HOMECOMING NEXT SATURDAY

Strong Hiram Eleven to Be Met on Local Gridiron in Annual Homecoming Contest.

ALUMNI ASKED TO RETURN

Excellent Program for the Day Being Arranged under Direction of Student Council.

This week-end will mark the annual Homecoming of Otterbein's alumni and friends. The main event of the Homecoming will be the gridiron contest in which Ditmer's men will meet the strong eleven from Hiram on the local field. Plans are being made by the Student Council to make this one of the biggest Homecomings in the history of the school. Invitations are being sent to the alumni that they may know that they are truly welcome by the present students of their Alma Mater.

The festivities for the week-end will commence with the literary societies on Thursday and Friday nights at which time special sessions will be held.

The first event on Saturday will be the reception by the four literary societies. This will be staged at nine o'clock Saturday morning.

The Homecoming football rally with all its pep and enthusiasm will be held Saturday morning at 10:30. The rally will consist of cheering practice, stunts, and remarks by a few of the old 'grads.' The freshmen, it is said, will uncork some real entertainment which no one can afford to miss. Other noted vaudeville artists will appear on the program.

The outstanding attraction of the day will be the football game with Hiram College. This little school from northern Ohio is one of the strong teams of the Conference. Although defeated last Saturday 10-0 at the hands of Western Reserve, Hiram defeated Oberlin 7-6 in the first game of the season and Kenyon 10-6 in the second game. With this record the team from Hiram will probably give Otterbein a stiff battle.

The Homecoming banquet, which all alumni, ex-students, friends and students are urged to attend, will be held shortly after the game and at an hour which will be announced later. At this place the alumni and students of the entire college are permitted to gather for the only time during the year and here enjoy the fruits of victory. The program for the banquet

EXPLAINS "WORLD COURT"

General John C. Speaks Addresses Citizenship Club and Friends on Measures for World Peace.

A fair sized audience assembled last Friday evening at the First United Brethren Church to hear General John C. Speaks, Congressman from the 12th District, explain "The World Court." The lecture was given under the invitation of the Citizenship Club of Westerville.

Congressman Speaks first explained the horrors of war and the awful waste of human life as well as material things. Seeing the horrors of war, "Mankind throughout the ages have been seeking world peace." The speaker showed further that the President and Cabinet are in favor of continuing President Harding's position on the World Court, that it is backed by associations of churches, by large organizations of women, and also by the American Legion.

"The Court," said the speaker, "possesses much the same power as the Supreme Court of the United States does to the forty-eight states. With the entrance of the United States strength and stability will be greatly increased and permanency will be secured." "The United States," continued the speaker, "may enter her troubles at any time providing she pays her share of the expense."

Following the address and the singing of "America" by the audience, the assembly voted unanimously in favor of a world court.

KNIGHT OF THE THREE KAYS PROVES A FRIEND TO LADIES

No friend is he to Catholic, Jew or George Bechtoldt, but this better's bet is that he would be a bear with the ladies. While "Doug" Fairbanks was hustlin' himself at the Winter Garden trying to attract a crowd, some local "gents", traveling "incog" under the week's wash, held complete sway with Otterbeinites and Westervillers who found themselves mobile enough to inspect Westerville's new real estate addition last Tuesday night. In other words somewhere within that organization with a monopoly on the eleventh letter of the alphabet is a member who would make Rudolph Valentino look like a Hindoo pauper when it comes to being "there" with the ladies.

After the opening ceremonies had been running for an hour (by the program) but hadn't commenced yet,

MUSICAL PROGRAM ENJOYED

Life and Work of Franz Schubert Commemorated By Music Department In Chapel.

Commemorating the life and work of Franz Schubert, a very interesting program was given in the Chapel Monday morning.

"Marche Militaire" and "Ave Marie", selections written by Schubert, were played on the organ by Professor Grabill. Professor Spessard sang two of Schubert's songs, "Who Is Sylvia?" and the "Serenade".

Miss Louise Robinson gave a short sketch of the life of the famous composer and told of his compositions.

