DEDICATION

DR. GEORGE SCOTT

FOREWORD

In planning this book, we had several things in mind. One was to honor a man, Dr. George Scott. Another was to portray the campus life of our Alma Mater as accurately as possible. But above these we have endeavored to show that this man has lived such a well rounded, diversified life that there is not a single section of this annual that does not portray some important phase of Dr. Scott's life.

So we offer this 1931 Sibyl as a challenge to every reader, to make his life just as well rounded and of as much service to mankind as this man's is.

GREETINGS

TO THE STUDENTS and other friends of Otterbein College, I extend my felicitations and greetings as we approach the close of her eighty-fourth year.

Otterbein has served a noble purpose in the educational world. Her graduates are located in many countries. The various trades and occupations have received their reasonable quota from her ranks.

To you who read this book I wish no higher good than that scholarship standards coupled with ideals of character and service be your dominating purpose. This is my passion for Otterbein. Buildings, equipment and a beautiful campus are attractive and desirable, but they are not ends. They are merely means to an end.

With greetings and good wishes, I am,

Humbly yours,

W. G. Clippinger

OTTERBEIN STUDENTS have been very fortunate in the last few years. Although the enrollment has fallen from approximately six hundred to four hundred and twenty-two, the same forty-four-member faculty has been retained. For every nine students then, there is one professor.

This means that closer contact between student and professor is possible, that personal supervision, guidance, and help has entered into our curricula.

Otterbein boasts among its faculty four listed in "Who's Who in America." On the pages of "Who's Who in American Education" appear two members of Otterbein's faculty.

This number is unusual for a small college and only helps in part to demonstrate the calibre of our professors.

"LIFE BEFORE US—SCHOOL BEHIND"

SILENT AND AWED we stand before the waiting world. Life lies before us—school lies behind. The future is clothed with mystery but our past we lay before you for your inspection.

Humbly we beg your approval: admire us for our strength and perseverance, praise us for our victories and successes, follow us where we have been right, but excuse us where we have failed, gently pass over our mistakes and benevolently forget our shortcomings. May your way be easier for the path we have blazed.

We came four years ago, fresh, young, eager to learn about life. The four years have passed and with them the first burst of enthusiasm. Gone are the naive ideas of the world that as freshmen we held so dear: gone, the collegiate sophistication; and now at last we feel the forced dignity of seniors passing and we stand alone, trembling on the brink of a great adventure.

"TIME FLIES—MUCH TO LEARN"

YEARS AGO, how many no one knows, someone made the now trite observation that "Time Flies." As the Junior class looks back to the day, almost three years ago, when we as a class came to Otterbein for the first time it seems but yesterday and we can only exclaim as have others, "Time Flies."

Yet in that seemingly brief span of time many things have happened to us singly and as a group. Things that we can never forget—things that have changed our whole life's course.

Contrary to the general opinion of the public concerning college students we have learned a great deal. Yet the one thing that has become clearer, as the days have slipped away is that we know so little and there is yet much to learn. Gone is the attitude of high school and early college days that we are the cream of the intelligentsia of the world and in its place is the realization that a few of us by hard work may reach that exalted position.

Life at Otterbein has been real to us. We have had our good times yet as we approach our last year there has come a sobering thought and we know that soon we must assume our share of the world's responsibilities, and with this knowledge has come a desire that the years we are spending here shall not be in vain.

"OUR TALENTS ARE VARIED AND NUMEROUS"

WHAT A DIFFERENT FEELING we have this second year at Otterbein. Last year we were only Freshmen, the lowest of the four classes. To us, the day when we would step out of that lowly position seemed distant indeed, but now that it has come we can hardly bring ourselves to believe that we were ever so naive, as others would have us think.

We are proud of our class and its short history. Our talents are varied and numerous. A large percent of the football, basketball, baseball, tennis and track teams were Sophomores. We have made a name for ourselves in other endeavors such as writing, speaking, music, and dramatics, yet we are sure that this is only a beginning and in the next two years we shall be able to make a worthy name for the class of 1933.

Yet for all our being Sophomores we have tried to avoid the feeling that we have the world at our feet and that we can "rest from our labors and good works will follow us." Far from it—the one thing that life at Otterbein has taught us is that real achievement comes only after hard work. With this in mind we shall redouble our efforts that we shall not be disappointed.

