BIG PLANS FOR COMMENCEMENT

Otterbein's Sixty-fourth Commencement Expected to be Greatest Ever Held on This Campus.

SCIENCE HALL DEDICATED

Alumnal Day, Baccalaureate and Other Regular Commencement Functions All Have Their Place.

Commencement Week at Otterbein, expected to be one of the most imposing occasions witnessed on this campus, begins Thursday, June 10, with the open sessions of the girls literary societies and continues one week, culminating in the Commencement ceremonies at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, June 17, at which time Hon. Samuel W. McCall, LL. D., Ex-Governor of Massachusetts, will address the graduates.

Commencement—always a time for both sorrow and joy, sorrow for those leaving the familiar scenes of four years work and play, and joy for those who returning to renew old acquaintances and memories after periods of absence—Commencement, representing all this and more means much this year that it has never meant before. This, the sixty-third event of its kind, is held at a new Otterbein, an Otterbein revived from the lethargic effects of the war, an Otterbein with a goal that will tax every effort, an Otterbein entering on a new period of development and growth. And so this Commencement takes on a new significance for it is a true commencement of a new era of Otterbein history and everyone having any part in the occasion is fortunate.

Of course the regular Commencement features will all have their part

Senior Play To Amuse Commencement Audience

In these modern days, we commonly hear that servants rule their masters and mistresses; and if you want to see an amusingly concrete example of such a state of affairs, don't miss "Fanny and Her Servant Problem", a play to be given by the Senior Class on Wednesday night of Commencement week. Miss Helen Keller, a chorus girl, marries Lord Bantock (C. L. Fox), without knowing who he really is. Upon arriving at Bantock Hall she finds that her husband's twenty-three servants are all near relatives of her own. The play is full of ludicrous and ironical situations.

Mail orders for reserved seats received Friday, June 11. Seats on sale at Hoffman's Drug Store June 14, 15, 16, from 10:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. Gilbert Mills, Manager.

Prof. Arthur Spessard.

CHORAL TO PRESENT CARMEN

Unique Rendition of Famous Opera To Be a Feature of Commencement Week Program.

The Choral Society this year is contemplating quite a unique Commencement program, which promises also to be entertaining, and profitable in an educational way. It will be a combined choral and dramatic production of the Opera "Carmen". The Society guarantees a well-spent evening for all who stay to hear it. This sort of a rendition has never before been attempted, to our knowledge, and the college and townsfolk can well afford to look forward to this occasion as being the most important musical event of the year.

The dramatic features of the performance will be complete in every detail. The principals will be costumed and the lines read in stage fashion, with all action fully carried out. The chorus will occupy the rear of the stage during the entire production, so that its part will not interfere in any way with the dramatic presentation.

The Society, with Professor Spessard as the director and Professor Grabiill as accompanist, has been working hard to make this worth while, and they all feel you will not be disappointed in it. Monday, June 14 at 8:00 p. m. is the date scheduled.

The seat sale will be at Hoffman's Drug Store, Saturday and Monday, June 12 and 14, from 9:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. Admission 35c, reserved seat, 15c extra. Nearly the whole house will be reserved.

Junior Cookery Picnic

Last week instead of going to Minerva Park the Junior girls' picnic was confined to the Domestic Science rooms on account of bad weather.

Mrs. Jessie Brown Howe.

MISS JESSIE BROWN WEDS

Head of School of Art Is Married at Pretty Church Wedding Saturday Evening.

Last Saturday evening, June 5, in the United Brethren church, Miss Jessie Mae Brown, director of art, daughter of Mrs. Wilber Martlin Brown, was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel T. Howe, Jr. of Indianapolis. The ceremony took place at eight o'clock, only a few friends and relatives, and the faculty and art students of Otterbein being present. Prof. G. G. Grabiill gave a short recital and played the wedding march.

Ferns, orange blossoms and white peonies were used in decorating the church and church parlors, where a reception was held after the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and georgette and her tulle veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses. Major Harry Brown, of Columbus gave her in marriage, and her two little nieces, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown, also of Columbus were flower girls. Mr. Howe's best man was Mr. Harold Brooks of Columbus.

Amidst the usual shower of rice Mr. and Mrs. Howe started on their honeymoon, to be spent at the home of Mr. Howe's parents, in Topeka, Kansas. With them they take the best wishes of every Otterbein friend. They will live in Indianapolis, where Mr. Howe is a structural engineer.

Memorial Chapel Service

Most impressive exercises were held in chapel on Monday in memory of Otterbein's fallen service men. J. R. Love was in charge. The memorial address by J. R. Howe was simple and appropriate. Two stars were added to the service flag in memory of Curtis Young and Emery Farver.