The object of the programs, being given by various schools, colleges and other organizations this week, is not only in memory of this musician but also to cultivate the taste of the people toward the classic popular music rather than the jazzy type.

Schubert's opera, "Blossom Time", which is showing this week at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, will be attended by large crowds, according to report.

Triangles Organize

Meeting on Wednesday of last week in the Administration building, the Triangles, consisting of the Academy, Music and Art students, organized their work for the year. The officers elected at this time were:

President, John Hudock.
Vice President, Sol Harris.
Secretary-Treasurer, Mearl Morey.
R. N. Chapman and Miss Maude Schetzel were elected last spring to the Senates.

some chosen few were seen to enter an area surrounded by knights of the "hidden empire," each in his knight-shirt. At this juncture Mr. Bechtoldt (Mr. being for ceremony alone) presented himself as a candidate listener to the heralded national speaker. 'Twas here the statement was made that would win a Cleopatra from a Caesar in less time than it would take to find another. 'Twas now (this is the anti-climax) the words were uttered that would have made the speaker the dorm. sheik over night. 'Twas at this point (climax just ahead) the gallant speech was spoken. Mr. Bechtoldt (Mr. again superfluous) was stopped in his tracks with these words, "Get back there, boy. Nobody allowed out there under sixteen years of age."

Oh! For an eye for age like that!

VARSITY TAKES NORTHERN FOE

Black, Orange and Red of Heidelberg Taken Into Camp By Local Tan and Cardinal.

SCORE 25-0

Forrester of Heidelberg Proves To Be Stellar Candidate In Plunging Line.

Otterbein gained her first conference victory last Friday afternoon swamping Heidelberg under a 25-0 score and spoiling the big "Tiffin Day" program arranged by the tri-color college.

The Otterbein team showed that they were a better team from the first minute of the game, scoring a touchdown in every quarter. Heidelberg's lone chance to score came in the second quarter when they made five consecutive first downs and then lost the ball on a fumble, when they were on Otterbein's fifteen yard line.

Straight Football Used.

Otterbein was not forced to use anything but straight football. End runs were the means of scoring the four touchdowns. Otterbein attempted to forward pass only twice. One, Anderson to Staats, was successful for a 11 yard gain. The other attempted pass was incomplete. Heidelberg resorted to the aerial game in order to score and tried thirteen passes. Three were successful and two were intercepted. Heidelberg's lateral pass bewildered the Otterbein team at first but this style of play was smothered when Heidelberg became dangerous.

Otterbein's first touchdown came late in the first quarter. Heidelberg punted to Staats on Heidelberg's forty-five yard line. "Chic" ran the kick back to the seven yard line. Andy failed in an attempt to drop but Beelman gained five yards on an end run and Staats bucked it over. Andy failed in an attempt to drop-kick for the extra point.

Andy scored a touchdown in the second quarter on a twenty-eight yard run after Beelman and Staats had placed the ball in Heidelberg territory. Andy drop-kicked for the extra point.

Otterbein scored the third touchdown by several spectacular end runs by Andy and Beelman after Ruffini had intercepted a Heidelberg pass on Heidelberg's forty-two yard line. Beelman scored the touchdown but Andy missed an attempted drop-kick for the point following the touchdown.

Andy scored the final touchdown in

LAURANT TO APPEAR

Company of Magicians to Open Lyceum Course next Monday Evening in Chapel.

Monday evening, October 22, at 8:15, the first number in our Lyceum Course will be given. Laurant and his company will present an elaborate entertainment of magic, mystery, impersonation and music. For seventeen years Mr. Laurant has been a headliner. He keeps his entertainment on an artistic plane. Recently Laurant was at Battle Creek, Michigan, and on the following morning the Enquirer said: "There have been magicians and magicians in Battle Creek, but it is conceded by practically everyone who was present last night that none has surpassed Laurant and few, if any, have even equalled him. The man-who-knows-it-all, who infests every audience, had a hard time stretching his knowledge to meet the requirements of Laurant's performance. Live pigeons appeared suddenly in mid-air, out of nowhere at all. Dishes, viands and tables had a peculiar and inconvenient habit of disappearing at inopportune times."

