

Homecoming Production "The Miser" To Be Presented By Cap And Dagger

Rehearsals for the Homecoming play, Moliere's "The Miser," started this week. This classic comedy will be directed by Prof. Marion Chase and produced by Cap and Dagger, campus dramatic society.

Dr. E. W. E. Schear, who retired from the faculty last

Debate Discussions Presented Thursdays

Prof. James A. Grissinger, debate coach, announced this week the forthcoming plans of the Otterbein Debate Team. In addition to their appearances during the year against other mid-west college teams, the squad will present a debate program each Thursday night here on the campus.

The program will consist of a series of discussions with the faculty concerning the National Debate Question, "Resolved. That the Federal Government should adopt a permanent program of wage and price control." Faculty members for Thursday's program were Profes-

June, will play the lead role of Harpagon, the miser. This will be his second appearance in an Otterbein production, as he also portrayed the lead role in the Centennial play "Each in His Time."

Others in the cast are Virginia Hill playing the role of Elise; Ken Kohn, Cleante; Don Skelton, Valere; Anita Shannon, Frosine; Mary Ann Ross, Mariane; Larry Firnauer, Master Jacques; Lewis Gray, La Fleche; Dick Rosensteel, Master Simon; Dean Saddler, Magistrate; and Pat Daly, Monsieur Anselme.

The play, set in the period of the French Renaissance, will be the first theatrical production to be presented in the newly-constructed Cowan Hall.