NEW YEAR PROMISES MUCH AT O. U.

Only Slight Falling Off Due to War Conditions—Freshman Class Big.

Much to the surprise of the college officials Otterbein opened at ten o'clock Wednesday morning with a decrease in enrollment of twenty-two as compared to the same time last year, and with a freshman class surpassing that of last year. To date 250 have registered.

Bishop W. M. Weekley of Parkersburg, W. Va., gave the opening address in the chapel Wednesday morning. At the last General Conference he was elected Bishop Emeritus and may choose Westerville as his future home. The Bishop's address which was based upon the essentials of a Christian college, was directed to the faculty members rather than to the students. He said that the faculty members of a church college should uphold those teachings and principles for which that church stands and any professor who refuses to do so should not accept a position on such a faculty. He declared the teaching of the evolution theory, as taught by some, to be a crime against the church. He also made a violent attack upon the so-called new theology. In the course of his talk the bishop paid a splendid tribute to Dr. T. J. Sanders, declaring that "He always leaves students on the right side of all questions in reference to God."

New Students.

New students continue to come in. At present 73 have registered. The following list gives the names and addresses of new students regularly enrolled in the college.

LOCAL PASTOR RETURNED FOR FOURTH YEARS' WORK

Rev. E. E. Burtner, pastor of the First United Brethren church for the past three years, was reappointed to the Westerville charge for another year at the Southeast Ohio conference held at the Fifth Avenue United Brethren church, Columbus, last week. Rev. R. A. Hitt was re-elected conference superintendent. He will move to Westerville soon. These designations of interest to Otterbein people were also made: President of Otterbein college, W. G. Clippinger; professor in Otterbein college, T. J. Sanders; professor in Otterbein college, N. E. Cornet; field secretary of Children's Home Society, W. W. Rymer; field secretaries of Anti-Saloon League of America, E. H. Dailey and Lloyd Mignery.

Pastoral assignments of local interest were: Carroll, Fay M. Bowman, Otterbein student; Circleville, Glen D. Spafford; Burgess Avenue, E. B. White, Otterbein student; East Linden, Seth Drummond, Otterbein student and Y. M. C. A. secretary of the Columbus Barracks; St. Clair Avenue, Columbus, J. G. Spears; Washington Avenue, Columbus, Carl Sweazy, Otterbein student; Franklin, E. E. Harris, Otterbein student; Hillsboro, J. O. Emerick; Galloway, H. C. Elliott; Jackson, George Geiger; Logan, W. E. Riebel.

ASSOCIATIONS GIVE PLEASANT RECEPTION

New Students Guests at Affair Saturday Evening in Association Parlors.

Saturday evening the Association parlors were the scene of one of the best and most successful receptions to new students ever held. By eight o'clock the rooms were full of students and members of the Faculty renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.

Vance E. Cribbs, chairman of the social committee of the Young Men's Christian Association and master of ceremonies for the evening, in his jovial manner encouraged the forming of new friendships by means of contests and games giving all a chance to use their wits or develop their dramatic inclinations. One stunt especially deserving of credit was given by the people representing the month of May. In keeping with the spirit of the month a May dance was given, L. S. Hert serving as a May-pole.

At the conclusion of this part of the program the company repaired to the assembly hall to listen to the program, in charge of Gladys Lake, social committee chairman of the Young Women's Christian Association. The program opened with a piano duet by Misses Vance and Farley. Following this Miss Freda Frazier favored the company with two humorous readings. As usual the audience was more than pleased with her work. To make the musical part of the program complete I. M. Ward sang a solo giving as an encore the new popular patriotic song "Goodbye Broadway, Hello France." Concluding the literary program greetings and welcome were extended from both the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. Miss Alice Ressler re-

NEW DIRECTOR IS ALL ROUND COACH

F. H. Gorton Is on the Ground for Fall Training on the Gridiron.

Otterbein's Board of Control selected F. H. Gorton, former Rutgers college coach and for the past three years director of athletics at the Virginia Military Institute, as director of college athletics. Mr. Gorton was selected from a number of applications as the man best fitted as an all around athletic director. His records show him to be especially proficient in football, basketball and track with a coaching knowledge of baseball. He is also a capable military instructor.

Mr. Gorton arrived Saturday and began laying plans at once for a strenuous season.

Mr. Gorton was educated at Peddie Institute, Richmond college, and took the course in physical education at Yale. His experience as a coach is varied. Peddie Institute had him for a couple of years from where he went to Rutgers, producing exceptional teams. Next he served two years at Redlands high school, Redlands, Calif., and then to Occidental college. At all these places he made good records and his athletic teams have been among the best. Endorsements from men in charge of athletics at the different institutions stamp him as a man of character as well as athletic ability.