VARSITY WINS TWO VICTORIES

Otterbein Nine Takes Hard Fought Games from Kenyon and Goodyear—Fine Form Shown.

ULREY PITCHES GREAT BALL

Allows But Four Hits In Eighteen Consecutive Innings—Marten and Outfield Show Fine Form.

On their week-end trip Otterbein's diamond artists came out victors in two games with the Kenyon and Goodyear teams. The pitching of Ulrey and the fielding of Marten were the feature spots of the games. Ulrey pitched eighteen consecutive innings allowing but four hits and that he did well may be inferred from the fact that the last team played is considered "semi-pro" in their contests. Otterbein's sluggers found their eye, also, and came through with the hits at the right time.

By winning these two games Otterbein has a percentage of .500 for the season having won three and lost the same number.

In the game at Kenyon Perry started for Otterbein but was taken from the box in the second after the Kenyonites had scored two in the first and duplicated in the second frame. Ulrey went in and was never in danger, allowing but one hit in the next nine innings. Otterbein tied by scoring two in the third and one in each of the fourth and fifth. They won out in the eleventh when George scored on Miller's hit to center.

At Goodyear Otterbein started immediately to garner in runs. They tallied one each in the first and second, and made two in the third. In the sixth they gathered in another making the score 5 to 0.

Miss Hanawalt Leaves Temporarily

All friends of Otterbein, and particularly those connected with the Conservatory of Music, regret that Miss Hanawalt will not be with us next year. For the summer she will be located at Raton, New Mexico, where she has arranged to take a special class in piano and voice. During the winter following she expects to study with an artist teacher either in Chicago or New York, and also, in that connection, take some special work in methods of musical instruction.

On her way to the west Miss Hanawalt expects to visit E. J. Pace, '05, of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and Mrs. Irwin (Hulah Black) who graduated from the Conservatory in 1917, and who is now a teacher of piano at La Junta, Colorado.

New Athletic Board Elected.

Friday morning in chapel was held the annual election of the members of the Athletic Board for the ensuing year. R. W. Schear, president of this year's athletic board had charge of the meeting. Prof. Rosselot, a member of the nominating committee, read the report of the committee which was as follows:

- President—D. M. Phillippi.
- Vice President—Roy F. Peden.
- Secretary—Bertha Hancock.
- Lay-members — Esther Harley, Elizabeth McCabe, M. L. Howe, J. G. Howard, Lym Hert.

Two Music Recitals.

Lambert Hall was open twice this week to audiences who listened to some of the best music of the year. The first occasion was a Senior recital given by Miss Clow, Contralto, and Miss Eobanks, pianoforte. Miss Clow rendered in splendid fashion several classical selections, delighting the audience with Fay Foster's "Honorable Chop Sticks", and concluding the program with "Narcissus", with cello obligato.

Miss Eubanks exhibited the results of long and careful preparation in her technique and interpretation. The pianoforte numbers were also more or less classical. Her first was Chopin's "Mazurka", and the last group included an interesting study from Tschaikowsky, "Valse a cinq temps." Both of these graduates have our congratulations and commendation.

The other recital was given by the pupils of Miss Hanawalt on Friday evening. It was very interesting, excellently carried out. From the youngest of the younger generation to the most advanced of the college students, each performer rendered his or her particular selection with excellent aptness and exactitude. It was originally planned that this recital should be given in two programs and as a consequence it was rather long, but it was one of such a nature that everyone gave the musicians their best attention up to the very last number.

COCHRAN HALL

Miss Hazel Steely of Westerville, visited her sister, Ruth over the weekend.

Edna Dellinger and Alice Abbott were dinner guests at the Bradford Club Sunday.

Bertha Hancock attended a "Sig Ep" party at Delaware last Monday.

Lillian Carlson was the guest of Mary Bayle of Galena last week-end.

Lois Clark was called home early because of the illness of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clow and the Misses Ada Duncan, and Lena Harbison of Kilbuck were guests of Lorna Clow Wednesday.

Mary Vance was dinner guest of Bancroft's on Sunday.

A picnic at Round Stone Hollow was enjoyed by Edythe Cave, Florence Perfect, May Sellman, Kenneth Scott, Raymond Axline, and Bert Jaynes.

Lillie and Lera Waters were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller of Columbus.

Prep-Soph. Tennis Match

Saturday afternoon, June 5, the Sophomore tennis team took the Preps over easily in both the singles and doubles.

