KENTUCKY CHAMPS

PROVE EASY MARK FOR VARSITY IN A FAST AND UP-HILL GAME.

Blue Grass Boys Forge Ahead In First Half But Suffer Final Defeat of 41-27.

In the fastest and most exciting game of the season, the Kentucky State Basketball team from Lexington, was defeated Friday afternoon through excellent work of the Varsity during the last half.

Otterbein was unable to get started in the first half and as a result the half ended with Kentucky in the lead; score 19 to 11. In the second half the tables turned and O. U. ran all over their opponents, scoring 30 points to the visitors 8. A great exhibition of ball was given in the last frame, every man on the team doing stellar work.

Captain Young at left forward shot 9 field goals, seven of these coming in the last half. John at the other forward also found the basket with ease, caging five. The most sensational shot of the game was pulled off by Cook, our husky left guard putting the ball through from past the center of the floor. He also played a great guarding game, covering the floor with remarkable rapidity.

RILEY R. ROSS

Will Deliver Lecture Friday Evening in College Chapel.

Students of Otterbein and people of Westerville will have the opportunity next Friday evening of enjoying what promises to be a literary treat of the highest for Mr. Ross wherever he has prominent business man of New York City, will deliver his lecture, "A Business Man's Estimate of a Great Man," in the College chapel at 8:15 on that evening. This lecture is particularly appropriate just now as the birthday celebration of one of our noble men, Abraham Lincoln has just taken place. This ex-president will be the central character in the lecture.

President Clippinger and Mr. Ross are personal friends and for that reason this noted lecturer was secured for Otterbein and Westerville people. Professional men, schools, churches, G. A. R. posts, and the press unite in expressing satisfaction and praise for Mr. Riley wherever he has appeared. He will deliver his lecture in Chicago the night following his appearance here. There will be no admittance charge, however a silver offering will be taken as a complimentary fee to the lecturer.

UNION REVIVAL

UNION MOVEMENT OF LOCAL CHURCHES LAUNCHED YESTERDAY.

Services Will Be Held Each Afternoon at 2 and Evening at 7—Dr. Bitler, Evangelist.

The Union Evangelistic services began Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the College chapel. This service was a preliminary meeting of those particularly interested in the success of the revival. The spirit displayed was good and indicated that a great number are willing to take an active part in bringing men and women to Christ during these services. In the evening a deep spiritual message was delivered by the evangelist in charge, James S. Bitler, D. D., of St. Louis, Missouri.

Dr. Bitler is an evangelist of considerable note having conducted revivals in all parts of the nation crossing the continent three times and appearing in most of the principal cities of the land. He is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University and has had twenty-five years of experience in evangelistic work.

Rev. Bitler is said to be particularly strong in his special addresses,—one to men, one to women, and one to a mixed audience. He will deliver the one to men, "The Mask Removed," next Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. While conducting services in Cleveland Dr. Bitler gave this address in the city Y. M. C. A. where it was heard by 1100 people, hundreds being turned away. It made such an impression that by special request the speaker repeated it on the following Sunday in the Epworth Memorial Church, this time to an audience of 150. Then an organization representing the united churches land persuaded Dr. r

Services will also be held each afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Methodist church.

The Wavering Snowflake.

S. F. Wenger.

Tell me, little snowflake,
Descending from on high,
Why it is you waver so
In your journey from the sky.

Looking from my window,
Upon the wintry world
I see your slow descent
From upper regions hurled,

As the falling leaflet
Reluctant earthward floats
From the swaying tree-top
Where are heard the song
birds' notes,

Or like a dainty fairy,
Or gauzy butterfly,
In your crystal whiteness
You are slowly coming nigh.

Magic child of nature
Proud of heavenly birth,
Between two worlds a hovering
Art thou too pure for earth?

I know why thou ling'rest
Ere sinking on earthy bed—
Fall'n among mortal men
Thou art numbered with the dead!

But tell me, little snowflake,
Must thou die in vain?
From thy tomb ascended
Wilt thou not live again?

Dr. Keefer Offers Prize

Another one of Otterbein's sterling friends showed his appreciation of his Alma Mater and of the excellent work of our efficient Art department by offering a prize of $5 to the student producing the best drawing from life. Dr. Keefer, the donor of this Art prize, graduated from Otterbein in 1876. He later became a physician, having received his M. D. from the Columbus Medical school, and since 1887 has been identified with the drug business in Westerville. Dr. Keefer is well known to students of Otterbein, past and present, as one who always looks with interest and favor upon the advancement and progress of the school.

Dr. Garst received one hundred and thirty post cards on his recent birthday.

DR. MILLER SPEAKS*Y. W. C. A. Favored with Able Address.

