EASY WINNERS

VICTORIOUS OVER FINDLAY BY A SCORE 42 TO 17

Game Somewhat Slow at Times. H. Warner in Stellar Role for Otterbein

With each team minus two of their regular players, Findlay college was no match whatever for Otterbein here Friday afternoon. The team work was considerably ragged on both teams as might be accounted for by the absence of the regulars.

Findlay did not make it interesting at any stage of the game as might be indicated by a lead of 13 to 0 which Otterbein held at one time during the first half, which ended with a score of 23 to 7.

Otterbein's lineup was shifted. The pivot position was played by A. Lambert, who played a very acceptable game. Several of his goals were clear cut distance shots. H. Warner led the team in scoring, getting 5 field goals and having a very enviable record at free throws, caging the ball 7 out of 8 trials. As a forward, he makes a very good one, playing the game hard at all times. Sanders played his usual steady game.

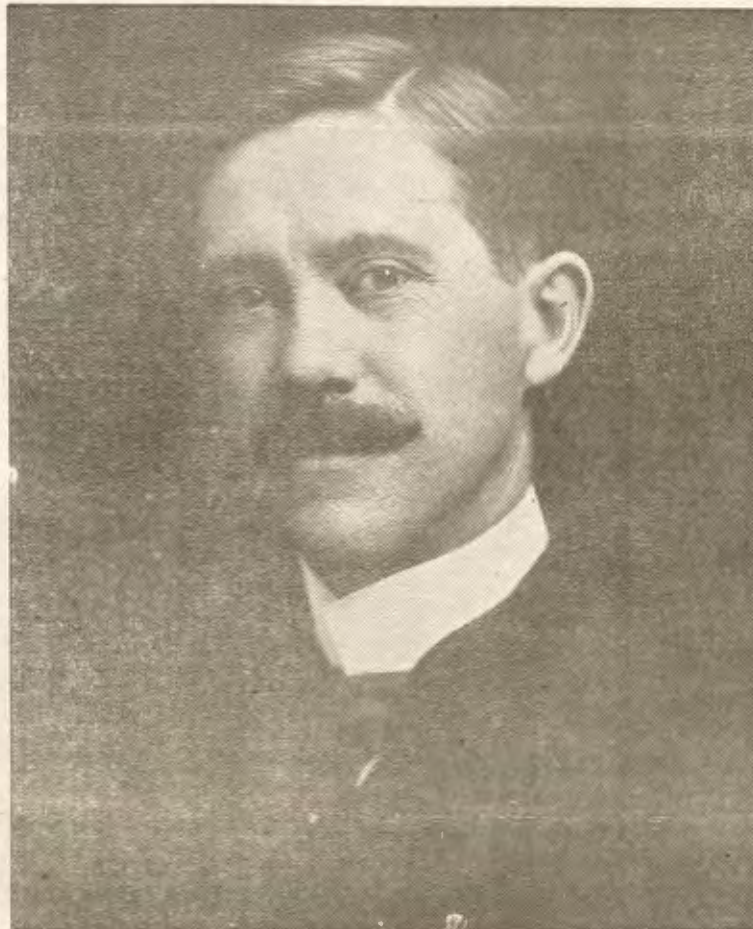

The guards worked in good shape in this game. Bailey made his forward look as if their positions were really changed as his forward only held him to 3 baskets. Cook evened up on his man by scoring a basket. The team next week should be working in tip top fashion so as to redeem that close score Kenyon gave us at Gambier.

Line-up:

MATTOON RESIGNS

OTTERBEIN'S JANITOR FOR EIGHT YEARS TENDERS RESIGNATION

Mr. Mattoon After April 1 Will Engage in Business in Cambridge with Brother-in-law

What came as a surprise Friday morning was the resignation of Earl Mattoon janitor of the main building of Otterbein for eight years.

Mr. Mattoon's resignation takes effect April first which time he anticipates engaging in the picture and framing business with his brother in-law, J. F. Patrick, of Cambridge, Ohio. His family will leave in about two weeks.

No one has been chosen as yet to fill the position.

