THE OTTERBEIN REVIEW

VOL. III.

WESTERVILLE, OHIO, OCTOBER 30, 1911.

No. 7.

AGRICULTURE OFFERED

Domestic Science and 8 Weeks Probable for Summer Term.

Great things are already in stage for Otterbein's summer school next year. Domestic science will probably be offered and an eight week term is being considered. Professor Graham, head of the Ohio State department of Agriculture, will have charge of a course in elementary agriculture. Prof. Graham is the foremost authority on the subject of agriculture in the state of Ohio. At Ohio State he now has ~~thirteen~~ instructors under his direction. President Clippinger is to be congratulated on securing the services of this noted teacher.

A domestic science course will be introduced if present plans are realized. This would fill a need which has been frequently emphasized by friends of Otterbein. The President also states that possibly the summer school term will be lengthened from six to eight weeks and added credit given for the work offered, if there is sufficient demand for such a change.

Declamation Trials Friday.

The machinery has been set in motion for the Russell Prize declamation contest. The preliminaries for the contest will be held in the College chapel, Friday afternoon beginning at 1:30 o'clock. The contest is open to all members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes. Each contestant will speak not more than five minutes in the trials. Eight persons will be retained for the final contest which will be held Saturday night, Nov. 25.

The prizes are $15, $10, and $5 for the first, second and third places, respectively.

OKUMA INTERVIEWED

Wilbur Crafts Presents Observations at Home and Abroad.

Wilbur S. Crafts Superintendent of the International Reform Bureau, who has been attending the National Purity convention at Columbus, delivered an excellent address in the College chapel Friday at 12:30 p. m., before a fair sized audience on the subject, "Foundations of Morality." This lecture was based partially upon an interview with Count Okuma a leading personage in Japan. He first named the chief evils which the Reform Bureau attempts to fight and the means by which the work is to be accomplished as well as the fields in which the campaign is being urged. Of the four evils,—intemperance, impurity, Sabbath breaking and gambling, and of the four fields,—local, state, national and international, he based his address upon the evil of intemperance in the international field thus dealing largely with foreign nations. In the course of his talk he mentioned the friendly attitude of ex-

Pipe Organ Assured.

The Junior class has decided to take upon itself the responsibility of providing the Chapel with a pipe organ as a class gift. Only limited particulars of the plans of the class can be secured.

Big Fish Story.

While fishing in Alum Creek one day last week, Mr. P. S. Rosselot, father of Prof. Rosselot, made the largest catch of the season. The victim of Mr. Rosselot's bate proved to be a carp which weighed eleven and three quarter pounds.

INTEREST IS LACKING

Student Council Ignored By Many.

It is very evident that the sentiment in favor of a student council for Otterbein is not as strong or as universal as was first supposed. A very large number of students, alumni, ex-students, and professors failed to express any opinion concerning the student council proposition. This speaks for itself. Either there is considerable suppressed opposition or much indifference concerning the matter.

This same question was agitated five or six years ago. There were some very zealous supporters of the movement, but the student body as a whole was inactive. The result was that the proposition never even took form. It is prophesied by certain ones that the same will be true of the recent agitation.

Different faculty members and the student committees have been inquiring about the response to the student council article in the Review last week. The present prospect is not particularly encouraging. The Review is publishing the ballot again this week for any others who wish to

NOTED RECITER COMING

Montaville Flowers Will Entertain Students and Citizens.

The first number of the Citizens' Lecture course for the year 1911-12 will appear tomorrow evening. In harmony with the custom of previous years, an attempt has been made on the part of the committee to secure only the best talent. This policy will be clearly demonstrated when Montaville Flowers appears in one of his life-lectures with illustrative acting.

Mr. Flowers has a nation-wide reputation as an entertainer, and is not only a reader of ability, but an orator and actor as well. It is very seldom that we find this rare combination in one man. The Cincinnati Enquirer says the following:

"Though a resident of this city, and in his fiftieth appearance here in ten years, to the largest audience in the history of the Y. M. C. A. Star Courses, nearly Noted Lecturer Secured.

There will be a series of lectures on philosophical and sociological subjects delivered by John C. Granberry shortly after Thanksgiving. Most of these lectures will be given at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. One, however, will probably come at the regular chapel hour, while another may be delivered in the evening. The exact subjects will be announced later.

Prof. Granberry is pastor of the M. E. church at Barbourville, W. Va., and professor in Morris Harvey college. He is an intense student and is recognized as a mental genius in both United States and Europe.

Summary—Touchdowns, Gilbert 2, Miller, Lewis. Goals kicked—Sanders, D. Jones. Referee Farson. Umpire Powell (O. S. U.) Head Linesman, Rosselot.