The entire course of six numbers offers rare entertainment and recreation. College students and professors need both. This course with reserved seats will be sold for two dollars. There is not a cheap number in the entire list of talent, yet you may have all these evenings of pleasure and profit for a nominal sum. Be sure to buy your tickets from Mrs. H. R. Murphy. The entire chapel will be sold in season tickets, except the front pew downstairs. The last four rows in the gallery will be sold at $1.50 for a season ticket and reservations. Buy early or you cannot buy at all, for all will be taken.

Y. W. C. A. Recognition Service

There could hardly have been a more appropriate way of opening the Y. W. C. A. meeting than the method used in last Tuesday's meeting, which recognized the new girls. There was mellow candle light, soft, sweet music, and, best of all, girls, girls, girls—a whole room-full of them. The ushers had requested all the new girls to sit on one side of the room and all the old girls on the other side. After the devotions, Mary Noel and Mabel Cassel pleased everyone by a duet.

Alice Flegal, the leader, stated that the Y. W. C. A. was the spirit of sisterhood. At this point, she asked Virginia Taylor to tell of the founding of the Y. W. C. A. at Otterbein. Everyone was interested to know that Otterbein had the first Y. W. C. A. in Ohio and the third in the United States. Katherine Pollock explained the relationship of the local association to the national association and to foreign branches. It broadens one's vision to feel that she is a part of a great organization to which belong hundreds of industrial and college girls all over the world. The leader stressed the fact that, although Y. W. C. A. is a separate institution, it works hand in hand with the church by helping students and others in everyday life. She read the pledge, and explained that the aim is a higher plane of living and the motto is "To live for others."

The impressive recognition ceremony was a scene long to be remembered by all those present. The cabinet members, bearing lighted candles, formed a triangle in the front of the room while sixty new girls with new candles passed in front of this triangle and caught "the gleam" from the old girls.

The leader asked divine blessing upon the new and old girls together and with the singing of the Y. W. C. A. benediction, the evening's program was closed.

'23. Miss Olive I. Given of Cadiz, Ohio, sailed last Saturday on the steamer Essiquibo from New York to the port of Mollendo, Peru, on her way to Bolivia, to enter the educational missionary work of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

For many years the Methodist Mission conducted the schools of Bolivia for the government, but when the government was ready to open schools on its own account and withdrew the subsidy from these, the Centenary movement in the Methodist Church made it possible for these well-established schools to be continued, a sum for their aid being included in the budget of the mission. Tuition is charged and the schools are always full. It is to one of these schools that Miss Given goes.

Miss Given is one of a party of ten missionaries who are going out at this time. They are accompanied by Bishop William F. Oldham, who has charge of all the work of the Methodist Church in South America.

'23. At seven o'clock on Saturday evening, October 6, John C. Mayne and Miss Anna Wilson of Westerville were married at the home of the bride on Plum Street. The Reverend W. J. Holmes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which both the bride and groom are members, read the service, using the ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mayne left at once for their new home at 9135 Brandon Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Mayne is director of boys' work in the South Side Congregational Church and is pursuing graduate work in the University of Chicago. Mrs. Mayne expects to study in the university.

'12, '18. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Smith (Helen Ensor) of Columbus have announced the birth of a six and a half pound son on October 8, the birthday of Mr. Smith.

'15. Miss Nettie Lee Roth, who was for several years principal of the Indianola High School in Columbus, and is now connected with the public schools in Dayton, Ohio, visited friends in Columbus over the last week-end.

'66. Word has been received in Westerville of the death of James R. Clark, which occurred at his home in Mounie, Illinois, on September 21. Mr. Clark, who was a veteran of the Civil War, had reached the advanced age of eighty-one years.

'77. Dr. S. W. Keister of Westerville returned last week from a week's visit at the home of his son, Albert S. Keister, in Chicago, Illinois.

Roland White, '23, and wife drove into town on Friday evening as is their custom these days. "Jake" is getting along very well at Eaton.

