VARSITY FIGHTS HARD BUT LOSES

Team Plays Tight Game In Spite of Fact That They Were Lighter.

FORWARD PASSES NUMEROUS

Kenyon Makes Four Touchdowns But Fails to Kick Goal from One.

Last Saturday Otterbein met Kenyon on the Westerville field. The large crowd of rooters and spectators present gave evidence of the interest in this game with Otterbein's old rival. Otterbein won on the toss up and Captain Higelmire chose to defend the south goal. Kenyon kicked off. Barnhart caught the kick-off and returned it to the thirty yard line. In the first play Meyers went through the line for ten yards, making first down. Evans was given the ball and carried it for three yards. In the next play Higelmire was called back and carried the ball through Kenyon's line for eight yards and the second first-down. In the next three plays Meyers, Hayes, and Barnhart plunged the line carrying the ball close to the required ten yard line. Hayes made first down.

At this stage of the game it looked as if Otterbein was going straight down the field for a touchdown; but the Tan and Cardinal team was unable to make first-down in the next four plays and Kenyon took the ball. On Kenyon's first play Peden went through and tackled the man behind the line of scrimmage but Otterbein was penalized five yards for being off side. Abbott broke through Otterbein's line for a forty yard run, placing the ball on the four yard line. Snook carried the ball across for Kenyon's first touchdown. Kenyon failed to kick goal. On Kenyon's kick-off the ball went behind Otterbein's goal and was placed on the twenty yard line. Kenyon's line held and Otterbein punted. Kenyon went down on the forty-five yard line. Abbott gained fifteen yards. Kenyon completed a forward pass of eighteen yards.

Choral Society Holds First Rehearsal

Seventy persons in attendance at the first practice, is not a bad start for the choral society.

Those in charge were well pleased with the number of singers that responded to the first call Monday night. "Rose Maiden" by Frederic H. Cowen will be sung at the first concert this year. The "Rose Maiden" though not difficult is very pretty, and promises to be interesting work. The Choral Society is a community organization and welcomes all persons vocally inclined into its membership.

Chapel Speaker Emphasizes Importance of the Present Age.

Interesting and instructive chapel talks are becoming the rule in Otterbein of late. This morning ex-president Bookwalter of Kansas occupied the chapel hour. He dwelled mainly on the importance of the age in which we are living. "These are days of change and progress. Perhaps at this very moment events are taking place somewhere across the water which will go down in history as great turning-points in the progress of the world. We are ever advancing toward a day of universal equality in the human race. The day is approaching when 'there shall be neither Jew nor Greek.' We are coming to recognize the great truth that all men are in reality equal, regardless of race, color, or occupation. Woman, too, is coming into her own. The day will soon be here when she will assert her independence at the polls and will show the men how to clean up politics. Live in the present, be ready for the future."

ROUMANIANS TO APPEAR

Noted Bass Soloist and Orchestra in Costume to Put on First Number of Lecture Course.

A college audience always appreciates good music, and Otterbein students and citizens of Westerville are sure to be pleased by the Roumanian Orchestra which appears in the College Chapel Wednesday evening, as the first number on the Lyceum Course.

This company is one of special interest at this time since the Roumanians are one of the peoples actively engaged in the present war; a people said to be passionately fond of music, yet of whom little is heard.

The Roumanian Orchestra was organized under Bohumir Kryl, which fact insures their ability as artists. Bohumir Kryl appeared in Westerville on the Chautauqua a few years ago. The orchestra is under the direction of Arthur S. With. Mr. With has studied in the Royal Conservatory of Copenhagen, where so many Roumanians are wont to study. Since coming to the United States Mr. With has appeared with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Charles E. Gallagher, the widely known American basso is touring this season with the company as a soloist. Mr. Gallagher, who sings in Italian, English, German and French, has sung in concert, oratorio recitals and in both light and grand opera. He has appeared in nearly all the Gilbert and Sullivan operas and with Savage, Aborn, Whitney and the Trivoli opera companies. More recently he has sung with the St. Louis Symphony orchestra and the Cincinnati

SUNDAY IS A DAY FULL OF TREATS

Church-goers of This City Enjoy Speeches of Three Prominent Workers.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS SPEAK

Ex-president of Otterbein, Native Indian Worker and Prominent Educator Fill the Pulpit.

