HOMECOMING, 1949

The Editor's Corner

Seven years ago this fall it was my privilege to edit my first issue of OTTERBEIN TOWERS. At that time I was a stranger to most of you, and I knew but little about my reading audience.

Since that time, I have learned to know hundreds of you personally and many others by reputation and accomplishment. These seven years in the alumni office have given me a growing appreciation of you and a genuine desire to make your alumni magazine a publication of which you may be proud.

You can help make TOWERS a better magazine by sending to the editor facts of interest to all alumni. You must read in your newspapers about Otterbein people. Why not tear out the articles and send them on to us. It is a service you can render to your fellow alumni.

Your editor will welcome suggestions for improvement. Letters of general interest will be published, questions answered, and other features you may want will be included. Let's make 1949-50 a banner year for TOWERS.

MEMBER, AMERICAN ALUMNI COUNCIL.

A Friendly Chat By President Howard

We have begun the new school year with high expectations. Our enrollment is almost exactly what was predicted last spring—810 in the four college classes. The grand total will be over 860 for the first semester.

The results of the psychological tests and English tests during freshmen orientation period revealed the I.Q. of the first year students to be quite satisfactory, considerably higher than that of the last several years.

Under Mrs. Elizabeth Pinar, new college dietitian, a greater variety of foods is being offered at the self-serve counter in the Barlow Dining Room. This pleases the students. But making a choice is hard for some people, especially if they must choose quickly and wisely. It has occurred to me that the self-serve plan in the dining room is typical of college life. A college curriculum and numerous college activities offer a wide assortment of opportunities and privileges from which a student must choose. Some students choose purposefully and wisely. Others choose aimlessly and hesitantly. Advisors are provided to help, but in the end the student must decide and must live with the consequences of his decision.

Almost as soon as school begins, certain freshmen hit the homeward trail. Homesickness! In some cases it is student homesickness. In too many cases, however, it is parental homesickness. Some parents cannot endure having their child away.

Parents make college plans for a child a long time ahead. Money is laid aside, the college wardrobe is purchased with great care, and many kinds of preparations are made—except emotional preparation. Pathetic are the parents who have made every other preparation wisely, but have neglected to prepare themselves for the inevitable separation. The prospective college student who must run home to demanding parents is to be pitied.

Many worthy students could not come to college this fall for economic reasons. Summer jobs were scarce for young people, and many heads of families were out of work for a period. Above all, Otterbein College needs increased funds for student aid. At least fifty more freshmen and one hundred more upperclassmen would be here if more aid funds were available. The best solution would be a quiet search to tap new sources for gifts from churches and individuals. Ten thousand dollars would be realized if two hundred church organizations would give $50 each, not an impossible sum for each organization but in the aggregate a considerable sum—a budget saver! Let us say, rather, a career saver, a destiny saver; an investment in youth, the best possible investment for the future.

Most cordially,

J. Gordon Howard

We feature in this issue Mary Jo (right) and Sally Lou Wood, two of our summer brides (see Cupid's Capers). Both are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stanton W. B. Wood, '17 (Genevieve Mullin, '23). Both husbands are Otterbein men. Jim Brown, '48, Mary Jo's husband, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Brown, '18 (Cleo Coppock, '19). The ceremonies were performed by the brides' uncle, Orville Briner, '14.

The following article is president-elect Boda's first message to alumni. Read it and govern yourselves accordingly.—EDITOR

THE ALIBI SHOOTER

"The Alibi Shooter" is the title of a pamphlet which came to my desk a few years ago. For some reason—certainly not because of its literary qualities—I find myself re-reading this pamphlet which I have tucked away in the pocket of my notebook.

The author begins his message by informing the reader that there are two things in this world that give him a pain, fried onions and alibis. Of these two evils he prefers fried onions. He says he can eat fried onions on the Fourth of July and practically cease to taste them by Christmas. The effects of an alibi stay with him for a full year.

This is no time for Otterbein Alumni to substitute alibis for achievement. More of us must do more to encourage prospective students to enroll at Otterbein. We must take every opportunity to discuss with our associates and friends the importance of maintaining and strengthening the church college in these times when Christian education is so greatly needed in the world. More of us must be active members of local alumni associations. We should visit the campus more frequently. Many more of us must regularly contribute more generously to the Development Fund. When the college or the Alumni Association calls upon us for committee service or asks us to assume responsibility for some particular program or project, more of us must respond with enthusiastic effort.

