SANDERS, THE BRAINY OTTERBEIN QUARTERBACK, PROVES TO BE HERO OF HARD FIGHT.

Muskingum Offers Surprise In First Half, But Under "Tink's" Generalship in the Second Half Otterbein Makes Good Score.

By the score of 17 to 0, Otterbein forced Muskingum to return to New Concord Saturday night to tell their college friends there that they had not been able to score after they got the ball within a foot and a half of the goal line.

Otterbein did no scoring in the first half, although they were twice inside the 20-yard line. Two attempts at goal from field did not result in scoring. With the ball near the middle of the field Muskingum made an on-side kick which their R. E. got and carried to our 2-yard line before he was downed by Ditmer and Wineland. Their first attempt at our line netted them 13 1/2 yards. But the necessary foot and a half they were not able to make, losing on both the other bucks. Wineland punted out of danger.

In the second half after 10 minutes of play and the ball on Muskingum's 35-yard line, Sanders replaced Wineland at quarter and on the very first play by a forward pass to Hartman of 25 yards made it possible for a touchdown. Sanders failed to kick goal. This seemed to inspire Otterbein with new life and from now on Otterbein's scoring machine could not be stopped.

With the ball on their 20-yard line, Muskingum punted and Mente blocked a kick and fell on it behind the goal line for a touchdown. Sanders kicked goal.

By means of forward passes and bucks, O. U. got the ball on Muskingum's 10-yard line from which place Mattis made the third and last touchdown after a pretty buck. "Tink" kicked goal.

Wineland started the game at quarter and put up a good article of ball for Otterbein, although Otterbein did no scoring while he was in the game. His punting was good but it seemed like the team did not work quite as good and hard for him as it did for Sanders. In this, his first game that he has started for the first team, he need not feel disconsoled for he put up a classy article of football.

The forward passing of Sanders was superb. His one forward pass of 41 yards to Wagner was the longest ever made on O. U. field.

H. Warner at left half put up a fine game. His line plunges were the prettiest seen this year, and he was always hitting the line for 5 yards at least. His playing was in good form.

Mattis and Ditmer played their usual hard games.

The ends and line played their customary hard game and deserve a good share of the credit for the winning of the game.

Campbell and Stuart were easily Muskingum's stars.

Otterbein DOWNED
Muskingum Offers Surprise In First Half, But Under "Tink's" Generalship in the Second Half Otterbein Makes Good Score.

By the score of 15 to 3, the Mutes scored a victory against the Scrubs Saturday morning for the first time in 3 years.

Fumbles again played a prominent part in this game. With the ball on the 30 yd. line, Zuer- ner fumbled, the ball being grabbed up by a mute, who ran for a touchdown.

In the second half, with the ball well down in our territory, Pries made an on-side kick, a dummy getting the ball and running for a touchdown.

In the last minute of play Pries duplicated his feat at Mt. Vernon by kicking a field goal from the 40 yd. line.

Otterbein did not put up her usual game. The backs did not play together. The interference of Otterbein was very ragged and it seemed as if the team did not play their usual, hard game.

15 Mutes. Otterbein 2nds.

A poet, when day is done,
To contemplate the setting sun,
It's different with farmer men;
They'd rather see a setting hen.

The dear little girl then arose,
Bowed and recited it in this manner:

"Lettuce Denby up N. Dewing,
And Eggs 32c.

True FRIENDSHIP

Friends we may have, both kind and true,
But genuine friends are few;
In fact, like melons on the vine,
To find one good we must try nine.

A young American girl-a bride-was traveling in England,
And naturally she saw a great many souvenirs of great events.
One guide was a particularly pompous fellow. "This," he explained,
"is a cannon captured from the Americans at the battle of Bunker Hill."

A poet, when day is done,
To contemplate the setting sun,
It's different with farmer men;
They'd rather see a setting hen.

Dr. Sanders "Miss Daugherty,
You made up your mind that there is a perfect man?"
Miss Daugherty "There are none here."
(Mattis was in the class.)

Pres. Clippinger "Mr. Nunnenmaker may make it. Is he present?"
Nunnenmaker "Thus saith Jehovah."
Dr. Sherrick "Who was Matthew Arnold?"
Miss Stofer "Mr. Arnold."
Dr. Sanders "M. W. Balf..."
"No, that Mattis will have no trouble in finding the house hereafter."
Williams reading in Senior Bible "Peter(s) lovest thou me?"

IN FRENCH CLASS.

Mr. DeVaux "M. Madame quelle fleur preferes vous?"
Miss D. "Je prefere mons Devaux."

"Do you know why Wagner eats breakfast food?"
"Yes, because he likes to hold a spoon!"

