Thomas J. Kerr, IV ends his 13-year term as President of Otterbein College on June 30. TOWERS takes a look at the Kerr years on pages 4-7.

Message from the President

Dear Alumni and Friends:

Otterbein moves ahead. This is a time of change. It is a time of exciting opportunity!

I prepare to leave the Otterbein Presidency with a sense of accomplishment and with deep love for the College. Donna and I look back at 21 rich and rewarding years — eight teaching and 13 in the presidency. The presidential years were consuming and challenging. New programs included Continuing and Cooperative Education, Integrative Studies, Nursing, Journalism, Computer Science, Equine Science, the B.F.A. in Theatre and Honors. New buildings include the Rike Center, the scene shop added to Cowan Hall, the Battelle Fine Arts Center, major renovation in Towers Hall, and other physical plant improvements.

We were continually campaigning through the Venture Into Opportunity, the Decision for the Arts and now the campaign for endowment, capital improvements and scholarships. These were good years. We "dreamed the impossible dream" with many of you, and you helped make much of it come true. People — students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends with the Otterbein commitment — have always made Otterbein special.

The present continues stimulating and productive. The Otterbein B.S. in Nursing program received full National League of Nursing accreditation last fall. A new long range plan is in preparation. A committee prepares for a North Central Association ten year accreditation visit in 1985. We honored our first donor of an endowed chair in over 80 years. We fielded our first soccer team. We raised over $1.3 million. Our new endowment-capital campaign moved forward with nearly $4 million dollars in pledges and gifts. The scholarship and class gift programs advance.

Otterbein has an even greater future because of you. A new president will need your support for dynamic leadership. I know you will respond as you have so generously to my leadership. We all need to help make Otterbein great.

With deep appreciation and affection,

Thomas J. Kerr, IV
President

BSN Nursing Program Receives Full Accreditation

The Grant-Otterbein Nursing Program has received full accreditation for its bachelor of science in nursing (BSN) degree program.

Accreditation was granted by the National League of Nursing for an eight-year period.

According to Dr. Judy Strayer, chairperson of the nursing program, "It's difficult to get accredited on the first try for our type of program, one which grants bachelor of science degrees to registered nurses."

The Grant-Otterbein Nursing Program prepared a comprehensive self-study in preparation for the site visit in October by members of the accrediting body. During their four-day visit, the National League of Nursing team met with administrators, faculty and students and reviewed records, according to Dr. Strayer.

Nursing faculty members Diane Jedlicka and Marianne Lee co-chaired the self-study committee which was composed of faculty members Kathy Casandra, Carol Engle, Sara Mercer-Sells, Deborah Mulquin, Judy Strayer and Gerry Whinnery.

The accrediting committee looked at five basic areas: administration, students, faculty, curriculum, and resources, facilities and services.

"Curriculum is given the highest priority," Dr. Strayer said. "It is important that the nursing courses are well-integrated with the liberal arts courses."

Dr. Strayer also pointed out that accreditation requires that the curriculum areas of maternal/child, community health, medical/surgical, and psychiatric nursing must be taught by faculty members with a minimum of a master's degree. "All our nursing faculty have advanced degrees," she said.

Accreditation will be of definite benefit to students enrolled in the Grant-Otterbein Nursing Program, according to Dr. Strayer. "Being in an accredited program is certainly an advantage for students entering graduate schools," she said. "Almost half of Otterbein's BSN students go on for advanced degrees."

Otterbein's bachelor of science in nursing program began in 1980, graduating its first class in 1982. Cooperative efforts between Grant Hospital and Otterbein College date back to 1971 when the hospital contracted with Otterbein for courses to be taught students enrolled in Grant's School of Nursing, a three-year diploma program.

In 1980, Grant closed its nursing school and Otterbein established a Department of Nursing comprising both an associate degree program as well as a bachelor degree program designed specifically for people who are already registered nurses.

Students in the Grant-Otterbein Nursing Program practice clinical skills under the watchful eyes of their instructor.

Second Annual English Festival Set

Students and teachers from 47 Central Ohio high schools have been invited to participate in the second annual Otterbein College English Festival on April 5.

Because of positive reaction to last year's festival, the number of participants has been increased from 300 last year to 500 this year. "The teachers and students attending last year were extremely supportive and enthusiastic," said Dr. Alison Prindle, associate professor of English and co-chairperson of the event along with Dr. James Bailey, chairperson of the English Department.

Stephanie Tolan, a critically acclaimed author of young people's fiction, will be the guest speaker at the festival, which is designed to strengthen reading enjoyment and writing skills. Her book, No Safe Harbors, is one of six chosen by the festival committee to be read by the participants on their own without classroom instruction before festival day. The books are chosen for their high literary quality as well as for their interest and appeal to high school students.

The 1984 festival booklist includes, besides Ms. Tolan's book, That Was Then, This Is Now by S. E. Hinton, The Dispossessed by Ursula LeGuin, Never Cry Wolf by Farley Mowat, Hoops by Walter Dean Myers and I'll Always Remember You . . . Maybe by Stella Pavsner.

Among the activities offered on festival day will be imaginative and analytical essay contests, group writing labs, group writing games, lectures by faculty members, and a game-type question session. Participants will also have the opportunity to meet with Otterbein students involved with the College's newspaper, literary magazine, radio and television stations, debate society and theatre.