As Alumni, we could be divided into two classes—those who use alibis and those who get things done for the college that has done so much for us. It will require heroic efforts on the part of the Board of Trustees, the faculty, students, and ALUMNI if Otterbein is to meet the challenge of these days. The church, the nation, and the world need today, as never before, colleges like Otterbein which holds to her major purpose: "to discover, to motivate, and to train intellectual leaders in every student generation for Christian Service in the church and society."

I hope that members of the Otterbein family will not substitute alibis for achievement this year and that there can be just one class of Alumni—those who get things done for Otterbein.

Harold Boda

Evelyn Bale Lost to Alumni Office

On July first Mrs. William Bale (Evelyn Edwards, '30) resigned her position as assistant director of public relations to become secretary to the president of Ohio Northern University. Her husband was appointed to the faculty of the same institution.

When the Centennial was launched in 1944, Mrs. Bale became the assistant to Dr. Wade Miller, Director of the Centennial. Her contribution in that office was outstanding, and she was largely responsible for writing the Centennial play "Each in His Time." She was a valued associate in the editing of TOWERS. Alumni will regret her leaving but will wish her and her husband well in their new work.

Succeeding Mrs. Bale will be Mrs. Jack Fulton, (Dorothy Jones, ex '33) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hanby R. Jones (Mary Ranck, ex '02) and granddaughter of the late Absalom W. Jones, '72. After leaving Otterbein she studied at the Columbus Art School. Alumni will receive from her the same cordial treatment which they received in the past from Mrs. Bale.

Class Reunions

The fiftieth, twenty-fifth, and tenth-year classes had reunions on alumni day last June. Since the photographer did not get a good picture of the '39 class, we are presenting only the pictures of the classes of '24 and '99. It should be said, however, that the '39ers had a great reunion. There were thirty-six present for the luncheon in the park, not counting the children.

Your Help Is Urgently Needed

In 1948 we inaugurated a new plan of alumni support for Otterbein. We called it the Development Fund program and we asked every alumnus and former student to make some contribution each year to Otterbein as an expression of appreciation of his college education and of his willingness to share of his means that others might have the same opportunities. In our first year we had a splendid record as indicated below. At this date in 1949 we are far behind last year's record. The statistics are as follows:

Year	Contributors Number—%	Amount	Average Gift
1948	986—23	$17,003	$17.13
1949	794—11	11,058	13.92

Non-alumni giving is $1,717 as compared with $3,401 in 1948. In 1948 we received a $2,000 annuity; in 1949 we have received $5,1000.

The above is somewhat disappointing. However, we have nearly three months to correct this situation.

Will you help? The need is more urgent this year. Income from endowment remains low, expenses are high, and more students need help. Many former students could not return to school because they had little or no summer employment. Others can stay in school only if they receive scholarship help. Your gift will help give a boy or girl the opportunities you had.

Think it over. Give something even if it must be a small amount. A small gift from each of the 4,500 who have made no contribution would put us way over our goal.

Architects' Drawing of New Chapel-Auditorium

Pictured above is the approved architectural drawing of the new chapel-auditorium. Plans are nearing completion; however, it seems now that actual construction will not begin until early next spring. In a later issue of TOWERS the floor plans will be shown. The approved location is the corner of Grove and Park Streets with the building facing the main campus.

Alumni Club Activity

Columbus

A new alumni club has been organized in Columbus with Jerry Spears, '27, as president and Mrs. John Stewart (June Courtright, '40) as secretary-treasurer.

Columbus Men's Club

A committee is making plans for weekly or bi-weekly meetings in down-town Columbus, when Otterbein men will get together at lunch for fellowship. On certain occasions there will be programs, but very often there will be nothing planned except the place and meal. This committee is composed of Nelson Carpenter, '25; Dr. John Wilson, '38; and Dr. James Williams, '44.

California

A re-organization of southern California alumni took place last May, at which time Mr. J. Warren Ayer, '07, was elected president. Plans call for a fall meeting of this club, with a representative of the college present.

Club Presidents for 1949-50

New York	John Hudock, '28
Detroit	Mrs. A. Ray Schwartz, '36 (Ruth Shatzer)

Cincinnati	Charles Keller, '27
Dayton	Charles Mumma, '29
Westerville	Mrs. Lyle Michael, '19 (Gladys Lake)

No information has been received concerning the officers of the following clubs: Toledo, Middletown, and Cleveland, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Greensburg, Johnstown, and Erie, Pennsylvania; Chicago, Illinois.

