All Consumed at the Big Varsity "O"
Banquet Saturday Evening—
Many Visitors Present.

About sixty members attended the annual banquet of the Varsity "O" association on Saturday night Dec. 4. The fellows began collecting at the association building about 7:30 and at 8:30 they were ordered to the gallery to witness the advent of four new members into the association. The committee on initiation was composed of Messrs. H. H. Warner, Rogers and Ditmer. The mention of this fact alone was enough to strike terror to the hearts of the four victims. We shall not mention all that transpired on the gymnasium floor but between the cold bath and the campfire lunch the boys felt they had received their dues.

THE FEAST

Immediately after the initiation the fellows went to the parlors of the association and seated themselves at the table. There seemed to be enough of roasted calf, oysters and cider for all. At least no one was heard to complain of his stomach not being full.

At 9:45 President Essig called the assembly to order and after some very fitting remarks introduced as the chief speaker, President W. G. Clippinger. He expressed his appreciation of the evening and spoke of his gratification concerning the success of our this year's team. He said to his mind the one who could play well a game of football would not fail in the game of

FOOTBALL NEWS.

Exendine Departs—Lambert Elected Football Captain.

On last Monday evening, amid the yells of "Whoop, Hip" and "Bier" Coach Exendine was given a rousing send off. No coach for years has been that more of by the general student body than he has. He expects to spend a few weeks at Carlisle, Pa., from which place he will go to Dickinson college for the study of law.

Next fall he returns to Otterbein, where he will turn out a team that will make the rest sit up and take notice.

Thursday, after chapel, H. P. Lambert, of Anderson, Ind., this year's captain, was unanimously reelected captain of the football team for 1910. He is a good man for the position and ought to prove of value to next year's team. It was mostly through his efforts that we had Coach Exendine this year.

A Retrospect.

With our football season at a close, we can look back with comfort at the good showing that we have made this year. We all note with pleasure that no team in Ohio, outside of Case and Oberlin, has played a better game with Ohio State than Otterbein. Our score with them was 14 to 0 and no college has held them to a closer score than we have. On Thanksgiving Miami was defeated by Cincinnati by 10 to 6 and we all remember that Cincy was taken care of by us by a 15 to 3 score. Kenyon and Wesleyan were held down by the closest of scores. We have made the best showing against these teams this year than any team representing Otterbein since back in the 90's. Wittenberg was supposed to have Ye scribes of ye bourg Westerville take exceeding great pleasure in hereby informing ye people, aged and youthful, of a great assemblage of merry folk which will come to pass ye eleventh of ye month of December, of ye year nineteen hundred nine. Ye promoters of ye afore-mentioned assemblage are authorized by ye faculty of ye great university to use, on ye occasion mentioned, ye gym floor of ye Association building. Ye time appointed is one to seven p. m.

SUCH GIFTS.

Ye purpose of ye gathering is to offer ye wise and ye unwise of ye bourg and ye neighboring parts an exceeding excellent chance to save tiring trips to ye great metropolis for ye purpose of purchasing gifts for ye Christmastide. Ye young ladies of ye Y. W. C. A. of afore-mentioned Otterbein, are kindly hearted. When ye worries of yuletide began to harass their unselfish minds, they thought not of their own many must-be-gotten gifts, but of those of ye other folk. They decided to offer ye townspeople an assortment of good things to eat and also pretty things for gifts.

AND CANDY, TOO.

There will be a special booth where fruits and jellies from ye best stock of ye best housekeepers of ye country will be sold. Another booth will furnish ye best of baked eatables. Ye lunch counter where will be hot drinks and tempting things for all, and ye candy department should be a scene of much bustle.

FOR THE AESTHETIC.

Ye artists of ye university will furnish ye people with ye most beautiful results of long labor—water color paintings, oil paintings, china. All will sell at reasonable prices. Ye seamstresses will sell a variety of embroidered things—collars, handkerchiefs, bags of all sorts, for all purposes, shirtwaists, underwear, aprons, and all other innumerable useful gifts.

A booth will be devoted to ye sale of children's things—dressed dolls, dolls' wardrobes, anything ye children might enjoy.

YE SHALL BUY.

Ye people of ye bourg are appealed to to make ye afore-mentioned bazaar a great success. Ye young ladies would be highly pleased to receive donations from ye folk in ye line of ye things mentioned. Ye money procured will be spent in sending delegates to ye summer conference.

We await ye all.

BASKETBALL OUTLOOK.