Cap and Dagger Club to Hold Try-outs October 24

Those who have been interested in dramatic producing "here about" will be interested to learn that the Cap and Dagger try-outs will be held Wednesday evening, October 24.

The work of the club this year will include practice in stage lighting, settings, etc., so as to give persons interested in that line a chance for membership as well as those who go in for amateur acting.

Anyone wishing to engage in the dramatic side of the work will be required to give some reading or combine with other applicants in a short dramatic sketch.

Anyone interested in trying out please leave your name with Prof. Fritz sometime before Friday of this week.

N. A. Wihlborg has been elected by the official board of the First United Brethren Church to serve as assistant pastor to Rev. S. W. Keister. Mr. Wihlborg will take the place of Rev. James Wright who graduated from Otterbein last June.

Are We Right?

FINE fabrics, attractive models, and skillful tailoring, do not exhaust a store's obligation to the public. After quality has been achieved it is still necessary to price it where it can be enjoyed properly. And we just want to go on record that we both recognize this obligation and fill it.

In this store, quality is only half of it!

Economy's the other half!

That Such Famous Makers at Hart Schaffner & Marx, Fashion Park and others achieve fine quality as well as economy, is seen in the splendid groups of suits, top coats and overcoats now displayed in the Men's Store, Second Floor.

EDITORIALS

Don't oversleep, if you want your dreams to come true.

Our Band.

"The Otterbein band, arrayed in its beautiful tan and cardinal uniforms, accompanied the team to Wooster. It is to be congratulated and deserves part of the glory for the 14-0 victory over the heavy Wooster eleven. It is reported that the band played the team to victory after the team had apparently been halted twenty yards from the goal." (Part of the write-up in the Tan and Cardinal a few years hence).

Imaginary as the preceding lines
may be, they nevertheless are similar to the lines that may be found in college papers wherever a college band is maintained. We cannot overlook the fact that the Wooster band was a tremendous help to their team when the latter was in need of the spirit and the driving power for those last few yards before their first touchdown. Nor can we forget the Ohio State band as it plays those mighty songs of a great school. The writer feels safe in saying that a band during the game is to a team what a coach is to that team before a game.

Thankful as we are to the Westerville band for its services in other years, it can never take the place of an Otterbein band. It is not a part of the school and therefore is not in position to fill the place of a school band.

Seeing the need of a band, why can we not have it? We have heard the remark at various times that we have too many organizations already. While the writer agrees with this statement, he wonders if we are placing the emphasis in the right place. Are these organizations, which already over-crowd our schedule, really a necessary and indispensable part of our work?
Are we not at a place where we should take an inventory and dispense with some of these hindrances to Ot-terbein's progress?

We have heard the question discussed other years and already this year. But discussion has failed to bring us what we really want and need. If a trained and uniformed band is necessary to the success of our athletic teams, let us have the question brought before the student body in order that definite action may be taken. We submit this question to the students with the hope that some action may be taken within a short time.

Practice Cheering

As we read the exchanges which come to the desk we cannot help but notice the progress that is being made by other colleges. Not that they are surpassing Otterbein, but at times we note practices in those schools that might well be used here. Among those suggestions was the subject of the preceding editorial and another dealing with open air cheering.

In a number of the schools the students assemble in the bleachers
a day or two before a game and there practice cheering and singing for the approaching contest.

The merits of this practice may readily be understood. We have always been in the habit of conducting our rallies within the chapel. The cheering and the singing at those times seemed wonderful. But when the day for the game came and the students gathered in the bleachers for the purpose of cheering, the volume had decreased fifty per cent. The fact is that the decrease in volume was unavoidable, since the students had practiced within a building.
Would it not help our cheering and at the same time be an inspiration to the team, were we to meet in the bleachers
some evening for cheering practice? As a student body we must awaken to the fact that we can help our team in a large measure to become a winning conference eleven.

We do not mean to be critical in these remarks, but offer these suggestions as they come to us from our neighboring colleges.

