There it stands—but for how long?

WOBN dreads double lightning

Crossing their fingers that lightning doesn't literally strike twice, the staff of WOBN, 91.5 fm are pleased to announce that the station will begin broadcasting this Saturday September 25 at 7 p.m. Regular programming will begin Monday September 27 at 7 a.m.

During a bad thunderstorm this summer, the Otterbein College radio station's tower, located on top of Cowan Hall, was struck by lightning causing damage to both the antenna and the tower. The antenna was sent to Indiana for repairs and is now in good operating order.

Lightning was not the only problem that plagued the 10 watt station this summer. With the restructuring of the phone system, WOBN phone lines from the stadium and Rike Center direct to the Cowan Hall studios were cut. These are depended on for broadcasting all sports events.

Fortunately, Ohio Bell has now reconnected these lines so the best in Otterbein sports action will be available to the campus and Westerville community once again.

The sports staff of WOBN will broadcast all home and away football games this year beginning this Saturday with the Adrian game at 7:00 p.m. Stay in tune to 91.5 f.m. for the best in sports, music and Otterbein information.

Contests are sponsored

As an outlet for the literary works of college and university students, International Publications is sponsoring contests for creative writing.

Areas of the contest are the National College Poetry Contest and the Collegiate Creative Writing Contest. Short stories, humorous essays and other short pieces between 250 and 1000 words are accepted for the Creative Writing Contest. Original, unpublished works of poetry up to fourteen lines may be submitted for the poetry contest.

Deadlines for the Poetry and Creative Writing Contests are October 25 and November 5.

Further information about entry and rules is available from the Tan and Cardinal office.

Competition for overseas study closes

The 1977-78 competition for grants for graduate study abroad offered under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright-Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors will close shortly (Nov. 1). Only a few more weeks remain in which qualified graduate and undergraduate students may apply for one of the 550 awards which are available in 54 countries.

Most of the grants offered provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for one academic year; a few provide international travel only or a stipend intended as a partial grant-in-aid.

Candidates must be U.S. citizens at the time of application, hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent by the beginning date of the grant, "14

Herman plays to sellout crowd in Cowan

by Sara Ullman

In the earliest of this year's Artist Series events, Woody Herman and his "Thundering Herd" played to a sold out crowd of college and community members.

Despite the concert's early timing, Woody Herman drew 270 Otterbein students. This figure appears relatively small when compared with the total student population. However, the number is actually up from the number at Artist Series events last year. Terry Waldo's "rug concert" drew 144, Preservation Hall Jazz - 182, and the Utah Repertory Dance - 189.

Woody Herman's concert proved to be a memorable one for those who attended. The Artist Series events that are yet to come will be of the same quality. To keep the standard of the events high, tickets are sold to the community. Season ticket holders provide revenue to help pay the costs for the Artist Series events. The rest of the money comes partially from the budget of the Cultural Affairs Committee, which is in turn derived from the students. This all adds up to free tickets for Otterbein students with the presentation of their I.D. cards.

This season has a variety of good events that include, Tony Randall, the Hartford Ballet and National Theatre of the Deaf.

Just a further note on the Woody Herman concert... for those of you who missed it or who want to hear more, Woody Herman will celebrate his 40th year as a band leader the first week in November. His 40 years of music will be presented in a ninety minute special on public television the first week in November.

Third degree Burns Gotta start now

It's the third week and about time I mentioned alcohol in my column. As you may or may not know alcohol is a dying issue on campus.

Most students are content to simply breaking the regulation instead of attempting to change it—a rather lazy attitude as far as I'm concerned.

This attitude stems from the beating an alcohol proposal took two summers past. Anticipation ran high and the vote for alcohol ran low.

Last year a proposal was shot down in campus committees and never even reached its ultimate doom with the Board of Trustees.

The Board is not unreasonable. They'll listen to the students. They voted down that bill as they thought it would be in the best interest of the college. If we don't get another proposal together the matter of alcohol won't even be discussed.

