BEST CONCERT PROMISED

Most Brilliant Production Yet Heard at O. U.

The Otterbein Choral Society of seventy-five voices will give the celebrated dramatic cantata, "Don Munio," by Dudley Buck at their commencement concert, Monday night, June 10.

This is the most beautiful and splendid musical production that the society has produced. The work abounds in beautiful choruses and the two choruses for male voices are considered the most brilliant and effective ever written.

The following distinguished soloists have been engaged at great expense to assist in this production, and each will contribute a group of solos to the first part of the program in addition to their work in the cantata.

Mrs. Edith Sage McDonald—

Soprano.

Mr. Alfred R. Barrington—

Baritone.

Mr. Warren G. Glass—

Tenor.

Mr. Ferdinand Gardner—

Cellist.

The seat sale will open at McFarland's Shoe House Friday, June 7th.

All seats will be reserved, the prices being 35 and 50 cents.

Who's Who?

A thing which is certainly worthy of mention and which we should take considerable pride in, is the fact that four members of Otterbein's faculty have been honored with a place in "Who's Who in America," a book published annually, which contains the names of our most distinguished Americans. The members of our faculty mentioned in this book are Dr. W. G. Clippinger, Dr. E. A. Jones, Dr. T. J. Sanders and Dr. George Scott.

Two other citizens of Westerville, Dr. P. A. Baker and Dr. H. H. Russell, are also listed in the book.

"Cups" days of single blessedness are about over.

FERDINAND GARDNER

Who Will be Heard Monday Night in the Choral Society's Production "Don Munio."

Yabe's Parents Make Gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiechi Yabe, of Fukushimaken, Japan, parents of Kiyoshi Yabe, a senior in Otterbein have presented the library with ten dollars' worth of books bearing upon Japan and China.

The gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Yabe deserve our highest appreciation and are worthy the emulation of the parents of other students.

Kiyoshi Yabe contemplates adding several more volumes to these in the future.

President's Reception.

Saturday evening at eight o'clock President and Mrs. Clippinger will give a reception in Cochran Hall to the senior class and their relatives, the faculty and their wives, and local and visiting alumni. Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Fout and Mrs. Lilian R. Harford will be guests of honor.

Exendine Here.

Former coach Albert A. Exendine, who has just completed his law studies at Dickinson, visited friends in Westerville Saturday. Mr. Exendine is on his way to Anadarko, Oklahoma, where he will meet his father, who owns a large ranch in old Mexico, located in the center of the war trouble.

While in Oklahoma, he will take the state bar examination, which if he passes successfully, will enable him to secure his diploma from Dickinson. Mr. Exendine will devote his life to the betterment of his race.

Five Graduates in Music.

This evening at 8:00 p. m., the first of the graduating recitals will be given. On Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. the candidates for the B. M. degree will be heard.

GIRL CAPTURES PRIZE

Seniors Defeat Juniors in Hard Fought Battle.

The second annual Howard H. Russell junior and senior oratorical contest occurred Wednesday evening in the chapel. The contest was a keen one, and the decisions of the judges were very close. Miss Ila Bale, the only girl entered, succeeded in winning the first prize of fifteen dollars. Her oration, "Mockeries and Realities," was admirably delivered. John D. Good, and Roy L. Harkins won the second and third prizes, which consisted of ten and five dollars respectively.

The seniors by winning two of the prizes gained the highest percentage, and will have their numerals engraved upon the loving cup of the Public Speaking Council.

Dr. Russell presided at the contest, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with the splendid productions and masterly deliveries of the contestants.

Professor J. T. Marshman, of Ohio Wesleyan University, F. L. Dustman, Ohio editor of the American Issue, and Lemuel D. Lilley, attorney, were the judges.

Recalls Former Victories.

The fact that Miss Bale and Mr. Good won first and second prizes recalls to many minds our oratorical contest held in 1904, when Mr. Fred G. Bale, a brother of the winner of the first prize, was a freshman at Otterbein. Rev. C. M. Good, brother John D. Good, winner of the second prize, was a student here. In an oratorical contest held at that time, Mr. Bale won first place, and Mr. Good won second. The winner represented Otterbein in an inter-collegiate contest held at Berea, Ohio.

In 1908, Miss Bale represented the Westerville High school in a county contest, and won first place. On the same night, Fred G. Bale debated with the victorious Ohio State team against Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind.

ERRORS LOSE FOR O. U.

Infield Wobbles During Latter Innings and Wooster Wins.

Wooster won from Otterbein Friday afternoon, by the score of 5 to 3. The visiting team played errorless ball but could find Res Calihan for only six short hits, one being good for two bases, while O. U.'s men swatted the ball for thirteen clean hits, one of which R. Calihan made good for three bases. Otterbein's errors came at critical times and all counted for runs.

Res. Effective.

