LARGE VICTORY

KENYON TREATED TO A TREMENDOUS SLAUGHTER.

Otterbein's Team Work and Scoring Machine in Great Evidence—Young Contributes Majority of Points.

Sweet is Revenge! And sweet-er still when it is bestowed in enormous quantities. The close score at Gambier earlier in the season was entirely forgotten Saturday afternoon when the score board announced Otterbein victors over Kenyon by the overwhelming score of 55 to 14.

The game throughout was of the roughest order. In fact such rough tactics were employed by Kenyon that Referee Page was compelled to send Weaver to the side lines for unnecessary roughness.

Otterbein worked in fine fashion. Young, as in the former game with Kenyon, was the star, securing 12 baskets and 9 fouls. Warner at guard sent the ball through the net for six goals while the other members played

TWO SEMESTERS

INSTEAD OF 3 TERMS WILL BE USED IN OTTERBEIN.

New Plan Proposed Introducing Group System to be Introduced Next Year. Present Juniors Not Affected.

Upon solicitation of President Clippinger and after much discussion, last week the Faculty voted to change the present system of study.

The college year will consist of 36 weeks beginning October 1. The terms will be abolished and semesters adopted instead.

The courses have been rearranged making it easier for the student who comes to Otterbein. The student chooses group rather than the studies. The following groups have been selected: Classical language; modern language; science, chemistry and biology; science, mathematics and physics; philosophy and education; history and political science; Bible and Missions.

This obviates any mistakes

PROF. A. P. ROSSELOT

PRIZE FOR ORATORY

OFFERED BY DR HOWARD RUSSELL OF WESTERVILLE

To inculcate a fervent oratorical spirit, twenty-five dollars in two prizes to be given each year

If there was ever anything that pleased lovers of oratory in Otterbein it was the announcement Friday morning of a prize for oratory of $25 given by Dr. Howard Russell, Assistant Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

This, no doubt, will be divided $15 for first place, $10 for second.

No definite plans have been made for this year's contest, but it is thought that a contest between Juniors and Seniors will decide the winners.

This prize will be known as the "Howard Russell prize."

TO STUDY FRENCH

Prof. Rossetot Granted a Leave of Absence for One Year

Recently Prof. Rossetot was granted a leave of absence for a year to further his study in the French language. He has two plans under consideration. One to study at the University of Paris, the other to pursue studies at the University of Wisconsin.

Prof. Rossetot wishes to announce that French will be taught at Otterbein next year under an able instructor who can speak the language fluently and who will carry out the same methods as at the present time.

THE REV. COLEMAN

Will Lecture to O. U. Students This Week

Otterbein is being favored this week by a series of lectures by Rev. J. M. Coleman, M. A., of Michigan and Bonn, Germany.

Rev. Coleman's parishioners raised an endowment fund to enable him to tour the country lecturing to college students.

The lectures have been arranged as follows:

Monday, 6:00 p. m.—The State.

Tuesday, 4:00 p. m.—The State and Government.

Wednesday, 4:00 p. m.—The Church and Government.

Thursday, 4:00 p. m.—The State and God.

The first meeting is to be held in the chapel and the remainder in Dr. Sander's recitation room.

Debate and Oratory.

Messrs. Grill, Keister, Muskopf, Meuthersbaugh, Richer, Harper, Devaux, Ketner, Bilsing and Cox are all working hard on the coming debate with Heidelberg. The question is upon the Income Tax. The date is not decided but will probably be the second week in April.

Messrs. Bondurant, Yates and Mattis are working up orations for the International Peace contest to be held April 29.

G. W. Duckwall Speaks Upon Willingness.

The men of Y. M. C. A. met Thursday evening to discuss the subject "Willingness," with George W. Duckwall as leader. He read as a scripture lesson, John 7-14:19 and I. Cor. 12-12:25.

Prayers were offered by Messrs Hartman, Gifford and Flora. Business was then attended to at which time the president made mention of the president's conference recently held at Springfield.

The leader's talk was very practical, being something that we can apply to every day life here in Otterbein. We must not persuade ourselves that religious affairs here are run by a clique, for such is not the case, it is simply a false conclusion. We must all pull together and with the leader. Those in the ranks have just as great an opportunity and responsibility as those who are directing affairs. Let us lend a helping hand everywhere. Do well the thing at hand and then God will have something else for you to do. Let God's will have sway.

Y. W. C. A.

Dr. Clippinger Speaks Upon the Subject of Missions

Members of Y. W. C. A. enjoyed an exceptionally good meeting Tuesday evening. The subject discussed was, "The Spirit and Motive and Practice of Missions." For a scripture lesson was read the first fourteen verses of the first chapter of the book of Acts. Following this came a selection of special music, a vocal solo by Bona Pence, entitled, "Callest Thou Thine, Oh Master?"

Dr. Clippinger made the address. These are some of his thoughts: We all believe in missions. Missions prevail in colleges; there their brightest fires burn. Strong men and women are needed. Five reasons for missionary enterprises are: (1) Medical. (2) Religious. (3) Educational. (4) Commercial. (5) Industrial.

Reasons for deciding for mission service are: (1) It is a scriptural command; (2) the appeal from the field; (3) the power of a new affection.

We make a distinction between home and foreign missions. We should not do this, they are one and the same in spirit.

Great is our responsibility to each other. We are to fulfill the highest end of being.

HUNDRED PER CENT.

Is the Record of Four Mission Study Classes

In the recent Y. M. C. A. presidents' conference, Otterbein enjoyed the distinction of leading all other colleges of the state in mission study. In view of this fact it is very gratifying to state that during this present school term the classes led by Messrs. H. D. Thompson, G. F. Hartman, B. F. Ricner and P. M. Redd have had perfect attendance. Other leaders are not far behind. This is an exceptional record and these gentlemen are deserving of much commendation.

