'Leaving Iowa' to be staged at Otterbein

Otterbein College Theatre will present the Ohio premiere of "Leaving Iowa," a warm and nostalgic comedy written by Tim Clue.

The plot focuses on a middle-aged writer searching for the perfect spot to scatter his father's ashes. In the process, he relives the summer vacations he spent trapped in the family station wagon as a boy.

Featuring the original world-premiere team of director Tony Caselli and lighting designer Dana White, "Leaving Iowa" will run April 27-30 and May 4-6 in the Campus Center

Theatre, 100 W. Home St.

The opening night performance on Thursday, April 27, begins at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a reception. The April 30 matinee begins at 2 p.m. All other performances begin at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $15 each and can be reserved by calling the Otterbein College box office at (614) 823-1109.

Indian musician to perform at Otterbein

Otterbein College's Enrichment Series will present world-renowned Indian musician Aditya Verma at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 26, in Riley Auditorium of the Battelle Fine Arts Center. Call (614) 823-1210 for more information.
