Directors

CHARLES W. DODRILL is Director of Theatre and Special Events at Otterbein. A native West Virginian, he holds an A.B. degree from Glenville State, an M.A. from the University of Kansas and a Ph. D. from Ohio State University. He is responsible for many innovations in the Otterbein theatre program since he began teaching here in 1958, including the overseas tour, New York Theatre Tours and now, Otterbein's first summer theatre program. Dr. Dodrill is also responsible for the Otterbein Artist Series and he is currently chairman of the Greater Columbus Arts Council.

DEENA FERRIGNO, Designer-Technical Director, received a B.A. from the University of Massachusetts, and an M.A. from the University of Michigan, where she acted as Technical Director and Designer of Children's Theatre for two years. She most recently has worked as assistant stage manager and sound technician for the American Conservatory Theatre in New York and San Francisco. We are delighted to have her with us for the second semester and summer while Prof. Fred Thayer is on sabbatical leave doing graduate work.

WILLIAM BRASMER is chairman of the Department of Theatre Arts at Denison University and Director of the Denison University Theatre. For fifteen years he was Managing Director of the Denison Summer Theatre and in his nineteen years of teaching at Denison he has directed over 75 productions. He produced and directed the first University Theatre tour of England which played successfully at the Edinburgh Festival in 1956. He received his training at the University of North Carolina, Northwestern University and the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts.

ROBERT STEGMILLER heads Bob Stegmiller Productions, a Columbus theatrical production service. He has worked with many non-professional local theatres as well as with professional groups. Recently he has been staging musicals for Columbus Independent Players. He has worked in numerous capacities for ten seasons of summer stock, including seasons at the Erie Playhouse, Peninsula Playhouse and several seasons at Playhouse-on-the-Green where he has worked at every conceivable job from apprentice to designer-technical director.