R. Calihan pitched probably the best game seen on the college diamond, allowing but six scattered hits, just two resulting in runs, one of which was made by an error. He issued three passes but tightened up after the first inning and struck out six batters in succession during the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Richards of Wooster, was lifted in the fourth, after five hits were made bringing over two runs and McCarthy was sent to check the terrible feast that Saunders' men had started. He proved to be very effective, allowing but four hits the remainder of the game. In the ninth the score was tied. After Finley was retired, McCarthy doubled, Collins was safe on error scoring McCarthy. Collins crossed the plate on a fumble of Roderick's bunt, but scoring was over when Blaser grounded out and Cunningham fanned.

In the second Garver astonished the spectators by a neat put out of White at the plate. He caught a good game and was there when called on to hit, bringing in a run and scoring on McFarland's hit. Campbell pulled off a pretty slide to second after driving in R. Calihan. Cunningham in left showed up well in the field but struck out five times. McCarthy showed good head work and form by retiring O. U. without a score at very critical moments, and duplicated. Res Calihan's feature of retiring the side in strike-out order in the fifth inning. The lack of favorable weather for practice resulted in Otterbein's defeat.

Victory Record Held for Three Years Shattered by O. U. Defeat.

Ohio Wesleyan turned the tables on O. U. Saturday at Delaware, winning by a score of 5 to 2. After pitching nine innings against Wooster on Friday at Westerville, Calihan was sent in the latter part of the first inning to stop the swatting that the Delaware men had started. He proved to be very effective, striking out thirteen and issuing no passes in seven innings. The fielding of Needham featured for Wesleyan.

Wesleyan scored two in the first. Snively, who won over O. W. U. last year was selected to hurl for Otterbein, but three hits counted for two runs and Res Calihan stepped into the box. St. John's men could see but little of the best pitching that has been displayed against his men this season. The second inning was marred by a run through errors and a hit by Seaman. No danger was felt till the seventh, when Calihan was touched for four hits, scoring two runs. Otterbein scored two in the sixth on two errors and three hits. All other hits were well scattered and through the fast fielding of Wes-

Otterbein Seconds Tie.

The O. U. seconds tied with Capital Seconds 5-5, in nine innings at Westerville Saturday morning. Just enough of the old second team were present to take part in the feast of the batters. Both pitchers were hit frequently and errors accounted for a part of the scoring. In view of the fact that the seconds have not had practice for over a month, a good showing was made by them against the fast Capital team.

Games This Week.

The first team plays Wittenberg today at Springfield, and a close contest is expected. It will probably be a pitchers' battle from the start as both teams will put up their best twirlers.

Saturday Denison will be the attraction at Westerville for O. U. As Otterbein was defeated at Granville a great effort will be made to hold the Denisonians to a low score and capture the game.

Probably the prettiest race of the day was the 440 yd. dash. The fastest event was the 100 yd. dash.

INGOMAR EXCELS

Senior Play Will be Main Attraction during Commencement.

The rehearsals for the senior play, "Ingomar, the Barbarian," have been conducted out-of-doors for the past two weeks so as to enable the caste to become familiar with acting and speaking in the open air.

The progress of the play has been very encouraging and steady development of the principal characters will undoubtedly result in a finished production. The caste is excused from classroom duties, and morning and afternoon rehearsals are held each day.

Special scenery is being constructed under the direction of Mr. Robbins, the coach, and the stage setting will be characteristic of the old Grecian type of architecture.

It is reported that the play given by the seniors this year will exceed anything ever presented by a graduating class of Otterbein. Those desiring seats should place their orders as soon as sale opens.

Examinations.

Now that we are engaged in another series of final examinations, the question again arises,
"Are examinations beneficial?"
Too often we think this question concerns the student alone, but this is not the case, for instructors are involved as well. If the student fails, it is a discredit to the professor, and casts reflection upon him.

We are fortunate in having some professors at Otterbein who look upon their work in this light.

They exercise patience and diligence with those who are less intelligent, and see that such keep pace with the other members of the class. In this way, there is steady development and growth on the part of the student.
Does not the professor know,
without examinations, the student's ability, and what he has absorbed under his instruction?

Many look upon final tests
with a sort of fear and dread.
They worry, unnecessarily perhaps, stay up late, when they should be resting, and face the ordeal next morning wholly unfitted for it. They cannot be blamed for this. They are thus constituted naturally.

Some professors hold that students do more conscientious study during the term for fear of not being able to pass the final examinations. Are there any such at Otterbein?

Why not allow the student who maintains a certain average for daily work, say 85% to be exempt from the finals?

The daily work is what counts anyway, not the periodical spells of cramming, which weakens not strengthens, the student.

decayed one, in the presence of a ting rebuke an American girl can

CLUB TALK

Cheer Leaders.

