OTTERBEIN OUTPLAYS

OHIO WESLEYAN BUT FAILS TO SCORE. FUMBLES AT CRITICAL TIMES.

Ohio Wesleyan University Gets the Best of a Hotly Fought Game by the Score of Six to One.

By the score of 6 to 0, Otterbein was compelled to suffer defeat at the hands of Wesleyan at Delaware Saturday. It is true that we lost the game by score, but in every other department of the game except the punting, we clearly outclassed Wesleyan.

FIRST HALF

With the ball on our 15-yard line, Warner skirted the right end for a gain of 15 yards. On the next play, a delayed pass, Mattis made the longest and most sensational run of the game, getting past the second defense of Wesleyan, he was able to carry the ball to O. W. U.'s 40-yard line where a new set of tacklers were in waiting for him. By side stepping and twisting away from them, he had a clear field in sight, only to be brot down from behind by Little, after an exciting 60 yard run. The ball was now near the goal line with a touchdown in sight. Warner and Wagner each made gains of 6 yards on straight line bucks. A fumble by Mattis gave the ball to Wesleyan where our chance of scoring there was lost for the time.

Fumbling the ball at critical times seemed to be the lot of our fellows. We were in striking distance several times but the ball was fumbled and all hopes of a touchdown for the time was lost.

SECOND HALF

After five minutes of play in the second half, Mattis was forced to retire on account of a bad shoulder and Snavelly took his place. For this, his first game he did remarkably well and is a man that will prove a valuable addition to the Varsity years to come.

Starting from our 30-yard line Otterbein began a march for a touchdown, which in no way would have been stopped if we had not fumbled the ball.

Ditmer was good for 4 and 5 on two attempts and Hix made first down easily:

Warner carried the ball 5 and Snavelly 8 on line bucks, thus making first down. Ditmer 3, Wagner 6 and Ditmer 4 gave Otterbein first down again. Ditmer bucked again for 4, Warner 5 and Ditmer 3 and first down again came to our credit.

Ditmer $2\frac{1}{2}$, Snavelly $6\frac{1}{2}$ and Warner 3 made first down easily. Snavelly bucked for two but on the next play this player fumbled after a large hole had been made in the line for him to go through. Thus another chance for touchdown was lost.

SOME COMPARISONS.

Yards gained by Otterbein 271 in 44 attempts.

Yards gained by Wesleyan 210 in 40 attempts.

First downs, Otterbein 15, Wesleyan 10.

First downs thru line, Otterbein 9, Wesleyan 1.

No. yards punts returned Sanders 92 out 9 trials, Wesleyan 55 out of 6 trials.

Entire School Aroused By Fiendish Trick.

One of the most original stunts that ever took place in the history of the institution, came off Wednesday night. Original ideas are of value in every profession, but nowhere is this more manifest than in our wide awake student body.

It is not the price which such ideas command in college but the honor and admiration accruing to the originator of such ideas which make them very praiseworthy.

No doubt, a man with as broad an experience as President Clippingier appreciates such a clever trick. It is likely that the same stunt will be perpetrated in other colleges when they hear of this unique piece of originality, obviously coming from the brain cells of a few provoking freshmen.

The freshmen evidently thought they would start something, which they have been painfully trying to do for a long time. But if they could here the maledictions pronounced on them morning, noon and night they would hie themselves to other

SECONDS VICTORS

FRIES SCORES WITH WELL BOOT-ED PLACE KICK.

Mt. Vernon Was Unable to Cope With the Tricks and Fakes of Lighter Team.

With part of O. U.'s second team at Delaware, it made no difference to the remainder of them, for they returned to Westerville Saturday night with the big end of a 3 to 0 score after administering this defeat to Mt. Vernon High School.

The game was prettily fought. No scoring was done in the first half. But after 8 minutes of play in the second half, Fries for the Seconds had sent the ball sailing between the goal posts from the 20-yard line, Surrell holding the ball. This proved to be the only scoring of the game.

O. U.'s worthy seconds outplayed the High School team in every particular. The Mt. Vernon fellows were only able to make 5 first downs while our fellows were continually plunging through the line and romping around the ends almost at will. In view of this it was only necessary for Surtell to punt once. The majority of the playing was in Mt. Vernon's territory although they brought the ball to our 15-yard line, only to be stopped there.

