What a very fortunate person.

ALICE MCELWEE
Westerville, Ohio

She is a personification of the spirit of friendship which permeates every true Otterbeinite.

VIDA MCGURER
Worthington, Ohio

Vida believes in living and enjoying life. Why shouldn't she? Could anything be more pleasant?

MARY MCKENZIE
Delaware, Ohio

Some individuals are just naturally gifted with doing things while the rest of us sit around thinking about doing them.

WILBUR MCKNIGHT
Akron, Ohio

Few persons in college have the wide experience that he has had. His criticisms are welcome and his judgment respected.

HELEN MAY
Fremont, Ohio

We will remember Helen for her good humor and general agreeableness. This is no handicap for her eloquence in debate though.

LAURETTA MELVIN
Wellston, Ohio

The chuckles inspired by her witty observations make life much more pleasant.

ROSS MILLER
Peru, Indiana

Ross is big hearted, but we are afraid that he has lost his heart. He has won one though, so why worry?

HOWARD MINNICK
Greenville, Ohio
Here's a man calm, self reliant and likable.

GENEVA MITCHELL
Worthington, Ohio
Geneva is tidy to a fault; tres chic, too.

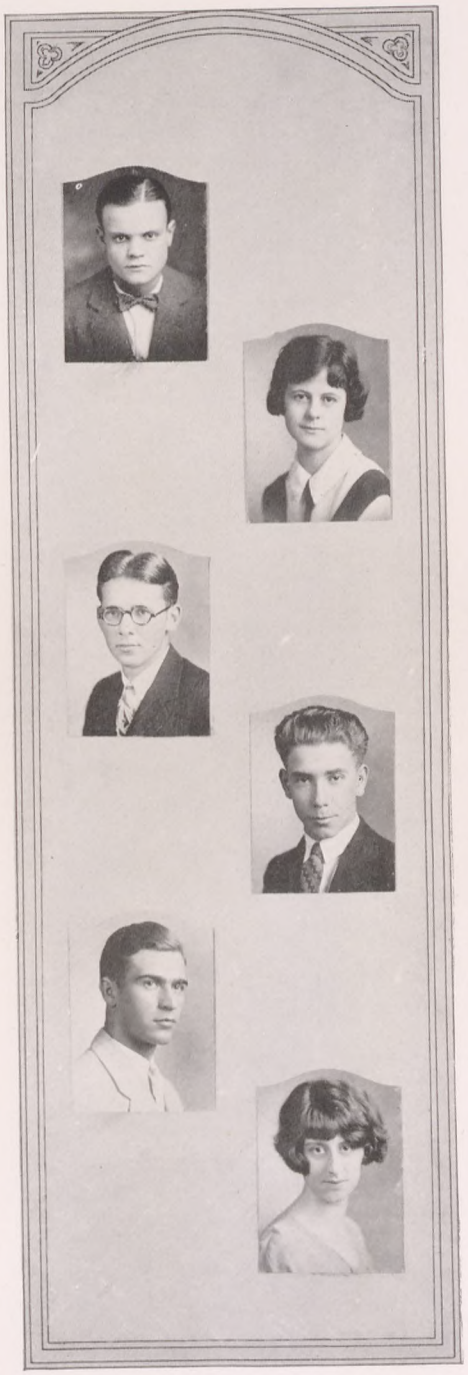
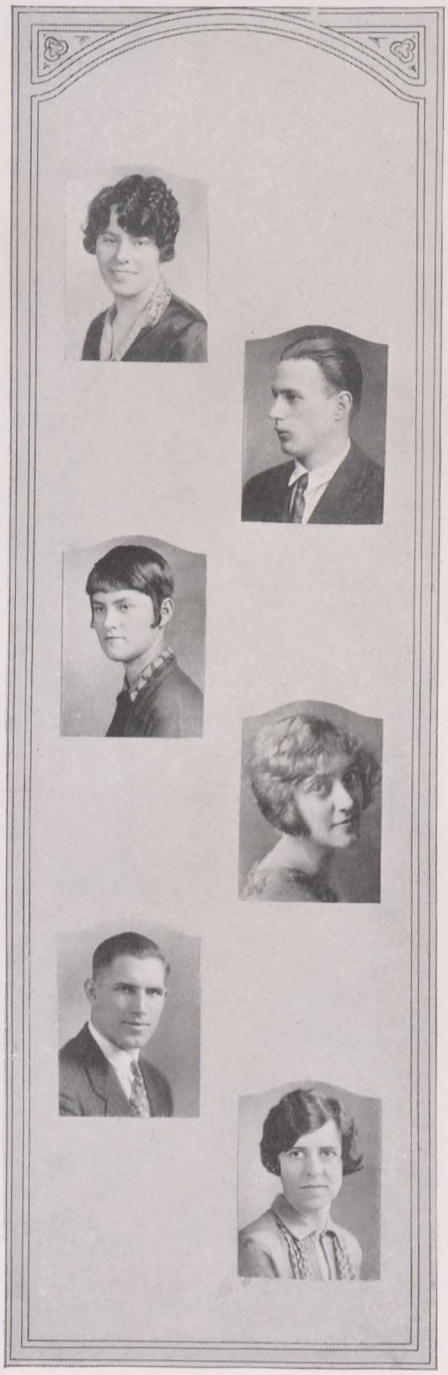
GEORGE MOORE
Lima, Ohio
George picked up a job as student assistant this year. He is hopelessly scientific.

PAUL MORTON
North Robinson, Ohio
There's a real fellow for you. It's hard to find a person as dependable as "Sparky."

LOUIS NORRIS
Westerville, Ohio
"Louie" has a habit of making things go successfully. This fact was considered when the time came for the selection of next year's T. and C. Editor.

DOROTHY PATTON
Westerville, Ohio
Not too severe, not flippant; just a dignified reserve that makes her respected and admired.





VIOLA PEDEN

Johnstown, Pennsylvania

It requires real leaders to manage successfully every time. We recommend Viola.

RAYMOND PILKINGTON

Westerville, Ohio

It is no mark of distinction to possess a tennis racquet. It is quite another matter though when one can put it to as good use as "Pillie" can.

MABEL PLOWMAN

Wall, Pennsylvania

Mabel has lots to say. Whether in class room or debate she's hard to convince.

ALICE PROPST

Westerville, Ohio

How pleasant it must feel to be charming.

ERNEST REIGEL

Dawn, Ohio

Good, big, dependable old "Ernie." A man whose friendship is well worth having.

LUCILLE ROBERTS

Lima, Ohio

Lucille is unquestionably enjoying her life in college. Yet at the same time there are attractions for her outside of school.

NATHAN ROBERTS
Lewisburg, Ohio

Did someone slander Philophronea? "Nate" has another dispute on his hands.

JOHN ROBINSON
Turtle Creek, Pennsylvania

At first glance John seems to be a good fellow. A closer inspection is an assurance that first impressions are not always deceiving.

GEORGE ROHRER
Hagerstown, Maryland

We don't have much to say about our Junior Editor. Horace and Beethoven are his chief delights.

THEODORE SEAMAN
Westerville, Ohio

It makes a difference whether or not "Ted" is playing with a basketball team. He is addicted at regular intervals to other forms of industry, too.

GRACE SHUFELT
Albion, Ohio

Eureka! We have indeed found that rarest of beings: a student.

FRANCES SLADE
Greenville, Ohio

It is a revelation to see Frances giggle. At least she doesn't allow life to bore her.

CLARENCE SMALES

Jackson, Ohio

An addition to the family has helped make life more inteersting for this imperturbable young preacher.

GLADYS SNYDER

Lebanon, Ohio

Dainty, pretty, intelligent: simple descriptive words, yet what would not people give to have them rightfully applied to themselves?

DOYLE STUCKY

Bloomville, Ohio

Doyle's ancestors may or may not have been Puritans. The ministry needs more men who are as firm in their beliefs.

MARY THOMAS

Westerville, Ohio

We doubt very much if she is always as quiet as she appears.

RUTH TREVORROW

Horning, Pennsylvania

Nothing is too difficult for Ruth to attempt. We'll trust her to handle it energetically and successfully.

FERRON TROXEL

Dayton, Ohio

Make way! Here comes "Trox." He can well express his thoughts in words. He practices enough.

CRAIG WALES
Youngstown, Ohio

Nature does not often shape so small a number of pounds into such an excellent track man.

FLORENCE WARDELL
Strasburg, Ohio

We do not ordinarily think of a person so retiring as Florence being such an all-round student and athlete.

DORIS WETHERILL
Kenton, Ohio

Otterbein has turned out some good sports in its day. This one example is sufficient evidence.

