Varsity Runs Away From Kenyon Defeating Their Rivals.

Crosby At Center Shines For O. U. Procuring 12 Baskets.

Otterbein played ball from start to finish Saturday afternoon, and as a result the Kenyon five did not have a look in. The Varsity handled the ball in great style and through some very clever head work was able to hold the strong Kenyon team down to four field goals.

The game was hard fought, the Kenyon guards playing an exceptionally close game holding their men to five baskets. Crosby was high scorer caging twelve baskets, his shots being from all parts of the floor. His great work in locating the basket was easily the cause of the high score.

Bailey and Cook as guards put up a great exhibition. Cook held his man to one lone basket while Bailey held his to two, and shot four himself. Young and John put up a great passing game and to a large extent are the cause for the fine showing. "Curt" also kept up his foul throwing record making six free throws out of eleven. Dempsey was in the game for the greater part of the last half and although he didn't procure any baskets, played a fine game.

The team played together in the best manner displayed this season, every man playing his position in superb form.

As usual the crowd was poor and it is beginning to be the talk of the ardent followers of the game. It is about time that the student body wake up and grasp their opportunity of seeing some classy ball produced. Next week Wittenberg is here, and the gymnasium should be crowded. This is the last game of the season.

KNIGHTS OF FUN

Will Charm Vaudeville Lovers
Given by Athletic Ass'n

Mystery pervades the "greatest show on earth" which is to be pulled off in the college chapel Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Words dropped now and then leads one to believe that this vaudeville show will in truth surpass anything of its kind seen in Westerville. Magic, spiritualism, monologues, music and last but not least, moving pictures are attractions to conjure. Here is a the varied and interesting program:

A—Dr. Quixote and Prof. Zamore—magicians rivaled only by Kellar and Thurston.

B—The "Bein" Quartet.

C—Dr. Eddy—Spiritualist

D—The College Band—This number needs no introduction.

E—Weary William will give his famous mologue entitled "My Love Affairs."

F—Reverie—Thoughts of the past given in the future.

G—Moving pictures—Everyone stay for this last and best number.

Athletic Posters

A novel way to help the baseball management is being afforded the students. Fancy posters for student's rooms are on sale, the proceeds of which go towards the procuring of a baseball coach. The posters are very neat, being colored in the tan and cardinal and adorned by the college seal and ribbons. They are being sold at half the ordinary price. See Wagner, Druhot or Smith.

A LIFE-LONG OTTERBEIN DEVOTEE GIVEN LAST EARTHLY TRIBUTE.

Beautiful Words are Spoken in Eulogy of Departed Friend Who Was Loved by All.

The last sad rites over the body of Dr. Henry Garst, '61, Professor Emeritus and Ex-President of Otterbein University were performed at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the college chapel, followed by interment in Otterbein cemetery. Many of his old pupils, his parishioners, his co-workers come to pay tribute to a man whom they loved and whom they had learned to know as a pure and lovable character.

His death came as a distinct shock to all of his friends, some of whom did not even know of his illness. The news spread to many points over the country where Dr. Garst was known and revered.

The news of Dr. Garst's death was received at Bonebrake seminary with keen sorrow. Dr. Garst with W. G. Shuey was the leading advocate for the establishment of the institution at a time when Seminary education was an unpopular cause in the ministry. The faculty of the Seminary passed resolutions expressing their grief and message of condolence to the bereaved family.

Dr. Garst was born at German-town Ohio, Jan. 30, 1836. When the boy was nine years old his father died leaving the care of the family to the widow. Thus Dr. Garst was forced to bear burdens at an early age. In 1857 he entered Otterbein University from which institution he graduated in 1861. After pastorate work for several years he returned, in 1869, to his Alma Mater to be her professor of Latin. He held this position until 1886 when he became president. In 1889 he became the teacher of mental and moral sciences. For several years he was secretary and treasurer.

GREAT AWAKENING

In Westerville as Result of Revival Meetings.

The union revival services which have been in progress since Feb. 12 close this evening by an address given by Dr. Bitler on "The White Horse and Lion."

It had been originally planned to hold a two weeks' service but owing to the decisive work accomplished it was decided to continue for another week. Besides evening meetings there have been numerous daily services. Separate meetings for men and women were also held which were largely attended.

Up to date there have been over three hundred conversions and reclamations. There has never been an awakening in Westerville and Otterbein like this before. The young people especially are thinking seriously upon things of vital importance to them and as a consequence these great changes are being made.

Wesleyan-O. U. Meet.

The indoor meet with Ohio Wesleyan at Edwards Gymnasium, Delaware has been set for March 11. Some likely new material is being developed under the direction of Coach Heitman. Bridenstine, Kahler, Gougenour, Bradley, Williamson, Temmon and Wells are new men who are doing good work. Manager Stringer is getting his schedule under way and plans to bring some first class attractions to Westerville.

