ORATORS CONTEST

Richer Wins First, Miss Brane Second, Miss Jamison Third.

Dr. H. H. Russell, Prof. Heltman, the contestants, and Otterbein university are to be congratulated on the extraordinary declamation contest which was held Wednesday night in the College chapel. The Chapel was filled to the extreme of its capacity, many people not being able to gain admission. Every performer on the well selected program showed himself to be a worthy contender. The contest made sure the fact that Dr. Russell's interest in the Public Speaking department is appreciated, and that Prof. Heltman's training ability is bearing rich fruits.

The program opened with music by the college orchestra. Rev. L. H. Shane, moderator of the evening, announced the speakers. The first selection was by Miss Mary O. Grise, "The Old Man and Jim," of James Whitcomb Riley's. It was delivered with a delightfully pleasing simplicity. Miss Boneta Jamison very effectively rendered a difficult scene from Hall Cain's, "The Christian." Harry E. Richer, who won second place in the contest of last year, more than satisfied his expectant hearers by presenting, "The Boy Orator of Zeppata."

THIRTY WILL TRY-OUT

Debate Preliminaries Arouse Much Enthusiasm.

Since the football season is over the special attention of Otterbein will be centered upon debate for a time. The first preliminaries, which will be held Dec. 15, are attracting far more than ordinary interest. Coach Bale announces that thirty men have entered the race for positions on the teams. The fact that six out of the eight on last year's teams are in college and are fighting to

WILSON REMAINS ON TOP

Voters Flip Harmon Low Man-Girls Like Bryan.

Some surprising results have developed in the final week for the Straw Vote for president which has been conducted by the Otterbein Review for several weeks. Bryan, who had received only one vote in the men's vote, polled as many votes during the last week as either Taft or La Follette. Wilson and Roosevelt proved to be the biggest gainers. Harmon received one lone vote.

The Otterbein vote up to date yields the following results:

	Men	Girls
Wilson .....	35	5
La Follette .....	15	4
Roosevelt .....	12	2
Taft .....	8	2
Bryan .....	7	6
Debs .....	4
Hughes .....	2
Harmon .....	1	5
Total .....	74	24

The vote also discloses the fact that about one fifth of those who voted did not support the candidates of their father's party.

Dr. Grandbery Tonight.

The lectures of Dr. Grandbery, which were announced last week, will open tonight. Dr. Grandbery will address the Faculty club on the subject, "The Old Order Changeth, or Our Spiritual Unrest."

GEORGE STUART COMING

Noted Lecturer of the South Will be Here Friday.

One of the country's greatest orators will speak in Westerville Friday night, Dec. 8, in the person of George R. Stuart who will appear on the Citizens' Lecture course at that time. Mr. Stuart is a Southerner but his fame has spread to all parts of the nation. He is noted as an evangelist, pastor, humorist, lecturer and orator. The lecturer will present what is thought by many to be his best subject, "Is Fun Divine or Devilish?" He delivered this lecture in the Lyceum course at Winona Lake last September, and it was there pronounced as, "His best lecture."

Personal and press comments are a unit in expressing the deepest appreciation for Mr. Stuart's work. Len G. Broughton, pastor Baptist Tabernacle, Atlanta, Ga., says, "There is no man on the American platform today who is equal to George Stuart." "It gives me the greatest pleasure to say that we have never had any one on our platform who has been more enthusiastically received than Mr. Stuart," is the statement of J. Wilbur Chapman. "He has the fluency of Talmage, the pathos of Moody and the humors of Sam

COACH GIVEN CUP

Exendine Receives Loving Cup in Appreciation of His Work.

The reception given to Coach Albert Exendine last Tuesday night was a "howling success." A goodly crowd of students and faculty members were present, and the hour between seven and eight was filled with much merriment and jollity. There was also a solemnity about the occasion when Otterbein bade Exendine fare-well.