FRED WHITE
Westerville, Ohio

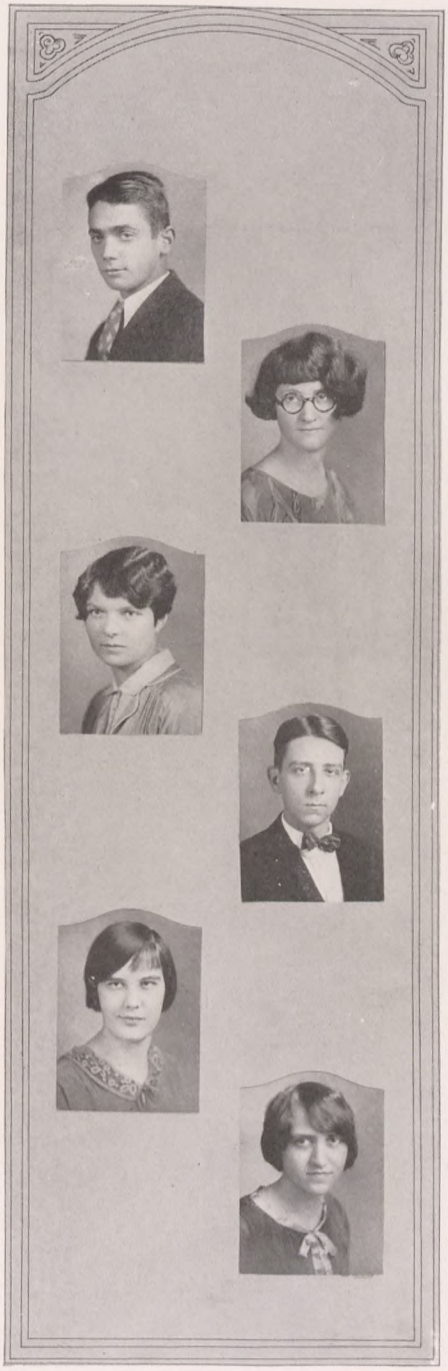
Otterbein has no shieks. This may be true, but Fred goes a long way towards shaking our belief in this statement.

MILDRED WILSON
Cleveland Heights, Ohio

This young Leginska does not allow her piano to remain idle very long. Maybe that is the reason her music is so pleasing to the ear.

HELEN WOLCOTT
Homer, Ohio

We have learned that Helen is not convinced until she finds all the facts. She is correspondingly loyal to her convictions.



MYRTLE WYSONG
Eaton, Ohio
A combination of industry and natural ability produces a type of which Myrtle is representative.

LLOYD YOCHUM
Mowrystown, Ohio
"Dutch" has such a great respect for looks that he does not disturb them unduly, though he pays frequent visits to his classes.

CLAUDE ZIMMERMAN
Sugar Creek, Ohio
The Business Manager of the Sibyl gets a great deal of aid from his assistant. "Jack" has other things to occupy his time, too.

Pi Kappa Delta

The Ohio Epsilon Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta was organized four years ago and since that time has stimulated active interest in inter-collegiate forensics at Otterbein. This has been the most successful year for the local chapter of this national honorary organization.

Karl W. Kumler represented the Otterbein Chapter at the convention of the Province of the Lakes, held at Lansing, Michigan, April 13 and 14.

Early in the year an invitation was extended to the National Council of Pi Kappa Delta for the holding of the Women's Preliminary Forensic contests of the 1928 National Convention, at Otterbein. The main convention is to be held at Heidelberg College.

Men's Debate

This year Otterbein completed probably the most extensive and successful forensic program ever undertaken by the local forensic department.

Debating the conference question, Resolved: "That the Present Governmental Tendency in the United States to Restrict Personal Liberty is to be Condemned," the affirmative team defeated Hiram College and Capital University, losing one decision debate to Marietta College. The negative won from Ohio Northern University, but dropped one debate to Heidelburg College and Capitol University.

Non-decision debates were held with Muskingum, Heidelberg and Mt. Union Colleges.

The affirmative squad was composed of Fletcher, Bromeley, Knight, Durst and Echard, while Harold, Hampshire, Hudock, LaPorte, Martin, Charles, Mayer and Kintigh were the members of the negative squad.

Rhodes, Redman and Riegel were added to the squads for two debates on the question, Resolved, "That the Present Method of Making Nominations by the Direct Primary Should be Abolished."

DUANE E. HARROLD
College Orator

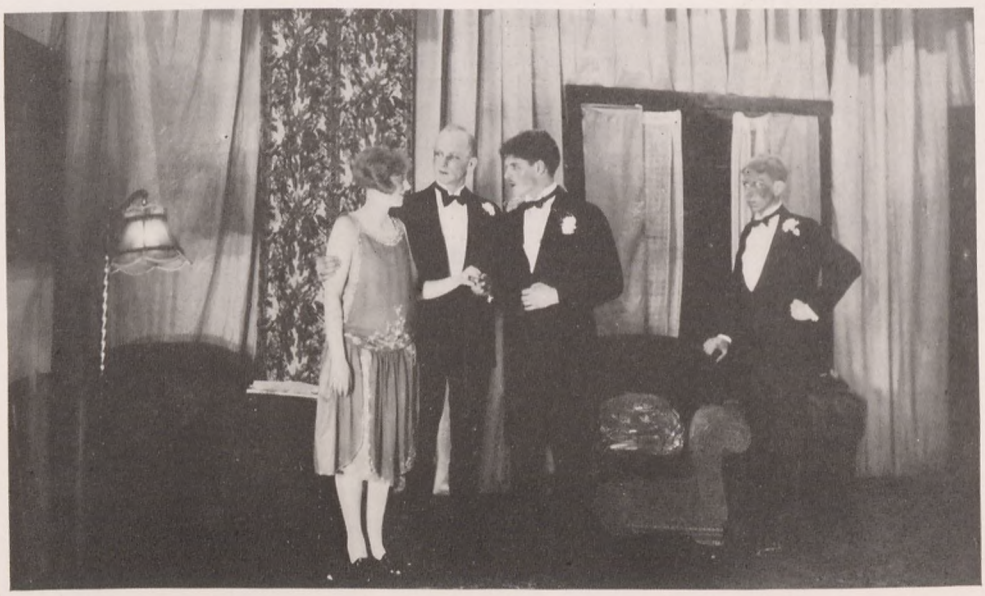
PROF. LESTER RAINES
Director

Professor Raines has been at Otterbein only one year, but he has proved that he knows how to direct dramatics.

Otterbein was represented in the State Inter-Collegiate Oratorical contest by Duane Harrold; in the National Oratorical Contest on the Constitution by Karl Kumler; in the Women's Oratorical Contest by Alice Propst, and in the Peace Oratory Contest by Nathan Roberts.

Williamson, Kumler, Bromeley, Gibson, Nicholas, Ploughman, Duerr

After several years, the women's debate activities have been revived in our school and Otterbein debated this year with Heidelberg College, Dennison University, Ohio Wesleyan University and Baldwin-Wallace College on the question: Resolved, "That Congress Be Given the Power to Enact a Uniform Marriage and Divorce Law."



"These two young folks want your blessing."

The comedy, "Thank You," presented by the Junior Class, was one of the best plays witnessed in recent years by an Otterbein audience. We will not soon forget the "Rector," John Hudock, who looked and acted his part so well; Alice Propst, his niece, was her charming self; Fred White and Richard Jones, as father and son, received our admiration for their ability in acting their parts. No comedy could be complete without the most humorous part, Henry Gallagher as "Andy Beardsby."

The National Council of Theta Alpha Phi, National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, announced in April, 1927, that Otterbein had been granted a chapter, Ohio Zeta. Other Ohio Chapters are located at Heidelberg College, Ohio Northern University, and Ohio Wesleyan University.

Theta Alpha Phi selects its members from students who have met certain high requirements in local dramatic productions. Its purpose is to foster an interest in dramatics and to provide the means for uniting socially, students, alumni, and instructors of dramatics.

Cap and Dagger

PRESIDENT	Francis Bechtolt
VICE-PRESIDENT	Duane Harrold
SECRETARY	Betty White
TREASURER	Edward Hammon

The "Cap and Dagger" is Otterbein's dramatic club. It is composed of those who are interested in the art of play production, its object being the association and development of students of this type. The "Cap and Dagger" each year contributes a Fall and a Spring play which are of merit and of general interest. This year it somewhat enlarged its activities and produced four original plays as well as aiding in the production of the popular stage success, "If I Were King."

Much interest in dramatics is annually aroused and fostered by this organization.

"Love, will you marry me here at the foot of the gallows?"

"If I Were King"

"If I Were King," presented by the Cap and Dagger Club in the Otterbein chapel Jan. 15, 1927, was one of the most outstanding performances in the dramatic history of the college.

Francis Bechtolt, in the leading role of Francois Villon, displayed exceptional ability, his acting being highly artistic and his dramatic scenes, especially, being played with much power.

Alice Propst was charming in her role as Katherine de Vancelles.

Much of the credit for the success of the play goes to the skill and zeal of its director, Professor Raines, who is the head of the Public Speaking Department.

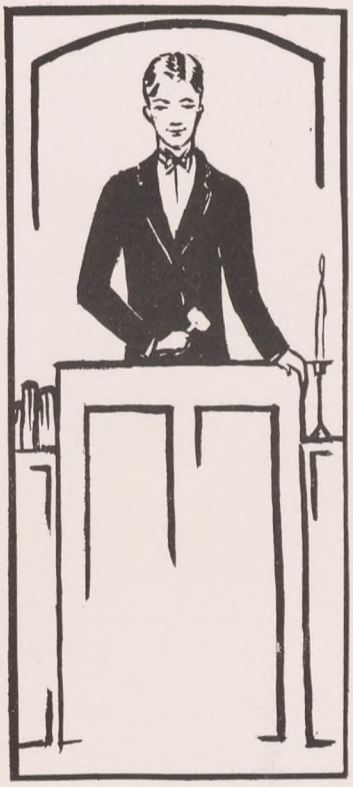
The stage scenery and lighting effects combined with the acting to secure reality and effectiveness. The art department, under the direction of Mrs. Delphine Dunn, is responsible for the painting of the wings for the garden setting used in two of the acts.

