GLOWING REALITY

Are Readings of Mrs. Beecher Who Gives Recital Friday.

The recital by Mrs. Isabel Garghill Beecher, the last number on the Lecture course, which was scheduled for April 15 will be given April 7, this change in time being necessitated by the occurrence of the Easter vacation at this later date. For the past three years the committee has been striving persistently to secure Mrs. Beecher on the Citizens' course at Westerville but the great demand for this widely reputed reader made such arrangements impossible until this year.

When men like the distinguished Sam Jones will say, "I regard her as the best reader I have ever heard in the Chautauqua platform," patrons of any lecture course may well be assured of something beyond the ordinary.

Mrs. Beecher has naturalness of expression, distinct enunciation, intelligent interpretation of character and charming womanliness. She creates not only characters in her readings, but actual stage setting and change of scene with such perfect and subtle illusion that one would declare that he had seen the play in costume and with a dozen characters.

Mrs. Beecher's repertoire includes four of Shakespeare's plays with six other master pieces any one of which is ably mastered by the reader. Prof. Resler who listened to one of her interpretive readings a few years ago at Iowa State College says, "I consider it one of the

GLEE CLUB AT DINNER

Professor and Mrs. Resler Entertain Musical Organization at Their Home.

At their home on Grove street Professor and Mrs. F. J. Resler delightfully entertained the members of the Glee Club Saturday evening at six o'clock dinner. Covers were laid for twenty-one. The dining room was beautifully lighted with candles placed in the center of the tables.

A unique arrangement for the seating of the guests was introduced by the hostess. At each plate was a card upon which was written the name of the member of the club with humorous suggestions in correction of "Awful Table Manners." These suggestions were read in turn by the holders of each card.

True to the day the club was treated in the last course to some "April fool" candy which found a "warm" reception in the mouths of the guests.

The dinner consisted of six courses. Interspersing these courses was the lively rendition of Glee Club selections.

Following the dinner the club upon the suggestion of Professor Resler sang the old selections which were given in concert last year. It is the plan of the director to use these selections in concert next June when Glee Club alumni will be present to join the present club.

Mr. F. H. Menke, '10, of the Massillon H. S. who was in town over Sunday reports the Massillon team one of the strongest in the state. The team plays the varsity boys Saturday evening.

best readings that I have ever heard."

The results of Mrs. Beecher's art are most gratifying and in the words of Paul M. Pearson, "People leave her audience with the highest regards for the woman's art."

Session Postponed.

The installation session of Philomatheia which would regularly occur next Friday evening was postponed on account of the recital Friday evening. At this session the evening will be given over to parliamentary drill.

COLLEGE MEN LIKE THE UNION'S CLOTHES BEST

There must be some good, logical reason why our College Shop has grown so rapidly in the past few years. There must be some cause for the great number of college men who have been coming back season after season. The answer isn't hard—Our College clothes are made for college men exclusively, our College Shop is devoted to college men entirely. In fact it is our pet department.

Just have one look at our nobby "Sampeck" and "L. System" suits for spring. "They will sell themselves."

MISS SEWALL SPEAKS AT Y. W. C. A.

The girls of the Y. W. C. A. listened to a very interesting and helpful address by Miss Helen Sewall last Tuesday evening. After a scripture lesson read by Mamie Russell, Mary Garver favored the association with a solo, "I Could Not Live Without Him."

Miss Sewall's message was "God's Plan for Our Lives." Everyone's life is not according to God's plan, but He has a plan for everyone's life. We need have no fear that God's plan will not bring happiness and success to us. The best way to do His will is to make the right use of the present moment. If a moral man succeeds it is only because of the Christian training which he has received, or the bolstering influence of Christian civilization. But, when our personality is linked to the personality of God, it is then that we are able to accomplish great things. Spiritual power is that power within ourselves to kindle character in another personality. There must first be a recognition of God. After this recognition there must be a surrender of our will to His. We must say with Tennyson, "Our wills are ours, to make them Thine."

To each one of us there will come a time when we must choose a place for our life. We should not choose our life work until we have studied the needs of the whole world. If we choose with this thought uppermost in our minds, it will mean that we will do our best for the world. We should pray not for the tasks equal to our powers, but for powers equal to our tasks. If we wish to live a satisfied and happy life, we must live according to God's plan. It may be a long time before he will show us His plan for our life work, but He will give us enough light for each step. Then we must have the fullest confidence in Him, and be always obedient to his will.

