

OTTERBEIN TOWERS

NEW YEAR'S ISSUE, 1952

THE EDITOR'S CORNER

The editor's corner turned out to be a full page this time. He apologizes but asks that you read carefully this entire page for item one (1) concerns the future of Otterbein and item two (2) concerns the future of your alumni magazine, TOWERS.

4-26-52

Have you wondered what these numerals mean? They have appeared in the last several issues of TOWERS with considerable speculation as to their meaning. Here is the answer. On April 26, 1952 (4-26-52), Otterbein will be one hundred five years old. The Development Fund Board and the class agents decided last June that we should ask all alumni everywhere to send on or before next April 26 a birthday gift for Otterbein. This will count as your gift to the development fund for 1952, and you will not be asked for a gift for any other purpose. In other words, this will be your Development Fund gift for 1952.

So begin now to save for your gift and send it before April 26. Let every grad and ex-student be represented in this gift. Let classes strive for one hundred percent participation. Let each give what he feels he can afford, but let no one decline because his gift must of necessity be small. Start now to put aside an amount each week or month for your gift.

It Ain't Funny, McGee

A publication came to the editor's desk recently with a feature under the above caption. It began:

There comes a time in the life of any editor, just as it does to a preacher, a cartoonist, a columnist, an advertising man, when the blank sheet of paper in front of him is only a ball room for a million demons, all waving their little pitch forks and swishing their hot little tails, and shouting in deafening cadence, "Yah, yah, you're out of ideas, yah, yah, you're out of ideas!"

After almost ten years (two more issues to go) of editing your magazine, we are out of ideas. With over 600,000 words in the dictionary, you would think that it would be a very simple matter to sort out a few hundred, throw them together, and have a magazine. Sounds simple, doesn't it?

Our Grade was 87.6%

A few weeks ago we submitted the last four issues of TOWERS to the experts at a conference of the American Alumni Council. Our grade was 87.6%. At the clinic on magazines the consultants were high in their praise of alumni magazines in general. They thought much progress had been made in recent years from the standpoint of content, format, and typography.

They were most critical of two features of most magazines (1) the president's page and (2) class notes. They thought that neither in general makes any significant contribution.

Your editor can conceive that these two features may not be important to the graduates of a big university. In many such institutions the great majority of students do not even have a speaking acquaintance with their presidents and have only a casual acquaintance with their classmates.

However, in a college like Otterbein, where contacts with the president are frequent and where students learn to know intimately the members of their classes, the students are interested in what the president says and what their classmates are doing. Your editor could be wrong; if so, he would like you to tell him.

Too Newsy

A criticism of our magazine was that it is too much in the newspaper style of reporting and does not have enough features. We confess that the consultant was right in his observation, but that is the way we planned it. We have frequently said that our objectives are two-fold: (1) To report college activities so that alumni all over the world may know what goes on back on the campus; and (2) to report on the actions and activities of our alumni, featuring occasionally those who have gained unusual distinction.

It has been our aim to put into the magazine as much alumni news and as many names as possible. We have done this at the expense of special feature articles, for one or the other had to be omitted. Since other magazines cover the field of feature stories and treatises on educational matter, we like to think of TOWERS as a sort of "letter from home." Is that what you want?

Your Opinions, Please

We are most anxious to have your reactions. Please turn to page fifteen, fill out the form, and return it to us. Return it even if you are satisfied and desire no changes, for we want a good sampling of opinion. We will report the results of this questionnaire and will try to give you what the majority like and want. Please turn to page fifteen.

Our Story of The Quarter . . .

Who's Who On "The Real McCoy"

Possibly for first time a court is called on to determine the meaning of a phrase that is used daily by American people, Judge Hoover of Cleveland asserts; learns none of the "feudin' McCoy's" were original article; both contestants before him are "real McCoy's."

From the Decision in McCoy vs. McCoy, Court of Common Pleas, Cuyahoga County, Ohio; Reprinted From Case and Comment

This is a feud of the McCoy's—not with the Hatfields—but with the McCoy's, over the right to use their celebrated Irish name in the furniture business.