The student writing competitions will be judged by the Otterbein English faculty, and by area teachers, administrators and qualified parents. Prizes will be awarded at the end of the day.

Giving Club Members Honored March 3

Members of the top three donor clubs of the College were recognized March 3 at a special dinner held at the Columbus Sheraton Inn-North. Members of the President's, Towers and Cardinal giving clubs were thanked for their contributions to Otterbein during 1983 and the new members of the President's and Towers Clubs were introduced and honored. Assisting with the award presentations were President Thomas J. Kerr, IV, Wilbur Morrison, chairman of the Development Board, and Dr. Edwin Roush, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Membership in the clubs is based on annual giving to Otterbein. Matching gifts from corporations and foundations are included in determining membership status. Memberships are renewable each year.

Through the clubs, the College expresses its gratitude to leadership donors. The privileges for the members for each club are listed below.

Chester Turner Retires After 18 Years at Otterbein

The Rev. Chester R. Turner, who has been director of church relations at Otterbein since 1966, retired in December. At their October meeting, the College trustees granted Mr. Turner emeritus status in recognition of his 18 years of service, which included, in addition to liaison work with the church constituency, a term as director of alumni relations and a great deal of work as a member of the development staff. For the past several years he concentrated much of his time on organizing and building up the endowed scholarship program.

Last June, the Otterbein Alumni Association honored Mr. Turner for his service to the College and presented him with an award during its annual meeting.

Zeta Phi Chapter Reinstated

Zeta Phi Fraternity's charter, which was lost in 1980, was reinstated by the College Board of Trustees on October 29, 1983.

To be reinstated, Zeta Phi had to satisfy numerous conditions outlined by the college, some of which were: put the fraternity house back in good, safe, livable condition; create an interest group of underclassmen; wait at least one year before being allowed to issue a request for reinstatement, and produce a new constitution written by the active chapter acceptable to the College.

Before the interest group could be formed, the fraternity house had to be renovated. The house had not had a major renovation since 1956; in addition, the pipes had frozen and the resulting damage was extensive. Although Turner received bachelor's and master's degrees from United Seminary. In 1949 he was assigned to the Michigan Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church where he served 16 years—eight as a pastor and eight as a fundraiser. At the time he accepted the position at Otterbein, he was Centennial Director of the Flat Rock Children's Home.

Chet and his wife (Margaret Biehn '43) have been enthusiastic supporters of the College and generous contributors to all its fundraising campaigns. Margaret continues to teach art in the Westerville City Schools, and Chet is offering his services as a consultant to the College on a limited basis. Both enjoy spending time at their second home near Chautauqua, N.Y., and with their children, JoAnn Turner Cooper '72 and J. Robert Turner '73, and their grandson.

Alumni Give Property to College

A doctor, a public servant, an educator and a friend to Otterbein — Dr. Howard A. Sporck '34 is all of these.

After his graduation from Otterbein, Dr. Sporck went on to study medicine at the College of Osteopathic Medicine in Des Moines, Iowa. He completed an internship and residency in Seattle before settling in Wellsburg, W. Va., with his wife (Edna Burdge '34) to begin his medical practice in 1942.

As his practice grew, the Sporcks planned a building which would fulfill the requirements of both a medical office and a hospital facility. In 1947, the Wellsburg Eye and Ear Hospital was constructed.

Dr. Sporck also became involved with the Brooke County, W. Va., Board of Education, serving on the board for 24 years including three terms as the board's president. During his tenure, the schools experienced a 40% increase in enrollment as well as many improvements in the instructional programs and the completion of a number of major construction projects.

Now the director and senior health officer of the Brooke County Health Department, Dr. Sporck also serves as the Brooke County medical examiner, the physician director of the Brooke County Emergency Services, and continues to advise the school board.

The Wellsburg Eye and Ear Hospital remained occupied until 1981. At that time, as national and state regulations increased and new facilities became available in the area, it became apparent that further operation of the medical care center would be difficult.

The Sporcks were aware that Otterbein's financial planning program made provisions for gifts of real estate. As evidence of their desire to support the College, they donated the Wellsburg Eye and Ear Hospital to Otterbein.

Through their generosity, Howard and Edna Sporck's investment in their future, made in 1947, will now help insure the future of academic excellence at Otterbein.

Reflections on the Kerr

by Melinda Sadar

When Thomas J. Kerr, IV, was installed as president of Otterbein College on Oct. 28, 1971 he had some dreams.

In his inaugural address, "Venture Into Opportunity," the 37-year old president quoted Bobby Kennedy, saying "We must 'dream things that never were and say, why not.'"

Thirteen years later, as President Kerr prepares to leave office, one can look back on that address and count the dreams come true.

"I dream of co-curricular and curricular programs which combine both theoretical study and action . . . and utilize the rich diversity of experiences available in urban life . . ."

The last 13 years have seen the establishment of Otterbein's cooperative education program through which students alternate periods of on-campus study with periods of paid employment in a job related to their major field of study. It has been a period of growth for the college's internship program in which academic credit is granted for on-the-job experience.

Dr. Kerr and his wife, Donna, ride in a Homecoming parade. Both have taken an active role in the College's co-curricular events.

Thomas J. Kerr, IV enters his new office on the first day of his presidency, July 1, 1971.

"I dream of involving students in common educational ventures with people of varying ages, professions and life styles . . ."

