4000 ACRE FARM BOUGHT BY U. B. CHURCH

Will Be Used As Home For Aged Ministers and Missionaries.

A deal has been consummated whereby the United Brethren church, for a consideration of $350,000, has come into possession of the famous Shaker farm of 4000 acres, located near Lebanon, Ohio. This is the last of the community settlements of the Shakers, who at one time owned considerable property in Ohio and elsewhere. The farm will be used as a home for superannuated ministers, missionaries, and their wives and children.

Dr. J. R. King, '94, for the past eighteen years the superintendent of African missions of the United Brethren church, has been appointed superintendent of the farm. An effort is being made to secure a state charter for the home, and incorporation papers have already been signed for the purpose of effecting the same.

Congressman J. M. Cox, candidate for governor of Ohio; Fred H. Rike, President of the Rike-Kumler company, Dayton, O., Dr. W. H. Washinger, superintendent of the Pennsylvania conference; Jay M. Cogan, Attorney, Canton, O., Dr. J. M. Philippi editor of the Religious Telescope; Bishop G. M. Mathews, and Dr. W. R. Funk, are the incorporators. The trustees of the home will include the incorporators, and in addition, Bishop W. M. Weekley, Kansas City, and Matt Edmonds, state senator of Kansas.

Eleven Take Examinations.

The Rhodes Scholarship examinations, held last Tuesday and Wednesday at Ohio State University, were taken by eleven candidates, among them C. M. Helbert, '11, of Otterbein. Latin, Greek and Mathematics were the only subjects upon which the applicants were tested. The colleges represented were, Ohio Wesleyan, Mt. Union-Scio, Miami, Ohio State, Oberlin, Otterbein, Denison, and Westminster.

INTERESTING GROUP OF SISTERS AT OTTERBEIN

Team "on the Carpet."

Coach Gardner called a meeting of the football team at noon Monday, in order to determine the cause of losing the game Saturday with St. Mary's. He asked each man to give his reasons why the game was lost. The chief reason given for the defeat was the failure to break up forward passes. A few changes will probably be made in the line-up this week.

Sibyl Contract Given.

Mr. H. P. Ward, of the Champion Press, Columbus, spoke before the Sibyl staff and Board Monday night.

The contract for the engraving of the 1913 Sibyl has been placed with the Electric City Engraving Company, Buffalo, N. Y. This concern did the similar work for the Sibyl of 1911.

Robbins is on the Stage.

Mr. Burton Robbins, who coached last year's senior play, is now on the stage, playing with Norman Hackett, as Bishop Ludlow, in "Satan Sanderson". The company played recently in Columbus, and the past week in Detroit, Mich.

Music Recital.

The first monthly recital of the School of Music, will be given in Lambert Hall, Wednesday evening, October 23, 8:00 p. m. The program (see page 3) is composed of interesting vocal and instrumental numbers of the best compositions.

GARDNER CONFIDENT OF VICTORY OVER DENISON

Coach Returns From Carlisle-Pittsburg Game With New Plays.

In view that last Saturday's defeat is a blow to the football records, Coach Gardner is assured that it was naturally an off-day, and that next Saturday will find our colors waving over the college field with a victory over Denison. His new plays will give the team the ability, but the squad must have the support of every Otterbeiner. Not one should drop from the ranks at this moment, for the dawn is breaking and defeats are covered with the bright hopes of victory. Why not remain loyal, support the team with loud cheers and all join in on a celebration of a victory over Denison? No better squad ever donned the tan and cardinal or was more capable of victory than those who represent the school this year. So be there with the Whoop! Hip! for our team. Don't knock, but help win by boosting. Buy a noisemaker for the game Saturday. Keep your eyes open for a barrel, box or anything that will burn. Be in on the doin's Saturday.

Will Leave For Africa.

Dr. S. S. Hough, foreign missionary secretary of the United Brethren Church, occupied the Rev. Mr. Daugherty's pulpit Sunday morning. The theme for his address was based upon his recent visit to the Orient.

Dr. Hough will leave the early part of November for Africa, to make an investigation of the mission field at Sierra Leone, and to confer with secretaries of other denominational boards, concerning the occupancy of mission territory in that continent.