Interest Manifested Already in this Fast Game

For several weeks the candidates, striving for the different positions on the basketball team, have been hard at work. Only two men on last year's Varsity are back for the game, namely, Sanders, Captain and Forward, and C. Bailey, Guard.

The work this year will be under the supervision of Captain Sanders and Leslie Strahl of last year's class, who in years past was one of the star forwards for Otterbein. With the work under the direction of these two men, who know well the points of the game, we can all rest assured that Otterbein will produce a team in basketball whose record we need not feel ashamed of this year.

NEW MEN.

Otterbein possesses a number of men who will be able to fill the positions capably left vacant by the graduation of Clymer and Libecap, last year's captain. Lloyd will possibly be in school this next year. If such is the case we need not feel worried about our guards. Young, Cook, H. Warner, Essig, Cornet, and Hogg are men that have a good chance to make the Varsity and if not will make the Varsity men go to hold their positions.

Every man that appears on the floor will be given due consideration. Let not the spirit that was shown in our wonderful football season drop a degree in this basketball season. If Otterbein wants a good basketball team this year, she needs plenty of material with which to build it. Let all, who can, come out and try for the team, for no one knows what ability he might have in this line. Support the basketball team as loyally as you have the football, and the season will be as good in comparison as that of football.

THE SCHEDULE.

The manager, F. H. Menke, has been working faithfully the past months in arranging a good schedule. It is not wholly completed yet, but as soon as it is it will be published in the Review. This much is known that good talent will be brought to the home floor as four or five leading colleges of the state have scheduled games to play here, we will not be slighted in basketball games in the least here and each one should make it a point to attend these games.

CLASS GAMES.

Class games will begin a few weeks after the holidays and as usual should prove of interest to everyone and even benefit to the Varsity team.

Personals.

Calvin Edward McDannald, of Central College, and Miss Edith Hanawalt, teacher of music in Westerville public schools, and graduate of the music department of Otterbein University, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Thanksgiving day. They will reside at Central College. The bride has resigned her position to take effect at the close of this school term.

C. R. Knauss, who has been ill for several days was accompanied to his home at Bowling Green Saturday by R. E. Emmitt. He will not return before next term.

Bridenstein spent last week at his home in Canton, his sister's serious illness having prevented his returning sooner.

V. E. Fries spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Dayton.

"A Man's Faith"

The opening address of the prayer service in the Chamber of Commerce building, at Columbus, was by President Clippinger. He spoke on the subject, "A Man's Faith—What is Essential?" His address was greatly appreciated.

Entered a second-class matter October 18 1909, at the postoffice at Westerville, Ohio under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The Ohio State Journal had an editorial in an issue last week that college men can read with profit. The article was headed "Two Courses in College" and spoke apropos on the address of President Butler of Columbia in which he says there are two classes of students in college—those who enter with the right spirit and those who do not. Some fellows, he claims, go to college without a definite purpose, merely for the association in school and afterwards.

We are facing a crisis in the educational world; the universities are becoming so large that soon the drones will be separated from the workers—and then what will happen? Nobody wants to be called a drone, and hence it will be either work or get out.

A Foreword

Down brakes! Exams coming—now this may be little previous to speak about examinations at the end of the term but inasmuch as a great number of students seemingly forget the exams until twenty-four hours before we give a gentle word of warning.

Now if one must cram—start now—like doctor's medicine, it take but a little each time and the result is satisfaction. If one would take all the medicine at one dose, a funeral would result. Tears and Christmas don't agree at all—so beware if one must cram, cram easy, systematically concentratively.

25 Greatest Writers.

Answering an invitation given by the Gaulois, a French newspaper, 11,247 readers chose the following as the twenty-five great writers of the world:

Victor Hugo, Shakespeare, Racine, Corneille, Virgil, Moliere, Homer, Dante, Goethe, Bossuet, La Fontaine, Lamartine, Chateaubriand, Voltaire, Cicero, Pascal, Musset, Balzac, Sophocles, Horace, Schiller, Plato, Cervantes, J. J. Rousseau and Milton. Votes were given for 432 other authors.

It will be noticed that the list contains the name of no living writer, and that 14 of the 25 are French, three Latin, two Greek, two English, two German, one Italian and one Spanish.

DAYTON UNITED BRETHREN

Plan to Hold a Get-Together Banquet December 16.

The committee of the United Brethren Ministerial Association has decided to arrange for a grand banquet of United Brethren men of Dayton and vicinity, with a view to promoting fuller acquaintanceship and closer touch of its many churches in Christian work. It will be known as the "Get Together" U. B. Men's banquet, and will occur at one of the city hotels on December 16.