As a reward, the pictures of each class will appear in the Watchword.

REA.

A very interesting meeting of the Religious Education Association was held on Wednesday evening. The meeting was opened by the president, E. C. Weaver. The main feature of the meeting was a paper given by S. F. Wenger, on "The Short Story of the Bible." The subject was then discussed by the different members present.

New Officers

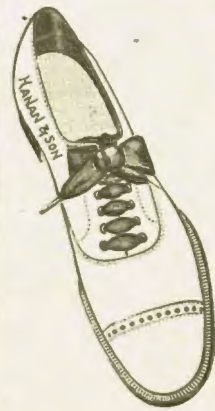

The nominating committee of the Y. M. C. A. made the following report for officers for the coming year which will be formally accepted at the next regular meeting of the association: President, D. C. Shumaker; vice president, A. E. Books; recording secretary, A. I. Cook; corresponding secretary, J. O. Cox; treasurer, J. H. Iora.

Examinations.

Examinations will come Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next week. Same schedule as last term.

THE FORUM

Editorials by Otterbein Review Readers.

Water for Seniors.

Those who attempt to depict modern university life and who claim that the first course of the college student is to learn the art of opening the beer bottle and to drain its contents without watering at the eyes, undoubtedly sat up and took notice when they read of the present Yale Senior class, voting water the most popular drink. Of course the vote was not unanimous but there was a large plurality.

What does this mean? There's food—or rather drink—for reflection. Does it indicate that Seniors having gone through it with a vision of life in earnest looming up before their eyes, realize that the water course is the only safe one? When we get down to the heart of the question there are many conclusions which might be drawn from that preponderating preference for water manifested by the Seniors at Yale.

But the thing that appeals to us as college men is the fact that our antagonists, adversaries of university life, are in the wrong.

Is not the decision as made by our Yale friends indicative of good common sense culture and above all of excellent moral attainments? AJAX.

made in choosing studies. The freshman studies are the same in all the classes except the last, so the student is not forced to lay out his life's work before entering school. The freshman units are: Languages 2, public speaking $\frac{1}{2}$, rhetoric $\frac{1}{2}$, mathematics 1.

The present juniors will not have to choose a group but the two lower classes will come under the new rule.

OTTERBEIN FIRST

In Bible and Mission Study in the State.

The Y. M. C. A. Presidents' Conference for Ohio College Men was held at Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, on March 4-7.

There were 64 registered delegates representing 29 institutions of the state. Each college Y. M. C. A. was allowed only two delegates.

Problems of the last year were discussed and plans and remedies were proposed to overcome them in the coming year.

The percentage of enrollment and attendance in Mission Study and Bible Study in our university far surpasses that of any other college in the state. The duties of the Y. M. C. A. president were fully discussed; especially his selection of a cabinet and his relation to it.

Some excellent speakers gave fine addresses. Professor Mabie, of Hiram, in the devotional exercises deepened the religious life of the men. Mr. Turner, of New York city, conducted a good round table on "Mission Study." Prof. Hutchins, of Oberlin, gave an address on "The Relation of the Y. M. C. A. to the Church," and Dr. Brook, of Cleveland, on "The Golden Age." A. H. Lichty, the secretary for the Ohio College Y. M. C. A.'s ably presided.

Wittenberg College proved herself to be a real hostess for the delegates. The Y. W. C. A. girls of Wittenberg made the delegates feel at home, by giving them an informal reception at Ferncliff Hall on Saturday evening from 4 to 6.

THE UMBRELLA CASE

A Mock Trial to be Put on in Near Future.

What is heralded as the greatest, funniest, wittiest show produced is "The Great Umbrella Case," a mock trial to be put on by a company of college folk sometime in the spring term.

This play will be for the benefit of the Athletic Association.

SHAKESPEARE PLAY

To be Produced by Senior Class at Commencement.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream" is the play chosen by the Seniors to be presented about commencement time.

This calls for about thirty-five performers and will include nearly everyone in the class. Fine opportunity is given in this play for the display of histrionic ability.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Hummell were favored by a visit of the latter's father, Abraham Storch, of Canal Winchester.

The Review extends sympathy to J. R. Miller who was called home last week on account of the death of his sister.

Dr. H. H. Russell conducted chapel exercises Friday morning.

Ruskin P. Hall who was in Otterbein several years ago and who will be graduated at Annapolis in June received high commendation from a Dayton paper Monday. Hall leads the Senior class in efficiency and scholarship. Hall will probably be assigned the battleship Delaware after graduation. The Review extends congratulations to one who has achieved much merit.

Dr. Lewis Bookwalter is pastor of the Congregationalist church at Hiawatha, Kansas.

Guy D. Hawley, student in O. U. three years ago, now assistant postmaster, of Arcanum, O., was in town last Wednesday evening.

About 30 men were present yesterday at the Chapman meeting in Columbus.

Sumio Uesugi, another little brown man, who is attending Denison, was the guest of his fellow countryman, Kiyoshi Yabe, Saturday and Sunday. Both Japs and J. O. Cox were guests of Mrs. R. O. Cook for Sunday dinner.

Miss Maude Owings had as her guests at Centerburg Sunday, Ethel Kephart, Edna Hayes, Florence Ramey, F. D. Zuerner, R. H. Brane, Prof. A. Swartz, W. G. Daub and a number of Centerburg friends.

L. J. Essig Centerburged Sunday.

J. S. Wilhelm, '90.

What was a most appreciative and unexpected gift came from J. S. Wilhelm, '90, of Canton, who made as a gift to the student body several hundred copies of an Otterbein song he composed himself. "Float the Tan and Cardinal" is the name and the sentiment and music are in true Otterbein spirit.