Plaintiffs, George and Mabel McCoy, are partners, both in matrimony and in the furniture business. They are neither kith nor kin to the defendant, Leo McCoy. Both George and Leo were born McCoy's.

The parties are to be commended for attempting to solve their own difficulties. On defendant's store front . . . stationery, envelopes, business cards, etc. . . . (appears) his full name "Leo McCoy." . . . One other thing the defendant has done to solve the problem. On his business card and in the classified and telephone listing he bills himself as "The Real McCoy." That, the plaintiffs definitely do not like! They claim that is carrying the attempt to differentiate too far. They say that that implies that plaintiffs are not real McCoy's.

Perhaps this is the first court in the world that has ever had to determine the meaning of the celebrated phrase "The Real McCoy." There is a historical dispute as to how it originated.

As a student of Americana and as one who has slept and eaten in the hospitable mountain cabins of the feudin' McCoy's of Peter Creek Hollow in Pike County, Kentucky—along which hollow the rifles of a former generation of McCoy's, in ambush, once dropped 16 Hatfields at once—it was surprising to learn that the authorities do not credit one of these with being the original "Real McCoy."

One version, that of O. O. McIntyre, is that the phrase originated when a drunk picked a quarrel with Kid McCoy, middleweight champion of the world, refusing to believe that he was the prize fighter. After discovering his mistake and picking himself off the floor, as part of the resgestae he exclaimed: "It's the real McCoy." (Editor's Note—Kid McCoy claimed the middleweight championship in the early part of the century. His real name was Norman Selby.)

Another version attributes the phrase to Bill McCoy, notorious Atlantic coast rum-runner in the early days of prohibition, who was so honest, the version says, that he carried only the best liquor; accordingly, "The Real McCoy" came to signify quality.

Whichever version one takes, certainly it must be said that the phrase is in daily use among the American people; that is it doubtful that there is a living McCoy who has not on occasion referred to himself as "The Real McCoy," and that when he did so he did not mean that all other McCoy's were spurious.

The truth here is that both of these McCoy's are "Real McCoy's." . . . Plaintiffs' petition for injunctive relief is denied.

Dear Friends:

Since 1930, American colleges have had a series of severe financial blows. First was the great depression. This was followed by World War II. Now, after a brief flurry of relative prosperity during the post-war years of 1946-49, American colleges have encountered another period of financial stress.

Reasons for the present crises are rather commonly known. In the main, the reasons are as follows: (1) the military situation, which reduces college enrollments; (2) high wages in industry, which cause young people to remain out of college; (3) financial inflation, which reduces the purchasing power of endowment income; (4) the recent tax laws, which reduce upper-bracket incomes and curtail the likelihood of large personal gifts to colleges; (5) the impracticability of raising tuitions and fees to keep pace with current inflationary trends.

At Otterbein College the current program to meet the present difficult financial situation can be set forth under four headings.

(1) The Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges. This is the newest and most unique financial effort. Otterbein College holds membership in the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges, a non-profit corporation composed of 19 schools. The Foundation is organized for the purpose of making a joint approach to Ohio industries and business concerns in behalf of the current operating budgets of the member colleges. At this writing the Foundation is getting an auspicious start. In a year's time we believe there will be important developments to report, and in a ten-year period we foresee actualities which will be enormous.

THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE

(2) The Evangelical United Brethren Church. At the General Conference of the EUB Church in November, 1950, the denomination greatly increased its annual appropriations to its eight colleges and three theological seminaries. A total of $285,000 a year goes to the eleven institutions of higher learning, of which amount $22,000 is designated for Otterbein. In addition to this annual appropriation, there is a College-Seminary offering received each year on the third Sunday of September. The goal for this offering is $100,000, and Otterbein College receives nine per cent of whatever is raised.

(3) The Otterbein College Development Fund. This fund has two departments; namely, (a) the annual giving campaign among alumni and other friends, and (b) a campaign for larger special gifts. As set forth in another place in this issue of Towers, the Development Fund in 1951 amounted to $63,912.38.