RALLY DAY

Being Planned For Otterbein in May.

Pres. W. G. Clippinger was in Findlay a week ago in conference with Rev A. C. Siddall, superintendent of the Sandusky conference, relative to holding a great Otterbein rally during the month of May. In the Sandusky conference it will be observed on May 28 but throughout the remainder of the co-operating territory it will be observed two weeks earlier. Alumni, former students, principals and superintendents will be enlisted in the work wherever possible. This is the second Otterbein Rally day.

Otterbein Glee Club.

The college Glee Club will give its first concert for the present year on March 22 in the college chapel. Prof. Resler has been working faithfully with his material and feels well repaid for the labor and time spent.

The placing of the Glee Club Concert for March 22 will necessitate the changing of the quartet concert to April 5. On this date the Otterbein Quartet will give a concert, the receipts of which will go to the new Athletic Field fund.

The Glee Club has already arranged for two trips, one to Dayton and one to Johnstown, Pa.
They are at present planning a second trip to western Pennsylvania. We are fortunate as a college in having such a good Glee Club to represent us in the field since such an organization is a valuable advertisement. Following are the members:

1st Tenors, Hatton, Foltz, Livengood, Bandeen, Resler, Director. 2d Tenors, Lash, Spafford, Peck, Yates. Baritone, Coburn Williamson, Jones, Rogers, Hebbert. Basses, Gilbert, Barke-meyer, Funk, Crosby.

The association adjourned last week on account of the revival services. Regular meeting will be held next Thursday evening at 6:00 p. m., Dr. Jones will lead the meeting.

Entered a second-class matter October 18 1909, at the postoffice at Westerville, Ohio under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The greatest men of all ages have been lovers of their kind.— All true leaders have it.—Faith in men and love to men are unfailing marks of greatness.—Anon.

If this be so, how great was our beloved Dr. Garst. He loved his kind. Oh, how intense was that love for mankind! Mere words cannot express the years upon years of toil that this man spent in laboring for the betterment of his fellowmen. Undoubtedly Dr.
Garst's life of earnest work and shouldering of burdens wore out the earthly body and left it a prey of disease.

A leader in the broadest sense he was. From business up to devotion the professor could be counted upon to lead. In the little prayer room which he loved and hallowed by his weekly presence and in the Board room and executive office Dr. Garst forever stood out for clean principles as he saw them.

His decades of service for the church and college are concrete examples of his love. He wished that the truth in which he believed so strongly should be sown broad-cast. He labored always to this end.

Otterbein University has lost one of her staunchest and most untiring workers. We cannot realize it now as much as those who follow us. Then will appear the fruits of his labors and will men bless him as a great benefactor. But why should we mourn?

Our personal loss is his great gain. He is above earthly cares and strife and is a part of that host who enjoys ever-lasting peace and joy.

We trust that the work which he has just begun may advance and increase a hundred fold.

Henry C. Frick, an old student of Otterbein and a wealthy steel magnate of Pittsburg recently spent $500,000 for a picture painted by Valesquez in the sixteenth century. It is a strange coincidence that that is the sum which we are working for to increase our endowment.

If you must sleep in class please do not snore. The boisterous student is usually empty minded.

EXCHANGE NOTES

In the future nations will probably settle their differences by aerial battles. The Literary Digest makes mention of the fact that the brothers Voisin recently exhibited at Paris an aeroplane upon which was mounted a small machine gun. An appliance of this sort is suggestive but it has yet to with stand serious tests before its value for warfare is assured.

The poem entitled, "The Orb Weaver," in the February issue of "Side Lights" is exceptionally good. It has a rhythm and smoothness of movement which makes it charming to the reader.

Ohio Wesleyan University is at present launched in a campaign known as the "Forward Movement." She expects to raise $500,000 by April 1st. Of that sum $425,000 has already been raised.

In the Ohio State Lantern the following words, as uttered by an Arts Junior, appear. "In addition to my regular work at the university I took a correspondence course. I became more interested in the latter and shirked my university work. Of course I flunked my work at the university, but bless my stars, I passed and merited my correspondence course a few weeks ago. We're engaged for next June."

Four epitaphs as they appear in the Defiance Collegian:

1. Deep wisdom, swelled

EARTHLY TRIBUTE

He was married in 1868 to Miss Mellie C. Flickinger of Cincinnati, O. To this union were born five children, two of whom are living, Mrs. M. H. Stewart, of West Union and Minnie Pauline, a student of Ohio State.