Sunday proved to be a day of treats for church-goers in Westerville. At the morning service in the United Brethren church Dr. Lewis Bookwalter, former president of Otterbein, preached an inspiring sermon. Using Gideon as an example he showed how God uses men to carry out his plans, but that he can only use spirit-filled men and can only choose men who choose to be chosen by him. Throughout the sermon the speaker threw in many practical suggestions for the right use of the opportunities of life.

Of equal, if not greater, interest was the joint session of the Christian Endeavor Societies in the evening. Dr. Guburai Karmaker, a native woman doctor from India addressed the meeting, speaking of her work in India, the conditions there and closing with a strong appeal for more workers especially those with medical training. Mrs. Karmaker appeared in native costume. She is a graduate of one of the leading eastern medical schools of this country, is wide awake to her work, and possesses above all a very pleasing personality. It may further be added that she is a personal friend of Miss Lela Guitner, who met her during her work in India.

"Christ's mission on earth" was the subject of the third and last treat of the day, given by Dr. Donald J. Cowling, president of Carleton College at Northfield, Minn. "There were formerly three theories concerning the mission of Christ. The first argued that Christ's coming was to ransom man from sin. The second theory, which in my opinion, is too narrow a

Alumnus Makes Gift to Associations.

Prexy's announcement Monday morning of the gift of Mr. E. N. Funkhouser to be used in the Association Building came as an agreeable surprise. The Christian Associations have long felt the need of some improvements within the building, but did not have the money for that purpose. This gift is due to the solicitation of Professor Cornet, to whom the associations owe a large debt of appreciation. The money will be used to redecorate and provide new floor covering for the assembly hall and also some minor additions to the furniture in the parlors.

Wrestling and Boxing to Feature Work in Gymnasium.

"Quarter-Nelson," half-Nelson" and "full-Nelson" will soon be common expressions to the men of Otterbein if Coach Gorton continues the line of work in the gymnasium which he used in starting the "gym" classes last Monday. Mr. Gorton believes in balance and endurance as well as general muscular development. As a starter toward the accomplishment of these ends he initiated the class in the first principles of wrestling. Later in the year boxing will be introduced and a liberal sprinkling of calisthenics will undoubtedly be given throughout the year. The work under the able direction of our new coach promises to be helpful as well as enjoyable.

"Hiking" thus far has been the only form of exercise for the girls. As soon as the weather makes this impractical, indoor work will be substituted.

TO HAVE HOME COMING NOV 3

Varsity "O" And Athletic Club Plan Get-together On Date of Heidelberg Game

An Otterbein Home Coming is always a real home coming. Plans are now being made to have such an occasion on November third. On that date Heidelberg's gridders are scheduled to play on the local field and it was thought best to hold the home coming at that time.

The movement was started by the Varsity "O" association last week. At their last meeting all alumna members of the association were voted into the local organization. The Varsity "O" is planning a feed after the game for all local and visiting members of the association, and all football men who make the Marshall trip.

The local Athletic Club held a meeting Friday night at which time that organization appointed a committee headed by Professor Rosselot, to cooperate with the Varsity "O" committee, under Earl Barnhart, in planning entertainment for the visitors who are not included in the Varsity "O". Alumni and exstudents who can arrange to be here on November 3 should do so, for in addition to the game, which should be attraction enough, there will be some other form of government for every visitor. Grads, old and young, should take advantage of this opportunity to have a fall get-together.

Tuesday morning Dr. Donald J. Cowling of Minnesota will speak in chapel. Those who heard this excellent speaker at the Sunday evening service will be happy to have the privilege of hearing him a second time in an address directed to the students.

VARSITY FIGHTS

HARD BUT LOSES

First quarter ended with Kenyon's ball on Otterbein's eighteen yard line, score Kenyon 6, Otterbein 0. In the first of the second quarter Abbott made Kenyon's second touch-down and kicked goal. Francis caught Kenyon's kick-off and returned it to their forty yard line. Otterbein was forced to punt. Kenyon was downed on their fourteen yard line and forced to punt. Barnhart returned Kenyon's punt to the fifth yard line. Otterbein was unable to make first down through Kenyon's line and punted. Kenyon made first down in three plays and on the next Abbott broke away for a thirty-five yard run, Kenyon made first down. Abbott made their third touch-down and kicked goal. The half ended with the score 20 to 0 for Kenyon.

