

Committees For 'Holiday'

Cap and Dagger has announced the committees for the Homecoming presentation "Knickerbocker Holiday," to be held in Cowan Hall, October 29, 30.

Musical direction will be under Professor Lee Shackson, Professor Marion Chase will be in charge of staging and technical director will be John Bullis. William Replogle has designed the set and will direct members of the stage craft class in its construction.

Allen Kepke will be in charge of lighting, and will have as committee members: Georgialee Korsborn, Patricia Noble, Chuck Selby, and Harvey Smith.

Publicity will be the responsibility of Anita Shannon and her committee of Maxine Bowman, Kay Constable, Betty Gibson, Ruth Harner, David Holman, Robert Long, and Joyce Shannon.

Chairman of the properties committee is Astrida Salnais. Her committee members are Joyce Bingham, Mary Ann Charles, Rolfe Korsborn, Joyce Miller and Frances Myers.

Shirley Amos has been selected committee. Working with her will be Sharon Allen, Shirley lected chairman of the ticket Baker, Jack Bilger, Jo Gilliland, Amelia Hammon, Everett Hodapp, Suzanne Hopkins, Sarah Howard, Helen Koehler, Nedra Lanham, Nancy Lee, Keith Leonard, Connie Loxley, Patricia Mizer, Velma Patterson, Ruth Packer, Jo Piper, Barbara Roseboom, and Hencie Williams.

Make-up will be under the direction of Al Norris and his committee composed of Shirley Booher, Marilla Clark, Margaret Hall, Marilyn Hartsook, Eva Holmes, Georgialee Korsborn, Nancy Masters, Shirley McCullough, Charles Selby, and Coralena Smith.

James Wagner will have charge of programs and Marshall Cassady and Marjorie Lambert will work with him.

Costumes will be under the supervision of Nancy Carter. Emily Bale, Marilyn Hert, Marlene Lenhart, Ann Reder, Margie Ruddock, Ruth Schilling, Dolores Talimore, and Marie Waggamon are committee members.

Nancy Masters will be the house manager.

Arledge, Jamison Crowned "Beanie" King, Queen Of 1954

Last Friday, before the bonfire festivities, David Aledge and Nancy Jamison were crowned "Beanie King and Queen of 1954." They were chosen by a committee on the basis of work done while building the freshman bonfire. Richard White, last year's beanie king, crowned Miss Jamison, and Nancy Masters, who substituted for Carol Peterson, crowned Arledge.

Miss Jamison, a brunette from Dayton plans to be a laboratory technician. She likes music and plays the piano. Her comment on being crowned queen was "The most surprising thing was when Dick kissed me!"

Arledge is a business administration major, who hails from Lancaster, Ohio. He likes the friendly atmosphere at Otterbein, and said he was "surprised" when he was chosen "beanie king."

YF's "Moonlight Hike" Scheduled For Sunday

Youth Fellowship will sponsor its annual "Moonlight Hike" this Sunday evening. Members of the group will meet at the Association Building at 6:30 p.m., and will leave from there for the chosen site, a mile west of Westerville. Campfire singing and refreshments are the program of the evening.