THE GLEE CLUB

WILL RENDER PROGRAM TUESDAY MARCH 15.

Sixteen Voices Under Leadership of Prof. Resler to Give Concert Assisted by Prof. Neddermyer

What will be one of the big musical treats of the year will be given Tuesday evening, March 15, when the Glee club, under the direction of Professor Resler, will render a program in the college chapel.

The men have had careful training from Professor Resler for several months and an excellent concert is anticipated.

This is the first Glee Club in the history of the school distinctly representing Otterbein and Professor Resler deserves much commendation for his efforts.

The club is fortunate in having present Prof. Fred L. Neddermyer, of Columbus, as violin virtuoso.

He is doubtless the greatest orchestra leader in the state. He has studied in Germany and played before the Emperor, an honor limited to few. Professor Neddermyer was instructor of violin and piano years ago at Otterbein.

The regular admission will be charged, 25c general, 10c extra for reserved seats.

Miss Osborn Here.

The various phases of the missionary problems were presented last week by Miss Osborn, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement. She was here from Tuesday until Friday. Wednesday morning she spoke in chapel, making a plea for China and India.

INTENSELY EXCITING

Was the Game With Capital Seconds Saturday Evening.

Fast and furious was the game Saturday night with the Capital Seconds with the Otterbein Seconds in which the former were able to win by 35 to 32.

The Capital boys started away out in the lead the first half, scoring points at will. The half ended 23 to 10. A. A. A. rules were played this half and of course Otterbein was at a disadvantage.

In the second half the Inter-collegiate rules were played and Otterbein simply ran away with their opponents. In the last ten minutes of play, in which the Otterbein boys were cheered on by the loudest of rooting, Capital made four points while Otterbein was tossing the ball into the basket for fifteen points. The game was the prettiest seen on the floor this year as several times it looked as if Otterbein would nose ahead and win.

Fouts starred for Otterbein while Sauerteig was whole show for Capital.

Lineup:

Capital 2ds 35. Otterbein 2ds 32.
Runkle (C.)L. F.....Stringer, Lutz
HeinR. F.....Fouts
Sauerteig.....CLambert (C)
Hecht.....L. G.....Hall
Dell.....R. G.....Welbaum
Field goals—Fouts 6, Lambert 2,
Stringer, Lutz 2, Hall, Welbaum; Sauerteig 9, Runkle 4, Hein 2, Dell. Foul goals—Lambert 4 out 10, Fouts 1 out

BASEBALL IN THE AIR

Gymn the Scene of Practice Every Day.

In a few weeks when the birds warble their usual spring song and the ground becomes rid of its white covering and when the warm balmy days come, then the students of Old Otterbein will get a first glimpse of their baseball prospects and form opinions on the comparative strength and weakness of the team.

But since the weather does not permit the baseball enthusiasts to sport around on the diamond, yet Capt. Weinland is preparing everyone to be in fair shape when such is possible. The gymnasium is being used to allow the ball tossers to limber up their muscles and it is customary to see about 30 candidates out for each practice.

Naturally, it is a little too far off to predict what kind of a team will represent Otterbein in this line of athletics this year but it is believed that the team will be of better material than former years. Most of the old men are back while some very promising material is here to try for honors on the team. Several good men are expected to enter the spring term and when the Kenyon game on April 9 is over, the Gambierites will know that they have run up against a classier team than that which represents Otterbein generally.

HARVARD LAMPOON

Newspaper Founded in 1876 Has Finely Furnished Home

Unusual in every respect characterizes the Harvard Lampoon building which was opened Saturday, February 19.

At the opening were the editors, past and present of this famous paper. To Edmund M. Wheelwright, '76, Harvard, is due the unusuality of the building. He personally oversaw the construction, exterior and interior, which is fitted in ancient style throughout, Dutch patterns predominating.

The Lampoon today stands as one of the leading college newspapers and the whole college paper world takes interest in its success.

A Little Incident

It happened Tuesday evening. Some one shouted "See the comet!" and everyone looked in the southwest.

Yes sir, sure enough there it was, not far away. What a spectacle!