Dr. Miller gave a splendid address on "Christianity," last Tuesday evening at Y. W. C. A. Helen Converse read the scripture lesson found in Jer. 31: 27-34.

Bertie Staiger favored the Association with a vocal solo, "Holy Bible Book Divine."

Some of the speaker's thoughts were: We have all gone far enough in our lives to experience a conflict; something to lead us right and something to lead us wrong. We think, feel and do; the first is wisdom, the intellect; the second, the soul portrayed in songs of hope and literature; and last, the record of deeds, that is history. History is open, public before the whole world: In history we find the origin of our doubled natures.

In paradise, there was a restraint on passion and self pleasure. The first pair were not left without a warning. Their liberty shows God's goodness and places them under law. The penalty was arbitrary. Law seems to be God's way of doing things. It is all about us; is the connecting link between the Creator and the created.

We are sometimes apt to oppose law but in reality law is our safety.

There are three elements in law. There can be no law without authority, wisdom and love. The object in law is to prevent mishap. Law is never harsh to any one until he disobeys it. Under law we find our safety and guide.

Law is not a restriction but the fulfillment of liberty. We have incurred the penalty by disobeying the law.

In the very first family some were good and some were bad. We have only two kinds of religions, Christianity and infidelity. Two or three places that infidelity touches are: Greece during the great age of Pericles. Greece began to decline; pestilence, vice and bribery followed Rome in Nero's time after which came its fall—France, when its national assembly predestined the French Revolution, blew out the light of Christianity. This was one of the darkest points in history. Infidelity has never pressed the kiss of pardon or spoken the words of international peace. We are representatives of a republic. At Plymouth, the compact began with, "In the name of God." There a great nation was born.

The law of love is sacrifice. Jesus sacrificed and thus we must love him in return. We grow from within. As the heart is, so we are.

Selfishness is always a sure bankrupt to charity. We must get the idea of helping some one. The occasion is upon us. We live in a wonderful age and a wonderful nation. We must make the nation right for those who come to our shores for enlightenment.

LINCOLN LEAGUE SECRETARY*Speaks to Young Men at their Association Meeting.

A good meeting was enjoyed at Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. Mr. Foltz and Mr. Coburn sang a very pleasing duet, "O Lord, I Would Not Have Thee Come." The speaker of the evening was Rev. Kelser, the assistant secretary of the Lincoln Legion movement of the Anti-Saloon League. He talked very effectively on the subject, "Consecrated Personality or a Life of Power."

Rev. Kelser's theme was the Holy Spirit. He said that a vital requisite of the religious worker is the possession of the Holy Spirit which can only be gained by complete surrender to God. It is imparted in the life of the babe and remains there until opposed by the human will.

One who follows the dictates of the voice of God possesses the Holy Ghost. Such a man is a man of power. We may be guided definitely by the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, if it directs us to do a certain thing we have the power to do that thing. When the Spirit directs us to carry the message of salvation to a fellow-being, that same Spirit prepares that one to receive the message.

The speaker in closing told of his personal experience during his college days in presenting Christ to fellow-students. He urged that the students of Otterbein organize for the purpose of carrying the Gospel of Christ to those in need.

C. M. Wagner returned from his home at Lancaster, Thursday.

Bible Study Reception.

Every one present at the Bible Study reception given by the girls to the boys Saturday night in the Association parlors had an added reason for being glad that they were in the Bible study course. It was one of the most delightful social functions of the year thus far. Being so near February 14th, it was made a St. Valentine affair. The hall was very tastefully decorated for the occasion. A splendid program was carried out beginning with the progressive grand march and closing with most appetizing refreshments. About one hundred and twenty-five were present making the reception one of the largest as well as one of the best in the history of the Association.

May Have Free Delivery.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trade, J. F. Sked was appointed a committee to investigate plans for the numbering of houses in Westerville. Owing to the largely increased receipts of the Westerville postoffice the town is entitled to free delivery of mail. Before securing this service it will be necessary to first have a numbering of the houses which may be done by special ordinance of the council. Several attempts have been made by various residents in former years to number the houses but owing to lack of authoritative action no practical results were accomplished.

On Stage at Centerburg.

Heroes, villains, comedians and all characters in "College Chums" will journey to Centerburg next Friday where they will entertain the citizens of that city with the same presentation as that given in the college chapel last Tuesday. The purpose of this second presentation is to add to the Sibyl fund.

Prof. Gilbert will accompany the troop and furnish the music with his violin.

If there are many more photographic sieges we will learn to smile—or look wise.

