OTTERBEIN WINS FROM ST. MARY'S

"Jinx" Is Broken When Coach Watts' Basketball Team Beats St. Mary's at Dayton.

EXTRA PERIOD IS PLAYED

Time Is Called When Teams are Tie 19-19—In Extra Period Otterbein Wins By One Basket.

It was mighty hard to break that "jinx" and get out of the rut but the Tan and Cardinal quintet went into the game with St. Mary's at Dayton Friday night, Jan. 23 to do that thing or "bust". It took an extra period to do it as the Dayton boys put up a nifty battle but our team had fully decided that if fight had anything to do with it they were going to put Otterbein on the right side of the ledger in athletics for the first time this year.

The teams were well matched for both put up an exhibition of basketball that brought cheer after cheer from the crowd. Otterbein showed the effects of good drilling for the pass work was of the best and the guards worked in a manner which was good to see. Time after time the "Saints" carried the ball down the floor only to lose it to Peden or Ranck who were breaking up everything which came their way. Collier and Cutler pulled some neat passing while Fox performed in his old time manner by dropping in seven out of nine fouls. In the second half Albright was substituted for Collier and untied the score by throwing a pretty one from mid-floor.

The "Saints" led off in scoring by shooting a foul but only held the lead for a moment as Fox put one through the net. The "Saints" went into the lead again when Matusoff and Manchester each threw a fielder. Fox tied the score again by putting another through the steel hoop. First half ended 7 to 7.

The "Saints" went into the lead the beginning of the second half by seven points. Then Otterbein held the score at seventeen. Albright went in for Collier and put his men in the lead with a field goal. The half ended shortly after when Matusoff threw a long one tying the score at 19 each.

The overtime period was opened when O'Hearn shot a pretty one, the score then standing at nineteen to twenty-one, Saint Mary's. Two fouls were called on the "Saints" and Fox seized the advantage by dropping both

DEPARTMENT OPENS CONTEST

English Department Announces Barnes' Short Story Contest and Names Conditions of Entrance.

At this time of the year a very important matter is demanding the attention of those students who are interested in short-story writing. It is soon time for the Walter Lowrie Barnes' Short-Story Contest to open, in which all Juniors and Seniors who have been here at least one year, are eligible to compete.

The prizes are very attractive—First, $40; second, $20; third, $10—large enough to make thoughtful students enter the contest.

The conditions are about as they have been for the past few years. Here they are in brief:

1. Stories shall be based on some established fact in American history and teach good citizenship. They shall consist of not less than 6000 and not more than 15000 words.

2. Copies of the three prize-winning stories shall be placed in the archives of Otterbein College, with the option of publication in some college periodical.

3. In case the judges do not award prizes, the money shall go to the college library.

4. Three type-written copies must be filed with Professor Altman on or before March 29, 1920.

Professor Glover Is Ill.

Word comes from the Glover home that Professor Glover is taken down with the influenza. Professor Glover is resting easy and hopes to return to his duties in two or three days.

GRADUATE IS HONORED

Dr. A. C. Flick, Class '94, Is Elected President of Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs.

"The Cosmopolitan Student," the official organ of the Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs of America recently published a biographical sketch of Dr. A. C. Flick, '94, which is printed below. The sketch shows the active interest Doctor Flick has taken in national and international problems and his accomplishments do credit to Otterbein, his alma mater.

Doctor Flick visited here a few weeks ago and addressed the students and faculty on "World Problems".

Biographical Sketch

Alexander Clarence Flick was born at Galion, Ohio, in 1869. He was educated in the public schools of Ohio, attended college at Otterbein University, Westerville, O., from which he graduated with A. B. in 1894, and received his M. A. the next year. He taught school at Leesville and Middletown, O. In 1895, he went to Columbia University to do some graduate work in History and Political Science, and remained there two years and received his Ph. D. In 1896-97, he was Fellow in History in Columbia. Dr. Flick received an honorary Litt. D. from Otterbein University. In 1897, he went to Syracuse as instructor in European History, and two years later was made Professor European History. For the past few years he has been the Head of the Department of History and Political Science at Syracuse University, which position he now holds.