So the time for action is now. There are problems in writing a proposal and concerned students should get together and start now on one so if a committee wants to nitpick it won't be too late to make adjustments.

Last year Jim Black was one of the initiators of the abandoned bill, this year Bob Talpas has expressed an interest in doing the same.

If you're concerned—see these guys, for anything to happen you gotta start now!

Weekend returns are marred

Coming back from a weekend at home the typical 'Beiner gets an aesthetic catharsis as they approach the sprawling campus of Otterbein College.

Wondering how they could ever divorce themselves from such a compelling place, (even for such short a time as three days) they begin to reacquaint themselves to their surroundings.

Upon entering the dorm

they exchange weekend experience - stories with their fellow dormates and settle down into the peaceful coexistence that is: Otterbein College.

Then comes the crash — the Sunday night dinner line.

Only one dinner line is open all weekend because there are far fewer students to accommodate than during the week. But Sunday evening everyone is back and still the campus center cafeteria affords just one line.

The result is week after week disastrous. Lines back up all the way to the front door and there seems to be no ending sight.

Why doesn't someone recognize this situation and take steps to avert it? Surely the people running the lines realize the congestive problem.

C'mon Bernie, Open another dinner line Sunday night and make our post-weekend return to the 'Bein a pleasant experience.

GET IN THE BACK OF THE LINE, FELLOW!

WHERE IS IT?

THE CORNER OF STATE AND MAIN, SONNY.

Readers Sound-off

No big change

Dear Editor,

I was quite disturbed by your editorial appearing the 9/17/76 edition of the Tan and Cardinal.

The implication of the article, if I read it correctly, is that previous editors have "almost criminally" stuffed their singular ideas down the throats of their unwilling readers.

You, on the other hand, will obligingly stuff the ideas of the three or four members of the Editorial Board down the throats of the readers. But, this time the readers will have a chance to answer by writing letters to the paper.

I suggest you get the facts straight before your burn your predecessors. There has been an Editorial Board for the paper as long as I can remember. In fact, it is required by the constitution of The Publications Board, the representative publishers of the T & C.

This Editorial Board has frequently been consulted on campus, political, and other volatile issues.

Yet, when it comes down to print, the editor alone must choose what will or will not be said, and who will do the speaking. This is the responsibility, whether criminal or not, of the Editor - In - Chief.

As for letters to the editor, this is a long standing tradition of The T & C and newspapers throughout the world.

I appreciate your attempt to make editorials the position of the paper rather than the position of the editor, but please do not imply that this is a dramatic change from the past. If anything, it is a rhetorical

Aloneness

Every man is alone in this life and this is a reality that has to be learned quite early This endless journey is always within and it is most fruitful when the sowing is done in the infinite abode. Thus there is need for dedication and responsibility. I want freedom, said the dreamer and the waters from the river answered: Love the essence and the content as well but always be responsible.

Only one thought brings peace to my restless mind and that is to be of service to others but the paradox is that I can not serve unless I have loved the self within me. It is in this transmutation that I realize my metaphysical solicitude then I pray to the Gods in the Olimpo that this burden may be alleviated and made sublime by the power of infinite Love.

It is in the eyes that I look at my brother It is in the eyes that I recognize the divine that I look for so I search into her eyes of sorrow so I search into her eyes of joy yet at the end of the day I come back to my home and establish a dialogue within my own heart, then I search and look into my eyes with my own eyes realizing that I am alone in my journey yet I would not live, love and create if she and he and you were alive. Dreams and evanescent illusions arise when I think I have found someone to lean upon but as the summer ends so my dream and again I find myself alone, alone alone with Christ. Om

The Gospel for Christians

by C.W. Cady

There is no higher teaching for the Christian than that of the gospel. From start to finish the Bible deals primarily with the theme of God giving salvation to sinful man.

This gospel finds its expression ultimately in the cross. Jesus' sacrifice is the means whereby we have salvation. Yet the cross offers more than salvation. It is also the means for becoming more and more holy.

