Directors

CHARLES W. DODRILL, Director of Theatre at Otterbein College since 1958, holds an A.B. degree from Glenville State, an M.A. from Kansas University and a Ph.D. from Ohio State. Dr. Dodrill is past-president of the Columbus Arts Council and the Ohio Speech Association, and he is the current vice-president of Theta Alpha Phi National Dramatics Honorary. He is responsible for many innovations in the Otterbein theatre program, including the "guest star" program, New York and London Theatre Tours and the Summer Theatre program.

FRED J. THAYER, Designer-Technical Director at Otterbein since 1960, is a graduate of Bowling Green University with an M.A. in Theatre. He has completed residency requirements for the Ph.D. at Ohio State. Mr. Thayer has designed for the University of Toledo, Toledo Children's Theatre, Bowling Green and the Huron Playhouse. Among the 60 productions which he has designed and technical directed (about 45 at Otterbein) A Man for All Seasons is his recent favorite.

ROBERT CROSBY, Chairman of the Department of Speech and Director of Theatre at Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, joins the Otterbein Summer Theatre to direct Moliere's fine comedy, The Miser. Holder of the Ph.D. from Indiana University, Dr. Crosby has directed over 100 productions, with special interest in Shakespeare, American drama and children's theatre. He is director for the annual Ohio Wesleyan Shakespeare Festival.

TERI HIATT, a recent Otterbein graduate from Whitehall, returns to the Otterbein Summer Theatre for the third season, this time to direct Black Comedy and The Tiger and to act in the other productions. An outstanding actress with about 25 acting roles during her college career, Teri plans to pursue a professional career. Her favorite roles include Rosalind in As You Like It, Jeannie in Brigadoon, Elizabeth in The Crucible, Peter Pan, Sabina in Skin of Our Teeth, Cherie in Bus Stop and Viola in Twelfth Night.

PETIE DODRILL is a native Pennsylvanian with a B.A. degree from Penn State and an M.A. in Theatre from Ohio University. She has worked as an actress, director, designer and costume designer for several theatres, and she functions as Costumer and Children's Theatre director at Otterbein. She has created an active Creative Dramatics program for the Westerville Recreation Department, and she is a part-time teacher at Gahanna Lincoln High School.

Next Week

BLACK COMEDY and THE TIGER will play Tuesday thru Saturday, July 7-11. BLACK COMEDY, a farce written by England's outstanding playwright, Peter Shaffer, opens on a dark stage (which is light to them) and when a fuse is blown the lights come on (which is dark to them). The resulting fumbblings and confusions are "sheer slapstick." THE TIGER, an Off-Broadway award winning play by Murray Schisgal (LUV), is the comic story of a young man who kidnaps a young woman only to discover finally that she is a willing conspirator. The plays will be directed by Teri Hiatt and will feature the entire company.

Theatre Dinners

We are pleased to announce that we have completed special arrangements with Williams Grill for a THEATRE DINNER package to be served before any performance during the entire season. The dinner will be a 10 oz. steak with appetizer, salad, choice of potato, vegetable and beverage. Cost of the package will be $4 per person (theatre tickets are normally $1.75 and dinners $3.50) for non-season ticket holders and $2.75 for season ticket holders. Reservations for tickets and dinners may be made by calling the Campus Center Box-Office (882-3601) from 12 noon to 9 p.m. Monday thru Saturday, or persons with tickets may make reservations at Williams Grill.
