CPB Sponsors Halloween Happening

The Campus Programming Board is sponsoring a "Halloween Happening!!" October 31, upstairs in the Campus Center cafeteria during the supper hour. The scheduled events will include a costume contest, a pie-eating contest, judging of pumpkins, and dunking of apples.

To compete in the costume contest, you will have to sign in at the Campus Center and get a number which you will wear. You must then remain in the Campus Center until 6:00 p.m. when a winner will be announced. You and your friends can get together and try for a prize. There will be cash-prizes of $5.00 for the funniest and $5.00 for the most creative.

In order to participate in the pie-eating contest, it is necessary to sign up beforehand to determine the number of people interested. Only one kind of pie will be served. Students are encouraged to sponsor their favorite contestant. There will be a $1.00 entrance fee, and cash-prizes of $5.00 to $10.00 will be offered.

The pumpkin judging is scheduled for 6:00 p.m. The three major categories include the biggest, the best carved, and the oddest shaped pumpkin. The judges will be Mr. Dickey and members of the Off-Campus Programming committee. A $3.00 gift certificate from Brownie's Supermarket will be presented as first prize.

The apple-bobbing contest will be held at the same time in the Campus Center. An entrance fee of 5 cents will be charged. However, the apples will contain various denominations of change ranging from 25 cents to a penny.

Everyone is invited to participate in these activities. It can be fun if you let it be. The proceeds raised by this "Halloween Happening" will go toward Campus Sharing Days.

Brodie Continues at Otterbein

When it first opened, "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie," presented by the Otterbein College Theatre this week through Saturday, was dubbed a moral comedy.

The movement of the play, subtle and delicately balanced, is to gradually expose a seemingly delightful and attractive character the Scottish Schoolteacher, Jean Brodie, and to reveal the ambiguities, weaknesses and mortal dangers, for herself, for her girls, and for the spirit that is Miss Brodie's romantic heart.

Miss Brodie instructs her girls, not in the grubby utilitarian skills, but in the stirrings of her own Bronte-ish spirit, filling them full of art, music and poetry, spiced with accounts of her own love affairs.

Everyone should recognize Miss Brodie, interpreted at Otterbein by highly skilled director Dr. Charles W. Dodrill, Bec Holford, an Otterbein senior, will be playing the part of Jean Brodie in the Otterbein College theatre production of "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie." The play opened Wednesday night and will play this evening at 8:15 p.m. and Saturday evening at 8:15 p.m.

Show times are Wed. (Oct. 18) 7:30 p.m., and Thurs., Fri., and Sat. at 8:15 p.m.

EDITORIAL

Vote!

This November seventh, eleven million new voters will have a chance to voice their opinion in the destiny of their country for the next four years.

The key word in the above sentence is "interested." The Tan and Cardinal would hope that each and every student on the Otterbein campus takes an interest in this election year.

This November seventh, go to the polls and vote! Eleven million people can scream awfully loud.

Apologies

The Tan and Cardinal sincerely apologizes for the mix up on the back page last week that resulted in the pictures of Patty Shahan and Fran Clemens being switched.

Once again, our sincere apologies to both Miss Shahan and Miss Clemens and to the Otterbein community for the error.

Adam's Rib Clarified

To the Editor: In response to R. (Steven) Graves' article "Adam's Rib: A Bone to Pick" I desire to clarify some aspects of the article from a woman's point of view.

Granted, Mr. Graves concurs that women are entitled to equal job opportunities, and that women must cease to be regarded as mere sex objects; but the assumption presented at the end of the article seems to indicate that he feels a perfect relationship "transcends" the pettiness of women's liberation.

The necessity for definition of woman brings me to the second criticism of Mr. Graves' article, which is the problem of definition of women in contrast to men. Mr. Graves feels that woman can be best understood or defined by contrasting her to man.

alone do not completely define. Furthermore, in a logical sense it is incorrect to define a person or term with a negative definition when an affirmative definition is possible.

Personally, I have formulated no definition of woman, but can only stress that woman must formulate her own definition. John Stuart Mills realizes the inadequacy of the male definition of a female when he stated, "the knowledge men can acquire of women, even as they have been and are, without reference to what they might be, is wretchedly imperfect and superficial, and will be always so until women themselves have told us all they have to tell."

Definitions are a part of our language, extremely influenced by convention and traditional thought, which is hindering to men and women alike. Until men and women both can free themselves from their social images they will be restricted to definitions such as:

MAN—A person with qualities conventionally regarded as manly, such as strength, courage, etc.

