INTRODUCTORY

THE 1934 SIBYL HAS BEEN BUILT AROUND AN HISTORICAL THEME WHICH WE HOPE WILL ALWAYS BE WARM TO THE HEARTS OF STUDENTS, PRESENT AND PAST. » » » » »

OTTERBEIN'S HISTORY DATES BACK WITH THE EARLIEST OF OHIO'S COLLEGES AND WE HOPE TO SHOW IN THE BRIEF SPAN OF THIS, YOUR BOOK, THE ADVANCE MADE BY OUR BELOVED COLLEGE OVER A PERIOD OF EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS. » » » » » » »

ALMOST EVERY ONE HAS WITNESSED A HIGHLIGHT YEAR WITH MEMORIES FURNISHING MORE

FASCINATING AND LASTING THOUGHTS THAN ANY OTHER ONE YEAR. » » » »

REMINISCING BECOMES MORE TENDER AS ONE LOOKS BACK TO THE HAPPIEST AND MOST CHERISHED YEAR OF HIS LIFE WHEN HE KNEW NO CARES OR WORRIES AND LIFE WAS JUST A HAPPY PASTIME. » » » » » »

THOSE HAPPY DAY PAGES, WHEN LOVE AND LIFE WERE TAKEN VERY LIGHTLY, WILL SMILE AT YOUR NOW TOO SERIOUS EYES. TURN BACK TO YOUR DEAR FRIENDS AND CLASSMATES; ENJOY AN HOUR WITH THE PAST. » » » »

IT HAS BEEN A PLEASURE FOR US TO GATHER THE CONTENTS OF THIS, YOUR COLLEGE BIOGRAPHY, AND WE SINCERELY HOPE THAT YOU WILL CHERISH IT AS THOUGH IT WERE MADE OF PURE GOLD. » » » » » »

Anna Dell Lafever

Assistant Librarian

Lover of Flowers, of the best in literature, and of everyone she could help.

Generous to a fault with her time, her money, and her service.

Cheerful and obliging always.

Faithful in every undertaking.

Loyal to Otterbein College and her special task within it; to her friends, and to her Christian duties and privileges.

"A noble type of good, heroic womanhood."

PHILAMATHEA

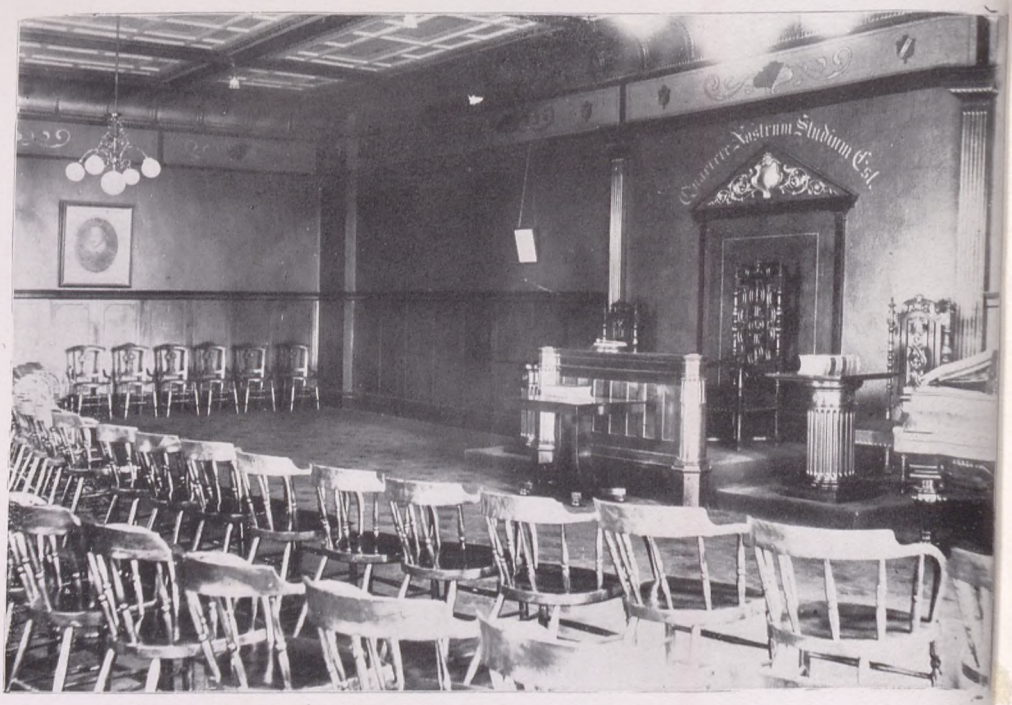
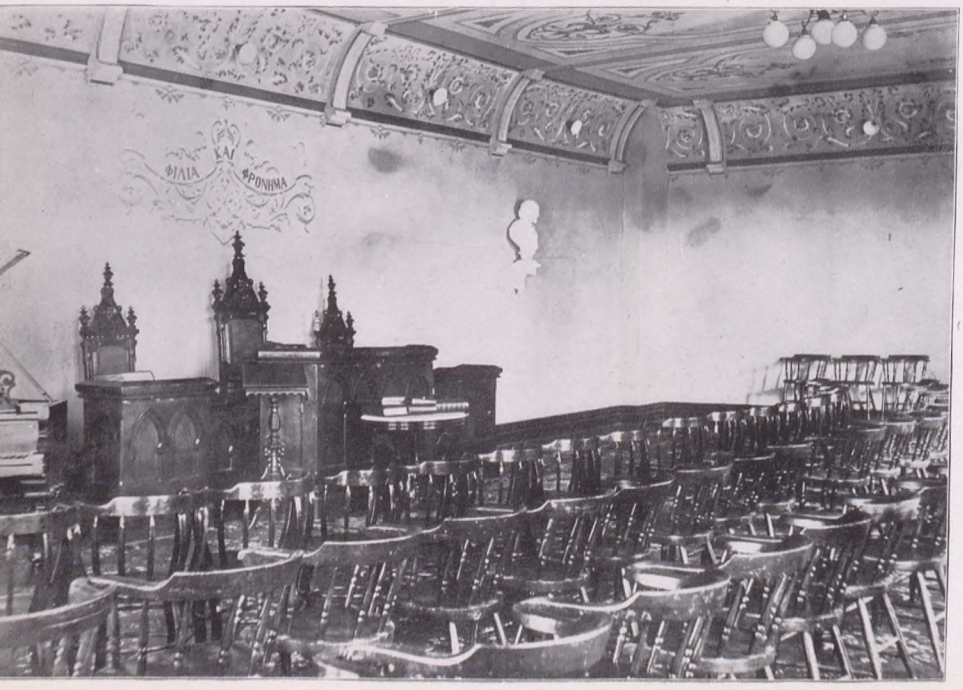
Literary societies at Otterbein were, until a few years ago, the outstanding form of extra-curricular activity. Philamathea was the oldest of the men's societies.