SCRAP DAY—BONFIRE—FROSH PARTY EATS

IT WAS WITH MUCH FEAR and trembling that the bewildered freshmen started out on the schedule for freshman week, but with our faith in the strength of numbers—for our class was heralded as one of the largest in the history of Otterbein—we managed to live through that exciting week. By Scrap Day, however, we had gained a little more confidence in ourselves, and, excited by the cheering of onlookers and spurred on by the knowledge of the opposition of the other three classes, we came out with flying colors, but only by a long hard fight. Every Freshman will long remember the bonfire and arguments which waxed hot and furious over some of the events connected with it. And another night to be long remembered is the night of our freshman party when some college crooks “swiped our eats.”

We were greatly disillusioned when we found, soon after the beginning of school, that our wonderful genius was not taken for granted, but that we must prove ourselves to be worth something. Ever since we made that discovery, we have been trying to prove that ours is the best class in history, and though we already believe it ourselves, we have yet to prove it to others.

We have made new friends, joined in new activities, and have come to love Otterbein and all she stands for. Each freshman wants his class to be the best that has ever graduated from Otterbein, and we are all pushing toward this aim, and we are determined to reach this goal by the end of our college career.

FRATERNITIES

Fraternities at Otterbein

THE HISTORY of fraternities at Otterbein starts with the year 1908. Although not officially recognized by the college until two years later, three fraternities or social groups as they were then called, claim the former date for their origin. Since then five more groups have been organized making a total of eight fraternities on the campus at the present time.

These groups are all local, since national fraternities are not allowed to maintain a chapter at Otterbein. However, each fraternity is proud of the fact that it has a well furnished, modern chapter house. In addition, the fraternities are proud of the fact that this year they were directly responsible for bringing approximately forty men to Otterbein who would probably have gone elsewhere.

The Inter-fraternity Council or Pan-Hellenic Council was organized for the purpose of legislating and enforcing certain problems which have confronted the groups from time to time. The Council is composed of two members from each fraternity. The president is elected every semester, each club having equal right in the president's office. Since the clubs are arranged in alphabetical order, it is in that routine that presidents are selected.

Since the time of its organization, the Council has been highly satisfactory as evidenced by the fine spirit of cooperation and fellowship among the clubs.

SORORITIES

Sororities at Otterbein

THE WOMEN'S INTER-SOCIAL GROUP COUNCIL was organized for the common good of the eight existing sororities on Otterbein's campus. This Council attempts to foster a spirit of cooperation and friendliness among the groups. Since it is composed of two representatives from each organization it is the logical body to formulate rules and settle questions of relative importance to all members.

The foremost problem facing the group is that of rushing. To evolve a plan that is not too expensive either of time or money and that is fair not only to the sororities but also to the freshman is indeed a difficult task.

The past two years the Women's Inter-social Group Council has agreed on the following plan and believes it to be the best yet used at Otterbein. A four week rushing period begun immediately after the first two weeks of school which are devoted to the Big and Little Sister Movement of the Y. W. C. A. Each sorority is allowed one party, the date being determined by lot. The amount of money that can be spent is also limited. At the close of this period of intensive rushing each group submits its bids to a previously appointed moderator, who also receives the preferences of the freshman.

That there is a need for such an organization as the Women's Inter-social Group Council on the campus is inevitable. That they are doing a worthwhile piece of work is evident, and that they shall continue their splendid service to the sororities is confidently expected.

THE POWER of creation is one of the greatest forces that grips the mind. Begun a year and a half ago, our "Sibyl" represents an interesting product of evolution. We believe that our creation is representative and in many cases new and original. The ideas incorporated herein have not come by inspiration but by labor. Frequently have we changed our minds. Minor ideas grew to major ones, so now we present to you our final ideas.

We admit our volume has many shortcomings, but these are mainly due to the magnitude of plans and dreams that we set for ourselves. We most certainly believe that we could manifestly improve upon it. But it represents original work on the part of the staff and class.

So the 1931 Staff have completed their link in the great chain begun in 1902. We take pleasure in presenting to the criticism of the years this "1931 Sibyl," realizing that it is only a stepping stone for the greater books ahead.—The Editor

STUDENTS would you believe that our college paper is forty-one years old? Yes, our modern, seven column, four page, bi-weekly Tan and Cardinal was first published in 1890.

This was the work of the Philophronean Literary Society, but they did their best to make it a college instead of a partisan affair. Thus was the Tan and Cardinal destined for twenty years, when the paper was published by both Philophronean and Philomathean Literary Societies.