It is the purpose to rally the men of the several official boards, brotherhoods, Bible classes, etc., of the churches in and about Dayton to get acquainted and plan for a great forward movement.

On the committee are P. M. Camp, W. L. Bunger, C. J. Kephart, H. H. Fout and J. D. Niswander.

CUSTER INVENTOR.

Ingenuous Senior Aids Science by New Invention.

"Invention in Aerial Navigation," was the subject of L. Luzerne Custer, '10, at a meeting of the International Aeroplane club at Dayton, Wednesday, December 1.

Mr. Custer spoke at length and explained his new invention for ascertaining the movements of a balloon above the earth.

Clarence Metters, of Public Opinion, Speaks.

A large crowd was in attendance at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening to hear Mr. Clarence Metters, the editor of Public Opinion give an address on the subject, "Incidents from a Reporter's Note Book."

The meeting was opened with song and prayer by Messrs. Brooks, Redd and Yates. The address which followed was a thoroughly practical one.

The speaker first spoke of the excellency of the Y. M. C. A. emphasizing its adaptability to any place of need. He paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Green once city editor of the Columbus Dispatch, showing how much good a christian man can do on a newspaper. Newspapers want safe, reliable men, men who do not drink. He also spoke of how the liquor habit will ruin a reporter. Reporters know the skeletons of a good many lives and find evil in some whom people think are all right. The only good religion is the one that is good for seven days each week.

Just preceeding the address the address the male quartet sang "Come Lean on Me."

Y. W. C. A.

Grace Coblentz Speaks on "My Possible Self."

Miss Grace Coblentz was leader of the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening taking as a subject "My Possible Self." She read as a scripture lesson Acts 21. After prayer a quartet consisting of Pearle Stringer, Bessie Daugherty, Edna Hayes and Ethel Kephart sang "Through All Eternity."

Many interesting thoughts were brought out, among which are the following: Paul is a good example to take as an ideal life. He was a man consecrated and his work was thorough. As Paul was transformed into a mighty power for good through the grace of God so also may we be transformed. He was sent through a school of suffering; his parents had turned against him; he had nowhere to go, but he had Christ as his constant companion.

We may best attain our possible selves by finding out what God's will is concerning us and then do it.

NEW PICTURES

Dr. Scott's Recitation Room Beautified by Fine Collection.

Dr. Scott has had placed upon the walls of his recitation room a collection of pictures which he purchased while in Europe. There are two hundred and twenty-four of these pictures forty-five of which relate to Palestine and Biblical subjects, the remainder relate to Greece and Italy. They consist of photographs of statuary and of a few famous paintings.

The pictures are nine by twelve inches and were collected at an expense of $75. They have been put on the wall for the benefit of the students at Dr. Scott's expense.

Dr. Scott thought the departments of classical and modern language and history ought to receive attention from the board of trustees as well as the different scientific departments.

These subjects can be made much more interesting if illustrated by photographs, lantern slides, etc., and in fact a college can hardly be said to be up to date in the departments where facilities of this kind are lacking.

Ringers Here.

Bessie—"Oh Mattis and I have parted forever."

Mrs. Daugherty—"In that case he won't be around for a couple of nights."

Brooks—"Hix, got your calcium out?"

Surrell, in amazement—"Is Hix taking calcium?"

Hix—"David was a sweet palmerist of Israel."

Muthersbaugh—"Just wait till I get Sorensen; it will be back to Denmark for him."

Two Irishmen were out hunting with one gun between them. The man with the gun saw a bird in a tree and took careful aim of it.

"For the love of Heaven, Mike," shouted the other hunter, "don't shoot, the gun ain't loaded." "I've got to," yelled Mike, "the bird won't wait."

Baker seeing a man staggering on the street—"I am inclined to think that fellow is somewhat bibulous."

Foltz—"Bibulous! I'll bet that fellow hasn't seen a Bible for twenty years."

Croghan at Ellis club where the fellows were discussing Darnell's leap—"That's nothing. Thompson, the meat man, dropped one hundred feet and was unhurt."

Club—"How was that?"

Croghan—"Oh he dropped one hundred pig feet."

Little girl to Hogg—"What is your name?"

Hogg—"Mr. Hogg."

Little girl—"Ah quit your fooling and tell me. If it is, I will call you piggie."

Yabe—"Prof. is dry. hydro-sulphuric acid wet?"
