Directors

CHARLES W. DODRILL, Director of Theatre at Otterbein College since 1958, holds an A.B. degree from Glenville State, an M.A. from Kansas University and a Ph.D. from Ohio State. Dr. Dodrill is past-president of the Columbus Arts Council and the Ohio Speech Association, and he is the current vice-president of Theta Alpha Phi National Dramatics Honorary. He is responsible for many innovations in the Otterbein theatre program, including the "guest star" program, New York and London Theatre Tours and the Summer Theatre program.

FRED J. THAYER, Designer-Technical Director at Otterbein since 1960, is a graduate of Bowling Green University with an M.A. in Theatre. He has completed residency requirements for the Ph.D. at Ohio State. Mr. Thayer has designed for the University of Toledo, Toledo Children's Theatre, Bowling Green and the Huron Playhouse. Among the 60 productions which he has designed and technical directed (about 45 at Otterbein) A Man for All Seasons is his recent favorite.

ROBERT CROSBY, Chairman of the Department of Speech and Director of Theatre at Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, joins the Otterbein Summer Theatre to direct Moliere's fine comedy, The Miser. Holder of the Ph.D. from Indiana University, Dr. Crosby has directed over 100 productions, with special interest in Shakespeare, American drama and children's theatre. He is director for the annual Ohio Wesleyan Shakespeare Festival.

TERI HIATT, a recent Otterbein graduate from Whitehall, returns to the Otterbein Summer Theatre for the third season, this time to direct Black Comedy and The Tiger and to act in the other productions. An outstanding actress with about 25 acting roles during her college career, Teri plans to pursue a professional career. Her favorite roles include Rosalind in As You Like It, Jeannie in Brigadoon, Elizabeth in The Crucible, Peter Pan, Sabina in Skin of Our Teeth, Cherie in Bus Stop and Viola in Twelfth Night.

PETIE DODRILL is a native Pennsylvanian with a B.A. degree from Penn State and an M.A. in Theatre from Ohio University. She has worked as an actress, director, designer and costume designer for several theatres, and she functions as Costumer and Children's Theatre director at Otterbein. She has created an active Creative Dramatics program for the Westerville Recreation Department, and she is a part-time teacher at Gahanna Lincoln High School.

Director's Corner

This production marks the 20th opening in the four year history of the Otterbein Summer Theatre. When we first opened our doors in the summer of 1967 with a production of The Fantasticks! we really did not know what to expect, both from our student company and from our audience. The first summer exceeded expectations, but the second and third summers witnessed some decline in attendance. Why? We really do not know. Perhaps the selection of plays, change in dates, company personnel — such factors are difficult to determine. This fourth summer has witnessed an increase back to our opening summer level, both in season ticket holders (about 40%) and total attendance. Whatever the reasons, we wanted to share that success with you. It is a measure of satisfaction to us to know that we have not only existed for four seasons but that we appear to be thriving. This is, of course, dependent upon you! So, our thanks for joining us and enjoying us!

I would be remiss if I did not express appreciation to numerous people and organizations for their support (without it we couldn't exist). A special "thank you" to Otterbein College and to the PATRONS listed on page 8 — their contribution (many for four consecutive seasons) has made it possible for us to secure the fine young talent in this company. The area news media, particularly the PUBLIC OPINION, COLUMBUS DISPATCH and CITIZEN-JOURNAL have made it possible for us to operate by providing superb coverage throughout the season.

I would especially like to thank Prof. Fred Thayer for fulfilling the heavy design and technical responsibilities inherent in undertaking five different productions in seven weeks, Teri Hiatt for functioning so well as director and actress, director Dr. Robert Crosby and costumer Petie Dodrill for sharing their talent with our company. Finally, I must express my appreciation to the 19 wonderful young people in the company. These capable and hard working young ladies and gentlemen have worked innumerable hours to bring you good theatre while learning their craft, thus fulfilling the double function of educational theatre to provide entertainment while learning the art and craft of the theatre. To all the members of the company and especially to Teri Hiatt, who has been with us three seasons, and to the second season members Debbie Bowman, Michael Hartman, Sue Lare, Dennis Romer, Tom Tilton and Pennie Wilfong, a hearty "thank you — well done!"

Dr. Charles W. Dodrill
