Special Train to Carry Hundreds of Students and Townspeople to Springfield Saturday.

STUDENTS TO SEND BAND

Band to Lead Otterbein Parade from Springfield Depot to Wittenberg Stadium.

Next Saturday morning at 9:50 o'clock a special train with hundreds of enthusiastic Otterbein students, a band and a blood-thirsty team will leave the corner of College Avenue and State Street for Springfield, and then will parade to the stadium where Otterbein and Wittenberg will clash in what will be the biggest and best game of the year.

Two hundred students are needed to make this special train a financial success. A few energetic students in order to make this train a possibility have assumed a financial risk in that they have guaranteed the fares of two hundred students. The train will go to Springfield Saturday regardless of the number of passengers. If there is less than two hundred the guarantors are going to pay.

The college band will make the trip with the special train and will keep up the spirit with plenty of lively music. Through the efforts of Cheer Leader Dean Upson the band will be admitted to the game free of charge and the only expense of the band will be their transportation to and from Springfield. This the students will be asked to pay and in chapel sometime this week a collection will be taken to meet that expense.

The cost of the trip to Springfield including the fare both ways and a ticket to the game is $3.00. Tickets can be purchased from "Bones" Sanders, Ralph Knight, J. C. Bradrick, Denny Brown, Dean Upson, D. S. Howard, Elizabeth Saxour, M. W. Hancock and F. M. Pottenger.

Science Club Meets

The Science Club held its regular meeting in McFadden Science Hall last Monday evening at which time a most interesting topic was presented. Mr. Pottenger, having visited the petrified forests while on his way to California last summer, read a paper on the subject, "The Petrified Forests, a National Monument." The fact that he had visited the forests and had sent a sample of this wood for the Otterbein Museum, added greatly to the presentation.

The Southland Follies invaded the precincts of Otterbein last Saturday night and staged a minstrel show before some two hundred and fifty spectators in the College Chapel. The Minstrel put on by the Junior Class under the direction of Joe Mayne in behalf of this year's Sibyl, yielded some fifty or sixty dollars to apply on the publishing of Otterbein's Annual.

A moving picture comedy released through the Y. M. C. A. opened the evening's program, after which the Alabama Coons put in their appearance with jokes, clog dancing and singing. The "Reds" Lancaster and Camp served as the end men and are deserving of much credit for the man-

NOTED SPEAKER TO COME

Rev. James M. Coleman to Deliver Series of Lectures This Week on Social Problems.

From November 8 to 12, possibly to the 13th, Otterbein College will have the good fortune of hearing a series of lectures given by Rev. James Melville Coleman on the ethical phases of social problems.

Mr. Coleman has been at Otterbein on several former occasions and has delivered very helpful lectures. He comes without any financial responsibility to the college and therefore the lectures are free.

The themes of the lectures are as follows:

1. "The National Mind."
2. "Changing the National Mind."
3. "National Team Work."
4. "National Regeneration."

Lectures will occur at four o'clock on Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Monday. Sunday morning, November 11, Mr. Coleman will occupy the pulpit of the First United Brethren Church, with a possible lecture at an appointed hour in the afternoon.

Nearly three hundred enjoyed the evening's program of stunts and contests of which the pie-eating contest attracted the most attention. Prizes for the most original costumes were awarded to Miss Long, Miss Beelman and Miss Widdoes out of the numerous specimens from which to select.

PI KAPPA DELTA GRANTED

Honorary Forensic Fraternity Granted Otterbein in Meeting of National Council.

In an announcement made last week by the National President of the Pi Kappa Delta honorary forensic fraternity, Otterbein's petition for a local chapter was granted by the national council. The Otterbein organization will be known as the Ohio Epsilon Chapter.

Otterbein has been working for a local chapter since last spring when action was taken by the faculty, admitting honorary fraternities to Otterbein.

The introduction of this honorary organization is a means of inducing students to take an active part in forensic work. In order to win a key it is necessary to take part in intercollegiate debate or oratorical contests. Each year's work takes a member higher in the ranking of the organization.

BIG STARTERS NEEDED

Other Colleges Asking Much Larger Amounts of Their Alumni for Similar Purposes.

