

Award - Winning Musical Enacted For Homecoming

"Brigadoon", staged in the highlands of Scotland, is being presented by the Music and Speech Departments as the Homecoming production. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. tonight and tomorrow night at Cowan Hall. Reserved seats may be purchased for tomorrow night at the Cowan Hall box office.

"Brigadoon" was awarded the New York Drama Critics' Award of 1946-47. This musical fantasy is the portrayal of an old Scottish legend about a town that disappeared and the episodes in the town while it existed. According to New York critics, Alan J. Lerner and Frederick Loewe captured a very suspenseful, but comical, plot for their musical.

Otterbein's cast includes: Jim Eschbach as Tommy Albright, Lew Gray as Jeff Douglas, Judy Lumbatis as Jane Ashton, Joan Durr as Fiona Maclaren, Bob Studer as Archie Beaton, Jack Hinton as Harry Beaton, Al Kepke as Mr. Lundie, Bob Burt as Charlie Dalrymple, Jerry Gribler as Angus McGuffie, Howard Weisz as Sandy Dean, Sheila Mason as Meg Brockie, Keith Leonard as Frank and Paul Koons as Andrew Maclaren.

The Modern Dance Club, the Men's Glee Club and the Women's Glee Club will present the dancing and choral numbers to complete the production.

Gov. Frank Lausche To Speak In Chapel

The highlight of next week's chapel programs will be the appearance of the Honorable Frank J. Lausche, Governor of Ohio, on Thursday morning. Governor Lausche is the Democratic candidate for senator from Ohio.

Monday, Mr. Ralph Cooper from the American Friends Service Committee will present a movie on weekend work camps. Mr. Cooper will meet with any interested students following the movie.

Tuesday, a student worship program will be presented by the YWCA.

The History and Government Department will be in charge of Wednesday chapel in celebration of United Nations Day.

Shackson To Attend Detroit Convention

Shackson And Chase Select Cast For Homecoming Play, "Brigadoon"

The cast has been chosen for the Homecoming play, "Brigadoon" under the direction of Professor Lee Shackson of the Music Department and Professor Marion Chase of the Speech Department. The cast is as follows: Tommy Albright, Jim Eschbach; Jeff Douglas, Lew Gray; Jane Ashton, Judy Lumbatis; Fiona Maclaren, Joan Durr; Andrew Maclaren, Paul Koons; Archie Beaton, Bob Studer; Harry Beaton, Jack Hinton; Mr. Lundie, Al Kepke; Charlie Dalrymple, Bob Burt; Angus McGuffie, Jerry Gribbler; Sandy Dean, Howard Weisz; Meg Brockie, Sheila Mason; and Frank, Keith Leonard.

All people interested in working on committees for plays will have the opportunity. The committees are: tickets, costumes, make-up, ushers, sound, lights, publicity, programs, and properties. All those interested please put your name in Joyce Shannon's mailbox by Monday noon. Please indicate your first two choices of committees.

Dick Charles To Head Pre-Medical Honorary

Alpha Epsilon Delta, national pre-medical society, held election of officers last spring. The new officers are as follows: Richard Charles, president; Ted Huston, vice-president; Astrida Salnais, secretary; Marion Jenkinson, treasurer; and Lois Vore, historian.

Bill Freeman and Paul Warnes attended the national convention held last April at Jackson, Mississippi.

Preparations are being made for the forthcoming Blood Drive.

Campus Calendar

Friday, September 28