PHILAPHRONEA

Philaphronea was the other men's society. The purpose of these groups was to foster an appreciation of literature, music, and speaking in public.

Cleiorhetean Society, one of the women's literary organizations, is still in existence. A friendly spirit of rivalry existed among these groups.

(Right)

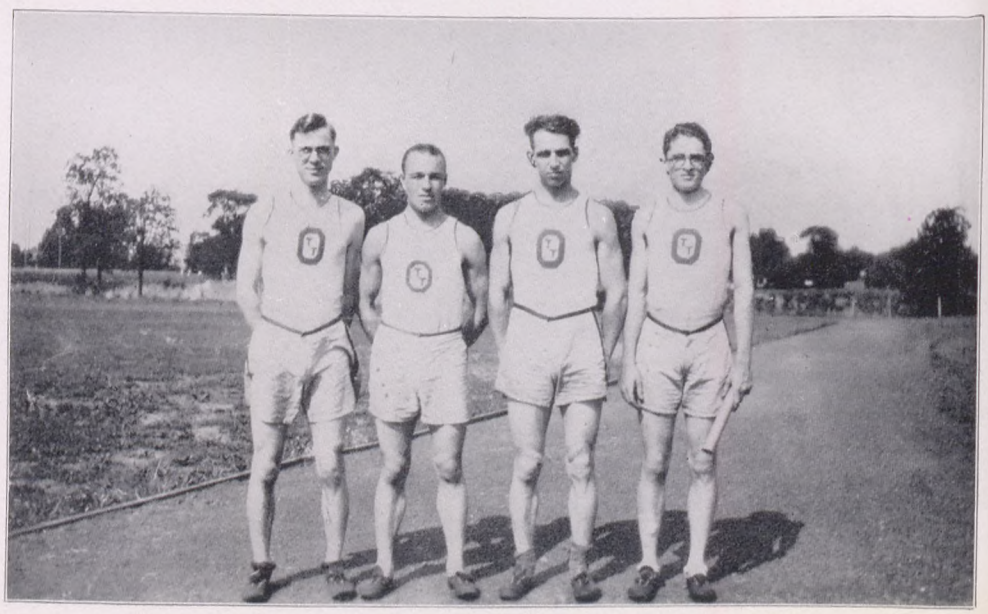
Philalethea, the other women's society is also extant. The fine furnishings of the society halls were at one time the pride of Otterbein.