The same fate that prevented us from scoring on Wesleyan must have been present at Mt. Vernon, for whenever the Seconds had a touchdown in sight, a fumble or a bad forward pass would send them farther away from the coveted goal-line.

The forward pass was tried

THE BACKFIELD.

The backfield for Otterbein was able to tear thru Wesleyan's line at will and they generally found a hole to go through.

Ditmer carried the ball for Otterbein more times than the rest of the players, and his work in this game was of the most spectacular kind. What was hard for the States backs a few weeks ago to do was in no way of a hinderance to him. Out of 20 times bucking their line, he made a gain of 80 yards. Hix Warner in 9 attempts at carrying the ball made a total of 45 yards. This player was in the game all the time and did fine work both on offense and defense.

Sanders, as usual, ran the team in a heady manner and Snavelly played a good hard game as did Mattis.

THE LINE.

The ends, Wagner and Hartman, did good work. The work of Wagner was of fine order as on offense and defense he did splendid work. Hartman, in this his first game at end, did commendable work. He carried the ball twice for gains of 5 and 15 yards at each trial. With a little more experience at this position, he will play it in good style.

We were reinforced by Stouffer at tackle who played his usual steady, but hard game. A Lambert, I. Warner, Menke and Bailey put up a nice article of ball for Otterbein and deserve as much praise as the rest of the players.

Weinland got in at quarter during the latter part of the game and played a good game for the time he was in.

It might be stated that A. Lambert played the great Little to a standstill and whenever Sanders wanted to send a play thru him he knew that he could get his man out of the road. If he did anything, he outplayed his man who stopped every play at Ohio State a few weeks ago.

several times, only working once for a good gain. The others failed entirely.

The Players.

For Otterbein Summers was the great ground gainer. He made end runs of 10 to 30 yards at each clip and was a very valuable man to the team. Fries and Buffington did good work in bucking the line. Once Fries went through Mt. Vernon's line for a 35-yard gain. These players made good gains at each time carrying the ball. Surrall used good headwork in running his plays, directing them in a clever manner. The ends, Moses and Metzgar, played their positions in fine style and were in the game all the time. The line withheld the attack of the Mt. Vernon backs in great shape

Flynn probably put up the best game in the line, for whenever he was called upon to open up a hole, there would generally be one there for a back to go through. Financial Rally President Clippinger Speaks

The meeting was in charge of J. C. Baker, chairman of the financial committee.

It was opened with singing followed by prayer by Messrs. Duckwall, Weaver and Warner after which the men listened to a vocal solo by O. A. Cheek.

The leader then introduced President Clippinger as the speaker of the evening. He emphasized the four fold purposes of the association namely Physical, Social, Intellectual and Spiritual. He said that the Y. M. C. A.

He further said that we should all feel a responsibility to our fellows and that it was impossible for a man to get much out of the Y. M. C. A. if he did not put anything into it, that if a man would be happy he must produce happiness.

In conclusion the speaker said that when we were giving of our money we were giving ourselves.

Mr. Baker then presented the financial budget to the men to which they very cheerfully responded.

"The Way He Leads," was the for Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening led by Miss Irene Staub. She read the scripture lesson from the 23rd Psalm. Miss Myrtle Saul sang "Always Shining." Mrs. Harford then spoke to the girls on the evening's topic, "Essential Work Should be in the Way He Leads. The way He leads those at home and abroad is in the path of service. God has a thought for my life. He caused me to hear thy loving words in the morning and to know the way wherein I should walk. At times it seemed to Abraham and Moses that God was not leading, but still he was, and so he leads in our lives." She also discussed the factory girl problem. The talk was splendid and intensely interesting throughout.

Miss Grace Mumma, of Dayton, a member of last year's Junior class, greeted old friends at Otterbein last week.

Entered as second-class matter October 18, 1909, at the postoffice at Westerville, Ohio under the Act of March 3, 1879.

What student does not miss the ringing of the chapel bell? It might be ventured to assert that even those who removed the clapper wish it were replaced. One does not realize how much dependence was placed in the bell, until its music ceased. Every student listens eagerly for its call. Now that it rings not, we seem lost. Some miss chapel and classes on that account. Dear old clapper, come back and place yourself once more within your iron walls from whence you have so long sounded forth your calls to meals and classes. What is college without a bell and what is bell without a clapper?