Otterbein must have her gymnasium. That is the spirit with which the gymnasium committees are going to their tasks of raising the $200,000. for the new building. Organizations have been completed and with the interest of the alumni wrapped up in the victories of our football team, the campaign should materialize rapidly.

The campaign will be under the direction of President Walter G. Clipping and Field Secretary C. V. Roop.

Is It Too Much?

Is Otterbein asking too much when she asks for $200,000 for a new gymnasium? Oberlin alumni in November will tackle the job of raising $4,500,000 for buildings and endowment. Ohio Wesleyan alumni at Commencement time reported $541,593 already pledged as a starter toward their Development Campaign of $8,000,000. Lehigh University men, about 5500 in number, have pledged themselves to raise a minimum of $4,000,000 for endowment, the alumni accepting $2,500,000 of this amount. Williams College alumni have oversubscribed their endowment fund of $1,500,000 to the extent of $13,085. Cornell alumni contributed to their Alma Mater during the past year $126,817 in cash. Over 50 per cent of all Dartmouth men give money annually to their college.

Aged Woman Gives $100.00

One dear woman, 80 years of age and not an Otterbein graduate, has manifested her interest by contributing $100.00. One subscription for $1200.00 and another for $1000.00 have been received as starters.

Our alumni gave gloriously to the Endowment Campaign last year and Concert To Be Given.

Arrangements have been made for a concert to be given by Myra Hess, accompanist of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in Memorial Hall. The admission to the concert will be fifty cents and tickets can be purchased from Professor Grabill.

CHURCH CHOIR FROLICS

Church Songsters While Away Several Hours in Fun and Merriment in Social.

Following the weekly practice last Wednesday evening, the church choir proceeded to the First United Brethren Church for their annual social evening, provided for by the members of the church.

Met inside the door by a ghost, each member was handed a black cat bearing a group number. The groups then descended to the social rooms in the basement where revelry held full sway for an hour or more. Such games as "Questions and Answers," "Farmer in the Dell" and "Crack the Whip" had their places in the course of the frolic.

At the end of the hour refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, pumpkin pie and coffee held the attention of sopranos, altoes, tenors and basses as well as Professor Grabill and Spessard. When all had declared their appetites satiated, the evening's program was officially concluded and everyone departed, declaring it the best choir party that they had ever attended.

Conrad Huffman Presents

European Relief in Chapel

On last Friday morning the problem of the European Student Relief was presented for the fourth consecutive year. This year Conrad Huffman, Director-General of the Student Relief in Europe, presented the problem and the appeal. Mr. Huffman has spent eight years in Europe and is well acquainted with the conditions there as was demonstrated in his talk.

The appeal for funds resulted in pledges of $325.00 by the students and professors of Otterbein. This amount of money will support thirty European students for a period of one year.

Geology Class Visits Ohio State.

The class in Geology under the leadership of Prof. Durant, new instructor in this class, made a trip to Columbus last Saturday where observations were made at Ohio State University.

The class reports fine opportunities in this department of work.

French Club Meets

Le Cercle Francais held its first meeting of the year last Monday evening in Professor Rosselot's recitation room. Miss Edna Yaus, the president, presided and conducted the business of the club. It was decided to hold the meetings every Monday evening at 7 o'clock. An hour's credit will be given for the work done. It is hoped that more French students will decide to join the club. Programs will be given in French and in fact French is all that is spoken in the meeting. Any students who desire to join can still enroll.

If you always look back, you will be sure to go the way you look.

Contestants for Bok Peace

Prize Try for Local Prizes

The local Peace Prize contest which was held preparatory to the National Contest in which Edward W. Bok, former editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, has offered to the winner a prize of $100,000.00, closed Monday with four contestants. The time limit was extended from October 31 to November 5. Those who entered the contest were Miss Lora Adis, Messrs. J. W. Flick, L. M. Mitchell and D. A. Ewing.

The plans will be judged immediately by a group of local judges, probably citizens of Westerville. Three prizes of $40.00, $20.00, and $10.00 will be awarded to the three persons whose plans are selected by the judges.

Frosh Co-eds to Wear Green

In accordance with the recent action of the Student Council, the freshmen girls of Otterbein College are to be placed on an equal footing with their brethren of the same class, insofar as campus regulations are concerned.