The body rested in state in the college chapel Thursday from 12 until 2 o'clock. Prof. L. A. Weinland, Prof. S. J. Kiehl, R. E. Emmitt and J. D. Good acted as guards. At two o'clock the services were opened by scripture reading by W. R. Funk. The following order was observed: prayer, W. G. Clippinger; Music, Octet; memorial, Dr. T. J. Sanders; address in behalf of Trustees, E. L. Weinland; in behalf of Seminary Dr. G. A. Funkhouser; in behalf of the local church, the pastor Rev. S. F. Daugherty; solo, Prof. Resler; scripture, Pres. Clippinger.

The body, friends and family were escorted to the cemetery by the student body which acted as guards in files on each side of the procession.

The honorary pall bearers were Prof. Durrant, Prof. Jones, J. W. Everal, J. A. Weinland, J. W. Markley, W. A. Young, Judge Rogers and Dr. Meyer. The active pall bearers were, Professors Miller, Cornet, Mills, Snively, Scott, Wagoner, West and Treasurer Baker.

Its Great To Be Popular.

W. R. Bailey returned from Grant hospital last week. According to "Observations" in the Columbus Dispatch of Feb. 21 Walter cast quite a halo about room 221 which he occupied for two weeks. Behold! so writeth the observer:

"To be young and to be handsome is to be popular, or 'tis popular to be handsome and young. True anyway you put it, and capable of conclusive proof any old day in the week. But one of the most ideal demonstrations of the principle just enunciated, is being given daily just now at one of the local hospitals.

Walter Bailey, young, perhaps 22, student at Otterbein, athletic and handsome recently was brought there for an operation. He was placed in room 221. Young Bailey instantly found what it means to be all that he is.

Pretty nurses fed him with a spoon. They pampered and petted him, they mothered him, they watched over him as if he were an infant in arms. Time for his medicine-taking meant a stampede of pretty nurses to room 221. "221" was smothered with care.

It still goes on. Even the best looking nurse at the hospital hovers about 221. Its a byword, this "221." "221" is doing nicely. Best case you ever saw. So nice to wait on." These are among the instances of conversation you hear, if you listen to the nurses. And really "221" is doing well."

Bridenstine—"I ran around the track five times tonight, and when I finished I was at the same place I started."

Kahler—"Why! man, don't you know that's a circular track?"

Janitor Harris—I had a good hearty laugh this morning. Some of the Freshmen tried to steal the clapper last night during church and forgot to take their plank off the fire-escape."

Y. W. C. A.

Rev. Kelzer gave the Y. W. C. A. girls a splendid talk last Tuesday evening. His theme was taken from John 14: 12-15. Prayer, true, effectual prayer is the greatest need just now. Christ undertook no especial work without prayer. The prayer life of Christ is very impressive.

The secret of power is the prayer life. The one that is in close touch with the Master is one that is powerful.

Why go out into a solitary place? Christ led the intense prayer life. The mightiest men have had a time and place for secret prayer. As far short of measuring up to His prayer life just so we fall short of being mighty.

What is prayer? It's a feeling that cannot be suppressed. It's the Christian's breath. "As the hart panteth after the water brooks so panteth my soul after thee, O God." Prayer is the expression of soul thirst, soul hunger. If we could just learn how to pray even as Christ taught the disciples, what power would fall upon us.

With the Wesleyan meet just two weeks off, the track men are working hard every day. Although Wesleyan has a very strong team, Capt Gifford is confident that he has several men that will make the Delaware stars dig in.

With two out-door meets on the schedule so far, these being with Wesleyan and Denison, the tracksters feel, as though they must tie down to business and they have started in on hard training.

Spring with its luring attractions is coming at last. You are to be pitied if you can not work the profs.

Every day without a Bliss Business Education is so much of a loss to you. It's the education you will soon demand. You may get other education and do WELL, but you can get a Bliss Business Education and do BETTER. When, in less than six months, we can qualify a young man under twenty, and earning no salary, to fill a $75.00 per month position; a girl of nineteen, with us but eight months, now drawing $1200.00 per year; a school teacher, who took the combined course, for a secretaryship now paying him $5200.00 a year, don't you think it is time that you were letting us fit you for a good position—ALL BLISS GRADUATES ARE HOLDING GOOD POSITIONS.

We will teach you to overcome your inferiors, rise above your equals, and compete with your superiors. We will make you ten times more valuable to yourself and assist you to a position that will pay you 50, 100, 200 and perhaps even 300 per cent more than you can earn now.

Places obtained for students to earn board while in attendance; railroad fare to the city allowed; and to the first representative of any town a discount of five per cent deducted from regular rates.

New classes formed each Monday. Write for the "Seal of Fortune." You will marvel at the records of success our students are making, and will be better able to judge what we can do for you. Address Dept. C.