WOMAN — A person with qualities conventionally regarded as feminine, such as weakness, timidity.

A liberation movement is freedom of definition for men and women alike, therefore establishing a mature society of free, equal, and unique individuals.

Sincerely, Becky Fisher

Dem Challenge

To the Editor, In an age when war, unemployment insufficient housing, poverty, pollution, agricultural degradation, and limited care for the elderly are the problems eroding away at America's very foundation; people must act. We, the Young Democrats of Otterbein College, accept the challenge ahead.

Sincerely, Keith A. Shoemaker, Chairman, Young Democrats

Dem Response

To the Editor: Just a brief response to the criticism that I received for stating the facts on the Vietnam War. My source of information is a detailed brochure put out by the non-partisan INDOCHINA PEACE CAMPAIGN entitled "6 Million Victims: The Human Cost of the Indochina War Under President Nixon."

If anyone wishes to check this source, feel free to stop into our office and pick up a copy. The INDOCHINA PEACE CAMPAIGN is doing an excellent job in bringing the reality of this war to all Americans.

My letter never stated that Mr. Nixon started the Vietnam War. President Nixon pledged himself to peace in 1968 (Remember Oct. 9), but our point is that he has actually escalated the war through massive bombing. President Nixon is directly responsible for the greatest aerial bombardment the world has ever seen... directly responsible for he has ordered it.

Well, I have documented my figures. Facts do not lie. My last letter may have bias, but not shallow or NON-FACTUAL. My letter was biased, but only in the fact that I agree with Senator McGovern's plans and capabilities to end this terrible war.

Let me once again reiterate one of the main goals of the Young Democrats: This is to make the otterbein students more aware and more informed on the issues. So the students can see the facts and decide for themselves. There are many other issues which will decide this election in addition to the Vietnam War; for this reason the Young Dems have put out a 14 page booklet on the positions of both candidates on the issues.

Sincerely, Mike Wasylik

CONGRATULATIONS Shelley Vici Nancy

"A LITERARY MASTERPIECE --- I'VE NEVER IN MY LIFE SEEN A TEST WITH SO MANY AMBIGUOUS QUESTIONS."

BREAKING WIND

These Things Also

by R. Steven Graves

"Marvelous!" burped Gerald, thumbing through a fresh paperback. "The tickets are in row seven, huh? Should be good if the audience appreciates them." The last french fry was tossed between his teeth as he inspected his purchases, and his roommate excused himself before Gerald could thank him for picking up his tickets. His table, wedged in a corner between a dessert rack and a parchment wall, seemed secluded from the rest of the restaurant which pulsed with patrons. Gerald had stopped for lunch there after browsing in a scholarly book store just off the main street of the small college town. He carried a copy of Hesse or Mailer or perhaps Sartre with him as a rule, although he seldom would read an entire text.

His half full cup of coffee jarred when he scraped the table with his chair. He paid the check and strolled out the front door, finding the day still crisp and blue and the sidewalk well peopled. The midday sun blazed brightly, and his long hair stirred in the breeze like a thick dry bush. He noted the clock in the jeweler's and remembered that his class met in fifteen minutes. The bulk of this professor's notions were undoubtedly half-baked, thought Gerald to himself. His own were at least palatable.

Shiela walked toward him as he approached the Commons, graceful and immaculate even in her bleached levis and crimson shawl. Her hair, smooth and scattered like stems of wheat, flowed about her in the wind. Like the silver edge of a sickle, her eyes could slice through grain or chaff: Gerald was fascinated by her curious half smile which she often aimed at him. He couldn't help but wonder what thoughts murmured behind it.

"We've got tickets to the concert next week," he blurted, "Dave got them for me this morning." Gerald squinted at the Humanities building, grinned to himself, and asked Sheila about her day.

"Have you talked with Slash yet?" she asked.

"He wasn't in this morning, not early anyway. But advisors aren't around when you need them, you know."

"Some are around whether you need them or not," she said, her unhurried glance chopping at Gerald like a well honed blade.

"If I didn't give a damn about you," he offered, knowing what she meant, "I wouldn't try to convince you that you're more talented than..."

It's so hot in here.
Did you read the assignment?
What was it about? You're kidding!

I'm bored.
Want to go downtown after class? Neither do I, but what is there to buy anyway?