Between halves the Otterbein rooters went out on the field and gave some "peppy" yells and songs which helped restore confidence in the players. Kenyon came back on the field with their punch gone and things again looked encouraging for Otterbein. Abbott caught Otterbein's kick-off and returned it to the forty yard line. Otterbein's line held and Kenyon punted behind the goal for a touch back. They were unable to make first down and punted. Kenyon made one first down and punted. Otterbein caught the punt for a touch-back. A high pass from center over Higelmire's head put the ball behind Otterbein's goal. Higelmire fumbled in an attempt to recover the ball behind the goal line and Kenyon covered it for a touch-down. Abbott kicked goal. Hayes caught Kenyon's kick-off and was downed on the twenty yard line. Hayes made twenty yards and first down through left tackle, Evans gained through the line. Hayes gained four yards through right guard. Higelmire went through the line for ten yards and first down. Barnhart gained three yards and Hayes made five. Evans plunged the line, for first down. The third quarter ended with Otterbein on Kenyon's thirty-five yard line.

In the second play of the last quarter Abbott of Kenyon intercepted a forward pass and was downed on the twenty yard line. Kenyon made first down. Kenyon completed a forward pass but was downed at the point of completion. Otterbein held for downs and Kenyon punted. Evans returned the punt to the thirty yard line. Otterbein was held on first two downs, attempted forward pass, and punted. Kenyon completed a forward pass of twenty yards. Meyers intercepted forward pass placing the ball on the twenty yard line. Hayes made five yards through the line. Otterbein completed a forward pass of twenty yards, Higelmire to Barnhart. Otterbein made first down. Meyers gained three yards. Kenyon blocked Otterbein's forward pass. Barnhart made three yards through the line. Otterbein attempted forward pass on fourth down but it was incomplete Kenyon failed in three straight attempts at forward passes and punted on the twenty yard line. The half ended with the ball in play.

The game was rather slow at times and neither team displayed the fight and punch expected. However the Tan and Cardinal team showed a decided improvement over their first two games. Hayes and Evans were the most consistent ground gainers for Otterbein. Abbott was Kenyon's whole team.

GRIDIRON BUMPS

Otterbein rooters displayed the old time pep at the game Saturday.

Herb Meyers shows facial evidence of having been in the game Saturday.

The boys will elect captain this afternoon.

No one was seriously hurt in the game. The lack of roughness was a surprise to all.

Several of the Kenyon fellows remained in Westerville Saturday evening.

When Bill Evans tackled his opponent around the neck it took the Kenyon man ten minutes to decide whether or not he was hurt.

Denison played a soldier team at Montgomery, Ala. defeating them 21 to 5.

Neither Marshall nor Otterbein has won so far this season. They will both try to come back strong next Saturday and a good game is assured.

The Official "O."

What has become of the little official "O" pin that was so much in evidence a few years ago? Can it be that we do not care to wear the insignifia of our College?

About four years ago an "O" of a certain design was accepted by the student body as the official emblem of this institution. Immediately the little "O" button or pin became quite popular. But the fad seems to have been lost. It is possible that not a dozen of these letters could be found in the student body and probably none in the under classes. Certainly we are not ashamed to show to the world that we are students in Otterbein. One is always proud to wear the emblem of a fraternal organization. Certainly the badge of the school should be worn just as promi-nently. If you are a true Otterbeinite let it be known in a small way by wearing the Official "O". Freshmen, get one and wear it; perhaps the rest will fall in line.

Books for Our Soldiers.

Everyone of us is proud of the boys on our Honor Roll. But we are apt to forget our obligation toward them in their absence. Almost every town and school is sending books and magazines to its soldiers. As yet no movement has been started here, for this purpose. There will be times in the soldier's camp life when time will hang heavy on his hands and a book or magazine would be appreciated greatly. Is there no way by which Otterbein can help in supplying her soldiers with good reading?

Do You Appreciate Nature?

