OTTERBEIN'S NEW PRESIDENT

Prof. W. G. Clippinger Assumes Position with Hearty Endorsement.

Prof. W. G. Clippinger newly elected president of Otterbein university comes to his office, endorsed by the Committee, the Board of Trustees and in fact the whole United Brethren Denomination. He is comparatively a young man thirty-six years of age and a pusher and a doer.

His education has been broad and extensive. Born on a farm in Franklin County, Pa., he attended the public schools after which he taught four years. He attended Lebanon Valley college and was graduated in 1899. The following year, he was with Dodd, Mead & Co., of New York. The next three years, he spent at Bonebrake Theological seminary at Dayton, graduating in 1903. For two years and a half following he was in charge of the Book department of the United Brethren Publishing House of Dayton. At this time he was called to the chair of Religious Pedagogy in Bonebrake Seminary which position he held at the time of his election to the Presidency of Otterbein. For the four summers past Prof. Clippinger has been specializing in Psychology, Pedagogy and New Testament at Chicago university and in August received his degree.

He is one of the greatest Sunday School workers in the country and travels extensively in the interest of Sunday School and general educational work.

In May 1903, he married he married Miss Lona Roop, of Highspire, Pa. They have two children, Donald Roop four and a half years old and Walter junior nine months.

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION

Ladies Meet in Association Parlors Friday Evening

The Y. W. C. A. girls gave an informal reception to all new girls Friday evening 7:30 to 10:00. The purpose of the reception was that all might become acquainted. The evening was spent in games of various kinds. Several short but spirited speeches were given. Refreshments were served at 9:15.

DEATH CALLS

Bishop J. S. Mills, at One Time College Pastor, Dies From Fatal Fever.

The whole United Brethren denomination was thrown into sorrow when it learned of the death of Bishop J. S. Mills, at Annville, Pa., last Thursday. He was one of the big men in the United Brethren church and has been a Bishop since 1893.

For six years he was college pastor at Otterbein. He possessed a fine mind and was an able speaker. His loss will be keenly felt. Bishop Mills contracted a fever in Africa on his recent trip, this caused his death.

Everyone at the State game Saturday.

FOOTBALL OPENING.

Coach Exendine and a Healthy Squad After State's Scalp.

The football season has opened and the Otterbein gridiron is the scene of lively times. Coach Exendine, with his gentlemanly qualities and vigorous management of the team, predicts great things for our boys this season. He believes in the hardest kind of drill work in a clean, fair manner.

Captain Lambert is enthusiastic and is working his hardest for the success of the team. Let us give him our support.

The Ohio State game is only a few days away.

We are starting out for a winning season and the support of every student is needed. Make your plans early to attend the game Saturday. Every student should go and help the team by their enthusiastic rooting. Help them by being out on the sideline each evening between 4 and 5 o'clock and cheer them on. Let us be united in our team work, united in our support, united in our enthusiasm and we shall win.

Special car leaves Westerville 12:30.

LARGEST ENROLLMENT

Of Students in History of Institution Almost 350 Have Registered So Far.

Otterbein began her biggest and best year in her history when the school opened Wednesday. About 350 names have gone through the registrars hands which is by far the biggest enrollment of students on the ground.

With the large number of enthusiastic students, the increased faculty, the new buildings, all under the jurisdiction of a live energetic president, Prof. Clippinger who can but say "These are great days for Otterbein."

COCHRAN HALL

Many New Faces Seen and all Made to Feel at Home--List of Cochranites.

Eighty young ladies in Cochran Hall are enjoying dormitory life to its fullest extent.

The beautiful tinted walls which in color match the rugs give to the rooms a homelike appearance.

Thirty-three of the girls are new to "dorm" life and all are enthusiastic about their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. David Harris are at Cochran now to see that everything is kept shipshape.

Harriet Swickard who has been at Cochran since its opening is as jolly and kind hearted as ever.

Miss Anna Beh aproned and turboned has her usual smile for the girls.

Repairs have been made extensively and the appearance is certainly pleasing.

At the first meeting of Cochran Association Saturday morning, Miss Grace Heller was chosen President to succeed Miss Lillian Scott who is not in this term. Miss Maude Hansford, vice president in the place of Miss Ruth Williamson who is living in town. Miss Ada Buttermore treasurer, succeeds Miss Leila Bates who will not be in school this term.