(4) The Otterbein College Endowment Fund. These permanent funds have been gradually growing over a long period of years. The auditor's report for June 30, 1951, listed our endowment fund at $1,318,265, an increase of $18,477 over the previous year. During the last fiscal year the endowment yielded $66,338.

Therefore, it can be seen that Otterbein College has a plan to try to meet current financial difficulties. Last year, unfortunately, the deficit amounted to $21,347.52, despite all efforts at economy and fund raising, and it is likely that this year another deficit will be incurred unless every phase of our financial program is worked to the maximum.

One of the serious problems which must be faced is the salary situation as it pertains not only to the faculty but also to the maintenance staff and office workers. Otterbein must not severely penalize its faithful teachers and other staff members because of current financial difficulties. Our salaries are below the average for schools such as ours, and far below what is paid for comparable persons in business and industry.

The burden of this article is two-fold. First, there is a definite program to try to solve the current financial problems which beset Otterbein, along with all American colleges. Second, since the situation is serious, every aspect of our financial program must operate at its maximum efficiency.

Sincerely,

J. Gordon Howard

President.

OTTERBEIN PROFESSOR ELECTED WESTERVILLE MAYOR

Three mayors in five days! Let any municipality beat that record. And, of all places, it happened in Westerville, and all three are Otterbein grads. When the irregularities were all ironed out, Dr. J. Neely Boyer, '27, wound up as mayor and police justice.

This is how it happened. Last fall there were three vacancies on the city council, and seven persons filed as candidates.

One Was a Woman

Of the seven candidates one was a woman, Miss Mary Teeter, a Columbus high school librarian. According to available records, she was the first woman to run for city council in Westerville's 92-year history.

Miss Teeter was endorsed by various women's clubs of the village, and after a spirited campaign she, along with Otterbein professors Dr. J. Neely Boyer, '27, and L. William Steck, '37 (now on leave), was elected. Other council members whose terms did not expire were Robert Snavelly, '27, and Paul Wurm, x'29.

Mayor No. 1—Snavelly

The new city council was sworn in on January 1 and elected as mayor Robert Snavelly, son of the late, beloved Professor Charles Snavelly, '94. L. William Steck was elected vice-mayor. Incidentally, the women had scored a great victory—a woman on the city council, but not for long.

Mayor No. 2—Steck

Three days after Mayor Snavelly took office, the attorney-general declared the offices of the mayor and Councilwoman Teeter vacant because of a law forbidding individuals from holding two public offices.

The attorney-general ruled that the two public school teachers, Snavelly and Teeter, were ineligible since they sit in judgment in the expenditure of public funds.

Vice-chairman of council L. William Steck then took command as acting-mayor and held office for one day.

Mayor No. 3—Boyer

The village charter requires that council members fill all vacancies, and the remaining three eligible councilmen exercised their duty by electing Mrs. Hubert Pinney in Miss Teeter's place and Edward Busic to succeed Bob Snavelly.

The five members of the council then selected one of their number, Dr. J. Neely Boyer, as mayor. And, despite the disqualification of Miss Teeter, a woman was on the council.

There is every reason to believe that Dr. Boyer will be a good mayor and an impartial police justice (the mayor is also police judge). He graduated from Otterbein in 1927, from Bonebrake Seminary in 1930, and served in the pastorate for fifteen years, the last five in Westerville. He received the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. Since 1945 he has been professor of Sociology. He has always taken an active interest in the affairs of the Westerville community.

(The mayor's wife has neither a mink coat nor a deep-freeze.)

Charles Cooper Re-elected

In the village election last November, Charles Cooper, x'35, was re-elected a member of the Westerville school board for a term of four years.

Mrs. C. E. Cowan receives certificate from alumni president, David Allaman, '30, making her an honorary alumna.

Cowan Hall was dedicated with an impressive and dignified ceremony on Sunday, October 28. The service was conducted by Reverend Grant D. Batdorf, bishop-emeritus of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

In his address the bishop cited the Christian college as "the last citadel of civilization." He declared further: "With the moral corruption that surrounds us, revealed every day . . . the time has come for the church to lead a return to the principles upon which our nation was founded."

