B. T. Hendricks 8 P.M.

NOV. 11, 1967

The vocabulary of football has changed completely since the rainy day in November, 1926, when I played my last game and turned in my uniform. Not once, during my four years of college football, did I run from a shotgun formation, or catch a button-hook pass, or red-dog an opposing quarterback, or use a belly series. But we had a wonderful "Statue of Liberty" play that gained long yardage occasionally, and a double end around dazzler that won a game for us in 1925, and a "Lonesome George" pass play that was good for 95 yards in a crucial contest.

Times do change, but the spirit of football as it is played on the small college campus endures over the years. With us it is still a game, not a profession. We don't hang the coach in effigy after we lose, nor do we present him with a Thunderbird convertible after we win. Our players take courses and pass examinations, not because they have to in order to play, but because that is what they came here to do. Football is the extra-curricular activity. That's why, in our stadium, it is still fun to play, and exciting to watch. We hope that you enjoy it.

The Alumni Association Pledges Its Support

Fighting football teams are traditional at Otterbein. The Alumni are looking forward to your fine example of this custom. The road may be "long and rough", however, we are confident you possess that "uphill heart". Keep in there, battling all the way, performing to your potential and we will share in the sweet taste of victory.

Robert C. Barr, '50
President, Alumni Ass'n.

There are many Alumni and friends who devote time, money and effort through the "O" Club and the Alumni Office to provide the college with the best possible representation. Where you play, where we sit, what you wear and who you are, in some measure, are examples of this devotion.

R. T. Pflieger, '48
Alumni Director

A private college such as ours has many ball carriers. For this large number we will be ever grateful. Others who may want to put a hand on the pigskin, test tube or textbook, the Alumni Office stands ready to assist you in this desire to help make a better Otterbein.