Romans 6 teaches us that when we have been spiritually baptized into Christ, we have "died to sin" (vss. 2 & 3). The "old self," that is, the part of us that rebels against God, has been crucified with Christ. Paul also talks about co-crucifixion with Christ in Galatians 2:20. This teaching is not an isolated proof-text.

Now, when a man is dead, he is free from sin (vs. 7). So God gives us the ongoing power of the cross not only to subdue the sin nature, but to crucify it supernaturally.

As long as we consider ourselves dead to sin through the cross and acknowledge that the Lord Jesus has come to reside in our lives to empower us for service, we will be "alive to God" (vs. 11).

Before salvation, you have no choice—you sin. You have no power to overcome it. And unless you accept Christ as your Savior, you will die in your sins. But when you believe that you have died to sin with Christ, sin has been defeated for you.

Now—as a Christian—you may choose to serve God or to serve sin. Which you choose will have a cumulative effect on your life: "You are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin resulting in death, or of obedience resulting in righteousness. . . . Just as you presented yourselves as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, resulting in further lawlessness, so now present yourselves as slaves to righteousness, resulting in sanctification" (vss. 16 & 19). e

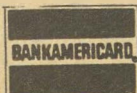

The Christians at Rome chose to enslave themselves to God (vss. 17 & 18). Will you?

On October 1st a hot Cleveland-based group entitled Ichabod will be laying down the chords for the first Pi Sig - Owls Beer Blast Boogie.

The brothers of Pi Beta Sigma and the sisters of Sigma Alpha Tau cordially invite everyone to boogie over to the Westerville Armory on October 1st at nine o'clock to heat up to the sounds of Ichabod and cool off with foaming amber liquid.

College presents one-act season

Workshop theatre has become an integral part of the Otterbein theatre program in the past years and the purpose of it is to give more students more opportunities to get involved in productions and to give senior students a chance to direct before they get out into the hard cold world with no experience.

This fall three one-acts are going to be performed in Barlow Hall at various times during the term. The first of these is IMPROMPTU. Directed by Deborah Banwart and assisted by Ruth Phillips, the cast includes Amy Vanek, Lauri Bundschuh, Carlton Ritenour and Scott Dillon. It will be performed on October 4 and 6.

MISS REARDON DRINKS A LITTLE will be next on October 22 and 24. The cast includes Cindi Skunza, John Ebner, Barb Hawkins, Stacy Reich, Melissa Carey, Lisa Abbott, and Doug Ramey. It will be directed by Steve Black and assisted by Ellen Marguiles.

Finishing the season on November 10 and 12 will be THE LESSON.

Bonfire crackles

The bonfire was in full blaze Friday night as the freshmen clad in pajamas performed the traditional dance around it. The sight was entertaining and enjoyed by the freshmen and upperclassmen alike.

The dance following the bonfire was a success also due to a good band, food, and conversation.

And it would be unfair to leave out the success of the weekend 'Young Frankenstein.' Mel Brookes' movie was enjoyed by many of the student body this weekend.

CPB would like to announce the next big event for fall term - Homecoming. All the festivities will take place the weekend of October 16th.

Soul

I would like to welcome the new incoming Freshmen and everybody else back to dear old Otterbein College. I would like to say a few words about can Blacks ever unite? I know a lot of people are saying here we go again with this ----.

This is very important not just to Otterbein College but to the world. I would like to quote something out of the September issue of Ebony magazine:

"Today, there is widespread disagreement on the mere meaning of Black unity, partly due to the white world's ploy to promote the ideal of complete unity for Black people, according to Duke University Medical School sociologist, Dr. Jacqueline Jackson. Blacks therefore grow to think that they cannot unite, and a self-fulfilling prophecy materializes because we never seriously move to attempt the impossible."

Is the doc right or wrong in your opinion? I'll tell you one thing, I am optimistic.

NATIONALLY KNOWN SPEED READING COURSE TO BE TAUGHT HERE IN THE COLUMBUS AREA

United States Reading Lab will offer a 4 week course in speed reading to a limited number of qualified people in Columbus.

This recently developed method of instruction is the most innovative and effective program available in the United States.