Senior Push.

The seniors journeyed to the home of their class president, R. A. Hanawalt, Monday night, where a delightful social time was enjoyed around the festal board.

Varsity vs. Westerville.

The varsity football squad had a little practice game with the Westerville Athletics last Wednesday afternoon. Three ten minute quarters were played, during which time a score of 25-0 was made in varsity's favor.

Sommers is New Member.

The Athletic Association at its called meeting Wednesday, elected E. Sommers as a member of the Athletic Board, to fill the vacancy caused by A. L. Lambert's absence from school.

Declamation Contest.

The annual Russell Declamation Contest for Freshmen and Sophomores will be held in the college chapel Saturday, November 23. Those desiring to enter should consult Prof. Heltman.

FORWARD PASSES DEFEAT OTTERBEIN

Plott Breaks Through Line
Forty Times for Gains.

On a muddy field, Saturday St. Mary's College by their excellent delayed passes scored a victory over Otterbein 14-12. The Saints scored both touchdowns on forward passes that completely baffled the Westerville squad. Otterbein came back and by playing straight football twice pushed the oval over the line, but through failure at goals St. Mary's was declared victor. A five yard penalty in the third quarter and a fumble on the two yard line had much to do with the defeat. Otterbein's line was like a stone wall and the opponents did not score more than one first down through the line, but time after time the oval sailed to a Saint for a 20 or 40 yard gain. End runs were out of the question for both teams. Otterbein scored on line bucks, gaining 20 first downs. Forward passes were tried, but one only was shot successfully into Bailey's arms.

Plott Shows Brilliant Playing.

Harold Plott, the star Fostoria boy certainly proved worthy of Exendine's prediction last year. Exactly forty times the husky boy was called on to carry the ball for good gains straight through the line, and once thirty yards for a touchdown. Sommers struck hard luck in the second quarter and was forced to retire on account of injuries. Bronson took the helm and guided the backs with line plunges to their first score. The Saint's first score came in the first quarter when the team failed to see Fogarty laying out for a pass. This was an old trick of Exendine's, and Bevan's quarter was wise and shot the skin to the fleetfooted end for a seventy yard gain. The next play Marht shot a pass over the line to Devereux for a touchdown. Clark kicked goal which was enough to defeat the visitors. The Saints were out-weighed but Otterbein did not seem to take this advantage, and played a sluggish game from the start, being slightly handicapped by a wet field. End runs from punt formation were impossible. Little spirit was shown. A prominent sporting editor of Dayton expressed, "the defeat was due partly to over confidence and the rest to an off day or fumbling and poor head work." Poor officiating and unnecessary delays made the game very monotonous.

SECOND TEAM PLAYS SCORELESS GAME

Heavy Rain Puts Field in Bad Shape For Contest.

The Otterbein Seconds played their second game of the season Saturday on the home field, South High of Columbus being the foe. Owing to the muddy condition of the field the game was rather slow, and resulted in neither team scoring, although it was not without interesting features.

Seconds-0 South High-0

South kicked off to Otterbein, who rushed the ball back on three or four plays to their own forty yard line. Here South held for downs, and received the ball on a punt. The ball changed hands constantly during this half, neither team gaining much ground. The first half ended with the ball in Otterbein's possession on her own 48 yard line.

In the third quarter everything was in Otterbein's favor, and they carried the ball by consisting bucking and end runs to South's 18 yard line. Here the ball was lost on downs, and O. U. lost her chance to score.

In the fourth quarter South came back with a vengeance and secured the ball on her forty yard line with five minutes to play. Her gaining was very consistent, and time after time she made first down on off tackle bucks. Time ended for the second half with the ball on Otterbein's 15 yard line in South's possession.

South's line showed up well and gave evidence of being very well coached. In the backfield Gaulke, at quarter was most in evidence taken all in all South showed very good playing but the team work and open play of both O. U. and South High was handicapped by the muddy field.

Backfield Plays Well.

For Otterbein Seconds it would be hard to pick out individual stars as the entire team did itself credit. In the backfield, Shepherd at quarter kept the team on the jump all the time. Daub, Edmund and Metzger formed a trio that was hard to stop. Edmund's line bucking and Metzger's end runs being features.