The Continuing Education Program was established in 1975 and has grown from 40 to 500 students enrolled in part-time study at Otterbein either towards a college degree or for personal enrichment.

"I envision more cooperative relations with other institutions enriching our programs and enhancing our efficiency . . ."

Otterbein's link-up with Battelle Memorial Institute's mainframe computer has allowed tremendous growth in the College's computer science program. The relationship with Grant Hospital in downtown Columbus has resulted in the establishment of the Grant Otterbein Nursing Program through which Otterbein now offers associate and bachelor's degrees in nursing. Grant Hospital also maintains the student health service.

The Westerville cable television company uses Otterbein's facilities for production. The University of Dayton offers an M.B.A. program on the Otterbein campus for Columbus area residents interested in pursuing the degree on a part-time basis. A master of education degree program through Ashland College is also offered at Otterbein. In addition, relations with other area institutions of higher learning have been strengthened through active membership in such organizations as the Higher Education Council of Columbus.

"I dream of breaking down the barriers of specialization with increased interdisciplinary study . . ."

Otterbein's program of common courses has grown and matured into the Department of Integrative Studies, a major force on campus. Integrative Studies courses are directed toward the common theme, "human nature," and attempt to integrate perspectives from a variety of academic disciplines in the arts, the natural and social sciences, literature, religion and philosophy.

"We need a variety of campus living patterns from traditional dorms to imaginative new ones designed to facilitate greater communication . . ."

A unique pattern was established in Otterbein's dormitories whereby students have specific areas for sleeping and study and other areas for socializing. The combination of a sleep-study room and a social room is an imaginative way of dealing with changing patterns in traditional facilities. During Dr. Kerr's tenure, sororities were given the opportunity to have their own houses.

"I dream of teaching centers adaptable to audio-visual and computer use as well as traditional teaching techniques . . ."

The Learning Resource Center in Courtright Memorial Library has grown and expanded its facilities. Otter-bein's fully-equipped Computer Center was constructed in the former library area of Towers Hall.

“ . . . and for an art-music-theatre complex serving the college, facilitating involvement in the central Ohio cultural life . . . ”

The old Alumni Gymnasium was totally remodelled in 1976 to become the Battelle Fine Arts Center with spacious studios for arts, crafts, music and dance, an auditorium, and an art gallery. A scene shop was built onto the back of Cowan hall in 1982 allowing for more elaborate sets for Otterbein College Theatre. The concept of a Center for the Arts was developed, encompassing art, music, theatre and dance, and the growing importance of Otterbein College Theatre was recognized with the formation of the Department of Theatre and Dance.

Added to these impressive achievements is the completion during Dr. Kerr's tenure of two very successful capital campaigns which helped raise over $5 million. Otterbein's Endowed Scholarship Program has grown to include 73 endowed scholarships, each representing over $10,000 in endowments to the college. And, in 1983, a $250,000 gift from Cleveland industrialist John A. Patton was used to endow the first chair at Otterbein in sixty years — the John A. Patton Chair of Computer Science. Overall, Otterbein's endowment has grown from $2.9 to $6.9 million.

A graduate of Cornell University, Dr. Kerr received a master's degree in history from the University of Buffalo in 1959 and a doctorate in social science from Syracuse University in 1965. He joined the Otterbein faculty in 1963 as an assistant professor of history. Dr. Kerr and his wife Donna Lawton Kerr, a certificated tutor with the Columbus Public Schools Learning Disabilities Program, have three children. Thomas is a U.S. Army sergeant stationed in Germany; Cheri is a senior at the U.S. Naval Academy, and Kathi is a freshman at the University of Tennessee.

As Dr. Kerr completes his 21st year at Otterbein College, he states “I still have dreams for Otterbein. In the coming years the resource base of the college must be strengthened through a significant growth in the endowment. There is a need for more student scholarships and an improvement in faculty-staff salaries.

“This dream is already on its way to becoming a reality as we prepare to launch a $14 million capital campaign. The college already has pledges and gifts of $4 million towards that campaign.”

An editorial in The Columbus Dispatch at the time of Dr. Kerr's resignation announcement stated “Thomas J. Kerr, IV, president of Otterbein College, will end his 13-year tenure in June on a high note.

“At a time when many small private colleges are in serious trouble, Kerr leaves the Westerville institution with an increased enrollment, substantially greater endowment support, new buildings completed, and a number of new programs in place geared to changing educational needs.

“That is an impressive record. In his unexpected resignation, the 50-year-old, Columbus born educator said he is seeking new horizons in the area of college administration he enjoyed most — fundraising.

“We wish him success in a new career. We offer our appreciation and thanks for his outstanding and forward-looking service to a valued central Ohio institution.”
(reprinted courtesy of The Columbus Dispatch)

Among the bidding projects completed during Dr. Kerr's term of office was the Rike Physical Education and Recreation Center. Here, he and E.N. Funkhouser Jr., chairman of the Board of Trustees, place the building's cornerstone on June 1, 1974.

Throughout her husband's presidency, Donna Kerr has taken an active and supportive role as a gracious hostess and enthusiastic volunteer for Otterbein College.

Dr. Kerr leads the academic procession to Cowan Hall on September 21, 1983, for the installation of the John A. Patton Chair in Computer Science.