OLD ATHLETIC FIELD

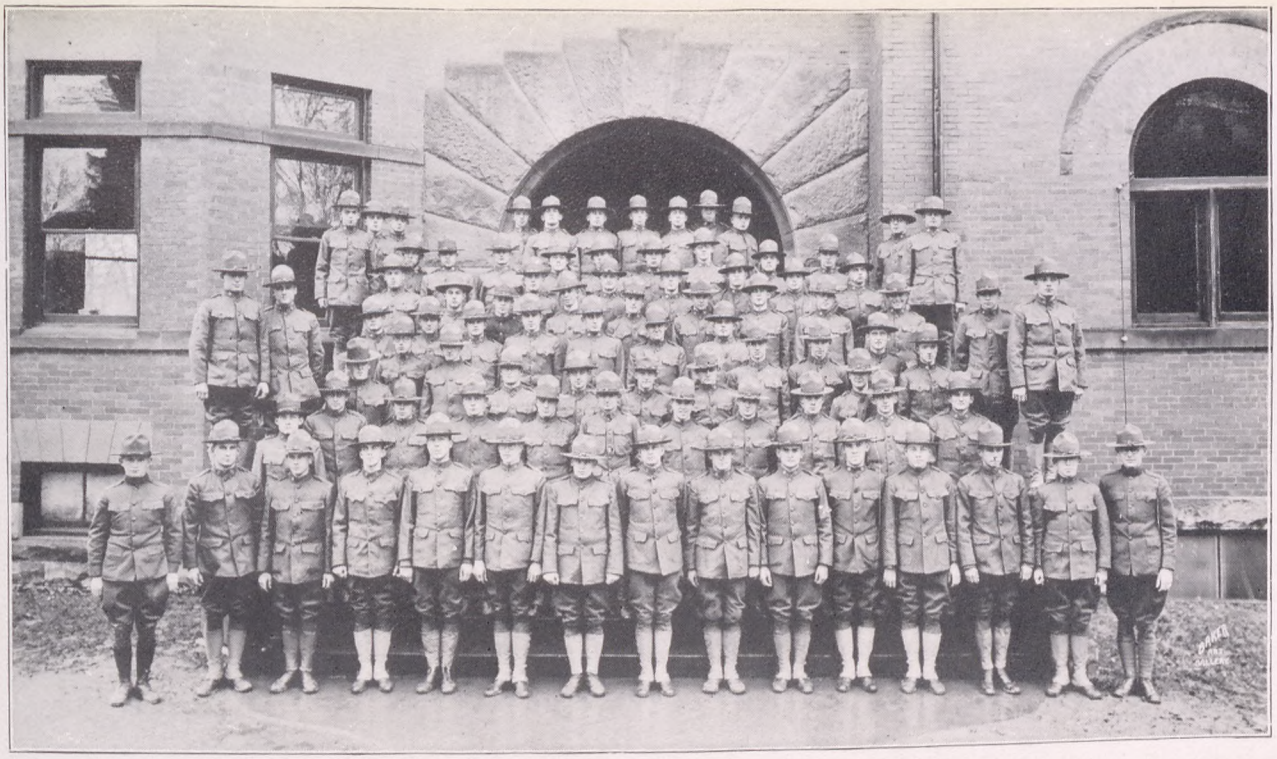
The old athletic field lay to the rear of the Administration Building. In 1914, the cost of grading and tiling of the present site was provided for by the Class of 1911.

In the center background can be seen two hurdles which mark the course of the old track. It was there that the Otterbein mile-run record was set in 1907 which Ed Burtner "broke" last spring.

BROADHEAD, BEELMAN, RUFFINI, STOUGHTON



These men set a new Ohio Conference Mile Relay Record in 1925. They are still the holders of Otterbein's relay record.



S. A. T. C. COMPANY B

In 1918 a unit of the Students' Army Training Corps was organized on Otterbein's campus. It was the purpose of this organization to prepare men for further training in one of the district training camps.

It was difficult for the army officers in charge to realize that their men were supposed to attend classes as well as drill. A month after its organization the welcomed armistice was signed.

SCENE ALONG BIG WALNUT

One of the romantic spots away from the campus which is familiar to Otterbein couples.

ART STUDIO IN 1903

In May, 1922, Vice-President Coolidge paid a visit to Otterbein. While here he addressed the students in the college church and then placed a wreath on the Civil War Soldier's Memorial.

Mrs. Mary E. Lee, a Westerville citizen, was largely responsible for bringing the Vice-President to the campus.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

THE four milestones have passed all too quickly; it seems only yesterday that we were being rushed hither and thither with pledge pins staring us in the face. Some went here and some there but all sharing our difficulties together. It was a lot of fun but now even our time has arrived to look back to see if we have left anything worth boasting about.

Athletes? Yes, we have helped win an Ohio Conference Championship, too. Dramatists, orators, musicians, artists,—nothing is lacking to help us make our mark in the halls of our well-loved college. Each class claims a new high standard and leaves its challenge; we too have our pride as the others.

Some of the greatest things that we are proud to remember are the many fine friendships that were formed on the campus these four short years. Friendships with students and faculty alike that we hope to retain always. The spirit of friendship seems to be an institution at Otterbein, one of the advantages of our small college. We hope that we have not detracted from this institution but added to its lasting value.

Otterbein has left its mark on us; we could not help but have a broader outlook on the old world, and are a little better equipped to meet its ever occurring problems.

Though it is an old custom to like to "cut" chapel, it too has left its mark. We couldn't sit in the old halls for these four years without feeling that at some time we were a little helped by something that happened there.

Whether we will be a success or not can not be determined today; it will take years to decide that. We feel that we have been a success in Otterbein if we have given our instructors a degree of satisfaction in our work these four years, with the addition of just a little bit more ambition for their task to teach others, instead of being ashamed of the "younger generation" as might be the case.

We feel that about the best asset we could be to the college, which we have attended, is to be a success in a well-rounded life in the years to come; with this in mind, we approach a new life with ambition to do our part.

Among these scenes remembrance stirs and wakes;
The beauty of the campus falls about you.
Again, beneath the trees you rest
Or, wind along the paths to classes—
Perhaps, along a roof you'll see the moonlight gleam—
A path of dreams that once you knew;
Do not forget—
Within these hallowed places many voices
taught the Knowledge Saga,
Their spirits led you through the gentle shades,
Hands pressed your hand in fellowship
unfailing,
Not only scenes familiar call to memory
But, words—and deeds—and kindly faces.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Class of '35 has enjoyed college life, which has never lacked jovial pleasures, constructive intellectual life, opportunity for self-expression, and inspiration to live the good life.