A resolution, originating in the Women's Senate, and stating that all freshmen girls must wear a green headband until the Easter vacation, received the unanimous approval of the Council. This action is to be regarded as a distinct forward step, inasmuch as it has been a decided success in various schools where it has been instituted. It is expected that all necessary arrangements for the initiating of the resolution will be completed within a short time.

F. E. McGuire served as interlocutor for the evening while others taking part in the program were Messrs. Pottinger, Boda, Mayberry, Richter, Wood, McCarroll, Beelman, Ward and Reigle. Fancy dancing by Miss Mary Meyer, bone rattling by Mr. Bill Smith of Toledo and fancy and negro dancing by Henrietta Olsonia were feature acts. Music was furnished throughout the program by Messrs. Makurin with Miss Beany at the piano.

The office of state historian was established in 1895 and became a part of the Department of Education in 1911. It has become an important factor not only in collecting, collating, compiling, and preparing all official records relating to the history of the colony and state of New York, but also in the supervising of the preparation of similar data for the counties, cities, towns, and villages of the state.

Dr. Flick enters upon this new work after many years of service as professor of European history in Syracuse University.

"Y. M." Led by Dr. Maurer

"The College Man and His Religious Faith" was the topic discussed by Dr. Irvin Maurer of the First Congregational Church of Columbus at the "Y" meeting last week. Dr. Maurer told of his religious experiences as a student and as a young man and interpreted them in the light of his later experience. The address dealt with the religious problems that all students must face in their college life.

Cochran Hall Receives Gift

The girls of Cochran Hall awoke last Thursday morning to learn that their dwelling place had overnight become the beneficiary of a most unusual gift in the form of a wagon-load of paving bricks, over-turned in front of the entrance. Armistice Day

Next Sunday will make the fifth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, bringing to an end the Great World War. What a contrast was that day with the many that had passed before. Thousands of lives were spared the necessity of an untimely death. The roar of the artillery had died down and in its place there arose the sound of a national jubilee.
Millions of hearts were changed from a patriotic sadness to a feeling of joy. Millions of dollars that would have gone into the production of the destructive were saved to be directed into better channels.

Five years have passed, but time should not have erased the memory of those awful days. When we assemble in our places of worship on next Sunday, we should not forget to be thankful for the day that brought that war to an end. Let us not fail to honor those men and women who "gave the last full measure of devotion." Our hearts should go out to those mothers and fathers who gave in an equal measure, the pride of their life, their sons and daughters.

Above all our prayers should be lifted to the Almighty that a way might be found for the elimination of war in men's relation with each other.

SIDE-LIGHTS

We understand the significance of bricks thrown at a speaker or singer but the thing that troubles us is,
"What does Cochran Hall want with a wagon load of the red rectangles?"
Oh ye would-be serenaders. Beware!

The popularity of these sheep-skin coats on Otterbein's campus causes us to wonder if there is any connection between that Biblical verse, which says that we should beware of those in sheep's clothing, and the present day popularity.

The height of ambition is revealed in our room-mate who, while "lying" in his bed sick, exclaims that he hopes to be a second George Washington.

We prophecy success to the Otterbein man who while looking at the football scores in the Sunday sport sheet, wonders how Vassar and Bryn Mawr came out.

STUDENT OPINION

On To Wittenberg!!!

So say we all, but the number that actually put that slogan into action will be an important factor in handling those Lutherans some of the stuff that they handed us last year.
Three dollars will be an investment for Otterbein and athletics when expended to help support that team in one of the hardest battles it will be called upon to enter this year. Furthermore, Otterbein CAN win that tilt if she can go into the game feeling that the school is back of her to the limit, at least to the three dollar limit!
That team is determined to bring back the football used next Saturday and are sacrificing and have sacrificed to bring Otterbein to where she stands today. What are we willing to give to finish up the season as propitiously as it has advanced thus far?

A number of students have personally obligated themselves to make up a deficit if the required number cannot be secured for the special train.
Be that as it may, the debt we owe that team ought to take us to Wittenberg en masse. They will give everything they've got to come through.
Can we do less? Our attitude should not be how little can we give and how much can we save, but how much can we give to bring home that Lutheran scalp.