As the College's highest administrator, Dr. Kerr often represented Otterbein in community affairs and spoke for it to the media. On this occasion in 1983 a local television station films as he accepts a check from McDonald's Restaurants on behalf of the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges.

Missionaries' Memorabilia Basis

by Earl Hassenpflug

The unique beauty of African art and artifacts is amply demonstrated by a recent gift to Otterbein College's African art collection.

The donor, Dr. Frederick R. Judy, was born in Sierra Leone, West Africa, of missionary parents. A substantial portion of Otterbein's current collection which is representative of the sculpture producing people of West Africa was built upon a turn of the century ethnographic collection.

Two such missionaries were Clayton Judy and Wallin Riebel. After their graduation from Otterbein in 1903, the two men were invited by a college classmate, Joseph Hanibal Caulker, to go to his home country of Sierra Leone as Christian missionaries. They were accompanied by Clayton's wife and Wallin's sister, Iva Jean Riebel Judy '05, on the steamer trip to Africa by way of Liverpool, England.

Much has been written about missionary attitudes toward African institutions. Often that which was distinctly African was rejected. It is not difficult to understand, for example, that images which served magic or religious purposes were regarded as idols.

But the story of Clayton Judy is one of mutual respect between him and the Sierra Leonians whom he served. When his son, Dr. Frederick Judy, returned to Sierra Leone in 1972 he met "a very black family which had taken the surname 'Judy' as a sign of respect for his father, Clayton Judy."

Evidence of mutual respect centers in the story of the amulet given to Frederick Judy at his birth. The amulet consists of a tiger's tooth, two hawk claws, and the horn of a small antelope. Dr. Judy reports that: "My father told me it was given to me because I was a chief's son." The fact that Clayton Judy kept the amulet for his son, who retains it to this day, is a clear indication, not that Clayton Judy believed in magic, but that he had a respect for those who did.

The Otterbein College collection contains a number of amulets accompanied by notes indicating that the charms were received by missionaries as a token that old beliefs were being abandoned in favor of Christianity.

Clayton Judy and Wallin Riebel especially valued the basketwork and weaving of the people of Sierra Leone. Both men shipped back baskets, blankets, fiber hammocks, and each the robe of a local chief. Riebel's trunk full of artifacts was a 1971 gift to the College by his daughter, Lib Mary Reif.

Clayton Judy's son also admired the basketwork. A note sent by Dr. Judy with the artifacts given to the College notes that the "tightly fitted lids (are) held in place by means of a second row of wrapped reed. This is a special feature of Mende work." He also points out the fineness of the wrapping at the central starting area on the bottom of the basket which is not found in contemporary Sierra Leone baskets.

The ten baskets of this type now in the Otterbein College collection vary in size and in the design on them. Wallin Riebel collected four small baskets varying in diameter from 4½ to 6½ inches. Clayton Judy's collection includes six baskets varying in size from

of African Art Collection

These examples of West African basketwork illustrate the intricate patterns and meticulous detailing of the Mende artisans.

16½ to 20 inches in diameter.

The chief's robes, like the blankets, were woven in long narrow strips on small portable looms and later stitched together. Cut much like a poncho, the robes are splendid in their alternation of indigo, light blue and white stripes. A particularly fine basket from the Riebel collection is woven with such precision that the horizontal stripes on the narrow woven strips match perfectly in the assembled fabric.

When he returned to the States, Clayton Judy brought back many items of interest. Among these are numerous braids of twisted palm leaf fibers. Dr. Frederick Judy notes that his father had "hoped that (the fiber bundles) would lead someone to discover a way to salvage this uniquely strong Sierra Leonian resource."

Included in the Judy gift to Otterbein is a "sehqura." This gourd rattle is descriptively referred to as a "shake-shake." The rhythms can be varied in loudness and "terminated sharply and completely by tightening the pigtail of cotton strings on which fragments of oil palm nut shells are strung." The instrument was widely used by Mende women.

Also very impressive is a mask of the Bundu Society, a women's secret society. Such masks were worn by officials of the society in some of their relationships with the young initiates who were to become educated in the ways of Mende women. This mask is complete with a portion of the raffia skirt with which the figure would have been covered. The mask's design depicts a characteristic Mende hair style and features rings around the broad neck indicative of healthy plumpness.

As the Otterbein collection of African art grows, there is increased concern for intercultural education on the part of the Otterbein faculty. The concern for others, out of which the missionary effort developed, and through which our African collection got its start, is sure to manifest itself in new ways in the years ahead.

Earl Hassenpflug, chairperson of the Department of Visual Arts, has taught art at Otterbein since 1955. An award-winning artist whose drawings are in the permanent collections of Ohio State University, Capital University and the Columbus Museum of Art, Mr. Hassenpflug holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Ohio State. He has particular interest in and knowledge of African art.

This is one of a continuing series of articles written for TOWERS by Otterbein faculty members.

Nursing Career: Goal Within Reach

By Melinda Sadar

Becoming a nurse is not just the dream of little girls.

Several determined adult women are currently working towards their associate degrees in nursing through the Otterbein College Continuing Education Program.

Through a cooperative effort with Grant Hospital in Columbus, Otterbein offers both associate degree and bachelor's degree programs in nursing. The two-year lower division curriculum leads to the associate of science in nursing (ASN) degree.

Among the 20 men and women enrolled in the Grant-Otterbein ASN program are Lois Crosby, a widow, and a mother and daughter: Sylvia Surret and Sandy Box.