Dear Editor:—

One fact for which Otterbein is noted by her opponents, is the enthusiastic cheering of the students for their teams. Perhaps not a better showing has been made this year than at the Otterbein-Wesleyan football game.

The seventy-five rooters who accompanied the team to Delaware made more noise than the three hundred and fifty students and band of Wesleyan. The reason for the splendid showing is that, O. U. had one of the best cheer leaders in the history of the institution. Throughout the football season he led the rooters, but when basketball started, another enthusiastic rooster took his place of honor and led the students with great success.
During the debate and baseball seasons still another was given the chance to lead but with less success than the former leaders.

A leader must have the physical ability to lead the cheering and be able to hold the enthusiasm of the crowd. The ending of the school year necessitates the choosing of a new leader for the ensuing year. How should this be done? All other universities give tryouts for this position and thereby obtain the best leader that the school can put forth. It is time for O. U. to adopt this plan. Let the student body choose who shall be leader, rather than have a clique say who is to lead the rooters in the cheering for the teams.

Debate "O."

Dear Editor:—

The article in the last issue of the Review regarding the granting of "O's" to second team athletes has been read with great interest, and has generally met with favorable comment.

Now, if the granting of secondary "O's" to second team is practicable (and nearly everyone admits that it is), then we must also admit that the alternates on our debating teams should be granted a secondary "debater's O." This is not a new idea, awakened by last week's article on "Secondary O's", but is a question that was considered by the Debate O. Association at its first meeting and has been more or less talked of ever since.

The same arguments that were produced in favor of secondary "O's" for athletes, will hold in case of alternates on our debating teams, only with greater force. Anyone who knows anything about an alternate's work, knows that he is as well deserving of a badge of honor as the second team athletes. The success of the debating team—to a large degree, depends upon the material it is able to procure, which the alternate gathers. Because of his efforts, he is well deserving of some recognition. This recognition however, can only be given by granting him a secondary "O."

At present there is no incentive for young men and women to come out for intercollegiate debate, because they know that in case they should only make alternates, they would have to do four months' hard work without any reward or recognition. The granting of a secondary "O" would remove this barrier.

Since the idea of granting secondary "O's" in athletics is before the students, and is meeting with their approval, I think similar recognition should be given to the alternates of our debating teams. By doing so, Ot-terbein's standard in debate could be raised very much. S

Occupies Important Position in Large Iowa College.

The many activities of life which graduates of Otterbein are entering, is shown by the stirring life of Mr. L. L. Hamlin, Des Moines, Iowa. After graduation from college he taught in the public schools in Michigan, Indiana, and Ohio, and later practiced law at Marshalltown, Iowa. His business ability has placed him at the head of the Des Moines Tent and Awning Company, and also of the Oklahoma City Tent and Awning Company.

Besides his regular business he is closely connected with Highland Park College, which has an enrollment of nearly twenty-five hundred students. Recently he was elected vice president of the Board of Trustees of the college. He is also chairman of the finance committee, which causes the entire burden of raising and expending money as well as the construction of new buildings to fall directly upon him. Mr. Hamlin is well known throughout the state for his Christian and philanthropic work.

"The Holy City."

The sacred cantata "The Holy City," by Gaul, rendered by the chapel choir last evening was delightful. The solos by Professors Resler, Denton and Gilbert and by Miss Caffisch, Miss Cassler, and Mr. Spafford are worthy of our highest appreciation. Of especial interest was the unaccompanied chorus. The work of Professor Resler in undertaking such a heavy production with a small choir deserves much credit from all music lovers.

CHINA AWAKENS

Situation of New Republic Reviewed by Dr. S. S. Hough.

After extended travels and wide study in the giant, yet infant republic of China, Dr. S. S. Hough, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of our denomination, addressed the students Friday morning upon the results of his investigations. Some important facts given by the speaker were as follows:

Chinese have used the public speaking platform only for the past eight years.

There are 278,000 Christians in the 430,000,000 population.

15 per cent of people read and write.

In a town of 25,000, it was estimated that there were 18,000 unburied dead.

Chinese laborers receive 8 cents per day. They live on one meal of rice each day.

Dr. Hough stated that the new government is mainly controlled by Christians, but that it was necessary to plant Christian schools there at once. He displayed the rainbow flag of the new republic, probably the first seen in America.

Y. W. C. A.

The meeting Tuesday evening was led by Mary Brown. She read for the scripture lesson, I Corinthians 13. She spoke upon the subject, "The Value of True Character." Mrs. Manley, a Methodist missionary from China, then gave a very interesting talk concerning her work. She told of the need of workers in that great foreign field. There are very few Chinese who are Christians. We not only need workers but money by means of which this great work may be carried on.

This being the regular spring missionary rally, pledges were taken for the promoting of this noble work.