On the evening of April 30, four original plays produced by the combined efforts of the Cap and Dagger Club and Ohio Zeta Chapter of Theta Alpha Phi, were produced in the college chapel.

"Saumuri," a Japanese tragedy, is from the pen of Lillian Shively, a member of the Sophomore class, while "Clare Again," a comedy, was written by Ernestine Nichols, of the Senior class, and Verda Evans, a Junior.

Edna Alton Zeller, a former student of Professor Raines at the University of Minnesota, is the author of the other two productions, "The Road to Agincourt" and "Undercurrents."

The acting, stage setting and lighting of these plays were excellent, making the performance a decided success.



Literary Societies

Cleiorhetea

MOTTO—"Non Palma Sine Labore"
COLORS—Light Blue and Tan

Cleiorhetea, a progressive women's society of high literary standards, had its beginning in 1871 when eleven members of Philalethea separated from that body and formed the foundation for the new organization. This change was made because of crowded conditions in the older society.

Cleiorhetea varies her programs with readings, original stories, original poetry, orations and extemporaneous speaking. Every feature on a program is used that will most adequately give expression to the individual's talent.

Once each year an operetta is given.

Philophronea

MOTTO—Philia Kai Phronema

Philophronea was founded in the same year as Philomathea, in 1857, and since then has always been a friendly rival of the brother society.

Philiphronea instills into its members fine literary merits obtained from valuable training and excellent programs. The sessions develop literary growth through the medium of debate, oratory, essays, music and parliamentary drill.

A special feature of the year is the stag session which is held each spring.

Philalethea

MOTTO—"Veritas Nostrum Clipeum"
COLORS—Pink and White

Philalethea claims the distinction of being the oldest literary society for women upon the campus.

The society was organized in 1852 and since that time has always held lofty ideals of literary value for the girls who are striving to serve her. Programs are varied and are so arranged that they give to the individual development along all lines. Special training is given in extemporaneous speaking.

Philalethea's alumnae return to ardently thank her for the social training with which she has fitted them.

Philomathea

MOTTO—"Quarere Nostrum Studium Est"

Philomathea is one of Otterbein's long honored organizations upon the campus.

It was founded in 1857 for the purpose of promoting and increasing the interest in original literary work. Its programs give valuable training in parliamentary drill, debates, musical sessions and orations. The ideals it holds up to its members for quality and merit of work, train for future success.

Philomathea does its best to bring out the latent literary qualities of its men. It trains for better manhood.

Each engagement this year added to the former records of success of the Otterbein Men's Glee Club. Approximately 20,000 persons enjoyed the various concerts given throughout Ohio and Pennsylvania, in addition to those listening to the program broadcast from radio station WAIU, in Columbus.

The Y. W. C. A. begins its program early in the year with the Big Sister movement. This does much to accustom the new girls to college life.

Like the Y. M. C. A., the girls sponsor various speakers on the campus. Most of this work is done in conjunction with the men's organization.

The annual May Morning Breakfast is the largest annual social event the girls themselves sponsor. The other events, as the Hallowe'en and St. Patrick's parties, are held with the Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. is one of the broadest and most helpful men's organizations on the campus. Essentially religious in its nature, it also takes into account other phases of activity. During the year it has augmented its own program by having various outside speakers talk and conduct conferences on the campus. Most notable of these was the four-day conference led by Dr. R. M. Davis of Chicago.

This year the Y. M. C. A., along with the Y. W. C. A., carried on an extensive program of social activities. The most important of these is the "Y Mixer" held at the beginning of the year.

Representative Men and Women

In the belief that within the ranks of the Senior Class are to be found those students who represent the spirit of Otterbein, an election was held to select two men and two women who, through their four years, have proved themselves worthy of special recognition by their fellow students. This election was based on the following points: service, scholarship, participation in school activities, character, and leadership.

Not until the publication of the Sibyl was it disclosed that Mabel Eubanks and Mary McCabe were elected as Representative Women and that Perry Laukhuff and Robert Snavely were elected as Representative Men. Although this is only the second year of this custom, the members of the staff feel that the students have selected their representatives wisely.

PROFESSOR MARTIN

Prof. Royal F. Martin is the head of the Department of Physical Education. He takes care of all of the details connected with the athletic meets, such as measuring the water on football days to see if he collects insurance.

COACH DITMER

Coach Merlin A. Ditmer is the Varsity football, baseball, and track coach. "Dit" has produced one thousand per cent track teams for the last two years.

COACH EDLER

Coach R. K. "Deke" Edler coaches the Frosh in the ways of football. He is also the Varsity basketball coach and is successful in producing excellent teams.

Varsity "O"

The Varsity "O" is an honorary athletic fraternity organized to further the general interest of the College. This is one of the old organizations on the campus and is one of the most respected of student groups. It has always been an active promoter of student social functions. Due to the inauguration of the "Student Chest" method of raising funds for the financing of organizations, the Varsity "O" did not give a minstrel show this year, as has been the former custom.

From the money taken in through its various activities it has been the policy of this organization to purchase sweaters, bearing letters for athletic participation, for its members.

Athletic Board

The Athletic Board of Control, together with the coaches, elects athletic managers and cheer leaders, and awards letters and numerals. The Board is elected by the student body. This organization supervises the general athletic legislation of the College.

Part of the responsibility of this Board has been passed on to various branches of the Athletic Department, relieving the organization of some of its numerous duties.

ROBERT SNAVELY, Captain

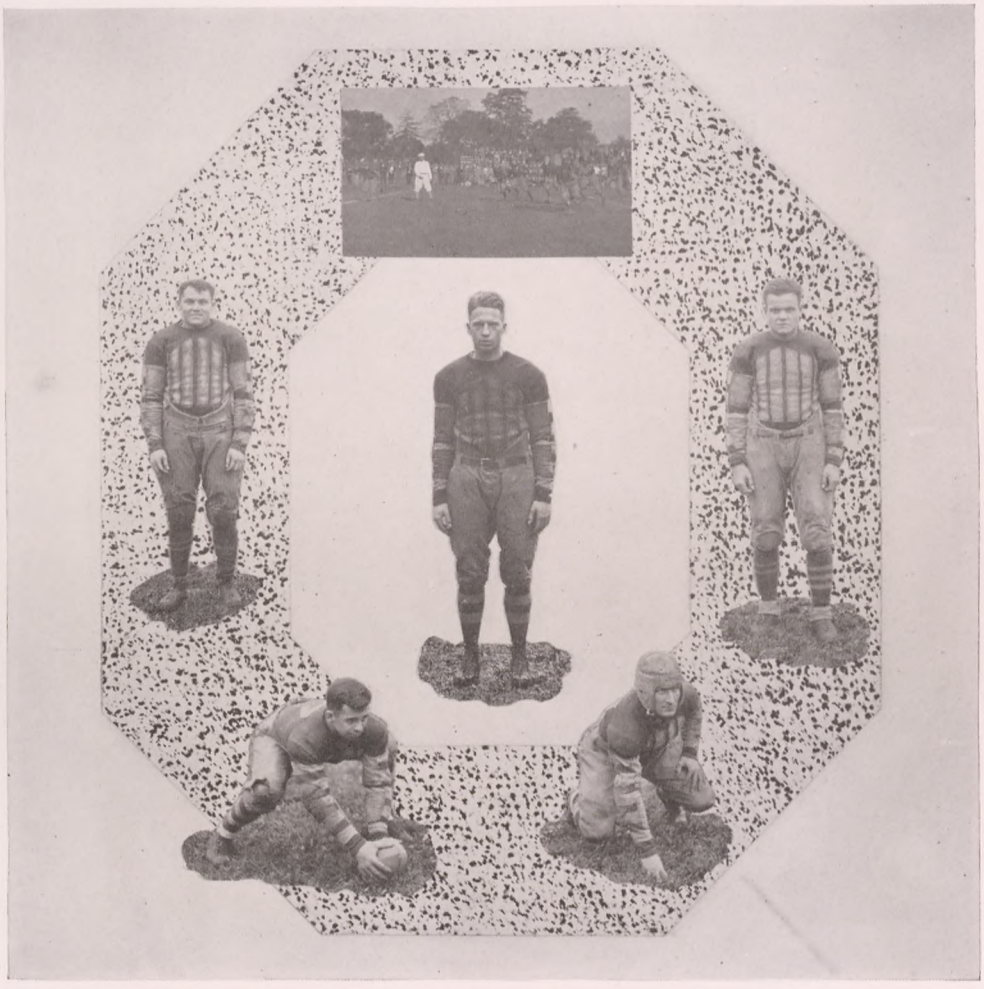
Football

The 1926 football squad was not large either in number or in size. The merit of the squad was quality. Each man "hit hard" and sincerely tried to make every pound of his weight count.