Dr. Flick spent three years in study in Germany, France and England. He has been to France fifteen times, visiting most European countries, and in 1913 made a tour of Russia, Japan, China, the Philippines, India, North Africa, and Palestine.

He has written, besides many historical articles, the following books: "The Rise of the Mediaval Church" and "A Short History of New York State."

Dr. Flick has always been deeply interested in international affairs and is a member of many organizations dealing with that subject. He helped to establish the Cosmopolitan Club at Syracuse University and has been very active in promoting its welfare since its foundation. Last year he was Vice-President of the second district of the Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs, and this year was elected president of the Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs of America.

OTTERBEIN WINS FROM LUTHERANS

Old Rivals Go Down in Defeat in Fine Exhibition of Basketball. Score—35 to 25.

DIFFICULT TO PICK STARS

Tan and Cardinal Team Are Expert in Passing and All Play Hard and Fast Game.

Taking advantage of the "pep" she had gained by defeating St. Mary's the night before, Otterbein turned back their old rival Capital in one of the most exciting and sensational games seen here since '16.

It was not an easy win for in the first half the score was tied five times and Capital was ahead by three points at the end of the first period. The crowd was kept on edge during the entire game for at no time did the Lutherans show any intention of conceding the game.

Fox got the tip off on the opening toss up, and after a pretty piece of pass work Ranck swished through the opening shot. The rooters were doing their best to drown out the whistle and partially succeeded. Roseline, however, tied the score but the Tan and Cardinal were going strong and went into the lead by a 9 to 5 score. Ridenour then shot two long ones from the middle of the floor tying the score. Collier gave the rooters another opportunity to cheer when he tossed another perfect shot. Capital came right back and tied the score once more making it stand at eleven and went into the lead a moment later by thirteen to eleven. At this juncture Peden who was playing a fine defensive game got in some offensive work and potted a nice one tying the score for the fourth time. Capital untied it but Peden was determined to keep it even and dropped another through, making the score fifteen all. The half closed a minute later with Capital leading by three points. Otterbein was not passing as President Returns.

President W. G. Clippinger has returned from a two weeks' trip taking him into Florida where he spent four days at the United Brethren convention. Four students from Florida are now enrolled in Otterbein college and President Clippinger is expecting several more from that state to be enrolled next year. They are Lillian and Benjamin Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Garrison and E. H. Cavanaugh.

CLASS '22 ELECTS STAFF

Sophomores Are Already at Work on Sibyl for Next Year—Howard Is Editor.

Last Monday night the class of '22, elected the staff which is to publish the '21 "Sibyl". The Sophomores believe in "taking time by the forelock" which is an excellent plan as it not only allows the editorial staff to get their work organized, and running smoothly early in the year but it also gives the business staff an opportunity to survey the field carefully and let the contracts for printing to only the very best of establishments. The Art Editor is also given ample time to arrange his work. The class of '22 does not feel, therefore, that it has made any mistake in electing its Sibyl staff so much earlier than customary.

The staff as elected is as follows:
Editor-in-Chief—J. Gordon Howard.

Assistant Editors—Paul V. Sprout, Robert U. Martin.

Business Manager—Merrill L. Howe.

Assistant Business Managers—Paul K. Noel, B. Carlson.

ROY YOUNG WILL APPEAR

February Fifth Set as Date for Recital—Junior Class is Bringing Artist Here.

Old High Cost of Living has thrust out one of those ever-lengthening hands of his and taken the 1920 Sibyl into his multitudinous fold. And from all indications he has quite a manly grip on it, which, to say the least, is sad but true. Optimism is the one drug that will lay this old "critter" cold. So, speaking of storage cellars, we might say that the one in the Conservatory where the Sibyl board has its headquarters is loaded with plenty of this particular "stuff". The more news that comes from this source the better it gets. And here's the latest.