Lois Cosby began her nursing training in 1947 at Columbus' old White Cross Hospital but quit halfway through to get married. "Back then they would not let nursing students be married," she explained.

During her 32-year marriage, Lois and her husband raised three children and she did some volunteer work. Two years ago, when her husband died suddenly, Lois moved back to Columbus from Chicago.

"I went to a widows' meeting but I didn't like it. Then I spent a month sitting around and that was enough," she said. "My husband and I had talked about my going back to school so that's what I did!"

Dr. Barbara Chapman, then head of the Grant-Otterbein Nursing Program, was extremely encouraging and Lois began her studies with Otterbein's popular "Emerging Woman" course which serves as a freshman English credit.

"Since then I haven't had time to sit around feeling sorry for myself," said Lois, admitting that the coursework and studying are sometimes difficult.

"I almost met my Waterloo with chemistry," she laughed. "Fortunately, since I'm not working, I have all the time in the world to study and I'm getting really good grades. This is the first goal that I've ever had just for myself and I am so proud that I'm in the program."

Also back at the books in preparation for their nursing degrees are Sylvia Surret and her daughter Sandy Box, both residents of Westerville.

"It was Sandy's idea to try the nursing program," said Sylvia. "She was working as a secretary and wanted to work more with people. She also felt I needed to do something."

Sandy's investigation into the Grant-Otterbein Nursing program proved promising and both women received a great deal of encouragement from Greg Longacre, Otterbein's director of continuing education. Now, after a year in the program, the nursing faculty continues the encouragement.

"The instructors are some of the finest I've ever had," said Sylvia. Her daughter agrees, pointing out that the personal attention received from the faculty is a big help. "That's why I like a small college," said Sandy.

The amount of studying required surprised Sylvia. "I held my breath all last year," she said. "There are a lot of relatives I haven't told yet. I want to be sure I can make it. But my confidence is growing."

Sandy admits to being somewhat of a professional student. "I'm very well-disciplined in my study habits. I've gotten everything else out of the way so I can really concentrate." Both mother and daughter praise their understanding husbands.

All three women are impressed with the scope of the program and are confident that they are being well-prepared for eventual hospital jobs. Longacre shares this confidence. "We continually hear from employers that they have found Otterbein's training to be excellent in the hospital setting. Our graduates fit into their new jobs very quickly. The program is a good balance between nursing theory and clinical skills."

Adults who already are registered nurses can do all the coursework necessary for a bachelor's degree in nursing during the evening at Otterbein. Longacre pointed out that it is also possible to receive degrees in computer science, psychology, business administration, accounting and chemistry through evening courses.

Continuing education students can also register for any of Otterbein's regularly scheduled classes in more than 30 fields of study.

Adult students interested in more information on Otterbein's Grant Otterbein Nursing Program or in any other field of study can contact the Otterbein Office of Continuing Education, 890-3000, ext. 1356.

1983 Fundraising Report

We Did It Again!

$1,000,000 plus!

For the sixth consecutive year the Otterbein Family lifted the College over the million dollar mark in total giving. 1983—highlighted by the Pacesetters Challenge and the John A. Patton Chair for Computer Science—continued the significant growth in the development program of Otterbein College. Gifts of more than $1.3 million dollars were received by the College, marking the eighth time in the last eleven years total giving exceeded one million dollars. The first million dollar year was 1973.

Even more significant than the dollar figure is the fact that there were 4,930 donors, 470 more than ever before and exceeding by 11.6% the previous record of 4460 donors set in 1980.

Unrestricted gifts to the Otterbein Fund totaled $560,306. Endowed gifts reached $453,337 and Decision for the Arts payments reached 99% of pledges completed. Restricted and unrestricted gifts to meet current operating costs exceeded $789,000.

The Pacesetters Challenge served as catalyst for 1983's million-plus year. The alumni pacesetters gave more than $60,000 to the challenge and the Otterbein Family responded ably to match them. There were 177 new gifts from new donors and, 387 previous donors made qualifying increases in their giving.

Volunteers again proved essential to the success of the development program. Callers phoned in the spring and fall; reunion committees met to discuss class projects; and class agents wrote to classmates encouraging support of the Otterbein Fund.

Noteworthy achievements during 1983 included:

- 4930 individuals made gifts to Otterbein College—the most ever in one year.
- The John A. Patton Chair for Computer Science was established.
- The $60,000 Pacesetters Challenge met with outstanding response.
- The $560,306 given in unrestricted cash and securities ranked second only to 1982.
- The President's Club grew 2.7% to a record 148 members.
- The Towers Club grew 2.5% to a record 78 members.
- The Cardinal Club grew 9.3% to a record 107 members.
- The Centurions Club grew to a record 821 members.
- Total club membership increased 4% to a record 1154 members.

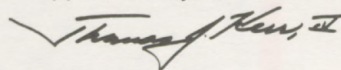

Dear Donors:

Thanks! Otterbein continues to move forward because of you. Your gift does make a difference. This Honor Roll reflects pride and distinction. You have demonstrated pride in Otterbein by your commitment. You deserve recognition because of the distinctive act of helping students achieve educational opportunity.

In 1983 you helped Otterbein raise $1,328,900. This is our sixth consecutive year over one million dollars! You helped keep the pace! You met the Alumni Challenge! Over four hundred more of you gave in 1983 than 1982. Each gift club increased in membership. Congratulations!