Chapel Music

It is not that our interest has turned to music this week nor are we forced to write a seemingly stereotyped editorial that we express ourselves concerning the chapel music.

Sometime last spring, after we had gone without the regular organ prelude for over a year, the student body agreed to assemble quickly and to remain silent during the daily prelude.

During the remainder of last year the agreement was kept in mind, but since the opening of school this year Professor Grabill and those who have desired to listen have been continually annoyed by some who daily wait until the second bell before going to their seats and by others who must have their social chat at that time.

Professor Grabill has been very kind in playing for the students. In appreciation to him and to those who really want to listen, can we not eliminate the tardiness and the whispering during the prelude? Unless we are able to do so, Professor Grabill tells us that once again the chapel prelude will be withdrawn from the chapel program. Students and Professors, all having broken the agreement, let us show the organist that we really appreciate those selections and desire to have them continued.

This week's migrations were "de" Westerville instead of "a" Westerville.

Emily Mullen, Peg Graff, and Katherine Pollock went with Ladybird Sipe to take in the sights at the Lancaster Fair. They were fortunate enough to win the Dumbell Prize.

Marie Beelman spent the week-end in Springfield.

Through the generosity of their sister, Loma Powell, the Greenwich Club enjoyed a huge basket of marvelous eats. That's what you call "big-heartedness".

Lucile Judy and Florence Hansel spent the week-end in Marion.

Pauline Wentz was Florence Martin's guest in Columbus Saturday and Sunday.

Elsie Mae Conger is in Dayton waiting to see how the preacher ties the knot.

The Talisman Club entertained guests with a novel Hobby Party, Wednesday evening. Some of the dorm girls were even willing to cease being engaged for one night so that a complete collection of pins could be displayed that evening. Some party!

Joe Cridland and Pauline Knepp were in Marion over the week-end. What was the attraction in Marion that could draw so many from our midst?

Harriet Eastman and Hazel Baker went with Mildred Bolander and Esther Williamson to Marion. They witnessed the crumbling of Kenton High under the mighty heel of Sprout's team.

Mrs. Vance and little Joe visited "Coke" Vance last week-end.

"Sheevie" Bushey celebrated her birthday with a push Friday evening. Geneva is now sweet sixteen.

Wray Richardson was hostess to an Onyx slumber party, Friday night. Sleep? No! Fun? Heaps of it!

We notice a sparkling diamond on a certain finger of the left hand of Miss Hattie Clark which tends to explain a big secret involving this little Miss and a certain Albert Zepp. Congratulations to both.

Otterbein to Be Host to Delegates From Other Schools

Otterbein will be expected to assume her best manners during the week-end of October 26, 27 and 28 when thirty or more representatives from twenty-three colleges from central and southern Ohio meet here for their annual Fall Council meeting. The Council represents the Student Volunteers and will meet here with a national official of the Volunteers to plan the work for the year and also to lay plans for the International Convention which will be held at Indianapolis, Indiana, the latter part of December.

the fourth quarter after a march down the field from Otterbein's forty-two yard line where Menke recovered a fumble. Andy's drop kick was blocked. Both teams appeared to be weak on defense. The warm weather seemed to be too much for both teams to stand during the whole game. Both teams displayed a powerful offense, Heidelberg making eleven first downs and Otterbein nine.

Girls' Leaders Corps Hikes.

Sleepy Hollow was awakened Saturday evening at six o'clock by the piercing yells of feminine voices. Arousing himself he sent back his echo but greater curiosity tempted him. He looked and saw a large number of Otterbein girls gathered around a campfire enjoying a feed of ham, eggs, pickles, apples, doughnuts and cider.

He listened and learned that the Girls' Leaders Corps of Otterbein College was having its initial hike of the year. From all he could gather it was a huge success.

At seven-thirty the campfire went out, and Sleepy went back to his slumbers, with only one casualty to report which was that Marie Comfort had broken her diet.

Cross-Country Run.

The Annual Ohio Conference Cross Country run will be held at Cincinnati this year on Nov. 17. Otterbein will be represented by four or possibly five men in this event this year. Cincinnati has arranged a big day and a football game with Case is also scheduled.