How do you like her shoes? Pretty nifty, eh? Right on!

Wonder where Steve is. I don't think I like him any more. I just want him for his body!!!

Why doesn't she shut up?
It's so hot in here.

I think I'm going to faint. I think I'm going to scream. Maybe I should jump out the window?

The significance of the story is the way it relates to the theme as stated on page 237.

What is He talking about? Oh, God, there she goes again. Suppress that doormouse!!!

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z. Do you like the way I make my r's?

Look at the back of his neck! Oooh. Beat those horns back in! I'd like to ---

"What, sir? Do I want to comment? Uh... Well, I think the relevance of this story, uh... is, you know, that the people just do their own things, uh, and, and, you know, it's nice, but they never... I mean, it just seems like, you know, they just live because they aren't dead yet, you know?"

Faked that pretty well, didn't I?

How do you like my nail polish?

Are you going to the game? What do you mean, what game???

Do you have a date for Homecoming? I think I'm going out with my tooth brush. Why not? It has a nice flavor!

Him? He's cute, but he's awfully dumb. But he's better company than a tooth brush!

Look! He isn't! He is! Oh, God, he's going to talk! He's putting his hand up! Listen!!!

He's dumb. He's cute, but he's dumb. I know, I know, with a face like that, what do you want?

My feet are asleep. Are we going to have any homework?

It's so hot in here.

MANAGEMENT AIDS SCHOOL

(I.P.)—To help it head off deficits in the immediate years ahead, Tufts University has received a grant of $55,000 from the Permanent Charity Fund of Boston for creation of a new Internal Management Group.

The task of the Group will be to increase the efficiency of all University operations. The grant and the assembly of the new team coincide with Tufts President Burton C. Hallowell's determined search for new courses of action at the University.

To that end he formed in December 1971 a steering committee to study the major academic and fiscal questions confronting Tufts and to report to him by December 1972. "Whatever the specific character of the recommendations made to me by this committee," says Dr. Hallowell, "implementation will be carried out by the Internal Management Group.

"The Group will be comprised of a staff of persons who are familiar with the academic world, who can analyze ways of making better use of our facilities." Dr. Hallowell is confident that the Group will be, in effect, self-supporting after the first two years.

Tufts is also interested in making an impact on Boston area colleges. The University will make available to them information on the organization of the Group, the tasks it will be undertaking, and the solutions it realizes.

That is the challenge to the Internal Management Group, which begins work immediately. It will be charged with responsibilities for "identifying trouble spots and developing more effective ways of managing Tufts while adhering to the true educational purposes for which the University exists," Dr. Hallowell added.

Winner of the Downbeat International Critics' Poll and the Playboy Jazz and Pop Poll, guitarist Charlie Byrd will be appearing on Otterbein's campus this Saturday night. He will be playing in the Campus Center lounge from 9 p.m. to 11 p.m. Admission is free.

Students Plan Curriculum at Ohio Dominican

(I.P.)—Honors students at Ohio Dominican College will have the opportunity to participate in a Student-Planned Curricula within the Honors Program, as a pilot project.

Sister Isabel Charles, O.P., vice president and academic dean at Ohio Dominican, announced that the program is an experiment in the direction of more flexible curriculum planning, giving the participating student major responsibility for developing a planned and integrated course of studies.

Dr. Harold Taylor, former president of Sarah Lawrence

College, and education innovator, who spoke before students and faculty during last Fall's Convocation, emphasized the relevance of such innovative procedures in broadening the scope of a liberal arts education.

"Dr. Taylor's remarks served as a catalyst to both faculty and student thinking. Working through the Academic Affairs Committee at the College, as well as the Student-Faculty Honors Committee, students voiced desires for such a program of individualized study," Sister Isabel continued.

She said that the curricula may or may not be within the present college guidelines with regard to general requirements and departmental majors.

The new program, according to Sister Isabel, has built-in quality controls:

- 1.) The faculty advisor, named by the student to work with him throughout the remainder of his college experience, will approve the student's program only if he considers it of sufficient quality to qualify as Honors work;
- 2.) The College's Honors Sub-Committee on Student-Planned Curricula must examine the student's curriculum proposal when it is initially submitted to them for approval; and

- 3.) The student's semester-long Senior Research Project, which is an integral part of the Honors Program, must be accepted by and defended before the full Honors Committee.