Miss Zeller zealous to make this the very best year at Cochran Hall and is endeavoring in every way possible to make the girls feel happy at all times.

The following is the list of young ladies in Cochran Hall: Misses Saul, Harris, Gaver, McKean, Hoffman, Smith, Kephart, Hays, Mabel Peters, Harriet Peters, Fouts, Schisler, Bell, Morrison, Creamer, Thompson, Wilda Dick, Hall, Smith, Niswonger, Cox, Bolenbaugh, Grace Myers, Katherine Stofer, Barbara Stofer, Dean, Hansford, Codner, Huntwork, Brown, Seneff, Sherrick, Shupe, Sprague, Osgood, Detwiler, Kalter, Gilbert, Menoher, May Dick, Parlette, Ressler, Kurtz, Nelson, Potts, Stine, Everout, Beard, Miller, Gertrude Myers, Bowers, Eisle, Davidson, Grise, Leezer, Russell, Staub, Mumma, Wagner, Van Gundy, Spoon, Ada Buttermore, Almira Buttermore, Sheller, Hendricks, Clymer, Shride, Sorrell, Noble, Fricinger, Moser, Blackburn, Harmon, Powell, Heller.

New Conservatory Ready for Students

Though the carpenters have not finished their work, the Lambert Conservatory of Music and Art stands ready to receive the pupils who are to enter her doors daily to receive their instruction.

A more beautiful well equipped conservatory would be hard to find. Approaching the structure, one's attention is attracted to the grace, the stateliness, the rare symmetry of design. With all the beauty there is not a feeling of awe that comes over one in looking at a beautiful building but one of peace and quiet in fact, the aspect is so inviting that one can not help wanting to enter.

Within this palace of strings, keys and easel, one sees at every step the completeness of it all. Sound-proof rooms exclude the noise to those without. Twenty-five pianos of the latest type, four of them grands, stand ready to give forth sweet notes of melody. Then, too, halls for voice and violin welcome the music lover.

Prof. Glenn Grant Grabill has full charge of the Music department and the biggest, best and most profitable year is anticipated.

The upper floor is so irresistible that you can scarcely want to leave. Large windows open to the sky let floods of light pour on the sculpture and paintings moulded and brushed by the willing students. When one departs from this fair structure, he feels a debt of thankfulness to the one whose generosity made such a building possible. George A. Lambert, of Anderson, Indiana.

An auditorium with a seating capacity of three hundred is to be used for private recitals.

First Impressions.

For the new men and women
in school, we extend greeting.

These first days at college are impressionable days. First impressions are lasting ones and your viewpoint at the start will largely determine your course.
"Why I came to college" perhaps can be answered by each one of you in a different manner. Some have toiled for years to have the privilege of coming to the school of your choice. No matter what brought you here, the fact that you are here is enough. There are two courses in every school,
the working course and the loafing course. You are to choose —one means sacrifice and energy, the other parasiting off someone else. You are here for a purpose—start right!

SENIORS OUT.

Several Find it Impossible to Return.
No Sheepskins in June.

It is indeed unhappy that several seniors find it impossible to be in school this year. Ethel Beery, of Canal Winchester,
O., Grace Mumma, of Dayton,
O., Nellie Menke, of Portsmouth,
O., Margaret Bonebrake, of Columbus, O., Rex John, of Wil-kinsburg, Pa., C. J. Kephart, jr.
of Dayton, O.

THE HANDBOOK

The Committee of Y. M. C. A. and Y.
W. C. A. Present Excellent Work

The Handbook, this year is by far the best one published. In every way it excels its predecessors. The editorial notes are well written and to the point, the compilation shows neatness and care. The greatest improvement is the cover which is of an excellent quality of morocco.

The increased number of advertisements made this worthy book possible. Students should patronize the advertisers in college publications.

The committee to whom credit
should be given is S. W. Bilsing, Editor; Helen Converse and Catherine Maxwell, of Y. W. C.
A.; R. L. Harkins, C. V. Roop,
B. F. Bungard of Y. M. C. A.

Y M C A

The initial meeting of Y. M.
C. A. was exceptionally well attended and inspiring. After a few preliminary remarks by the President, I. D. Warner, the speaker of the evening, Dr. Miller, was introduced. He emphasized the importance of taking a definite stand for Christ the first of the year. He told the new men to set to work at once lest they become indifferent. He admonished the old students to engage more actively than ever in Y. M. C. A. work.

