CONFERENCE CLOSED
Registration Far Exceeds Hopes of Committee.
Two hundred and twenty-seven registered delegates in attendance at the Ohio Student Christian Leaders' Conference, were guests of Otterbein and Westerville from Friday noon to Sunday evening. Delegations were present from thirty-one colleges of the state, Ohio Wesleyan having the largest representation with fifty-three representatives, with Ohio State a close second. Bishop McDowell, whose coming was looked forward to with so much interest, wired that he would not be present on account of sickness. A complete account of conference may be found on another page.

PLEADS FOR LIVES
Opportunity Time Now Facing the Church.
At the regular church service Sunday morning, J. Lovell Murray gave a very educational and interesting talk on missions.
He used as his theme the third verse of the one hundred and tenth Psalm, "The people shall be willing in the day of thy power; in the beauty of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth." The talk was a plea for young and old, and to give up their lives to Christ, and spread his work throughout the world. Now is the time when the church must make a greater effort in order to take advantage of the many changes which are going on in both political and social conditions. The people are waking up and beginning to think and the non-Christian faiths are losing their holds. The greatest opportunity which the Christian Church has ever seen is now before it, and to take advantage of this great opportunity it must have workers who are willing to give their lives to Christ and his service.

LEADERSHIP DEMANDED
Axis of the World Revolves About Pacific Shores as Center.
In his address Sunday afternoon, on "Why a World-Wide Program of Christian Service Demands Increased Leadership," Dr. Robert E. Lewis, General Secretary of the Cleveland Y. M. C. A., based his discussion on the hypothesis that leadership will decide the fate of the world. The axis of the world has changed from its Euphrates cradle to the coasts of the Mediterranean, in an era of prowess; thence to the Atlantic basin in the industrial era of our own day. Its ultimate axis will be the Pacific shores as the center of the world of thought and industrial competition. In this melting pot of the Pacific, God has brought the nations, now plastic and changing. The leadership in the moral struggle that is imminent, demands (1) the cooperative spirit that takes account of the personal equation; (2) Service that subordinates the question of remuneration; (3) "Men that remain in the shadow in order that they may increase the light;" (4) Men willing to forbear and to sacrifice.

College Mate Preaches
The Rev. Russell Showers, of Portland, Oregon, a student in Bonebrake Seminary, occupied the Rev. Daugherty's pulpit Sunday evening. Mr. Showers is a graduate of Lebanon Valley College, and a college mate of pastor Daugherty.

Coach Sees Carlisle Play.
Coach Gardner will leave the latter part of the week for the east, where he will see the Carlisle-Pittsburg football game Saturday.

To Dayton.
The football team journeyed to Dayton, Saturday morning, where they line up against the St. Mary's team. The squad was photographed Monday afternoon, and a copy of the picture will be sent to Dayton for use of the newspaper.
OTTERBEIN SCALPS
MUSKINGUM

Gardner's Braves Work Nicely in 20-0 Victory.

Otterbein tore the lid off the local season by defeating Muskingum in a well played game. Coach Gardner saw a great improvement in his warriors over the previous games, both in line and backfield. Muskingum was allowed no first downs, and only once was our goal in danger, in the first quarter on failure of visitors attempt to drop kick from 33 yard line. Good gains for the locals were made through the line, forward passes, and end runs, some netting forty yards, made chiefly through the excellent interference mapped out by Gardner.

Plott Makes Touchdown.

Captain Snavely showed old time form when he made good gains through the line. Sommers starred on end runs and defensive work and Plott carried the ball through the wall on two occasions for touchdowns. Berrenger featured in two passes each for twenty yard gains. Elliott showed better on defensive work, while Hayes played his usual game at end. Garver who went in for Hayes, made a sensational tackle in the fourth quarter, that brought ball near goal when half ended. Score 6-0.

Third Quarter: Snavely received for 15 yards. Sommers fumbled and Elliott downed Berveridge on failure to punt, for 20 yard loss. Berveridge pun ted and Bronson recovered fumble. The backs then worked steadily till Plott drove through line for touchdown. Plott kicked goal. Snavely received for 20 yard return, but O. U. was held for downs and Jack punted 35 yards. Berveridge was forced to return punt. Sommers skirted end for 5 yards and quarter ended with pig skin in middle field. Score 13-0.

Fourth Quarter: The last score came after a successful pass and line plunges, when Plott again (continued on page three.)

Second Quarter: Muskingum, after successive failures in passing, punted to Bronson who returned 10 yards. Snavely went around end for 10 yards. Pass to Berrenger good for 20 yards. Plott in for 5 and Snavely's buck gave Otterbein first score. Plott failed to kick goal. Muskingum kicked to Plott who returned for 10 yards. End runs by Sommers and Plott, pass to Berveridge, brought ball near goal when half ended. Score 6-0.