Three dollars will include fare to and from Westerville beside admittance into the game. A money back guarantee if the train is late is about all we could expect beside.

ROOTER

An organization at Hiram offers a prize of fifteen dollars to the student following the team who reaches the scene of the combat first. That accounts for the fact that Hiram supporters were pulling into Westerville on Thursday before the game on Saturday.

Wittenberg is restricting all her classes this year to forty students.
An increase in the faculty makes this possible.

TACKS AND CRACKS

(Editor's note—This column is furnished by the students in Prof. Lyon's second year English class.)

If a man who writes criticisms is a critic, is not an upholder of realism a relic; and is not writing squibs for Tacks and Cracks not a tack-tick?

Teezie and Christopher

Teezie wants to know:

1. Who discovered Westerville, and when?

2. Who wrote the Tan and Cardinal?

3. Who could be more loyal to old Otterbein than the students who awoke an hour late and rushed to the train to meet the football team?

Christopher says:

In the "Case Tech" is an announcement that there is in Cleveland the most accurate watch in the world. It is owned by Case and has lost only one second in three years. The watch used by the timer in the Otterbein-Case game in the last quarter was certainly no relation to the aforementioned chronometer.

Statistics show 51 per cent of Denison's student body to be Baptists.

Scrap Day didn't settle much at Akron U. when the two classes scrapped to a draw.

Ohio University prohibits "dates" at football games in order to stimulate better cheering.

The University of Akron operates its own bookstore, the profits from which go to alumni and student organizations. This year the band received $800 while the alumni received $1200 of which $700 is to be used for the publication of a new alumni register.

On "Hello Day" at Akron U. every student wears his name on a tag and speaks to everyone he meets.

Unless the "Buchtelite" (publication of the University of Akron) is spoofing the reading public, dates can be obtained there through a "bureau of dates." The applicant turns in his name to the bureau with a two-bit piece and the date is arranged for him. Prompt, sure and cheap.

Muskingum has launched a campaign with the slogan "A million for Muskingum" and when the total is raised three new buildings are guaranteed. These will be a library and two science buildings.

As a stimulus to better scholarship Muskingum publishes the average grades of the social groups every semester.

WILLIAM KONRAD ROENTGEN
1845-1923

Born in Lennep, Prussia. Educated at Zurich. Awarded the Rumford Medal of the Royal Society in 1896 jointly with Philip Lenard for discovery of X-rays. Won the Nobel Prize in physics in 1901.

"I did not think— I investigated"

One day in 1895, Roentgen noticed that a cardboard coated with fluorescent material glowed while a nearby Pluecker tube was in action. "What did you think?" an English scientist asked him. "I did not think; I investigated," was the reply.

Roentgen covered the tube with black paper. Still the cardboard glowed. He took photographs through a pine door and discovered on them a white band corresponding to the lead beading on the door. His investigation led to the discovery of X-rays.

Roentgen's rays have proved an inestimable boon to humanity. In the hands of doctor and surgeon they are saving life and reducing suffering. In the hands of the scientist they are yielding new knowledge—even of the arrangement and structure of atoms. The Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company have contributed greatly to these ends by developing more powerful and efficacious X-ray tubes.

The General Electric Company manufactures everything electric—from fans to powerful locomotives, from tiny lamps to mighty power plants. Its products are used around the world.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

The Squad.

Last week was a real "rest week" for the Big Tan team as only one scrimmage was staged. Although the injuries have not healed as rapidly as expected, hard work is on the schedule this week.

Captain Stoltz has recovered from his injuries in the Case game while Staats is in good condition from an old injury.

Anderson, McCarroll, Menke and Beelman are still on the injured list. Cavanagh boosted Otterbein's hopes when he was declared eligible for the Case game, but "Cavy" is bothered with rheumatism.

The rest of the squad is in fine condition and ready to fight the Lutherans to a finish.

The Game.

The Wittenberg game sends O. C. against an old foe. Wittenberg has won the annual contest in the last four years, and every year the vain hopes of an Otterbein victory are shattered by being humbled at the feet of the Lutherans. This year the two teams are about evenly matched. Wittenberg has a heavier team but Otterbein has a fighting and fast eleven and a better record.