Sister Isabel explained: "Success of the program will depend on the personal commitment of each student and the continuing interest, enthusiasm and encouragement of his faculty advisor.

"The student-devised curriculum within the Honors Program will be developed within the context of the liberal arts commitment and will maintain the general goals of a liberal education," Sister Isabel stressed.

The plan stipulates that a faculty advisor will continuously work with each participating student in helping the student devise a strong curriculum, familiarizing the student with the possibilities open to him, and pointing out to the student any consequences which may result from the choice of a course of studies.

O.C. SUMMER BAND TOUR SCHED

All Otterbein alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends are eligible to travel with the concert band during the second Otterbein College summer band tour scheduled for the first three weeks of August, 1973.

The tour itinerary, as it now stands is for a two day music rehearsal and tour orientation on campus, a flight out of Columbus, three days of group sightseeing of London and the countryside and a one week series of concerts and theatre attendance. Nine days of independent travel around the British Isles and Europe is also planned, ending with a flight from London to Columbus.

If one wished to merely take advantage of the flight, a round-trip fare of less than $200.00 is expected. The new C.A.B. rulings make it possible for everyone to travel with the Otterbein tour without any official association with the college. In compliance with this ruling, a flight deposit must be made three months in advance.

The first tour, held in 1971, consisted of 25% group sightseeing, 25% performing and 50% free time. Based in London, independent travel took band members to Wales, Paris, Scotland and Vienna. In addition everyone attended operas, musicals, plays and concerts.

Interested persons may contact Mr. Gary R. Tirey, Director of Bands, Otterbein, for further information.

Frats Prepare for Homecoming

by Mark Bixler

Fall Homecoming activities and preparations have been keeping fraternities active this past week. Of primary interest is the float building contest which carries a $50 first prize incentive. Sphinx won the contest last year, ending a long domination by Kings in the event.

All of the fraternities will have open houses on Saturday for alumni and friends. Included will be luncheons and alumni meetings at noon.

In special events, Club will induct two members of its alumni into their hall of fame at the Alumni meeting. The inductees are Dr. Harold F. Augspurger, who is presently an Otterbein College Trustee, and Marion Chase, former Dean of Students at Otterbein.

In other news, Kings will hold a 25th anniversary banquet after the game at Williams Grill.

Parade Floats Readied

by Gayle Bixler

With Homecoming this Saturday the sororities are channeling all of their time and effort into their floats for the annual float competition. Judging will take place prior to the Homecoming Parade in which the floats will appear. This year's central theme is "Remember When" and the winner will be announced at half-time during the Otterbein - Muskingum game.

Theta Nu will be selling Homecoming mums Saturday morning in front of the Campus Center. This will be the last chance to purchase one and the price will be $1.50. The Greenwich girls will also be manning a General Store to be located in front of the Campus Center. They will be selling handcraft items made by the girls themselves.

Rho Kappa Delta will be celebrating the 50th Anniversary of its existence at Otterbein this weekend. Their float is being constructed in honor of their charter members.

AFROTC Briefing Open To The Public

On Tuesday - 24 October an Air Force professional briefing team, from the Air Force Communications Service, will be on campus. At 4 p.m., in the Lambert Hall auditorium. They will present a briefing on communications and how they affect our world affairs today. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

Now that days are growing shorter, there are fewer daylight driving hours. Ohio Highway Safety Director Pete O'Grady says you should allow yourself more time on the road - and not drive faster to reach your destination before dark. Don't forget: The state law says headlights must be turned on half an hour after sunset.

No Free Coffee

(CPS)—The staff at Moraine Valley Community College will no longer be provided with free coffee because, according to Wayne Crawford, vice president of business services, they are drinking $20,000 worth of coffee a year.

According to coffee catering services, that means about 1.2 million cups (with cream and sugar) are guzzled by the small college staff each year.

Does that sound right?

Cross Country Now 3-1

by Charlie Ernst

In cross-country action last Saturday, the Cardinal Cross-country team beat Capital by a score of 18 to 43. The meet was run at Bridge View Golf Course in Columbus, and proved to be the Cardinal's best scoring of the season, as they took 1, 2, 3, 5, and 7. With Bob Long winning the meet in a time of 27:51, Jack Lintz was close behind with 27:56. Allen Brown finished 3rd in the meet for his best performance of the season. His time was 28:02. Charlie Ernst was the fourth Cardinal runner and Dave Brown rounded out the Otterbein scoring finishing 7th in the meet. In cross-country, a score of 15 is a shut-out, and this is the closest the Cardinals have come to the perfect score. This meet left the team with a record of 3-0 going into the Tuesday meet with Denison.