In the line Mathers and Schnake at ends, played their usual good games. Richey at L. Gaulke had the edge on his opponent as did Young who held down the same position on the right side. Roth Weimer at tackle, played a hard game. At center Russell Weimer was a hard man for South to stop, and he succeeded in breaking up many plays of South High back of her line.

The game as a whole was interesting although open and spectacular work was barred by the mud and rain.

The Woman's Tailor Who Stopped Guessing--a True Story.

One day a certain firm of women's tailors in Cleveland determined that they would take all the guesswork out of clothes buying and MAKE WOMEN SAFE.

"Women who buy clothes ought to be protected against uncertainties and we are going to do it," they said. "Our styles are going to be authentic, exclusive and irresistible."

"We will use nothing but fabrics of pure wool, free of even a thread of cotton; cloth that will wear for years."

"We will use the best, soft tailoring that the tailoring art knows. A woman will be able to sleep in one of our garments if she wants to, and shake out every crease and wrinkle when she wakes up."

"We will put a label in every one of our garments so that they can be identified in any store, and we will guarantee that every garment bearing that label will give satisfactory wear for two full seasons."

"That's fine, but how are you going to do it?" asked the trade.

"We'll show you," said this concern.

And they did. How they did it—how they got the precious, carefully-guarded Paris style information in time—how their styles became not merely the admiration but the standard of the American women's clothing trade—how their shop grew to be the model plant of the whole world—all this we tell in subsequent stories. This is enough for today, except to say—

This store has the exclusive selling agency for this city of the garments made under the above policy. The styles are numerous, exclusive and exquisite; the values easily the best to be had by anyone who appreciates the value of continued good looks at moderate cost. The maker's name is The H. Black Co., the label on their coats, suits and skirts reads "WOOLTEx."

For examples of the superb garments and distinctive styles made possible at moderate prices by the Wooltex policy, see, among others, tomorrow, the Wooltex Suits at $22.50, $25, $30, $35, $42.50.

As Created.

There's a space for good to bloom in Every heart of man or woman,

And however wild or human,

Or however brimmed with gall,

Never heart may beat without it;

And the darkest heart to doubt it

Has something good about it
After all.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Use the Review.

The editor is frequently asked to write articles expressing the opinions of others upon topics, which do not interest him particularly. He is striving to represent the college as a whole, not each single individual.

This paper is an organ for the use of all interested in Otterbein, both students and alumni. It should not savor too much of editorials.

The more it is used by the students themselves, the better will be pleased.

A good many students, even though of mature age, haven't outgrown childishness. If things don't move to suit their fancy, they go off in a corner and pout.

Several fellows have been going around with their mind on their upper lip the last week.

Musicals.

Every student should show his appreciation of the efforts being made by the directors of the School of Music to elevate their department, by attending the recitals, held monthly.

The presence in large numbers, of the student body, will increase the interest, and lend an impetus to the already widespread reputation of the Conservatory.

Everybody come out Wednesday evening to hear the initial program.

Cutting Classes.

Ever been guilty of it? Money is spent for tuition, and instructor's time is purchased, and yet many of us feel delighted to miss attendance at classes. This is worse than extravagance, for you get nothing for your money.

This is not the worst of it. You have failed to perform a moral obligation to your professor, in failing to be present at class. Students usually 'cut' because they are unprepared, and this doubles the offense. Many have 'cut' so often, that they have formed a habit of it.

Sickness, or other excuses just as valid, should alone excuse one from attending classes, and the student should have honor enough to be present regularly, even though he fails in recitation. Many feel embarrassed in failing to recite. There is no need for this, if your time has been well employed. Only the shirk, the 'hit and miss' student should be condemned. Better go to class and get the benefit of another's study than fail to attend at all.

Know His Reason.

We are just a little inclined to pass judgment upon our fellow students, without being in full possession of facts to warrant such judgment. For instance, we often hear the term "short skate," or "tight-wad" applied to certain individuals, because they refuse to pay a class assessment, or some other financial obligation imposed upon them. Curious fact it is, too, that the ones guilty of thus denominating others, have never earned a dollar since they have been in college.