Then, in order to make the sheet more representative, all four literary societies edited it. In spite of the combined efforts that were put forth, failure stared these groups in the face. So the Tan and Cardinal was put on the incidental fees and the staff elected by the Publication Board, on basis of years of experience and merit.

This year the sheet was increased from five to seven columns which shows the progressiveness of the staff and school in general.

PHILOPHRONEA offers a rare opportunity to every Otterbein man for improvement in elocution, composition, and debate, for enlargement of general intelligence, for cultivation of friendship, and for gaining of wisdom. Of late years, however, the men of the college have been reluctant to avail of these opportunities. The literary societies are among the outstanding heritages on the campus and have as much to offer to the student body in the way of cultural attainment as ever before.

Our Clubs

A HASTY GLANCE at this club section shows that they are material aids to the class room work, as well as enabling each student to broaden out in his particular chosen field.

The three honorary dramatic, forensic and scientific societies, afford an outlet for expression in and a better knowledge of this work. The literary societies, which are a thing of the past in most colleges, foster parliamentary drill and original productions that are not taught in any class room.

Even though sometimes we feel that we have not time for any of the fifteen clubs that are on Otterbein's campus, yet if we retrospect at all, each of us can point out some good that we have gained from our memberships in the various organizations.

CONSERVATORY

Music Club

THIS GROUP of interested students are doing their best to foster musical art on Otterbein's campus. They hold regular meetings where current topics of a musical nature are presented and discussed. The aim is to broaden their knowledge and appreciation of their chosen field.

FORENSICS

Pi Kappa Delta

PI KAPPA DELTA is Otterbein's honorary national forensic society. Here, eligibility consisted of representing the college in a certain number of inter-collegiate debates or oratorical contests. The fraternity has different degrees through which a member can progress, based on the number of years and merit of inter-collegiate competition.

Pi Kappa Delta maintains the Epsilon chapter at Otterbein.

Coach R. K. Edler

Assistant Coach F. A. Beelman

"DEKE" graduated from Ohio Wesleyan in 1920 where he was all-Ohio halfback in football and all-Ohio guard in basketball. This spring he will receive his doctor's degree after four years of medical work at Ohio State.

Coach Edler was assistant coach for three years, '24, '25, '26. In 1927 he went to Heidelberg College as assistant coach until two summers ago when he was asked to be Otterbein's Head Coach.

"BEANY" is here for the first time as a coach, but he is not new to Otterbein.

He was a halfback on the football team and also a member of the relay team which holds the Otterbein all-time record.

Beelman assists Edler in football and basketball but takes care of track himself.

We are all back of "Beany" and feel he will be as successful as a coach as he was a player.

ELIGIBILITY to Otterbein's honorary athletic fraternity consists in earning a letter in any sport. The organization sponsors every kind of athletic endeavor. It has been the custom of the Varsity "O" to furnish sweaters to all the letter men. Each year the wearers of the "O" put on a minstrel to help defray this expense.

Four Wins, Three Defeats and Tie Is Season's Football Record

(From Tan and Cardinal)

Otterbein's gridiron squad has just completed the most successful season of any Tan squad since 1927. Four victories, three defeats, and one tie game is the record which next year's team will have to strive to beat.

The team began this successful season by trouncing Cedarville decisively. Running Cedarville all over the field, Otterbein outplayed the down state college in every department; finally beating them 25-0.

After a slow start at Hiram the team came back strong the second half to win 13-0. Hiram furnished much harder competition than expected and Otterbein was forced to the limit to win this game.

Then came the disastrous part of the season with three defeats in a row. Capital with too much Briedwiser and Shelgren, beat a poor spirited Otterbein team for the first time in the season. Marietta with extra force the second half spoiled the Homecoming game with our second defeat 6-0. Denison also had too much fight in the last ten minutes of the final quarter and the Tan squad after holding a 10-6 lead for most of the game lost 19-10.

Then came the break. Doped by every Ohio sportswriter to be a setup for Ashland, Otterbein surprised them all and fought out a bitter 7-7 tie at Ashland. This was the best game of the season and the team really "clicked" for the first time since the second half of the Hiram game.

In their last home game with Ohio Northern, Otterbein managed to hold its early margin of 7 points good until the end of the game and although playing poorly after the first five minutes they won 7-6.

At Berea, Otterbein ended the season with a hard earned victory 6-0.

This brief review shows the one prominent weak spot, the lack of reserve material, which has always been one of Otterbein's chief reasons for its middling place in the conference. Yet with this in mind we praise the squad for its hard work on the football field this fall.