Otterbein continues to build for the future. We can only build a better future with your help. The class gift program, the new campaign emphasizing endowment, capital needs and the annual fund and the scholarship program all merit your support. Help Otterbein students today and tomorrow. Help Otterbein build for the 21st Century!

Appreciatively,

Thomas J. Kerr, IV
President

History and Creation of Scholarships

In 1898 Mr. J. Wesley Welshans, parent of an Otterbein student, wrote: "It is hoped that this (gift) may be increased, and that many others of like character may be established." With a gift of $1,000 to the endowment fund he established the George E. Welshans Memorial Scholarship in memory of his son George, Class of 1897. Thus, an Otterbein tradition was born.

Throughout the 20th century, Otterbein College's scholarship program has seen a dedication on the part of individuals who have had a deep sense of gratitude or appreciation for the College. Each donor has had a desire to help students prepare for life through an Otterbein education.

During 1983-84 more than 180 students benefited from endowed scholarships. Seventy-five funds with principals ranging from $10,000 to more than $260,000 produce the income to help these students.

And a wide range of student's talents and abilities are recognized through endowed scholarships. Each academic department grants one or more awards. Fifty scholarships have their roots in Otterbein's church heritage.

You may want to consider creating an endowed scholarship, joining more than 200 other persons who have shared with Otterbein the joy of helping students. Scholarships can be established in memory of a family member, for a specific academic area or geographic location.

Each scholarship with $10,000 or more principal perpetuates the name and memory of a person or family, and assures that future generations of outstanding Otterbein students will benefit from an Otterbein education. Scholarships can be funded through cash, securities, real estate, life insurance, or through a bequest. Pledges which can be paid over several years are also encouraged.

If you would like more information about how to establish an endowed scholarship, please write or call:

Florida Alumni Gather in December, October

Three alumni gatherings in Florida in early December offered the opportunity for over fifty persons to renew friendships and catch up on news from Otterbein.

Charles '29 and Sue Mumma, together with Melvin '36 and Sally Roby '35 Moody hosted a delightful Saturday lunch at the Cape Coral United Methodist Church on Dec. 3. Attending were Paul '34 and Blanche Maibach, Milton '51 and June Lang, Royden and Ruth Morrison '37 Johnson, Chuck '60 and Heather Coffman, Jerry and Naomi Mason '65 Black and Hal Martin '33.

The annual brunch at Zinn's Restaurant in Sarasota took place the next day. Former College staff who attended were Lee H '55 and Betty Shackson and Wade H '55 and Helen Leichty '33 Miller. Others included Ed '40 and Dorothy Newton, Scott '40 and Jean Cook '40 Hammond, Gene H '53 and Donna Sniff '55 Sitton, Dick and Janet Scanland '42 Ramsey, Royden and Ruth Morrison '37 Johnson, Dick '27 and Lucille James, and Don "Buck" Phillips '26.

Preceding the basketball game between Otterbein and Eckerd College on Dec. 5 several alumni attended a supper reception on the Eckerd campus: Bill Benninghofen ('84, he hopes!), Brad Odea '83, Linda Wood '82, Hal and Leah Roop '38 Underwood, Don '48 and Mary Anne Augspurger '48 McCualsky, Chuck Coffman '60,

"Moe" '48 and Jan Agler, Wade H '55 and Helen Leichty '33 Miller, Dick and Janet Scanland '42 Ramsey. "Bud" '53 Yoest, Otterbein athletic director, and Steve Locker, the College's new soccer coach, also participated, along with Otterbein friends Ralph Geese and Ted Locker.

October Get-togethers

On Saturday, October 15, 1983 Frank Fite, former Vice President for Development and Public Relations, and Loretta Patterson and Fran Schreiber of the development staff flew to Ft. Lauderdale and drove to the home of Earl '57 and Diane Renollett Cline '56, where Byron E. "Spud" Harter '34, Perry Wysong '39 (loyally dressed in tan and cardinal), Thelma Zellner '56 and Geneva Bushey Steiner '25, were all gathered. They spent an enjoyable afternoon by the water at the Cline home discussing politics (Diane's and Byron's) and Homecoming Weekend which was taking place in Westerville. Congratulations to Diane and Earl—their daughter, Brenda, was married the following week.

Sunday morning they drove to Boynton Beach for lunch and a visit with Harold Hetzler '26. Harold, a very busy retiree, still continues to be very active in his church. In the afternoon they continued on to West Palm Beach where John '34 and Donna Patton had arranged a lovely dinner. Joining the group for dinner were Oma Moomaw Bradley '26, her sister Doris Moomaw Hinton '45, Lewis Carlock '41 and his wife, Margaret. Everyone appreciated the efforts of John and Donna to get the group together.

Since Joe Imar '32, was unable to join the group for dinner they met him at Denny's for breakfast the following morning. We are sorry to report that Joe's wife, Marge, passed away during the summer. That afternoon they drove to Melbourne for a delightful lunch with Margaret Priest Miller '35, Neva Priest Boyles '21, Elmer Boyles '16 and Viola Priest Menke '26, where they reminisced about times spent in Westerville with their mother, "Mom Priest."