Dr. J. Gordon Howard, '22, presided at the ceremonies; Mrs. C. E. Cowan presented the keys of the building to Vance E. Cribbs, '20, chairman of the board of trustees; Professor Jesse S. Engle, '14, gave the invocation; Professor A. P. Rosselot, '05, read the scripture; and two students, Don Steck and Martha Lawson, representing the Student Council, gave a tribute to teachers.

COWAN HALL DEDICATED

Special music was furnished by the massed choral groups, the college and community orchestra, and the brass choir under the direction of Professors Robert Hohn, '38, and Lee Shackson.

The Westminster Choir Concert

A capacity house of 1,300 people greeted the choir with a thunderous applause on the "homecoming" for Jack and Rhea Williamson, '11. The dedication concert was a thrilling and inspiring experience for all.

Mrs. Cowan Honored

During intermission time the Alumni Association made Mrs. Cowan an honorary alumna of the college. For a number of years she shared her late husband's interest in an enthusiasm for Otterbein, and it was appropriate that she should receive this honor.

The Williamsons Honored

The Williamsons were also honored on this "homecoming" occasion. To Dr. Williamson was presented the Distinguished Alumnus Award and upon Mrs. Williamson (Rhea Parlette, '11) the college conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters. Dr. Williamson received a doctor's degree from Otterbein in 1935. Mrs. Williamson has been the dean of the Westminster Choir College since it was organized.

Orchids and Roses

Mrs. Robert Wilson (Josephine Markley, '04), a classmate of the late Dr. Cowan, presented from her class an orchid to Mrs. Cowan.

Professor Walter Bailey, '11, a classmate of the Williamsons, presented on behalf of the class forty red roses, inasmuch as 1951 marks the fortieth anniversary of their graduation from Otterbein.

Professor Walter Bailey presents roses to Dr. and Mrs. John Finley Williamson. Mrs. Williamson holds diploma awarded a few minutes earlier, when an honorary doctor's degree was conferred upon her. Dr. Wade S. Miller was master of ceremonies.

Otterbein Alumni Club In Cleveland Starts Campaign To Aid Small Colleges

By Elizabeth Birkley*

The bright new year with all its shiny promise of hope and its brand new pages to chronicle new triumphs is being met with faith by members of Otterbein College Alumni Association who've plotted a project to enlist the aid of their members, as well as that of the community in general, in helping the small independent college.

First step in this program to arouse public concern over the plight of these small but important institutions is to get the facts publicized. The best spokesmen, the committee in charge reasoned, would be the heads of such colleges. So they went to the top and came up with an impressive program.

"The Survival of the Small Independent College and the Part It Will Play in the World of Tomorrow" will be the subject discussed Monday evening, Jan. 14, at a dinner meeting at 6 in the Higbee Co. Lounge.

Dr. Paul H. Fall, president of Hiram College, and Dr. J. Gordon Howard, president of Otterbein College at Westerville, O., will present the problem as viewed by educators. Judge Earl R. Hoover of the Common Pleas Court of Cuyahoga County will stress ways in which the small colleges can be strengthened. Judge Hoover is a member of the committee recently organized by industry to study the problem of the small colleges and industry's stake in these schools. He is also an alumnus and trustee of Otterbein. Moderator for the discussion will be Superintendent Carl C. Byers of Parma schools, an Otterbein graduate.

Friends and alumni of Hiram College are invited to this meeting. Mrs. Carl C. Byers heads Otterbein alumnae sponsoring the event. Mrs. John W. Frazier is program chairman. Committee members include Phyllis Koons, Mrs. H. Wendell King, Margaret Oldt and Mrs. Earl R. Hoover.

ANNUAL REPORT ON THE SECOND CENTURY DEVELOPMENT FUND

The year 1951, the fourth since the fund was started, witnessed a very substantial increase in the amount contributed both by alumni and non-alumni. Alumni gifts increased $7,881.75 and the average gift jumped from $13.32 to $19.43. Non-alumni giving increased $8,759.