Not only does this famous course reduce your time in the classroom to just one class per week for 4 short weeks but it also includes an advanced speed reasing course on cassette tape so that you can continue to improve for the rest of your life. In just 4 weeks the average student should be reading 4-5 tmies faster. In a few months some students are reading 20 - 30 times faster attaining speeds that approach 6000 words per minute. In rare instances speeds of up to 13,000 wpm have been documented.

Our average graduate should read 7-10 times faster upon completion of the course with marked improvement in comprehension and concentration.

For those who would like additional information, a series of free, one hour orientation lectures have been scheduled. At these free lectures, the course will be explained in complete detail, including classroom procedures, instruction methods, class schedule and a special 1 time only introductory tuition that is less than one-half the cost of similar courses. You must attend any of the meetings for information about Columbus classes.

These orientations are open to the public above age 14. (persons under 18 should be accompanied by a parent if possible)

If you have always wanted to be a speed reader but found the cost prohibitive or the course too time consuming . . . now you can! Just by attending 1 evening per week for 4 short weeks you can read 7 to 10 times faster, concentrate better and comprehend more.

If you are a student who would like to make A's instead of B's or C's or if you are a business person who wants to stay abreast of today's everchanging accelerating world then this course is an absolute necessity.

COLUMBUS MEETINGS HOLIDAY INN

These special one-hour lectures will be held at the following times and places.

Thursday 9/30, 6:30 & 8:30

Friday 10/1, 7:30

Sunday 10/3 2:30 & 7:30

Monday 10/4, 6:30 & 8:30

TWO FINAL MEETINGS

Tuesday 10/5, 6:30 & 8:30

Wednesday 10/6, 6:30 & 8:30

THESE MEETINGS WILL BE HELD AT THE HOLIDAY INN, 328 W. LANE.

If you are a businessman, student, housewife or executive this course, which took 5 years of intensive research to develop is a must. You can read 7 - 10 times faster, comprehend more, concentrate better and remember longer. Students are offered an additional discount. This course can be taught to industry or civic groups at "Group rates" upon request. Be sure to attend whichever free orientation that fits best in your schedule.

Ke-wa-pa Krew cleans up

by Nancy Ballog

The letters KE - WA - PA CREW stand bold and black on yellow T-shirts of 28 Otterbein students. KE - WA - PA letters also don bulletin boards in dorms. But what is Ke - wa - pa? What does it mean?

Ke-wa-pa is the adopted name of the student custodians. The name originally comes from the Ke-wa-pa Company which operates in Westerville producing toilet bowl cleaner. The student custodians adopted the name Ke-wa-pa after the company bought the shirts. In this way the name Ke-wa-pa has become a popular word.

Carol Geisler, woman supervisor of the Ke-wa-pas, is in charge of fourteen women custodians. Cathy Burton, Janet Boving, Carol Creel, Cathy Kipfinger, Dee Danford, Deb Donough (alternate), Jocelyn Fu, Candy Grissinger, Jeannie Hickman, Connie Hiles,

Some Ke-wa-pa Krew members freshen up a dorm.

Gina Miller, Cindy Maxhimer, Vicki Penn, and Sue Truitt are the custodians who clean Mayne, Hanby, and Clements Halls. The women do general custodian work from taking out the garbage to sweeping the floors.

Jeff Burnett is the men's supervisor of the Ke-wa-pas. His twelve men are Craig Furry, Bill Fairchild, Dan Strine, Greg Keebler, Steve Bowles, Kris Nuhfer, Jeff Sibert, Randy Smith, Rick Draper, Denny Mohler, Doug Donough, and Paul Johnson. The men clean King, Davis, the Annex, and the Quad.

Both Jeff and Carol work under Dean Oldag and the Head Residents. This is the second year for the student custodian program which will continue for a few more years.

Soccer team swings into season

The Otterbien Soccer Team, hoping to rebound from a season - opening 4 - 3 setback to Capital last week, will play at Denison Tomorrow afternoon. The contest will be a rigorous test for the Cardinals, as Denison fields a solid varsity team.