REV. BISHOP TALKS AT Y.M.C.A.

The Association enjoyed a helpful address by Rev. Bishop of the local Methodist church Thursday night.

The gentleman made clear the fact that man has inherent strength for right. He also showed how strength might grow out of weakness. Jacob was set forth as a striking example of man's possibilities. This character was born a thief and a deceiver. Upon inspiration from God he overcame his hereditary weaknesses and became a strong exponent of righteousness. He did it through prayer and watchfulness. Prayer is necessary, but as Henry Ward Beecher said, "You can't make up by prayer the lack of watchfulness."

We must be watchful lest our inborn evil tendencies overcome us. We have no right to coddle and excuse our weaknesses, but it is our duty to beat them out. By God's help and our positive determination we can do it.

PLEASING RECITAL.

Inclement weather kept many away from Prof. Grabill's special piano recital last Wednesday evening, but those present enjoyed very much the splendid renditions by the Professor's students. Director Grabill, himself, appeared in several duet numbers and delighted all as is his usual custom.

This delightful program indicated that the skill and art of Prof. Grabill's pupils yield the most pleasing results under his instruction and directorship.

Entered as second-class matter Oct. 18, 1909, at the postoffice at Westerville, O., under Act of March 3, 1879.

Did any one make you out a "phule" Saturday?

Our cartoon this week is somewhat previous but our cartoonist is no weather prophet.

One of the marks of an educated man is his ability to speak correctly. This does not necessarily imply that he must be a fluent orator or even a brilliant conversationalist, but it does mean that he must at least give the proper pronunciation to commonplace words. His overflowing store of scientific knowledge, his thorough mastery of the dead languages, or his ability to think logically and consistently will avail him little in the eyes of the public if he persistently disregards the rules of the English language. And yet college students at the very dawn of their entrance into the world as "finished products"—as far as their collegiate attainments are concerned—are found continually who frightfully abuse the English language. To abuse thus is to underrate and to disparage the value of a college education in the estimation of the public. No one can afford to neglect the acquisition of an intimate friendship with the dictionary and when meeting with the unfamiliar thought term should at once secure the necessary introduction from this never failing friend.

Don't fail to hear the quartet Wednesday evening for three reasons: (1) They are musicians who are prepared to give you something of the excelsior class in music; (2) they are fellow students who should demand the support of the student body; (3) they are giving this concert without any compensation whatsoever, the entire proceeds to go towards the realization of Otterbein's present greatest need. Are you loyal?—Do you want to see Otterbein's Athletics lead the state?—Do you appreciate the work and talent of your local organizations and feel that their success is yours? If you can't answer in the affirmative to these questions and if you won't sacrifice something else, if necessary, to attend the quartet recital Wednesday evening you are not in line with the progressiveness of your college.

The quartet will be on trial Wednesday. Give them a hearing.

PINS ARRIVE

Seniors After Long Interval Receive Coveted Jewelry—Preparing for Play.

The pins and rings ordered by the Senior class, some ten or twelve "decades" ago are due to arrive this afternoon. The order for these pins was placed with the Quayle firm of Chicago but the utter disregard of this house for the wishes of the dignitaries in respect to time caused these latter "about-to-be-finished products" to transfer the order to the Auld firm of Columbus. Apparently they are taking no chances and Seniors—or others—will soon make their position known where ever found.

At a meeting of the class this morning it was decided to give the Shakesperian play, "As You Like it."

The characters will be selected in the very near future and preparation will be started at once.

But ten weeks yet remain until commencement. According to literary society ruling the 1911 classmen will hereafter be excused from all duties in their respective societies.

WEDNESDAY'S CONCERT

Promises to Be Big Hit of the Season.

A concert to please the taste of every hearer with both light and heavy numbers, full of fun and yet not of a frivolous character will be given by the male quartet Wednesday evening. This quartet has been working hard for this coming event and mean to please their most critical auditors. One of the catchy features in connection with this organization is the ability of each musician to ably handle a musical instrument. Mr. Spafford has something of a surprise to spring in the way of trick Banjo playing. From all reports it is a "hummer."

These students sing and sing like artists; every man is an instrumental musician and 'an artist in execution, and they know how to work together. Of them Dr. Bitler who has heard quartets in all parts of the country said, "I consider this organization capable of putting out the sweetest music that I have ever heard."

Tickets are now on sale by the students. Reserve seats may be had by writing the Westerville bank.

Hear 'em students! You can't afford to miss this treat.