Let us make 1949-50 a great year for club activity. Officers should plan now their meetings for the year and announce them well in advance. The alumni office stands ready to help in any way desired.

The Football Outlook

With the smallest squad of players in the last five years, Coaches George Novotny and Bob Brugge began football practice on September 6, with the opening game three weeks away.

Thirteen lettermen are on hand. The rest of the squad is made up of men who were out for football in previous years and from the freshman squad of last year. The Ohio Conference does not permit freshmen or transfer students to play the first year. This places Otterbein at a disadvantage this year, for two of the Ohio teams on our schedule, Ashland and Hiram, have dropped out of the Ohio Conference and will be strong opponents.

The three toughest teams in the Ohio Conference, Ohio Wesleyan, Denison, and Heidelberg will be met in the first four weeks of play. Denison has not lost a game in two years, and Heidelberg has not been defeated since the second game of the 1947 season. It would seem, therefore, that Novotny and company have their job cut out for them.

Although the squad is small and light, an excellent spirit prevails—something that has been noticeably absent the past two years. If spirit and fight win games, the team this year will give a good account of itself.

An added incentive this year will be to bring the Capital-Otterbein trophy back to Westerville, where it belongs. If every grad and every student will give the coaches and the team their full and undivided support, the players will do their best to put Otterbein in the win column.

Coaches Novotny and Brugge

OTTERBEIN AWAY

Otterbein is fairly well represented in Ohio College athletic circles. Carroll Widdoes, '26, is football coach at Ohio University; Harold Anderson, '24, is basketball coach at Bowling Green; Ray Watts, A'15, is football coach at Baldwin Wallace; Arthur G. "Barney" Francis, '33, is athletic director at the University of Toledo; and, of course, there is Merlin Ditmer, '10, now in athletic public relations at Miami, where he was football coach for many years. Alumni will follow the records of these coaches with great interest.

There are also dozens of Otterbein men in high school coaching jobs over the state and elsewhere. Your editor invites all coaches to send summaries of their records each season for publication in TOWERS.

THE COACHES

George Novotny is beginning his fourth year as head coach of football. In his first year his team won the Ohio Conference championship. The past two years have been lean ones, but we hope for better results this year.

George will have the capable assistance of Bob Brugge, known far and wide for his brilliant half-backing at Ohio State. Last year he was with the Cleveland Browns, but an injury kept him out of play for most of the season.

As the Girls Go

The following article was taken from the September issue of the Tan and Cardinal.

Fall, 1949. And, as always, in the fall a college girl's fancy turns to field hockey. Yes, the perennial fall favorite is back again, and the old players are welcoming it "with bells on."

Hockey is that sport played with a type of stick, a ball, or "puck," 22 assorted players, and numerous black eyes, banged-up knees, and battered hands. For obvious reasons, last year's hockey team altered the long-standing name to read "hackey." But, through all this, the girls come out, year after year, to play the rugged game. What is there about it that's so fascinating?

Maybe it's pure enjoyment of the rugged activity that does it. After classes it feels kind of good, doesn't it, to let off a little steam.

Maybe it's a liking for the great competitive spirit of the game. There's never a more do or die feeling than when you're headed for a goal and the opposing team's backfield converges on you, dead set on taking that puck away.

Maybe it's just an enjoyment of being out with girls who can enjoy the sport with you. That feeling of teamwork goes a long way.

And maybe it's the old college try. Yea, team, and all that! For, in college, field hockey is a competitive, intercollegiate sport. It's not "cut-throat competition" for league standing, but friendly competition for the pure enjoyment of playing the game, and of meeting students from various other colleges.

Wesleyan's Long Pass Beats Otters

A 69-yard pass play gave Ohio Wesleyan a thrilling 20-13 fourth period victory over Otterbein at Westerville, Saturday, in an Ohio Conference football battle. Bobby McFarland, 136-pounder from Newcomerstown, Ohio, shot a pass from his own 31 to Don Miller of Upper Arlington, who caught the ball at mid-field and outsped the secondary for the winning touchdown.

The Bishops scored twice in the second period to lead 13-0 at halftime . . . George Novotny's charges bounced back after intermission and broke the ice as Zarbaugh zig-zagged for 43 yards to make it 13-7 in Wesleyan's favor. Near the close of the third period John Dale hit Gene Clark in the end zone for the score that tied the game. The play covered 23 yards. The game winning touchdown play came with six minutes to play.

