DITMER, MENKE

STAR FOR OTTERBEIN IN GAME WITH KENYON SATURDAY.

Hard Fought Struggle Won by Kenyon
by Score of 8 to 6—Big Rooting
Squad from Otterbein

Otterbein 6, Kenyon 8, tells the story of one of the fiercest struggles for supremacy on the gridiron for years.

To one who is a football enthusiast, that never-to-be-forgotten game last Saturday on Benson field will live forever.

A warm October sun shone brilliantly on a pretty field lined with rooters. On the north Kenyon and the south Otterbein.

Again and again the "whoop, hip" and "bier" rang out to cheer on our men. Fast, furious and terrible, both teams plunged at each other, and in the plunges Otterbein made her big gains. Ditmer, that speedy full, found the opening every time and tore through the Kenyon line for 15 or 20 yards. Menke was at his best and played ball as he had never played before. Again and again while playing defense, he broke away and got his man. Rogers, Stouffer, Hartman, Bailey, Wagner, Warner, Mattis, Sanders, A. Lambert, Ressler. Space only prevents a eulogy of each one of these warriors who defended the tan and cardinal most nobly.

Otterbein played better ball from start to finish than Kenyon. Though deficient in end runs and forward passes, line bucks made the downs nearly every time. Kenyon could not touch our line and the only gains were long runs around the ends, backed by terrific interference. Why lic speaking, Swarthmore college.

The Eight Vassar Girls, musicians, who play on various instruments, will appear sometime in April, the date is not decided as yet.

OTTERBEIN PRESS CLUB.

New Organization to Advertise Otterbein Meets Tonight to Form Organization.

In order to spread the name of Otterbein far and wide within the limits of the United Brethren denomination, the Otterbein Press club will be organized tonight in the Faculty room. By means of pictures of college buildings and correspondence, Otterbein will be well advertised. Prof. Rosselot is advertising manager for the University and intends boosting the press club in every way. Clarence Metters, of the Public Opinion and an old newspaper man, will address the meeting. Officers will be elected.

STOUFFER OUT OF GAME.

It will be sad news to all Otterbein students to learn that Stouffer, our giant tackle, has played his last game of football. Against the earnest advice of one of the most eminent surgeons of Columbus, Stouffer, imbued with the true Otterbein spirit, resolved to end his football career with a last strenuous effort against our old-time rival, Kenyon. Two years ago Stouffer sustained an injury to his right knee which has since given him constant trouble. He has stuck to his post, however, and it is only upon the warning that further playing would make his case chronic that he has resolved to quit the game, after obtaining the consent of Coach Exendine.

Ever since entering school, Stouffer has played on the varsity, the first year at guard and subsequently at tackle. During that time, he has become known throughout the state for his splendid playing and his gentlemanly

CUSTER STAYS.*Otterbein Aeronaut Will Not Enter St. Louis Balloon Races

Keen disappointment came to L. L. Custer Saturday, when he learned that E. H. Irving, the pilot whom he was to accompany in the big balloon "Indianapolis" in the St. Louis races today, has withdrawn.

This daring young aeronaut recently piloted Dayton's big balloon, the "Hoosier," 80,000 lb. capacity, and made a most successful flight.

Keen eyed, cool headed, a natural mechanic, Custer takes to ballooning most naturally. In the St. Louis balloon races today some of the biggest in the world are registered for endurance flights. Custer was to be assistant pilot in the big balloon "Indianapolis," an honor indeed for such a youth. He has purchased a balloon recently and intends making a flight from Columbus in the near future.

President Ira D. Warner Makes Masterful Address.

The meeting Thursday evening was opened with song, A. F. Brooks leading. After a brief song service Chas. Meyer and J. O. Cox led in prayer. Ira D. Warner, president of the association and leader of the meeting then read the scripture lesson from the book of Psalms. His topic was "To Whom Shall Christ be Made Real." He stated that many professing Christians were dissatisfied with the unreality of Christ. He pointed out that such a condition of affairs was not due to any fault in Christianity but to negligence on the part of the one professing. Christ can and ought to be made infinitely more real and dear than any earthly friend. Mr. Warner discussed three ways in which the reality may be attained; first by a systematic study of God's Word, becoming better acquainted with the law; second, by obeying Him and making our deeds consistent with his teachings, thus giving Him complete sway; third, by cultivating the habit of reminding ourselves of his presence. After singing a hymn, many of the fellows spoke, greatly emphasizing the thoughts of the leader.

The Otterbein quartet sang, "God Will Take of You." After this selection President Clippinger made some very interesting and helpful remarks.

We look forward with pleasure to meeting one who has been associated with that dear character, Benjamin Hanby, beloved and honored by all who knew him.

Colleges in the Court Room.

A recent editorial in the Ohio State Journal, is headed "Colleges on Trial."

Chancellor Strong, of Kansas University, at the opening address last week, made the statement that the college today is on trial and that the decision rested with the students.

We get out of college exactly what we put into it. If it is late hours, extravagant habits, dissipation, we reap puddy heads, loss of money and flunks. The ordinary man goes to college with a true purpose. Alas, sometimes he is sidetracked. Stay on the main track and when the course is over you can feel that college is worth while. The college and you can plead nothing but "not guilty."