First Game September 29.

As soon as Mr. Gorton arrived he took charge of the football team to get it in shape for the first game with Denison, September 29. The new coach will have big odds to fight for practically all last year's team have either enlisted or graduated. Three veterans, "Bill" Evans, Earl Barnhart and Roscoe Mase, are back. Some of last year's substitutes have returned and new material looks pretty good.

In addition to his duties as football coach Mr. Gorton will have charge of military training and will conduct classes in physical education.

Mr. Gorton is forty years old, is married and has a four year old son. He will move his family to Westerville.

Schedule.

Sept. 29—Denison at Granville.
Oct. 6—Muskingum at New Concord.
Oct. 13—Kenyon at Westerville.
Oct. 20—Marshall at Huntington.
Nov. 3—Heidelberg at Westerville.
Nov. 10—Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware.
Nov. 17—Ohio Northern at Ada.
Nov. 24—Wooster at Wooster.

Best Gives Chapel Talk.

Nolan R. Best of the class of 1892, and editor of the "Continent" talked to the student body during the chapel period Monday morning. Mr. Best spoke as a member of the Board of Trustees and as an interested alumnus. He recalled several traditions of the school and urged that these be upheld by the students of the present generation. Mr. Best is an occasional visitor in Westerville, this being his parental home, and he is always welcomed to the chapel service upon each visit.

GRIDIRON BUMPS

"Bill" Evans, concerning whom there has been considerable doubt for the last week, is back in school. "Bill" the heavy guard of last year's varsity will help immensely in the forming of the teams.

Our coach looks like a football man and one whose word will go.

Brown, Barnhart, Mase, Evans and Meyers will make a good nucleus for the new teams.

Hayes of Punxsutawney, Pa. who played on the second team two years ago looks mighty good for an end position.

The fellows have been coming out well for the last week, but we need more men. Come on out Freshmen.

How about a football rally this week?

We need a cheer-leader too!

Only two weeks till the first game. Let's boost the team.

Thanks "Chuck" for your help last week.

Prospects are looking good right now for a winning team.

A new captain has as yet not been elected.

Coach Gorton took charge of the gridiron Monday afternoon.

U. B. S. S. Elects New Officers.

Officers to take charge of the United Brethren Sunday school during the approaching year have been announced. Superintendent, L. A. Weinland, assistant H. Griffith, secretary Wendell Cornet, assistant Irvin Windom, treasurer Eva Sherwood, statistical secretary Dr. W. M. Gantz, assistant Ma Grindell, orchestra leader Mary Griffith, assistant Estla Hambel, pianist Norris Grabill, chorister W. A. Kline, librarian Ray Cheek, superintendent of junior department Mrs. R. H. Brane, assistant Mrs. W. A. Kline, superintendent of primary department Mrs. E. W. E. Schear, assistant Mrs. Charles Fritz, cradle roll Mrs. L. A. Weinland, superintendent of home department Mrs. J. E. Guitner, assistant Mrs. N. E. Cornet, executive committee Dr. E. A. Jones, Prof. R. H. Wagoner, Dr. W. G. Clippinger.

Freshmen Get Orders.

No dates for the freshmen if the edict of the Sophomore class is carried out. Tuesday morning found the campus and village strewn with dodgers setting forth the rules by which freshmen are to be governed. According to the class of '20, first year students must stay off the grass, remain in their rooms at night unless given permission by seniors, have no dates except with chaperons until October first, must not smoke, may not go to Columbus unless accompanied by upper classmen, tip hats to upper-classmen, "obey Sophomores or severe punishment will be inflicted upon thee."

On Friday morning the freshmen appeared in chapel wearing various insignia of their rank. The boys wore green neckties (furnished by the "sophs" at five cents per); the girls wore green hair ribbons and shoes that did not match. So far no serious difficulties have arisen between the classes and from the present outlook there will be none.

Let us give you tickets. 14 cash prizes every Saturday night. E. J. Norris.—Adv.

Bring your films to Vernon & Stearns. First class work at standard prices. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CAPTAIN OFF TO WAR

GLEN O. REAM

If he bucks the Kaiser like he bucks the line Germany will call time out in the first quarter. Ream has been a member of Otterbein's football squad for three years and was captain-elect for this year. He is one of the school's best athletes and a potent member of the student body. He left for Camp Sherman at Chillicothe September 6.

Herald Plott to Teach at Galion.

Herald Plott goes to Galion Monday where he will teach science in the high school and direct athletics. Mr. Plott had charge of athletics in Marietta high school last year. During the summer Mr. Plott will have charge of the Galion playgrounds. Mr. and Mrs. Plott have spent the summer on the McFarland farm north of Westerville.