Second, Third and Fourth Generation Students

Of the 265 new students (224 freshmen and 41 transfers) at Otterbein this fall, twenty-seven or 10% are second, third, and fourth generation students. Those pictured above are as follows:

FIRST ROW: Alice Mae Kelley, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Kelley, 'x'24 (Nellie Baird); Alice Carlson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Carlson, '22 (Edna Dellinger, '22); Edna Joyce Anglin, daughter of Mrs. John F. Anglin, '29 (Edna Tracy); Lenore Rosselot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rosselot, '29 (Gladys Dickey, '29); and grand-daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Rosselot, '05 (Eathel Young, 'x'09); Esther Louise Garver, daughter of Phillip Garver, '15.

SECOND ROW: Carolyn Hooper, daughter of Albert W. Hooper, A'26; Marcia Roehrig, daughter of Mrs. F. A. Roehrig, '19 (Florence Loar); Marjorie and Lois Abbott, daughters of Lloyd A. Abbott, 'x'22; Jean Gerber, daughter of Mrs. E. P. Gerber, 'x'32 (Hannah Head); Betty Detamore, daughter of Kenneth Detamore, '24.

THIRD ROW: William Earl Hitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Hitt, '23 (Ruth Foltz, 'x'25); Jerry Jacoby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jacoby, 'x'28 (Isabelle Jones, 'x'27), and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Hanby Jones, '98 (Mary Ranck, 'x'02), and great grandson of the late Absalom W. Jones, '72; Edward Jaycox, son of Mrs. Homer Jaycox (Zelpha Fisher, 'x'27);

Roy Franklin Schutz, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Schutz, '21 (Edna Hooper, '21); George Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lehman, '27 (Freda Snyder, '27); Samuel Goff, nephew of Lester Halverson, '42.

FOURTH ROW: Grant Scott, son of Mrs. W. Grant Scott (Hallie Hoopman, "Sp."); Robert Powell Bay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bay, '25 (Irene Powell, '25); Avery Freeman Gaskins, son of Mrs. Avery Gaskins (Mary Freeman, '19); Robert Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, '26 (Catherine Darst, '26); Arthur Burd, son of Mrs. Adam Burd (Margaret Palmer, A'18).

NOT IN PICTURE: Charles Moore, son of Lawrence L. Moore, 'x'17; Lawrence Stebleton, son of Mrs. C. E. Stebleton (Edith Moore, '27); Paul Porosky, son of Andrew R. Porosky, '26, and the late Mrs. Andrew Porosky (Twiliah Coons, '25); David Peden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peden, '22 (Lucile Ewry, 'x'23); Richard Henry Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Charles, '29 (Doratheia Flickinger, 'x'32) and grandson of the late Oscar Charles, '07, and Mrs. Oscar Charles (Caroline Lambert, '01); Raymond Jaycox, son of Mrs. Homer Jaycox (Zelpha Fisher, 'x'27).

Orchids to Sergeant Nicolle

Two GI's, one of them Fred Nicolle, '41, have made a little ten-year-old girl from Newfoundland very, very happy.

Marian Hawco was stricken with polio at the age of five and walked with difficulty on crutches. She was noticed by two Technical Sergeants located at the McAndrews Air Force Base in Newfoundland who decided to do something about her case.

Under the slogan "Help Marian Help Herself," the sergeants organized benefit dances and parties from which they raised $4,200. Marian was flown to Warm Springs, Georgia, for treatment ten months ago and is now back at her home so much improved that she is expected to throw away her crutches in about a year.

Congratulations, Sgt. Nicolle! That is the real Otterbein spirit.

Congratulations, Mom Priest

Mrs. Edna "Mom" Priest, known to many generations of students, celebrated her 75th birthday on July 30 with a party given by her children, grandchildren, and great grand-children.

The children who were present with their families were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Priest, '24 (Hazel Miles, 'x'25); Mr. and Mrs. Verle Miller, '35 (Margaret Priest, '35); Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boyles, '16 (Neva Priest, '21); Mr. and Mrs. Howard Menke, '24 (Mary Viola Priest, '26); Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Falkenberg, A'19 (Leah Priest, M'16); Mr. and Mrs. Fred Priest, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noland (Edith Priest).

For 15 years "Mom" operated a boarding club in her home, for 2 years she was housemother for Annex and 3 years for Sphinx.

ALUMNI ARE LEADERS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

NEW PIEDMONT COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Dr. James E. Walter, '29 is the new president of Piedmont College, Demorest, Georgia, a co-educational church-related institution of the Congregational Christian Church.