To some it might appear somewhat presumptuous were a spectator to declare that part of the victory of Otterbein's basketball team last Friday was due to the support of the spectators. But nevertheless when these rooters became enthusiastic to that intensity that the local players felt the sympathy manifested in their behalf there was a decided spurt in the shooting of baskets by the Otterbein boys and a renewed effort in holding the Kentucky lads to a standstill. Enthusiasm is contagious and is always a safe experiment in making a good thing go.

Last evening there was inaugurated in Westerville a series of evangelistic services which should be productive of great good to the community. The all-absorbing interests in the many college activities which come to the students and which seemingly demand their constant attention may cause these services to be looked upon by some as of only secondary importance. However they should not be so regarded. Even though some of us may disagree as to the methods of conducting these mid-week services we must all grant that whatever tends to uplift humanity, to make one self-forgetful or to take an individual out of his own little sphere has in it something worthy of the heartiest co-operation and support of all who come within its reach. This religious campaign has in it all of these noble promptings and as such should find response in a large attendance of the student body.

There is always a keen satisfaction felt in doing something and doing it well. Such satisfaction should accompany the efforts of the members of the Junior class in putting out their Sibyl. Their aim is to publish a better bi-ennial than any other put out heretofore. To this end they are making the preparatory steps thorough and proficient. The play as was given by these third year students last Tuesday was an indication to the large audience that this class means to do things up "brown." There was in it evidence of hard work and diligent preparation, a fact which gained for this class in their undertaking a warm sympathy on the part of their fellow students.

EXCHANGE NOTES

Walter Wellman's new book "The Aerial Age" will probably enjoy a wide sale. Wellman has long been a journalist and an able writer on general subjects of national concern. His attempt to reach the North Pole in his dirigible and his later attempt to cross the Atlantic in his dirigible "America" place him in the front rank in Aerial navigation.

Wellman's book touches on the whole subject of aerial navigation. Everyone who is interested in the conquest of the air whether from a scientific, literary or educational standpoint will want Wellman's book—Ex

O. S. U. RECEPTION

Several of Otterbein's Students on Program at U. B. Church Columbus.

A number of Otterbein students were in attendance at the Reception to the U. B. students in Ohio State University given last Friday evening by the Fifth Avenue United Brethren Church of Columbus.

A special program was presented, several of Otterbein's attaches having had places on this program. A solo by Miss Bertie Staiger and several selections by the Otterbein Quartet were among the pleasing numbers given at this time. Following this part of the program was the banquet given in the dining room of the church. President Clippinger upon the call of the toast master responded with some well chosen remarks.

About twenty-five O. S. U. students were present.

A number of Otterbein students were at the corn exhibit last week. Sando who is listed in this number reported it great but mild in comparison with the chicken exhibit.

MRS. PRICE PASSES AWAY

Lifelong Friend of Otterbein Called to Reward Last Evening.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Jane Price, who has been one of the most interesting and lovable characters in Westerville, were greatly grieved to learn of her death which occurred last evening at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Price, who would have reached her 84th year next June, has been ill for several weeks and her death was not unexpected.

This aged friend has lived within the vicinity of Otterbein since the founding of this institution in 1847. For several years she cooked for the students and faculty in the old administration building when there were but 57 students enrolled. She has watched with particular pride the steps of the institution as it has emerged from poverty to its present flourishing condition. Last year she gave $1500 to the school which she had come to love so dearly.

She was a charter member of the U. B. church at Westerville. Her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the college chapel. Rev. Daugherty will have charge of the service.

Vaudeville for Athletics.

A vaudeville of 5 acts with all the talented comedians in the school will be given by the Athletic Board Tuesday evening, Feb. 28. This performance is for the benefit of athletics, the receipts to be used for defraying expenses of Coach, athletic equipment etc.

Park Wineland is the chairman of the committee in charge. The College band will furnish the music.

O. U. SECONDS

Meet Defeat at Hands of Capital University Seconds.

The Capital Seconds were too much for the tan and cardinal Seconds Friday evening, and consequently the Otterbein team was forced to take its first defeat of the year.

Eleven field goals were made by Capital, while O. U. could only procure five, Dempsey making three of these. The Seconds had some fine team work, however, and in that department of the game played better ball than their opponents; but their failure to hit the basket kept them from becoming dangerous.

The game was also played on an out of bounds floor and this made it hard for our team to get in the right kind of work. Next week the team goes to Mt. Vernon to play a return game with the High School boys there.

The line up:

O. U. Seconds	Capital Seconds
Dempsey	r f Pilch
Stringer	l f Benter
Lambert	c Buss
Bandein	r g Schmidt
Wineland	l g Bonk

Field Goals—Dempsey 3, Lambert, Bandein, Benter, Pich 3, Schmidt 2, Bonk 2. Foul Goals—Dempsey, 2 out of 7 chances, Stringer, 3 out of 5. Bandein, 1 out of 1. Benter 3 out of 3.