The students that you are condemning, may have good reason for not paying as readily as yourself. He is earning every dollar of his expenses. Money comes with difficulty.

The other fellow's circumstances should be considered in preference to one's own. Above all, suspend judgment until you are acquainted with all the facts before you apply unkind terms to him.

What's the matter with the water works of Westerville? Part of the time, students have no water at all, and at other times, it is so muddy that it isn't fit to bathe in, let alone drinking it.

Girls' Rooting!

Dear Editor:

One of the most warmly received and inspiring innovations in athletic circles last year was the rooting by our college women. This organized group with their enthusiastic and energetic spirit, not only aided the players, but woke up the men. And in this instance, as in several other typical matters this year, we find an unpopular check and ban inserted. It is a sure thing, that the real college man or woman does not forever care to be curbed and blocked in every sensible effort. This story will of course be spread far; and it is just such little trivial and kindergardenish domination that makes Otterbein unpopular to many prospective. There is more than one cause for college prestige, and details do weigh in the balance.

W.

Girls' Basket Ball.

Dear Editor:

Your suggestion in regard to a girls' intercollegiate basket ball team has been very favorably received by most of the girls in Otterbein. I, having played in the inter-class games last year have had ample opportunity to discuss this subject with many of the girls. They stand as a unit for intercollegiate basketball. Why should the faculty and other members of the school object when the girls themselves are in favor of it? We demand basket ball for three important reasons.

First, we need it because of the physical benefit which it gives us. Our lives here at college confine us almost entirely to our rooms, with the exception of our evening trip to the post office. Even this will be denied us in another month, since free delivery of mail becomes effective. Such mild exercise as walking does not supply all our needs, so it becomes imperative for us to have something more strenuous.

Not only does it aid our physical health but during the basket ball season, our minds are capable of greater attainment. When we have the necessary amount of exercise, we eat and sleep better. Consequently, we think more clearly.

Also, in our association together while practicing, there is a spirit of good cheer and good natured rivalry which can not be developed elsewhere. In intercollegiate games the same spirit would be developed among colleges. And is not this the pet theme of our faculty to give Otterbein a high standard among other schools?

Possibly, some of our very conservative friends will exclaim that basket ball tends to lower woman's dignity, or femininity as they call it., but, who is more careful not to overstep the bounds of propriety than woman herself? Our friends need not be alarmed about the co-eds. Give us intercollegiate basket ball and watch for a greater spirit of loyalty among the girls, to old Otterbein.—Myrtle Winterhalter, '15.

Lively Discussion Follows Presentation of Question.

The subject used for discussion Thursday evening was, "Does a Christian Who is Too Strict Do As Much Harm As The One Who is Too Lax?" The meeting was led by C. R. Layton. After a short introductory talk, the subject was open for discussion to all the members. Some very helpful remarks were given. As a rule we are too strict in our criticism against the other fellow, and too lax with ourselves.

It was the belief of some that the one who is making a sincere effort to be a Christian was sometimes discouraged by the too-strict one. The influence, however of the too-lax fellow would tend to a lowering of the standard of Christianity. Some thought that it was an impossibility to be too strict unless this term would imply narrow-mindedness. The Pharisee's mistake was that he followed too strictly the letter of the law.

More charity, one for the other, and a less critical spirit, are some of the lessons gained from the meeting.

Y. W. C. A.

Leader Emphasizes Consistent Christian Living.

The Y. W. C. A. was led by Esta Moser. The leader talked on "Wells Without Water." The water supply of Palestine was spoken of. In that country it was a very usual thing to find wells out in the village, or in the country. Travellers and herders refreshed themselves at these public watering places. We of ten compare our lives to wells. There are two kinds of religion, internal and external. We must have an internal religion in order to be consistent Christians. Christ purifies the stream, the heart, the internal life. Our internal life must not be too deep, for the well that is dug too deep is of not much benefit. The well without water or the Christian who is not the real Christian is the greatest disappointment and stumbling-block for others.

When a person is down in the world, an ounce of help is worth a pound of preaching.—Bulwer.

EXCHANGES

Marietta.—Alfred T. Perry, president of Marietta College, died Thursday morning at his home. He had just returned from a trip through the New England states.