Wanted—A New Head.

Since the person who suggested the name for the new paper does not want the life subscription, that offer has been extended to the person who shall send in the best design for a head for the paper. Keep the meaning of the name in mind and get busy with your pencil. Leave your drawings with Ralph Smith at the Public Opinion office or hand to any member of the staff. Here is a chance to win a life subscription if you have an idea.

COCHRAN HALL GIRLS GET BETTER ACQUAINTED

At Cochran Hall on last Friday evening all the new girls were given an opportunity to become better acquainted at the reception given in their honor. Although this is an annual custom the affair this year was unique in the spirit and congeniality which both "old and young" manifested. There seemed to be no need of "breaking the ice" and every one had a good time from the beginning.

The guests were each given a slip of paper soon after they arrived on which was written several spicy topics. These served to introduce a conversation with some other girl each time with a different one. It was noticed that one topic "The Man From Home" seemed quite absorbing to some. After the girls had become acquainted in this way a pleasing program was given. Josephine Foor and Ruth Conley gave readings, there were piano solos by Miss Vance and Agnes Wright, and Mary Griffith entertained with a violin solo.

In conclusion a little farce called "Wanted A Wife," was presented in which a man after a hard struggle to find the right kind of a wife, thought he had discovered the ideal of his dreams and proposed, only to find that she was a colored lady.

Refreshments were served after this. Just before it was "time to go home," there was a "solubrious" serenade which though it was pretty short, was very much appreciated.

ASSOCIATIONS RECEPTION

presenting the former and L. S. Hert the latter. Both emphasized the value and importance of the work of the Associations and the need of students for their help and inspiration.

The third and last part of the program came in the form of refreshments. These consisted of punch and ice cream. At approximately thirty the crowd broke up, every one apparently having enjoyed the entire evening.

To the new student these receptions and other social functions at the beginning of the year often seem mere schemes to trap him and he may even discredit their sincerity. On the contrary they are a part of our life here in college and they are given not to deceive but to help. It is hoped that this year may see the best attendance and interest ever witnessed in the history of the associations.

JUST A WORD

If this paper comes to you free, read this article. If you have already sent in your subscription it will be an unpardonable sin for you to read the following:

Quite a few members of the staff of The Tan and Cardinal served their newspaper apprenticeships on the Otterbein Aegis or Otterbein Review Staffs. We learned a few things there, but one thing especially was impressed upon us. If our paper is to succeed we must have money to pay our bills. If we are to have money we must have paid up in full, cash, payable in advance subscriptions. Please read the last sentence, again.

You received a letter from the Circulation Manager this summer. If you have failed to answer it, now is the time to do so. This is the only free copy of this paper that you will receive. If your dollar and a half is not here by next Monday, a paper will not be sent to you.

Now, it is up to you to get a dollar and a half. We can't get the money for you, but we can offer you suggestions. Above all things, try to get it honestly,—but get it. You might pawn your straw hat or low cut shoes. If they will not bring you the capital necessary, mortgage your Ford.

Seriously, we want to say that This new project is going to succeed. With the support we are already receiving, failure is an impossibility. Alumnus, Faculty member, Cleiorhetean, Philalethean, Philomathean, Philophronean, Trustee or friend—do you know that the Alumni Association, the Faculty, the Board of Trustees and the four literary societies are all United and backing this project.

FUNCTION OF A COLLEGE PAPER

(President Clippinger)

Having been asked by the editors concerning the function of a college paper I take this occasion first of all to express my deep appreciation of the value to the college of a college periodical. One of the chief assets of the college life is a student publication which thoroughly represents the interests of the institution. There are certain rather specific functions which it should fulfill.

First. It should be a newspaper.
As such it should seek to comprehend in its columns in reasonable balance and symmetry a survey of all the happenings in and around the institution which are worth printing. As such it should simply recite in clear cut language without embellishment or comment the happenings of the institution from week to week. All student activities, all alumni interests and all administrative interests meant for the public notice should receive their fair share of attention. There is danger always that editors in their zeal for certain interests or departments should over emphasize some at the expense of others. In the writing of newspaper items too much of eulo-gistic comment is out of place and serves often as an unfair and unkind discrimination against other individuals or interests.

Second. The college paper should be a reflector and a generator of college spirit. As a reflector it should serve as a kind of mirror giving back to the readers an impression of the spirit and life of the institution.
Through its editorials and other forms of comment from time to time it can give significance and meaning to the reader of the doings of the institution. It should also be a generator and a promoter of spirit by placing a constructive emphasis upon the life and the activities of the college. This is where the editorial articles find their chief value. It is one thing to write a news article, it is another to give it quality and significance through proper editorial interpretation. Here is required the finest kind of discrimination and a sensitivity and sympathy such as few people are able to develop. The editor must be able to feel the pulse of his readers and of the institution and as such he must be in a position to reflect this without prejudice and without damage to the institution which his paper is meant to conserve. As such he can do much to promote the ideals and best interests of the college. He should have an insight and a foresight of situations so as to be able to lead in the right direction those who are readers of his paper.