When one is a Freshman, he is indeed a novelty and is looked upon with the same amusement and wonder as is the most ludicrous relic of a museum. Because he is new and not yet oriented to his surroundings, his every move is looked upon as laughable. He is considered a mere novice and when he volunteers a class recitation, the Professor is inclined to remark, "Tush! That is only a Freshman's supposition."

A Freshman is the object of much attention from upper classmen who delight in offering instructions to such simple souls, who give him his classification as to good looks (or absence of same), intelligence, abilities, and even possibilities, and who make him the object of unceasing torment.

But when the present Juniors were Freshmen, the favorable attention was accepted with dignity and the abuse with stoicism.

One might just as well be resting under the sod with one's forefathers as to be a Sophomore. He is almost a non-entity. He is not yet an illustrious upperclassman, nor is he the recipient of the attention directed toward the Freshmen. Somewhat of an exception to this rule, however, occurred when the Class of '35 filled the Sophomore ranks, for we were not mere minus quantities but exercised our abilities commendably and made our presence felt rather generally.

Now we are Juniors and command the respect befitting those of our station. We are ably helping to promote the interests and activities of Otterbein and take an honest pride in contributing our talent and energy to the life of our alma mater. We have learned to capitalize on the opportunities of college life, to work and play hard, and to enjoy our college companionships.

We look to our Senior year with eager anticipation and each of us should like to continue to be a credit to his classmates and to his school.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As we of the Sophomore Class rapidly approach the half-way mark in our college careers, we realize a distinct advantage over the other classes—that of being able to look in either direction with equal clarity. We can well recall the events of the last two years with their many mistakes and successes. We can also survey the two years that lie ahead and anticipate our opportunities as upper-classmen.

The present Sophomore Class did not make a sensational debut in campus life, when in the fall of 1932 they entered the ranks of Otterbein students. In fact, the administration had grave misgivings as to the contribution that such a small class could make to the institution. Because of sheer lack of numbers, this class was the victim in both the Scrap Days in which it participated and also in many other inter-class events. It was in the face of such overwhelming defeat that this group developed, of necessity, the important traits of mutual cooperation and harmony.

By courage and hard work, we of the Class of '36, as we started the second year of our college careers, finally stepped into a position of importance. We have since contributed our part in a wide field of activities. Representatives of the Class have done their part in the major sports and in a large number of campus organizations. As a result, we now have the word of the President of our college that what the class lacks in quantity it compensates for in quality.

And now as we stand on the threshold of our upper-class careers, we see ourselves definitely established as a small but powerful minority in campus life. We are determined that as we step into positions of leadership and responsibility in campus activities, the same fine cooperation and high ideals that have previously characterized our class will be maintained.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

SEPTEMBER ninth, nineteen hundred thirty-three, A.D. (After Dinner) is a day which long will be remembered by the members of the class of nineteen hundred thirty-seven. That was the day on which we took our first shallow dip (extremely so) in the whirlpool of college life. When evening came we found ourselves afflicted with sunburned tonsils as a result of gazing at the tall buildings and beautiful trees. The ostentatious classrooms, and stern-faced professors of that first day convinced us that we were somewhat out of place.

But there was a brighter day coming. When we trounced the Sophomores in the Scrap Day events, tied them in the Freshman-Sophomore football game, and won the Soccer tournament, we thought that we had the upper hand on our so-called "superiors." But then the Varsity "O" held the yearly "board meeting" and forcibly reminded us that in spite of our achievements we were still Freshmen.

However, the effects of this "humbling" soon "wore off" and we discarded our Freshman caps, voluntarily assuming the dignity of Seniors.

We admit that we are rather inexperienced at the art of "dignification," but in the next three years we are determined to polish ourselves off to the brilliant luster of an A.B., B.S. (or something).

PRESENTING THE

ATHLETICS

THE COACHES

FLOYD BEELMAN, R. K. EDLER, R. F. MARTIN.

Floyd Beelman has been producing winning track squads for several seasons as well as coaching freshman basketball and aiding Dr. Edler in varsity football.

Robert K. Edler, M.D., is the congenial, well-liked Head Coach of Otterbein Athletics. He has not only produced excellent teams but he has been consistent in training his proteges for better minds and bodies.

Royal F. Martin is the director of the Department of Athletics and Coach of Baseball and Tennis. His period of service at Otterbein has been long and ever efficient.

NORRIS CUP AWARDEE

Coveted by every Otterbein athlete is the Norris Cup, awarded each year to the senior man who has achieved excellence in his curricular activities as well as in his extra-curricular athletic program for four years.

Mr. Andrews was awarded this cup and honor on excellence in basketball, football and track, athletically, and a "B" average, scholastically.

THE 1933 SQUAD

The 1933 football season saw Dr. Edler's Cardinals battling against great odds. The schedule consisted entirely of colleges larger than Otterbein. Several valuable players were lost from the squad due to their leaving school or to injuries. In spite of these handicaps, a hard-fighting team won three and tied one of its eight games.

Eleven senior men played their last football for Otterbein. Two sophomores, Booth and Zeigler, earned regular berths in the backfield and will help to fill the places vacated by graduation.