Goal from placement—Sanders. Referee—Knight, Michigan. Umpire—Potts, O. W. U. Field Judge—Prugh, O. W. U. Periods, 15 minutes. Attendance, 900.

It seems to have become an established precedent for the Otterbein football team to come out of Springfield every Thanksgiving with a Wittenberg scalp hanging to its belt. They repeated Thursday, winning 3 to 0, but it required a hard consistent struggle to secure the coveted prize this year and the result of the game was in doubt until the final whistle blew. Again it was the trusty toe of Sanders, protected by a stone wall defense of the forwards, that kicked a neat field goal and turned a scoreless tie into a victory for Otterbein.

Otterbein played her last game under Exendine and they surely displayed all their fighting powers. Few thought that the consistent march of the Otterbein backs up the field which resulted in a goal from placement during the first five minutes of play would be the only score of the game.

After Otterbein secured her three point lead, neither team came dangerously close to scoring by the touchdown route for the battle was waged between the twenty-five yard lines. The Wittenberg team was undoubtedly the best coached eleven that that school has sent up against Otterbein for many years and much improvement could be seen over their playing of last year. The victory was a glorious one for Otterbein and was a fitting climax of one of the most successful seasons that the school has ever had.

"TINK" AND "BOB" NAMED Otterbein's Quarter and Center Attract Attention.

In spite of the fact that Otterbein is not in the conference, two of her players, Quarter Sanders and Center Simon, get universal recognition throughout the state. A study of recent athletic columns reveals the fact that Otterbein is about the only school not in the conference whose players have gained state reputation.

The Dispatch, in picking her All State elevens, places Roby as quarterback. It states that Roby is the best quarter Ohio has produced for years. The item then goes on to state that Sanders of little Otterbein is a peer to Roby, but cannot be considered, as his school is not in the conference.

Bob Simon also gained state recognition. The Ohio State Journal mentions him along with McDaniels as a center of All State ability while Coach Exendine selects him as an All State candidate, stating that Bob did more tackling than any other center in the state.

These facts highly elate Otterbein football enthusiasts and go to prove that Otterbein is surely on the football map.

The Citizen gives Sanders a place on the All Ohio second team in preference to Foss of State. In differentiating between the two, the Citizen says, "Sanders is the better man and easily better at kicking goals from the field. By himself he defeated Wesleyan with two kicks that went true, and his work has been brilliant all season. Foss, however, is better at running with the ball, but is not as quick a thinker as Sanders in tight pinches.

ORATORS CONTEST

City, Richard Harding Davis. An appropriate selection for the season was, "The Thanksgiving Guest." Miss Esther Groff portrayed this touching selection of Louise Chandler Moulton's in a quiet, yet effectual manner. Preceding the second part of the program the orchestra again rendered a pleasing selection.

H. E. Bon Durrant then lead off with Lu B. Cake's pathetic story, "The Light from Over the Range." The skillful way in which Mr. Bon Durrant modulated his voice was the subject of much comment. "Mistress Sherwood's Victory," Eva Ogden, was recited by Miss Grace Brane with an unusual and delightful combination of strength and pathos. Miss Ethel Garn chose "The Modern Cain," by E. E. Edwards, a strong moral selection, which she gave in a very appropriate manner. John O. Emerick closed the declamation by a clear and earnest presentation of, "The Majesty of the Law," Carlton H. Alexander.

The judges, Prof. Fox of the Capital School of Oratory, Prof. J. T. Marshman of Ohio Wesleyan university and Prof. C. E. Blanchard of Ohio State university, had no easy task in picking the three winning places. After prolonged consultation, however, they made the following awards: third prize, $5, Miss Jamison; second, $10, Miss Brane; first, $15, Mr. Richer. Dr. E. A. Jones in his own elegant way presented the awards of the judges which was a fitting conclusion to the evening's entertainment.