Lots of people think they aren't having as good a time as other people are, that they aren't getting much enjoyment out of living and are missing something all the time. This isn't because part of humanity was meant to be happy while the rest had the same dull round of work every day; it's because some people can't see beyond their noses and don't try to get pleasure out of every day things, especially at this time of the year there is something from which we all ought to get a lot of pleasure and inspiration—the wonderful autumn colors.
Did you ever happen to think how it would seem to a person who had spent his whole life on a desert or up around the north pole to be suddenly transported in October to our country, to Westerville, yes to our Otterbein campus? Imagine how the beautiful red, green and yellow would startle and delight him. And just think how pleasing it would be to you to stand some place and watch a row of autumn colored trees go by. Wouldn't it be fascinating? And yet that's just what we see every times when we are running to class.

To some people autumn seems depressing, a time when everything is dead or dying. But it is rather, if we stop to think, nature's climax and round up of a good year's work. It is as if she had said, "I have had a fine and prosperous season and see how good I feel about it."

Wouldn't it be fine if we could all grasp October's message, all become embued with October's beauty and then feel that we had just made a beginning?

Show Your Real Pep.

There is always plenty of pep and support for the team at a home game, or one played near home. But when the team goes away from home to play we seem to forget that we have a football team, except to inquire for the score about five-thirty on the afternoon of the game. But the boys need as much or more support away from home than when they play here.
Of course we can not all attend all the games, but the telegraph and telephone companies make a business of transmitting messages. Here is a method by which we can encourage our team when playing abroad. A telegram may contain but a few words but it certainly would show the team that we who are at home are with them in spirit if not in person.

Other papers all remind us

If our fellow schoolmates send us Contributions all the time.

Here a little, there a little,
Story, club note, song or jest.

If you want a good school paper,
Each of you must do your best.

—Black and Magenta.

The above just fits our case. If you have a bit of news, send it in. The staff can not know of everything that is going on around the campus, so it is up to YOU to help make this paper represent the colors in its name.

TABLE TALK

You might not think it to look at us, but we have been doing some thinking around here lately and there are several things about which we have been wondering.

You may remember that last June the trustees of Otterbein college woke with a start and decreed that all students, regardless of college rank or personal interests, should take two hours of gymnasium work a week.
Now, what we have been wondering is this? How is the college going to give a fair deal to all concerned? The action of the board states that this work will be required for a degree; but how about those, who for some reason or other, are excused from physical training? Will it be fair to graduate them with the same honors as those who have met the requirements? Of course, no one wants those who are physically unable to do the work to be compelled to take it and there is where the trouble lies. Is it exactly fair to divide the student body into the physically fit and the physically unfit, and say to the first, "You shall take physical training, or run the risk of not getting your degree," and say to the other group, "You need not take physical training, and it will be all right?" And there is another group of students, which should be considered—those who are working during the afternoon so that they can pay for their college course. Will they be forced to neglect the work which pays their expenses, in order to take physical training without which the very degree for which they are working cannot be obtained? Will the trustees excuse them from physical training and grant them their degree without the requirements or will they be compelled to give up their work?

There is another class to be considered, the ones who are neither physically unfit for the work, nor working for their expenses, in short those who are compelled to represent the student body of Otterbein College on the gymnasium floor, under penalty of forfeiting their degree. Will their degree stand for any more or mean any more to the educated public than the degree of those who are excused from physical training?

The burden of this new requirement falls heaviest on the upper classmen, because they not only have heavier work, but also have many interests outside the class room interests which are as much to the honor of Otterbein as the classes.

Physical training is a fine thing for those who have the time and strength for it, but when one has every hour of the day filled; it is very inconvenient, to say the least to have to add another two hour class to the week's schedule.

"Gingie."

Proper Way to Address Soldiers.

In addressing communications to members of the regular army, federalized National Guard or national army, care must be taken to observe certain rules, warns the postoffice department in sending out the following address forms:

Regular army:

"Private John Smith,
Company A, 64th Infantry,
Camp Lee, Virginia."

National Guard:

"Private John Smith,
Company B, 151st Infantry (69th N.Y.)
Camp Lee, Virginia."

National Army:

"Private John Smith,
Company C, 310th Infantry (N. Y.),
Camp Lee, Virginia."

Designations of regiments in the National Guard will show in parenthesis their present state designations, while parentheses in the case of the national army will show the state from which each organization, or the bulk of it, was drawn.

In all cases the communication should bear name and address of sender. Unless company and regiment designations are used, the department warns, mail will be delayed and probably returned to sender as undeliverable.

'04. Mr. C. G. Wise, of Akron, was in Westerville, Saturday.

