Summer School Students Enter Into Work with vim—Campus News.

Two weeks have passed very pleasantly for the Summer School Colony. To date a total of one hundred and three students have enrolled. All classes are comfortably filled and many new courses have been added at the suggestion of the students. A few new faces are seen on the faculty, this summer. L. W. Ayer, teacher of German; A. S. Keister, sociology and economics; Misses Fouts and Simons in the model school, W. T. Trump, school management, and F. G. Bale, public speaking.

Chapel this year is being held in the auditorium of the Lambert Hall. Free lectures are offered at intervals during the summer at the chapel period by eminent men in and out of the Faculty. An account of them is given in another column.

A reception was given to the new students Thursday evening, June 22, from 8 to 10 in the parlors of Cogran Hall. The hall has been thrown open to the ladies for rooming purposes, Miss Denton having charge.

The students are rapidly becoming acquainted, evidenced by the numerous picnics to the Park, Taylor’s Woods and such beauty spots.

The following students have been enrolled in the Otterbein Summer School:

Muriel Acton, Westerville.
Mayme Auehey, Dayton.
Imogene Ault, Worthington.
Walter Bailey, Westerville.
Nelle Baker, Circleville.

Independence Day.

What does the Fourth of July mean to you? Does it bring to you a thought or reverence for your nation, or does it arouse in you a desire to indulge in primitive sport? The country for years has yielded a heavy toll of lives as a sacrifice for the mad impulse to celebrate in this manner. This is no way to endeavor in the children or to foster in the older ones the love which we owe to our beautiful land. The story in the current issue of the Youth's Companion is a story with such a moral. This moral should dominate our plans for the celebration of Independence Day.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE

Boys Say Vermillion is an Ideal Place for Vacation.

Otterbein was well represented at the college Y. M. C. A. conference at Vermillion June 16 to 25. Cook, Roop, Metzger, C. L. Bailey, Yabe, Crogan, Good, and Snively were in attendance. All the men were enthusiastic concerning the work done there. Some of the speakers were: Dr. W. S. Hall, Dr. King, Dr. Lewis, Dr. Holmes and Dr. Cooley. The mornings were devoted to lectures and discussions. College association work and settlement work were some of the topics brought before the assembly.

In the afternoon various athletic games were indulged in. In the baseball game Otterbein united forces with Mt. Union and Muskingum to play a team representing Ohio University. Jack Snively pitched and Roop caught. The Ohio boys were strong and won 8 to 3.

In the boat race Metzger and Roop won first place in a four oar event.

Mt. Union Muskingum and Otterbein again joined forces on "Stunt Night." They pulled off the stellar attraction in the form of a mock marriage. K. Yabe was the groom, Patten of Muskingum, the bride, while C. V. Roop officiated as the minister.

While this convention was being held a similar one was in session of the Chinese organizations of Ohio. About thirty Chinamen were at the resort.

All the Otterbein men are working for a larger delegation from O. U. next year. They say it is very helpful as well as a delightful way to spend a vacation.

GREAT INTEREST

Story Hour Attracting Many of the Summer Students.

The story hour is becoming more and more interesting. This hour is very profitable and every student in school should take advantage of this opportunity. The meetings are held every Wednesday and Friday evening at 6:30 on the campus at Cochran Hall.

Last Wednesday evening Prof. Trump gave a short talk on story-telling as an art. He gave some practical suggestions in the manner and sort of stories to give to children. One of his remarks was, "Every good teacher ought to be a good story teller." When the pupil becomes weary of the routine work, an interesting story will enliven the tasks. At other times a good story clinches an argument or illustrates a point to the child where otherwise it would lose its force.

Donald Clippinger, Miss Potts and Miss Auchey gave interesting stories.

Next Wednesday evening at the Story Hour the group will have their pictures taken. Be on hand promptly at 6:30.

Reception at Cochran Hall.

A reception was given the students and faculty of Otterbein Summer school at Cochran Hall Thursday evening from 8 to 10 p. m. by the C. E. society of the U. B. church. A promiscuous program was given to which the following persons contributed:

Piano Duet—Misses Ila Bale, Zelma Street.