To the 1206 alumni, ex-students and friends who made this great record possible, the executive secretary of the fund and the administration of the college are deeply grateful.

The summary below includes all gifts which have been received by the college during the past four years with the exception of the regular church allocation ($12,000 annually until 1951 and $22,000 since that date).

The record speaks eloquently of the loyalty of Otterbein alumni and friends. This devotion to the college is growing with each passing year and it is this tangible expression of confidence that makes Otterbein not just another college but a great and good one.

Any Class Can Have a Good Record

It will be observed that the earlier classes won all the honors in the percentage of participation. This need not be so.

One would expect that the later classes would not win in the amounts contributed for members of these classes are building homes, rearing children and becoming established in their businesses or professions.

But, any class can win honors in the percentage of its members contributing. Next year let us see many classes after 1907 in the 50% and better category.

THE VOICE OF OTTERBEIN - RADIO - TV

William Taylor

James Grissinger

Television

Otterbein is quick to explore all media of communication. The latest of these is television. Since October, Otterbein has been projected into the living rooms of Central Ohio viewers every Thursday from 1:00 to 1:30 p.m. Professor James Grissinger, head of the speech department, is the narrator and technical director. A committee composed of Dr. Wade Miller, chairman, and Professors Grissinger, Chase, Price, and Shackson plan the programs.

Radio

For the past five years station WOBC has been in operation on the Otterbein campus. Ever since it opened studios on the third floor of the Ad Building, it has been broadcasting athletic events, chapel and Sunday church services, special events, and a varied program for evening listeners. Professor James Grissinger teaches the courses in radio and is responsible for the station. William Taylor is the station manager. New studios for WOBC are now being constructed in Cowan Hall.

A series of four broadcasts is scheduled to be heard over WBNS, Columbus, on January 26, March 1, April 5, and May 10, from 5:30 - 6:00 p.m. Mark these dates on your calendar.

SPORTS IN RETROSPECT - IN PROSPECT

Football

The 1951 football season was not the best in Otterbein history nor the worst. In fact, the victory over Capital made it a successful season.

The record book shows the following:

Otterbein	0	Wilmington	7
Otterbein	0	Ohio Wesleyan	20
Otterbein	20	Denison	20
Otterbein	7	Kenyon	21
Otterbein	22	Marietta	0
Otterbein	12	Hiram	12
Otterbein	20	Capital	14
Otterbein	19	Muskingum	48

It will be observed that with a few breaks Otterbein might have won three of the games lost or tied.

Hockey

The girls' hockey team closed a very successful season. The results were as follows:

Otterbein	2	Capital	1
Otterbein	5	Capital	1
Otterbein	1	Ohio State	1
Otterbein	1	Denison	5
Otterbein	0	Ohio Wesleyan	4
Otterbein	3	Ohio University	0

The Central Ohio Hockey Tournament was held at Otterbein on Saturday, November 3. Schools represented were Ohio State, Ohio Wesleyan, Denison, Ohio University, and Otterbein. Five Otterbein girls were selected to play on Central Ohio Team Two in the Great Lakes Tournament at Springfield, Ohio, on November 10.

Basketball

The basketball team is off to a slow start but better days are ahead—we hope, and believe.

The results to date are:

Otterbein	62	Kenyon	53
Otterbein	73	Muskingum	74
Otterbein	86	Hiram	70
Otterbein	64	Denison	80
Otterbein	70	Ohio Northern	82
Otterbein	62	Wooster	94
Otterbein	69	Capital	77
Otterbein	70	Wilmington	78
Otterbein	53	Oberlin	71

The remaining schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, January 22 — Ohio Wesleyan	Home
Friday, January 25 — Wittenberg	Home
Wednesday, February 6 — Denison	Away
Saturday, February 9 — Ohio Northern	Home
(Homecoming)
Tuesday, February 12 — Capital	Away
Saturday, February 16 — Ohio Wesleyan	Away
Wednesday, February 20 — Heidelberg	Away

A game scheduled with Heidelberg on December 18 was cancelled and will be made up later.

