INTRODUCTION

Seventy-seven consecutive seasons of intercollegiate football have been played at Otterbein College beginning in 1890 and continuing through World Wars I and II. Few colleges have such a long-standing record.

In that first season the Cardinals played only two games with a pick-up team and lost both to Kenyon's Military Academy, 48-6, and Denison, 44-0. According to Otterbein records the school's first grid victory came over Ohio State, 42-6, in the 1891 season opener.

This football brochure has been prepared by the Information Department at Otterbein College for the benefit of the press, radio and television.

An effort has been made to make it as complete as possible; but, of course, there is always other information that might be desirable as the season progresses.

If there is any information, pictures, statistics, or service the Information Office can supply, please feel free to call Bill Skaates, Acting Director, Westerville, at 882-3601, Ext. 300 or at his home, 882-1121.

ATHLETIC STAFF

Agler

ROBERT "MOE" AGLER

Athletic Director

Although Bob Agler now has been away from the head football coach's post for a full season, he continues to maintain an avid interest in the fortunes of the Cardinal gridgers.

The ever-popular Agler "retired" from active grid coaching at his own request following the 1965 grid campaign and is now devoting full time responsibilities to his Athletic Director's role and classroom assignments.

From the time Agler starred as a fullback for Otterbein until this past year his name has been almost synonymous with Otterbein football. He came back to his Alma Mater in 1953 as a part-time assistant, was named head coach in 1955 and held the post for 11 years, departing with the best ever Otterbein coaching record of 57-36-4.

Agler earned an M.A. degree at Ohio State University, and has taken further advanced study at the same university toward a Ph.D. degree.

Lintner

LARRY LINTNER

Head Football Coach

Beginning his second year as head football coach at Otterbein, Larry Lintner has high hopes of elevating the Cards to a better record than the 2-7 mark of the 1966 team.

He played under Bob Agler while a student at Otterbein and served as co-captain of the 1956 squad. Like Agler, Lintner was a hard running fullback and recognized as the stabilizer of the squad.

After graduating from Otterbein Coach Lintner was named head coach at Watkins Memorial High School (Pataskala) where he spent six years building an enviable record as a class "A" High School Coach.

In 1962 he was named runner up for the State Class "A" Coach of the Year Honors and in 62 and 63 his teams won the Licking County Championship winning 17 of his final 18 games there before being named as an assistant to Agler at Otterbein.

For two seasons he worked closely with Agler as a member of the Otterbein football coaching staff.

In 1965 Lintner earned an M.A. degree from Ohio University with a perfect 4.0 average.

Lintner makes his home in Gahanna with his wife Helen and their two daughters, Tracey, 9 and Tuesday, 7.

ELMER "BUD" YOEST

This marks the 12th year that Bud Yoest has served as an assistant Otterbein football coach.

Like Lintner, Yoest, too was a former Otterbein gridder who returned to his alma mater shortly after graduation. Under Coach Lintner, Yoest will be assigned the role of "end coach" which is a familiar position for Bud since he played end in college.

After graduating from Otterbein in 1953, Bud was on the staff at Mifflin High School and returned to help Agler part-time in 1956. In 1958 he became a full time member of the department and was assigned the responsibilities of Head Track and Cross Country Coach.

In addition to his degree from Otterbein, Yoest holds a M.A. degree from Ohio State. He and his wife Nancy are proud parents of two sons, Jeff, 12; and Kyle, 9.

RICHARD FISHBAUGH

The newest member of the Otterbein Athletic Staff is Dick Fishbaugh who joined the Cardinal Staff in 1966. He came to the Westerville campus from Reynoldsburg High School where he was head basketball and assistant football coach.

Fishbaugh, a graduate of Ohio University was an outstanding baseball player for the Bobcats. He also serves as head baseball and wrestling coach at Otterbein in addition to his duties as assistant football coach.

Working with Coach Lintner is nothing new to Fishbaugh. He served as assistant to Lintner when Lintner was enjoying success at Watkins Memorial.

In addition to his degree from Ohio University, he holds an M.S. in Physical Education from West Virginia University. He is a native of Pickerington, Ohio.

Fishbaugh and his wife Donna have four cheerleaders; Karen, 9; Kelly, 7; Kristen, 5, and Kathleen, 2.

D. L. (NICK) DeCENZO

Although not a full-time member of the Otterbein Athletic Dept., Nick DeCenzo is starting his third season as an assistant football coach for the Cardinals. He is an industrial arts teacher at Westerville High where he also was head football coach for eight years.

DeCenzo was head coach at Hamilton Township for four years and at Coldwater for three years before coming to Westerville. A graduate of Ohio State University, he and his wife, Sally, have five children.

