The James Business Operations Internship

Noah Kuhn

Introduction

Practicum goals and overview

- By the end of the practicum, I will be able to discuss the James Cancer Centers. Mission, Vision, Values, and culture
- By the end of the practicum, I will have shadowed at least two different departments of interest
- By the end of the practicum, I will participate in an organizational project
- By the end of the practicum, I will have gained five meaningful connections to other professionals in the Industry
- By the end of the practicum, I will learn how to process and present data in a clear and concise manner.

Methods

Identified two departments of interest to shadow

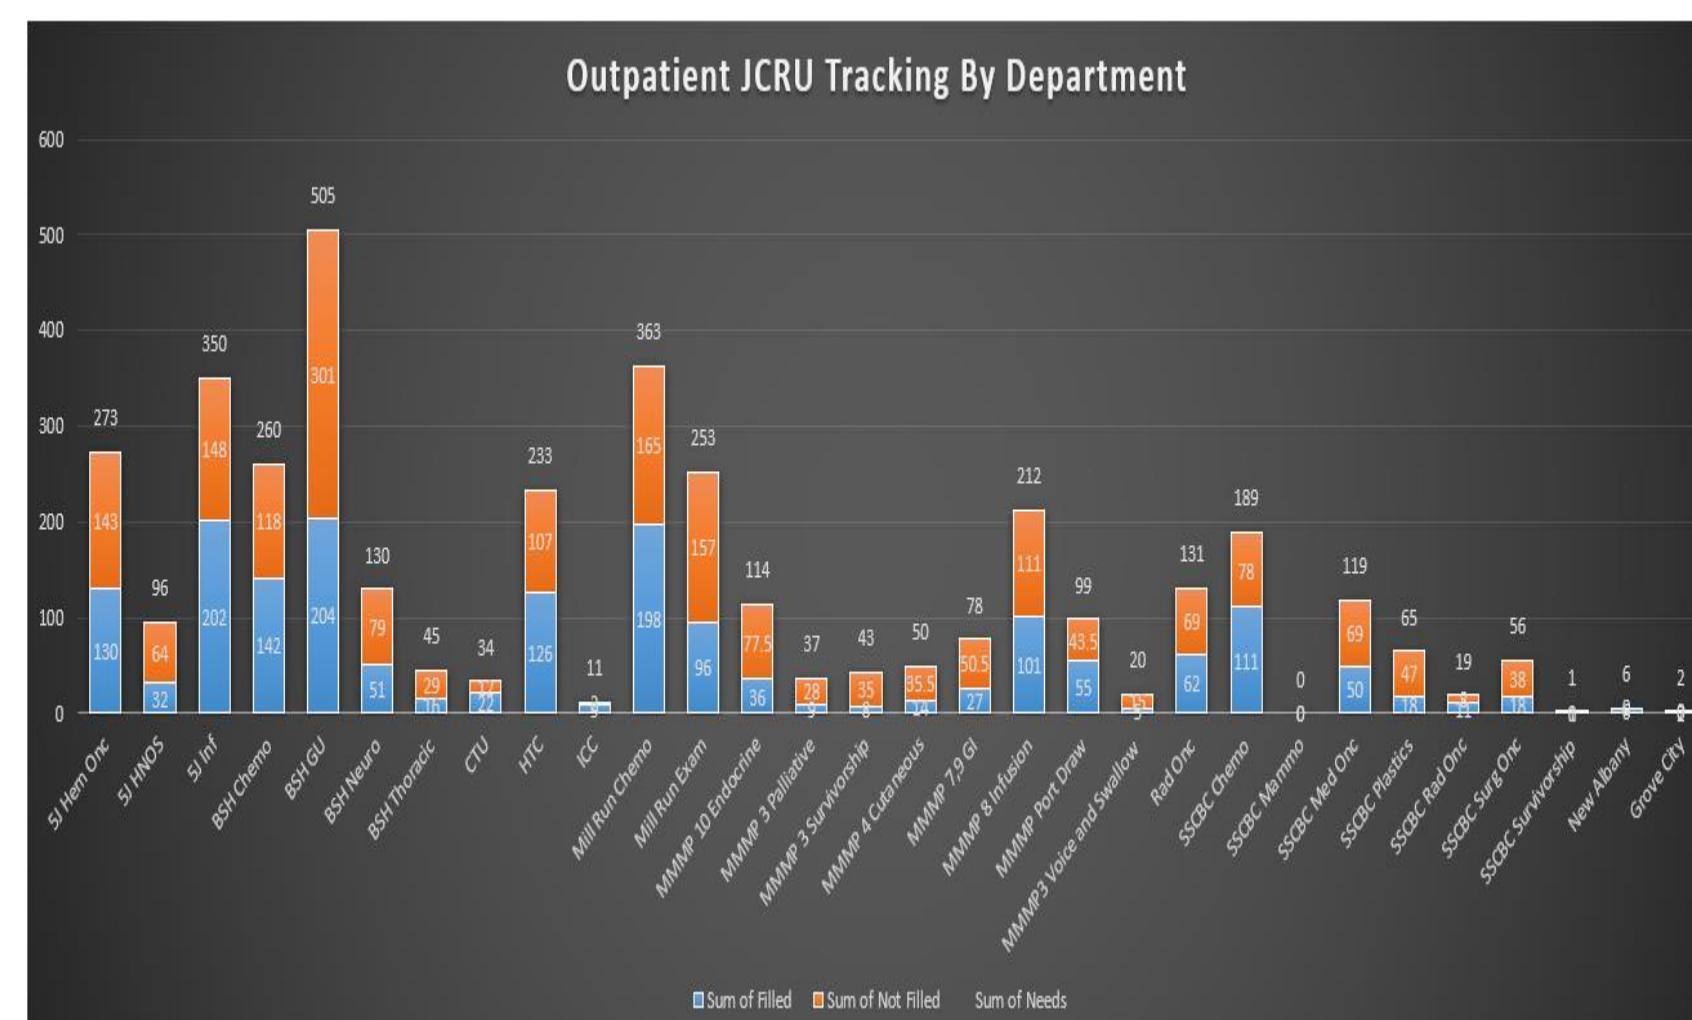

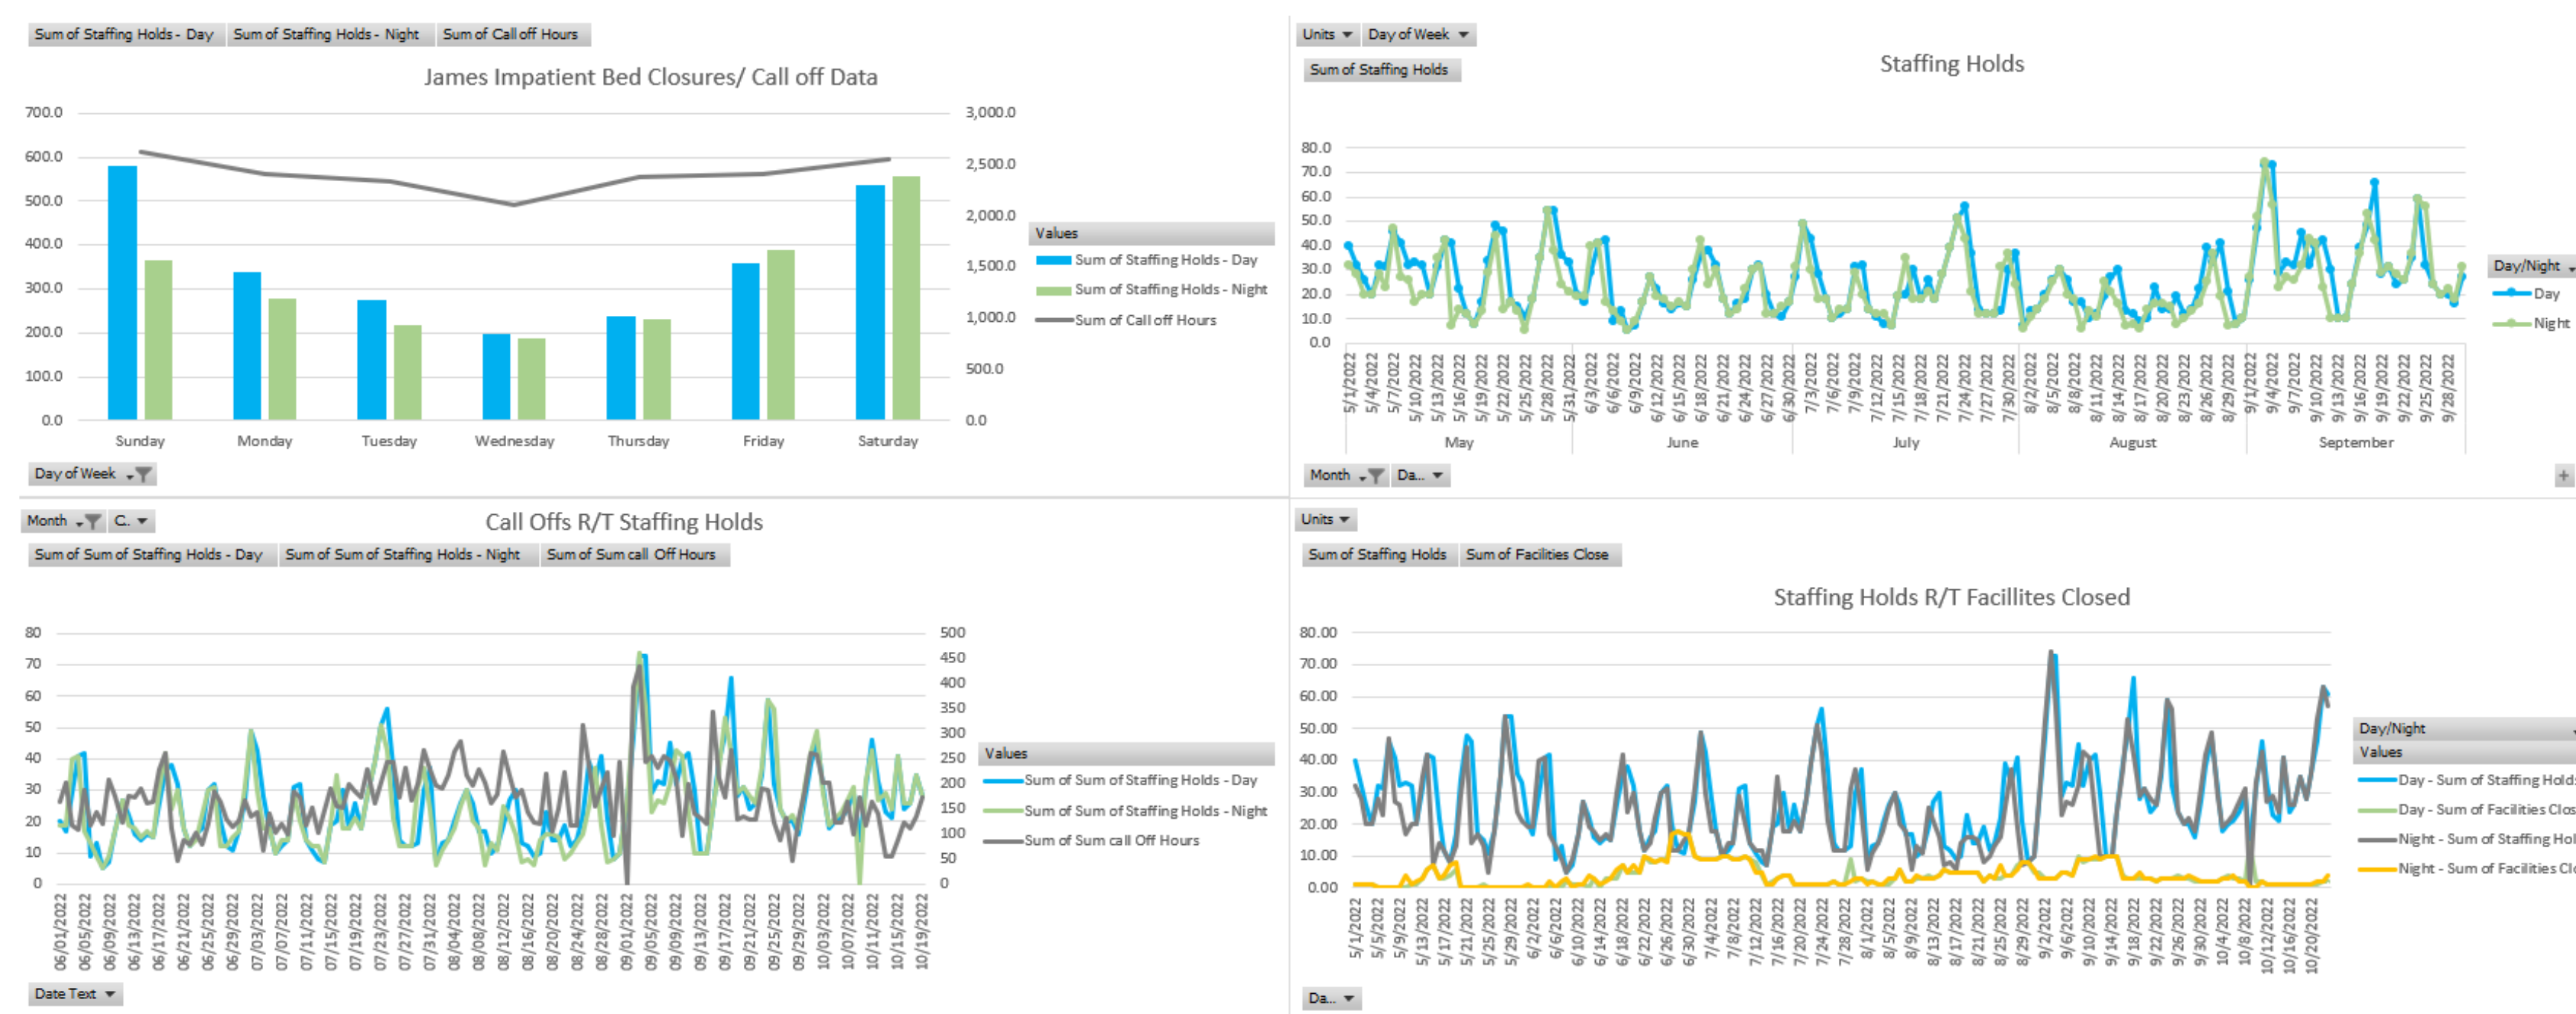

Identified five professionals I would like to learn more about

Was assigned and collaborated on a few system wide and personal projects

Learned the Basics of Excel and Presentation formatting

Gained and understanding of what the Mission vision and Values meant to Myself and my team.

System Projects

James Nursing Care Staffing Committee: April – June 2022

Clinics and Infusion
September 14th, 2022

The James
THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
WEXNER MEDICAL CENTER

Creating a cancer-free world. One person, one discovery at a time.

Results

I was Able to shadow the operational process of the PACU and ASU in addition to shadowing the Cancer Bridge business development team

I was able to interview and connect with Five professionals in the James

- Megan Mooney - Director of Nursing
- Audrey Lombardo - Digital Pathology Consultant
- Whitney McClain - Human Resources Consultant
- Hannah Weisberg - Nurse Manger PeriOp
- Scott Fisher - Cell Therapy Consultant
- Michaela Allen – Business Ops Consultant

Discussion

I was able to learn basic excel skills, learn how to read labor and financial budgets as well as create reports that are utilized by the health system.

This was an amazing experience I am grateful for my Supervisor Matt Raible, and Jason Walsh for giving me the opportunity to grow and develop my skills.

I will be continuing to apply for Administrative Fellowships and Open positions at The James.