On this account the football game, scheduled with West Virginia-Wesleyan for Saturday was postponed.

Miami.—The Bull Moosers came into prominence in Miami politics by the organization of a Roosevelt club. Officers were elected and steps were taken to secure buttons and literature. A large delegation is planning to hear Ex-President Roosevelt's speech in Cincinnati.

The Public Speaking Conference of Ohio Colleges was held at Miami. Twenty-two Ohio colleges are members of this organization.

Oberlin.—An Oberlin Wilson Club has been organized, which wishes to increase the Wilson interest in the school. Last Friday a special car was run to Cleveland to hear Governor Wilson give an address.

Work has begun on the 1914 Hi-O-Hi to be published next spring. Class pictures have been taken and sent to the engravers to avoid the rush of engraving companies in the spring.

Ohio Northern.—O. C. Barber gave an address in chapel to the students urging them to greater usefulness. In the afternoon he talked to the students and citizens of Ada along agricultural lines.

Bryn Mawr.—By the action of the trustees of this college, the number of students is limited to 400. Miss Thomas, president, in her welcoming address said, "All idlers and all girls who come here for the American good time or to pass the interval between school and 'coming out,' or because a woman's college is regarded as one of the cures for nervous girls, will, of course, be eliminated."

Next Meeting.

Dr. Frank Oldt, returned medical missionary from China, will be the speaker next Thursday evening at Y. M. C. A. Everybody come and hear him.

Students will be required to sign the following pledge, and on signing it will be admitted to membership in the college, viz:

We, the undersigned, students of Otterbein University, promise a full and cheerful compliance with all rules of this institution; that we will maintain respectful bearing towards all its officers and faculty; that we will render obedience to all their requirements; that we will discountenance all disorderly and irregular conduct, and all violations and evasions of the rules; and that we will, when required, bear testimony in cases of discipline.

Degrees.

2. As soon as possible after the regular examinations, the Faculty shall recommend to the Board of Trustees the names of such students as have honorably completed the several courses of study, as candidates for degrees and certificates, viz: those who have completed the regular College course, for the degree of Bachelor of Arts; those who have completed the Ladies' course, for the degree of Mistress of Arts; and those who have completed the Scientific course, for a certificate to that effect. The Faculty shall also recommend to the Trustees the names of Bachelors of three years' standing, who have engaged in honorable literary pursuits, as candidates for the degree of Master of Arts.

3. On the day of commencement such candidates as the Faculty shall have previously appointed shall perform the exercises assigned them, under penalty of being refused their degree. The exercise appointed for each candidate must be ready for performance at least two weeks before commencement, and a fair copy of the same, after its approval by the President, shall be deposited in the archives of the college. Should anyone express sentiments or language contrary to the emendations of the President, he shall be refused a diploma.

Religious Duties.

1. All students are required to attend public worship in the College chapel on Sabbath morning; except those who on account of church membership, or wish of parent or guardian, prefer to attend church elsewhere.

2. All students are required to attend daily public prayers in the college chapel; and also to attend the weekly Bible recitation in the division which they may be assigned.

3. The sanctification of the Lord's day is indispensable; no student, therefore, shall indulge, on that day, in the ordinary pursuit of study, unnecessary business, diversion, visiting or receiving visits, or walking abroad in groups; and any reading, conversation, or employment inconsistent with the religious observance of the Sabbath is to be carefully avoided.

Offences and Punishments.

1. High Offences.—Unlawful combinations; disrespect to the Faculty or other officers of the Institution; riotous and noisy behavior to the disturbance of the College or Westerville; refusing or neglecting to answer a summons by the President or Faculty; disobedience to the sentence of the Faculty for any offence; refusing to give testimony in any case when required by the Faculty, or falsifying therein; resisting or obstructing the Instructors or other officers in the discharge of any duty; challenging, assaulting, or endeavoring to injure any student or any other person; wilfully defacing or injuring the building, furniture, apparatus, or any other property in or about the College; use of profane language; use of intoxicating liquors; indecency in language, dress, or behavior; habitual extravagance; playing at any game for anything of value, or playing under any circumstances at billiards, cards, or any game of chance; encouraging or countenancing any person under sentence of dismissal or expulsion; association with any prohibited person; keeping firearms or any other weapon, or gunpowder, or using the same; being actively connected with any secret society, or military company, while members of the Institution; being concerned in any bonfire of unauthorized illumination; attending any ball, dancing party, dancing school, theatrical exhibition, horse race, or any place of similar resort; making, or being present at any festival entertainment or private party, without express permission; irreverent, disorderly or unseemly conduct in the chapel or church; false reporting of demerits; leaving Westerville, or immediate vicinity, without special permission; any offense against the law of the land, subjecting the offender to disgraceful punishment.