OTTERBEIN'S FOOTBALL STORY

Records show that in 1889, Robert Spear, Princeton scholar and athlete, visited Otterbein and explained the game of football. The idea was a hit and a move was immediately started to provide football at Otterbein.

There was one major problem – there was no football! A student, Ernest S. Barnhard, raised $4.00 to buy the first football and, thus, football at Otterbein was underway.

In 1890, A. L. Artz, an old Dartmouth player, was hired to coach the first team which played two games. Kenyon was the first opponent, and they defeated the Otterbein team, 48-6. Denison won the second game, 14-0. The first Otterbein football victory was recorded in 1892 when the Cardinals defeated Ohio State University, 42-6.

As the years progressed, football at Otterbein did likewise. In fact, from 1890 to 1920, a total of 20 coaches served the football squads at Otterbein, and for four of those years, there wasn't a coach!

From 1920 until 1955, the Otterbein football team was directed by six different head coaches. M. A. Ditmer became the first coach to last more than three years. He was with the Otters seven years, from 1920-26. A. B. Sears took over for two years, 1927-28. R. K. (Deke) Edler served the team as head coach for six years (1929-34) leading into the reign of the late Harry Ewing.

Ewing started coaching in 1935 for the first of his three four-year stints. Following a three-year stay by S. T. (Sam) Selby, 1939-41, Ewing returned for another four-year coaching term during the lean war years of 1942-45.

During this time, when any opposition was hard to find, Ewing concentrated on service teams and compiled a four-year record of 16 wins, 7 losses and 3 ties, before yielding the coaching duties to ex-Ohio State gridder George Novotny.

Novotny's appointment as football coach at Otterbein came at the end of World War II (1946). That year he produced one of the greatest Otterbein teams ever, sporting a 7-1 record. The lone loss was a 13-7 setback against the University of West Virginia in the season opener. The fame of the '46 team sticks with the Cardinals to this day.

Ewing returned to the coaching scene for another four years after Novotny resigned in 1950. Known throughout Ohio as "Mr. Athletics at Otterbein," Ewing was guiding the Otters for the third time. When he retired in 1955, he ended 12 years of football coaching at Otterbein and more than 20 years with the college's athletic teams.

Bob Agler who is now serving as Athletic Director, guided the Otters for 11 years until his retirement from coaching this past season. In his 11 years as head coach, he compiled an enviable record of 57-36-4, the best ever accumulated by an Otterbein coach.

Football at Otterbein really came into its own at Otterbein during the Agler era. After bouncing up and down during the first years of Agler's 11 year stint, the Cardinals compiled six consecutive winning seasons from 1959 through 1964.

Agler brought a new and exciting style of football to Otterbein influenced greatly by the three years he spent as a player in the professional ranks (two seasons with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League and one with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League).

On the plus side and ranking with probably the most exciting game in Otterbein's modern football history was the come from behind 28-28 tie recorded by the Cards against Wittenberg at Springfield in 1963. This tie, which saw the Cards' quarterback, Dave Kull, complete a record 18 passes, came in the midst of Wittenberg's most successful string of seasons in the Ohio Conference.

Probably the most outstanding player to compete on the Otterbein grid teams coached by Bob Agler was quarterback Larry Cline who completed four seasons as the regular Card signal caller in 1960. Cline still holds three individual season records for the Cards and two more single game marks.

Cline's mark of 1080 yards passing and 23 touchdown passes thrown (both in 1960) still dot the OC records book as does the 1231 total yards gained in 1959. In the single game category Cline still claims the most touchdown passes thrown (six against Capital in 1960), and the most total yardage (246 against Hiram in 1959).

Other top gridgers of the "Agler Era" included Glenn Aidt, Gary Allen, Dick Amelung, Bill Baker, Jim Earnest, Ron Jones, Gene Kidwell, Harry Klockner, Dave Kull, Bill Messmer, Jack Pietila, Dick Reynolds, Gary Reynolds, Jack Spicer, Jim Wacker, and Jerry Whitacre.

Following the 1965 season, Agler's aide, Larry Lintner was named to replace him in the head grid post. Lintner, a former player under Agler has already established himself in the high school ranks as a winning coach at nearby Watkins Memorial.

1967 OUTLOOK

After a disappointing 2-7 record in his first season as head football coach at Otterbein, Larry Lintner naturally is looking toward a brighter season in '67. The young (32) Cardinal grid mentor has good reason to feel this way since he has 24 returning lettermen, and only lost 12 monogram winners from the '66 club.