Although Otterbein showed her superiority over Ohio University last Saturday on the local gridiron in which the visitors succeeded in holding O. U. to a 11-11 tie. The hill boys from Athens put up a fierce scrappy fight and the game resulted in one of the most thrilling battles ever waged on the local gridiron. The visitors were a heavy bunch and outweighed O. U. both in the line and back field.

The truth that O. U. outplayed Ohio lies in the fact that Otterbein came within striking distance of the goal three times more than did the Ohio team. O. U. had three chances at the goal from placement, but "dame fortune" deemed them misses. Ohio tied the score when Lewis in mid field intercepted a forward pass and glided along the side line for a touchdown. The opponents first touchdown came after good straight football and a successful pass to Miller who carried the ball over.

Gilbert Stars.

The feature of the game was the phenomenal work of Gilbert.

That sterling hero covered himself with several distinct varieties of glory. One halo was a successful 110 yards run from the kick-off for a touchdown. Ohio unfortunately kicked to Gilbert at the opening of the game and the latter immersed himself in the O. U. interference and in less than 13 seconds had ducked several would-be tacklers and covered the 110 yards for a touchdown. Another halo came from Gilbert's excellent line plunging and the bucking over of the second touchdown, while in the commoner routine of play his work was noticable beyond the ordinary. Less brilliant, but none the less important was the work of left end Hartman. This husky end

"It was Otterbein's game until one of its forward passes was intercepted and resulted in a touchdown for Ohio U. Ohio U. fought in the face of defeat and well deserved a tie score."
Coach Exendine.

"Since last Saturday's game, I say without any hesitancy that if the fellows will train and play the ball they are capable of playing, their chances are fine for the rest of the games. Everybody encourage the fellows. Talk it up, that is the main thing."
Ex-Captain Homer Lambert.

was very successful in recovering forward passes and his rapid work on getting under punts was much appreciated by Coach Exendine. Hartman spoiled many of the Athens' plays before they were fairly started, and rudely startled his opponents by his hoggishness in tackling.

It is difficult to pick the stars on the visiting team, as their heavy bunch when massed in front of the O. U. line held firmly.

The game for Otterbein was some what-marred by fumbling. Numerous and costly fumbles prevented Otterbein from running up a larger score. In the third quarter O. U. had the ball on Ohio's 4 yard line and three downs in which to make the touchdown. Ohio recovered Learish's fumble and punted out of danger.

ON TO DELAWARE

Manager Moses Plans to Secure Special Car.

The football team and Coach Exendine are now looking forward especially to the Ohio Wesleyan game which is scheduled for Nov. 18, at Delaware. "On to Delaware" is the slogan of Otterbein. Manager Moses has already secured an option on a car for the transportation of students to Delaware, and if a large enough crowd will go to the Wesleyan game the management will charter the car. The Westerville train to Delaware would leave Westerville about 12 and return, leaving Delaware at about 6 o'clock. The round trip will cost only

LOST IN COLUMBUS

Otterbein Seconds Overcome by South High, 22-6.

The Otterbein Seconds Friday afternoon at Columbus lost their first game to the husky South High school eleven by a score of 22 to 6. Considering the fact that the high school eleven was much heavier and more experienced than O. U. The work of the seconds was very creditable. Each team repeatedly worked the forward pass for good gains. O. U.'s fumbling, however, was responsible for the South's score.

The seconds were unable to get started in the first half, but in the next they had things mostly their own way. O. U. worked the ball to South's 20 yard line when on the next play Bronson passed to Garver and the latter went over for a touchdown. McLeod kicked goal.

Two of the touchdowns made by South were results of "flukes." In one case quarter Gammill recovered a fumble and ran 70 yards for the touchdown. Rocky, South's fullback, recovered a forward pass in the second quarter for a 75 yard gain and touchdown.

Left guard Farver and Right-half Bronson were the stars for the seconds. The latter carried the ball well and was strong on the defense. Garver has been showing up well and some prophesy a varsity position for him before the season closes.

The lineup:

Frohnhofer	L E	Metzger
Essig	L T	Bale
Koetz, Smith	L G	Farver

Girls Root.

The girls made a splendid showing Saturday by their cheering. The plan of segregation works well and likely will be followed hereafter.

Seconds vs. C. W.

The second team will play Canal Winchester next Friday on the local gridiron. The visiting team comes, after once beaten by the seconds, very much desirous of victory. The hard working boys on the second team ought to have O. U. student body support.

"Possession by Dispossession" Discussed at Y. M. C. A.

The main feature of the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Thursday evening was a splendid talk by T. H. Nelson in which some very important truths were presented in an attractive manner. The subject upon which Mr. Nelson based his remarks was, "Possession by Dispossession," the chief thought being that found in Numbers 33: 52, 53, Joshua 11: 9 and 12: 7, 8.