This marks the second year for Otterbein's soccer program, which the players hope to eventually be recognized by the school as a club. Last spring they captured first place in the Westerville Parks and Recreation League.

This fall the schedule includes approximately 15 games. Among the foes are perennial powerhouse Ohio Northern and Ohio State.

Coach Nur Hussen notes that a big boost for the team is the "enthusiasm and excellent physical condition displayed by the individual players." He added, "The Capital game was more or less a scrimmage. The offense played well but the defense needs a little work."

Much of the success has to be attributed to Co-Captains Ricardo Murph and Roland Hamilton. They have worked hard to organize this program.

Roland Hamilton feels that the team is extremely competitive. He states, "Everybody goes into each game with a positive attitude. It doesn't matter who the opponent is — we're never awed. We think we can compete with any varsity team. Last year our team lost to Ohio State by only one goal."

Any student wishing to join the program is encouraged by Coach Hussen to contact either him or one of the co-captains. Practice sessions are held each weekday from 4:00 to 5:30 behind Engle Hall.

Casing the Conference

Off on the right foot?

by Mike Smith

This weekend's football games will either get me off on the right foot or put my first foot in the grave. Non-conference games prove to be the toughest to pick but here goes anyway:

Adrian (1-1) at Otterbein (0-1) — Both teams suffered defeats last week and are hungry for a victory. Look for the Otters in this one but not by more than eight.

Denison (0-0-1) at Capital (1-0) — Cap will be emotionally high for this one but not high enough, The boys from Granville should prevail by 14.

Marietta (0-1) at Georgetown, Ky. (2-0) — The pioneers lost a heartbreaker to Muskingum last week and I see no reason to change the trend now. Georgetown by 11.

Mount Union (0-1) at

Kalamazoo (0-0-1) — The purple raiders saw their feared ground attack cut to ribbons last Saturday and should wind thing up some this week; look for the Mount by six.

Ohio Northern (1-0) at Ohio Wesleyan (1-0) — This could be anyone's game but Northern gets the nod by three.

Butler (1-1) at Wittenberg (0-1) — Look for the defending NCAA champs to come out mad. Wittenberg by 14.

Wooster (1-0) at Kenyon (1-0) — Are the Lords for real? I seem to think so, for at least one more week. Kenyon by nine.

Oberlin (0-1) at Hiram (0-1) — This has to win the borinest game of the week award hands down. Hiram by three but don't wake me up when its over.

Muskingum (1-0) at Baldwin-Wallace (0-1) — This should be the top contest of the week. Muskingum looked poor in winning last week but don't count on it two times in a row. Look out B-W; the Muskies by one.

Ashland (1-1) at Heidelberg (0-1) — Ashland's record doesn't show exactly how good the eagles are. They're much too good for Heidelberg. Ashland by 12.

Cardinal gridgers hope to bounce back

After taking a 21-14 loss on the chin last Saturday against Kenyon College, Otterbein's football Cardinals hope to bounce back, meeting Adrian College tomorrow night at home.

It won't be easy as Otterbein head football coach Rich Seils classifies Adrian as a stronger opponent than last Saturday's Kenyon foe.

"They are bigger and stronger than Kenyon," Seils said, "They showed a lot of offense in their 51-0 opening win against Bluffton College. They will be tough to stop," he said.

Now 1-1 overall, Adrian took a 31-7 shellacking against Saginaw (Mich.) College last Saturday.

But that's a deceiving score as Saginaw managed 21 points in the first quarter, gaining a lead which they never relinquished.

"They are a much better team than they indicated Saturday. So are we," Seils said.

"We made a lot of mistakes you expect out of a young team. We'll improve. But our execution on the front line has to improve.

But Seils is not one to make excuses. "They played better football than we did. They controlled the line of scrimmage and converted 4 out of 5 fourth down situations. One of those was a fourth and eight... that hurts."