Dr. Walter received the A.B. degree from Otterbein in 1929 and the B.D. degree from Yale Divinity School in 1933. Piedmont conferred upon him an honorary D.D. degree in 1947 and in 1948 made him a member of the Board of Trustees.

For the past twelve years he has been a member of the national staff of the Congregational Christian Missions Council, with headquarters in Boston. In 1944 he was made Project Secretary and has been instrumental in securing the adoption of scores of new missionaries by various churches.

In writing to the TOWERS editor, Dr. Walter had this to say: "My enthusiasm for Piedmont College was created in a large measure by the happy and profitable years at Otterbein College. My first experience with the important role of a church-related college was in Westerville. There are many similarities between Otterbein and Piedmont. Hence, you can be certain that my thoughts in the future will return often to the educational program and Christian spirit of my Alma Mater."

BODA AND SHANK HONORED

Drs. Harold Boda, '25 and Spencer Shank, '21 have been elected to important educational posts. Dr. Boda, assistant superintendent of Dayton public schools, is one of 18 secondary school educators who will serve on the 48 member commission on colleges and universities of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Dr. Shank is chairman of the program committee of the newly-formed organization of university summer school deans and directors affiliated with the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Dr. Shank is director of the summer session at the University of Cincinnati.

IN NEW COLLEGE POSITIONS

The following Otterbein grads have new college positions.

Stanley Ross, '16, visiting professor of economics at Amherst.

Louis A. Weinland, '30, assistant professor of chemistry at New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University.

Paul Zeigler, '39, instructor in organic chemistry and qualitative analysis at Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Dwight Spessard, '41, assistant professor of chemistry at Muskingum College.

Mrs. Nora W. Porter, '06, dean and teacher of speech and dramatics at Drew Seminary

Miss Christena M. Wahl, '25, assistant dean of women and house director of Kahl Hall at Bowling Green State University.

William Bale, '49, instructor of theatre arts at Ohio Northern University.

Charles H. Keller, '27, head of the department of economics and business administration at North Central College, Naperville, Illinois.

James E. Walter, '29

Ketner Named OSU Trustee

Forrest G. Ketner, '10, executive secretary of the Producers Livestock Cooperative Association was recently named a member of the board of trustees of Ohio State University by Governor Frank J. Lausche.

Mr. Ketner is president of the National Swine Growers Association, secretary-treasurer of the National Livestock Producers Association, chairman of the Ohio Swine Improvement Association, chairman of the board of the Ohio Council of Farm Cooperatives, and a member of the executive committee of the National Council of Farm Cooperatives in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Ketner was the former Maude Berry, ex '10.

Forest G. Ketner, '10

F. William Saul, '34

Wendell H. Camp, '25

DR. CAMP ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

Dr. Wendall H. Camp, '25, accepted a new position on July 1 as Curator of Experimental Botany in the Academy of Natural Sciences at Philadelphia.

After graduating from Otterbein he took his Ph.D. degree from Ohio State University in 1932. For the past 13 years he has been Associate Curator of the New York Botanical Garden.

During the recent war he was on leave from the Botanical Garden for the purpose of exploration for and production of essential fiber and drug plants. This work took him to Haiti, Honduras, Salvador, Guatemala, Mexico, and Ecuador.

In 1936-37 he made a survey of the state of Oaxaca, Mexico, living with the Zapotec, Mixtec, and Mije tribesmen. In Ecuador in 1945, he lived for a time with the head-hunting Jivaros. This exploration was for the purpose of locating wild stands of quinine-producing cinchona.

Dr. Camp has made primary researches in the taxonomy of rhododendrons, azaleas, cranberries, and blueberries, with special reference to cultivation, particularly of blueberries. He has collaborated with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the North Carolina Experiment Station in their blueberry programs.

He is president of the American Society of Plant Taxonomists and chairman of its Committee on Nomenclature. He is also vice-president of the Section on Nomenclature of the International Botanical Congress in Stockholm, 1950, as well as secretary of the special committees of the Congress on the nomenclature of genetically complicated groups and of cultivated plants.

PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

Dr. F. William Saul, '34, is not only an eminent physician and specialist in Radiology but also an author.

His latest book is "Pink Pills for Pale People," recently published by Dorrance and Company, Philadelphia. Your TOWERS editor has read the book and found it extremely interesting. It made him very thankful that he lives today instead of a generation earlier, when medical quackery and surgical charlatanism were so prevalent. The book has many illustrations, pictures, and humorous cartoons (some by the author). It was written while Dr. Saul was a patient for eight months in the Temple University Hospital.