Permanent Telegraph Wire

The wire installed in the Chapel last week will remain in the Chapel. The wire was installed in the chapel by several students who took the responsibility on themselves of raising enough money to pay for it. Not enough was raised to pay for the wire but other means are being used to make up the deficit and the wire will remain as a permanent fixture in the chapel. Reports or all athletic contests can be received by the students who are not fortunate enough to see the game.

Y. M.—Y. W. Conduct Factory

Meeting at Kilgore Plant

Last Thursday noon representatives from the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. conducted their weekly industrial meeting before the employees of the Kilgore Manufacturing Company. Miss Josephine Cridland entertained the employees with a violin solo while E. A. Schultz and F. E. McGuire outlined the purpose of the work.

The industrial work was started last year by the Associations of the college and this year will be under the direction of Floyd McGuire and Miss Christina Wahl. Students will be asked each week to take part in the work in which they have some outstanding talent.

President Addresses Y. M.

Conditions in the Near East were visualized by President Clippinger in his address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Thursday night. By means of stereopticon slides the President was able to show pictures of the camps visited in the Near East and also of the country itself. According to President Clippinger Otterbein students need a broader outlook, need to forget Otterbein, Westerville and even America and obtain a larger vision of the world. In closing the meeting the President asserted that "man power is dependent on heart power" and threw out the challenge, "What are you doing to increase the goodness and happiness of men?"

Rev. C. V. Roop, acting field secretary for the college, will lead the Y. M. C. A. meeting this week.

WITH OUR FACULTY

President Clippinger spoke last Sunday at Ostrander, Ohio, before the Delaware County Sunday School Convention.

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the President will attend the Ohio Council of Churches at Columbus, where he will speak at a banquet Tuesday evening.

Later in the week he will speak at Marietta, Ohio.

Professor Glenn Grant Grabill had a very important part in the concert given the evening of October 10, in the Masonic Hall, Columbus by the choir of the Accepted and Scottish Rites. The concert was given in honor of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Ohio.

Professor Grabill is the assistant organist of the choir which is composed the best voices in Columbus. He presided at the organ during the concert and also gave two solos, excerpts from the opera, "Carmen" by George Bizet, and "Evensong" by Edward Johnson.

The October number of World's Work contains a very interesting article illustrated with pictures on the painting colony at Gloucester, Mass.

It was at this colony this summer that Mrs. Dunn of Otterbein, took special work under Hugh Breckenridge, an artist of note, who is from the Academy of Art in Philadelphia, the oldest institution of its kind in the United States.

If there are any girls who would still like to take up the arts of china painting and basket weaving, they are asked to see Mrs. Dunn in Lambert Hall. It is not too late to start and beginners will be welcome to enter these classes.

The work in the department of fine arts is progressing very well and much interest is being taken in it.

OLD TIMER SAYS

That while teams garbed in Tan and Cardinal perform on the athletic field with the college lassies cheering wildly on the side-lines, there might have been an entirely different situation had the purpose of securing that field been carried out. Instead of boys in uniforms playing football and baseball we might today see young men in Unionalls and farmerettes appropriately bedecked, working the "College Garden."

In 1854 the Board of Trustees of the college passed a resolution that, "In view of all circumstances we think it best to adopt immediately an effective system of manual labor that shall require the performance of daily labor by all in attendance at this institution." Following this, eighteen acres of land north of Home street and west of Grove street were purchased.

The purpose of this purchase was expressed in a resolution reading, "Muscular idleness is not only mental debility but sin, and no man, woman or child can be long a successful scholar and much less a successful Christian and habitually refuse to labor with his hands."

For a number of years they raised Indian corn, broom corn, vegetables and later maintained a nursery on the plat.

How different this College Garden from the College Gridiron!

Dr. Jones Leads C. E.

Dr. Jones led what all claim to be the most interesting C. E. meeting of the year last Sunday evening. Some of the old familiar hymns were chosen, the story of them told by the leader after which the society sang them.

