IN FAST COMPANY

WAS OTTERBEIN'S BALL TEAM
THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Columbus Senators A. A. Leaguers
Surprised By Fine Showing
Our Boys Make.

An innovation was started in Otterbein baseball history when Coach Goodwin's team Thursday afternoon had the rare privilege of competing with the Columbus Senators in a game which went to the leaguers by a score of 12 to 4. Outside of the first and last innings Otterbein put up a fine class of ball.

After the first three men in Otterbein's batting list had gone out on strikes, the Columbus team made a set of 4 runs on a base on balls, a hit batsman, a sacrifice fly and 4 hits. No scoring was accomplished in the second frame. In the third inning after Hemminger had struck out, Weinland singled sharply past the first cushion, advanced to second on a wild pitch and to third while Sanders was being thrown out at first by Wratten. He scored much to our delight when Quinlan wobbled on Funk's grounder.

In the fourth inning, Otterbein came within one of tying the score. As an opener Wagner walked and stole second. He advanced to third on Ketner's hit to O'Rourke, which was too slow to handle. Boxwell produced a timely hit past Quinlan, Wagner scoring. Young was given a base on balls, which filled the bases. Hemminger forced Young at second, Ketner scoring in the play. Kaler, in his excitement, patted "Skinny" in the ribs and allowed "Boxy" to score after he had fielded a grounder off Sanders' bat.

SPRING SESSION OF OTTERBEIN
BOARD HELD THUR AND FRI

President's Report of Year Read Three
New Teachers Secured. Spirit of Greater Otterbein Manifested

In the meeting of the Board of Trustees last week much important business was transacted. The discussion of the President's report was the most important item. His report in brief is as follows:

The student body is in a healthy and flourishing condition.

The school has never known greater publicity than in the past year through the activities of the Press Club.

The record of Athletics in the past year was of the highest order.

The Christian Associations are the best in the state.

The courses and studies arranged for the summer school of 1910 are more extensive than those of any summer term heretofore.

The expenses of the past year amounted to $51,000 against $35,000 of the previous year. This increase of $16,000 over the previous year was due to both external and internal improvements including the purchase of pianos and the improvement of Cochran Hall.

The report was adopted unanimously by the board.

Leaves of absence were granted for the coming year to Prof. A. P. Rosselot who will study in Paris, to Miss Lulu M. Baker who will study piano in Berlin, to Prof. J. W. Funk who will

WEST VA. TRIP.

The longest baseball trip this spring is the W. Virginia schedule ratified this morning by the Athletic Board.

Three games will be played, West Virginia Wesleyan at Buckhannon, May 12 and 13, and West Virginia University at Morgantown, May 14.

The latter school plays Princeton, U of P. and other big schools.

Alumni.

W. E. Riebel, '03, of Columbus, was in chapel today.

This ended our scoring and the only one to reach first after this was Boxwell, who is called the "hitting kid" by one of Columbus' sporting writers. He slammed out the other two hits off of Cook's delivery, the Princeton collegian. In the last of the eighth inning the score was 8 to 4. After Carisch flew out to Keister, Cook singled, the ball hitting the middle sack. O'Rourke got his second base on balls. It looked as if the side would be retired when Hinchman hit to Ketner, and undoubtedly it would have been so, had not "Ket" heaved past "Curt." The error was very costly as four runs resulted.

Popups

The game with Columbus brought Otterbein more adversity than any other possible event. The papers spoke highly of the work of the boys and Otterbein will hereafter be given a better share of space in the lines of sport in the Columbus papers.

The securing of Goodwin has certainly been repaid more than doubly. We would not have had a chance to play the big team if we had not secured him. We all know, too, that Robert Quinn, the business manager of the Columbus team, is a warm friend of Otterbein, having acted here as catcher for several years.

Although the members of the team might have been excited at some stages of the game, yet they did not pull off any bonehead plays as two displayed by Kaler, the Ohio university product. He was severely criticised by Manager Friel when he was caught off second by Young from a throw of Tink's, when he had taken a Ty Cobb lead, as Friel expressed it. He overlooked a double play in the 4th also.

Sanders did not allow an extra base hit. Two that were scored against him were of the scratch order and another by a base runner being hit by a batted ball. The papers spoke well of his pitching. The 25 or 30 rooters from here burst out in high enthusiasm when he struck out Bill Hinchman and Odwell.