FOOTBALL

ROGER HUHN . . . . . Tackle

"Rog" had the eyes of the Ohio Conference on him for three years. Playing guard, end, and tackle, he climaxed his career by being elected honorary Captain for the 1933 season. He was given honorable mention on the mythical All-Conference team by the Associated Press.

PAUL SCHOTT . . . . . Fullback

Playing stellar ball his Sophomore year, Paul returned last year to begin the season but was seriously injured in the Kent game. His 1933 campaign was his best as he led the Cardinals to victory against Ohio Northern and Capital. He has the distinction of having made a 95-yard run, the longest in the state in 1933, for a touchdown.

RAYMOND SCHICK . . . . . Halfback

Halfback and quarterback posts were meat for Ray as he ran wild over opponents for three years. Speed and intelligent headwork has placed him among the first of Otterbein's football heroes. Ray was awarded a second team quarterback position on the International News Service All-Conference team.

VIRGIL HINTON . . . . . End

An outstanding portion of the Cardinal line in every tilt during his Sophomore and Senior years, "Virg." always came up smiling.

RUSSELL GARRETT . . . . . Tackle

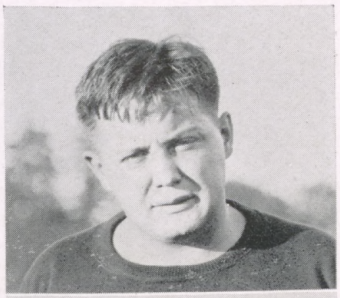
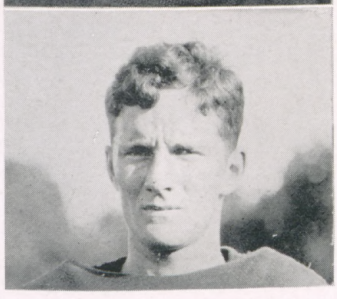
The genial "Russ" was a three-letter man who was most consistent and who will be greatly missed in coming campaigns.





FOOTBALL

HOWARD SPORCK . . . . . Guard

Howard earned his letter in the 1932 schedule and returned this year to prove himself one of the outstanding men of the squad, both on defense and offense.

HUGH GLOVER . . . . . Center

"Butch's" place will be difficult to fill next fall. His work was above par on every play during the two years in which he participated. He was awarded a guard position on the second All-Conference team picked by the Associated Press.

KARL WORSTELL . . . . . End

"Lank" was a bulwark on defense for three years and his commanding height was an aid in throwing his opponents for losses and in snagging passes.

ROBERT ALBRIGHT . . . . . Halfback

"Bob" returned to school this year but was unable to remain long. Although hampered by injuries, he showed marked ability in the four games he played for Otterbein.

EDMUND BOOTH . . . . . Quarterback

"Albie" was the find of the season and his performances in future years should prove of value to the "Cards."

SAM ZEIGLER . . . . . Halfback

A man able to drive through the line with exceptional power, was Dr. Edler's find in "Sophomore Sam."

FRANK HEITZ . . . . . Guard

Frank's first year of Varsity competition was gratifying. He received many injuries but his grit aided him in becoming a sensational lineman.

HAROLD SCOTT . . . . . Halfback

"Scotty's" second year eclipsed his first and progressing, in like manner, his Senior year will see him in a leading role.

ROBERT VAN SICKLE . . . . . Guard

Another Junior who will be back of every play next season is Bob Van Sickle. His development has been consistent and his last season should prove his best.

NATHANIEL SHOPE . . . . . Guard

Although a small man, "Nate's" dropping school in mid-season forced a rebuilding of the line. He will be welcomed gladly if he returns to school next season.

PAUL CAPEHART . . . . . Halfback

Paul was a player who had form and ability but for some unknown reason saw but little action until mid-season. The loss of his support is bound to be felt next fall.

WILLIAM BENNETT . . . . . Tackle

"Bill's" untiring efforts for the Cardinal squad made him friendships that cannot be surpassed. His cheery smile and willingness to cooperate are certain to be missed.

RICHARD FETTER . . . . . End

"Dick's" seriousness in his football endeavors gathered for him rich experiences which never will be forgotten.

WILBUR MORRISON . . . . . Guard

Wilbur seldom broke into the Cardinal lineup but his presence at practice sessions for three years meant a great deal to the entire team.

GLENN HAUETER . . . . . Manager

Taking care of equipment and the wants of the squad were the details of Glenn's work this year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

KENNETH HOLLAND

Forward

"Ken" led the scoring this season with 133 points in the ten games in which he participated. A junior, he was an outstanding performer and his flashy floor game and accurate shooting saved the day on more than one occasion.

VIRGIL HINTON

Forward

"Virg," playing his third year of varsity ball, was a very valuable man. He developed during the year into a real scoring threat and had the ability to get the ball on the center jump.

KARL WORSTELL

Center

"Lank," a three-year veteran, usually had two men guarding him while under the basket, but this didn't hinder his uncanny accuracy on one-handed shots. He was almost infallible in getting the tip-off.

PAUL SCHOTT

Guard

Although he is a senior, this was "Tony's" first year of varsity basketball. He rapidly developed into a smooth floor man and a good shot. Paul could have been used earlier in his college career.

RAYMOND SCHICK

Guard

"Ray" was the fastest man on the team and broke up many of his opponents' plays, besides accounting for a fair share of points himself. He has been a real asset to the team during his three seasons of varsity competition.

