OTTERBEIN WINS

ROMPS AWAY FROM MIAMI IN 37 TO 18 GAME.

Game in Otterbein's Hands At All
Stages—Sanders and Young
Chief Point Getters.

In a fast game against Miami Saturday evening the Otterbein basketball shooters assumed a commanding lead at the start of the game and held their ground throughout the contest. The game was fast and very rough.

The game started with Otterbein's old lineup, with the exception of left guard, Cook being unable to play on account of injuries received in practice during the week. Miami contained in their lineup the name of Karg, a former football and basketball player of Otterbein.

First Half

The first half started off at a rapid gait and Otterbein kept up the rapidity until they had scored 21 points. Young and Sanders secured 3 goals apiece with the latter's getting 6 points from fouls. The guards each got a field basket. Miami lost out in this half by taking too many long shots. Their players did not use team work to any great extent, their chief system being that of dribbling. This was broken up time and again. Miami only secured 2 field baskets, these being contributed by Levering and Brown. Brown raised their score to 7 points by making 3 free throws.

Second Half.

At the beginning of the second half the Miami guards changed positions but to no avail. Our forwards kept up their good work by plenty of scoring. The game was delayed considerably when Miami's captain would not

FRIDAY MORNING IN CHAPEL.

A Lawyer's Examination of the Christian Faith Proves Most Inspiring Helpful Talk.

On Friday morning was given the first number of the series of free lectures which the college is providing for its students, faculty and friends. Dr. Howard H. Russell gave an address on "A Lawyer's Examination of the Christian Faith." While such a masterful address would be worthy of a hearing by any audience at any time, owing to the revival meetings which are now in progress it was especially appropriate at this time. His "examination" was conducted in a manner so tactful and logical that he must have certainly won his case before any jury whether they had had any previous convictions or not.

Dr. Russell said if he were to choose a text he would select the words, "Be ready always to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning the hope that is in you." The Apostle Peter, however, might find fault for our celerity in giving excuses and our hesitancy of the faith we have.

In choosing a religion there is no other form which we could accept but the Christian religion. The choice, therefore, must really be between Christ and infidelity. Christianity he defined as an institution; infidelity as a destitution. In answer to the questions, "Who made the world?" "Why?" "Who called me into being?" "What shall be my conduct?" "What shall be my destiny?" infidelity has either no reply, or at best an unsatisfactory one, while Christianity gives reasons which may be found in the Bible.

Christianity is constructive; infidelity destructive. Christianity is responsible for great buildings, for philanthropy, for music, eloquence, sculpture and art. Construction is more difficult than destruction. Infidelity follows Christianity for purposes of destruction as a shark follows a ship.

Christ is constructive. He has power to change the human heart and transform character as he has done with Paul, Russell Conwell, Jerry McAuley.

Christianity is positive and everlasting; infidelity is negative and ephemeral. Even if death ends all it is better to be a Christian. But it does not end all, there is a resurrection.

SECONDS PLAY

Mutes at Columbus Friday But Are Defeated 23 to 20

In a close and rather interesting game, the O. S. S. D. basketball players defeated the 2nd team at Columbus by a 23 to 20 score.

At the end of the first half the score stood 16 to 9 against Otterbein. In the second half they had the best of the argument and nearly made the game look disastrous to the mutes.

For Otterbein, Lambert played the stellar part. He scored 15 of the 20 points. In the first half out of 5 trials at the basket from the field he sent the ball thru the net 4 times. Three of these shots were one handed and from the middle of the floor. In the second half his free throws were nearly perfect, making 7 out of 9 trials. The rest of the team put up a good game and possibly would have been able to score more on a larger floor:

leave the floor after 5 personal fouls had been called against him. This half was considerably rougher than the other. "Curt" sent the ball thru the net 3 times from the field while Sanders and "Hix" did likewise once. Sanders made 4 points from free throws while "Curt" contributed one. Levering, mostly by dribbling, secured 3 field baskets and also added one point from foul line. Karg landed a beautiful basket from near the middle of the floor after several unsuccessful trials.

Dr Jones Makes Rplendid Plea for Christian Manhood.