Instead of staging an uncertain performance of some nature, the Junior class has acquired the services of Roy Young, of the University of Oklahoma, and his "talkative" fiddle. Professor Young delighted the student body with his little performance in chapel several days ago where he will again appear in an extensive program on the evening of February fifth. Mr. Young is an artist of much repute having given many concerts throughout the United States. He promises an interesting program combining his rare knowledge as a naturalist and his ability with the violin in masterly fashion. Many expert critics pronounce him the wonder of the age. Otterbein has tasted of a little of what Mr. Young is capable of giving in a recital and it is with absolute surety that his coming to Otterbein will be a memorable event that this advance announcement is given.

THE JOY OF LIVING

Is enhanced by looking over the beautiful Volland publications. Beauty enriches the soul. To associate with beautiful things is a liberal education. Use every possible opportunity to see the best things we admire and acquire. Better a crust and loveliness than the finest viands without it. It is our great privilege to be in a business that enables us to bring these beautiful things to Westerville. Come see them whether you buy or not.

The valentine cards are full of wit and sentiment without the sting that would hurt any one to send or to receive. The leap year cards are clever. See them.

The Sheffield nickel alloy pens, like those you use at the bank, are here in various sizes and styles.

Note books, fillers, covers and rings.

It is economy to use our boxes of scratch paper, 500 sheets for $1.25. It takes ink well. Then there are the boxes of Buckeye Bond and Swan Linen papers with envelopes to match; cards of various sizes with envelopes. Boxed stationery in the wanted colors.

FLOWERS

It would please you to see the pleasure of the friends in the hospital when flowers you sent were given them. Roses, sweet peas, tulips, violets, carnations, all these we have personally selected to be sure of getting good stock.

Cut flowers always in stock. We will mail to friends anywhere or have them sent by the nearest florist. Tell us your wants.

"Reds" At Work.

Little did we think that in the quiet,
peaceful village of Westerville there would be one or more of the undesirable, detestable, un-American so-called "reds". Yet it is unquestion-ably true. All who were in chapel last Thursday agreed that there are some of these asinine creatures in our midst.

College pranks and stunts are not tabooed by the faculty or by student sentiment but there is a sense of prejudice among people of average intelligence which should limit the in-correctable ones. It certainly did not require initiative to fill the chapel with the offensive odor of a valerianate of ammonia which is, in the words of Professor Weinland, a stronger sister of asafetida. The "reds" who did it certainly show that that part of their bodies which rests on their shoulders is entirely void of the substance which it was made to contain.

It takes a remarkable sense of humor to sit in the chapel and breathe
the tainted air for fifteen minutes and joke and laugh as though it were a decidedly clever trick. There were only a few of such exceptional nature as indicated above and these few who seemed to appreciate the humor of the situation most may almost without fear of contradiction be accused as the vile offenders.

If it were possible to incriminate
the "half-wits" who were responsible for the odoriferous proceedings the college authorities would be justified in deporting them from our midst.
We would suggest in place of Russia some desert island and a life term of making the mixture they seem so fond of and eating the same for subsistence.

Systematize.

"I haven't the time," is a popular cry in the college. College students wonder why the miners want a six-hour day. "Give us a sixty-hour day," cry they.

As usual the only answer to the
"I haven't the time" cry is system-atization of effort, and economy of time. If you don't do another thing in the second term at least make out a daily schedule and follow it conscientiously.

We believe there are some students in Otterbein College who have lost their grasp on the world. They are drifting, always too much hurried to think. Take time to think, even if it comes from study hours. Secure a subject which is interesting to you and think about it.

Lay aside time in your schedule for recreation; if you do not you probably will break into your study time
for it regardless of good intentions.

A New Gymnasium.

Last Saturday night the need of a new gym was graphically demonstrated.