GEORGE BRADSHAW

Guard

The squad loses a good substitute and a fast floor man in "Brad" this year. Breaking into nearly every game he held down the scoring of his man in each case.

HAROLD CHEEK

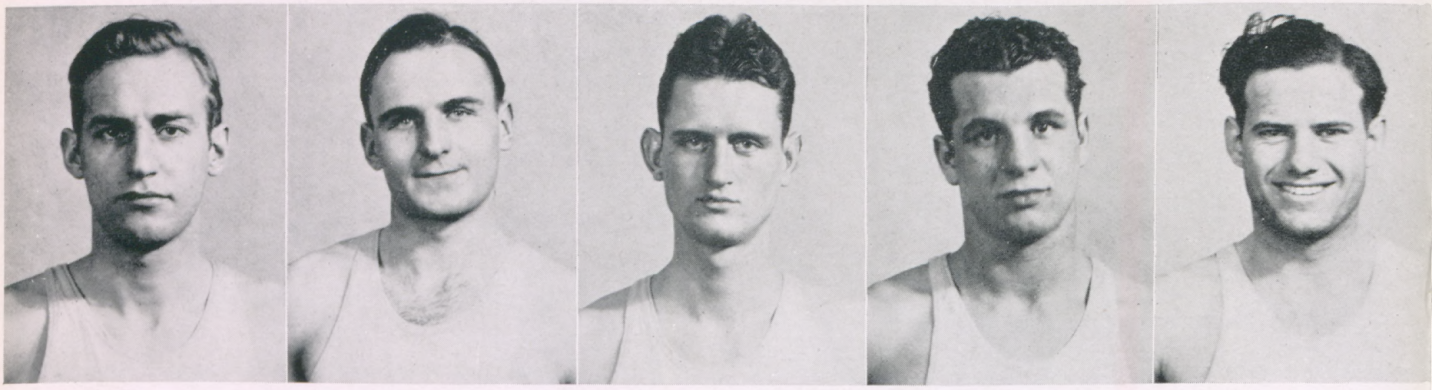
Forward

Cheek got his first taste of college basketball this year and seemed to like it. He played in every game and gave a good account of himself. Next year should find him in a first-string position.

RAYMOND SNAVELY

Center

Ray is a Sophomore and saw frequent service. He is long and rangy and should develop into a good pivot man. During the year he showed considerable improvement in form.



HOLLAND, HINTON, WORSTELL, SCHOTT, SCHICK

BRADSHAW, CHEEK, SNAVELY, BOOTH, MILLER

VARSITY BASKETBALL

EDMOND BOOTH

Forward

For his first year in varsity competition "Guppie" certainly looked good. He plays an excellent floor game and usually held his man down in fine shape, while making some points for himself.

VERLE MILLER

Guard

"Abie" may be short, but he is a hard fighter and fast on the floor. He has given "all he had" during his two years of competition, and should hold a regular position next year.

BARNEY FRANCIS—High point man of the season for the Cardinal tracksters, proved himself Otterbein's most versatile athlete as he participated in the high and low hurdles, broad jump and high jump. His main event was the javelin throw in which he broke the existing record by a considerable margin.

FORREST SUPINGER—Discus, broad jump, shot put and the quarter-mile.

EDWIN BURTNER—Exact training brought its refund as Ed broke a 25-year-old record in the mile run during the regular season. In the Big Six meet at Oberlin he again eclipsed this record and won the mile race. From this he received All-Ohio and his teammates accorded him the honor of Honorary Captain.

GEORGE BRADSHAW—Pole vault, low hurdles, broad jump and mile relay.

ARTHUR BRUBAKER — High jump.

RICHARD WHITTINGTON — Pole vault, 220-yard dash and 100-yard dash.

1933 TENNIS SEASON

During recent years tennis has come to the front at Otterbein and the teams have been winning a fair share of the contests. This year a hard-working team of experienced men won three out of nine matches under the capable captaincy and leadership of John Shively who served as both coach and captain. Although four men were lost through graduation there still remain several lettermen to form the nucleus of the 1934 team.

The W. A. A. is the Women's Athletic Association, a National Organization. It provides recreation for all women, striving to promote high ideals of good fellowship, real sportsmanship and fair play.

Throughout the school year six sports are engaged in, namely, soccor, cageball, volley ball, basketball, baseball and tennis. A definite number of points is gained for participation in each of these and by a specified accumulation of points one can win membership into the organization—class numerals on "O", or G. L. C. (Girl's Leader Chore standing).

Our goal is not spectacular playing, on the part of a few people, but rather recreation and training for every girl in school.

FRESHMAN ATHLETICS

Coach Floyd Beelman has been freshman athletic coach for five years. Each fall a large number of freshman men report for football. They are provided with regulation equipment and given consistent practice and drilling in the fundamentals of the game. Many men who do not have the ability to play varsity football are thus given an opporunity to learn the game. Much credit is due the freshman football squad for they furnish the varsity with a scrimmage team all through the season, taking the knocks and winning no praise or admiration. It is from this group, of course, that Coach Edler "fills the shoes" vacated each year by the Seniors.

A Freshman-Sophomore game is a yearly feature of the freshman football program. The event occurred this season on November 29, and ended with a score of 6-6. However, the score is no indication of the abilities and possibilities of this year's squad. There are a number of men who should win regular berths on next season's varsity creation.