After the meeting an informal reception was held and a good old fashioned handshaking was enjoyed. The halls resounded with the stirring football songs and old "Whoop Hip" and "Bier." A Dutch lunch was served.

BOARDING CLUBS

Some New Boarding Clubs Make Their Appearance

A couple of new boarding clubs started this year and by the pleasant smiles of the members it seems as if good grub is being handed out.

The boarding clubs and location are: Bailey club, Main street; Shaw club, College avenue; Bungard club, College avenue; Ellis club, College avenue;
Training club, Home street;
Hetzler club, State street; Fansher club, Park street.

Nearly all clubs are full up.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Pres. Clippinger Strikes Keynote of the True Purpose of Education.

"That man is not being educated who dishonestly does his work by deceiving his instructor and who takes unfair advantage of his fellow students by falsely obtaining higher grades, no matter how much or how little he may know of the subject in hand," said President W. G.
Clippinger Wednesday morning
in his opening address "Some Vitalizing Aspects of Modern Education," before a large audience in the chapel. The speech was filled with gems of thought and truth.

"The highest end and aim of education must be the development of social efficiency."

"College is life itself."

"That man is being educated in hand and eye who can so adjust and coordinate their activities as to work with the highest degree of precision and facility and get an immediate and satisfactory response from either one or both."

"Society is an organism and not a conglomerate."

"Character grows as the flower develops, unseen and unmeasured, yet just so surely and beautifully."

MANY IMPROVEMENTS

All College Buildings Overhauled
and Beautified.

The many improvements in the college buildings add much to their beauty. The old building has been so rejuvenated that alumnas would scarcely recognize it. Hard wood floors grace the first and second floors, a rich tint has been given the walls, new paper has been hung and the whole building overhauled. One of the big improvements was the equipping of the President's new office with oak furniture. Oak also has been used to beautify the Faculty room on the second floor.

The walls of the Cochran Hall have been tinted this summer and the young ladies are delighted.

The Board of Trustees deserve much praise for their generosity
in making old Otterbein a more delightful place in which to live.

OUR NEW PROFESSORS.

Faculty Increased By Additional Members of Good Calibre.

Otterbein is fortunate in adding to the faculty several teachers. In order that the many readers of the Review may know something of the qualifications of these teachers we have prepared a brief biography of each one.

Edmund A. Jones professor of History and Economics is to take the place of Dr. Snively who has obtained a leave of absence for one year. Prof. Jones was born in Rockville, Mass., Feb. 11, 1842 and has been associated with educational work all his life.

Among the most important positions he has occupied have been superintendent of schools at Massillon and Marietta, State Commissioner of Common Schools since 1904, member State Board of Examiners of Ohio for eight years, vice president American History Club, member National Educational Association, Ohio Academy of Sciences, president of Ohio State Teachers' Association in 1893, elected member of the National Council of Education in 1908 to fill an unexpired term of one year and at the last convention of the National Educational Association at Denver, he was elected a member for six years.

JOHN WALDO FUNK, professor of Biology and Geology was graduated from Otterbein in 1906 and immediately took up the study of medicine at Western Reserve. He specialized along biological lines in the medical department and completed three years when he was called to fill his present position.

He was married to Miss Clyde Heckert, '09, June 30, of the present year.

SAMUEL JACOB KIEHL, professor of English History and Civics in Martin Boehm Academy was born in Pennsylvania and after completing his common school education taught for a year or two after which he came to Otterbein. He remained but one year when he went back to Pennsylvania and worked in the mines for several years. Afterwards he returned to Otterbein and has remained in school to date.

FRANK J. RESLER, director of the voice department in the Conservatory of Music, was graduated in the Philosophical course from Otterbein in 1893. Possessing a fine baritone voice he has received an excellent musical education. Among his instructors have been Clement B. Sham, of Chicago; Frank O. Baird, of Chicago; Francis Fisher Powers, of New York; Chas. W. Clark, of Chicago; Robert Hosea, of New York.

Among the positions he has occupied has been supervisor of music in Mt. Vernon public schools, director of the music department in Iowa State University for eleven years, soloist and precentor of St. Mary's Avenue Congregational Church at Omaha. He was the highest paid soloist Omaha ever had.

He married Miss Elizabeth Cooper, a classmate, in 1894. They reside on Grove street.