They continued to Daytona Beach Shores for an afternoon visit with Ladybird Sipe '25 at her apartment. Ladybird enjoyed the slide show of old Westerville prepared from slides of old postcards by Mary B. Thomas '28 and Dr. Jeanne Willis, chairman of the Life Science Department at Otterbein. She continues to be an active Owls supporter and sent a sewing machine back for the sorority.

That evening was spent with Oren McClain '47 and his friend, Shirley Ramsey, Shirley is not an Otterbein graduate but was entertained by "College Memories" relived! Congratulations to Oren—he has taken and passed the Florida Bar Exam.

They then headed across to the west coast for a delicious Spanish dinner with Gene H '83 and Donna Sniff Sitton '55. As usual the hospitality extended by the Sittons was wonderful. Donna has recently been named Teacher of the Year for Pinellas County.

After Frank's return to Westerville, Fran and Loretta drove to Sarasota to visit Dick and Janet Scanland Ramsey '42, where they spent time basking in the sunlight on their screened porch. They were also able to visit with Bill Crabbe '50 who lives in Sarasota with his many feline friends.

Before flying home, Fran and Loretta spent a pleasant afternoon with Helen Gibson VanCuren '27 and showed her the slide show of old Westerville. She recognized many of the people and remembered many campus scenes. Helen is still very active with her friends and is fortunate to have her son living just across the coast of Florida.

It's always a pleasure for our development staff to have the opportunity to meet with our loyal alumni in Florida.

Phonathon Pledges Total $53,265

Phonoth"otters", 101 volunteer callers consisting of alumni, faculty, students and friends of Otterbein, gathered at Howard House for six nights in October and November to make a personal appeal on behalf of the Otterbein Fund. The results were fantastic!

The Phonoth"otters" completed over 2700 calls. $53,265 was pledged to the Otterbein Fund by 1049 people. Another 475 made pledges of unspecified amounts. Top callers for each night were Melinda Selby '85, Arthur Schultz '49, Devonie Verne '85, Teresa Verne '87, Elmer "Bud" Yoest '53 and Kyle Yoest '80.

Each top caller was awarded a dinner for two at a local restaurant and all volunteer callers earned a Phonoth-

"otter" T-shirt. Groups whose members helped with the calling were the Otterbein cheerleaders, the volleyball and soccer teams, Sigma Alpha Tau Sorority, Eta Phi Mu and Pi Kappa Phi fraternities and the Adult Degree Program.

The Otterbein Fund is made up of unrestricted gifts and helps provide the difference between the income from tuition and the actual cost of operating the College.

The College usually holds two phonothons each year. During the spring phonathon, student callers contact parents, friends and members of classes holding reunions that June. Alumni and faculty volunteers also serve as callers in the fall to contact alumni and friends to remind them that their support is important to Otterbein.

Sports Report

Basketball Cardinals Contend for League Lead

Following a disappointing 7-17 record last year, Otterbein head basketball coach Dick Reynolds guided the 1983-84 Cardinals back into the fight for the Ohio Athletic Conference title. By Feb. 1, the Cardinals had posted a 12-6 overall record and a 5-2 conference mark, which earned them a second place tie in the traditionally strong OAC.

Stingy defense, a powerful inside game, and an abundance of enthusiasm sparked Otterbein to critical victories over Wittenberg and Muskingum in the second week of league play. The Cardinals' offensive leaders for the first half of the season were forwards Dick Hempy (17.9 points per game) and Mike McKinney (16.7 ppg.). Hempy led the team in the rebounding department (8.7 per game), while forward David Langdon (12.8) rounded out the potent trio of Cardinal big men under the boards.

Point guard Ray Zawadzki was the team's leading assist man with a 4.5 average, and back-court mate Frank Gioffre contributed 10.3 points per game — as well as a team leading 33 steals.

Mike McKinney prepares to sink another basket in the game against Ohio Northern. The sophomore from Columbus was a top goal-maker for the Cardinals throughout the season.

Diamondmen Seek 4th Trip to NCAA National Tourney

Otterbein's baseball Cardinals will be looking for a fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Division III national tournament this spring, after compiling the school's most successful baseball season in 1983. Dick Fishbaugh's team ended the '83 campaign as the NCAA runner-up to Ohio Conference rival Marietta — after defeating the Pioneers for the OAC Southern Division title in May.

Top hurler Kirk McDonald earned team MVP honors last year as a sophomore—turning in 129 innings of work and completing every one of his starting assignments. McDonald will be joined on the mound by solid performers Doug Gates (6-3) and Ob Hartman (2-2) — a pair of juniors who turned in outstanding efforts in the NCAA regionals and World Series.

Catcher Mike Goodwin is the team's top returning hitter (.341 average). One of Otterbein's four All-World Series selections in 1983, Goodwin is also an outstanding defensive player (.956 fielding percentage). Centerfielder Dave Weaver returns after leading the Cardinals in total bases (84), while first baseman Dave Whitehead (.315) and shortstop Jon Mastel (.276) return for their final seasons.

Fishbaugh's teams have traditionally been strong hitting clubs, and the 1984 unit will be looking to improve on a .308 team batting average.

As Fishbaugh closes in on career victory No. 300, he will do so without the valued services of three graduated seniors who accounted for more than a third of the squad's total hits in 1983. Infielders Mike Blythe and Bret Brownfield will leave a large defensive void in the Otterbein line-up, while left fielder Jim Hoyle led the Cardinal offense in hitting last spring.

by Rich Dalrymple,
Sports Information Director

Kathy Cole, one of the nation's leading scorers, goes for the basket in a home game against Heidelberg.