Capt. Robert Snavely deserves much credit for his fine leadership and the example which he set for his teammates, both in his outside training and upon the field.

The team did not win a majority of games, but none of the scores are such that we need be ashamed of them. As a rule Otterbein was generally outweighed from eight to twenty pounds per man.

Although the squad suffers the loss of several good men through graduation this year, we are looking forward to a still better season next fall, when the Tan and Cardinal Gridders take the field against their opponents.



Lambert Snavely Minnich
Schear Crawford

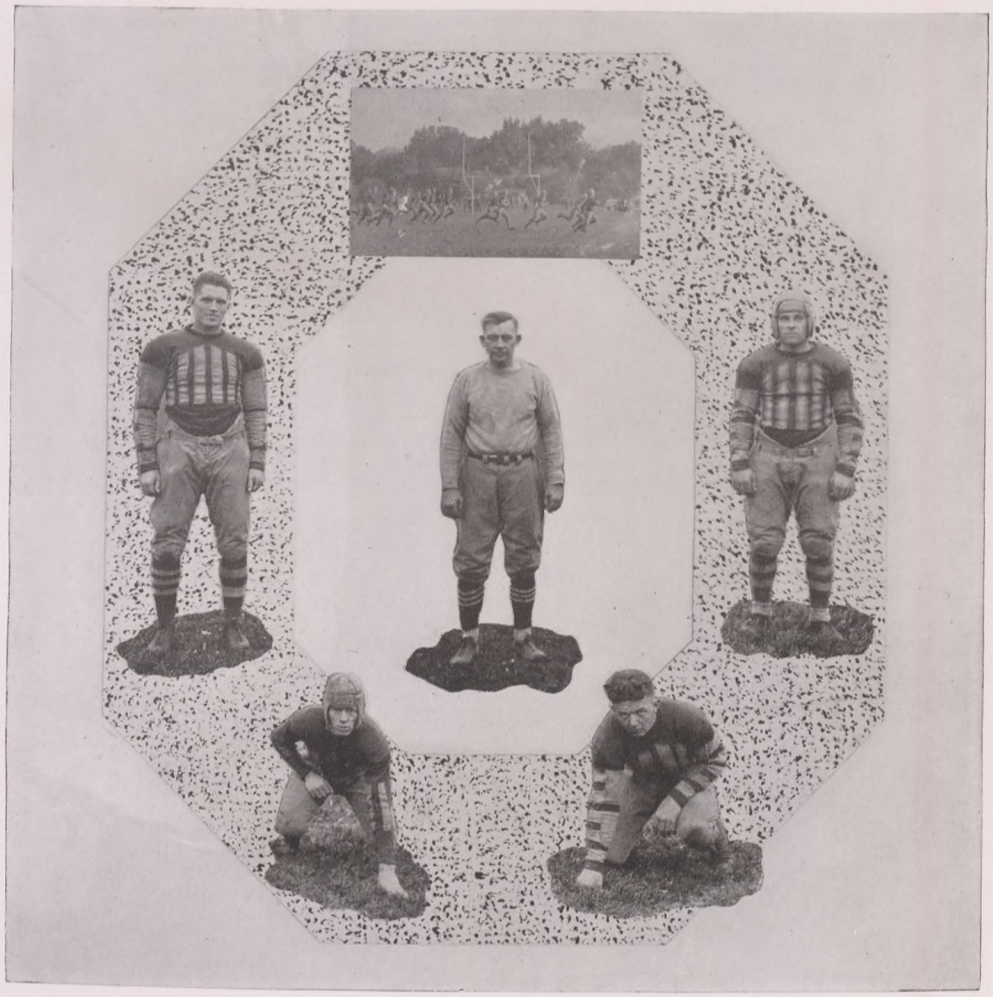
LAMBERT—"Chuck" was a hard hitting, consistent scrapper.

SNAVELY—"Bob" earned his name of "Slippery" while in action. He was an outstanding football player and an able leader of the tan warriors. Otterbein is better for having known him.

MINNICH—"Tubby" is not so big as some of his teammates, but he makes every pound count.

SCHEAR—"Mark" is the man that started the plays. He was a good center.

CRAWFORD—"Jew" is the official "barker," and has a good knowledge of football. He will lead the Tan warriors next year.



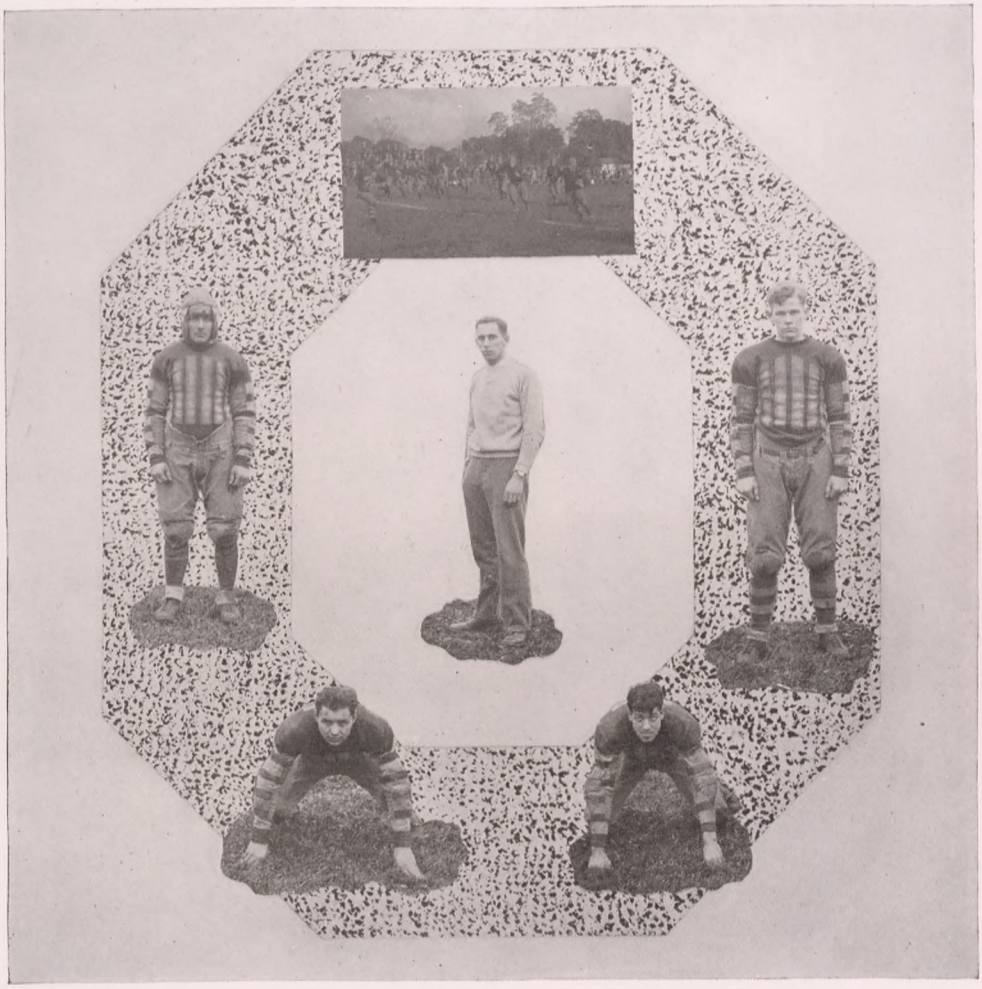
Riegel Coach Ditmer Wurm
Pinney Gearhart

REIGEL—"Ernie" is a man. Quite a few opponents learned this.

WURM—"Paul" a short but stout full—at his best in a line buck.

PINNEY—"Red" is tall and fast, making a good end or fullback.

GEARHART—"Red" came out of the pile next to the bottom; only his man underneath.



Weaver Hamman, Manager Yochum
Reck Saul

WEAVER—"Tommie" is a good man with the ball, fast and shifty.

YOCHUM—"Dutch" played a consistent game at guard.

RECK—"Reck"—He does as his name implies, "wrecks 'em."

SAUL—"Saul" is a good, hard-hitting tackle.

HAMMON—"Ed" discharged his duties as manager in a capable and efficient manner.