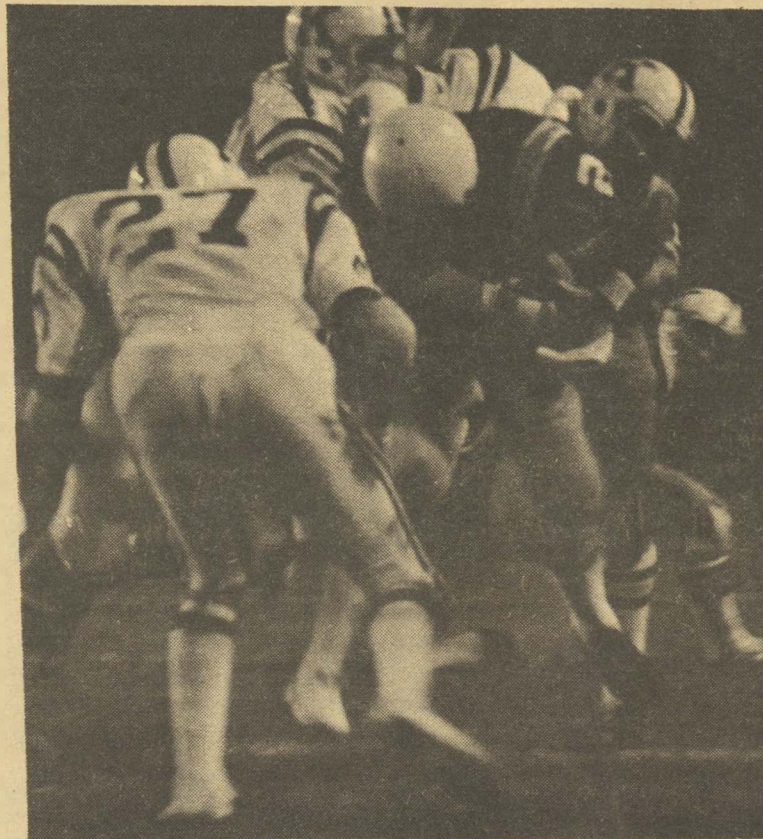

Three of those fourth down conversions came in Kenyon's final touchdown drive which was capped by a 33 yard TD pass.

The Otters will have to work to stop Adrian's ground game, formidable by any standards. Senior halfbacks Derrick Diggs and Paul Hannon are experienced enough to give sophomore QB Paul Downs breathing room.

An additional headache for the Otters is Adrian place kicker Dave Markle already 3 for 4 in field goals, having a near miss on a 55 yard attempt last Saturday, and 6 for 6 in extra point conversions.

"We needed to play good football to get on the track," Seils said. And Saturday at 7:30 p.m. the derailed Cardinals, again, try to get on the track.

Quarterback Bill Hillier slashes across the goaline for a second quarter touchdown in last Saturday's 21-14 loss to Kenyon.

Otters drop season opener to Kenyon

by Dan Thompson

The first football game of the year gave the home crowd at Otterbein little to cheer about, as the Otters were left on the short end a 21-14 count with the Lords of Kenyon College.

Opening quarter action proved to be defense dominated, as both clubs were content to try their ground games and experienced little success.

The game was deadlocked at zero until with 5:55 remaining in the first half Kenyon's Craig Davidson plunged in from one yard out. Otterbein responded with a drive of its own, and with the ball resting at the Lords' 19 yard line Bill Hillier found Bob Boltz free at the 4 for a completion which set up a Cardinal touchdown.

Hillier carried the ball to paydirt two plays later and knotted the score 7-7 as the half drew to a close.

Otterbein threatened slightly in the middle of the third stanza, but then failed to convert on fourth down at the Kenyon 26. The Lords took over there and put together a remarkable drive which amassed 21 plays and also ate nine minutes from the clock.

The Cards again failed on offense and Kenyon took over possession at their own 43 yard line. Seven plays later Lord quarterback Jack Forgrave hit uncovered Terry Brog in stride with a 35 yard touchdown strike and Kenyon pulled comfortably ahead 21-7, Tailback Bob Jennings put up the second Kenyon tally slashing in from two yards out. Tom Gibsoni kick was good and the score read Kenyon 14 Otterbein 7.