Profs. and students ran down the street to get a nearer view. My! they could almost feel the heat of it. But alas! a knowing one appeared on the scene who smiled and informed the crowd that it was a fake comet, formed above a steel furnace at Columbus.

Slowly, slowly the crowd dwindled away, thoughtfully pondering.

Off Again, Gone Again.

President Clippinger's dates are many and varied. He is gone or going all the time. Tuesday evening he talks to the girls at Y. W. C. A.

He will be present at a meeting of the Presidents and Deans of Ohio colleges at the Chittenden, Columbus, Friday and Saturday. About seventy-five will be in attendance.

Sunday he will be in Steubenville to address the Y. M. C. A. From here he anticipates a week's trip into Pennsylvania, stopping at Pittsburg, Braddock, Scottsdale and other points.

A Bird Story.

In the Senior Bible Class Friday morning a little sparrow flew in through the open window and remained throughout the recitation hopping about the window. "Like Noah's dove of old it brought tidings that the waters had gone down and green grass was seen once more.

"There was a young man who loved a girl very much. She did not return his love but he kept on pressing his suit."

"Self Mastery" is Subject Discussed by Association Men.

The association opened its service with song followed by prayer by Messrs. Stouffer, Ketter and Druhot. A. E. Brooks, the leader of the meeting, then read the scripture lesson from I. Cor. 16:10-7. Mr. Peck sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

"Self Mastery" was the subject announced by the leader. The scripture lesson compared admirably with the subject. His remarks were practical and to the point. He drew a comparison between a nation and an individual, saying that a nation cannot come to its best while under subjection. So it is with man. While he is slave to his lower nature he is not his best nor can he accomplish much. He said that we are restrained by civil law and by courtesy.

Self restraint is more often practiced than self mastery. We must learn to overcome our temptations and our passions. Such things take moral courage to face. We can do it all by the help of Jesus Christ. We must not shun non-Christian men but choose companionship with them.

Miss Osborn Speaks at Installation Service.

The young ladies' association held its installation service on last Tuesday evening to which they invited the young men of the college.

Lillie Resler read her report as retiring president.

The following officers were then installed: President, May Dick; vice president, Ethel Kephart; recording secretary, Maude Owings; corresponding secretary, Ruth Detweiler; treasurer, Hortense Potts; committee chairmen: devotional, Chloe Niswonger; Bible study, Gertrude Meyer; missionary, Grace Coblentz; alumna, Una Karg; music, Bessie Daugherty; intercollegiate, Ruth Detweiler; social, Mary Brown; membership, Ethel Kephart; nominating, Hazel Codner; extension, Esta Mosier.

Pearl Stringer and Edna Hayes then sang a duet, "Face to Face."

Following the installation service, Miss Osborn, of the Student Volunteer Movement spoke to the girls. Her scripture lesson was the story of the rich young ruler who would not sell all that he had and give it to the poor. referred also to Abraham going up to sacrifice Isaac and at the last moment God said, "it is enough, I have seen your faith." So will God speak to us when we give Him all and then it will not be such a great sacrifice to volunteer for the foreign field.

Do you walk with head erect?

Some students popularity is like a meteor.

To preserve a beautiful campus—when in doubt, take the walk.

Strange! Haven't received a single Spring poem at the Review office.

If you haven't faith in yourself how can you expect any one else to have?

Notwithstanding the high cost of beef the educators had a meet in Indianapolis last week.

Only seven, is the age of a lad who knows volumes about biology. Maybe he's a sure enough book worm.

A Dayton paper tells of the culmination of a romance at Miami. For a Sunday edition we suggest "Otterbein—a matrimonial bureau."

"Is the college man lazier than the college woman?" Such is the question agitating the minds of some University of Kansas professors. In a recent examination, the men flunked five times as bad as the women.

How's this? A big hearted man near Yellow Springs has offered to help Antioch raise her endowment by furnishing land on which college folk can raise potatoes? He has it all figured out, too, how $50,000 will be cleared.

The demand for the best in everything ought to apply to our language and yet—"Betcher life, doncher know, wuz, library, doo, Joone, and ain't" were heard last week.