Women's Softball Team Returns 8 Starters

The return of eight starters from last year's Otterbein softball team should account for a much improved team effort this spring. Head coach Amy Backus' 1983 squad fell victim to poor weather conditions and several narrow defeats enroute to a 5-18 record. "We gained a great deal of experience last spring," said Backus. "I think we can really turn things around this year. We have the personnel to win a lot of games."

Backus will welcome back three strong performers in the infield, Kathy Cole (second base), Lisa Shaver (shortstop), and Jill Schlichter (third base). Three-fourths of the Cardinal outfield also return with letter winners Susan Ogier, Kris Gustafson, Sheri Shoemaker, Janice Mack and Diane Long leading the way. Top pitcher Lisa Sleith will once again team with battery mate Lisa Campbell to round out the experienced Cardinal defensive unit.

Backus, who owns a 30-41 overall career softball record at Otterbein, is looking forward to a new scheduling format which will be used for the 1984 season. "We will be playing in several weekend tournaments this year," said Backus. "This will hopefully alleviate some of the problems we had with the weather last spring. The slow-pitch college coaches around the state feel that bringing several teams together to play in a two-day tournament will enable everyone to participate in many more games."

Cole Leads Women's Basketball Team

The Otterbein women's basketball team found considerable success during the first half of the 1983-84 season, compiling an impressive 5-3 record while making a serious bid to nail down a winning season.

For the third consecutive year, the Cardinals were led by one of the nation's premier scorers, Kathy Cole, a senior who rolled up an average of 25.1 points per game. In the waning moments of the Cards' 84-72 victory over Mount Union, Cole reached a rare milestone by scoring her 1,000th career point as a member of the Otterbein varsity.

The list of top offensive contributors for head coach Amy Backus' squad included freshman forward Lori Povisil (17.4 ppg. and 7.4 rebounds per game), junior forward Susan Ogier (13.2 ppg., 7.8 rpg.) and sophomore point guard Lisa Shaver who added strong floor leadership to the Otterbein offensive effort.

Outlook Good for Women's Tennis

Although an administrative leave for veteran women's tennis coach JoAnn Tyler will bring about a temporary coaching change, the 1984 Otterbein squad appears to be in very good hands. Michelle Fox Miller '83, one of the school's most outstanding tennis players ever, will assume the responsibilities of guiding the Cardinal program through the course of an 11-match spring schedule.

A strong candidate to fill Michelle Miller's vacated No. 1 singles slot in '84 is senior Wendy Miller. As a member of the No. 1 singles team of last year, Wendy Miller gained a great deal of experience in top flight competition. Joining Wendy in the Cardinal line-up will be Amy Pangalangan, who advanced to the state finals as a member of the Otterbein No. 2 doubles team. Sophomores Rhonda Gearhart and Shellie Travis should provide much needed balance and depth to the Otterbein roster, while senior Terri Jones and junior Jo O'Connor will add plenty of varsity match experience.

Biography of Hanby

Choose You This Day, Harold Hancock and Millard J. Miller

This book is the first definitive biography of Bishop William Hanby, co-founder of Otterbein College, and of his son, Benjamin, author of "Darling Nellie Gray," "Up On The Housetop," and 70 other songs.

Choose You This Day was published by the Westerville Historical Society, which now operates the Hanby House as a museum, and printed by William Caxton Company. The Ohio Historical Society selected the book as Best Family History in Ohio for 1983.

Dr. Hancock is the chairperson of the History Department at Otterbein College and has written many books on Westerville and Delaware state history. Dr. Miller was pastor of the Church of the Master in Westerville for 22 years and has also authored and co-authored several books about local history.

Since Otterbein College played such an important part in the Hanby family, Otterbein alumni may be interested in reading the book. Copies may be obtained for $8.50 at the Otterbein College Bookstore or from the Westerville Historical Society, 160 W. Main St., Westerville, Ohio 43081. All proceeds go for the maintenance of Hanby House.

economic times. Many include offering temporary shelter and food as part of their ministry. Little literature exists to articulate the issues they face and the problems they are likely to encounter.

Shelter is an account of one such ministry. Questions that are addressed include: How does one remain open to deeply troubled people and still maintain a convivial environment and one's own sanity? What was the effect of physical violence on the ministry? How may the widespread problem of incest be addressed? How does one learn to love people one doesn't like, and get along with them in the meantime? How may Christians from varied backgrounds and traditions develop a systematic approach to evangelism? The book should be of interest to anyone contemplating such a ministry as well to a general audience as an exciting adventure story.

Inside China

China Gray/China Green, Stuart Innerst

China Gray, China Green is a book version of Stuart Innerst's slide lecture on his 1972 visit to China, excerpts from some of his writings on China subsequent to his 1972 visit, and an "update," written by his oldest daughter, Almena Innerst Neff '42, and her daughter, Cathy Anne Neff, on their visit to China in 1982. Edited by Stuart Innerst's youngest son, Richard, the book also contains many photographs that Stuart Innerst took during his 1972 visit, together with pictures that he made during his stay in China as a missionary from 1920 to 1927.

As far as we know, Stuart Innerst was the first missionary to be invited to revisit China. The book tells of some of the things that he learned, of the many changes that he saw.