Just a Little Care.

Now that everything has been beautified in and around the college buildings, let us see that this beauty will not be temporary but a lasting one.

Hard wood floors have been laid throughout the building. A loose nail in the shoe would leave a bad scratch. The walls have been tinted or painted. A pencil mark or scratch would mar the beauty. The campus, too, can be kept beautiful. Waste paper thrown around spoils the scene.

These are little things, to be sure, but let us exercise a little care, that's all.

Varsity vs Athens

The first tussle of the season on O. U. field takes place next Saturday when Varsity stacks up against Ohio University.

Now we are going to have at least five hundred at that game.

In the first place, every student should be there, for it is right and proper that all should support athletics.

Secondly, it is the first game of the season on our home gridiron and you want to see our boys play on the home field.

Thirdly, the opposing team is our old rival, Athens, and a defeat is due them.

Fourth, there are only three home games and you will only have a few opportunities to see Coach Exendine's men play.

Fifth and last, a great expense is attached to bringing this team all the way from Athens. Expenses must be met by the five hundred rooters.

Are you on? One and all at the game Saturday.

Otterbein did not win was caused by one of those extenuating circumstances when the best man is defeated by a fluke.

In the first half within thirty yards of the goal, Williams of Kenyon secured the ball on a long forward pass and ran for a touchdown. Kenyon failed to make a fair catch. Eight minutes later Lord kicked a goal from field. Score, 8 to 0.

In the second half, Otterbein came back strong and drove the ball over Kenyon's goal line for a touchdown within 6 minutes of play. Warner holding the ball, Sanders kicked goal.

Then began a mighty struggle which kept the ball in action from side to side. Kenyon made two changes—Reinheimer came to right end replacing Mason and Bentley replaced Williams. Shortly after Rogers received a bad bruise and Ressler relieved him. The game ended with the ball on Otterbein's 25-yard line.

It was a great game, sure enough, as everyone of the 60 spirited Otterbein rooters can attest; the first time Otterbein has made such a favorable showing against Kenyon for years.

It was Bemis Pierce against Exendine, and the gentlemanly tactics of the training of Coach "Ex." stood out predominantly.

Coming home, someone suggested a tune and the crowd accepted it. It is hoped everybody will learn it and sing it. The sentiment fully expresses the feeling for our new coach.

(Tune—Sweet Adeline.)

conduct. Among the student body, Stouffer is universally honored and probably no other man in school stands higher in the opinion of the faculty.

The loss of this earnest player will cause a gap in the team which will be indeed difficult to fill. It is probable that Hartman will be shifted to tackle leaving the position of left guard to be supplied.

There is some consolation, however that the injury will not prevent "Babe's" participation in track events next spring.

PRESIDENT CLIPPINGER IN DEMAND

Addresses to be given at Steubenville, Buchannon, West Va. and Columbus

President W. G. Clippinger returned this morning from Canton where he delivered two addresses at the First United Brethren church, Sunday. The president is gone nearly every week end to give talks and addresses along educational lines.

Thursday night he will deliver an address before the County Sunday School Convention at Steubenville, and on Friday and Saturday he will attend the West Virginia Conference at Buchannon. Next Sunday, he is to address the afternoon meeting at the Columbus Y. M. C. A. upon an educational subject, as Saturday marks the opening of the Y. M. C. A. classes.

Rain Doesn't Prevent Pleasure of Upper Classmen.

Undaunted by a driving rain Wednesday evening, the class 1911 escaped the vigilant watchfulness of other classes and enjoyed a hayride to Devil's Half Acre. While there the time was spent in playing games and singing songs. All partook with delight of the excellent repast which had been provided by the social committee. It rained, it is true, but the rain could not prevent Juniors from having a good time. The merry crowd started for home at an early hour returning by way of Blendon Corners.

All expressed themselves as having had a good time and that the evening did not seem one bit dry.

skating and the reflex of a star referred to the cracks in the ice
where he fell."

Hatton in Junior meeting—"I decline to act as yell master as I do not sit in the front."

Warner—"We can see you if you have your hat on (Hatt-on)."

Prof. Rosselot in French class—
"Miss Peters do you have a favorite?"

Miss Peters—"No Professor, I haven't any."

Get busy fellows—that's unusual.

Baker—"Let me have a cake of soap."

Dr. Hoffman—"Scented or un-scented?"

Baker—"I'll take it with me."

Knapp—"Prof. I would like to be off this hour as my wife wants me to do some odd jobs around the house."

Prof.—"Can't possibly do it,
Mr. Knapp."

Knapp—"Thank you Prof. you are very kind."

Did any one hear the new faculty yell?

Won't we flunk the Seniors

Yell master—Prof. Scott.

Yabe—Maeder, what is your first name?

Maeder—"Dick"

Yabe—Must be some mistake.
You are not dick you are thin.

Andrews—Why couldn't they play football last night.

Snavely—Because Fries froze
the ball.

Prof. Mills in Physics—Who has the 4th problem? "Ba be"

Stouffer—I marked the fourth,
was supposed to have worked the third and worked out the fifth.

Little Johnny attended church and heard a spirited political sermon. At dinner the same day after one of the unusual spells, he exclaimed: "Pa, what are we, Republicans or Presbyterians."—