Young captured a fly back of third that was a beauty.

Keister made two dandy stops of hard hit grounders.

Ketner made a fine onehanded stop of Quinlan's sharp grounder. Wagner handled Hinchman's hard hit along the third base foul line in pretty style.

Hemminger accepted his only chance, a liner from the bat of Quinlan, in fine fashion in the last inning. As a whole the team put up a remarkable game.

Capital Calls Game.

The Capital rooters, who were out to see the game Thursday at Columbus, must have advised their manager to cancel their engagement with us. He gave as a reason that one of their catchers was ineligible. He should have played his second catcher as Wesleyan did their second pitcher and (have beaten us anyway)? Otterbein was never known to back out on any such proposition as that unless it was more than one man. We believe in sticking to our word, even if the best line-up is not present.

P. S. Dietrick, Sunday school worker, conducted chapel exercises this morning.

New Officers for the Ensuing Year Inducted

Dr. Clippinger conducted the annual installation of new officers at Y. M. C. A. last Thursday evening. The meeting opened in charge of the retiring president. The report of the auditing committee was read showing how perfectly the books of the Association are being kept.

Mr. Warner, the outgoing president, reviewed the work of the year in gratifying fashion. He pointed out the significant fact that Otterbein stands first among colleges in Bible study and without a rival in mission study. No one could listen to that report without feeling the Association here is doing something for the men of Otterbein in a religious way.

Following this report a vocal duet was given by J. B. Peck and C. W. Foltz.

President Clippinger then inducted the officers-elect, speaking to them words of encouragement and advice. The new president, Don C. Shumaker, then made a few remarks and the meeting was closed by Dr. W. R. Funk leading in prayer.

Miss Sewall Talks to the Girls

Miss Sewall, the Student Secretary of Ohio and West Virginia, addressed the girls at their last meeting, which was led by Mary Sprague.

After song and scripture reading from the sixth chapter of Matthew, came a selection of music, a duet, "Golden Gates Ajar," by Bessie Daugherty and Myrtle Saul. Then followed Miss Sewall's address.

She brought to the girls the items of forward movements among the National Secretaries and the National Board. These are some of them: To make country life more attractive to girls that they may be kept out of the city. To teach girls nature study. To promote social gatherings and to encourage physical exercise.

Miss Sewall brought out how the work of Y. W. C. A. is applicable to professional girls, such as nurses, etc. She also reviewed the address on "Service," by Dr. Adams at the biennial convention, thus showing the enthusiasm and interest that pervaded that gathering.

Miss Sewall is an enthusiastic worker and she succeeds in imparting it to Y. W. C. A.'s all over her territory. Her visit here has been most helpful to the girls.

JOHN HULITT FUND

Provides 22 Volumes on Speculative Philosophy.

A work entitled "Speculative Philosophy," compiled by William T. Harris, former United States School Commissioner, was placed on the college library shelves last week. This edition consisting of 22 volumes was secured by means of a portion of the John Hulitt fund established last fall, to be used only in the purchase of books for Dr. Sanders' department.

These volumes are of great value to the department of Philosophy and it is to be hoped that they will be thoroughly appreciated by the students.

Good President.

Last Thursday evening the last meeting of the old Y. M. C. A. cabinet was held. Mr. Ira D. Warner, the outgoing president of the Association, manifested his appreciation of the services of his cabinet members by serving them with some refreshments.

The new cabinet was invited to hear the annual reports of the committee chairmen. The old cabinet feels that the Association has enjoyed a very prosperous year.

THE FORUM

Editorials by Otterbein Review Readers.

It is a pleasure to see well dressed people. A slouch is an eyesore to any ambitious, progressive man or woman. Neatness or slovenliness are often indicative of character and go far toward making impressions, good or bad. In dress as in everything else there is danger of going to extremes. Every community has a certain standard of dress and conduct. To fall beneath or rise above this standard generally meets with disapproval.

In some instances it meets with sufficient approval to establish a precedent. For example, a suppose certain society function should establish a precedent of wearing dress suits. Others will "follow suit" regardless of cost and in course of time the unfortunate fellow lacking this garb must either stay away, or going, be as much out of place as was the guest without a wedding garment. Style and fashion are commendable enough as long as they do not gratify the pleasures of the few at the expense of the many.

