OTTERBEIN GOAL

IS THREATENED AT NO STAGE OF GAME SATURDAY.

Heidelberg Again Meets Defeat At Hands of Exendine's Warriors To Tune of 37-0.

With the ball in safe territory at all stages of the game Otterbein won from Heidelberg Saturday by the score of 37-0.

Long runs were made at will and every back fieldman pulled off several such runs. The local team played good ball although the team work was slightly off color at certain periods of the game. Most of the playing was done in Heidelberg's territory and at no time did the opponents look dangerous. However, Heidelberg put up a good fight against Exendine's men who out weighed the visitors several pounds to the man.

Sanders was responsible for the first scoring seven minutes after the whistle was blown, when he carried the ball over from the 30 yard line. Heidelberg was forced to punt and the kick went to Tink who made a nice catch on the 30 yard line, and by some good running turned it into a

TWO TRIANGLES.

Otterbein's Debating Teams will Contest with Four Colleges.

Arrangements have been finally completed for two triangle debating contests, the first with Buchtel and Heidelberg and the second with Ohio and Marietta.

Candidates for the Otterbein teams will begin work in a few days.

To Otterbein has been given the privilege of selecting the subject for these contests and the local oratorical association will begin at once to make this selection.

These contests will be held some time in March when the affirmative and negative teams of the local college will meet the negative and affirmative teams respectively from the colleges, Buchtel and Heidelberg. In a few days following these debates the local contestants will strive for honors with one of the teams from both Ohio and Marietta.

The same subject will be used for both contests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gilbert, '97, of Dayton are visiting Mrs. J. E. Guitner. Mr. Gilbert attended Grand Lodge.

Press Club Reorganizes.

At a meeting of those interested in journalism last Wednesday R. B. Sande and S. F. Wenger were elected president and secretary respectively. The first meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at which time the club will be fully organized. Leading journalists will be secured to address this organization at its various meetings upon instructive themes in journalism.

Pres. Clippinger is the advising officer appointed from the faculty.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Of Mrs. Bookwalter will be Shock to Friends.

Mrs. Bookwalter, wife of Ex-President Lewis Bookwalter died at 6:45 Saturday evening. She had been ill since August at her home 207 South Seventh St., Hiawatha, Kansas, but had much improved in health. Her death was very unexpected. Mrs. Bookwalter was a graduate of the class of 1867.

We'll Be There.

Ohio State will support a baseball team this year. The Journal reports that the team will play some of the leading schools of the West. Oh you 13 to 6!

TO TORONTO.

The International Conference of the Y. M. C. A. which is held every five years will convene next Friday at Toronto, Canada. Don Shumaker, who was appointed as delegate to this conference will leave this coming Thursday arriving at Toronto the following day. At this gathering of delegates will be speakers of renowned reputation from all points of the globe, among whom are John R. Mott of New York; Fletcher S. Brockman, Shanghai, China; Colonel W.B. Wakefield, London, England. The conference will close Monday, Oct. 31.

DELEGATES TO ATHENS.

A large delegation of students from Otterbein representing the Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. and Volunteer Band attended the Mission Leaders Conference of the Southern Ohio and W. Va. Colleges which was in session from Friday Oct 21 to 23.

The object of this conference was to send out the volunteers, mission study chairman and leaders better trained for the work before them, and gripped more strongly with the conviction that Mission study is not only worth while but imperative.

OTTERBEIN GOAL.

touchdown. John missed the goal. Score 5-0.

Scoring started in earnest the second quarter, and two touchdowns and a place kick were made. Just thirty seconds after the quarter had started, Fullback John placed the ball between the posts from the 30 yard line. After a few minutes play when Hogg had recovered John's 40 yard punt, Sanders went over with another touchdown. Score 14-0. In three minutes more Snavelly breaking through the line scored from the 33 yard line. Score 20-0.

Otterbein came back strong in the third quarter and registered 11 more points to her credit. By some good playing L. H. Mattis went over for a touchdown in a little over a minute of play. John missed the goal. John then kicked off, and after Otterbein had gained possession of the ball, through forcing Heidelberg to punt, gains around end by Mattis and Snavelly, brought the ball up to Heidelberg's 18 yard line. At this time Snavelly broke through the line on the same play as before, and ran the remaining distance for his second touchdown. Hartman kicked the goal. Score 31-0.

In the fourth quarter Captain Lambert who has been out of the game since the Ohio State fray, went in, replacing Snavelly and put up a good game. When several big gains around end were made John carried the ball around right end for the last touchdown. Hartman again made good with his toe and the final score stood 37-0.