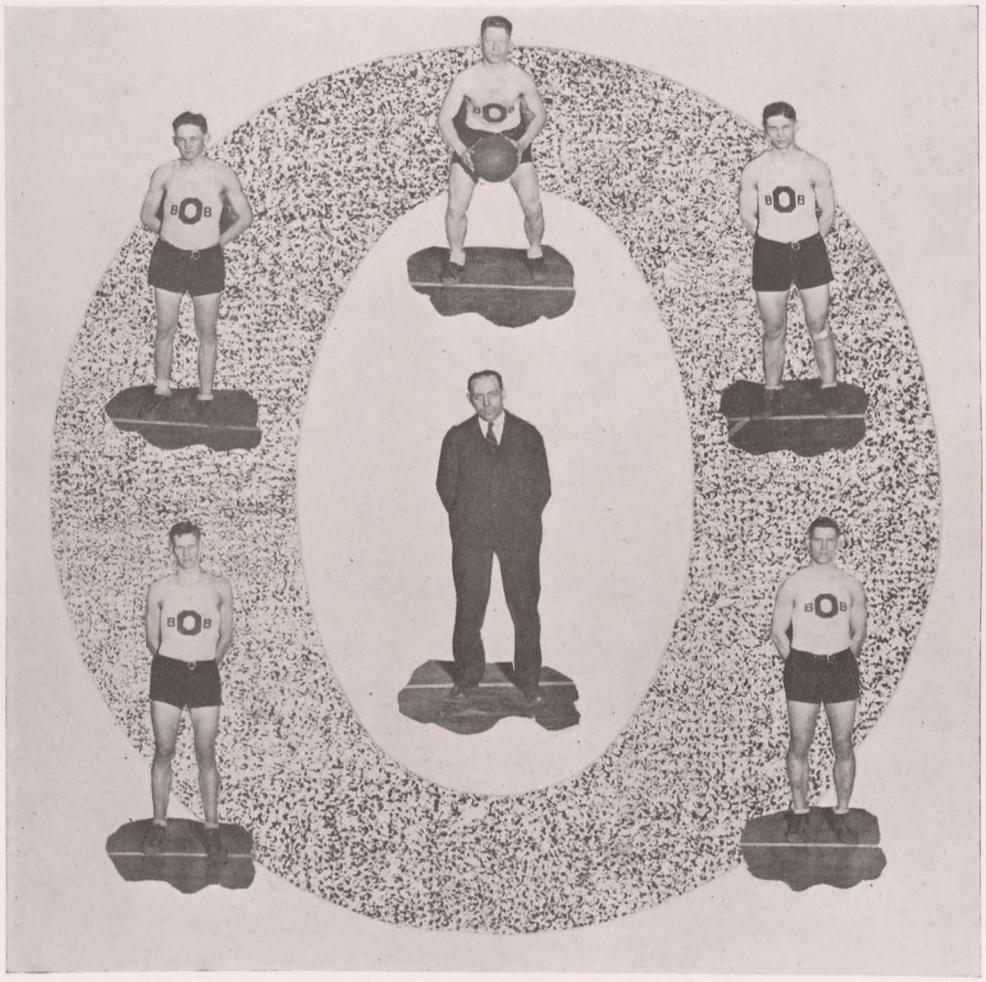
A. O. BARNES, Captain

Basketball

The prospects for the 1926-27 basketball team looked excellent at the first of the season. Coach "Deke" Edler started work as soon as the football season was closed. The early part of the season was successful in the number of wins, but the squad experienced a setback by the illness of Captain A. O. Barnes later in the period. There is a great deal of credit due the boys who did not make the team, because they are the "unseen forces" of the squad.

Basketball has been on the up grade at Otterbein within the last two years, and although some of the fine players on the squad will graduate this year, an unusually good season is anticipated for next year.



Barnes Snavely Buell
Seaman Coach Edler Reigel

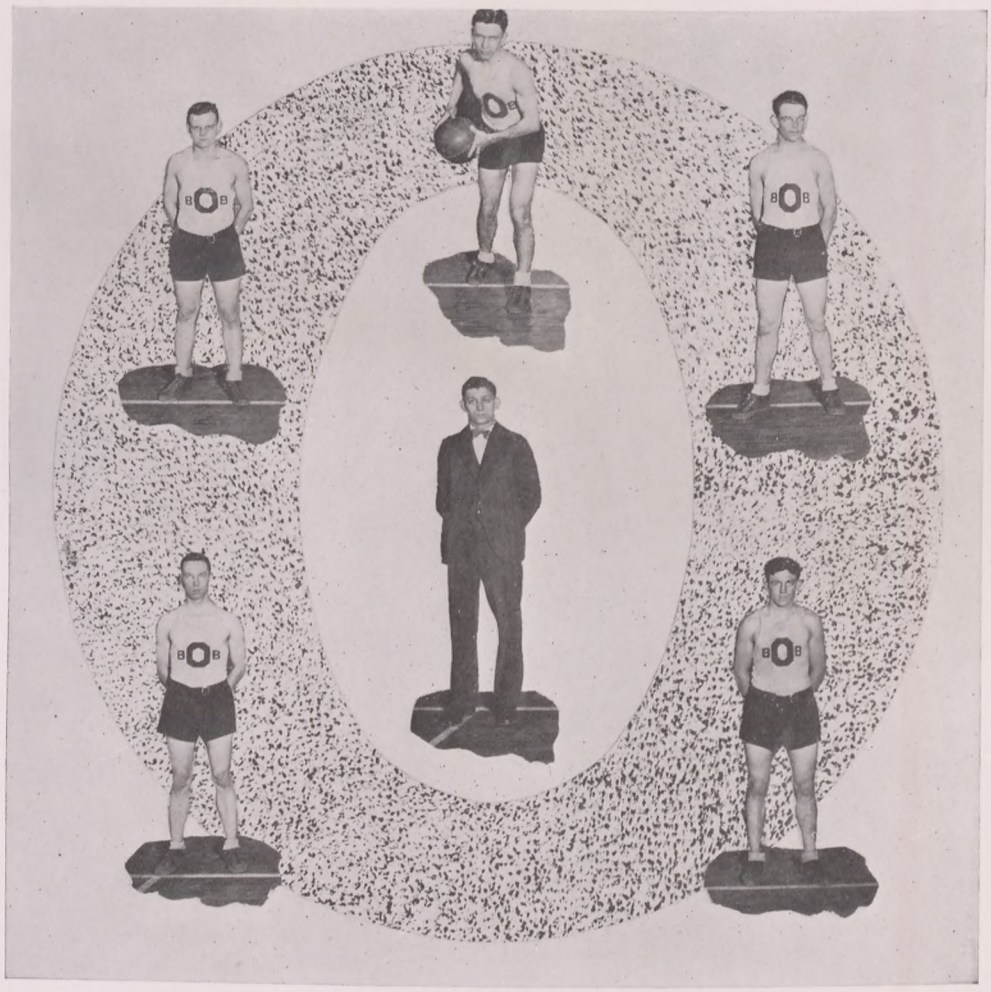
BARNES—"A. O." proved a capable captain for Otterbein's quintet. He is a fast, shifty floor player and a quick dribbler, to say nothing of his shooting. "Good work, A. O."

BUELL—"Glen" plays a good game at guard or forward. He can always be counted on to bring in his share of the baskets. "Glen" will lead the Otterbein quintet next year.

SEAMAN—"Ted" played center. He is one of the hardest workers and most consistent fighters on the team.

REIGEL—"Ernie" played anywhere on the team, forward, center or guard, and played them all equally well.

SNAVELY—"Bob" was Otterbein's outstanding guard. It was his task to take the fast man and he did it capably.



Minnich Schott Widdoes
Van Curen James, Manager Yantis

SCHOTT—"Coke" plays a fast, shifty type of basketball, and is a good dribbler.

MINNICH—"Tubby" plays forward and is consistent in finding the "basket."

WIDDOES—"Stick" is handicapped by his size. As a team man and a scrapper he deserves much credit.

VAN CUREN—"Van" usually played guard and could be counted on to take care of his man.

YANTIS—"Junie" plays a good game at center or guard. He is an accurate shot.

JAMES—Much credit is due "Dick" for his fine work as manager this year.

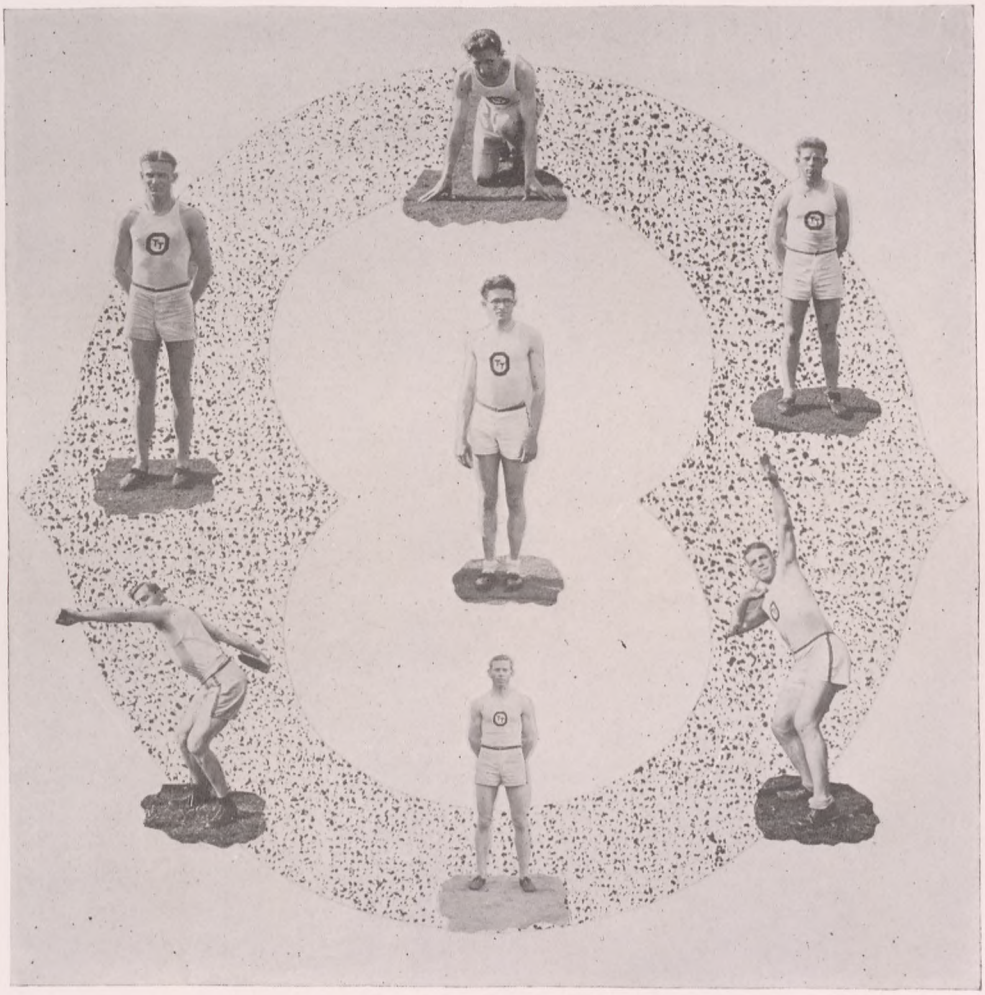
HERBERT STOUGHTON, Captain

Track

At the close of the 1926 season "Dit" turned in another one thousand per cent score sheet for the Otterbein track team. This record testifies for the fine work of this squad.