Faculty Notes

John Clippinger, '41

A Yale Man at Harvard!

Will wonders never cease?

Professor John Clippinger, Ph.D. from Yale, is on leave from Otterbein this year to pursue studies in Harvard in the field of Clinical Psychology under Dr. Gordon Allport, outstanding authority in the field.

Dr. Clippinger was awarded a Ford Foundation Fellowship for this year's study. He has been joined by his wife (Mary Garver, '41) and their two sons.

Lee Shackson

The September-October issue of the Music Educators' Journal carried an article by Lee Shackson, head of the Otterbein music department, entitled "Exploring the Arts." It is well worth reading.

Mr. Shackson has been notified that he has been appointed by the Music Educators' National Conference to two national committees, the "Committee on Credentials for Teaching Music in the Public Schools" and the committee on "Music for the General College Student." These appointments reflect the regard with which Professor Shackson is held in music circles.

Robert Hohn, '38

The Otterbein A Cappella Choir, with the cooperation of the music and dramatics departments, presented in November two short operas, "The Medium" and "Down in the Valley." They were under the direction of Professor Robert Hohn, head of the voice department. The productions were exceptionally well done, and praise was lavish for all who participated.

Gruver Memorial

A memorial window has been installed in Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church by the son and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Gruver, '98. Dr. Gruver, a trustee of Otterbein for many years, was a generous benefactor of the college. The son is a manufacturer in Washington, D. C., and the daughter is the wife of Robert E. Kline, '18, attorney in Washington. The Gruvers were loyal and devoted members of the Presbyterian Church.

We Salute

MATTOON, CHARLES, SHAFFER

Albert L. Mattoon, '24

Philipp L. Charles, '29

Glen C. Shaffer, '32

Education

The new president of the Ohio Education Association is Albert L. Mattoon, '24, dean of boys at Findlay High School. He was elected at the recent meeting in Columbus of the one-hundred-four-year old state professional organization of public school teachers. During 1951 he served as vice president of the organization.

Another organization to claim his executive abilities is the Findlay Kiwanis Club, which installed him as its president on January 2.

Albert began teaching in the fall of 1924, following his graduation from Otterbein and is now in his twenty-eighth year in the profession. Before going to Findlay in 1930, he was assistant-superintendent of schools of Scioto County. In 1932 he received the Master of Arts degree from Ohio State University. Since 1936 he has been dean of boys at Findlay, in addition to teaching three classes of American history and government.

The name of Albert Mattoon and the OEA are almost synonymous, for he has been affiliated with the association in executive positions since 1934.

Furthermore, he devotes his time to many other agencies. He is a trustee of the Findlay Evangelical United Brethren Church; has served on several Chamber of Commerce Committees; has been active in fund drives for the Salvation Army, YMCA, Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls, and other organizations.

Mrs. Mattoon is the former Mary Hummell, '26. With their son Bud they live on a 140 acre farm near Findlay. Otterbein proudly salutes Albert Mattoon.

Government

A news release from Washington indicates that Philipp L. Charles, '29, has been named Director of Personnel for the Office of Price Stabilization. He joined the OPS last March as Deputy Director of Personnel and has been Acting Director since August.

The appointment came as no great surprise to those who have followed his career of public service.

Mr. Charles is a veteran of government service having worked in various agencies for the past twenty-one years.

Before his appointment to OPS he had been secretary to the Philippine War Damage Commission since 1946. He was employed by the Securities and Exchange Commission from 1935-1946, serving first in the Budget and Accounting Section, then as Assistant Chief, Administrative Division, and finally as Director of Personnel. In 1934-1935 he did legal work with the Tennessee Valley Authority, Knoxville, Tennessee, and earlier occupied various posts with the Department of State.

Philipp was born in Manila where his father, the late Oscar H. Charles, '07, was Superintendent of Schools for the province and his mother, Caroline Lambert Charles, '01, was supervisor of English in the schools. Graduating from high school in Manila at the age of sixteen, he came to the States and to Otterbein for his college education. He received the A. B. degree from Otterbein in 1929, attended Ohio State University for one year and received the LL. B. degree from George Washington University. Mrs. Charles was the former Dorothea Flickinger, '32, of Westerville.