Otterbein must have every man and woman back of her team when the whistle blows next Saturday on the Wittenberg gridiron.

Bricks are now hanging on Cochran Hall walls in memory of the game, "Brick Wagon Upset", played on Cochran Hall's front porch, Hallowe'en night.

The Arbutus Club and their guests had a beef-steak roast Saturday evening at Sleepy Hollow.

The Onyx Club and guests enjoyed a masquerade party at "Pussyfoot" Johnson's, Monday evening. The crowd was large but the supply of "sure-nuff" Hallowe'en food was larger.

Thelma Tinnerman of Dayton was a guest of Elsie Mae Conger over the week-end. Florence Martin again visited her Polygon friends.

The Lotus Club entertained their friends with a masquerade party at the home of their Sponsor, Mrs. Gilbert Mills. Games, real fortune telling, and ghost stories furnished the entertainment. At a late hour, refreshments in keeping with the season were served.

Iola Marcum and Marie Beelman were happy because certain gentlemen were in Westerville to call for them over the week-end.

The Owls were invited out for Sunday night lunch at Mrs. Schear's, their sponsor. When they saw the wonderful meal she had prepared for them they agreed it was a regular dinner to say the least.

Ruth Streich was visiting at Western over the week-end.

ALUMNI EXPECTED TO BACK DRIVE

thus a large sum is not asked at this time. However, each and every alumnus will be expected to sacrifice to some extent in order that Otterbein's physical education program may be rounded out. An average of $100 per alumnus will have to be raised, if the gymnasium is to be a reality.

Prof. Fritz Back in Room 9

Professor Fritz has returned to his work in the department of Public Speaking after having undergone an operation on his throat. The professor spent a week away from his classes, trying to teach his throat to be less painful in its functions.

President Goes East

Leaving Thursday evening President Walter G. Clippinger made his weekly exodus this time to Pennsylvania where he spoke in Pittsburgh, Greensburg and Johnstown. He returned Saturday and left again Sunday for a speaking engagement in Mansfield.

OLD TIMER SAYS:

That Otterbein owes a peculiar debt to the people of Westerville for their loyal support through a good many dark periods. The present Administration building is a gift of the people of Westerville to the College. After the destruction of the first main building by fire in 1870 the residents in Westerville pledged $37,000 to keep the College here. Of this amount, however, only $35,000 was ever paid. The massive walls of the destroyed building furnished most of the material out of which the present Administration building was built. Competitive bids on the erection of the building were received and proved more advantageous to the College than to the contractors. In the raising of this $35,000 Rev. Lewis Davis, founder, agent and for eighteen years President of the College, rendered his last signal service to the institution, before accepting a chair in what is now Bonebrake Theological Seminary.

Thanks, Westerville! Your gift is good for some little time yet!

THE DORM IMP—

Thinks that some Freshmen can say the wildest and queerest things. For instance the Freshman girl who asked, after hearing the name of Dean Upson, "Now, what is he the dean of?"

Says that the question of the hour seems to be, "Do you have your proofs yet?"

Noticed at the Hiram game the other week-end, many of their fellows wearing arm bands with H. C. She thought how considerate of them to be so thoughtful of our Homecoming as to wear H. C. for it. Only recently did she discover that it stood for Hiram College.

Cost of government in the United State is about $8,500,000,000 a year, which is paid by 40 per cent of the population who are in gainful occupations, at the rate of $200 per person.

The sort of coats whose fineness catches your eye when you meet them on the street—and you set them down as "Expensive".

Yet they are not. By making our own, in our own shops, we've been able to get ordinary "overhead" costs out of overcoat prices, and to give men more coat for less money.

In styles, materials, colors, there's everything a man could want.

POST MASTER GENERAL NEW

Rendered the postal service a distinct benefit in ascertaining cost of postal business. Westerville, one of the fortunate cost accounting offices, found that she sent out weekly close to 2 tons of parcel post; 1400 pieces of third class mail; and that there has been a very general increase in all classes of mail which will make the revenues of the office close to the $90,000.00 mark this year. When the entire report is made the Postmaster General will have data to present to Congress showing the cost of each item of business, so that appropriations may be made with intelligence.