"Doc" Stoughton, who was captain of the 1926 cinder squad, is one of the most brilliant satellites in Otterbein's athletic history. He was a conscientious worker and careful trainer. He holds the college record in the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes; the Ohio Relay record of Class B colleges in the 100, and the State record of 49.4 seconds in the 440 yard dash. Otterbein is indeed proud to claim "Doc" as one of her worthy sons.



Stair Tinsley Widdoes
Porosky Stoughton Pinney Richter

STAIR—"Goofy" was a broad jumper for his Alma Mater.

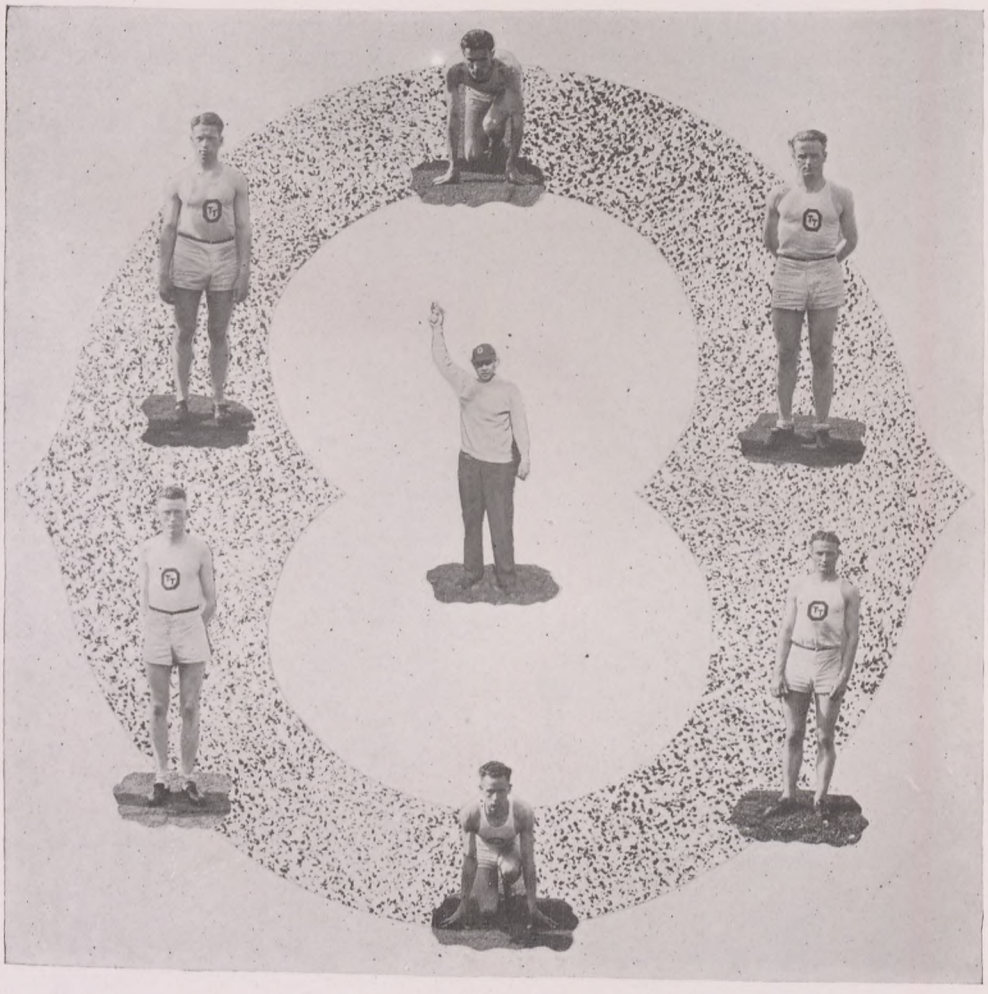
TINSLEY—"Tin" was the two-mile runner,—another hard worker.

WIDDOES—"Wid" was a consistent scorer in high and low hurdles as well as pole vault.

POROSKY—"Swede's" ability as a track man is shown by the fact that he holds the College record in both the Discus and Javelin.

PINNEY—"Red" is the holder of the high jump record and was honored by being elected captain of the '27 squad.

RICHTER—"Bozo" is another record holder in the weight event—Otterbein's putter.



Snavely Erisman Smith
Cheek Coach Ditmer Story Meyer

SNAVELY—"Bob" is a high jumper capable of holding his own in the Ohio Conference.

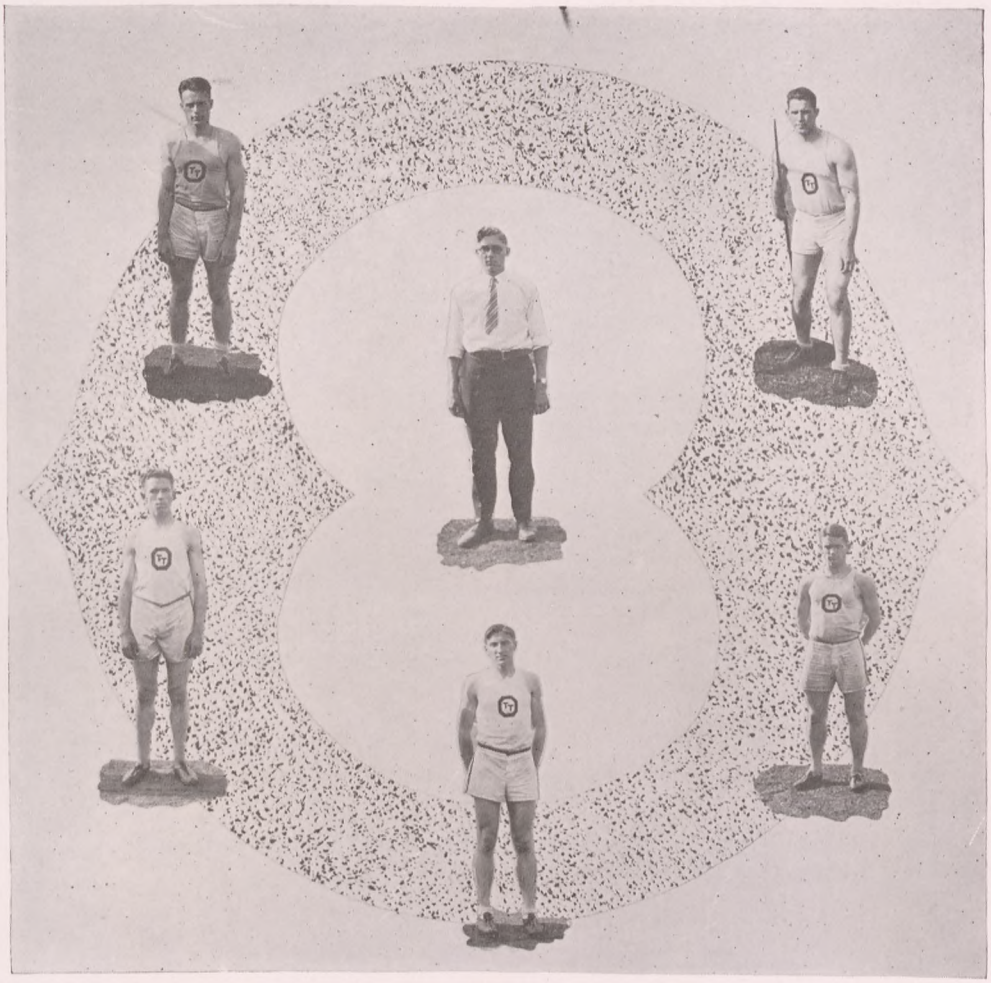
ERISMAN—"Bob" is a middle distance man of high caliber. We are looking for a good showing from him next year.

SMITH—"Smithy" is a good broad jumper. He was undefeated in the dual meets.

CHEEK—"Red" is the Varsity two-miler. He received the honor from hard work.

STOREY—Hubert is the other half-miler, one of the best in the state.