The 1931 Basketball Season

THE BASKETBALL TEAM this year won three games and lost eight. The tan men took the initial conference cage contest from Kenyon 36-35 when Andrews inserted the pill on the final crack of the gun. Capital's accurate shooting won for the purple quintet the second conference game by a score of 47-27.

Otterbein, starting the Mount Union game as the under-dog, according to the dope sheet made only 12 points to their foes' 42. A marked improvement in Otterbein's offense was noticeable in the next game with Marietta. The River Crew employed a stall defense to win by a tune of 27-38.

Ohio Northern squared the football defeat on the basketball floor. Andrews scored twelve of Otterbein's nineteen points. In a return game Capital succeeded in trouncing Otterbein. Mechling of Capital and loose officiating, featured the game.

Otterbein took the next two games, with Kenyon and Muskingum, but Ohio Northern Bears froze Otterbein with a 39-25 score. In the Kenyon game Francis made the winning marker with but 10 seconds to play. Wooster wound up the home cage game with a win as did Marietta with a dazzling offense.

The 1930 Baseball Season

THIS YEAR'S baseball season on the whole has not been very successful. The playing of the Otterbein team has been characterized by good hitting off set by poor fielding. At times the pitching was good but not good enough to win very many ball games. Botts, Bagley and Fowler took care of the hurling, while Captain Benford and Ralph Gibson showed up best in the batter's box.

In spite of the fact that Otterbein seemed to have a lot of old material and some experienced new men, she seemed to get off on the wrong foot at the beginning of the season.

It was not until the baseball boys from Capital invaded the Tan camp, that the Otterbein nine seemed to click. Ralph Fowler allowed the boys only three hits and four runs. The lucky seventh proved very profitable when three hits and several errors by Capital shoved over three runs, followed by two more in the eighth. The final score was 7-4 in favor of Otterbein.

In summing up the baseball season it might be said that although Otterbein did win only one out of eight attempts, it was generally felt among the players that they had witnessed a worth while season.

Spring Sports Menu Cut Due to Debt

Because of the deficiency of money, mostly due to the financial failure of the 1930 football season, the Physical Department has found, after a careful checkup on the baseball and track equipment that not as much money would be necessary to maintain these sports as usual, and rather than do away with the Spring sports altogether, as was originally planned, an abbreviated schedule will be carried on.

This movement has two advantages. It will not only keep Otterbein's athletic status up to par with the other conference colleges but it will also give those men who are particularly efficient in spring sports, a chance to make the much coveted "O."

Otterbein Track Team Marks Up One Win Against Three Defeats

(From Tan and Cardinal)

Otterbein's track team finished its season with one victory and three defeats. The lone victory was annexed in the first meet of the season in which Otterbein defeated Kenyon 80-50. The local squad outclassed the Gambier aggregation in practically every event.

Capital was met on the local track and allowed to return with a victory. The Bexley boys jumped to an early lead which they never relinquished. Briedweser of Capital was the outstanding performer of the meet.

Muskingum next invaded Otterbein's Camp and ran off with a 99 2-3 to 31 1-3 victory. The result of the meet was never in doubt from the beginning. Although the local team tried hard they were entirely outclassed in all but three or four events.

The only out of town meet for the Otterbein track squad was held against Ohio Northern at Ada. Here again the Tan and Cardinal team were beaten by a superior outfit.

The outstanding performers for Otterbein this year were: Captain Shelley in the distance runs; Burke in the discus, shot and hurdles; Gibson in the pole vault and low hurdles; Brubaker in the high jump; Irvin in the dashes; Heck in the half-mile; and Snyder in the 440.

Track Prospects for Next Year Unusually Good

Ordinarily a year-book does not carry dope concerning the succeeding term, since its purpose is to portray current activities. But the student body of Otterbein should know that its track team for next year ought to take every meet on the schedule.

Yes, we have the best of foundations for that statement in three freshmen boys. These lads are John R. Miller, of Mattoon, Illinois; George Bradshaw, of Lebanon, Ohio; and Raymond Schick, a local product.

Miller has high jumped 6 feet, 1 inch in high school, runs the high and low hurdles in varsity time, and then finishes off the day by pole vaulting.

Schick, besides being a valuable football and basketball man, has won every freshman century and 220-yard dash he has entered while at Otterbein.

Bradshaw affords Schick enough competition in the 100-yard dash to make it interesting. Besides this he is a low hurdler, pole-vaulter and runs the mile and half-mile.

