

URBAN REFLECTIONS: CONTEMPORARY THAI PHOTOGRAPHY

This exhibition features work by internationally recognized Thai photographers Lek Kiatsirikajorn and Miti Ruangkritya, whose sublime imagery gives unique voice to the 2011 floods in Bangkok, along the Chao Phraya River. The show questions notions of progress and our contemporary relationship with natural forces.

October 12 – December 9, 2016

Artists' debut exhibition in the United States.

Front:
Miti Ruangkritya (left)
Imagining Flood Series (2011)
Bangkok, Thailand
Giclée on archival paper

Lek Kiatsirikajorn (right)
Floating Through the Wreckage of Despair Series (2011)
Bangkok, Thailand
Inkjet on archival Awagami paper

THE MILLER
GALLERY

33 Collegeview Rd
Westerville, Ohio 43081
614-823-1792

Gallery Hours:
M-F 8a-4p,
Sa & Su 1p-4p
Closed holidays

OTTERBEIN AND THE ARTS
OPENING DOORS TO THE WORLD

[http://www.otterbein.edu/
openingdoors](http://www.otterbein.edu/openingdoors)

Department of Art
1 South Grove St.
Westerville, OH 43081

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

Non-profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Westerville, OH
Permit No. 177