Howard took both sets from Hollinger, 6-3; 6-0 while Blue beat Brown to the tune of 7 to 5, 6 to 3.

The doubles resulted in the scores of 7 to 5; 6 to 0 with Sophs on top. This leaves the Seniors and Sophomores to play for the class championship.

Freshmen Issue Papers.

It has been an annual custom for the past several years, for the students in Freshman English to put out original publications representing the work of their classes during the year.

The productions of this year's class which are now on the library shelves are full of interest and originality, and express by their literary quality, the results of the year's training.

The following list of titles gives just an idea of the originality of the publications:

- "The Squeeze and Squeal" M. L. Howe
- "The Experiment" B. C. Carlson
- "Nuntius" L. D. Gordon
- "The Firefly" A. A. Luther
- "Dites-Donc!" J. W. Seneff
- "The Ladies' Lamp" Mary C. Vance

- "The Impos Sybyl" A. W. Elliott
- "The Co-Ed" Martha L. Skinner
- "Patent Sense" C. L. Bowman
- "The Cornet" Mary Tryon
- "The Nutshell" H. V. Troop

EDITORIAL

That Otterbein Spirit.

Do we have it? 'Deed we do! Can we keep it through four months' vacation? Of course we can! Then if that's true here is what we are going to do next fall. We're coming back to "Old Otterbein" with a world of life and pep and enthusiasm and make the new arrivals realize that they are getting into the "livest" little college on this old globe. We are going to give the whole place an atmosphere of glad, open-hearted hospitality. We are every one of us going to have the reception spirit and whether we're Seniors or "Preps" we're going to meet street cars, carry suit cases, and do anything and everything to make our new friends welcome.

Not by way of censure but did you know that there were new men last fall who walked our streets alone at nine o'clock at night hunting for rooms,—that some fellows lived at the hotel for three days for lack of a little friendly interest? We admit that conditions were unusual; we admit that several students worked nobly. Yet the fact remains that much was left undone that might have been done.

Social committees have plans all laid to meet every car next fall, to keep open-house at the "Y" for arrivals, to meet strangers at Columbus. It remains for each one of us to back them up. One committee can't enliven the whole town. It takes us all. Remember that Otterbein spirit next fall, and let's give the new men a reception that shall be worthy of Otterbein.

What Is Your Attitude?

You have read "Pollyanna" of course. You have contrasted her resistless optimism and genial good cheer with the gloomy pessimism and the sordid self-interest of some less enviable character of your acquaintance. But have you paused to reflect that all the joy and blessing of such a life as "Polly's", is only the natural and inevitable result of a wholesome attitude toward life and fellowmen. Few have more cause for gloom than had she. Yet did anyone enjoy life more, or have more friends,—or do more good,—or reveal more genuine human loveliness? And all because she deliberately and determinedly set about to keep the "glad" attitude toward life!

We are here learning to live and training ourselves for helpful and happy careers in real life. Then doesn't it seem that one of the biggest things we can get from our college education is a right attitude, a cheery, hopeful outlook on life? We do not mean the shallow artificial effervescence that tries to pass itself off as a evidence of a magnanimous spirit. We mean the real inner faith in the goodness of human kind, a confidence in the ultimate triumph of what-should-be that finds its natural expression just in the joy of living and serving.

We need to cultivate the attitude of faith and good cheer. Rejoice in the good that's about you. Count your neighbors' virtues, not his faults, and resolve to rejoice in those virtues and to make them your own. Encourage the good in everyone you know. Appreciate the beauty of the lives about you and let them know you appreciate it. Be so busy helping others and developing the generous and useful in your own life that you have no time to lament your ills or review the faults of friends. No matter what troubles may come your way, they will be half overcome when you face them with a confident smile and the "glad" attitude that comes from a wholesome philosophy of life.

Stay for Commencement!

Company Dismissed!

College is out! A day or two of "exams", a week of closely-crowded festivities and we go our several ways leaving the friends and associations we have learned to cherish. There is a tinge of regret in the breaking of college ties, even though for most of us they are not broken for long. We are sorry to leave loyal friends and companions who have shared the triumphs and the failures of our college year.

Yet these very regrets will be the means of bringing us back to another and a greater year at Otterbein. They will reveal to us what it has meant to be in such a school. They will make us really want to see our friends choose Otterbein as their Alma Mater. And for those whose work is finished they will furnish a constant incentive to high achievement, that their lives may do credit to their school,—that their future loyalty may be found as complete as their past devotion.

WE'VE BEEN THINKIN'

That our new Science Building looks mighty inviting.

That the good Westervillers will be lonely without us when we are gone away.