TWENTY-FOUR ENTER TOURNAMENT

Captain Sando Carries Away Highest Honors.

The first local tennis tournament ever held in Otterbein closed Saturday with R. B. Sando holding highest honors by winning all sets in the singles, also taking prizes in men's and mixed doubles. Through the athletic spirit of Coach Gardner, the project was launched with much enthusiasm and by his effort the tournament was a success and should be duplicated next spring with more entries.

Twenty-four players of the canvas court responded to the call of the coach, and much interest was taken by the contestants in competition for prizes. The first prizes, being blue ribbons, were awarded to Sando, winner of men's singles; to Sando and Nelson, winners of men's doubles, and to Sando and Miss Denton, winners of mixed doubles. The second prizes (red ribbons,) were captured by Nelson in men's singles, Barkemeyer and Bandeen in men's doubles, and Bandeen and Miss Brundage in mixed doubles.

SECONDS LOSE OPENER

Poor Equipment the Cause for Defeat Friday.

The O. U. second squad opened their football season Friday afternoon at Columbus, and in a well played game dropped the contest to the Aquinas. The lines were far better than the backfield of the opponents outweighed our men, which assisted them in making gains for two touchdowns. Passes worked well and many gains were scored by both teams. Captain Rice, and Dunn were the principals for Aquinas, while Edmund and Metzer carried the ball in gains for O. U. Rich and the two Weimers held their opponents successfully, as they formed a good wall that was impregnable Ruth Weimer made a neat catch of Shepherd's pass in the second for 23 yds. Interference was fatal for the Seconds, and the light backfield many times had to make their own paths through the line.

Few Otterbein second teams have been so well equipped (continued on page 3.)

TRACK MEN RESPOND

Coach Issues Second Call For Men to Contest For Medal.

The call for practice for the cross-country run to be held November 9, stirred some track enthusiasts to early training for the new event in Otterbein athletics. Some scantily clothed objects were adorning the track at early hours since the call was issued to limber up idle muscles to get in condition for the bronze prize. It is likely that more prominent figures will be seen in competition for the honors.

This is a newly added feature to the athletic program arranged by Coach Gardner. This variety of athletic sports is just what Otterbein has lacked in previous years, and tends to help the athletic spirit, as well as ability, to be aroused in every student.

The coach wants more men out in competition for the prize.

Session in Charge of Finance Committee.

The financial rally of the Young Men’s Christian Association Thursday evening was conducted by Professor L. A. Weiland. He chose for the subject of his remarks, “What the Young Men’s Christian Association means to the men in school and what it will mean to the men when out of school.” He mentioned as one of the benefits to the man in school, the development of loyalty to the association and the institution. Another great benefit is the personal contact of the men, both strong and weak. Still another and perhaps the greatest benefit is the closer contact which is gained with Christ himself. It is there that we learn to appreciate His greatness, and learn to love His nature. This strengthens us against the storms of skepticism which may cross our path in after life.

The second part of his talk gave the views of the ex-student. He said that right in the association, leaders are oftentimes developed. This is certainly very beneficial, as it prepares men for leadership in Christian work in the home community.

Conceding that the work of the organization is of such great importance, we should throw our support on its behalf. Let us all respect so as to be in no wise discouraged, as it prepares men for leadership in Christian work in the home community.

11—When a Freshman knocks at his Seniors door he shall tell (his) name if asked who.

19—When anybody knocks at a Freshman’s door, he shall not ask who is there, but shall immediately open the door.

16—No Freshman shall lean at prayer but shall stand upright.

17—No Freshman shall call his classmate by the name of Freshman.

18—No Freshman shall call up or down to or from his Senior’s chamber or his own.

19—No Freshman shall throw anything across the College yard.

20—No Freshman shall mingo against the College wall, nor go into the Fellows cus John.

21—Freshmen may wear there hats at dinner and supper, except when they go to receive there Commons of bread and bear.

22—Freshmen are so to carry themselves to there Seniors in all respects so as to be in no wise saucy to them, and who soever of the Freshmen shall brake any of these customs shall be severely punished.”—From the American College, December, 1909.

MOBILISATION EXPLAINED

Delegates Give Reasons For Entering Christian Work.

Miss Anna Brown, of New York, explained the Student Volunteer declaration Saturday evening. Some of her points were: "The Student Volunteer Association is not a missionary board. It never has, and never will, send out a missionary. The declaration is not a pledge. It is not a decision, but the result of a decision made with God. Mere willingness will not evangelize the world. Volunteerism is not an end, but a means to an end. Complete consecration comes before volunteering. If one is consecrated, the work will take care of itself.