Breathitt County.

Now that election is over Northerners are saying "Thank goodness there was only one killed in Breathitt county, Ky., on election day." To some, Breathitt county means a sort of hell on earth. They imagine folks down in Kentucky merely live to kill. Why don't the newspapers parade the murders of other localities the same as they do of Breathitt county? They give a whole column to a little brawl in Breathitt and a line to an act that influences the whole nation.

For ages Kentucky has been known as the dark and bloody battle ground. It was years ago but since then Kentucky has gone through a revolution and stands one of the foremost States today.

It seems educated persons would know that Kentucky is no worse than any other State. It is a shame that public opinion has been so molded as to place Kentucky nowadays as the dark and bloody ground.

An atrocious crime is committed in another part of the United States and people merely say that such things are of natural consequence, but let a man be killed in Kentucky and the country is swept from coast to coast about the awfulness of conditions there. If the Northern people would pay more attention to things at home, cleaning graft ridden cities and purifying politics, they wouldn't have time to think about their "awful" sister State Kentucky.

Imagine yourself a resident of old Kentucky endeavoring to raise her standard high, and then to see the whole country point its finger with scorn and say: "Oh! well that's only Kentucky." A change is bound to come. Public opinion must be reformed. And how? You can answer the question.

I. C. Sapp, who rescued Hon. W. C. Whitney from the barn fire two years ago, has been awarded a silver medal and $2100 by the Carnegie Hero Medal commission.

Fifty medals for heroism were awarded, twenty of which came to Ohio people. This token came as a surprise to Mr. Sapp, who thought that after the unfortunate death of Dr. Whitney from the effects of the fire, the incident was closed. A member of the Carnegie Hero fund interviewed Mr. Sapp sometime ago but the latter was not aware of his official capacity at the time.

O. U. 3DS 5 WESTERVILLE 0

On last Monday evening oc-cured the struggle for supremacy upon the gridiron of O. U.'s 3d team and the team representing Westerville. It proved an interesting battle. There was no scoring in the first half. After a few minutes of play in the second half, Otterbein had scored by means of bucks. Summers carrying the ball over Westerville's line.

It looked as if Westerville would certainly score when they took the ball to O. U.'s 5 yard line by means of end runs. However they were held here and Otterbein soon was out of danger.
Considering the fact that they have not had much practice the Westerville team put up a good article of ball.

Thompson last summer hearing a cry, "Help! I can't swim! I can't swim!"—"Well neither can I man, but I'm not making the noise about it you are."

Ketner—"I have a special favor to ask of you. Would you mind if I ate onions for dinner?"

Mrs. Ketner—"Goodness no! Forrest, we've been married six months and I've just been dying to have some myself"

Dr. Stoughton—"Well, what ails you now?"

Muskopf—"I have a pain in my side every time I raise my hand to my head."

Dr.—"Well don't raise your hand. Two dollars please."

"Fouts, is Rogers in love with your sister?"

Fouts—"I guess so. He just loaned me ten dollars."

Miss Weinland reading in French—"The two men kissed each other."

Prof. Rosselot—"That is different than what they do here. Men never kiss."

—But seeing a questionable look in Miss Weinland's face added—"each other."

Miss Gifford in Senior Bible—"Amos was a shepherd and raised sheep and sycamore trees."

Dr. Sherrick in Nineteen Cent. Poetry—"What kind of a foot in that stanza, Mr. Zuerner."

Mr. Zuerner—"An awful pest," (anapest.)

Hix—"I am living in another world."

Stouffer—"Which one?"

climes and repent in sack cloth and ashes.

Printers' ink cannot fully express our sentiments. Sherrick, perhaps, expresses them more forcefully in the words of the poet:

"The are neither man nor woman,

They are neither brutes nor human;

They are ghouls."

E. L. Weinland, '91, Solicitor.

After a hard and strenuous fight E. L. Weinland, of the class '91, was elected City Solicitor of Columbus, Tuesday. Mr. Weinland has been Assistant Solicitor and is well fitted to fill his new position.