MEYER—"Ott" is a pole vaulter of unusual ability.



Pilkington Myers, Manager Reigel
Hicks Keck Wales

PILKINGTON—"Pilly" is an athlete who is always in condition—Otterbein's miler.

REIGEL—"Ernie" is a weight man who will be heard from later.

HICKS—"Larry" did not make his letter, but he runs a good "two-mile."

KECK—"Waldo" did not make his letter, but he has two years more in which to show his wares.

WALES—Craig is a versatile lad. He pole vaults and runs the low hurdles and 440.

MYERS (Manager)—"Bill" prepared the track for the meets and at all times filled the manager's position in a very capable fashion.

In the Kenyon meet Robert Snavely set a new Otterbein high jump record of 5 feet 9¼ inches. The following week, in a meet with Heidelberg, Hubert Pinney broke this high jump record in a jump of 5 feet 9½ inches. In the same meet "Doc" Stoughton set a new Otterbein record of 22.4 seconds for the 220 yard dash.

OHIO RELAYS

In this meet the Otterbein mile relay team broke the pervious Otterbein record for this event.

BIG SIX MEET

Otterbein finished sixth in a meet of seventeen Ohio Conference schools, with a score of 16½ points. Herbert Stoughton established the Ohio Conference record for the 440 yard dash and Captain-elect Pinney broke his own previous high jump record, raising it to 5 feet 11¼ inches.

ARTHUR RENNER, Captain

Baseball

At the beginning of the 1926 season prospects for baseball were by no means encouraging. The weakest part of the team, as in most years, lay in the pitching staff. However, Coach Ditmer rallied his forces while Roberts and Yohn developed into pitchers who were a credit to the team. The squad worked hard during the season and although the score was not always in their favor, great credit is due the boys for their loyal work.

Despite the fact that the outlook for the 1927 season is not as bright as it has been in past seasons, Coach Ditmer has several versatile men who can be counted on to make a fine nucleus for a successful team.

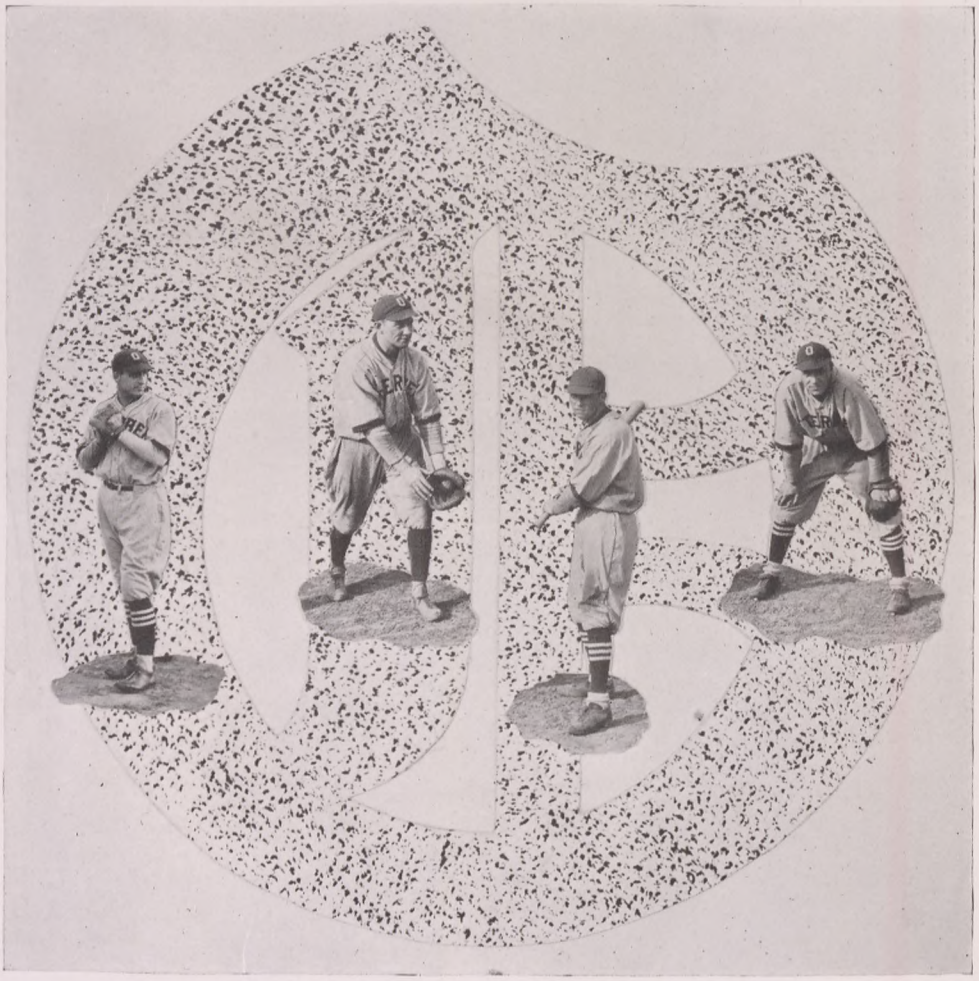
Yahn Renner Phalor Young

YOHN—This old righthander pitches a consistent game and keeps cool in pinches.

RENNER—Captain "Art" Renner is a born baseball man. Very few balls got through third last season.

PHALOR—"Pick" takes his place behind the bat. He does very creditably too and never gives up.

YOUNG—"Youngie" can be depended on to pocket all the fly balls that come any way near him.



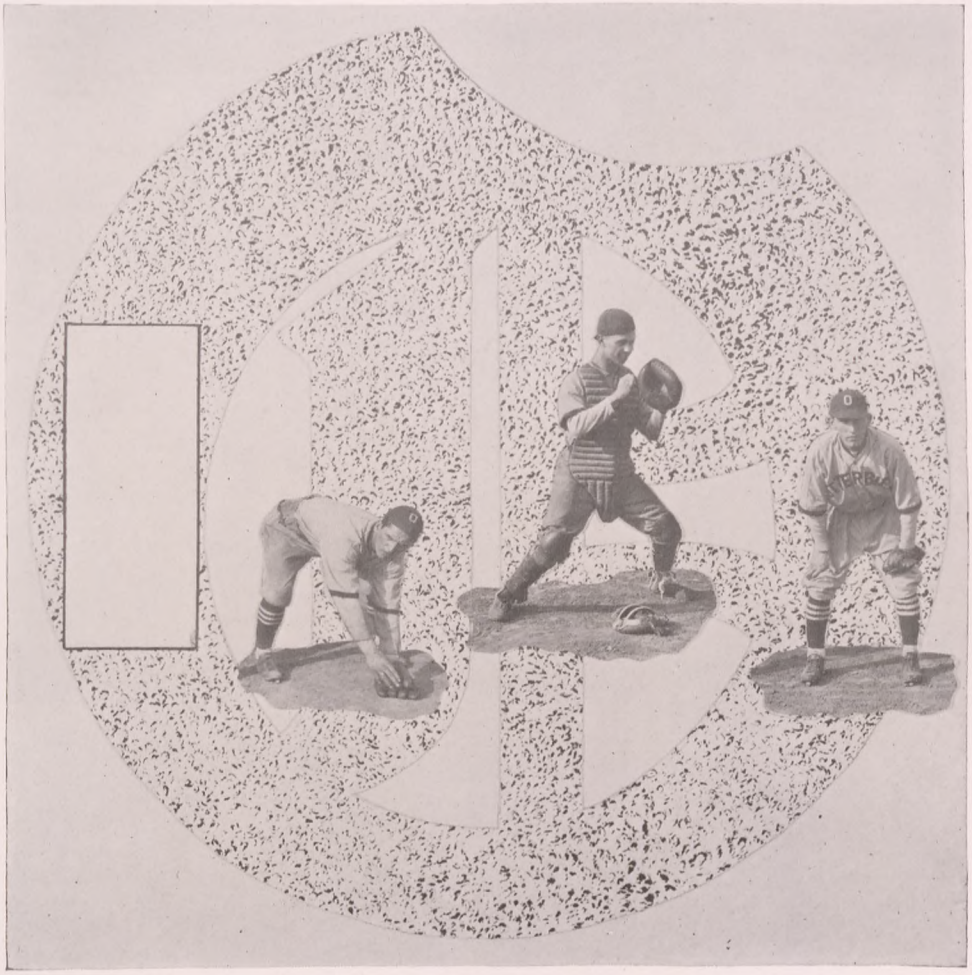
Roberts Carrol Beucler Upson

ROBERTS—George is a good "slugger" and knocked many a safe hit. He spends most of his time on the mound.

CARROL—"Johnnie" believes in talking things up on the diamond. Some of his long hits will not be forgotten soon.

BEUCLER—All the mean, twisty, little flies and grounders that fall to the lot of every second baseman seem to seek a lodging in Beuc's glove.

UPSON—"Uppie" is a good batter and takes it all calmly so he knows what it's all about. "Uppie" plays second.



Slawita Schott Hopper

CLARENCE LAPORTE was elected manager of the 1926 baseball team, but became seriously ill and was not able to serve. He died just after the season closed. To him we dedicate this space.