Religion

Chaplain (Lieutenant Colonel) Glen C. Shaffer, '32, is currently Chief of the Activities Branch in the Office, Chief of Air Force Chaplains, Headquarters, USAF, The Pentagon, Washington, D. C. In this capacity, under the Chief of Air Force Chaplains Major General Charles I. Carpenter, Chaplain Shaffer has initiated such projects as Church College Choir tours at Air Force Bases and overseas Preaching Missions. Chaplain Shaffer accompanied two Church College Choirs, the Boston University Glee Club and the Centenary College Choir, on two trips as liaison officer and observer to study the effectiveness and exploitation of such activities. The programs were so successful that the project is being adopted by the Air Force as a regular Chaplain activity. Chaplain Shaffer also supervises the Preaching Mission program throughout the Air Force.

During the past summer, Dr. Walter H. Traub, pastor of the Kountze Memorial Lutheran Church in Omaha, Nebraska, and Chaplain Shaffer conducted Preaching Missions in Germany and Africa.

Chaplain Shaffer will conduct Preaching Missions in England early in 1952. The numerous activities in Chaplain Shaffer's office indicate the new emphasis on Character Guidance and spiritual matters, which are being given top priority by Air Force Commanders.

Mrs. Shaffer is the former Zelma Shauck, '34. She lived in Wiesbaden, Germany, during Glen's overseas assignment from 1946-49. The Shaffers have three sons and now reside in Arlington, Virginia.

Don't miss the Winter Homecoming on Saturday, February 9. The basketball opponent will be Ohio Northern University.

Class Reunions

Classes of 1892, 1902, 1912, 1922, 1927, 1932, and 1942 will have reunions on Alumni Day, Saturday, May 31. Members of the classes of 1892, 1902, and 1927 should make a special effort to be present.

Birthday Gift

One hundred five years old! This venerable institution, Otterbein College, deserves a worthy birthday gift. The birthday—April 26. No other gifts asked this year.

What's in a Name?

Plenty, if it is the name of a potential Otterbein student. Be sure to send names of prospective students. See page 15.

The Towers of the Future

Help your editors. Praise them (?), send them nasty letters—do something to let them know how you feel about TOWERS and what kind of magazine you want. See page 15.

It Will Please the Ladies

We refer to the beautifully crafted picture-tray and waste basket with Old Main, the Ad Building, and campus in natural color. They make much appreciated birthday, anniversary, or wedding gifts.

Story of the Quarter

Your help is solicited in selecting a good story for each issue. If you have one involving an Otterbein grad or ex-student, send it to the editor.

Do You Have an Interesting Hobby?

It would be interesting to know what Otterbein people do in their spare time. Why not tell your TOWERS editor about your hobby? It will interest others.

President Howard's Mother Dies

As TOWERS goes to press, word is received that Mrs. A. T. Howard (May Stevenson, '94), mother of Otterbein's president, passed away quietly at the home of her daughter, Florence (Mrs. Louis W. Norris, '28), in Greencastle, Indiana.

The passing of Mrs. Howard removes from the active rolls of the Otterbein family one of its most beloved members. She, with her good husband Alfred, who preceded her in death by several years, was honored, respected, and loved by all who knew her.

Alfred and May were college sweethearts and their romance culminated in their marriage on commencement day in 1894.

Shortly after their marriage they went to Africa as missionaries, later serving in Japan in the same capacity. It was in the land of the Rising Sun that their three children were born, all of whom survive. They are J. Gordon, '22, president of Otterbein College; Florence, '28 (Mrs. Louis Norris); and Donald S., '25, Dean of the School of Social Welfare of the University of California at Los Angeles.

The Cover Page

We feature on the cover the principals in the Cowan Hall dedication service—President J. Gordon Howard, Mrs. C. E. Cowan, and Bishop Grant D. Batdorf. The picture was taken on the steps of the new hall.