'17. G. A. Sechrist is in the Cleveland City Hospital with diptheria. It is reported that he is doing nicely.

'92. Mr. Robert E. Kline was recently appointed Naval Engineer of the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation. He in conjunction with four other engineers will plan and construct all ships built by this corporation. About five million dollars a year is placed at their disposal. This appointment comes as a climax to a hitherto very successful career in engineering. Mr. Kline graduated from Otterbein in 1892 and graduated in Civil Engineering at Harvard in 1893. He served two terms as County surveyor of Montgomery County and two terms as City Engineer of Dayton. As engineer and contractor he built four large concrete-steel bridges in the city of Dayton. His new position is one of national importance, inasmuch as it has to do with keeping up ocean commerce. The Tan and Cardinal congratulates Mr. Kline, and wishes him all the success in the world in his new position.

'02. Mrs. Nola Knox Hornbeck and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Knox visited here over the week-end.

Through the solicitation of Prof. N. E. Cornet, '96, E. N. Funkhouser, an alumnus of the class of 1913, has made a gift of $250 for use in the Association Building. The present plans include retinting the walls of the assembly room and laying a new carpet, and purchasing some new furniture for the parlors below. The improvements are to be made during the Christmas vacation.

POSTAGE GOING UP

After November 1 Letters Will Cost
Three Cents and Postals
Two Cents.

To add to the already "high cost of living" Uncle Sam announced the latter part of the week that postage goes up November 2. The increase is effective everywhere and Monday morning Postmaster Frank Bookman gave out the official notice.

All letters must bear three-cent postage and all postcards and private mailing cards must bear two-cent postage.

There is an exception to this new rate and this is that all mail intended for local delivery or on local rural routes must bear the two-cent postage as is in vogue at present.

The stock of one and two-cent postage stamps and envelopes will continue to be sold until the present supply at all offices is exhausted, after that the new order on the new supply of stamps, etc. will appear.

All Christmas mail intended for the forces abroad must be mailed on or before November 15, to insure prompt delivery on Christmas morning.

All Christmas mail must be endorsed "Christmas Mail" on the package and the postoffice department suggests three things: "Mail early, address intelligently, pack securely."

Another important feature that the public should interest itself in is the fact that the postmaster must open and examine all packages intended for the forces abroad, to ascertain whether there are intoxicants or poison in said packages. The postmaster, upon finding no intoxicating liquors or poison in the packages, shall so mark the package indicating that there is no prohibitive matter and sign his name.

These new provisions must come in plenty of time for the public to thoroughly acquaint themselves.

Knitting is the rage in Westerville, and even the children in the grades as low as the second carry their knitting about the streets and to school.

Here's one we saw in three college papers within a week, so we pass it on. What put the "chill" in Chilli-cothe? The draft.

Y. M. C. A.

The subject chosen by L. A. Weinland, speaker at last Thursday's Y. M. C. A. meeting was both timely and interesting. He chose for his theme, "The Devotional Life of the Students." Professor Weinland is always warmly welcomed as leader of the weekly meetings as was clearly demonstrated by the applause when he was introduced. He always has a message that is interesting as well as being peculiarly applicable to college men. His Thursday evening address contained these two predominant characteristics.

His speech embraced so many excellent thoughts that such a short article does not permit their enunciation and enlargement, so it will be necessary only to outline briefly its substance. One of the most striking points brought out was the great need of lofty objectives in this the greatest time of all time. He also admonished students to cultivate good habits since those formed here are the ones that follow us in after life. The question was put, "What would you do if you had only fifteen days to live?" The answer is, "Live so you will be remembered for your good deeds to those around you." Some faults noticeable in students are, "A self seeking spirit" and "Dishonesty." These were fittingly illustrated and their final end shown to be failure. He closed his address by saying that Prayer is our medium for God's help.

Y. W. C. A.

"To have a definite purpose in life and then to live for that purpose day by day"—this was the keynote of the Y. W. C. A. meeting which was led by Jessie Weir, chairman of the devotional committee.