Third. The college paper should not aim to imitate the public newspaper.
The common interest of the public press coupled with the sensational spirit of the readers demands that the spectacular and striking events be given chief attention. As such it becomes cold, heartless and unsympathetic. The college paper can avoid the temptation which comes to the average reader and editor to exploit certain interests at the expense of the feeling and welfare of others. To be able to give constructive and aggressive drift to the thought of the readers without exposing those things which would do damage to the institution should be the aim of the publishers and writers. A slogan used by some business firms "If you like our goods tell others, if you do not like them tell us" would be suggestive to college editors. Articles look differently to strangers than those who understand most clearly the local situation.

The two papers formerly published by Otterbein College have served a splendid purpose. The students of the literary societies interested are to be congratulated upon the new venture upon which they enter and ought to receive the hearty sympathy and co-operation of students, faculty, alumni and trustees. We all extend our best wishes for success.

Do Your Bit

Are you a loafer or a hustler? The question is for you, as a student at Otterbein, to answer before you can "do your bit" or serve your country effectively. You may think that your opportunities for service will be few, in this small community; so they will if you decide to be a loafer instead of a hustler. If you stroll around town "just to kill time" you are wasting precious time and energy that someone in the world will have to make up in some way or other.
The law of compensation is still in force, you know, your loss will be another's gain. If you habitually go to your classes unprepared, and pay little or no attention while there, you are wasting talent and time that is needed at this critical time.

If you write a poor theme when you are capable of writing a good one, or if you fail to recite in mathematics when you might have made a brilliant recitation, you are not truly patriotic however loudly you may sing when the band plays "Star Spangled Banner."

Just suppose that Otterbein should adopt this for a motto "Do your best and you will be doing your bit."

Someone has said, "There can be no backward step in the world's progress, but progress in a democracy is slow, for the whole mass must be learned." How much are you going to help or hinder in the learning process of the world?

Think it over!

LOCALS.

After careful consideration of forty-five applicants for the position of city manager, Ralph W. Orebaugh of New York City, was chosen for the place by the Westerville council.

Rev. R. A. Hitt, conference superintendent of the Southeast Ohio district of the United Brethren church, will move to Westerville in the Priest property on North Vine street recently purchased by him. He lives in Chillicothe at present.

Prof. J. A. Bendinger returned last week from Dawes, W. Va., where he spent the summer testing gas wells for the Ohio Cities Gas company.

Prof. A. R. Spessard and family returned the first of the week from Smithsburg, Md., where they spent the summer on Mr. Spessard's peach farm. He reports a splendid crop of peaches in Maryland.

Mrs. Nellie Noble and daughter Louise and Miss Cora McFadden, dean of women, Otterbein, have returned from St. Ignace, Mich., where they spent the past six weeks.

Hurrah! once more the corridors of Cochran Hall are full of hurrying feet and merry laughter.

Second Lieutenant Mundhenk came back to Old Otterbein Saturday for a short visit. We all were glad to see him.

Freshman Day proved to be a success, and the "Wearing of the Green" comes twice a year. The Freshman girls seem to have a peculiar taste all their own for shoes.

The girls were wonderfully pleased when Annette Brane, '17, came in on Thursday evening and surprised them.

Tennis shoes, balls, rackets, white duck pants, white hats. E. J. Norris.

The girls are surely glad to have Betty Henderson back, even if it is only for a few days.

Fall Shirts, Ties and Hose. A splendid line at prices that will save you money. E. J. Norris.

We play Denison at Granville in two weeks. How many are going over? Remember what we did last year.

Y. M. C. A.

In spite of the fact that the young men in school number somewhat less than in former years, the attendance at Y.M.C.A. on Thursday evening was exceedingly good. The new men are taking a good interest and the old men seem to have a new appreciation of the work of the Association.

The meeting was addressed by Dr. E. A. Jones. As usual he gave a brief informal talk, full of interest and good advice. The main thought of his talk may be summed up in the phrase "Manliness and Self-control." He said the man who is truly great and who really succeeds is the man who dares to stand alone. Daniel was a man of influence in Babylon and had much at stake but he stood alone for the principles he knew to be right. "Dare to be a Daniel." When you have exercised self control in eating, drinking and the like, you have only begun the list. We must learn to be men, real men to whom those about us may look and say, "He is a man who has learned how to live right."