Dr. Saul received his M.D. from Temple Medical School in 1940 and spent two years as an interne in the Temple University Hospital. After completing a post-graduate course in Broncho-

NATIONAL LEADERS

Drs. Roy A. Burkhardt, '27, and J. R. Howe, '21, have been elected to key positions in the National Council of Community Churches. Dr. Burkhardt will continue as president of the national undenominational church movement, and Dr. Howe will serve as executive vice president to be in charge of the council's relations with the Federal and World Councils of Churches.

Dr. Burkhardt is minister of the First Community Church in Columbus, Ohio, and Dr. Howe is minister of the First Community Church in Joplin, Missouri.

The election took place at the biennial session of the national council held in Berea, Kentucky, during the summer.

A NATIONAL CHAMPION

Mrs. R. N. McDannald, x'39 (Bonnie Gillespie) is a real champion. She won first place in the ninth nation-wide Sewing Contest, sponsored annually by the National Needlecraft Bureau for an original design.

Mrs. McDannald was flown to New York City, where the awards were presented at a fashion show in honor of the nine national winners at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

The nine were selected from 340 contestants who had won first place in local contests conducted in forty major cities in which 20,000 contestants were entered.

Mrs. McDannald received her first place award for a sun dress of black and white eyelet pique.

Esophogology in 1943, he began his practice in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. In 1945 he was back at Temple as a patient. In 1946 he began a three-year course in Radiology at Temple and is now eligible for the M.S. degree. Very recently he was appointed Executive Assistant to Dr. M. Edward Chamberlain, head of the Department of Radiology at the University.

1875—The picture below of Luther M. Kumler was taken on his hundredth birthday last August 19. Your TOWERS editor personally visited this grand old man on his birthday and carried to him the official greetings of the alumni association. Dr. Kumler, in turn, expressed appreciation of the many kind remembrances. Alumni traveling in the direction of Norwalk, Ohio, will enjoy a visit with him at 220 E. Main Street. He proudly uses the Otterbein cane.

Ambassadors of Good Will

Your editor received the following letter from former alumni president, Robert Lisle Roose, '18 telling how he and his wife (Vera Stair, x'20) used their vacation to visit relatives and to renew old Otterbein friendships. Note that contacts were made in the following classes: 17 - 18 - 20 - 23 - 26 - 29 - 31 - 33 - 42 - 48 and sales talks made to future Otterbeinites of 55 - 58 - 60 - 62 - 68 - 69 and 71.

Dear Wade:

Vera and I had an interesting vacation seeing Otterbein people. Here is an account of our trip. We "Dodged" from Barberton, Ohio to Weatherford, Texas, to see our son, Don '48. He is employed there with the Seismograph Service Corporation whose headquarters are in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

When Don reported in Tulsa, he visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Mase, '18 (Grace Moog, '17). We have had several fine letters from Grace and they seem to love the Southwest but think frequently of Otterbein.

While going down the Texas Highways just under the legal limit, we noticed a car keeping up with us. The driver was friendly and relieved when we stopped. He inquired about our Otterbein sticker and informed us that he was Roger W. Reynolds, ex'42, of Dallas, Texas.

Roger inquired about our children Bob '42 and Mary Jane Behm Roose '42 of Springfield, Delaware County, Pennsylvania. He was interested in Larry 1968 and Dick 1969 Roose, our grandchildren.

While in Texas, we "Forded" to Carlsbad Caverns, Monterrey, Saltillo and Sabinas, Mexico.

Dodging back, we stopped in Springfield, Illinois, to see the new General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Carl E. Stair '26, his good wife Mary Jane and their son David Clark Stair, 1971, born June 20, 1949.

Back to Maple Heights, Ohio, we stopped to see Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Mraz, '29 (Evelyn Stair, x'31) and their daughter, Carol, 1962. Vera spent July 4th in Mexico, while her sister Evelyn was in Canada. Incidentally, my brother Arthur E. '23, his wife Helen, and their sons Tom, 1955, and Jim, 1958, were in California vacationing, but Dale '33, the youngest brother was on the job back in the Pittsburgh heat, along with his wife Mildred and son Jack of the class of 1960.

On the Highways of America from 1917 to 1971 it is "Yea Otterbein!"

Fraternally,

Robert Lisle Roose '18