THE FORUM

A Manifestation of Weakness.

The professor thanked a certain student for raising the window, thinking he did it to let a little fresh air in the room. An honest student would have been conscience smitten at once for he had copied the examination questions and threw them out the window to a fellow student who was preparing to take the examination the next hour.

Does it not show as much weakness for a number of students to sit near one who is a "star" in his classes and copy from his paper, or to copy from a book hidden behind a student sitting in front?

It is plain to see that the students have not been preparing their lessons as they should or this would be needless. Is this the only weakness such students are confronted with? There is that disposition to deceive which has an effect that cannot be made right by studying the lessons thus passed over.

GIRLS' CONVENTION

AKRON THE SCENE OF A FINE SERIES OF MEETINGS.

Otterbein Represented by Nine Delegates in the Big Y. W. C. A. Assembly February 24-27.

The third annual conference of the Young Women's Christian Associations of Ohio and West Virginia, was held February 24-27, 1910, at the First Congregational church of Akron, Ohio. Eight members of Y. W. C. A. and one lady member of the faculty went from Otterbein as delegates to this convention.

The conference text was, "It is the Spirit that quickeneth," John 6:63. Mrs. Dwight M. Pratt, chairman Territorial committee, had charge of the meetings. Miss Elizabeth Hughes, executive secretary, gave many interesting and helpful facts concerning territorial work. Rev. Ambrose S. Bailey, pastor First Congregational church, Akron, gave two splendid addresses on the "Holy Spirit in Life and Service." Some of his thoughts were: "The Holy Spirit is a comforter; the business of living is to manifest Christ; the Holy Spirit is actually the spirit of Christ in the world; in reality, the Holy Spirit is greater than the spirit of Christ in the world for He is to perfect the thing that Christ came to do; even if the world is evangelized in this generation, the Holy Spirit will still be needed in the world; and unless one has the spirit of God all through his college course, he is likely to become a materialist and an infidel."

There were several other addresses, "The Call of the hour," by Miss Vivian Small, president Lake Erie college; "The Significance and Opportunities of the Young Women's Christian Association Movement," by Rev. Ernest Bowner Allen, D.D., Toledo; "The Girl on the other side of the World," by Miss Bertha Conde, national secretary; and "Co-operative Education and Continuation Schools for Wage-earning Women," by Miss Edith Campbell, Cincinnati.

There were many other helpful talks given, and many new plans were discussed for the extension of Y. W. C. A. work. Miss Helen A. Sewell, student secretary, gave some interesting facts about the student field saying that the Y. W. C. A. exists in all grades of institutions and that there are 4000 student members of Y. W. C. A. in the territory of Ohio and West Virginia. She also said that the Association means a steadying power in the lives of college girls.

Saturday evening, February 26, the delegates of the conference were royally entertained at a banquet given by the city association in the beautiful Y. W. C. A. rooms, Miss Marie Wing, Cleveland, toastmistress.

Miss Conde, the national secretary, conducted the vesper service on Sunday afternoon. She spoke of the Abundant Life and compared it to a mountain stream. "If the pool from which this stream rises is for itself alone it becomes stagnant; it must be pure in itself and there must be an overflow; the secret of all abundant life is a willingness to surrender ourselves to God's will.

At the last service on Sunday evening, Dr. Edward I. Bosworth, of Oberlin, gave an address on "A Vital Element in the Development of Personal Power."

Those representing Otterbein were Hazel Codner, Marie Huntwork, Mary Bolenbaugh, Ethel Kephart, Irene Staub, Bessie Daugherty, Edith Bennett, Helen Converse, Edith Coblentz, Miss Moore.

EUROPEAN CUSTOM.

Farmers Place Grain For Birds in Winter.

There is a beautiful custom in Scandinavia which might be brot into use in our own country at the present time.

Norway, Denmark and Sweden are subject to a great deal of snow. So at threshing time the farmers put a few sheaves of grain away, and when the country is covered with a deep snow, they are placed out in the fields. Upon this the birds and small game feed until the ground is bare again. Thus the birds are saved.