The speaker mentioned the fact that Joshua after careful training under the leadership of Moses, and following the command of Jehovah took possession of Jerico and Ai by dispossessing those who controlled those cities. No two objects can occupy the same place at the same time. This holds good in the material and mental worlds alike, for whatever we gain either in worldly goods or in mental acquirements, we obtain by the loss of some other of our possessions. Thus bad may be replaced by good, but if we do not exercise care, good may just as readily be replaced by bad.

He also illustrated his theme by a beautiful story of Henry Van Dyke's from the book, "Blue Flowers," thus impressing the thought of his words all the more strongly upon his hearers. Unlike Alexander, who lamented because there were no more worlds to conquer, we need not want for lack of opportunity in our age.

Value of Y. W. C. A. to Students Considered Tuesday Night.

"The Meaning of the Association in College Life" was well presented by Miss Potts last Tuesday night. She said that the Association was students' work for students. No one is responsible for it except the students themselves. The Association had meant service, consecration, and joy to her.

After a solo by Miss Ingle, the old girls were given the opportunity to tell what the association had meant to them individually. They responded very rapidly, and the thoughts expressed showed that the association is a great help to all the girls.

Reports from the Springfield conference were given by Misses Devoc, Dick, Kephart, and Nelson.

New Girls' Meeting.

The next meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be a new girls meeting led by Miss Francis Caffish. All the girls should attend.

DR. KLINE RETURNS

Mexican Revolution Enforces Vacation.

Dr. W. L. Kline, '94, has returned to Guadalajara, Mexico, and will resume his practice which was interrupted by the revolution last winter.

Dr. Kline made use of his time by taking a post-graduate course in an Eastern College. He visited at his brothers' homes in Dayton before going South.

The doctor's residence was in the center of the first agitation of the revolt. Much damage was done to life and property. So he decided to use the opportunity for a visit to the States. Before going to Mexico in 1908, he was coroner of Montgomery county for four years.

Miss Minnie Backman, '09, of Canal Winchester attended the C. E. convention Friday.

F. W. MacDonald, '08, of Cleveland, saw the Otterbein-Ohio game Saturday. He spent Sunday with S. J. Keihl, '10.

Dr. F. A. Edwards, '03, of the National Soldier's Home, Dayton, visited Saturday with Prof. R. H. Wagoner, '92.

W. D. Rymer, '10, is on a farm at Lotisa, Va., recuperating his health.

Denton Fansher.

Invitations are being received from Mr. and Mrs. Denton, of Lexington, Ky., to the wedding of their daughter, Katherine Higgins and Frederick W. Fansher, '10, of Dayton. The ceremony will take place in the Methodist Episcopal church at Lexington on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 8.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Root toward this work, but the movement must be agitated continually from the pulpit in order that the opium and liquor habits in particular might be overcome among savage people.

The speaker then dwelt to some extent on the direct effect of alcohol on the human system relative to overcoming diseases which are prevalent today. This part of the lecture was given in an especially vivid manner, the speaker using interesting illustrations of actual scientific experiments to prove the harmful effects of alcohol on the blood, making it unable to destroy the different disease germs which find their way into it.

Mr. Crafts emphasized the place of the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments among people of all doctrines and the importance of these in dealing with heathen tribes. He spoke of having presented universal truths of civilization which would elevate Japan as a nation and also of the Count's favorable attitude toward them.