People crammed in till standing room was at a premium, men hanging from the windows, the little balcony crowded to the danger point and visitors forced to stand around the edge of the floor. All this, and yet there are some around here that contend we do not need a new gym.

But that isn't all. The floor itself is too small. Most basketball floors are about as wide as ours is long.
This is bound to handicap the team work when they get away from home.
And next year when we are in the Conference and bring big Conference teams here to play, our miniature floor will be the laughing stock of the state.

Then if you still think we don't need a new gym, ask any man that takes gymnasium work about the unsurpassed locker and shower bath accommodations. About forty lockers care for the needs of all the men in the gymnasium classes who number at least thrice that number. The locker room itself is warmed to such an extent that we may expect to find icicles hanging from the heating pipes almost anytime. Then too, after the members of one of the gym classes have used the showers the men in the next class usually have to content themselves with a dry rub or taking their chances under zero water. So we do need a new gym. Put that in your head and keep it there.

A good friend by the name of Edwards built the gymnasium by that name at Wesleyan and Col. Deeds of Dayton is giving Dennison $100,000
for a new gym and athletic fields.

It would be fine if Otterbein had some Edwards or Deeds in her constituency but since she hasn't it is up to her to do it alone, so let's get busy, all of us, and agitate the "Need of a New Gym".—J. G. H.

CAMPUS CHIT CHAT

Some one said the other day that we ought to have a joke box around school. We suggest that it be made large enough to accommodate several of our worthy schoolmates who no doubt would feel at home there.

In these days of snow and ice the Prod'gal Son's father isn't the only one that falls on his neck.

Wouldn't it be funny if Grove Gray was a preacher; "Benny" Heeter a spinster; Olson, an athlete and Prexy
a comedian; if Piggy Harris would get a decent haircut, Bob Martin was struck dumb for just a second or
"Prof Rossy" yelled "Hoch der Kaiser".

You know its Leap Year but progress seems slow, probably due to the icy weather which makes it too slippery to take the necessary leap.

We thank Mr. Martin these days for his efficient training in gym when we call upon the dorm, find the chairs
all full, and have to drape ourselves gracefully upon the chandelier or else
be festooned on the stair banister.
Boys take a camp stool or folding chair with you.

We heard of a preacher the other day who said U. B. meant "unusually blessed", but judging by the specimens of that denomination around here we would say it meant "usually broke".

POLITICAL COMMENT

Elihu Root says that we have sent nothing but empty words to the aid of the Russian Anti-Bolsheviks, when moral support, money and supplies
would make them victorious.

We hear a lot about the death of John Barleycorn, but nobody has observed that the liquor interests are very unsportsman-like losers.

Democrat: I second the motion.

Chairman: It is moved and second-

Republican: The omission of the punctuation mark, Mr. Chairman, would mean the destruction of the reservation. We do not intend to be forced by anybody to vote for the treaty without the reservation as it stands—with the semicolon.

Democrat: Mr. Chairman, the semi-colon is not that important.

Republican: Yes, it is.

Democrat: No, it isn't. We will not vote for the reservation with the semicolon in this place.

Voices: Question; question.

Chairman: It is moved and second-

All in favor please say "Aye." Opposed, "No." The motion is lost.

"Teen Age" Is Subject of Interesting Meeting.

Y. M. C. A. was fortunate in having with them Thursday night, Paul Brown, International Intermediate Christian Endeavor Secretary and Arthur Whitney State Secretary of the same organization.

Mr. Brown explained the work of the Intermediate societies and told how important it was that we should get the young people of the teen age at work for Christ. The things that they learn at this age have a tendency to stay with them a long time.

Mr. Whitney spoke more particularly of the Loyalty Program outlined at the recent Buffalo Conference. The slogan is, "Being loyal in whatever He would like to have me do." The promises of the pledge are no longer to be put in the future but are to be read in the present. We must be performing Christians. Mr. Whitney ended with this challenge: "I take off my hat to everything that has been good in the past but I take off my coat to the tasks of the future."