After this score had been rolled up, several of the subs were put in. Holingshead relieved Mattis, Weinland took Wagner's place and Funk replaced Sanders. Outside of being somewhat off in the signals they showed good form and did good work. Hatton who replaced Warner earlier in the game also put up a good game.

The line up:

Those who represented these local organizations are, the Misses Potts, Nelson, Shanks, Gaver, Weinland, Sheller, Grace Coblentz, Vina Johnson, Gilbert and Messers Bilsing, Duckwall, Cox, and Muskopf.

SACRED CONCERT.

To Be Given by College Choir Nov. 6.

For some weeks past the College Choir under the direction of Prof. Resler has been preparing for a sacred concert to be given Sunday evening Nov. 6. Some choice music written by the best composers known in musical circles will be rendered. Solo, quartet and octet numbers will be given in addition to the renditions by the choir.

These concerts which have heretofore drawn large and appreciative audiences will undoubtedly find popular favor this year as some excellent new material has been found in some of the vocalists who entered Otterbein this fall.

The program will appear in the next week's issue.

Pres. Clippinger, North

At the evening session of conference Pres. Clippinger addressed the delegates last Friday at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The following Sunday he spoke at the Y. W. C. A. Vesper service at Grand Rapids.

Today he makes two addresses at the Fall convention of the Summit county Sunday school association which convened Sunday afternoon at Akron.

The Value of a well dressed appearance

There's a business asset in being well dressed. No matter in what station of life, we are judged largely by our clothes. For years this store has been building up a substantial business on the kind of clothes that elavate. Not necessarily the expensive kind, far from it, but neat genteel hand-tailored clothes that are faultless in cut and fit. The kind of clothes that give a man a certain self-satisfied feeling which commands respect. Prices range this way.

Y. W. C. A.

"Which way am I going," was the topic last Tuesday evening. The leader, Ethel Kephart, read the scripture lesson taken from Matt. 7: 13 and Luke 13:24.

Some thoughts brought out were concerning the broad and narrow ways. The one, though it appears easy, leads to destruction while the other, though it seems rough and stormy ultimately leads to happiness and eternal life. One must be either going one way or the other because there is no standing still in the spiritual life.

Y. M. C. A.

The men of Y. M. C. A. were treated to an excellent meeting last Thursday night, when they were addressed by Prof. Heltman on the subject "The Other Fellow." Another very appreciable feature of the program was an excellent number rendered by the Association quartet.

The first thing that the speaker said was, "Get an education while in college." He showed how this might be done by advancing the following points: "Learn something outside of books. Practice the habit of helping the fellow next to you. Look after the physical side of man as did the good Samaritan of old."

Prof. Heltman pointed out the splendid opportunities for helping the other fellow by means which the Association work holds out. He said: "We owe our brother help and it is our duty to help him. When looking for a life vocation seek out the one where you can help others most."

What Say You?

Old Antioch to O. U. comes
A feeling mighty fine,
She's going to win—or so she says
To the tune of twenty-nine.

Now you local rooters what say you?

Do you mean this boast comes true?

If not, come out in numbers
strong,

And show those boys who's who.

The price of admission is tewenty-five,

Or fifty cents for—her;
So save your pennies for this big show

And don't you dare demur.

It's going to be the greatest
game,

You ever yet have seen,
When Exendine will prove to us
His team is no "has been."

Cupe, the Captain, with words of cheer

And Tink at quarter skilled
With Rex's long runs and mighty punts

Have the game to O. U. willed.

Mattis and Snavelly our fleetfoot backs

With Hartman and Wagner at ends

Will take that ball right down the field

And show where scoring depends.

Big Lambert and his cousin Art,
Warner, Hatton and Johnny
Hogg

Will make that line a solid mass
And meet friend Antioch on the jog.

Bailey the veteran with the ball
And McLeod in the game on the line

With "Skinny" ready for action prompt

Must reverse that score of twenty-nine.

So boys and girls both old and young

With voices loud and strong,
Come out with spirits full of cheer
And help that game along.

Echoes.

As I wandered forth one autumn day,
Strolling over hill and plain,
I raised my voice in loud halloo
And the call came back again.

I wondered what marvel that might be
Which caught my words and bore them back to me.

The years have passed: again I walk,
In silence now. 'Mid hopes and fears,
Like echoes from the hillside
Come cherished thoughts of by gone years.
Perhaps as long as life shall last
Will resound the echoes of the past.