Lane, Perry, Anderson, Baker, and Freese distinguished themselves in the backfield, while Brown, Eastman, Gouin, Warner, and Pestal showed to good advantage on the line.

Coach Beelman was well pleased this year with his basketball squad. Loucks, Elliot, Davies, Lane, Potts, Brown, Rutter, and Anderson showed particular promise of making varsity material next year.

Although freshmen are not allowed to participate in any intercollegiate track contests under the Ohio Conference Athletic ruling, Coach Beelman, who is varsity track coach, trains the freshman thin-clads along with his regular men, thus affording the newcomers excellent experience.

The value of freshman athletics is often underestimated. Coach Beelman instils in his men those sterling principles of sportsmanship and team play which characterize Otterbein varsity teams. Both the coach and his men are deserving of praise, for they work as long and as hard as do the varsity squads.

The Women's Inter-Social Group Council was organized as a governing body for the eight sororities on Otterbein's campus and is composed of two members from each sorority. It attempts to keep a spirit of friendliness and cooperation among the groups. Rushing is the most important problem which the council faces.

BRANTFORD BENTON

It is not uncommon for an undergraduate of an English university to publish a book during his college days. For an undergraduate of an American college or university it is a rare event. At Otterbein such a thing is so rare, in fact, that "Sentimental Cynic" issued in March 1933 by Brantford Benton, class of '33, is perhaps the only volume so published in the history of the college.

The title is strikingly bizarre, yet there is something of both the sentimental and the cynical in the book. The books itself is a collection of entertaining essays and sketches characterized chiefly by an element of the mystical and the bizarre, and a search after ideal beauty, which mark Mr. Benton as a belated member of the Pre-raphaelites.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the student governing body of the college. It is composed of representatives from the four college classes.

The purpose of the organization is to enforce all rules relative to the interests of the student body. Working with the administration it sponsors Homecoming and May Day Programs.

OTTERBEIN MUSIC CLUB

The Otterbein Music Club was formed to broaden the musical culture of those students already interested and to promote musical interest throughout Otterbein College. The members are selected through the recommendation of the music faculty and the music club executive committee. The yearly program follows an outlined course of study, and at the regular meetings music is presented and topics of a musical nature are discussed. Membership in the club requires as a prerequisite freshman standing in the college and in the conservatory.

THETA ALPHA PHI

Otterbein maintains the Ohio Zeta Chapter of the national honorary dramatic fraternity, Theta Alpha Phi. Membership in it is the highest dramatic honor which can be achieved. "The Cue," the official publication of the fraternity, is a leading periodical of dramatic comment. The fraternity sponsors several worthwhile plays during the year and furnishes an incentive to histrionic ability. At least two, and perhaps three, productions are planned for the year 1933-34.

PHILALETHEA

Philalethea claims the distinction of being the oldest literary society for women on the campus, having been organized in 1852. Her members have constantly striven to uphold her lofty literary ideals. A varied program aids individual development along all lines but special emphasis is given to extemporaneous speaking and parliamentary law.

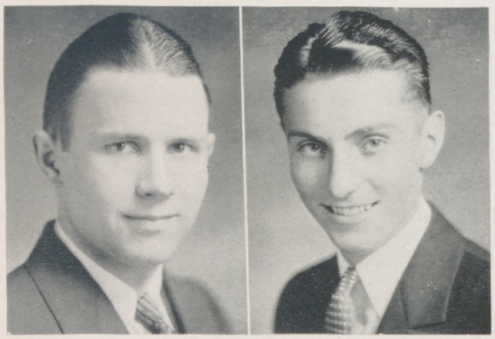
TAN AND CARDINAL



WILLIAM SPITLER, WOODROW PURDY.

The Tan and Cardinal staff of 1933-34 is the forty-fourth staff to publish Otterbein's newspaper. It was first published in 1890, being one of the first Ohio College newspapers.

This was the work of the Philophronean Literary Society, but they did their best to make it a college instead of a partisan affair. Thus was the Tan and Cardinal destined for twenty years, when the paper was published by both Philophronean and Philomathean Literary Societies.

Then, in order to make the paper more representative, all four literary societies edited it. In spite of the combined efforts, failure stared these groups in the face. The Tan and Cardinal was then placed on the incidental fees and the staff elected by the Publication Board, on basis of years of experience and merit.

This year the Tan and Cardinal adopted a vigorous editorial policy and became a potent factor in campus affairs. The students maintained unusual interest in the paper, expressing their views in the column "The Morning Mail."

Special editions during the year were the Fall Homecoming edition, the Basketball edition for Winter Homecoming, and the May Day edition. All these editions served as official programs on these special days.

The paper successfully negotiated the year of financial stress. Although the size of the paper was reduced to five columns, publication was maintained on regular schedule throughout the year. In addition, the Tan and Cardinal debt was reduced. This was accomplished through the constant and careful economy on the part of the business manager.