STUDENTS HEAR ADDRESSES

Specialists in Christian Endeavor Activities Address Students After Social Time.

Christian Endeavorers had the rare privilege on last Thursday night of listening to two of the great leaders in that work, Paul Brown, national secretary of Intermediate Christian Endeavor and Mr. Whitney, secretary-treasurer of the State Christian Endeavor work in Ohio.

At 7:15 a reception was held in the church parlors, where a pleasant social time was enjoyed. At 8:00 o'clock the crowd assembled in the auditorium; and Dr. Sanders introduced Mr. Whitney, who gave a stirring talk on the "Challenge of C. E. in Ohio". His speech, besides presenting a moving appeal for loyalty in this work, was full of sparkling wit, of a kind that enabled him to hold and interest his hearers.

Mr. Brown, who had previously addressed the students in Chapel, then spoke on Intermediate Work, including all denominations. In a forceful manner he presented both the opportunities and problems in this great work.

Boarding Club B. B. League.

Four interesting games were played in the Boarding Club league last week. On Monday the Falk's defeated the Scrubs in a game in which Elliot carried away the honors by caging three baskets. The Semi-scrubs had an easy time defeating the Priests.

The Tuesday games resulted in victory for the Pace Club over the Bradfords and the Bishops smothered the Mattoon Club by the score of 22 to 3. Sprout and Meyers excelled for the Bishops.

Results of games—Monday, January 19: Falk's, 8; Scrubs, 4; Semi-scrubs, 16; Priests, 9.

Tuesday, January 20: Pace, 8; Bradford, 6; Bishop, 22; Mattoon, 3.

A few minutes later Cutler pulled off a pretty piece of footwork by getting away from his man and dropping through the goal which registered Otterbein's first victory of the season. best men for Capital but to pick out a star for Otterbein would be more than difficult. Cutler pulled some mighty clever pass work and shot well while Ranck and Peden put up a defensive game which would be hard to improve. Collier played well defensively while Fox was the high scorer for the evening.

The entire game and spirit of the crowd showed that the old fight and "pep" which manifests itself in Otterbein's athletics is still there even though it had been dormant for some time.

The second half our quintet went at things so earnestly as to completely sweep Capital from their feet. The passing became more accurate and Fox and Cutler got their shooting eye in shape. At the outset Charlie dropped two straight field goals, which untied the score and placed Otterbein in the lead which she held until the final whistle blew. Ranck and Peden put up a splendid game at guard, the Lutheran boys getting but two field goals in the entire half. Toward the end of the last half Albright was sub-

MUSICAL PROGRAM OFFERED

Philomatheia Displays Musical Talent
Before Large Audience—Solo and Duet Numbers Please.

Before a large and appreciative audience Philomatheia's orchestra rendered a splendid musical program last Friday evening. The numbers were well appointed and were received with much delight by those present.

Besides the orchestral selections a vocal solo and cornet duet were included. Mr. Dale Phillippi favored society with the former and Messrs. Johnson and Bay presented the latter. Both selections were well rendered and gained much praise. An encore was called for after each rendition by the orchestra.

The program:
March—"Flagship Connecticut" Schumann

Orchestra
Cornet Duet—
"Berceuse from Jocelyn" Goddard

Johnson, B. T. and Bay, C. H.
"The Cavalier Polka" (Cornet Solo) Losey

Orchestra
Vocal Solo—Selected
Phillippi, D. M.
March—"Ironclad" Huff

Orchestra
This occasion marks Philomatheia's first endeavor along musical lines since before the war. Much musical talent was displayed. Mr. Johnson's cornet work being especially pleasing. Mr. Donald Bay is the present orchestra leader.

Philomatheia was honored by the presence of the Philophronean society in body at this session. A large number of ladies from both societies were also guests. Following the musical program Miss Eubanks spoke for Cleiorhetea. Miss Foor and Mr. Ehrhart then favored society with a few words in behalf of Philaethea and Philophronea.