Miami—Dr. Josiah Strong of New York, has been secured to deliver the commencement address. Since his graduation from Western Reserve in 1869, Dr. Strong has been engaged in various lines of religious work, being at the present time the editor of "The Gospel of the Kingdom."

PRAISES OTTERBEIN

Noted Lecturer and Educator Names O. U. as Best School.

In an article written especially for the bulletin of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, Rev. John C. Granberry, who lectured here during the past winter, in discussing the functions and features of a Christian college speaks thus for Otterbein university.

"Of course the name of an institution may come down from an old regime, and would cause misunderstanding if judged by present standards of classification. For example, one of the best schools of which I know is Otterbein university. The catalogue frankly states: 'Notwithstanding its unfortunate title, "university," Otterbein has always been a modest, unpretentious institution, never assuming to do more than a first-class college should attempt, but always endeavoring to fulfill all its own claims as an institution of higher education.' Such a school has self-respect and is deserving of the respect and confidence of the public."

Dr. Granberry is the pastor of Morris Harvey College, Barboursville, West Virginia. He is prominent in the labor movement of this state besides holding important positions in the religious world. Favorable comment, coming from an able critic, such as is Dr. Granberry, means much to Otterbein's future history.

Better Lawns Seen.

There is a movement on foot in Westerville at the present time, very similar to the "City Beautiful" plan of some other cities. The plan is to be carried on by the inducement of prizes for lawn improvement. The growth of shrubbery and plants of all kinds will be encouraged, as well as the beautifying of lawns by terracing or grading. A committee will be appointed by the Board of Trade which will watch the improvements during the summer and award the prizes. Greater care is already being shown by the townspeople in caring for their front yards, which adds greatly to Westerville as a beautiful residence town.

Ohio State—J. R. Richards of Wisconsin, and L. W. St. John, former coach of Ohio Wesleyan, have been chosen to direct athletics at Ohio State next year. Both these men have been very successful in their work the past year, and it is certain that athletics will be well cared for at State. Mr. Richards will be head coach of football and track, while St. John will have charge of the basketball and baseball.

The weather man gave the students of Ohio State a splendid day to present their pageant entitled, "The Birth of Ohio." It was a grand success in every way and it is probable that it will be repeated next fall.

Princeton—Both negative and affirmative sides of the question were won by Princeton in their triangular debate with Harvard and Yale.

Denison—In a very interesting game the seniors defeated the faculty to the tune of 10 to 9. There were some heated discussions as to the decisions of the umpire. Dec. Rohrer.

Ohio Northern—Harry Gosard of O. N. U., has won a mathematical scholarship to Johns Hopkins university.

Oberlin—Ohio Wesleyan has submitted the following question to Oberlin for debate next year, "Resolved, That the conservation of human resources involved in the employment of labor in the United States demands greater centralization of power in the federal government, constitutionally conceded." The men are already at work on the question as the final preliminaries will be held early next fall.

New Texas University.

Another large university will open its doors in September to American students. This is Rice Institute at Houston, Texas. At the time of William March Rice's death in 1900 he left $8,000,000 for a new university. This amount has grown in ten years until now there is a fund of $15,000,000, to run the institution. The campus comprises 300 acres. The president is Edgar Odell Lovett, who was formerly professor of astronomy at Princeton.—College Life

COCHRAN HALL ITEMS.

The novelty of stealing chairs is about worn off. Don't let a thing get monotonous. However as school is about over, there will be a whole summer's vacation to concoct some new plan.

There were a number of Saturday guests. For the first time in many weeks, the going home list was very limited. There were but four girls to go home over Sunday and they were the chronic home-goers.

Sandusky "Push."

The annual "push" of the Sandusky conference students was held on Monday evening, May 27, and was accompanied with much joy and celebration. About thirty-five of those who claim northwestern Ohio as their home made the trip to "Hell's Half Acre" where, after an enjoyable lunch was served, they were entertained by speeches and the few hours thus spent were filled with pleasure.

OTTERBEINESQUES.

Dr. Jones in History: "Then when going on your way to the penitentiary you'll remember Mr. Jones."

Lots of time yet to duck certain under classmen!

Dr. Jones to his Bible class: "You notice I often ask you to stop and think. You don't do much of that outside, and that's why I want you to get some of it here."

Sophomores are becoming proficient in their knowledge of the Bible, as will be seen by the following brilliant statements—

Jonathan was the brother of David."

"Levi was the name of a man, and Leviathan was the name applied to his doings."

"Moses received a call to lead the children out of Israel."

"John wrote the Acts."

Foltz, (translating French)—"I have such a grief because I am dead."

Rudy—"I'll give you an 'exam' just to keep peace in the family."

We want some good men to sell Public School Methods to teachers this summer. Only men of ability and enterprise over twenty-five years of age need apply.