Two standouts on the 1966 team will be among the missing. End Bill Speaks, who as a sophomore last season led the Ohio Conference in punting with a 39.9 average, is a scholastic casualty. Guard Fritz Goss, who was voted the Most Improved Player at the conclusion of last year, transferred to Ohio State.

On the plus side, Lintner points out that he will have 11 seniors as compared to three last year. He is abandoning the wing-T offense used last fall in favor of a more wide-open attack featuring the "I" formation and a "pro-set". "We'll be throwing the ball much more this season in an effort to beef up our offense," says Lintner.

Heading the list of returnees are senior Bill Baker and junior Ron Balconi, a pair of hard hitting linebackers who should bulwark the Cardinal defensive unit this season.

Baker, a 6-3, 250 lb. triple letter winner, was voted Most Valuable Player by his team mates at the end of last season, and was later named to both the All-Ohio Conference second team offensive and defensive units. He has operated at tackle for the past three campaigns but will be switched to a linebacker post in his senior year. A native of North Battleford, Sask. (Canada), Baker has hopes for a professional grid career.

A graduate of the always tough Sandusky High, Balconi proved the chief nemesis of Otterbein's opposing ball carriers last season as he led the Cardinal defensive unit in tackles with 86 over the nine game schedule. Balconi will be a junior this fall and has already been a regular with the Cards for two seasons.

Junior Fritz Caudle will be back for his third campaign at quarterback for the Cardinals. The 6-0, 170 lb. Caudle had an impressive freshman year when he connected on 50 of 101 passes for 608 yards and six touchdowns. Last season the Johnstown signal caller was learning a new system under first year Coach Lintner and had an "off year," but he should come back strong in '67.

Another shining light from the 1966 team, fullback Paul Reiner, is expected back this season to add some punch to the OC running game. As a sophomore Reiner was the team's leading ground gainer with 540 yards in 146 carries. A knee injury in a pre-season scrimmage kept Reiner out of the entire 1966 campaign.

Other senior lettermen who should see considerable action this year are offensive tackle Jim Jones, 6-0, 220; offensive guards, Bill Ellinger, 5-11, 218; defensive ends Dale Foor, 5-11, 205 and Dave Green, 6-0, 225; defensive tackle Lance Lord, 6-4, 215; defensive corner backs Dave Hoernemann, 6-0, 187 and Dave Widder, 5-10, 180; and defensive safety Don White, 5-11, 175.

Another Canadian, halfback Pete Parker, 5-9, 180 from Oakville, Ont. will be playing his first season of football for the Tan and Cardinal. He enrolled at Otterbein at the beginning of second semester last year and was a standout sprinter on the OC track last spring. Parker ran both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and also anchored the 440 yard relay team.

Two other gridgers who have had varsity experience with the Cards in past years but did not play in '66 will be back. Guard Dan Neese, a 5-9, 205 junior from Sandusky, earned a varsity "O" during his freshman year but was unable to play last season.

Sophomore halfback Carl Crist, 6-0, 185, saw considerable action with the 1961 team but dropped out of school to serve with the armed forces. Crist enrolled again second semester last year and will be trying to pick up the gridiron sport once more this fall.

Otterbein will be facing three new schools on their schedule in 1967. The Ohio Conference opener will see the Cards facing Muskingum instead of Wittenberg as they did last season. From the history of success both these teams have had in recent years, the opener still will be a rough one.

Ashland, now playing an independent schedule, will return to the OC schedule for the first time since 1964. Otterbein also will face Guilford College of Greensboro, N.C. for the first time ever. The Quakers' football has been on the upswing the past two seasons as has the entire Carolinas Conference of which they are a member.

All in all the second Otterbein Cardinal grid team coached by Larry Lintner should be improved over the '66 edition. The outlook is not as bright as it might be, but the Cards are expecting to surprise several opponents this year and by season's end could be a club to be reckoned with.

PAST RECORDS 1890-1966

Former Assistant Coach Ed Dwyer switches place with Paul Velez who has been head coach of the Greyhounds for the past five years. IC has been the Cardinals' opening opponent for the past three seasons with the Cards winning two of the three contests. The '67 game will mark the end of the series for at least four years.

Seventeen lettermen will return from last year's 8-1 team at IC. Four offensive and four defensive starters will be on hand to operate Coach Dwyer's "I" formation. Top new prospects are Mickey Thomason, 190 lbs. full-back; Steve Wooten, 185 lb. halfback; and transfer David Kreimer, 222 lb. center.

After a two year absence the Ashland Eagles, coached by Otterbein grad Fred Martinelli, return to the Cardinal grid schedule. The last meeting of the two schools in 1964 saw Otterbein emerge on top, 24-13. Playing an independent schedule, the Eagles finished with a 5-3-2 mark last season. This year they will face four Ohio Conference foes as well as four opponents from out of state.