WILL ISSUE PAPER

High School Students of Westerville Will Publish School Organ.

That the Westerville High School students are in line with the leading up-to-date High School activities is evidenced in their recent organization of a High School publication staff. The plans for issuing this paper are under the direction of Professors Warson and Bennett. These plans are not yet completed but it is probable that the paper will be issued three times each year and will contain about thirty pages. The first number comes out in March. The Review wishes the High School publishers unbounded success in their new enterprise.

Otterbein at Columbus

Despite the fact that the streets of Columbus were thronged with Corn Show visitors from far and near last Saturday it was an extremely easy task to pick out an Otterbein "lad or lassie" wherever one might look. It was another day of "posing" agony when literary societies, debating teams, athletic organizations, musical aggregations, paper staffs and all thinkable "come-togethers" fell a victim to the photographer's Gatling gun. The greater number of these pictures were taken by Orr-Kiefer and will be used in the 1911 Sibyl.

WELL RECEIVED*"College Chums" Given by Junior Class Makes Big Hit.

Among the most successful and entertaining events pulled off during the present school year is numbered the enactment in play of "College Chums" given by the Junior Class last Tuesday evening. Every seat in the chapel was occupied, a general demand for tickets having been made the first day of their sale.

The scene of the play was a college room which was appropriately decorated with pennants and other student room fixtures and adornments.

Characterized by a well woven plot and interspersed with lively repartee and ready wit, "College Chums" found the large audience watching with breathless interest its every step, relaxing the next moment in an up-roar of laughter as some humorous character would display a piece of wit. Of Alec, the colored attendant and Friederick, the German professor, every word and movement found response in "side-shaking" laughter. The fighting of the Dean, a veteran of the Union forces with John Findlay, a one armed rebel, culminating in mutual friendship was a rare treat. The heavier roles as found in Paul Dinsmore and Wallace Findlay were handled with a thoroughness that indicated faithful study and able interpretation of these parts. In fact, the entire cast was exceedingly capable, the work of the characters in each role giving indication of their being well adapted to the parts assigned them.

Their costumes were especially fitting and added to the realistic feature of the play.

"College Chums" was a wholesome, entertaining play, a dramatization of college life where its every activity was presented.

"I want to say a word of praise for your little city. I don't believe there to be a better colleegetown found anywhere, and it is certainly a moral city from every standpoint, and one that I find the community to be proud of. Its property is bound to enhance in value; anyone investing is sure to be proud of the investment.

You must remember that this is a growing country and anyone investing in real estate and holding to it wins; you cannot show one that has not become wealthy by making just such a start in life. He only regrets that he did not invest before.

I want to say further that the parties that formerly owend this property are in other business, and this money is needed in it, owing to some new building and their growth, therefore I make the above offer that no one will regret.

I will ask you to remember that 95 such lots at the price is a very low sum for the territory this paper is covering, and that everybody doesn't wait."

Thinks of The Smaller College

The day of the smaller college is coming again. Of course the special inducements offered by state universities as public institutions will always make them popular; but may there not be some relief because of the preference which many people now express from small colleges. The country has scores of these colleges, and not a few of them enjoy an excellent reputation. They can give as fine a discipline as any of the larger institutions, have the advantage of bringing faculty and students close together and are freer from distractions than the big rivals—A professor in one of those vast institutions told us some time ago that he would never entrust his son to it for training. To our question as to the ground for this strange remark, he said oracularly: "The gains are too little and the possible losses too great. I prefer the smaller college."—Chicago Record Herald.

Young Men and Women

Every day without a Bliss Business Education is so much of a loss to you. It's the education you will soon demand. You may get other education and do WELL, but you can get a Bliss Business Education and do BETTER. When, in less than six months, we can qualify a young man under twenty, and earning no salary, to fill a $75.00 per month position; a girl of nineteen, with us but eight months, now drawing $1200.00 per year; a school teacher, who took the combined course, for a secretaryship now paying him $5200.00 a year, don't you think it is time that you were letting us fit you for a good position—ALL BLISS GRADUATES ARE HOLDING GOOD POSITIONS.

We will teach you to overcome your inferiors, rise above your equals, and compete with your superiors. We will make you ten times more valuable to yourself and assist you to a position that will pay you 50, 100, 200 and perhaps even 300 per cent more than you can earn now.

Places obtained for students to earn board while in attendance; railroad fare to the city allowed; and to the first representative of any town a discount of five per cent deducted from regular rates.

New classes formed each Monday. Write for the "Seal of Fortune." You will marvel at the records of success our students are making, and will be better able to judge what we can do for you. Address Dept. C.