SLAWITA—"Honus" is the "short" who picks up all the "hot" ones and puts them out on first.

SCHOTT—"Coke" is another of the catching staff. "Coke" gives a pitcher a good support and holds the home plate down in a fine manner.

HOPPER—"Rus" did not play in all the games, but he was a fighter when he did play.

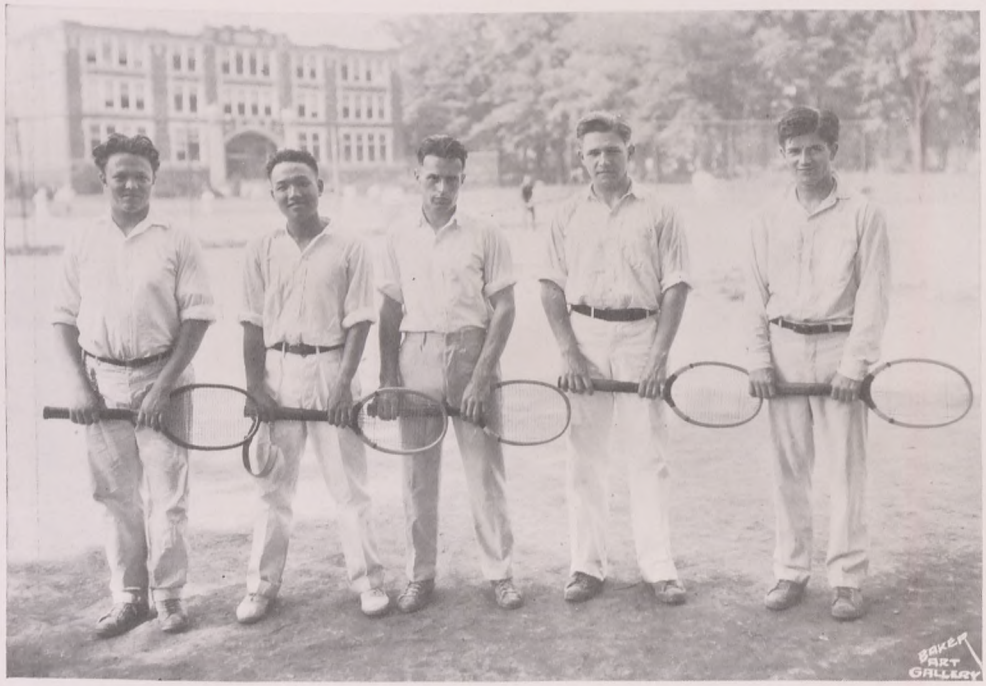
RAYMOND PILKINGTON, Captain

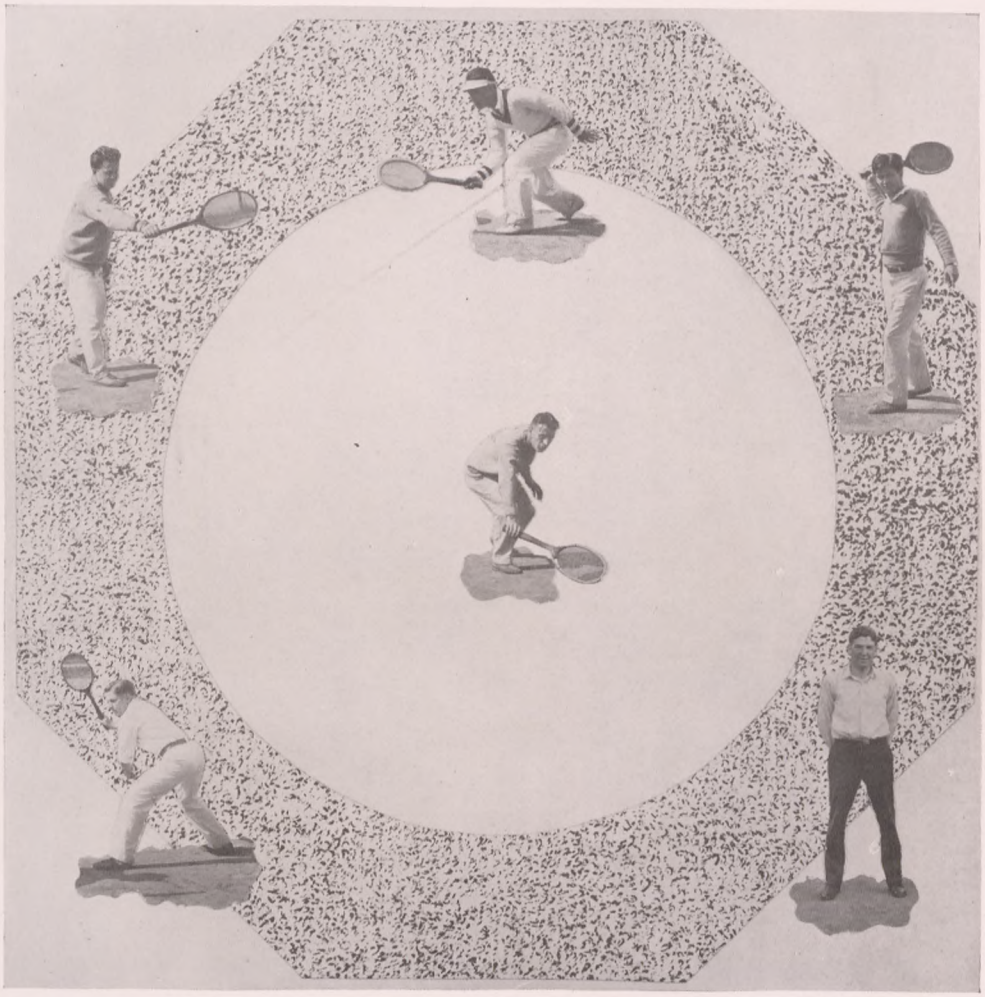
Tennis



The 1926 Tennis Squad started spring training in the gym and as soon as the weather became favorable the players were on the courts. Due to the size of the gym, very little was accomplished in the way of training before the season actually began.

In spite of this lack of early practice, though, the boys showed a great deal of natural ability and a real fighting spirit, and at the end of the season had three wins and one tie match to their credit.

None of the squad graduated, so that prospects for a successful 1927 season are indeed favorable.



Roby McConaughy | Lai Pilkington | Bechtolt Wilson

CAPT. PILKINGTON—"Pilly" is one of the most consistent, conscientious, and hard working of Otterbein's athletes. He is a capable captain and knows how to use a back stroke as well as the forehand.

LAI—"Sheik" is a fast, versatile and hard driving tennis player.

BECHTOLT—"Becky" is the fast tennis player who hits with the "pep" to kill it.

ROBY—"Paul" is a man who believes in giving his opponents plenty to worry about.

MCCONAUGHY—"Mac" is a good singles player, and can generally be counted on for a good showing in the doubles.

WILSON—"Bebe" served in a very capable and efficient fashion as manager of the tennis team.

COR. STATE & COLLEGE

To Otterbein Students:

A man may have high ideals, a strict moral sense, in fact be almost a model citizen, and still be a most uncomfortable person to be with or have about.

A store may have good stocks, good merchandise, good service, and all, and still be an uncomfortable place to trade.

In each case we'd say they weren't human enough. They leave us cold.

You know that we have the stock, the quality and the service. And we like to think that our customers feel that there is a very human quality about the store.

We try to make it the kind of a store that people like to come to, a place they feel welcome in, where they like to buy, or shop, as the spirit moves.

It would give us a great deal of pleasure to see you in our store frequently. You are welcome.

Yours truly,
REXALL,

Eighty Years of Splendid Service

1847 ~ 1927

OTTERBEIN closes four score years of educational service to many thousands of young men and young women. It is one of the oldest colleges in the state. She looks forward to the opening of the eighty-first year with new visions, new ideals, new hopes and new plans. With marked changes in the curriculum, a clear-cut program for freshman week and orientation, new instructors and a new program for housing and social life, she commits herself anew to her task.

The past year marks the greatest achievements in the securing of money, the graduating of the largest class and the securing of King Hall, as well as a large tract of beautiful land. This year also marks the consummation of the appeal for the first million dollars of the Jubilee Fund. New buildings, new plans and new developments are just ahead.

The next school year opens September 14. Freshman Week is September 9 to 13. All freshmen are required to attend.

For information concerning courses and registration address the Registrar, F. J. Vance. For other information write the President, W. G. Clippinger.

"Hank" Gallager says that, judging from the number of squirrels in the trees on the campus, there must be a goodly portion of nuts this year.

Retrospect

As the evening sun slowly dips below the horizon and the peaceful calm of twilight creeps in upon the closing day, so must the sun of time go down on our activities. True, there have been many difficulties at times, but the publishing of the 1927 SIBYL has been an enjoyable task.

We of the staff wish to express our deep appreciation to Mr. Adler of the Canton Engraving Company, Mr. Brown of the Phillips Printing Company, and The Baker Art Gallery for their kind cooperation during the entire year.

We also wish to thank Mr. Wilburn Bargdill for much of the art work used in our book, and Mrs. Dunn and the various pupils of the art department for their fine work.

It is impossible to express our gratitude to each person individually, but we take this means of thanking all those who have contributed in any way to the making of the 1927 SIBYL.