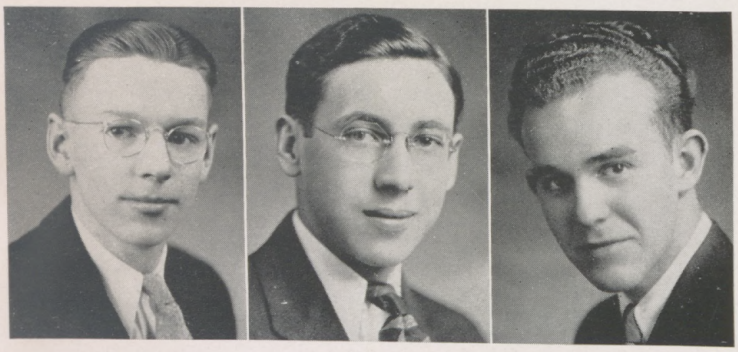
THE 1934 SIBYL



ROBERT AIRHART VERLE A. MILLER KENNETH BARTON

The joy of creation is supreme. For more than a year we have worked and planned and dreamed. A beautiful campus scene recorded here and there, ideas evolved along the way, reams of photography, then days and nights of hard work. Thus the 1934 SIBYL has come into being.

We feel that it is a part of ourselves. We do not claim perfection, but we leave our work with the consciousness of having done our best. May our book be a stepping stone to greater books to come.

We are well aware of the financial chaos on every hand, and we have tried to give to you a SIBYL in keeping with your means.

Sublimation

The moon ever helps a worthy cause,
With it love ne'er hath no flaws,
It laughs, it grins, it merrily gloats
As o'er the lover's lips it floats.

The graveyard is a suitable place
To gaze on the moon's bright shining face,
And front porch swings too, have their share
In focusing the rays on the close-linked pair.

Athletic fields have their place for teams,
But alas—there too we find moonbeams,
Anti-Saloon Leagues may be lacking in beer
But of moonshine there is plenty—or so I hear.

Oh where in libraries can the moon be found,
In the upstairs or down by the ground?
The four mile square is a spot much used,
Here too, two souls into one are fused.

The alumni gym has a neat little cove
Where into one's gaze the moonbeams rove,
The moon shines bright down at Alum Creek,
But that is too far for my footsteps to seek.

The Science Building steps are nigh at hand,
But they are too close to the strains of the band,
The Association Building is a spot much sought,
But here the moon's rays all come to naught.

The moon's benediction over all is cast,
Present and future as well as the past,
For we are all children of its wondrous lustre
And love in our hearts it doth surely muster.

Before this book is completed, we feel that we should attempt in some measure to express our appreciation to those business firms who have favored us with advertisements. The expense of publishing a College Annual is great—too great to be borne by the students alone. In order to meet this expense the management of an Annual must depend on the income from advertisements. These advertisements are furnished by establishments which are interested in the welfare of the College. That they may profit from the favorable publicity is obvious. However, the fact remains that it is their wholesome interest in the College and its students which prompts them to advertise in this Annual. To help us to repay these firms, the Sibyl Management urges you to patronize our advertisers.

HONORING PRESIDENT W. G. CLIPPINGER FOR 25 YEARS OF EFFICIENT SERVICE

January 31, 1934.

Mr. Philip Linne
The Canton Engraving and Electrotype Co.,
410 3rd St. S.E.,
Canton, Ohio.

Dear Phil:

The 1934 Sibyl is rapidly nearing completion. At present we are working on the advertising section which composes the closing pages of the book. We are ready for the copy for your full page ad. Please send it to us at your earliest convenience.

Since this is probably the last request which we will make of you, we wish to take this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation of the invaluable service which you have rendered to us in the building of our annual. For us there is only one engraver - The Canton Engraving and Electrotype Company.

Not once all year have we called upon you for service, help on ideas, or rush - work that you did not respond promptly and efficiently.

You may rest assured that we will recommend you most highly to the staff of the 1935 Sibyl.

Very sincerely yours,
Robert E. Airhart
Editor-in-Chief
Verle A. Miller
Business Manager.

And thanks to you, too, Miller and Airhart, for your fine cooperation and the smooth and efficient way you've handled your job. Yours is our tenth consecutive Sibyl and we take pride in the approval you and all your predecessors have always expressed for our efforts.

PHILOSOPHY

Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control—these three alone lead life to sovereign power.—Tennyson.

No man is really beaten until he himself admits it.

A committee of five usually consists of the man who does the work, three others to pat him on the back, and one who brings in the minority report.

He is never alone who is in the company of noble thoughts.

If you think you are too small to do big things, do small things in a big way.

A long face shortens life, love and happiness.

If you see good in everybody, nearly everybody will see good in you.

Good luck is sometimes only another name for common sense.

REMEMBER THIS: That very little is needed to make a happy life.—Marcus Aurelius.

The wealth of mankind is the wisdom they leave.

"All that I am—or ever hope to be—I owe to *SPALDING Athletic Equipment."

If I should die tonight
And you should come to my cold corpse and kneel,
Clasping my bier to show the grief you feel;
I say, if I should die tonight,
And you should come to me there and then
Just even hint at paying me that ten,
I might arise the while—
But I'd drop dead again.

Dwight B.: "I want to see my girl the worst way."

Sporck: "Call on her early in the morning."

CHARMED LIFE

"You say you served in France?" said the restaurant manager, as he sampled the new cook's first soup.

"Yes, sir. Officers' cook for two years and wounded twice."

"You're lucky, man. It's a wonder they didn't kill you."

"She paints her eyebrows."

"Well, she has to draw the line somewhere."