The person who has a true purpose in life is never a failure in the sight of God, however unsuccessful he may be in material things. Our purpose in life need not be an attempt to touch the world by our personality: just to "brighten the corner where you are" is an ideal worthy of the highest. Right here on the campus we loose so many opportunities to carry out our purpose and be of service; a friendly word or smile seems insignificant to us, but it may mean much to some person in need of encouragement. Most of us are so little, so absorbed in our own affairs, that we forget that there are many all around us who are lonely or need a friend; and because of selfishness we forget our purpose in life and lose opportunities to show that we have caught a vision of higher things. After the talk by the leader, came the impressive candle lighting service, at which time twenty girls each lighting her candle from the one held by the President of Y. W. C. A. reconsecrated their lives to the service of God and humanity.

Did you write that letter to the boys in camp?

$9.60 Cutting Corn.

That corn cutters this year should have little worry about the high cost of living was demonstrated last week when three Otterbein students went out to cut corn for a day. One of them brought home a check for $9.60, another $6.80 and the third, who evidently was not overly familiar with a corn knife, $2.25. Farmers say they are having considerable trouble getting corn cutters at any price.

SUNDAY IS A DAY

FULL OF TREATS

(Continued from page one.) conception of Christ's mission, held that but for sin Christ would never have been incarnated in the flesh. The third class were of the opinion that his coming was for the perfection of mankind rather than as an atonement for their sins. However much these old doctrines differed in minor points, there is one thing which they admitted and which we believe, that Christ has set us a perfect example for that promise which says 'the pure in heart shall see God.' He set us an example of love and service. He believed in individual welfare, which is the ground-rock of democracy. Not only do I believe that the hope of America lies in the perfection of individual lives but I shall have no faith in any plan for world democracy which is not based upon the plan of Jesus Christ."

LOCALS.

Miss Lelo Shaw visited Lyman Hert over the week-end.

Sergeant Campbell of the quartermaster's corps of Camp Sherman was a week-end visitor here.

Freshman (writing home)—"Say how do you spell financially?"

Roommate—"F-i-n-a-n-c-i-a-l-l-y, and and there are two r's in embarrassed."

"Buck" Haller, Carl Ireland, and Lieutenant Mundhenk were among the rooters on the sidelines Saturday.

Mr. Frank Shepherd of Cleveland, was in Westerville for the game Saturday. Mr. Shepherd visited over Sunday.

Dr. Sanders—"The dietician at Cochran Hall sees to it that the girls leave the dining room not only with enough to eat, but with a feeling of satisfaction, as well."

Betty Fries—"I can't agree with that, Doctor."

Dr. Sanders—"O, of course there are some cases which are abnormal."

Miss Etta Fulk of Canton, Ohio, visited Higelmire Saturday and Sunday.

Evidently the educational profession is not so unremunerative, after all. President Clippinger has recently purchased a Hudson Super Six, and hopes, as he says, to derive therefrom a sufficiently large amount of pleasure and enjoyment and gratification to repay him for the necessary expenditure which he was forced to make.

O. W. Mourer from Lake Odessa, Michigan, is doing piano tuning in Westerville and vicinity. He is a graduate of the Bangard Tuning School in New York City.

A Payneful Announcement.

Ruth Young had a push Friday night for Esther VanGundy who is visiting her for the week-end. Esther is planning to go to Athens to take normal work preparatory to teaching.

Room 9, on third, was the scene of a very pretty party given by Gladys, Agnes, Virginia, and "Kelly" in honor of Elizabeth Karg, who will attend Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa, the second semester. Betty expects to start to Mt. Vernon Wednesday.

President and Mrs. Clippinger and daughter Charlotte Louise, Mrs. Noble and daughter Louise, Mrs. W. H. Howard, Mrs. L. C. Michael, Lyle J. Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Stair and daughter, Elizabeth Karg and Helen Keller were guests at dinner Sunday.

Chorus girls, niggers, ghosts, bandits, Italian opera singers, goddess of liberty, old maids and children, mingled in democratic freedom Thursday night in Alice's and Neva's room. The occasion for such an unusual gathering was a masquerade party in honor of their guest, Miss Elinor White of Dayton. The special features of the evening were pumpkin pie and cider. The motley crowd amused themselves by tripping the light fantastic, and by visits to Madame Buttinsky, the world famous Polish hypnotist.

Alice Hall, Eleanor White, Grace Armentrout, Neva Anderson, "Bob" Kline, "Ike" Ward, "Bill" Vance, and John Richmond of Dayton, enjoyed a picnic breakfast down by old Alum Creek Saturday morning. The breakfast was given in honor of Miss White, who is Alice's guest.