The Pen that made the Grade

Will Help You Make It Too

ONE reason alone that the Parker Duofold is invaluable to students is because fluent writing induces fluent thinking! You can't compose your thoughts if an unruly pen harries your brain. But Duofold's balanced swing, its super-smooth point, its fit and business-like feel in your hand, all give your mind free rein!

Ask your student friends who use this classic pen—they'll tell you they would rather let go of seven dollars than have to part with the faithful Duofold.

Its over-size ink capacity holds a long-distance ink supply. And its point is not only smooth as a polished jewel, but no style of writing can distort it; hence, a pen you can lend without fear.

Students call it the "All-American" Pen because it's the ranking favorite at leading universities and colleges.

Give yourself a flying start this year by getting Duofold this week.

EENY MEENY.

We take back all the nasty and insulting remarks we made about autumn. We now find the fall of the year very well-behaved and wish to ask you—Isn't autumn sweet!

We had decided to tell you all about the movies this week—but we hadn't gone far in our investigation when we read about one woman cutting another one's throat for reading the subtitles out loud! This put us in a morbid frame of mind and we had to stop. Just this warning—Do be careful at a movie!

We have noticed that since the change in time, quite a few people can have dates till 7:30 in the evening now.

Somebody told us that she was simply thrilled to death by seeing a football game by radio. We should think she would be—and at a rough guess, we should also say that that somebody's eyes probably need attention.

Candy Day seems to have struggled by without many casualties but you never can tell.

S. P. W. D. B.

This week's candidate is—the girl who insists that her foot has gone to sleep to such a degree that she has to stop and let it awake!

THE DORM IMP

Thinks that all the men with auburn locks who are out for football should be prohibited from wearing red sweaters.

Says that this irregular light service is no joke. Thursday night she was traveling down stairs with great speed, the lights went off, and she fell over the railing and the post and rolled down the next flight and knocked one passenger coo-coo.

Wants to know what could be more maddening than to be in a terrible rush and be in the midst of adjusting a hair net, and then the lights go off.

Heard of one advantage of the intervals of darkness Wednesday night, during dinner, when the younger Clemans sister said she could make speed while it was dark, because she didn't have to stop for table etiquette.

Suggests very timidly that a little practice in writing peace plans should be made before the final production is attempted, and one might devise a plan preparatory to the world peace contest as to how the faculty or the janitors could maintain peace with each other.

LIST'NIN' IN

Ohio University registers an increase again of some ten per cent in enrollment this year. Their total is now 1564.

Muskingum, Wittenberg and Ohio U. have all begun hard work on debate for the coming winter.

The new men's gymnasium at Ohio is rapidly nearing completion. Would that Otterbein could say the same!!!

Western Reserve gives an hour's credit for singing in the Chapel choir. The credit is placed under the heading, "Choral Singing."

Lincoln Hall, Bluffton's new men's dorm, will be ready for occupancy in six more weeks.

Due to the serious injury of the Freshman class president at Western Reserve last year in the Flag Rush, the scrap day battle there, a milder means of settling class supremacy is being sought.

Wittenberg has the prize tale. To keep the numbers in their literary societies sufficiently low, try-outs are held for membership in the various literary organizations.

Cheer leaders in Muskingum are elected by the student Forum on nomination of the Student Council. Try-outs were held at the time of election. Wittenberg conducts tryouts in an actual game and the nominees of a faculty advisor are voted upon.

"Calling Day," an established tradition at Muskingum, is observed on the second Saturday after the opening of school. On this occasion all of the girls call on their "little sisters" and the other Freshman girls.

Antioch College announces the possible organization of a "Community Chest Fund" out of which all contributions for charitable purposes would be made. This follows several recent appeals to the student body for aid for the Near East and for the Japanese.

First Recital of Year To Be Given Next Wednesday

On the evening of October 24, the first musical recital will be given in Lambert Hall. The program will be an exceptionally good one and all the students are cordially invited as well as urged to attend.

There will be organ and piano numbers interspersed with vocal selections. Do not miss hearing this enjoyable program for it will be well worth your while.