These freshmen along with the varsity men left from graduation should bring Otterbein's track history up to the place that it was two years ago when she hadn't lost a meet in five years. It is individual achievement that wins track meets and when a team has a few star performers in a number of different events, the score should pile up in favor of that team. Otterbein's new gymnasium affords early practice in every track and most field events, so that when the competition starts, the Tan team ought to be in mid-season form.

The 1930 Tennis Season

(From Tan and Cardinal)

From the standpoint of victories the tennis team has been Otterbein's most successful athletic team this season. Led by Captain Harry Simmermacher the Tan and Cardinal Racketeers have won 4 matches, lost 4 and tied one.

Against Ashland College the Otterbein players administered two shutouts, the score in each case being 6-0. In no single match were the local boys pressed in the least.

In the first match with Capital University Otterbein emerged with a 4-2 victory. Before the second match was more than half completed rain interrupted the play.

The Kenyon squad, last years state champs, was decisively defeated by the Otterbein team on the local courts 4-2. The return match at Gambier resulted in a 3-3 tie.

Antioch College proved to be a jinx for the Otterbein. In both matches the local racket wielders fell by the score of 5-1. At Yellow Springs, Captain Simmermacher annexed his singles match with Ayers after an exhausting struggle of nearly two hours.

At home Shively succeeded in winning the first singles match in three long sets.

At New Concord Otterbein bowed to Muskingum 5-1. Captain Simmermacher was again the only Otterbein player to win his match.

This was the same story when Muskingum met the Tan netmen in the final match.

THE WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, affiliated with the national organization, fosters diversified athletics for college women. Starting with six members in 1927, the organization embraces fifty members.

Membership in W. A. A. is based on points earned in various activities sponsored by it. Awards of numerals and letters, for points earned, are made at the annual winter banquet.

This year the girls sponsored an evening of entertainment for the student body in the form of a "Nite Club," with all the name significates. "Play Day" with Capital girls was another achievement. The annual over-night hike, winter banquet, and commencement breakfast are annual events of W. A. A.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SQUADS

Girl's Basketball

THERE were two groups of girls playing basketball this year. League basketball, which takes in all the girls desiring to play, even those having no previous experience, and inter-class basketball. The latter was organized with each girl playing a certain percentage of the quarters so that participation of many rather than highly specialized playing of a few, would result.

The plan of not determining a champion, started three years ago, was carried out again this year. So each girl did her best and gloried in that, rather than worrying whether or not her team would win. This plan, according to Mrs. Johnson, physical director, seems very satisfactory.

In Memoriam

Ernest S. Barnard

The 1931 Sibyl wishes to pay its highest respects and tribute to Ernest S. Barnard, President of the American Baseball League, and member of the graduating class of '95, who died March 27, 1931, of a heart attack.

(From Tan and Cardinal)

Ernest S. Barnard, president of the American Baseball League, member of the graduating class of '95 of Otterbein, is dead.

The man who succeeded Ban Johnson as president of the American League died unexpectedly, March 27, at the Mayo Brothers Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota, where he was being examined for stomach trouble. Mr. Barnard died of a heart attack.

Mr. Barnard became president of the American League November 1, 1927, succeeding Johnson, the one-time czar of baseball and founder of the league. Mr. Barnard has been credited with soothing many differences among club owners and has always worked in harmony with Commissioner Landis.

Before he became head of the American League Mr. Barnard had been associated with the Cleveland Indians for the last twenty-five years where he served as secretary and later as president of the Cleveland club.

Barnard was born at West Columbia, West Virginia, July 17, 1874. During his fifty-seven years of life he seemed to develop an unusual interest in his Alma Mater, Otterbein. He was present at the dedication of the new gymnasium. He gave several substantial gifts toward that fund and gave the writer assurance that he was planning to do much more for the college in the future. The Alumni ranks of Otterbein have lost a national character. Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Barnard with warmth in this hour of great distress.

Co-Ed Dining Hall

Surely no feature section would be complete without a word about the newest feature that has appeared on Otterbein's campus—The Co-ed Dining Hall. We've had a Ko-ed Kate and a Joe Prep for some time, but never have these two personages been afforded the opportunity by the administration to discuss the possibility of a date while dillying a baked bean precariously on a knife—until recently.

Yes, alumni, the girls come right down and walk into King Hall just as they do in other colleges. And youse guys what was opposed to the idea, wouldn't you rather have a nice co-ed pass the bread, rather than receive a piece initiated from parts unknown terminating in your gravy?

So come on—let's give three big huzzas for Otterbein's co-ed dining system.