PEACE CONTEST

Preliminaries To Be Held April 12, Contest April 28.

At a meeting of the public speaking council last week it was decided to hold the preliminaries relative to the State Inter-Collegiate Peace Contest Wednesday morning, April 12, at 10:30. Three candidates, Mattis, Bungard and Roop, will at this time appear before a body of select judges who will determine Otterbein's representative to the Inter-Collegiate Contest.

As previously announced, this contest will be held in the College Chapel April 28, at which time representatives from Western Reserve, St. Johns, Wooster, Denison, Mt. Union, Hiram, Ohio State, Ohio, Otterbein, Cincinnati, Antioch, Defiance and possibly Miami will deliver their orations on the subject of international peace. Three prizes will be awarded, seventy-five, fifty and twenty-five dollars.

The contestant who is given first place in this event will represent his state in the inter-state contest to be held about May 4 in Baltimore, Maryland. The following states will be represented in the inter-state contest: Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa. In this event two prizes, seventy-five and fifty dollars, will be offered.

The rules and regulations of these contests are as follows:

1. Contesting colleges are expected to contribute $5 towards the state expenses.

2. The contestant is to be selected by means of a local contest except by permission of the executive committee.

3. Orations must be limited to eighteen minutes.

4. There will be but one set of judges — thought, composition and memory are to be considered.

5. The successful contestant will represent the state in the inter-state contest.

6. The state contest will be held April 21.

7. The inter-state contest will be held about May 4.

8. The first prize in the state contest will be known as the "Theodore E. Burton Prize," this prize being contributed by Senator Burton.

OTTERBEINESQUES.

Spring—"The battle was fought by the Mexicans and Texicans."

Woman—"And so you have come to do some work? Well you will not find me hard to suit?"

Householder—"I suppose not, I saw your husband as I came."

Miss Hendrix—With emphasis, to Dr. Sherrick—"No sir."

Mrs. Hatton—"I heard some one tell about making water soup. How could that be done?"

Mr. Hatton—"That's easy, just boil two quarts of water into one."

Prof. Guitner to Homer Gifford reading Otterbein Review in class—"I haven't seen the paper yet, suppose you let me read it during class."

Gifford hands it over.

Prof. Guitner—"Perhaps you read it in the previous class because you are so willing to give it up."

Miss Sherrick taking a drink spills the water.

Junior girl—"I guess you can't find your mouth."

Miss Sherrick—"No, it takes a Junior to find that."

Stringer—"And did the woman die a natural death?"

Peck—"Yes, she was talking when the end came."

Caldwell—"Why don't you get a date with Miss Jamison?"

Grill—"Her parents won't allow me."

Baseball Out of Season.

The opening of Otterbein's baseball season with O. M. U. at Westerville which was scheduled for last Saturday was prevented on account of the inclement weather. It was the purpose of the management to have this opening game played this coming Thursday but present weather indications point to a still later date.

Gym Exhibition.

The Girls' gymnasium classes which disorganize this week for the year will give an exhibition of their work on the gymnasium floor Tuesday evening, April 4. Only those holding tickets, a limited number of which have been given out, will be granted admission to this exhibition.

Young Men and Women

Every day without a Bliss Business Education is so much of a loss to you. It's the education you will soon demand. You may get other education and do WELL, but you can get a Bliss Business Education and do BETTER. When, in less than six months, we can qualify a young man under twenty, and earning no salary, to fill a $75.00 per month position; a girl of nineteen, with us but eight months, now drawing $1200.00 per year; a school teacher, who took the combined course, for a secretaryship now paying him $5200.00 a year, don't you think it is time that you were letting us fit you for a good position—ALL BLISS GRADUATES ARE HOLDING GOOD POSITIONS.

We will teach you to overcome your inferiors, rise above your equals; and compete with your superiors. We will make you ten times more valuable to yourself and assist you to a position that will pay you 50, 100, 200 and perhaps even 300 per cent more than you can earn now.

Places obtained for students to earn board while in attendance; railroad fare to the city allowed; and to the first representative of any town a discount of five per cent deducted from regular rates.

New classes formed each Monday. Write for the "Seal of Fortune." You will marvel at the records of success our students are making, and will be better able to judge what we can do for you. Address Dept. C.

SOLVED

Yes, the Peerless Restaurant has solved the board question for students, and for all who eat. We sell you a 21 meal ticket or a 21 lunch ticket. It will pay you to investigate.

Form the habit. Follow the crowd. Respectfully yours,

The Peerless Restaurant,