Jones."—Galveston (Tex) News. The Van Wert Daily Times reports that he was greeted by the largest audience that ever assembled in that city. According to the Portsmouth Daily Blade, the crowd which gathered to hear Mr. Stuart became so immense and unwieldy that it was necessary for the ushers to carry him above the shoulders of the people in order that he might take his place on the platform.

Mr. Stuart has pleased Westerville people on two occasions by splendid temperance addresses, and thus, without question, will be enthusiastically received. Very likely the demand for reserve seat tickets will exceed that for any lecture up to this time.

About one-third of the votes for Wilson came from Republicans while 3 Democrats voted for La-Follette and 3 for Roosevelt. Only 1 Republican and no Democrats, of the men, favored Harmon. The vote as it stands among the men shows 37 supporting Republican candidates, 33 Democrats; and 4 Socialist.

The only change in the girls' vote during the week is indicated by the following communication: Editor Otterbein Review:

I would rather see the Republicans get it than any other party, and rather see Taft than any other Republican. However, if Taft is to be dominated by "the interests," I don't want that, either. I would like to see the Republican party cut loose from all entangling alliances, from all bossism, trusts, liquor interests, and everything of the kind. I would be in favor of a new Republican party if that could be possible, to get rid of all the corruption found in the old party.

My father is a Republican. I am a girl, and cannot vote—a student. I think that is all the information you ask for.—I. G.

not later than March 15, 1912.

The donor of the men's prize is Chester DeWitt Pugsley, of Peekskill, N. Y., Harvard, '09. The women's prizes are made possible by Mrs. Elmer Black, New York City. Last year the men's contest brought out sixty-five essays from colleges all over the United States and Canada, to which countries the offer is restricted. The winner of the prize was Mr. Harry Posher, a student in the Mississippi Agriculture and Mechanical college.

The prizes for the next contest will be awarded at the Mohonk Lake Conference in May 1912. Further particulars may be had by applying to the H. C. Phillips, Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Secretary of the Conference.

Do We Think?

The progressive members of our Faculty say, do not depend entirely on your text books, but think. Coach Exendine believes that a good athlete must not only have physical powers, but he must be able to think. Prof. Bale tells his debate class that the mission or duty of a debater is not merely to read and talk, but that thinking is necessary for real attainment in the forensic field. College life emphasizes the significance of thinking in its every phase.

But do we think? Some eliminate thinking in their Greek and Latin work by using prepared translations. There are those who deceive, or attempt to deceive, their mathematics or science instructor, and at the same time save themselves from thinking, by depending on the fruits of the labor of someone else. Students have been known to fail rather than think. Bluffing is a common substitute for thinking.

This might be expected in public high schools which many are compelled to attend by the law or parental supervision; but it is truly deplorable to see college people voluntarily pay tuition for something which they refuse to accept, namely, mental development—the product of thinking.

Good Spirit Shown.

Otterbein has had a declamation contest and she knows that she has had one. The students as well as the townspeople supported this important interest of the public speaking work at Otterbein in a very commendable manner. This wholesome spirit speaks well for "the greater Otterbein."

It is not what we learn today, but what we remember tomorrow that adds to our stock of knowledge.

Pleasant remarks bear repetition; but an unpleasant thing said once is already said once too often.

CLUB TALK

Otterbein Union.

Editor Otterbein Review:

Dear Sir: In my travels about the state visiting Ohio colleges, I have been unfavorably impressed with the lack of a home-like place of indoor recreation. At only one place have I found ideal conditions, Ohio State university, where they have the Ohio Union. There are a few college Y. M. C. A. organizations who have felt the need of such a place and fitted up their rooms in a small way with this idea in mind.

Otterbein is no exception to the rule. She has a fine building which has about fifty per cent of its floor space going to waste. Outside of the gymnasium, the Association building is useless. The so-called "parlors" were once fitted up in a feeble attempt to make it home-like. I would like to ask the house committee how many students use those "parlors" in one day? Are they attractive enough to keep the boy off the street corners? Why are they closed every evening at five o'clock?