4. Misdemeanors or Minor Offences, are all not enumerated as high offenses; as loud talking, singing, or playing on any musical instrument out of proper hours; throwing water or dirt from the windows; omitting duty; idleness; negligence, or anything inconsistent with the habits of a well regulated family.

5. In cases of combinations to resist or disobey the Faculty or laws of the college, if so many be actors or abettors as to render it improper to punish all concerned with equal severity, the Faculty will select for punishment, as many of the offenders as they may judge necessary to secure the ends of punishment.

EXTRACTS FROM LAWS OF OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY

embracing those who have been most culpable when known, and also the two eldest of those concerned in the offense, if they shall deem it proper.

6. The punishment which may be inflicted, are private reprimand, official notice of delinquency to parent or guardian, public reprimand in presence of class, Faculty, or whole institution, suspension, dismissal, and expulsion. The frequency or repetition of offenses shall aggravate.

General Rules.

1. Students are prohibited from visiting those of the opposite sex at their rooms, or receiving visits from them at their own, except by permission of the President or Principal of the Ladies' Department, in a case of serious illness.

The penalty for violation of this rule is immediate expulsion.

4. Young gentlemen and ladies will not be permitted to take walks or rides together, under any circumstances, except by special permission.

5. Special intimacies with those of the opposite sex, or matrimonial engagements, will not be permitted; those who offend in this respect may be dealt with at the discretion of the faculty. Any who enter into the marriage relation, will be separated from the institution.

8. Three full studies are regarded as enough to occupy the student's time, and no student will be allowed to take a greater number, except in rare cases, by consent of the Faculty, or where are laid down in a prescribed course of study. No student shall discontinue a study, without the consent of the faculty.

• COCHRAN HALL ITEMS.

The first real table lottery of the year took place this week. It was rather laughable to locate your late right hand neighbor in a far corner, but just as pleasant table groups will be dispersed next month.

It looked as if a detective would have been of service one late evening, when a couple of girls tried to identify a number of similar electric curlers.

Wilda Dick is getting into all sorts of scrapes. It seems she will soon require an especial guardian or Dean (?) Wilda makes a raid on Myrtle; Myrtle in her wrath locks Ruth Ingle out, and Frances White in. Then Wilda is right on hand to help everybody.

Where was that south-end House Council?

Mr. Street came to see his daughter, Zelma last Tuesday and Norma McCally's father visited with her Saturday.

Miss Ethel Ressler spent Saturday and Sunday with the Resslers and her Cochran Hall cousin.

OTTERBEINESQUES

Snavely—"I don't see you at Bible anymore, Harold."

Plott—"Well, Doc Jones asked me for the names of the books of the Bible, so I quit."

Huber (at club).—"Pass me the butter, or I'll kick somebody."

If the mustache would the "go tee?"

Why did Mildred Cook suddenly move for adjournment at the last Sibyl Board meeting?

Wanted—Position as bartender. Can furnish handsomely growing mustache and excessive avoirdupois.—James Blaine Peck.

Grape nuts! There's a Reason!

Horace Mayne has done fairly well this week.

Ray's new sweater has arrived—

"Are you going to hear the town band tonight?"

No."

"I thought you liked music."

"Then why aren't you going tonight?"

"I like music."

"Have you joined the N. O. Y. B. Club, or learned the millionaire's trade?"

Interview Plott for particulars.

Impossible!—Lloyd E. never knocks anything around Otterbein.

Have you heard of the Jamison-Bondurant episode?

The loyal contralto at the South High-O. U. Seconds game to Kaye—"Your head will dry soon enough."

A number of students had the rare privilege of a private interview with the president during the past week.