There were five minute talks on, "Why I went into Christian Service," by Mr. Bradley, of Oberlin, and the subject of this talk was "The Disciple whom Jesus loved." Her series of Christianity and the result pays.

Social Hour.

At nine o'clock Saturday evening, the delegates and interested Otterbeinites went to Cochran Hall parlors to enjoy a social hour. After a half hour had been consumed in becoming acquainted, Mr. Camp Foltz played a piano solo; Professor Gilbert, a violin solo and Professors Resler, Helman, Grabill and Gilbert gave a vocal quartet. Refreshments were then served in the dining room, and after all had returned to the parlors, the various delegates tried to out-do each other in college songs and yells. About three hundred guests expressed their delight for the evening's enjoyment.

SUPREME BUSINESS

OF THE CHURCH

Making Christ Known to All the World is Evening's Theme.

Mr. J. Lovell Murray, of the Student Volunteer Movement, addressed the conference Friday evening upon the above theme. He stated that the basis of the missionary activity of the churches today lay in the character of God himself, in the Apostle's Creed, in the commandments and teachings of Jesus, and in the constitution of the Christian church. All of Christ's teachings are couched in universal terms.

The needs of the mission field were pointed out, and a challenge for lives of service extended to college men and women. Mr. Murray refuted the argument that the Christian religion was for the Anglo-Saxon race only, and stated that this race must furnish the gospel to all mankind.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER

Value of This Form of Prayer Discussed by Speaker.

In the absence of Dr. Robert E. Lewis, who was to occupy the afternoon hour on Saturday, Professor R. H. Walker, of Ohio Wesleyan University, spoke to the conference on "Intercessory Prayer and its Relation to World Leadership." One way of preaching the gospel to all the world and thus fulfilling Christ's command, is by means of intercessory prayer.

Professor Walker outlined his subject as follows: (1) Instructions as to content of prayer; (2) Conditions of prayer; (3) Words of encouragement as answers of prayer. The Lord's prayer was taken as an example and its different phases discussed.

Technical Hour.

Miss Ethel Cutler spoke to the girls about the practical methods of canvassing for mission study. She said that the girls who had charge of it, should be out and out for mission study, and that as few girls had time for two extra classes per week, one rally for both subjects would be advisable. The courses could then be arranged, so that double benefits would be derived from the time usually spent on one study.

Mr. Murray led the men in their discussion as to the difficulties and problems to be faced in enlisting men for classes in missions.

WHY STUDY MISSIONS

Conviction Necessary Before Interest is Manifested.

Professor E. D. Soper, of Ohio Wesleyan University, gave a number of reasons why the college man should study missions. He stated that conviction is a necessity of mission study.

The several reasons which he mentioned as a basis for his address were, (1) Of its cultural value; (2) Missions today are being reduced to a science; (3) It gives adequate standards in forming a working philosophy of life; (4) The study of missions is a challenge to a life of unselfish service; (5) It appeals to the romantic in life; (6) It gives content to our prayers; (7) Mission study is the only excuse we have for being optimistic about Christianity.

The Character of John.

One of the many helpful studies to which delegates were privileged to listen, was that of "The Character of John, the Apostle." Miss Ethel Cutler, Student Bible Secretary, National Board, Y. W. C. A., was happy in her choice of a subject for Bible Study. John, who is commonly understood to be a weakly, effeminate character, was pictured as a man who underwent a long process of character formation. From a quick-tempered, egotistic, selfish and exclusive individual, he was changed to a man of self-control. He grew like Jesus, and won for himself the title, "the Disciple whom Jesus loved." Her series of three studies upon this important character, was of highly devotional nature, and showed the speaker's familiarity with her subject.

Case.—On the last day of September, the junior committee served notice on the lower classes that the tug-of-war would take place at 4:15 p. m. of that day. The teams were late in assembling, and after a long delay the shot was fired which commenced the struggle. The freshmen were outnumbered, and it was only a question of a short time until twenty freshmen plunged into Wade Pond. The third team which deserted the rope, went in voluntarily and two were thrown in.

The secreatary of the association in Madras consists of five persons, of whom four are English women and one an American.

The Association owns its own property, a compound of four acres on one of the principal streets of the city. The purchase of this valuable site was made possible some years ago by the generosity of friends in America. One building is devoted to religious and educational activities, and a boarding department, accommodating thirty-five European young women.

The Indian student housed in another building with a secretary in charge, and accommodates about twenty students. Madras is the third city in India, and covers an area of approximately thirty square miles. As the distances are great and there are few street car lines, the Association has found it necessary to organize branches in different parts of the city. There are at present seventeen branches, including nine, student branches in the various schools and colleges admitting women. The character of the work of the Young Women's Christian Association in Madras is the same as that of the Association in America, and the members, both Indian and European, welcome the privileges which are offered.