That we will miss the aforesaid good Westervillers and will come back to them smiling next fall.

That we'd better recuperate now because Commencement week is going to be a whirl of gaiety.

"How can we bear to leave thee", noble seniors? But if we must, we must, though tears flow copiously.

Coach Soon To Be Hired.

Although no definite news on the coaching situation can yet be released, the matter has been under consideration by the President and the Committee for some time past and announcement of the new coach will be made within ten days. Several fine prospects are being considered and every effort is being made to insure a high grade of coaching for the teams of the coming year.

Help, Delivery Service!

We regret that some local subscribers did not receive their papers until Friday last week. As previously announced the paper was issued a day late because of holiday but that hardly explains its delivery in one part of town two days later than in another. If you were one of the late ones do not blame the Circulation Manager; your paper went to the post office with the rest.

'Tenshun! Will You Help?

The committee on rooming facilities for Commencement visitors has been appointed by President Clippinger as follows: J. R. Love, Bertha Hancock and Professor Weinland. They are waiting for your co-operation. Don't expect them to interview you. Line up some available rooms and go to them with your information. Let's go!

Dinner Party.

Mrs. Hays and daughter Harriet entertained with a dinner party at their home Friday evening. The guests were Prof. and Mrs. Grabill, with two young Grabills, R. W. Schear, and Miss Helen Bovee.

Mattoon Club Leads "Y" Contest.

The Y. M. C. A. contest which closed with last week's meeting was very successful, the average attendance for the four Thursday evenings being a little over 50. This breaks all records for this time of the year. The Mattoon club, which won the prize pennant, succeeded in having a 100% attendance for one evening. The teams are to be congratulated on the interest shown. The result is as follows:

'18, '17. The marriage of Miss Ruth Conley of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and Alva H. Sholty of Claypool, Indiana, occurred last Saturday, June 5, at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Dr. T. J. Sanders, '78, of Otterbein. The couple will spend the summer in Indiana and then go to New Haven, Connecticut, where Mr. Sholty will complete his course in the Divinity School of Yale University.

'87. Early in the morning of June 1, death claimed the Reverend Emlin M. Counsellor at his home in Westerville. He had been in frail health for about two years and had been obliged to give up his active ministry a year and a half ago. Funeral services were held in the United Brethren church at Westerville Thursday afternoon, conducted by Dr. M. R. Ballenger of Findlay, his conference superintendent, and participated in by a number of his ministerial friends. Interment was at Winchester Ind. Friday.

'14. Miss Gladys Nichols, librarian in the Public Library at South Bend, Indiana, is spending a three weeks' vacation at the home of her parents near Westerville.

'08. Mrs. C. W. Baxter (Clora Counsellor) was in Westerville last Thursday to attend the funeral of her uncle, E. M. Counsellor.

'95. Mrs. John A. Shoemaker (Daisy Custer) of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, will represent Otterbein College this week at the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Pennsylvania College for Women.

'17. Stanton W. B. Wood of Wheeling, West Virginia, is in Westerville and expects to remain until after Commencement. He has been traveling in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League, but is giving up that work to go into business in Wheeling.

'13, '12. The wedding of Miss Elsie Jane Dill and Guy E. McFarland, which occurred at Westerville last Wednesday, has been announced.

'92. Nolan R. Best, editor of "The Continent" and now residing at Montclair, N. J. has just announced his candidacy for Congress.

'19, '18. Miss Cleo Coppock of West Milton, Ohio, and Thomas B. Brown of Madison, Pennsylvania, were married at the home of the bride on Friday, May 28. They are now at home near Burgettsville, Pennsylvania.

'04. Rolla A. Callender, a prominent hardware merchant of Angola, Indiana, died at his home last Thursday after an illness of five weeks. Funeral services will be held today at Hicksville, Ohio, his childhood home. His wife (Annabel Remaley, '05) and a little daughter survive him.

Girls Hold Eagles Mere Rally.

Weiners? Great steaming kettles of them! And besides, there were heaps of good sandwiches, nice juicy pickles, piping hot baked beans, bananas, and strawberry ice cream and raisin cookies. Yes, the Eagles-Mere Rally that the Y. W. C. A. girls had in the Gym last Tuesday was a success.

After the girls had eaten heartily of the above-mentioned victuals they were grouped off according to the initial letter of their middle name. Each group was instructed to write a parody on some song that would be suitable for the Eagles Mere delegates to take with them to the summer conference. Here are two samples of the poetry submitted:

(Tune—"Every Evening")

Every summer, after our school is through,
We girls from Otterbein come out here too;
We go hiking, climbing and boating here
And we're bound to declare there's no place to compare,
With old Eagles Mere.