Other cross-country action last week found the team handing Wittenberg University a 23-32 loss on the home course at Sharon Woods. This meet was held on Saturday, October 7th, but was not reported in the Tan and Cardinal earlier. Bob Long was the meet winner with a time of 28:10. Charlie Ernst was the second Otterbein runner finishing 3rd. Jack Lintz was 4th, Allen Brown was 6th and Dave Brown was 9th. This dual meet win avenged an earlier loss handed to the Cardinals by the Wittenberg team at the Conference Relays. At this point the team was 2-0. This meet was followed by the strong showing at Capital.

Visiting Denison's Big Red gave the Otterbein cross-country team its first defeat of the season Tuesday by a score of 21-34. The meet was the Cardinal's last home meet of the season. Denison took the first three places to assure themselves of the win. Denison's Jim Alexander set a course record covering the five miles in 25:49. Two of his teammates tied at the second and third positions with times of 26:43 Bob Long and Jack Lintz tied in the fourth and fifth positions with a time of 27:32. Charlie Ernst was 6th with 27:54.

Along with the top three places, Denison also took 7th and 8th. The other Otterbein scorers were Allen Brown with 28:44 and Dave Brown with 29:25. Although this was the first loss of the season, the Cardinals have seen much improvement during the season. All the work points toward the conference meet held at Ohio Wesleyan University on Nov. 4th this year.

The team has a week and a half of rest now before their next meet on October 28th away at Marietta. With two meets left, the team is looking forward to posting two more wins before the conference.

To meet the cross-country team, take a look at the poster in one of the bookstore windows in the front of the campus center.

They Got Their Man

Cards Drop Fifth Season Game

by Brett Morehead

The Otterbein Fighting Cardinals dropped game number 5 last week as they were mauled by the Marietta Pioneers 42-14. It was the Otters' eighth straight loss over two seasons. Marietta had a large homecoming crowd on hand to view their team's snarling of six interceptions and recovering of 2 Otterbein fumbles. Otterbein's Ron Gorman fumbled the opening kickoff which Marietta recovered on the Otterbein 30. Four plays later, quarterback Steve Morris put the Pioneers on the board with a four yard sweep around the left end with 13:36 remaining in the first quarter.

It was 14-0 before Otterbein's signal caller Jim Bontadelli hit senior running back Doug Thomson from nine yards out that provided the Otters with their first score of the afternoon. Marietta came right back to make the score at halftime 21-7.

Marietta opened the third period with a 16 yard scoring pass from Morris to wide receiver Gary Winkler. That touchdown lit a spark in the Otter offense as Bontadelli promptly fired a 42-yard pass to the quick Gorman for the Cardinals' last score of the day. Rich Miller converted on both of Otterbein's extra points. Marietta added two touchdowns in the final quarter to make the score 42-14.

The Otterbein backs gained 77 yards on the ground and 19 total first downs. Marietta was 13 for 22 for 209 yards and four touchdowns. The Pioneers had 155 yards on the ground and 16 first downs.

Otterbein hosts Muskingum this Saturday, October 21, for fall homecoming. Muskingum has only won one game against Findlay College (34-14) this past weekend.

Don't Throw Away Your Chance To Vote

Most politicians would be happier if you didn't vote. Disappoint them! Don't let complex ABSENTEE voting procedures keep you from voting. Here's how to do it:

If your voting address is not your school address, an absentee ballot form has to be requested from your home County Board of Elections or your County or Town Clerk. In order to vote for President, your application must be received by October 31. The deadline is earlier for local elections in many states.

5 STEPS

1. Tear out the form below and fill it out.
2. Have the form notarized. Ask school officials for help with notarization.
3. Mail this form to your county or town Clerk or your County Board of Elections.
4. When you receive the absentee ballot application and/or the ballot itself, fill them out immediately. Have them notarized.

5. Mail them immediately to the office that sent them.

IF YOU ARE REGISTERED TO VOTE AT YOUR SCHOOL ADDRESS, GO TO YOUR ASSIGNED POLLING PLACE ON NOVEMBER 7, AND VOTE!

If you need assistance, contact your local McGovern, Nixon or other campaign headquarters or the Student National Education Association, 1201 16th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Tel: 202-833-5527.