Twenty-seven lettermen will be returning and the Eagles are expected to mold their attack around a strong passing game. Junior quarterback Mike Healy already has shattered most AC single season passing marks. The finest receiving corps in the college's history includes senior Jeff Payton, 185; and juniors Bill Seder, 170, and Al Fields, 200.

For the first time in 22 years Ed Sherman will not be manning the head coach's post of the Fighting Muskies. During the Sherman era Muskingum compiled a fantastic 141-43-7 record. This season Muskie grad Bob Stokes who has directed the MC cagers for the past two campaigns will take over the grid team.

Three All Ohio Conference stars from last season's 9-0 (regular season) team are expected to lead the Muskies' attack this year. Senior halfback Rick Harbold, winner of the Mike Gregory Award as the conference's most outstanding back will return; as will senior offensive guard Doug Smart, and senior safety man Doug Welsh. Harbold gained 1015 yards rushing, caught eight passes for 250 yards, and maintained a 39.9 punting average in '66.

The man to watch from Guilford this fall, according to Coach John Stewart, is senior flanker Henry McKai. The 6-1, 195 lb. receiver snagged 55 passes last season for 776 yards, a new record in the Carolinas Conference. Directing the Quakers wing-T attack will be senior quarterback Bill Burchette, 5-10, 160 lbs.

It will be homecoming at Greensboro when Guilford and Otterbein face each other for the first time. The Quakers will have 16 of 28 lettermen returning from the '66 squad which posted a 5-4-1 record including a season opening 7-0 win over Hampden-Sydney, top team in the Mason-Dixon Conference.

2 p.m. (EDT)

Delaware, Ohio

After three years of re-building under Coach Jack Fouts, Ohio Wesleyan could well be ready to make a run for one of the top spots in the Ohio Conference. They reached their peak last season against Otterbein with a 55-0 whitewashing of the Cardinals. By the end of the 1966 campaign OWU stood 4-2 in Ohio Conference play, good for a tie for fourth.

To begin the 1967 season Coach Fouts will have 20 returning lettermen and 18 regular starters from last year. Although the Bishops will have to find a replacement quarterback for the graduated Barry Aronson, they have two fine offensive ends in Bill Long and Barry Furst. Hard running fullback Bart Drake will be back for another season, too. Drake carried the ball 172 times for 669 yards and six touchdowns in '66.

In only one year as head coach at Marietta, Joe McDaniel (former assistant at Muskingum) raised the Pioneers' from 1-8 to 4-4-1. One of those victories was a narrow 6-3 homecoming win over Otterbein at Marietta. In addition to their break-even won-loss record in '66 the Pioneers also outscored their opponents 96-92 for the first time since World War II.

McDaniel will have 24 lettermen back from last year's squad including nine offensive regulars and five defensive regulars. The defensive line will need re-building but he does have 235 lb. junior tackle Larry Neely returning. Halfback Bob Louys, leading receiver and top punter for three years is gone, but quarterback Phil Sipka and fullback Mike Dixon will be back.

After an up and down (3-4-1) season in 1966, hopes are high at Heidelberg that the Student Princes can continue their gradual climb back to the top rungs of the Ohio Conference that they held in the 1950's.

This year the 'Berg is a question mark. Coach Joe Malmisur must come up with an effective passing quarterback to balance the powerful running of fullback Chuck Ehlers. Last year as a sophomore Ehlers was the fourth leading ground gainer in the Ohio Conference with 646 yards in 162 carries. Center John LeFever should be an all conference candidate.

Success of the Hiram grid team this fall will depend largely on the freshman recruited by Coach Bob Dove, who is beginning his sixth season as head coach of the Terriers. Four members of the 1966 undefeated team at Miles McKinley are among the newcomers.

Junior quarterback Al Feldman who ranked fifth among Ohio Conference passers last year will be back. The offense should be bolstered by the return of Eric Thompson, standout halfback on the Terriers' offense. The 5-8, 160 Thompson has just completed a four-year hitch in the U.S. Marine Corps after playing one year at Hiram.

Gene Slaughter, coach of Otterbein's most traditional rival Capital, says depth problems are the greatest since he has been head coach at Cap (six years). With starters gone from the 1966 team that went 6-2 they could be but the Crusaders have developed the winning habit under Slaughter.

Top returnees are quarterback Steve Campbell (30 and 53 for 394 yards), defensive end and co-captain Leo Simpson, and middle guard Dick Holland. Slaughter believes Simpson to be a Little All-American candidate and to fill the void left by All-Ohio Conference line backer Murphy Moultry.