I would suggest that the authorities visit Ohio Union and see the cozy rooms for themselves. Easy chairs and rockers are many. Newspapers and magazines are available. Pool and billiard tables and bowling alleys have been installed. The alleys are out of the question at present but the tables are not. What is needed is something to attract the student in his idle moments from the street corner and worse places.

These improvements are not out of our reach. You, young men, agitate this reform! Get in line with a, Progressive.

Query Box.

Is there a man or woman in school who does not regret to see Coach Exendine leave Otterbein?

What system of coaching should be adopted for next year's athletics?

What kind of a football team will Otterbein produce in 1912?

What are the basket and baseball prospects?

COACH GIVEN CUP

Those present were divided into different parties representing five of the leading schools in America, and were seated in the gallery of the gymnasium. Representatives from each group were chosen and they with Exendine, H. Lambert, Capt. A. Lambert, and Prof. Rosselot seated themselves in the gymnasium. Each one was then given three minutes to express their sentiments as representatives of the different schools. After some very fitting remarks by the different speakers, President of the athletic board, Homer Lambert, took the floor and very neatly presented to Coach Exendine a beautiful loving cup on which was engraved, "in token of the high esteem of the students and alumni, and their appreciation for three most successful football seasons." After this presentation the "Big Chief" arose and in his unique manner thanked the students for the cup, and their support to him during the past three seasons. The reception was adjourned by all extending to Exendine a hearty hand shake and hopes for success in his future work.

Ashland Challenges.

Otterbein has accepted Ashland's challenge for a debate at Westerville on the "Initiative and Referendum." The exact wording of the question will be determined soon.

Coach Bale will confer with the Wittenberg and Ohio coaches in Columbus this week concerning the interpretation of the question chosen and other matters of detail.

The latest reports are that the girls' debate will be a dual meet with Ohio instead of the first proposed triangle. The only thing now needed for a successful debate season is student and faculty support.

Gospel Team at Linden.

Otterbein sent out one gospel team during the Thanksgiving vacation, under the captaincy of C. V. Roop. L. M. Curts had charge of the singing. His solo work was very good. J. W. DeVaux at the piano and O. W. Briner with the cornet assisted in the music. T. H. Nelson, I. C. Johnessee and C. W. White acted as team substitutes. The most effective result of the work of the team was the organization of a permanent men's league. Several decisions were made.

Although Grace Meyers' engagement has not been announced the girls take it for granted since the lady wears a diamond. Friday night they had a shower when Grace received such useful articles as,—a dust pan, a dish pan, a spit-toon, dish towels, potato masher, etc.

There were just 15 girls who stayed in the Hall over Thanksgiving. These had a taffy pulling Friday night and numerous minor social events. The Thanksgiving dinner was the event of the season. Counting the guests, among whom were Rev. Mr. Barnes and Dean Cook, twenty-six sat down to dinner. Mrs. Carey and Mr. Barnes sat at the ends of the table and each carved a turkey. The table was decorated beautifully not only with such things as turkey and oysters, but also with cranberries strung on thread, apples and oranges. After the dinner a Thanksgiving service was held in the Library.

Dayton was the congregating place of many Otterbein students. Several reunions were held for these, one at Brane's and one at Kepie's. In fact it was like an Otterbein reunion all the time, especially at the Staub's and Brane's, where a number of the students visited.

The first floor girls were entertained in Columbus by Edith White and Lucile Welch.

A number of outsiders were visitors in the Hall among whom were Mrs. Coburn and Florence Zinsmaster.

LOCALS

You Can't Guess about your Clothes

The man who gives little care to his clothes selection—who just guesses that the style is correct and the tailoring good—is never a well dressed man.

The latter is one who takes the time to be sure of his clothes—who knows how they are made and of what materials—and whose appearance is consequently an asset instead of a liability.

The best dressed men may be counted among the wearers of Union clothes.

Men of fashion everywhere look here for style assurance—and for every other quality that goes to make clothes good.