A crowd almost rivaling that which assmblled to listen to Dr. Gladden, on the evening of February 17, was in attendance at last Thursday evening's meeting. Dr. Jones was the speaker. The service was opened with song. Then followed prayers by Professor Kiehl and M. L. Hartman.

Dr. Jones made a splendid plea for the boys, not professing Christianity, to make such a stand and assume such a position. His address was marked with an earnestness which was imparted to his listeners. He pointed out the way clearly and showed that the preponderance of evidence was on the side of Christ and the right.

Dr. Jones is a charming speaker and has the faculty of making one feel what he himself feels. In the short time that he has been with us every student has learned to love him. His meeting was one of the most helpful and inspiring of the year.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Come to Close Sunday After Two Weeks Services

Special evangelistic services have been held thruout the week in the college chapel. The meetings have been well attended and a goodly number have made decisions to follow the Christian faith. Mr. Spears and Mr. Yabe have been speakers at these meetings. On Friday night Dr. H. H. Russel, Assistant Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League preached. The meetings have been a special uplift to the college and community.

Y. W. C. A. and R. E. A. Suspend Their Meetings.

Y. W. C. A. and R. E. A. for the past two weeks have suspended their meetings to join in the special evangelistic services which were held in the chapel. This will account for the fact the reports from these associations have been missing from our columus.

Tomorrow is the anniversary of the birth of the Father of our Country. Then will many a lad and giggling lassie of the country school recite his praises in pleasing rhymes and sing again the song about his hatchet and the cherry tree. The eyes of all America will be turned toward him whose skill and valor on the field of battle has made us free. We rejoice in the greatness of our nation. Our hearts swell and throb with love and joy on beholding the starry pennant that is its emblem. We love the mighty rivers and mountains and prairies. We love that for which our country stands. Yet the goodly heritage could not be ours had he shrunk from the sufferings at Valley Forge or quaked at the ice in the Delaware. On this his birthday, let us turn aside for a little while to do honor to him who was "First in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

COLONEL WILSON

EDITOR OF OHIO STATE JOURNAL,
ADDRESSES PRESS CLUB.

Journalism, the subject of a Fine
Talk Delivered Tuesday Evening in Association Hall.

The outside and inside of newspaperdom was discussed last Tuesday evening by Col. E. S. Wilson, editor of the Ohio State Journal, who also gave interesting sidelights of the doings at Washington, gleaned during a recent visit.

The Press club had invited their friends to share with them this literary treat and about one hundred and twenty-five men were in attendance.

Colonel Wilson in the course of his practical talk emphasized the need of educated men in the newspaper business. Men were needed who are broad minded, fearless and who dare to tell the truth.

"There is more opportunity today for young men to rise in Journalism than ever before," said the colonel.

He advocated schools of Journalism strongly, provided they were under the supervision of a real journalist. In his opinion, there is as much need for training in journalism as in law, medicine or any other profession.

After the address, he spoke interestingly of his recent visit to Washington and his visits with men "higher up."

"Looking forward" was the subject of an editorial in the Ohio State Journal Thursday morning in which the colonel referred pointedly to his visit to Otterbein and to future days when college men will be leaders everywhere.

We are glad for Colonel Wilson's visit and only hope he can favor Otterbein again.

E. A. Bailey

The Review extends sympathy to Mr. Bailey, friend of Otterbein for so many years who is suffering from heart trouble. We trust he will soon be out again.

DR. R. S. MacARTHUR

Noted Divine to Give Lecture on Citizens' Course Tuesday Evening.

The fifth number of the Citizens' Lecture course will be given Tuesday evening, February 22. At this time Dr. Robert Stuart MacArthur will lecture on the subject, "America's Great Place Among the Nations." Dr. MacArthur is a graduate of the University of Rochester and of the Rochester Theological Seminary. Immediately upon his graduation he entered upon his duties as pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, New York City, which church he has served ever since.

One week following Dr. MacArthur, in the place of the Vassar Girls, the Redpath Grand Quartet has been secured. This quartet has performed twice at Findlay this year. They will come here from Oberlin and from here will go to Detroit.