(Tune—"If You Want to See a Girl That's Pretty".)

"If you want to see a School that's a humdinger,
That's snappy and full of pep
Just turn your lamps on Otterbein,
The School with a peach-of-a-rep;
The girls are all good-lookers,
The fellows have lots of kale,
The doin's are fast and jazzy
And there's nothing in the place that's stale."

Many more equally as clever verses were composed but space doesn't permit their printing.

Each of the hundred girls present at the supper and Rally voted a good time and we will separate at the close of this year feeling that Y. W. C. A. has meant much to them.

Junior Push

The Westerville car service was astonished almost beyond measure when fifty hilarious young people yelling "Juniors!" and "Sibyl!" stepped on the 7:30 Westerville Limited at Home street last Tuesday evening. The conductor recovered from his astonishment sufficiently to let the picnickers off the car at Minerva Park.

In a delightful open grassy space the hitherto dignified young ladies and gentlemen indulged in some childish games, with Professor and Mrs. Altman for interested spectators. A great red full moon rose up out of the east to illumine the joyous occasion.

One of the interesting features of the evening occurred when Messrs. Phillippi and Schutz, on behalf of the Sibyl, lined the Juniors up and presented each with a silver dollar, the amount individually invested in the Sibyl proposition.

TWO VICTORIES

Goodyear did her only scoring in the eighth when they managed to get three runs; Uhly then tightened and stopped their rally.

Martin ended the game with a speedy double play, unassisted. His work in this game was spectacular, and his swift fielding and accurate throwing, broke up several incipient rallies.

Uhly allowed but three hits the whole way and got a two base hit himself as a side issue.

Next Saturday Otterbein plays Capital at Westerville. Capital has defeated us once this year and with our team bowling along in such fine shape an interesting game is assured.

though always in a new way. The Society Open Sessions, always an occasion for the alumni to visit and compare present day literary work with that in the past the Baccalaureate Sunday morning, at which President Clippinger as usual speaks; the Senior Play, always an affair furnishing an abundance of amusement; the dedication of the new Science Hall, Wednesday, when Prof. L. H. McFadden formerly professor of Science at Otterbein will speak together with a representative from Ohio State and two local speakers. Moving into the building has already begun and this event will be unique in this year's program. Then, too, there is Alumni Day, Wednesday, a day devoted to renewing friendships and also the usual Commencement events, banquets, receptions, concerts and the score of other things that make Commencement Week the rare treat that it is. (A complete list can be found in the calendar.)

Arrangements have been underway for weeks and it only awaits the completing of exams and the advent of alumni and friends for the annual round of Commencement events.

Alumnus Presides.

Frank D. Wilsey of the class of '76 who has for several years served as Vice President of the New York City school board is also taking an active interest in the teachers' organizations there as may be noted from the following article from one of the New York dailies.

"About 1,400 members of the city's teaching staff attended the one hundred and thirty-eighth annual dinner of Hoi Scholastikoi, a teachers' organization formed when the Dutch controlled Manhattan, last night at the Hotel Astor. A message expressive of appreciation of the instructors' efforts, sent by Governor Smith, was read by President Frank D. Wilsey.

The Irving-Pitt note books and Dennison Handy Boxes make excellent gifts.

Note the lovely Venetian necklaces that have just come in.

If we do not have what you want it will be a pleasure to get it for you.

May your vacation be a happy and prosperous one and may you come back to old Otterbein full of energy, high hopes and good cheer.

Good bye and God bless you all.

"Come in and browse around."

CLUB TALK

Editor Tan and Cardinal:

A few sophomore girls and some others having assumed themselves to be responsible for Otterbein College and its good name should submit something like the following to the public:

"We the girls of the upper classes have taken a deep interest in the freshman girls and we feel responsible for their welfare. We know that they are incapable of taking care of themselves and have no sense of propriety and good judgment. We see by the results of this year that we have not had our share of dates and this is not right. We propose that the freshman and sophomore girls be restricted next year and that their pleasures and hours for dates be so limited that we can get our share of dates or get all of them. Some of our number should have been married long ago but this will be remedied by our new legislation."

Savings Too Good to Miss in the Suit Sale--Now!

If a friend told you you could get a good suit, regular Lazarus or Stein-Bloch tailored, and save ten or twenty dollars on it—

You'd stop in to look them over, wouldn't you?

That is what we are telling you now.

Nothing the matter with the suits—they're worth regular price to you—but we have too many of them.

The figures tell their own story—and you will find a big proportion of these suits that were originally at the higher prices.