NEGATIVE TEAMS

OF OTTERBEIN AND HEIDELBERG WIN DECISIONS

Otterbein Boys After Hard Fight Lose
at Home but Win Abroad. Good
Crowds Greet Speakers

The debating teams of Heidelberg and Otterbein clashed last Tuesday night with the result that the negative team of each, won. Our negative team went to Tiffin and Heidelberg's negative team came here. There was no triangle this year owing the withdrawal of Denison.

The question was, "Resolved, that the income tax should be made a part of our Federal system of taxation." (The constitutionality granted.)

Those representing Otterbein who met Heidelberg here were F. G. Ketner, S. S. Devaux, T. C. Harper, with G. C. Meuthers as alternate. Those representing Heidelberg were E. W. Miller, W. C. Lyrerly and W. E. Miller. The boys put up a good debate and a large and appreciative audience was there to cheer the boys. Mr. Yates was cheer leader and considerable spirit was manifested. The judges for the debate here were, Attorney R. V. Sears, Bucyrus; Judge W. F. Overtnr, Delaware and Supt. J. A. Shawan, Columbus. Dr. E. A. Jones acted as moderator.

While our spirits were somewhat depressed at the result of the debate here they were raised the next morning when news came from Tiffin that Otterbein had won there. A. S. Keister, S. W. Bilsing, B. F. Richer, with J. O. Cox as alternate represented Otterbein there. The vote of the judges in each case was two to one for the negative.

Prof. E. B. Evans, who accompanied the team to Heidelberg, is to be congratulated on his work with the team.

Heidelberg puts out some fine debaters and has been able to defeat Otterbein successfully, the last few years. Our victory at Tiffin this year has put new confidence in our men and already plans are on foot for next year's debate.

FEAST AND FUN

WERE ENJOYED BY SENIORS AND SOPHOMORES WEDNESDAY EVE.

Annual Banquet By Two Classes a Delightful Affair—H. P. Lambert.

Veal croquettes, lemon punch, Prickly Pears, Thorns and Dates were consumed Wednesday evening in the annual banquet given to the Seniors by the Sophomores.

A short reception was held in the Cochran Hall parlors before the banquet. The guests and hosts then moved to the dining room to the music of the Senior Sophomore orchestra.

When Toastmaster "Horse Power" Lambert "blew the bell" about 80 sat down to a five course spread. The attention of the assembly was entirely taken up by this until 10:30, except those who were listening to the patter of feet above.

Mr. Lambert acted as toastmaster in his characteristic manner and introduced the speakers with many stories and jests. The following toasts were given:

C. R. Hall	} Comites
K. J. Stouffer
Music—Selected Orchestra
Maude Owings Does Time Return?

EXTEMPORANEOUS TOASTS.

On call from the toastmaster, President Clippinger made a very happy little toast. He remarked about the fraternal feeling that existed between the classes in Otterbein. His pride in them was overflowing and he said that he wished he might call them all his children.

It was then getting late and Mr. Lambert asked Father Clippinger what time they should be in. Father replied that we should come home in time for breakfast.

Mr. Keister gave an extemporaneous toast.

Mr. Lambert then adjourned the banquet and the guests departed declaring the hosts the best ever.

Locals.

Hemminger—"Who is Mary Russel? Is that Miss Russel?"

Prof. Shuck looking at the Senior and Sophomore classes in chapel—"I could not tell the difference between the Seniors and Sophomores now if it were not for the shingles on the Seniors' heads.

Curts in Laboratory—"Is this solution supposed to be blue the whole way down?"

Locke—"Yes, shake it up."

Miss Niswonger, reading a production in society—"A bear came up behind Irene Staub and Mr. Foltz and said, 'That's nothing. I can do that myself.'"

Bridenstein—"They are blaming everything on the poor Irish these days."

Essig—"How is that?"

Bridenstein—"Why they say that an Irishman gave the people in the south the yellow fever—a fellow by the name of Mike Crobé."

Maeder—"I have an uncle who is the most careless fellow I have ever known."

Smith—"How's that?"

Maeder—"Why he had to go clear to California for his lungs."

Thompson, waking up in C. E.