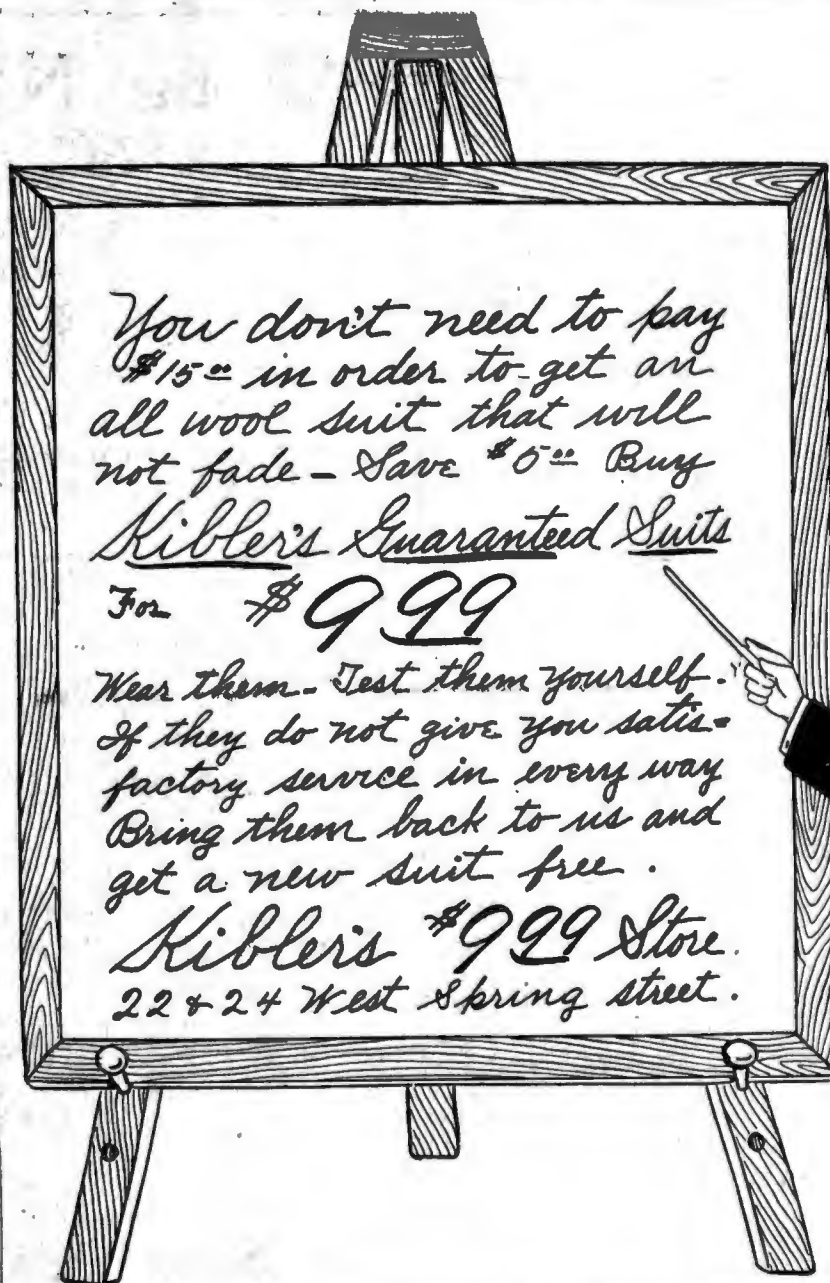

Mr. Crafts' present headquarters are at Washington, D. C., but much of his time is spent in travel, and his many interviews with prominent men of foreign lands make his experience of special interest and import. The entire lecture was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. The noted speaker will probably be secured to appear before the student body at a later date.

4000 people, Montaville Flowers was the extraordinary attraction at Music Hall last night. He presented the monologue of "Ben Hur" in a powerful enactment—full of dramatic force and intensity of delivery. In the chariot race scene he reached a climax which is seldom witnessed, and which was warmly greeted by the applause of the audience."

Other attractions in his repertoire are, "A Christmas Carol," "Les Miserables," "The Battle of Waterloo," "The Merchant of Venice," "Hamlet," "The Little Minister," and an original lecture entitled "Personality."

There is no question as to the character of each one of these numbers which Mr. Flowers presents, and the manner in which he presents them is of the very highest type. Students and citizens should avail themselves of this rare opportunity to hear a real artist in some of the choicest selections of English literature.

Among the speakers at the Evangelistic convention of the Southeast Ohio annual conference were both Pres. Clippinger and Rev. S. F. Daugherty.

President Clippinger talked at the Rally Day services at Galloway Sunday. An orchestra composed of Bungard, R. Calihan, Williams, Nease and Arnold furnished music. J. O. Emrick is pastor of the Galloway church. The orchestra also furnished music at the dedication service of the Washington Street U. B. church in Columbus Sunday afternoon, J. G. Spears is pastor of this church.

COCHRAN HALL ITEMS.

A Young Women's Christian association convention was held in Toledo this week end. We sent Margaret Gaver, Edith Gilbert, and Hazel Codner, who have returned very enthusiastic over the convention. They are much in love with Miss Stone, who takes Mrs. Sewell's place as student secretary of Ohio and West Virginia. Among the prominent speakers known to all, was Dr. Churchill King of Oberlin.

Mrs. Carey suggested that the girls have a hollowe'en party tonight in the basement. Now a few of the girls urged others to plan for a big party in the gymnasium where everyone could have a good time. Will everyone be out? We have all longed for some social affair that would mean a real good time for all. Here is the chance to prove whether such a good time is possible. Other schools of our size can do it. Can we?

The girls should be praised for coming out in such numbers as they did Saturday afternoon. Even if some of the girls were away we had a splendid showing. We girls are loyal to our dear Otterbein.

A number of girls have been absent from the Hall this week end. Some of these spent Friday night with Mrs. Heltman. Mrs. Heltman makes the best pancakes we ever tasted.

OTTERBEINESQUES.

Miss Miller—"Sandy, do you write for art's sake or for money?"

Sandy—"For both. I write for the magazines for art's sake and to father for money."

All the world is a stage and all students kickers.

The noblest work of God is man, but it is hard to make some of the dormitory girls believe it.