V. E. FRIES, instructor in piano, graduated from Steele High School in 1906 and Otterbein 1909, has taken music of many fine musicians. His mother early taught him the rudiments, herself being a graduate of a college of music. Prof. Graham, of Fostoria; Prof. Pryor of Dayton, and others have been his instructors.

ANDREW SCHWARTZ, instructor in violin, comes from Mt. Pleasant, Pa., and has received instruction from excellent violinists. Among his instructors have been Mrs. Graham, of Greensburg; Mrs. Weldon, of Pittsburg; pupil of Von 'Koonis, Prof. Schlitzinski, of Chicago, and Prof. Kieferlick, of Connersville, Pa. Besides violin he has a knowledge of mandolin and all valve instruments. He has had wide orchestra and band experience.

C. V. Roop was unable to return to school on account of a serious injury of his brother, who is in a hospital in Decatur, Ind.

SUMMER REUNIONS

Otterbein People in Various Conferences Have Jollifications

In order to enliven a spirit of Greater Otterbein among the students and friends, reunions were held during the summer.

Miami Conference.

At Miami Valley Chautauqua fifty Otterbeiners gathered on the last day of July for a gala occasion. Speeches were made by Mabel Gardner, '08, of Middletown, S. J. Flickinger, '72, of Dayton, and W. H. Trump, '93, superintendent public schools at Miamisburg.

At six a great spread was laid before the guests in the auditorium and everyone fell to with an aggressive spirit.

A. B. Shauck, '74, was elected chairman of the boosting committee for next year's rally. Miss Mabel Gardner and I. R. Libecap were re-elected to their offices of President and Secretary respectively.

East Ohio.

Dr. Charles Snively was toastmaster at an enthusiastic reunion of Otterbein people from East Ohio Conference at Minnisella Park, Canton, on September 1. More than eighty were present and an enthusiastic rally was enjoyed.

The Reverend J. W. Foyou, of Akron, O., and H. G. McFarren, of the Canton Y. M. C. A. gave stirring addresses.

The ladies of the First U. B. church of Canton have arranged to furnish the luncheon hereafter at this reunion. The reunion next year is scheduled for the middle of August.

Northwestern Ohio

L. E. Walters, was chosen president of the Northwestern Ohio Conference Otterbein Association, which met at Riverside Park, Findlay, September 1.

About forty gathered around a table loaded with good things to eat and after dinner a number of spirited five minute speeches were given. Miss Myrtle Karg was a guest.

J. J. Dick was elected Vice President, Leila Bates, Secretary.

The next reunion will be held at the same place next year.

Allegheny Conference.

Oakford Park, Greensburg, Pa., was the scene of a delightful reunion of Allegheny Conference people August 28.

U. B. Brubaker was toastmaster, and a good one he was, too. Rev. S. W. Keister, Albert Keister, Frank Mayley, Mrs. Leshner, and others made speeches and the "whoop jip" was given more than once. Next year a larger number is expected and plans are on foot to hold a reunion every year.

Locals

If you're sore forget it quick,
For no flaws have you to pick.
So if your name's inserted here,
Don't think it very, very queer.

Thompson—"When I go to China as a missionary, I expect to stop off at Japan and visit Jack and Rhea."

Flashman—"I tell my wife that I am the one to be congratulated, but she won't have it that way."

Bridenstine—"I must go up to my room and shave as Miss Nelson is in town." Thompson (an hour later)—"I thought you shaved?" Bridenstine, looking in the mirror—"Gee! I forgot to shave my upper lip."

Smith, rapping Essig on the head—"I have cracked a joke."

The smallest girl we've ever met,
Is a little tot named Rhea Parlette.
She's all powders and puffs and fixtures fine,
And with all these added weighs but eighty-nine.

Banquet for new students at Williams' Ice Cream Parlor. Toastmaster, L. J. Essig; toast, "Always Follow Me," Doc; toast, "Be not led astray," Lester; chorus, "He's a Mighty Good Fellow." New Students; Treasurer, Manager Essig.

Scene on College avenue—Tourist party; new students; guide, Hetzler; first instruction, "Keep your eyes on me;" second instruction, "Beware of false guides;" charges for guide, appreciative smiles.

An aid to new students. How you shall know them: Self composed, Custer; athlete, Drury; dwarf, Stouffer; most dignified senior, Thomson; diffident, Miss