The Rev. Mr. Kingman, of West Africa Speaks.

The men of Y. M. C. A. were treated to another fine address Thursday night. The speaker was Rev. E. Kingman. His topic was, "The Universal Spirit of Christ."

At the beginning of the service prayers were offered by E. C. Weaver and Elliott. Mr. Briner then gave a cornet solo. After the business part of the meeting was over President W. G. Clippinger introduced the speaker of the evening. The Rev. Kingman is the originator and promulgator of the movement in Africa.

We are daily showing a phase of missionary activity called the industrial work.

Some thoughts from the address were—"Christ's spirit is a universal one. His purpose is to save men everywhere. A man writing a book must make it interesting to all men for all ages, if it is to live, so with the Christian man, his influence should be universal and in harmony with the Savior's. This principle is also applicable to finance".

The speaker, in closing, pointed out some opportunities for industrial work in different parts of the world.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Ruth Detwiler Leader of Fine Session

"Wishing and Willing" was the subject of a very interesting discussion lead by Ruth Detwiler Thursday evening. Scripture lesson was read from Matthew 17, II John 12:13 and II Cor. 9:3.

The discussion brought out the following thoughts: God is willing to do anything for us. We should be as willing to do things for Him as we are to wish for things from Him. In college, girls often feel that they hate to do some things, but they should subject themselves to the conditions and willingly and cheerfully love and serve the Master. We should do nothing for the praise it will bring to us from our friends but for the glory it will give our Savior.

At the close of the service Miss May Powell sang, "Just One Touch."
There are many people and a surprisingly large number of students within the ranks of our own university, who have the mistaken idea that a college is a place where men are to obtain knowledge and wisdom, and to receive ambition and inspiration for the carrying out of some great purpose. Many come to college with this one thought of merely drinking in. But how contrary is this conception of development and discipline to the great ethical law of human birth, which was to be here on earth to impart culture and refinement to the wildest Indian warrior.

POOR MR. DRAYMAN

Lost His Way and Apollos Give No Entertainment.

A tardy drayman was the cause of a great disappointment to a very large audience, Monday night in the college chapel. The Apollo Quintette and Bell Ringers were to have given a concert. They were unable to get the 6:12 C. A. & C. train to stop at Westerville, neither could they secure a special car from the Electric Railway and Light company, so they hired a drayman to convey their bells to Westerville.

For some unknown reason the drayman lost his way and did not arrive here till eleven o'clock. When he asked where he was to take the bells and was told to the depot, he seemed surprised that the Apollos were not going to give their concert.

The Apollos will return on November 1 and Reno B. Welbourn who was to be here on that night will appear on November 16.

Dr. E. A. Jones Speaks

The members of James Price W. R. C. were the guests of honor at a closed camp fire given Tuesday evening by James Price post, G. A. R. The chief address was delivered by Dr. E. A. Jones, professor of history and economics. He spoke of his army experiences.

Our President

President Clippinger was in Madison, Pa., Sunday, and preached in the United Brethren church.

Tuesday he delivers an address before the Franklin County Sunday School Institute upon the subject of the Men's Movement.

Bible Study is the theme of an address to be delivered Saturday at Dayton before the Montgomery County Sunday School convention.

If one can judge by the comments made by the girls, you can infer that everyone is highly pleased with the new physical instructor for the ladies, Miss Blanche Cadot.

Now, she makes them work. There is not much loafing time for the young ladies on Wednesday and Friday afternoons between three and four and five.

To be sure they enjoy it. This is something we should have had long ago. It stands for one step further for Greater Otterbein.

And the Clapper Came Back.

It certainly was a glad sound Tuesday morning that greeted our ears, for the dear old college bell pealed forth its welcome call to meals and classes once more.

Locals.

When a girl begins to call a man by his first name, it generally indicates that she has designs on his last.

A man walking along the street was surprised to see an Irishman poking a dollar bill through a crack in the sidewalk, and asked why he was doing it.

"Why, ye see, sir, a minute ago I dropped a nickel through this crack, an' now Oi'm putting a dollar through so's to make it worth me while to pull up the sidewalk an' get the nickel.

FAVORITE SONGS.

Edna Hayes—"Take me out to the ball game."

Almira Butternore—"M-A-R-R-I-E-D."

Mary Kalter—"Can't you see I'm lonely," (Libby).

Bandine—"I wonder who's kissing her now?"

Marjorie Leezer—"I want someone to call me Dearie."

"Ignorance is bliss." It must be, judging from the happy expressions of the majority.

Bridenstein—"When there will be twenty five letters in the alphabet?"

Miss Nelson—"When U. and I are one" (A happy thought, Miss Nelson).