Vocal Solo in three numbers—Misses Bertha Karg, Miss Cora Prinkey, Prof. N. E. Cotnet, and Rev. S. F. Daugherty. Mr. Cook and Miss Prinkey were on the convention program.

Former Graduates Entertained.
Mrs. Richard Tobey, of Chicago, who is visiting in Columbus and vicinity, this week celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of her graduation at Otterbein University at Westerville, and, with other graduates of that institution, has been entertained at a number of delightful affairs within the past few days. Mrs. J. J. Smith of Lincoln street was hostess Thursday evening, when she gave a dinner. Her guests were Messiahes Tobey, Guiner, Fisher, Landon, Clippingger and Miss Sarn Winter of Westerville and Mrs. Robert Henry of Columbus. Another affair for Otterbein alumni was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Charles Franklin at her home on Champion avenue. Mrs. William Gantz of Los Angeles, Calif., was the honored guest.—Ohio State Journal.
ALUMNALS.

Prof. Irwin R. Libecap, '09, and Miss Mary Kalter, of Dayton were married at the U. B. church of Dayton Tuesday morning. Miss Ruth Detweller and Miss Barbara Stoler were maids of honor. Many Otterbein graduates and students were present at the ceremony. Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Libecap left for Columbus to attend the Smith-Nau wedding.

At the home of Dr. and Mrs. McKendree Smith of Arlington, Miss Louella Smith, '10, and Pro. John H. Nau of Plain City were united in marriage. Pres. Clippinger read the service before a large assembly of relatives and friends.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Folkth (Mary Hall), Mr. and Mrs. Libecap, and Mr. and Mrs. Nau left for a two months vacation near Jackson, Mich.

W. L. Mattis, '11, and J. O. Cox, '11, were callers in Westerville Wednesday and Thursday.

L. B. Bradrick, '98, of the Columbus Y. M. C. A. called Thursday on his brother and sister, T. H. Bradrick, '91, and Mrs. Chas. Pilkington, '93.

At the annual election of officers of the Alumni Association on Wednesday June 14, R. H. Wagoner, '92, was elected president, Daisy Custer Shoemaker, '85, I. G. Kumer, '91, and Alice Keister Weinland, '04, vice presidents, A. A. Nease, '88, treasurer, O. B. Cornell, '92, secretary and H. F. Detweller, '76, and C. M. Rogers, '77, trustees.

LOCALS.

The Misses Hendricks, Maxwell, Weaver, Fackler, Groff, Dick, Valentine, Edith and Grace Coblenz, Sylvia and Helen Hetzel, and Methered spread the picnic noves at Minerva park Thursday afternoon. After a bounteous lunch a few of the girls engaged in pedestrian pursuits. And thereby hangs a joke. Ask one of them.

Ralph Wells visited at his home at Tadmor over Sunday.

Chemistry has been going along very nicely in the absence of Prof. Weinland. If Mr. Locke were not so tall we could almost imagine, on hearing his genial voice, "That's all right," that Prof. Weinland was before us.

Our matron of Cochran Hall is a great lover of tennis as is evident by the fact that she is willing to miss breakfast for a set on the court at six o'clock.

Frank B. Moore, '97, a traveling salesman of the Ward-Stinson company of New London, is visiting his parents on Lincoln street.

Prof. Maude A. Hanawalt left Westerville Tuesday, June 27, for a short visit with Miss Ada Chapman at Prospect.

Peggy Hudson says that she is not going to have her name in this summer paper, for she is going to keep still. This is so unusual in Peggy that for her silence her name goes in the first issue.

Bale speaking of the meaning of attitudes—"Now Mr. Good what position do you think would be suitable for the melancholic?"

Good—"I don't believe the author speaks of that, but for melon colic I always take a position over a chair."

Bale in Public Speaking—"Mr. Simon, never make a gesture over the rear foot, never!"

Simon to a neighbor—"If he isn't careful, he'll be talking about my hind legs, yet."

Van Saun has a great deal of trouble in keeping a full list of chemistry apparatus. Last Friday among his mishaps he swallowed a spoon. Contrary to expectations he can now stir better than usual—watch him in track next year.
